Chapter 549 There will always be a time when she appears

"Chief, how about we wait in the shop she is about to open? Or do something for her?" A subordinate suggested.

"idiot!"

Before the leader could speak, Lao Shi glanced at him coldly and cursed.

"That Miss Lin is now the popular person in front of the eldest princess. She goes to the eldest princess's mansion every day for a stroll. Do you think she goes to the eldest princess's mansion to see the scenery? That's to establish friendship with the eldest princess."

"so what?"

The subordinate frowned and asked him.

They even dare to touch the eldest princess, are they still afraid?

"The guards in the eldest princess's palace are not vegetarians, they are elites recruited from the palace." Lao Shi said.

"If something happens to us in Miss Na Lin's shop, and if the guards of the eldest princess's palace find out the slightest clue, they turn around and drag us all out, will we all be caught in one fell swoop?"

"this....."

"Besides, who owns Miss Lin's other shop? It's a good thing. It's from the hands of the great prince. On the surface, it's a purchase, but in fact, such a profitable shop, the great prince said whether to sell it to Lin. Girl, don't you really understand what this means?"

Seeing that he had nothing to say, Lao Shi said again.

"Not to mention the ten thousand acres of fertile land, which was given by the emperor. Whenever anything happens, the emperor will be furious and order a thorough investigation. Do you think our place can really withstand a thorough investigation? ?"

After hearing what he said, the subordinate was speechless, and even the leader lowered his head, not knowing what he was thinking.

"Old Shi, what do you think we should do?"

The leader simply asked him.

They had previously thought of starting with Jin An'an, the eldest lady of the Zhifu, but with the Grand Prince's intervention, they were completely unable to do so, and there seemed to be no place for them to start elsewhere.

Seeing that Lin Caisang was about to leave, they couldn't even trace where Lin Caisang lived.

Come on, what the hell is this? The tasks his master has given him over the years have never been as difficult as this time.

"My subordinates don't know either. Otherwise, leader, you can ask the master. He will definitely know what to do." Lao Shi looked at the leader and said.

He also felt it. These few times they had followed Lin Caisang secretly, and a few orioles had been staring behind them, and they were staring very closely. If he guessed correctly, they should be trying to find their whereabouts. Come out and catch them all in one go.

It would really not be a wise move to provoke Lin Caisang again at this time.

"Chief, in fact, there is only one girl among them. She is not the only poison doctor now. Why should the master hold on to her? He can just find someone better." He suggested.

"I would like to tell the master."

The leader glared at Old Eleven angrily.

With the master's temper, who can tell him that what he has already decided is wrong? Otherwise, his head would still be on his neck and he would have moved long ago.

"Keep watching, there will always be a time when she appears." He had no choice but to tell Lao Shi.

"Yes, chief."

Lao Shi took the order and went out with another subordinate.

...

In the golden bead space, Lin Caisang was standing in front of the jade mirror, looking at the two words on the jade mirror - No!

"Why not? Can't we have a good discussion?" Lin Caisang asked the jade mirror in the same tone of discussion before.
