Chapter 779: Selling dog meat for sale

"I heard that our Imperial Master is not afraid of anything but leopards. He was bitten by a leopard before and almost died.

"No, these two are really..."

Listening to the whispers of the people, Lin Caisang was speechless for a while. It was really just for convenience that she brought the panther out of the pasture space for a walk. Who knew that the national master Su Yang would be afraid of leopards.

"The Imperial Master is afraid of leopards, why didn't you tell me?" She lowered her voice and asked Sui Ziyou beside her.

"Sister-in-law, don't you think that the more we bring things that people are afraid of, the more people will respect us?" Sui Ziyou whispered in her ear.

Lin Caisang: "..."

That's true, it's true.

"Then take it with you, Ziyou. Go and take off the notice, and I'll take a look." She ordered.

"yes."

Sui Ziyou immediately walked over, took off the notice, and returned and handed it to Lin Caisang.

"Sister-in-law, if you can save Su Ri, you can get ten thousand taels of gold. The emperor's intention seems to be implied in this imperial list, which is really interesting."

"Let me see."

Lin Caisa took the notice and looked at it carefully.

"It's true."

Does the emperor of Weiguó pay so much attention to solemnity? He was actually willing to pay ten thousand taels of gold and a thousand-year-old snow ginseng for his son.

Putting gold aside for the moment, this thousand-year-old snow ginseng is really something that can only be found but cannot be obtained. The emperor is willing to give it to the son of a minister as a reward for curing his illness?

"Gold doesn't matter, this thousand-year-old snow ginseng is really rare."

"If I remember correctly, there is only one thousand-year-old snow ginseng in the royal family of the Wei Kingdom, which is regarded as a national treasure. When the emperor's favorite concubine got sick and there was no cure, the thousand-year-old snow ginseng was secretly used. Lost."

Sui Ziyó lowered his voice and said.

"What?"

Hearing this, Lin Caisang's eyes widened.

"That's not selling someone else's meat, that's deceiving people."

She cured the person, but found out that the thousand-year-old snow ginseng she wanted most was just a big white radish. Anyone who tried to do this would be pissed off.

But it happened that the person who deceived people was the royal family of the Wei Kingdom. Who dared to make this matter a big deal? They could only suffer the loss of being dumb in secret.

The point is, this thousand-year-old snow ginseng is something that many people dream of. Many of the royal family of the Wei Kingdom have been raided by thieves because of this thousand-year-old snow ginseng, right? Not only did this girl use snow ginseng, she also wanted to graft this disaster onto others.

How come the royal family of the Wei Kingdom has all these vicious people?

"Sister-in-law, do you still want to save this person?" Sui Ziyu asked.

"Can I not save you?" Lin Caisang asked her.

She accepted the task, and she didn't just do whatever she wanted. If she followed her wishes, she would turn around and want to leave, but she had to be able to leave.

"As soon as it comes, I'll make peace with it." She took a deep breath and said.

Anyway, she didn't really come here to save a scumbag, she just wanted to know how Brother Mo Lian was doing?

Let's go in first and then talk.

"Walk."

After saying the word "go", he was about to lift his feet when he heard movement behind him and they both turned around at the same time.

Lin Caisang looked at the battle behind her in astonishment. A group of guards surrounded a sedan and came to them. Then, all the guards stared at her, Sui Ziyu, and the people beside them. That black panther.

"Take it!"
