Chapter 535 So many requests

Thinking about Jin Lele together, she felt her brain hurt. She had never seen such a woman!

No, it should be said that she has seen Jin Lele's stubbornness in one person. As long as it is something she thinks is right, not to mention eight horses, even eight thousand horses can't pull it back. .

This person is Lin Caihe!

But Jin Lele is pretty good. At least she won't do anything detrimental to her family because of her own thoughts. Although she sometimes goes overboard, she does it for the good of her family.

"Of course, of course." Zhi Lingyang responded with a faint smile.

After all, Jin Lele was his wife. Although she had a bad temper and often got into trouble, Zhi Lingyang still looked a little embarrassed when Lin Caisang openly told her that she was wrong.

The smile is not so natural either.

"Okay, I have nothing to do here, so I'm leaving." After eating and drinking, it was time for her to go home and continue losing weight.

"Miss Lin, are you leaving now? Then when will you come over next time?" When Zhi Lingyang heard that she was leaving, he suddenly became anxious. He really wanted Lin Caisang to live directly in Zhifu. What a wonderful day. Guard his wife.

"How about I arrange a room for you next to An An's room, and you stay here..."

When he thought of something, he spoke to Lin Caisang, but before he could finish speaking, he was stopped by Lin Caisang's cold gaze.

"General Zhi, this girl is not someone who has nothing to do every day. You need to find someone for your wife who can serve her at any time. There should be a lot of them in the house, right?"

"Well."

Zhi Lingyang saw through her little thoughts and lowered her head guiltily.

On the side, the eldest prince just looked at the ancient imperial doctor and shook his head slightly. Zhi Lingyang just didn't understand the relationship between people. Lin Caisang was not related to him, no matter how he was. You can't have so many requirements like this.

"In seven days, I will come back to remove the stitches on Madam's face. As for the medical fee, you can send it to the eldest princess' mansion first, and that's it for now." After Lin Caisang finished speaking, he left directly.

"Miss Lin, you..."

The eldest prince originally wanted to follow Lin Caisang, but after thinking about it, he still felt that he should stay and give Zhi Lingyang a few words, and then looked at the ancient imperial doctor.

"Lao Gu, please send Miss Lin off for me, and I will have a few words with General Zhi."

"good."

The ancient imperial doctor was eager to go and deliver it himself. After receiving the order from the great prince, he left immediately without even saying hello to Zhi Lingyang.

"this....."

Zhi Lingyang stood there with an embarrassed face, not knowing what to do for a moment.

"General Zhi, I'm not talking about you, please tell me what you said?" The eldest prince stood up and looked at Zhi Lingyang.

"Even I know that Miss Lin cannot be offended. When she was in my aunt's house, she came and left whenever she wanted. I never stopped her. Miss Lin also knew her duty and never stopped her. It will delay my aunt's condition.

How could you...it's a good thing you didn't say some words, otherwise, what would you have done! "

"Your Majesty, Xiaguan... Xianguan is in a hurry, isn't he? His wife..." Zhi Lingyang also knew that he was too anxious, but the matter was her wife's fault. If he wasn't anxious, who would be?

"Your wife is your wife, not Miss Lin's. She can take the initiative to treat your wife's injuries, so you should be grateful to her, instead of asking her to take care of your wife on your behalf." She is not a maid in your house."
