Chapter 831 Can I still run with long legs?

He pointed out.

"Your Majesty is asking this concubine to leave the palace and go to Prince Mo's Mansion?" Concubine Lian was quite shocked.

How can it be so easy for a woman in the palace to leave the palace? Only princes and princesses always come into the palace to pay their respects to their mothers and concubines. How can a concubine enter the palace to see her son?

The emperor is really willing to do anything for the sake of Lin Wang?

She secretly concealed her surprise and smiled at the emperor.

"Your Majesty, how can I leave the palace at will? If the Queen Mother and Queen Mother find out, I will definitely be punished for bewitching the Emperor. What's more, I... have no reason to leave the palace to see Mo'er.

I originally thought there was nothing wrong with letting Sui Zimo bring Sui Zilin back, but now...

She changed her mind. Considering how much the queen cared about Sui Zilin, she could never let Sui Zilin return to Shaohua City alive. The legitimate prince of the Wei Kingdom must die in Baibin Mountain!

"It's not simple yet."

The emperor chuckled.

"I heard that Mo'er brought a woman into Prince Mo's palace, and the two of them behaved very intimately. As Mo'er's mother-in-law, you should naturally take care of her, okay?"

He had already thought of a reason for Concubine Lian to leave the palace.

"This...the emperor is right." Concubine Lian smiled and could only agree.

"As for the Queen coming to you this morning and talking about King Lin's affairs, you should also mention it to Mo'er by the way. He has delayed it long enough and it's time to set off to Baibind Mountain to rescue Lin'er.

"Yes, I understand. I will tell Mo'er." Concubine Lian responded.

After Concubine Lian made it clear, the emperor left without even eating.

At the entrance of the palace, Concubine Lian looked at the emperor's retreating back, with a cold smile on her lips, "We haven't finished the matter yet, so you can't wait to share the good news with the queen? Haha."

When the time comes, she will let the emperor and queen know who has the last laugh!

"Your Majesty, do you want to leave the palace now?" Grandma asked from behind.

Hearing this, Concubine Lian's cold eyes were like knives, and she glanced at the nanny.

"Why are you so anxious? Prince Mo's Mansion is right there, can you still run away? We'll go there early tomorrow morning!"

Does she need to be in such a hurry? It doesn't matter to her whether she is dying or not. There are a lot of people who are anxious, and she is happy to watch the show for a while longer.

...

Prince Mo's Mansion.

In the back garden, the two of them were sitting among the flowers. There was a pot of scented tea in front of them. Ya Molian poured a cup for Lin Caimulberry.

"My stone fell into the water, and Shaohua City really couldn't calm down anymore." Lin Caisang took the tea cup and said to Ya Molian.

The matter of the dignified King Mo returning to the palace with a woman must have spread a lot. There must be some movement from the emperor. Not only the emperor, but also other people may want to come and find out.

"Brother Mo Lian, what are you going to do then?" she asked.

"What can we do? Go directly to the palace and ask for someone from my father." Ya Molian said.

"You want someone? Who do you want?"

Lin Caisang blinked, not understanding what he meant.

Is there anyone in the palace worthy of her brother Mo Lian? If there were really talented people in the palace, why would the emperor place all his hopes on Brother Molian?

"Aren't you going to go with me?" Ya Molian looked at her and said quietly.

Although, he really didn't want to take this little girl with him. The top of the Baibind Mountain was too dangerous.
