

Star of Space 919

Chapter 919 What does it have to do with you?

"You and I....."

Commander Mo had nothing to say and could only lower his head and grind his teeth.

"Sir, girl, I'm going to go outside and see if there are any prey that can be caught and grilled. It's very dangerous here now. We can save a little bit of the food we have."

Ban Jue suggested.

"Um."

Ya Molian nodded and responded.

Lin Caisang, on the other hand, took out a few packets of medicinal powder from his small satchel and handed them to Ban Jue's hand.

"Be careful and take a few more people with you."

"yes."

Ban Jue took the medicine powder packet into his hand and then went out with a few people.

"If you run outside now, aren't you going to die?"

Commander Mo couldn't help but muttered something after banishing a few people and leaving.

Although the sound was not loud, everyone could hear it in such a small space. Ya Molian glanced at him with sharp eyes.

"Commander Mo, I would like to remind you, if you don't want to die too early, shut your stinky mouth!"

Hearing this, Commander Mo's face darkened and he immediately shrank his neck.

Although he was not convinced by Ya Mo Lian, King Mo, he was still afraid after all. Who knew that this person was indeed strong enough? Otherwise, the emperor would not have sent King Mo to Baibind Mountain to rescue King Lin.

"Ignore him and drink a little first.

Lin Caisang glanced at Commander Mo, took out two water bags from his small satchel, handed one to Ya Molian, and the other to Fei Wu and the others.

It contained warm milk, freshly taken from the pasture space.

"While you drink, listen to me tell you about this White Blind Mountain."

Yamolian took the skin bag and opened it, instead of drinking it herself, she handed it to Lin Caisang's mouth.

"Take a sip first."

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded and took a sip before speaking.

"White Blind Mountain actually does not belong to any of our countries..."

"Girl, you'd better say something practical. We already know what you're talking about." Commander Mo interrupted her and said with a sneer.

Of course, Baibind Mountain does not belong to any country, because no country has yet been able to incorporate Baibind Mountain into its territory. This place is really too dangerous, and no one dares to make any plans here, okay?

"Shut up!"

Lin Caisang glared at him.

"Commander Mo, if you want to lead your idiots to act alone, I will not have any objection. Just like you just asked me if there is any way, what I mean is, no matter how many ways I have, What does it have to do with you?"

I only promised to protect the people of Prince Mo's Mansion and Prince Salvation, but I didn't promise to protect anyone like you who are as stupid as pigs, but you always think that you are such a great person! "

"I....."

Commander Mo opened his mouth.

I didn't expect Lin Caisang to speak so straightforwardly and make the first thing so clear.

Lin Caisang glared at him coldly again, and then continued to look at the others.

"Although people outside can see Baibind Mountain with their naked eyes, what I want to tell you is that Baibind Mountain is just fictitious. After entering Baibind Mountain, we enter another country. The name of this country is Thousand Fantasy Continent."

"Thousand Fantasy Continent?"

Hearing this word, Ya Molian's face suddenly turned ugly.

"Have you heard of it?" Lin Caisang asked him.

"No."

Ya Molian was stunned for a moment before she answered.
