Chapter 790 No, forget it

Butler Xin looked at the porcelain bottle in Lin Caisang's hand, his eyes bright.

The medicinal powder in this porcelain bottle can detoxify the poison on his young master's body. This girl is indeed a great person. After a while, she already had the antidote.

"In this porcelain bottle of yours, is the antidote?"

"no."

Lin Caisang replied directly to him.

"no?"

Butler Xin was dumbfounded.

How could it not be? He really saw that after the silver needle was sprinkled with powder, it did not turn black when placed in the tea cup.

"this....."

He lowered his head and looked at the tea cup that Lin Caisang casually placed on the table. The next moment, he was frightened.

"Are you talking about this? If you want to detoxify your young master, I'll give it to you."

Lin Caisang handed the porcelain bottle in his hand to Butler Xin.

Hearing this, Butler Xin trembled all over and took a step back in fright.

"No, no, I don't dare."

How dare he? Didn't he see that the teacup that was just placed on the table now had no bottom? Even the tabletop has been corroded with a hole.

He thought his life was too long, so he dared to take the porcelain bottle into his hand, and it wasn't like he didn't want his hand.

"No, forget it. ~"*°•. ~°. •°*"~"

Lin Caisang put the porcelain bottle back into the small satchel on his waist, then picked up the cup with the black water poured out of it, took out a dagger from the small satchel, and walked towards Su Ri.

She knelt down and cut Su Ri's arm directly. Blood spurted out, and she just caught it in the cup.

"hiss!"

Butler Xin gasped when he saw this.

This girl is so ruthless that she actually stabbed his young master directly. You know, even the adults in his family have never touched a hair of his young master. If his young master knew the truth, he would definitely want to beat him to death. This girl?

However, with Lin Caisang's fierceness, it was not certain who would be killed.

Sui Ziyou stepped forward, took the small half glass of blood from Lin Caisang's hand, and watched her diagnose Su Ri's pulse.

After a long time, Lin Caisang took back his hand, took out a handkerchief, wiped his hands, and came to Butler Xin, "How long has your young master been poisoned?"

"I...don't know."

Butler Xin shook his head with embarrassment.

His young master is so fat and has been suffering from chronic illnesses. He suffers from a lot of ailments and is infected with a strange poison. How could they know when he was infected? They always thought it was an illness rather than poisoning.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang shook his head.

"Forget it, I won't ask you anymore, take me to see your adult first, I have some medicine and ask him to prepare it quickly."

"Yes, girl, please come with me."

Butler Xin nodded quickly and took Lin Caisang out.

At this time, Sui Ziyou had already poured the blood in the teacup into a porcelain bottle, threw the teacup away, and followed him out.

...

"Is there a doctor who wants to treat Su Ri?"

In another mansion in Shaohua City, the man sitting at the head heard the servant's reply and laughed unconsciously.

"It's quite interesting that someone dares to treat a person who has done many evil things despite the whole world. I wonder which doctor doesn't care about his reputation so much."

"Master, my subordinate went to inquire about it, but did not inquire about the information about the two girls entering the city. It seems that the two girls appeared out of thin air," the subordinate replied.
