

Star of Space 606

Chapter 606 The day lily should be cold!

"snort.

Liu Rumei snorted coldly. After all, he pointed at Liu Yushui, his daughter, to lead her out of the predicament at hand, and did not care about her.

"I can't eat so much in the future. Your father has already discovered that I have used too much food at home. If I eat more, we two will not be able to eat anymore and we will both be hungry."

"How could my father do this?"

When Liu Yushui heard this, he pursed his lips and said angrily.

"Mom, didn't you go to the Lin family? Did you get any money? Let me tell you, Lin Caisang will definitely have a lot of money when he comes back from the county. If you can get it, we will have nothing to worry about in the future. .

"Why are you asking for money? Haven't you seen that my mother is like this?" Liu Rumei opened her mouth to let her daughter see her teeth clearly.

"I saw it."

Looking at her mother's teeth, Liu Yushui couldn't help but shudder and quickly lowered her eyes.

"Just because you were injured, we have more reason to ask Lin Caisang to pay for the money. We must get all her money, otherwise... Mom, just sit in their yard and don't leave. See if they can what to do!"

She now wanted Lin Changfeng to go to Ye County without money, so that Zhou Liang would be more secure.

If Lin Changfeng really passed the examination and Zhou Liang failed, then even if she married into the Zhou family in the future, she would still have to look at the faces of Lin Changfeng and Lin Caisang.

"you....."

When Liu Rumei heard her daughter's words, she almost fainted with anger. What would be the use of letting her go to the Lin family to make trouble again?

Oh, it was of some use. Look, her front teeth were knocked out, and she didn't know who knocked them out. She clearly didn't see Lin Caisang do anything at that time, and that old guy Lu Qiubo was even more I don't have the ability to hit her.

Thinking about it, I really saw a ghost.

"I'm not going. I want you to go. You're pregnant with the baby. It would be more useful to sit down." She said to her daughter.

"What?"

Liu Yushui couldn't believe what she heard.

Her mother actually asked her to sit in the Lin family's yard with her belly bulging. She just had fetal contractions, and the doctor told her to lie down well, so how could she go outside and walk around.

"Mom, you..."

"Okay, don't say anything else."

Liu Rumei saw what she wanted to say and interrupted her directly.

"Didn't you hear what your father just said? If I go to the Lin family again, he will kick your baby. Do you really want your father to do this?"

"I....."

Thinking of what she vaguely heard just now, Liu Yushui also hesitated.

Her father is really a rebellious guy. If she offends him, he will really do something like that. Then her protection will be gone. Just like Zhou Liang said, he wants to be promoted in the county. It was not a matter of Zhou Liang's mother saying a word for several aunts to come in.

"Then...I'll think of another way."

In short, she must not make Lin Changfeng proud. If she can't find a solution with her mother, then she will find another way.

"You, mother advises you to be calm and wait until the child is born before talking about anything else." Liu Rumei looked at her daughter, sighed softly, turned around and walked out.

"Hmph, if I really wait until the baby is born, the day lily will be cold by then!" Liu Yushui snorted and muttered to Liu Rumei's back.

Putting the nest head in her hand on the pillow, she climbed up with difficulty, closed the door, and lay back on the bed.
