Chapter 526: Tie him up and take him to the room

Her general had worked hard for the court for so many years, but he still couldn't get a gold medal to avoid death.

"you--"

Zhi Lingyang was angry at her words.

"Come here, tie up the young lady to this general and send her to her own room!"

"What?!"

When Jin Lele heard that she was going to be tied up, her eyes widened.

In the past, when she was disobedient and caused trouble outside, although she was punished, she was never tied up. This punishment was too severe. How could she see this servant in this house in the future?

She will be laughed to death!

"General..."

Jin Anan also took a breath when he heard Zhi Lingyang's words.

He wanted to open his mouth to make peace, but was stared back at Zhi Lingyang's stern eyes.

"An'an, if you don't want your face to recover, just plead for mercy for your ignorant sister, and then wait until she offends the doctor's girl, and you will cry when she can't find anyone. Well, you still laugh?"

Zhi Lingyang questioned Jin Anan.

"Every time she gets into trouble, you will intercede for her. She has such a reckless temperament because she was spoiled by you!"

"I....."

Jin Anan opened his mouth, but couldn't say a word. He could only bite his red lips and look at Jin Lele.

"Sister, General, I'm just not convinced. It's not a big deal. Besides, I'm not doing this for my sister's benefit. As long as we tie up the girl and put a knife to her neck, we'll Will she dare not heal you?"

Jin Lele was still talking there.

"hiss!"

Jin Anan was also frightened when he heard his sister's words.

"Lele, how can you think so? That girl is a doctor, or a capable doctor. If she really acts like you said, she wants to put some poison on me or do something, Isn't it a piece of cake?

Do you want to kill your sister? "

"I...I didn't!"

Jin Lele was stunned, holding her neck in denial.

How could she want to harm her sister? This is her relative!

"If you don't have one, go and stay in your room!" Zhi Lingyang was also angry and shouted at her.

"Why are you still standing there? You tied the little lady to the room. No one is allowed to untie her without my general's order!"

"yes."

The servants who followed Zhi Lingyang a few times carried out his orders with fright, tied up the crying Jin Lele, and sent her directly back to her room.

"General, if we do this, will it..."

Jin Anan softened her heart when she saw her sister's sad look.

"Could it be something? Look at her look like that. She doesn't feel like she's done anything wrong at all. She's at home, and that girl from the doctor dares to come to your home to treat your injuries?"

Zhi Lingyang glanced at her and asked her.

"this....."

Jin Anan couldn't say anything else, knowing that her younger sister was indeed a bit impatient.

But this was also because she went to the eldest princess's house several times to ask for an audience, but was sent back by the eldest princess. Her sister was probably afraid that the doctor's girl was deliberately avoiding them, so she took a side road.

"Then I'll go and persuade her later."

"Don't mention her. I'll take you to the eldest princess's mansion first to see if you can meet the doctor's daughter." Zhi Lingyang didn't want to mention his little lady at this time, so he took Jin An'an there. The eldest princess's mansion.
