

Star of Space 685

Chapter 685 He is her biological uncle after all

"What about Chief Lin and Chief Ya? Have they thought of any solution?" Liu Baixiao asked immediately.

Now he doesn't go out often. He lets Liu Rumei inquire about the outside affairs and do the farm work. Such a life is perfect. He feels that he has been in the Liu family for half his life, and now he can be proud of himself.

"I have thought about it." Liu Rumei nodded.

"The head of the village and Chief Lin have decided to go to Lin Caisang's wild mountain to fetch water."

"Why don't you go and fetch it quickly? What are you talking about here?" Liu Baixiao glared at her.

Lin Caisang, that little girl, is his niece. How much water he wants is just a matter of a word.

"This..."

Liu Rumei was in a dilemma and looked at Liu Baixiao.

"You can't just fetch this water casually. You have to pay silver to fetch water every day, one copper coin a day."

She raised a finger in front of Liu Baixiao and said.

"What?"

Liu Baixiao jumped up from the stool in shock.

"She needs a copper coin just to carry water. Is Lin Caisang trying to steal money? Does she think that other people's money comes from the wind? The water falls from the sky, and it doesn't belong to Lin Caisang alone. Why should she take money?"

"The pond is on the wild mountain of Lin Caisang." Liu Rumei said weakly.

Before, she also won over several women in the village, who could talk to her and teach her how to grow vegetables and how to use all the vegetables in the field.

Because she is now able to save money, she can use the old vegetable sticks to eat her stomach, otherwise, she would not have the strength to work and would have starved to death.

"Ugh!"

Liu Baixiao sipped with disdain.

"Lin Caisang, you little bitch, I want to see if she dares to take my copper coins, I am her uncle! You go to fetch water tomorrow, I want to see if she dares to take my copper coins, and you are rebelling against her! If she really dares to take it, I will break her legs!" Liu Rumei: "...". This Liu Baixiao, she must have been blind to like him, right? Apart from having a good-looking face, he is really useless. Now that he has fallen to this point, what else can he do except showing off at home? He can't do anything! "Baixiao, the one who collected the money is not Lin Caisang, but the head of the Lin clan." She reminded Liu Baixiao. "What's wrong with the head of the Lin clan? Humph, isn't it the money collected for Lin Caisang?" Liu Baixiao snorted heavily. "Go and tell Lin Caisang to deliver water to my fields starting tomorrow. She's getting engaged, so let her fiancé carry it. That barbaric thing has plenty of strength. Let's do it!"

"What? Let's do it?" Liu Rumei was stunned and looked at Liu Baixiao speechlessly.

Is this a dream that has not yet been awakened? Lin Caisang is no longer the Lin Caisang who let them bully her before. She is so powerful. How could she give them water for free?

Let Ya Mo Lian deliver water to their fields. It's more like a dream, right?

"Go and tell Lin Caisang now."

Liu Baixiao didn't see Liu Rumei's ugly face at all, and continued to speak.

Liu Rumei: "!!!"

She went to tell Lin Caisang, she must be crazy, now she dares to go head-to-head with Lin Caisang, that stone, can she beat him?

"Baixiao, why don't you go and tell her? You know, Lin Caisang and I don't get along. If I go and tell her, I'm afraid that girl will stop giving us water. It's better for you to go and tell her. After all, you are her uncle."
