

Star of Space 928

Chapter 928 Just you, are you going to make excuses?

"Chief, they are eating." The guard frowned and said.

When had their leader been so kind? It is something that has never happened before for someone to share what they eat with others.

"What nonsense are you talking about? Just send it if you are asked. We can just eat some dry food." Commander Mo glared at the guard and said.

He doesn't mean to sympathize with others, but now they are in Baibind Mountain together. If the people around them can't take care of them, will others take care of them? Therefore, he feels that thinking about others at this moment also wants others to think about him.

Everyone helps each other.

"Yes, chief.

The guard looked at the bowl in his hand, then at the large pot of rice that had just been cooked, and had no choice but to call a companion, and the two of them carried the rice over.

Commander Mo also followed and came to banish them.

"Looking at the clothes on these people's faces, they should be from Luoyun Kingdom, right?" He lowered his voice and asked.

Baibind Mountain was originally located between the three kingdoms of Wei, Luoyun and Shuyue. People from Luoyun are here. This is something everyone can imagine.

It's just that it was so embarrassing that it was unexpected.

"should be."

Ban Jue looked back at Commander Mo and nodded.

"Let's talk to one of them. They must have stayed in Baibind Mountain longer than us and have seen more things than us." Commander Mo suggested.

Hearing this, Ban Jue glanced at Commander Mo again.

"Just you, going to make excuses?"

It wasn't that he disliked Commander Mo. If his mistress hadn't been there along the way, he would have torn this foul-mouthed guy into pieces.

With his mouth, nothing else could be said, but those people took away all their base.

"You'd better rest."

With that said, he walked towards his palace master and mistress.

"Sir, those people are from Luoyun Kingdom, and the other one should be the prince of Luoyun Kingdom. Do you think we will ask the girl to talk to them later?"

It would definitely be inconvenient for grown men like them to do this kind of work, so it would be perfect for his mistress to do it.

"roll!"

Ya Molian said a word to him coldly.

Ban Jue was sprayed with cold air, and innocently raised his hand to touch his nose.

"Exiled Jue, you see they have already fallen into such a miserable state, do you still need to talk to them? Just ask them what dangers there are on Baibind Mountain."

Lin Caisang chuckled.

"After they are full, give them a set of clothes each day, so that they at least look human."

"Yes, that's what the girl said, I'll do it right away."

The banishment was answered. With these few people in front of me, why do they need to use clichés? Give them something to eat, drink, and wear. These people will basically tell them everything you want to say from your heart.

What's more, now they are all destitute people from the end of the world. If these people don't explain the situation on Baibind Mountain clearly to them, no one will be able to get out!

"Sir, I heard from the news before that Luoyun Kingdom sent three groups of people to Baibind Mountain. These people should be the third group, that is, the people who arrived here twenty days earlier than us, but..."

Jiang Zuo came to the two of them and looked at those people.

"The news is that there are about a hundred people in the third batch of Luoyun Kingdom, but here... there are only five people. It seems that they have really suffered heavy losses."
