

Star of Space 964

Chapter 964 Intuition...

"laugh.

Lin Caisang couldn't help but sneer.

Would she be afraid that the Emperor of Wei would give her little shoes to wear? That guy doesn't even know who she is, right?

She just hoped that this kid would not cause trouble for her every time he thought about it. As for his little actions, she pretended not to have seen them.

"Commander doesn't have the time to talk to us. It's better to go and persuade your Royal Highness, Prince Lin. Don't turn around and coax others to deal with this girl and King Mo, making everyone look bad."

"Yes, yes, I'm going to persuade you right now, I'm going to persuade you now."

Commander Mo quickly responded and went to Suizilin's side.

"As for you people..."

Lin Caisang's eyes glanced at those people who were not within the scope of their rescue.

"If you don't want to follow this girl and King Mo, I have said this long ago that you can leave on your own, and I will never stop you. You will be sent to death wherever you like!

But if you want to follow us, you'd better shut up your bad mouths and just follow us. Of course, I will remember your heads one by one. When the time comes, I will come to ask you for help. Don't worry, thank you for your kindness, no one can escape! "

Everyone: "..."

They just said something suspicious, not to mention that many of them didn't speak. How could they be scolded so ruthlessly?

Moreover, they naturally never thought of not giving them any gifts of thanks. After all, their lives were very valuable and they could not be saved in vain. They were not people who would not repay kindness.

"Don't worry, girl, we won't talk any more." One of them said.

...

At this point, everyone became quiet and started walking down the Blood River early the next morning.

"King Mo, girl, can you really reach the foot of Baibind Mountain along this blood river?" The great prince of Luoyun Kingdom came over and asked the two of them.

Now, they have been walking along the blood river for three days, and they smell the blood every day. Although he doesn't feel anything, he still can't help but wonder, can they really get to the end of this way?

"It should be possible." Lin Caisang replied to him.

They had never had a fixed object for reference while walking before, but now with this blood river, they had a standard that they could follow all the way down.

"You can get to the foot of the mountain without walking along the blood river, but the length of time is not certain. However, if you walk along the blood river, based on my intuition, you will definitely save a lot of time."

Of course, this is just based on her intuition.

"intuition....."

Hearing these two words, the eldest prince felt a little ashamed.

Just relying on Lin Caisang's intuition, they kept walking down the blood river. Aren't they afraid that this was another trap?

"King Mo, girl, aren't you afraid of the trap set by that person?" He asked his question.

"What are you afraid of?"

Lin Caisang asked him back.

"If it's a trap, just kill the cloaked man when you encounter him."

This was what Ya Molian said.

He was under the whirlpool before, and he thought it was not the best time to deal with the cloaked man. If they really fought, they would probably be sucked away by the whirlpool.

But it's different now. This place is no longer under the whirlpool. If they encounter the cloaked man, they can fight. Then it will depend on which of the two is more capable.