

STRIKER 125

Chapter 125 Medics arrived!

City A:

Jeremy Night and others reached the City Gate a few hours later. On their way here, they had encountered a few corrupted beasts.

Fortunately, none of them succumbed to injuries. They were able to hold on to their lives until the end.

The City Guards were startled upon seeing a group of injured people. They immediately called for the medics. After entering the City, Violet Heath informed her family and University.

She requested help from them.

Most of their Beast Tamers had sustained injuries during the exploration of the dangerous area. Later, their injuries worsened during the Black Lake exploration.

After leaving the wilderness, their encounter with the Night Devil had put a lot of pressure on them. Because of it, some of them needed emergency treatment. Their lives were under threat right now.

Jeremy was quietly watching everything. After seeing Senior Violet making the calls, he thought it wasn't wise to stay here anymore. Emotions were running high. The Heath and University Beast Tamers were hostile towards him.

So this situation was unfavorable for him. His eyes flickered. He quietly booked an air taxi. After doing that, he stayed a little distance away from them.

Some were quietly attending to their wounds, while others were waiting for family help to arrive.

Shortly afterward,

A flying car landed before him. It immediately attracted others' attention.

Violet raised her eyebrows in surprise. Even her guardian Vivian frowned. She thought this young man was being rude. Shouldn't he at least talk to them before leaving?

Especially in this situation where everyone was waiting for the medics to arrive.

But she couldn't say anything since they were inside the city.

Jeremy knew everyone was looking at him, but he ignored them before entering the cab. He then told the driver to go to Central University 14.

There were only one or two hours left before morning. The driver nodded before starting the vehicle. The flying car rose from the ground. After reaching high in the mid-air, it started moving towards the destination.

Swoosh!

The vehicle disappeared before everyone's eyes. Jeremy's departure caused mixed feelings. Some gritted their teeth in anger.

Especially the survivors of the Heath Family Beast Tamers. They were planning to divert their mission failure onto Jeremy Night. But Jeremy was clever. He left before things turned bad for him.

"Miss, he left," Vivian said.

Violet shook her head before replying, "He is not a fool. He knows that people are against him. He left before the family arrived."

"Remember, I told you before. He has a background. We can't falsely accuse him," she added.

A trace of helplessness flashed in Vivian's eyes.

About 5 minutes later,

The medics arrived. They were professionals from the City Administration. Seeing that people were attending to their injuries, they went forward to help.

The Beast Tamers knew the basics of medical treatment. It was one of the compulsory wilderness studies. They knew how to treat their wounds, but in serious cases, they could only seek professional help.

The medics started to treat the people. Those who needed emergency treatment were taken back to the hospital. The rest of them were given treatment on the spot.

Shortly afterward,

A big flying car arrived at the spot. It was black in color. It was capable of carrying 5 people. The flying car had the family logo on it. Upon seeing the car, the Heath Family Beast Tamers sighed in relief.

Creak!

The car door opened.

The next second, 5 Beast Tamers stepped out in mid-air. While standing in mid-air, their gazes fell on the wounded people.

All 5 of them were Elders of the Heath Family. They were Tier-4 and Tier-5 Beast Tamers. A middle-aged woman frowned upon seeing the small number of people.

When her gaze fell on Miss Violet and Vivian,

Swoosh!

She disappeared from the spot and appeared in front of Violet Heath.

"Miss, are you alright?" She began to scan Violet from top to bottom.

Guardian Vivian was startled, but she kept her composure. She knew there was going to be a tough interrogation. No one could turn a blind eye to the loss of lives.

"I'm fine, 5th Elder," Violet said in a solemn tone. Her mission ended in failure. Not only that, but a lot of people were dead.

The middle-aged woman knitted her eyebrows further. The current scene could tell her that something terrible had happened. She also noticed the medics from the City Administration treating the wounded.

A small crowd started gathering. It would be a matter of time before the reporters arrived. So she thought it was not an appropriate place to ask anything.

"Miss, you can go home. We will handle the things here," she said.

Violet Heath showed hesitation because she was afraid that people here might accuse Jeremy Night wrongly. So she had to clarify some things; otherwise, a big disaster might befall the family.

"5th Elder, I have something important to report. Don't trust these people. I'll return and tell my father and the main elders first. So you guys should come back as soon as possible." After saying that, she turned towards Vivian.

Vivian nodded before taking her to the place where they had parked their car earlier.

When they were gone, the 5th Elder was shocked. She hadn't seen Miss this serious before.

Swoosh!

One after another, the other four elders arrived. These 5 elders belonged to the Outer Circle Council. The Heath Family had an Inner Circle Council, which included the former and current family head and a few main elders.

They were the big decision-makers. They decide the life and death matters of the family.

"What happened?" a white-haired old man asked. He was the 1st Elder in the Outer Circle Council.

"They encountered a problem. More than half of the team was missing, including the University Beast Tamers."

"The losses were high this time," the 5th Elder said with a sigh.

Hearing that, the old man frowned. It was something he could tell as well. But he was worried about something else. He had heard Miss Violet's words earlier.

"Don't trust anyone?"

"Did these Beast Tamers violate anything?" the old man asked himself.
