

Star of Space 452

Chapter 452 Do you want me to take advantage of the situation?

"Of course it will.

Yamo Lian could imagine this without even thinking.

"The soap you made in the bamboo house last time will definitely be very popular if sold in Jian'an City."

Moreover, he had never heard of or heard of that thing. It should be the only one with no other semicolons, right? He didn't care what others said, but he used it a few times and the soap was really good for bathing.

"Brother Mo Lian, you are really my military advisor. You think of everything for me." Lin Caisang said with a smile.

Jian'an City is really too far for her. These few times it was because it was more convenient to take on the mission, but it will not be so easy in the future. If the passage is closed, she can only rely on her own two legs.

Opening a pharmacy means practicing medicine, how can she survive?

But it's still okay to open a shop to sell some soaps, hydrosols, mosquito repellent lotions, etc., right? She used to make these things a lot, because she used to think that the things she made were more practical than the ones she bought.

Just in time to use it.

Moreover, others cannot make these things. If you want to buy them, you can only come to her house.

She was worried that there was no place to sell so many medicinal materials in the Golden Pearl Space. It would be great if she could make those things and turn them into silver.

"If we have time, let's go take a look. Even if we are doing business, we still have to find a shop.

She decided to open a spice shop and sell these special spices that only she could make, so that the people in Jian'an City were stunned with their own eyes, haha!

"No need to look."

Ya Molian said something to her.

"Um?"

Lin Caisang raised an eyebrow, puzzled.

Is this disagreement? Wasn't he the one who suggested it just now? Just when she was confused, she heard Ya Molian speaking to her again.

"As far as I know, the great prince owns a spice shop called Baixiang Shop. You can get it directly from him. After all, you saved his aunt."

Lin Caisang: "..."

She was really filled with dark clues.

"Brother Mo Lian, are you asking me to take advantage of the situation?"

Isn't it a bit too much to ask for a shop from the great prince? Although the tiger must have a lot of hair, it will be painful to pull one off.

"Isn't the task you accepted just to detoxify the eldest princess?" Ya Molian asked her.

"This... almost."

Lin Caisang's cheeks puffed up and he blinked cutely.

"Then now that you are prescribing prescriptions for the eldest princess to maintain her health, can't you ask for some benefits from them?" Ya Molian suggested.

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

Brother Mo Lian, is it really okay for you to be so fussy? Prescribing a prescription is just a matter of writing the names of a few medicinal ingredients. It really doesn't take much effort on her part.

But when he said this, she suddenly felt that it made sense. As long as she got rid of the poison, the subsequent events had nothing to do with her.

"Actually... that's not to say. Although I have detoxified the eldest princess, the subsequent maintenance is also very important. You see, just like when we go to buy something, if we buy it back, there must be someone Guarantee, right? If it breaks down once you buy it, there must be a maintenance period. Only when the thing is maintained can it be considered a real deal. "

She made an analogy. Even though she said so, she still couldn't do it as a doctor if she really wanted to just pat her butt and leave after detoxifying.
