Chapter 90 One person has the final say

"You two stay here and don't allow people in the village to mess around in the deserted mountains."

As he spoke, he flashed and disappeared into the main room.

"Exiled Jue, did the palace master... go to Hongling Town?" Shi Jian looked at the empty main room and asked Ban Jue.

That place couldn't be more dangerous now. How could the Palace Master go there? Then should she go along?

"The master of the palace has his own sense of how to do things. Shi Jian remembers the lessons of banished Xi." Banned Jue glanced at Shijian lightly and said.

Upon hearing the words of banishment, Shi Jian gasped and immediately stopped talking.

In the hut in Hongling Town, several other masters had left, and Lin Caisang left Master Gong alone. Some information had to be learned from the mouth of this master Gong.

Just like...

"Master Gong, which young master was the first to get sick in your family? Or was it the servant?" she asked.

"This... is a domestic servant..."

Mr. Gong's eyes flickered and he secretly twitched the corners of his mouth as he answered. However, before he could finish his words, he was interrupted by a man next to Lin Caisang.

"That's nonsense. It's clearly the son of your family. We all know it. Don't lie to Miss Liu. Miss Liu, believe me, it was the son of his family who got sick. Everyone in our town knows this."

Miss Liu, of course, is talking about Lin Caisang. She can't say her name because her father once said that her mother's surname is Liu, so she should call herself Liu. xO°"~~`"°gx

"Master Gong, I hope you won't hide anything from me. After all, you don't want the disease in this town to continue to worsen, right?" Lin Caisang narrowed his eyes slightly and stared at Master Gong and said.

She had heard before that it was Mr. Gong who spread this weird disease to everyone in the town, and she already had an opinion about the Gong family.

Now that Mr. Gong still wants to hide it, does he really think that he alone has the final say in Hongling Town?

"this....."

When Mr. Gong heard her words, his face was full of embarrassment, but he secretly glared at the troublesome man.

"Miss Liu, I don't want to say it unless it's because it's a family scandal and I don't want to..."

"Mr. Gong, please forgive me for speaking harshly. Your family scandal has now harmed all the people in Hongling Town. If you are still worried about your family scandal at this time, then just leave. I can't control you here. It's about the Gong family."

Lin Caisang didn't give him any face at all and waved his sleeves with a cold face.

"Uh, Miss Liu..."

Master Gong's face suddenly darkened. A man who was used to being flattered at home was suddenly being insulted like this. The difference was huge. He really wanted to yell at Lin Caisang.

But thinking that the future rise and fall of their Gong family would all fall on the girl in front of him, he could only endure it.

"Is this girl the doctor who came here to treat Hongling Town?"

Just when he was about to explain, a man in a county government uniform hurried over and interrupted him.

"That's me. Are you Capt. Wei?"

Lin Caisang looked at Capt. Wei, and without waiting for his reply, she took out a mask that was exactly the same as the one she was wearing and handed it to Capt. Wei.

"I'd like to trouble Mr. Wei to ask the county magistrate to make masks like this for the people of Hongling Town. Distribute them to everyone and cover their mouths and noses. This will help prevent the spread of some strange diseases."

"Oh, oh oh."

Before Capt. Wei could recover from the surprise that Lin Caisang was a girl, he was assigned a task.
