

Chapter 1359 A Dazzling Display Of Skill

Witnessing Liam effortlessly cleave a second-stage Primogem-King-level Titan Bug in two with a single stroke left Shiloh and Trudy wide-eyed and dumbfounded.

Their expressions mirrored sheer disbelief; had they not just faced the lethal threat themselves, they might have believed they were in a dream.

Shiloh, particularly, was astounded.

He had learned not to underestimate Liam based on his appearance, yet the reality of Liam's prowess far exceeded his expectations, considering the vast difference between even a ninth-stage Primogem Expert and a first-stage Primogem King.

Liam, unaffected by their amazement, quickly said with a serious expression, "We should leave quickly. The noise we made will likely draw more Titan Bugs soon. If we don't move now, we'll soon find ourselves surrounded by them."

His words jolted the siblings back to the present reality. They nodded urgently and hurried after Liam to leave the valley...

Hours later, Liam guided Shiloh and Trudy to a hidden cave.

After a thorough inspection of the area for any dangers, Liam said, "Let's rest here for a while. Shiloh, you and Trudy need to regain your strength. I'll keep watch. Just concentrate on recovering."

Grateful, Shiloh acknowledged Liam with a nod. "Thank you, Liam,"

Then, he sat down in a corner of the cave to meditate and replenish his energy.

Meanwhile, Trudy's cheeks burned with embarrassment. She remembered her continuous underestimation of Liam since their first

Now, the very man she had ridiculed had slain a formidable Titan Bug with a single blow!

Her cheeks flushed even more as she looked at Liam, overwhelmed with both shame and worry.

She worried that Liam might harbor resentment for her previous mockery and seek retribution.

Sensing her unease, Liam casually reassured her, "Don't worry about it. I've never taken your words to heart. Just focus on recovering."

Seeing Liam's magnanimity, Trudy felt more regretful for mocking Liam before. She gathered the courage to both apologize and thank Liam for saving their lives.

"Liam, I apologize for the things I said to you before. It was wrong of me to say that. And thank you for saving us. Without you, my brother and I wouldn't have survived," she said.

Liam offered a reassuring smile and replied, "It's alright. Just try to respect others moving forward. You don't need to thank me. You're Shiloh's sister; I couldn't just stand by and watch you face danger. Now, focus on your recovery. We still have this special mission to complete."

Liam's generous response not only intensified Trudy's sense of shame but also increased her respect for him.

She nodded earnestly and said, "Okay."
