Chapter 561 A woman covered in wounds

"Um.

The eldest princess naturally nodded to what Aunt Bai said.

"Mother Bai, take more care of the Zeng family in the future. Since their family has followed... Miss Lin, we cannot wrong them even a little bit."

She warned Aunt Bai.

If she wronged the Zeng family, she would wronged her children. How could she allow it?

"Yes, I understand." Aunt Bai responded.

...

The matter in Jian'an City was settled, and Lin Caisang was ready to leave.

Leaving was originally a very simple matter, but after being sent off by Mr. Hua, she was sent outside Jian'an City. After bidding farewell to Mr. Hua, she drove off alone in a carriage.

But outside Jian'an City is the official road, and there are too many people coming and going. She can't even enter the Jinzhu Space.

Finally, she arrived at a relatively secluded place, under a big tree. She looked left and right and saw no one passing by, so she directly put the carriage into the pasture space and ducked in.

"scare!"

As soon as they entered the ranch space, they were stunned by a little guy caught on the wheel of a carriage, and almost screamed in fright.

He reached out, grabbed the little guy off the wheel, and held him in his arms.

"Little guy, when did you get out of the car? Why didn't you tell me? Well. She asked quietly to herself after tapping the little guy's head.

This is a young squirrel, still small, about the same size as a mouse, but very cute.

After thinking about it, her carriage stopped under a big pine tree just now. Could it be that the little guy fell off the branch at that time and fell directly onto her wheel?

But it was too late to think about that. She couldn't send it back anyway.

"Come on, you can just make do with living here. The space in my ranch is very good, and I have many friends, so I don't have to worry about getting bored at all."

She placed the little squirrel back on the ground and let it crawl into the grass on its own.

"Yu Jing, bring out all the books on mechanism techniques. I want to make a copy." After arranging the little squirrel, she said to Yu Jing.

Soon, many books on mechanism techniques were brought out and presented one by one in front of her. She took out the blank book she had prepared and started copying with a small pencil.

There is no other way, let her use the brush... It's better to let her go, the pencil can be used as it is, and her brother can also make do with it.

Night had fallen in Ya Village, and several figures flashed past in the night, directly entering the yard of Ya Molian's house next door to Lin's house.

After a while, an oil lamp lit up in a room.

"Put her on the bed." He took off the black scarf on his face, revealing a face that was clearly Ya Molian.

The person behind him holding a woman buried in blood was also covered in a black scarf. After hearing his words, he nodded and directly placed the injured woman in his arms on the bed.

"Palace Master, please go down and invite Miss Lin." Another person also took off his black scarf and said to Ya Molian.

He was banished.

"I go."

Yamolian didn't let him go, but turned around and went out, directly to Lin Caisang's room.

"What to do, what to do? Ban Jue, please think of a way quickly." After putting the woman on the bed, the masked man turned around, looked at Ban Jue for help, and asked.

Banished: "!!!"

At this moment, he really wanted to smash this man's head open and see what was inside?
