

Star of Space 678

Chapter 678 I have nothing to say!

"this....."

When the stepfather heard Lu Qiubo's words, he suddenly didn't know what to say.

Who can compare their hearts with her? Does he have a family fortune as big as Lin Caisang? Does he have the support of Lin Caisang and Ya Molian behind him? What's wrong with letting Lin Cai take some of his own stuff out of the sauna?

But he couldn't say this either, otherwise, not only Clan Leader Lin and Li Zheng, but also several clan elders from their same clan would have to tear his old bones apart.

"That's what I said, don't take it seriously."

"snort."

Lu Qiubo snorted lightly and said nothing more to him.

She had finally figured out that this step clan elder was venting his anger on the same person as Ya clan leader. The Lin family would never have anything to do with such a person in the future!

"Clan Chief Lin, Li Zheng, look, Sangsang sets a penny for each household every day. Is that okay?" she asked Chief Lin and Uncle Li Zhengjin.

"this....."

The two looked at each other and nodded at the same time.

"A penny a day is indeed cheap, but this is what everyone means, and it makes sense. Chief Lin, in your opinion, should you send someone to handle the cash collection, or should you let Sangsang do it yourself? Choose someone?"

Uncle Li Zhengjin asked Patriarch Lin.

"Sangsang, what do you mean?"

Patriarch Lin looked at Lin Caisang and asked her opinion.

"Grandpa, the patriarch, should help me do it. I remember when it rained heavily this year, there were several houses in our village that were in disrepair and most of them collapsed. Grandpa, please help me collect the money." Come up here and find a few people to help them repair their houses with the money."

Lin Caisang said.

Those families whose houses are in disrepair are almost all without children, or they are elderly people whose children have starved to death due to disasters. They have no one to take care of them. Their homes are always dilapidated, and it is normal for their houses to collapse.

She really hadn't thought about selling water, but she didn't want everyone to think that she could get everything for free. Of course, she had to charge money.

But what about the money collected? She couldn't keep it in her own hands, so she had better spend it quickly.

"There is also the school in our village. I saw that a large section of the wall on the north side has collapsed. The old man can't repair it alone. I asked the patriarch and grandpa to find a few people to repair it. Anyway, it seems that in our village it can be repaired. Repair all the places that have been repaired, and use this money."

"well."

Patriarch Lin responded repeatedly.

This idea of Sangsang is really good, and it will prevent others from gossiping about Sangsang in the future because Sangsang received this money.

"Then...Old Mo, I'll leave this matter to you. You learned your accounting skills from a restaurant. You must write down everything clearly. Do you understand?"

"Clan leader, don't worry, I will definitely remember it clearly." Lin Mo clan elder nodded and took matters into his own hands.

The step clan listened to their conversation, and almost all of her yellow teeth were chewed into pieces. She wanted to take advantage of Lin Caisang's collection of money to step on her, but in the end, the money was not in her own hands. Well, she has already found a place to go.

The key is that this place leaves everyone speechless!

Could this Lin Caisang really be a monster from somewhere? Why do these damn ideas come one after another? It can make people so angry that they almost die!
