

Star of Space 657

Chapter 657 Someone urges you to go

"Those people, there will be people who can save them, but..." Ya Molian stopped talking and sneered.

"What you want to say is, even if you don't want to save, someone will force you to go there?" How could Lin Caisang not understand the thoughts of those people.

A purple light appeared on the mountain top for no reason. Not to mention those people who were in high positions and were already obsessed with fame and fortune. Even she was a little curious after hearing about it, and thought it would be best to go take a look. Of.

"That's exactly the reason." Ya Molian smiled.

"You go and get some sleep first. I'll be back soon."

Lin Caisang: "..."

Now they are discussing things, and she has also understood some of them. At this time, the sleepyhead has long disappeared, where can she still sleep?

"You discuss yours, and I'll listen to it by the way," she said.

Hearing this, Ya Molian was stunned for a moment, and then realized that he had aroused the girl's curiosity.

"Then come over here."

He pulled Lin Caisang up from the chair and sat together where he was sitting just now.

"Go on, what's going on over there?"

"Palace Master, there are many people in the palace who are very curious about the top of the mountain. If we hadn't discovered it in time, many people would have been coaxed to go to the top of the mountain. Fortunately, those few were secretly causing trouble in the palace. The person has been captured by His Highness.

The subordinate continued.

"It's just that on the top of the mountain, I wonder if the palace master has made up his mind not to go?"

"Why should I go?" Ya Molian sneered and asked him.

Does he have to go if they want him to? If it was so easy to get to the top of the mountain, why were they so bad? Would such a good thing happen to an unpopular person like him?

Just ridiculous.

"Someone has already urged you to go." Lin Caisang asked with a smile.

"The third prince of the Wei Kingdom went to the top of the Baiyindong Mountain with those people and disappeared together. Therefore, they naturally want someone to go to the top of the Baiyang Mountain to bring him back."

Ya Molian curled up her slightly cold thin lips and explained.

"So, they didn't dare to go themselves, so they decided to focus on you?" Lin Caisang asked.

"In their hearts, I am a damned person. If there is any errand that leads to death, it will naturally fall on me." Ya Molian sneered.

"That's true."

Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows and nodded.

"They sent you there. It would be no loss to them to die on the top of the Baibind Mountain. At most, they would send people to rescue the Third Prince later. The Nine Lotus Palace has already been well established. They only need to send a few capable people. Just take over Jiulian Palace.

But taking a step back, I sent you and rescued the Third Prince, then you can still return to your original position and continue to work for them. They have nothing to lose. Anyway, they think they can still control it now. your. "

"Ah."

Ya Molian sneered.

These people thought well, but they really regarded him as a fool who didn't understand anything. Do they think he was able to expand the Nine Lotus Palace to such a large area in recent years just because they had the support behind him?

"It's just that why didn't they think about it? If you were asked to save the third prince, then the third prince would be unlucky and be directly defeated by the evil spirit of your evil star. How unfair that would be. "

Just when Ya Molian was thinking that it was impossible and he wouldn't go, she heard Lin Caisang say something faintly again.