Chapter 628 Ziweixing enters destiny

"How could the destiny of wealth and wealth fall on my head so casually? Do you think it is possible?"

"Is it impossible?"

Ya Molian asked her back.

If it's impossible, then why did he ask someone to calculate it?

"Sonny, there's something I don't know if I should tell you."

"Um?"

Lin Caisang raised her eyebrows and looked at him.

"Just tell me what you have to say, why are you being so serious?"

"When I went to judge your qualifications, you were indeed not destined to be wealthy, but..."

"But what?" Lin Caisang asked.

Why is there a but? Could it be that she is also destined to be a lone star?

"The Taoist priest predicted that you will be destined to be the Ziweixing." Ya Molian said.

"puff!"

This time, Lin Caisang was really drooling.

"Stop joking, Brother Mo Lian, do you know what Ziweixing is in your life? I am a girl, how is this possible?"

Ziweixing, also known as Emperor Star, is destined to be the emperor. As for her, a little girl born and raised in Ya Village, her biological father is Lin Baizhong. Could it be that Ya Molian is implying that she will rebel in the future?

"I'm not joking."

Ya Molian's expression was very serious, and she didn't mean to joke at all.

"I calculated the fates of you and Changhong together. You two brothers and sisters were born at the same time. But just like that, you were born from the Ziweixing star, while your brother really has nothing and is ordinary. One person.

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

Why does her brother have to be an ordinary person?

No, now is not the time to think about whether her brother is an ordinary person, but now is the time to think about the purple star on her head.

"Brother Mo Lian, is the Taoist priest you are looking for a charlatan? He must be a liar." She asked softly, ending with an affirmative sentence.

Why is Ziweixing in her fate? Regardless of whether she has this fate or not, she alone has never thought about being that great person and living freely in the countryside.

"Sonny!"

Ya Molian looked at her helplessly.

Could he find a charlatan to tell his fortune? That is of course impossible.

"Okay, okay, Ziweixing will be Ziweixing."

What could Lin Caisang say? He could only nod.

No matter what Ziweixing she is, if she really is Ziweixing, let her be a local emperor in Yacun. It's actually quite good, isn't it?

"What are you going to do with Chief Ya's family?" she asked.

It is impossible for Ya Molian to say this to the Ya clan leader himself. The Ya clan leader must have overheard it, or he did something scandalous in secret.

"This is easy to handle, just leave it to banishing." Ya Molian said directly.

He's just the head of the Ya clan, so there's no need to go to war. The family members are too easy to deal with.

"Sonny, is there anything else you haven't asked me?" he asked.

"cough."

Hearing this, Lin Caisang coughed heavily and looked at him seriously.

"Are you sure you want me to ask you?"

"You...ask, or should I say it first?" Ya Molian hesitated and asked.

"Then tell me."

Lin Caisang didn't ask any more questions, because he really didn't know how to ask this question. It was better to let him talk about his thoughts first.

"that....."

Ya Molian opened her mouth and said only two words, then closed her mouth again. After a while, she looked at her again.

"Promise me you won't be angry with me after I say it."

Lin Caisang: "..."

Then what else does he have to say? Isn't it okay if they know it well?
