Chapter 992 Not the Son of Concubine Lian

Originally, Son'er didn't have to take on Su Ri's mission, but it was because of him that he took it, accompanied him on this trip to Baibind Mountain, and suffered so much.

If he wanted to say sorry, that was what he should say to Sonny, right?

but.....

He didn't want to say sorry to Sonny, because these three words were actually of no use at all. No matter how much he said it, things would not get better. On the contrary, these three words would make those who had done the wrong thing worse. People are easily forgiven.

Therefore, he thought that he would not say these three words to Sonny, because he would only use practical actions to prove that he would not let Sonny encounter such a thing again.

"Sang'er, it has been confirmed that it was Concubine Lian's cronies who deceived Sui Zilin all the way, and finally Sui Zilin broke out outside Shaohua City and killed Su Ri with one blow.

he said.

"It is indeed her."

Lin Caisang didn't have much reaction when he heard the words "Lian Fei".

It really doesn't matter to her whether Su Ri dies or not. On the contrary, now it seems that Su Ri's death like this will be of great benefit to her and Yamo Lian.

"Actually, it's okay for Su Ri to die like this."

Originally, the pool of stagnant water in Shaohua City was difficult to stir up, but Su Ri was like a boulder thrown into the pool of stagnant water, which suddenly made the pool of stagnant water boil.

The ferocious fish that were originally hiding under the water jumped out one by one.

But on her side.

"I found a Book of Ten Thousand Poisons in the Golden Pearl Region. It contains the antidote to the poisons on your body. However, there are many medicinal materials in the antidote, which I have never even heard of."

She looked at Ya Molian seriously and said.

"Forget it if you haven't heard of it."

Ya Molian was calm and said something.

"Although there are many medicinal materials in the solution that I have never heard of, I know where the hidden poison in your body came from." Lin Caisang said after eating another chopstick of food.

"where?"

Yamolian is also very interested in this point.

"Thousand Fantasy Continent."

Lin Caisang said four words.

"You have thought of it before, right? This hidden poison comes from the Qianhuan Continent, and even in the Qianhuan Continent, the hidden poison is a poison that is difficult to detoxify. I am thinking about the medicinal ingredients in the solution. , could it be found only on Qianhuan Continent?"

Of course, this was just her guess, but she felt that it was probably what she had guessed.

"Brother Mo Lian, I think you are really not the son of Concubine Lian. This matter is almost finalized."

"Eat first, and we'll talk about other things later."

Ya Molian only hesitated for a second before putting some vegetables into her bowl.

He had doubts about this from the moment he learned that Concubine Lian had poisoned him. Therefore, he also believed that what Son'er said was the truth.

"So, Brother Mo Lian, I think your destiny is definitely not true, what do you think?" Lin Caisang put the chopsticks to his mouth, and after thinking for a long time, he came to this sentence Come.

Yamolian: "..."

This jump is really too big. Please forgive him for his poor reception.

How did this girl think of his destiny from such a serious question? It's just amazing.

"Sonny..."

He looked at Lin Caisang with a faint look.

"Well, now's not the time to talk about that."

Seeing his expression, Lin Caisang quickly dropped the topic.
