

Chapter 1354 Long Time No See

The two individuals facing Liam were none other than Shiloh and Trudy, the siblings Liam had met when he had been on the mission of the spark metal.

It had been over two months since their paths last crossed.

Liam had a good impression of Shiloh; despite being a scion of a prominent family, Shiloh was not arrogant at all, unlike Jason.

Liam smiled and said, "Long time no see."

Shiloh returned the smile and approached Liam. "Liam, are you here for this special mission, too? Why don't we team up again? The Titan Bugs are known for their group attacks, and it's risky to fight them alone. You're the only one here I'd trust enough to team up with."

L i a m a p p e a r e d c a l m t o t h e p r o p o s a l .

He had planned to tackle this special mission solo.

Yet, given Shiloh's genuine offer, he saw no harm in joining forces with Shiloh and his sister. After all, he valued Shiloh's character and didn't want Shiloh to face any danger here.

Joining Shiloh's team would allow him to help watch Shiloh's back.

But before Liam could respond, Trudy said, "Shiloh, don't let this guy join our team. Sure, he was quite useful during the spark metal hunt, but now, we're both fifth-stage Primogem Experts. This guy is just a Primogem Warrior who barely understands law power. He'll only be a burden to us."

Liam let Trudy's jab slide off him, accustomed to her abrasive personality.

Shiloh, however, bristled at his sister's rudeness.

Seeing his sister insult Liam directly, Shiloh instantly frowned.

Shiloh said sternly, "Trudy! Have you no manners? It's been two months, and you're still at odds with Liam. You're so childish!"

After scolding Trudy, Shiloh turned to Liam with an apologetic look. "Don't mind her, Liam. She has been spoiled since childhood. She always speaks like this, but she's not a bad person."

Liam smiled faintly and shook his head. "It's fine; I don't take it personally."

Seeing that Liam was unaffected, Shiloh breathed a sigh of relief.

Liam's thoughts lingered on Trudy's earlier words. Both Trudy and Shiloh had ascended to the fifth-stage Primogem Expert level.

Liam was a bit shocked by that.

He recognized that his progression to the seventh-stage Primogem Expert level had been bolstered by numerous serendipitous events.

The fact that the siblings had advanced to the fifth-stage Primogem Expert in just two months was impressive.

Although their progression wasn't as rapid as his, the speed of their advancement was still remarkable.

No wonder many sought affiliation with powerful families upon reaching the Cosmic realm.

Such alliances provided access to a wealth of cultivation resources that far surpassed what one could secure independently.

Despite this, Liam remained steadfast in his preference for solitude. He valued his freedom very much and found solace and clarity in training alone.

Our ads aim to provide better support for authors.

