

Star of Space 858

Chapter 858 It must belong to our Zhou family!

"Madam, madam, I will help you up. The two maids cried and helped my wife up. At this time, the driver woke up and helped to help Mrs. Zhou into the carriage.

"Ma'am, are you okay?"

The maids were extremely scared. If they failed to protect their wives, she would definitely skin them when they returned. They could only take good care of their wives at this time in order to atone for their sins.

Therefore, one of them wiped Mrs. Zhou's face, and the other checked her injuries.

Mrs. Zhou pursed her muddy lips, and her whole body was trembling. She was afraid, not of the three ruffians, but of Lin Caisang, a woman she had never cared about before.

It wasn't until this moment that she realized that what happened just now was not a coincidence, but Lin Caisang's intention.

She must have known about her plan, knew that she was dealing with Lin Changfeng and would come here, so she deliberately found those people to block her here and directly embarrass her.

Otherwise, why would those three people just walk away after humiliating her after they kept saying they were attracted to the two maids next to her?

Not to mention the deep look in Lin Caisang's eyes that glanced at her before he lowered the car curtain, which was clearly a warning to her!

She was obviously a stupid girl who didn't even know how to save herself when she was deceived and buried alive. Why did she become so powerful after not seeing her for more than half a year and dare to deal with her?

She couldn't help but wonder, what ability did Lin Caisang have? Could it be because he was engaged to Ya Molian that he could become so powerful?

But Ya Molian is just a hunter in the countryside. As far as she knows, the young man just earns more money than other people in Ya Village. What else is there?

She didn't understand why Lin Caisang's appearance changed all of a sudden.

The look she glanced at her just now really made her forget about the pain in her body. In her eyes and heart, there was only fear and panic for Lin Caisang, and she just wanted to stay away from that woman.

Can a person really change that much?

"No, this woman must be from our Zhou family!" She muttered.

If Lin Caisang has really become that powerful, then as long as her son marries Lin Caisang, it will definitely be helpful to her son's future. Not to mention, Lin Caisang is a woman with her own blessings.

However, the marriage affairs of the county governor's family must not be touched, so what should we do?

...

Lin Caisang, who entered Yejun City, did not expect that his aggressive move would not frighten Mrs. Zhou, but would allow her to continue to make plans.

At this moment, the driver of the carriage arrived directly outside Qi Garden.

"Brother Changfeng, we're here. We'll be staying here for the next few days." She opened the curtain and jumped out of the carriage first.

Lin Changfeng stuck his head out. When he saw such a big house in front of him, he was stunned. He turned his head and looked at his sister Sangsang blankly.

"Sangsang, this is..."

"Brother Mo Lian gave me the house." Lin Caisang said.

When she came here, she didn't want to hide anything from Lin Changfeng anymore. After all, after this autumn, Lin Changfeng was going to build An City. If she could achieve good results, she couldn't hide her affairs from them. For life.

Lin Changfeng: "..."

Sangsang, how come you haven't mentioned even a word about such a big matter to my grandpa and grandma?
