Chapter 467 Have another idea?

"Um.

Ya Molian nodded.

"And I once heard that General Zhi not only went to the battlefield by himself, he also had two wives who also fought with him on the battlefield for many years. One of the wives gave birth to his second son on the battlefield."

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

Would she feel bad if she collected money from such a person?

"This young master is really well-informed. Indeed, the two wives of General Zhi are both capable warriors." Old Man Zeng raised his thumb at Ya Molian.

"But that was a few years ago. Now, I heard that his two wives no longer fight with him on the battlefield."

Common people like them just heard about it, and he didn't know what it was like.

"Um?"

Lin Caisang looked at Yamolian.

I heard there was something going on here. They were really two heroines. How could they suddenly not go on the expedition with their husbands?

"General Zhi's wife was slashed on the face by the enemy on the battlefield. From right to left, if she hadn't dodged quickly, half of her head would have been cut off." Ya Molian glanced at her and explained.

"hiss!"

Lin Caisang took a breath of cold air.

It is said that swords have no eyes on the battlefield. She has never experienced it and cannot understand it, but listening to Ya Molian's words, she really feels terrible.

"Wouldn't that mean your appearance is completely ruined?"

"should be.

Ya Molian nodded, but naturally he didn't know the specific details.

"I guess General Zhi wants to buy the scar removal cream for his first wife."

Lin Caisang: "..."

This is not true, is it? If it is true, then the reputation of her scar removal cream will fall on Mrs. Zhi.

"My scar removal cream can only remove superficial scars. It will definitely have little effect on Mrs. Zhi's injuries." She lowered her voice and said to Ya Molian.

"Huh? Have another idea?"

Ya Molian tapped the tip of her nose.

This girl is kind-hearted and wants to save anyone she meets, regardless of whether she will cause big trouble.

"hehe."

Lin Caisang touched the tip of her nose that he had tapped and smiled guiltily.

"Uncle Zeng, can you please let us stay here for one night?" Ya Molian looked at Old Man Zeng and asked.

"ah?"

Old man Zeng was stunned when he heard what he said.

"Ah what, Dad, hurry up and prepare the room. The young lady is going to stay at our house for one night." Zeng Yulang reminded him when he saw his father's stupid and unbelieving look.

If he hadn't been a young man, he would have prepared the guest room by himself. How could he see his father like this?

"Ah, okay, okay, I'll go get ready."

Old man Zeng came to his senses, nodded quickly, and went to get ready.

...

Not long after, people arrived one after another at the gate of Zeng's courtyard.

By chance, Zeng Yulang came outside with a table. When he saw someone coming, he raised his eyes and said to them in a cold voice: "The lady in the doctor said, first come first, first served, line up, otherwise she will be all alone." It won't heal."

After saying that, he went into the yard.

Lin Caisang was in the yard, watching the people who had already arrived queue up obediently after hearing Zeng Yulang's words, and was secretly surprised.

"Brother Yulang, what did you do to them to become so obedient?"

Zeng Yulang had a straight face just now, let alone those people, even she felt a little scared.

"Have no idea."

Zeng Yulang gave Lin Caisang a wry smile.
