

Star of Space 850

Chapter 850 Birthday is coming soon

"Yeah.

Lin Caisang nodded.

It's just that this dress is so difficult to make, it's almost like forcing her to use all her skills.

"Ziyou, please pay attention to those ice butterflies in the future. As long as they produce seeds, take good care of them. Ice silkworms are rare and the quantity is large. I want to make more clothes for Brother Mo Lian."

However, I hope that I will gain something when I go to Baibind Mountain this time.

If it was just ice silk, she really didn't dare to put it on Ya Molian, because the ice silk was too cold, not to mention the place in Shaohua City was so cold, Ya Molian's physical condition must not be able to withstand it.

But if she has Thousand Needles Jade and turns it into white spider silk in the golden bead space, she can combine the two kinds and make more clothes.

Or in other words, just do a whole set.

In this way, wearing the Yamolian on the body can not only prevent others from attacking, but also prevent poisonous attacks in the body.

"OK."

Sui Ziyou responded.

"Sister-in-law, actually you don't need to be in such a hurry. Although Brother Mo's birthday is coming soon, he has never taken this birthday seriously, and no one has ever given it to him. It doesn't matter how many days later it is."

After thinking about it, she said to Lin Caisang again.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang paused for a moment while sharpening the white spider silk scissors in her hand, and looked up at Sui Ziyou.

"What did you say?"

Did she hear it wrong? Ya Molian's birthday? If she remembered correctly, wasn't her brother Melian's birthday in winter? It should be more than two months later, right? Why is it almost here?

Could it be that Ya Molian's so-called birthday in winter is not actually his real birthday, and everything is fake?

"Brother Mo Lian's birthday is coming soon? When?"

"Just...nine days left."

Sui Ziyou counted on his fingers and said.

"Nine days left..."

Lin Caisang narrowed her beautiful eyes and counted these nine days.

At that time, she and Brother Molian should have been on their way to Baibind Mountain, right?

What a great emperor who defended his country, and asked him to save another son on his son's birthday. He really took himself seriously, didn't he?

Or maybe the emperor of the Wei Kingdom never remembered the birthday of Brother Molian at all, because in his heart, it was easier for this son to be alive than to be dead?

Such an emperor, let alone an emperor, is not worthy of being a human being!

"I understand." She took a deep breath and said to Sui Ziyou.

"What? Sister-in-law, you don't know Brother Mo's birthday, right?" Sui Ziyou finally understood and asked in surprise.

"I always thought his birthday was in winter."

Lin Caisang replied while continuing to rub the white spider silk.

"You were talking about Brother Mo's birthday in winter, I know." Sui Ziyou spoke again.

"I heard from Jiang Zuo that Brother Mo never celebrated his real birthday, only his birthday in winter. It was said that it was because a person saved Brother Mo's life that day and treated him like a family member, so Brother Mo felt that that day This is the day of his rebirth."

She thought that if her cousin thought this way, he must have come out of the shadow of his unscrupulous parents, right?

However, Lin Caisang fell silent after hearing Sui Ziyou's words.

Because she knew very well that the person Sui Ziyou said saved Ya Molian was her father Lin Baizhong. Her father had told him about it at home at that time, and she thought it was a coincidence that it happened to be the day when Ya Molian was born. Got him.
