

Star of Space 469

Chapter 469 I'll accompany you

"There is no planting here. I want to separate 5,000 acres of land here specifically for planting flowers." Lin Caisang said.

"For making flower sauce?"

Ya Molian understands what she means. In this girl's eyes, almost anything can be turned into delicacies. If she doesn't know how to cook it herself, she will write it out for him and ask him to help her try it out and see if she can do it. It worked.

But for these flowers, this girl doesn't need him, she can handle it alone.

"It's not just for making flower sauce. Isn't there a spice shop here? You can't make spices without flowers." Lin Caisang nodded, then shook his head.

Flower paste comes second, the key is spices. There is only one shop here, which is only used to make spices. Of course, many medicinal materials can also be incorporated, which will make it more convenient to sell and increase business.

"There are other places. Let's plant some fruit trees first. As for the medicinal materials, they can be planted together with the fruit trees. Otherwise, it would be too wasteful to only plant medicinal materials, right?"

she said again.

"Can't we also plant some fruit trees here?" Ya Molian pointed at the paper diagram in her hand and suggested.

"here....."

Lin Caisang hesitated for a moment and looked at the picture he had drawn.

This was just a rough idea, and there was no guarantee that it would be like this, but because she liked the sea of flowers and it was pleasing to the eye, she automatically removed the fruit trees.

Looking back now, thinking about it, she actually doesn't live here, so she should make use of all the places she can plant.

"It's also possible. Plant fruit trees first and then flowers. That would be better."

She nodded, agreeing with him.

"Take this, and I'll break it down in detail. It's really hard for me to think of what to plant in so much land at once. I have to think about it." She put a few pictures into Yamolian's hands, She returned to the table and worked hard.

"You should think about it carefully, but you should also rest early. Don't forget that you have something to do tomorrow morning, eh?" Ya Molian reminded her.

"I know."

Lin Caisang nodded, how could she forget what happened tomorrow? If it weren't for this, why would she stay here tonight?

"I won't forget it, Brother Mo Lian. You should go and rest early. I will be fine soon."

"I'll be with you."

How could Yamolian leave now?

If he went back to his room now, this girl would have to sit at the table all night, and she would not be able to rest peacefully until these things were taken care of.

I'm afraid that by that time, it will be dawn, and there is no need to rest, so we can go directly to Zhifu.

"Um."

Lin Caisang glanced sideways at him and nodded.

...

It's good to come to Jian'an City in the early morning. It's a good weather early in the morning. The sun shines on your body and it's very warm.

Unlike in Ye County, although the weather is already very hot, the continuous rain will make people feel bad. They want to take a machete to poke a big hole in the sky and collapse it all at once. Come down and that's it.

"Um!"

Standing at the entrance of the courtyard, stretching, she watched Ya Molian drive the carriage over.

Although Ya Molian was watching over her last night, she still stayed up very late. She really didn't want to get up this morning, but she couldn't do it. She had made an appointment a long time ago, so she couldn't break her promise, right?

"Come up."

Ya Molian leaned down, picked her up and put her on the carriage, causing Lin Caisang to scream in surprise.
