

Star of Space 988

Chapter 988 It's indeed her!

Hearing the "clang" sound of opening and closing the door, the man's heart seemed to be grabbed by a black cat. Before he was hit, it seemed as if he was about to faint.

"You...what do you want to do?"

Before the whip in Exile Jue's hand was raised, the man couldn't bear it anymore. His eyes widened in horror, then he rolled his eyes and fainted.

Banished: "!!!"

Turning his head, he looked at Ban Wu, and the meaning in his eyes couldn't be more obvious: I've fainted before I even made a move? Did you say you were tough-mouthed?

Ban Wu shrugged, indicating that it was none of his business.

"Palace Master, from my humble opinion, these two people are not from the Emperor. Rather, they look like..."

Before he could finish his words, Ya Molian's stern eyes fell silent and he fell silent.

In fact, it was hard to guess whose subordinates these two guards were. They killed Su Ri, and Sui Zilin killed him in full view of the public, and under his nose.

Isn't it obvious at a glance who benefits the most in this round?

Yamolian took a deep breath.

"I don't want to be a 'reverse image'. I will banish them. These two people will be handed over to you. You must spit out every word you deserve!" He stood up and walked out of the iron prison.

"Yes, Palace Master."

Ban Jue responded and turned around to continue dealing with the 'unconscious' person in front of him.

"You're fainted, aren't you? Do you think I can't deal with you if you're fainted? I'll make you faint!"

As he spoke, he swung the whip and lashed the man all over his face. He could hold back the first lash, but the second lash and the third lash, when the whip fell on him like raindrops, it would be too much for any person.

So within a few moments, the man screamed in pain.

"It's quite reasonable to pretend. I'll let you pretend. Come here and beat him hard until he passes out." He waved to a guard behind him and put the whip in his hand. handed it to him.

"Get this bucket of water away from me, and you go get the honey!" Ban Jue ordered the other guards in the iron prison.

"You guys, go and search all over Shaohua City for me. Find all the ant nests you can find. I want to take a look. I will pour the honey on you later and watch the ants bite you all over your body. , is it as comfortable as it is now?"

He said to the man.

"Ah, no... don't, I... I said, I said..."

Imagining that his whole body was covered with ants, biting his flesh bit by bit, how could this guard dare to grit his teeth and not say anything, so he could only beg for mercy.

"laugh."

Hearing his begging for mercy, Ban Jue sneered.

"I thought my mouth would be so tough, but I didn't expect that I am also a coward. I can't stand such a little torture? It would be great if you could hold on. I have many other interrogation methods, and I want them all from you. Try it on yourself!"

After hearing what he said, the man was so frightened that he fainted.

After a while, in the study room of Prince Mo's Mansion, the banished general said everything that the guard said to his palace master one by one.

"It's indeed her!"

Ya Molian's hand on the table was squeezed tightly, with a little spark in her eyes.

"Palace Master, do you want to inform Suyang about this?" Ban Wu asked.

This matter, just as he guessed, was simply a trap set by Concubine Lian in order for her son to ascend to a high position, and everyone they went to Baibland Mountain became in Concubine Lian's hands. piece.
