Chapter 92 Is it too much?

It is not difficult to hear from Mr. Gong's words that he is hiding something. He is just telling how his son was infected with the disease for no reason, and there was no sign before. As for what his son did before he got sick and who he had contacted, he claimed that he didn't know. "That's all I know." Mr. Gong replied. "Oh, is that so?" Lin Caisang sneered. "Since Mr. Gong doesn't know, I think there must be someone in the Gong family who knows about it, right? Captain Wei, please take someone to the Gong family and bring the mother of the young master and all the servants who were once trusted here. I want to ask them one by one." "What?!" Mr. Gong was shocked when he heard her words, and his face turned green. "Miss Liu, you...you are doing this too much, right?" "Mr. Gong, do you think I really went too far?" Lin Caisang raised his voice and asked him back. "Everyone who gets sick has a cause. This is the most important thing for doctors to treat and save people. If we don't even know the cause, how can we treat it? Why don't you teach me, Mr. Gong?"

"This..."

Mr. Gong was blocked by her words, his face flushed, and he reacted after a long while.

"But my son is dead, and it's too late to investigate now..."

"Mr. Gong, forgive me for being blunt, I didn't suggest that Captain Wei dig the body of Master Ling out of the grave for examination, which is the greatest kindness. Lin Caisang said bluntly.

"You——"

"You know, the lives of so many people in Hongling Town are in danger, all caused by Master Ling alone, of course, there is also Mr. Gong's "contribution". "

She did not give Mr. Gong a chance to speak, and continued.

Now, Mr. Gong was speechless. Yes, all this was caused by their Gong family. If it really came down to reason, their Gong family would only be beaten and scolded.

"Miss Liu, do you want me to order someone to take Mr. Gong's..."

When Captain Wei heard her words, he immediately thought of Mr. Gong's body.

Perhaps this is really a good suggestion. If you dig up Mr. Gong's body, maybe you can find the cause of the disease.

"Captain Wei..." Mr. Gong was stunned when he heard what Queen Wei said.

They really want to move his son's grave. The burial place is his family's ancestral grave. If the soil is moved, their family will be in big trouble in the future. This is absolutely not allowed.

But he also knew that if Lin Caisang was determined to do this, Captain Wei would do it no matter what.

For Queen Wei, their Gong family is nothing.

"What about me? Mr. Gong, I advise you to be kinder. "Captain Wei glared at Mr. Gong fiercely and snorted.

Just now, I heard Mr. Gong say so many random words, but none of them hit the point. It was obvious that he deliberately didn't want to mention those ugly things. He was angry at the moment, and there was no guarantee that he would do something.

"Miss Liu, if you need..."

"No need."

Lin Caisang shook her head.

Moving the grave is something that will only be done when it is absolutely necessary. She is not at that point yet.

"Please gather all the people in the Gong family together, I want to ask them one by one. I don't believe that anyone will get such a strange disease for no reason."

It is said to be poison, and it is also a disease. It is said to be a disease but it is also poison. Even she is confused when she sees it.
