Chapter 352 Don't interfere

Thinking about it makes me very angry, but that stinky girl didn't know that her reputation outside was already so stinky, and she thought she was so great.

"Baiyi..."

Yang Lin frowned and looked at his husband.

When Lin Baiyi saw his wife looking towards him, he felt helpless and could only nod, "Okay, listen to Sang Sang, I will accompany my mother to Aunt Guihua's place to have a look later."

"Um."

Yang Lin nodded.

"It's always reassuring to have things settled quickly."

...

When he came to the bamboo house the next day, although the nine rabbits were not jumping around, they were all alive. Lin Caisang first took blood from the other seven rabbits, and then took the blood from the two rabbits with the most stable toxins in their bodies.

Finally, an hour later, the medicinal materials in the solution were listed, and the two came to Jian'an City again.

Lin Caisang went to the eldest princess's mansion to meet the eldest prince, but Ya Molian was still sitting in a teahouse diagonally opposite the eldest princess's mansion, waiting for her, and did not go in with her.

In the eldest princess's mansion.

The prince's hand holding the detoxification prescription kept trembling. It took a long time before he came back to his senses and looked at Lin Caisang.

"Girl, the medicinal ingredients in your recipe..."

He swallowed, almost choking on his own saliva.

This is not a detoxification recipe. It is simply a rare medicinal material that cannot be exchanged for a mountain of gold or a mountain of silver.

"Other medicinal materials are easy to tell. I will go to the palace to find the emperor and order the imperial doctors to collect these medicinal materials. However, I have never heard of these two medicinal materials, Tianyang Pearl and Diyin Pearl. I have to go there first. Ask the imperial doctor where he can find it."

"Um."

Lin Caisang didn't say much, just nodded.

"Then I'll wait for news from the great prince."

"well."

The eldest prince responded and strode away.

Lin Caisang thought that the eldest prince would definitely not be able to come back for a while, so he told Aunt Bai a few words and left the princess residence to find Ya Molian.

After the two met, Ya Molian took her to stroll around the streets of Jian'an City. Soon after, they came to a cloth shop.

"What did you bring me here for?"

Looking at the word "Buzhuang", Lin Caisang felt confused.

"You don't want me to prepare a dowry for He'er, do you? Even if she is engaged now, it's still too early to get married. There's no need to prepare now."

When she mentioned the cloth shop, she thought of how her uncle had asked her third uncle to buy cloth to make clothes for Lin Caihe last night, but it was his third uncle who would buy it, so she would not get involved.

Otherwise, if he had bought the cloth back here, Lin Caihe would have thought that he was in a hurry to marry her off and was holding a grudge against himself.

Hearing her words, Ya Molian raised his hand and tapped her forehead.

"Whether Lin Caihe marries or not has nothing to do with you. You are not allowed to get involved. From today on, you are not allowed to ask about Lin Caihe again. You must keep it clean." He explained.

"Why?"

Lin Caisang asked puzzledly.

After all, Lin Caihe is also her sister. Although they are cousins, they have grown up together since childhood.

If she really doesn't care about anything, what will others think?

"You treat her like a sister. When did Lin Caihe treat you like a sister?"

Ya Molian could tell at a glance what Lin Caisang was thinking, and reminded him bluntly.

"If she had really regarded you as her sister all these years, she wouldn't have treated you like this. Regardless of the fact that she cares about everything with you, isn't this incident with Liu Yushui enough to teach you a lesson?"
