

Chapter 648 Lukas Took Away Leilany

With her fists balled tightly, Tracy brought them down onto the table with a force that echoed in the room.

"I got it."

She left the control room in a hurry, her pace fierce as she stormed towards Leilany's primary physician.

On seeing Tracy, the physician prepared a cup of coffee for her and started to explain.

"Madam, I received a call from the control room not long ago. It was my decision to allow Mr. Wilde to escort Leilany away. Lukas, a junior of mine, has always had feelings for Leilany. Don't worry. Everything will be fine."

A sharp slap echoed as Tracy's hand connected with the physician's cheek.

A sudden ringing filled the physician's ears. He touched his stinging face, looking at Tracy in a mix of shock and bewilderment.

"What... What are you doing Madam?"

Tracy's expression turned grim. She jabbed a finger at the physician. "I entrusted Leilany's care to this hospital on the condition that she wouldn't be allowed out. Yet, you disregarded that and let someone else take her. I don't believe that Lukas means well, and the same goes for you!"

With that, Tracy stormed off, leaving behind a stunned primary.

A crowd had gathered outside the physician's office.

The nurses, who always saw Tracy as a calm and easygoing woman, were shocked by her sudden outburst.

They hadn't expected her to reveal such a different side when it came to her daughter.

Arriving at the hospital entrance, Tracy called Melissa in one swift move.

Melissa was in the middle of preparing her next class.

After her heroic act of saving a student's life, she had become something of a legend in the school.

As a result, her workload had increased, but she didn't mind. It brought her joy and pride to pass on her knowledge to her students.

Then, her phone rang.

"What's going on, Mrs. Green?"

"Leilany's gone! Lukas took her away!"

Melissa was stunned by this revelation.

"What? Why would Lukas do such a thing? Did he mention anything to you?"

"No! He didn't inform me before taking Leilany. I'm afraid he might have kidnapped her to manipulate us!"

Though Melissa was confident that Lukas wouldn't resort to such an act, she knew better than to try and reason with an enraged Tracy.

"Mrs. Green, you need to stay calm. I'll try to reach Lukas. If I can, I'll ask him to bring Leilany back immediately."

Melissa's words seemed to soothe Tracy.

"I'm really sorry, Melissa. I always bother you for Leilany. But you're the only one who can help me."

Since Leilany's hospitalization, her old friends had distanced themselves.

It was as if they had already given up on her.

After ending the call, Melissa immediately tried to reach Lukas.

She expected him to evade her calls, but to her surprise he picked up rather quickly.

"I knew you'd call, Melissa."

"Where is Leilany, Lukas? Why did you take her without her parents' permission? You know she's not well. This could be considered kidnapping"
