

Chapter 1371 Driving The Ellis Brothers Away

As soon as Liam spoke, Julio's and Jeremias's expressions darkened.

They exchanged a quick, surprised glance, taken aback that Liam had picked up on such a detail.

However, neither Julio nor his brother was ready to admit anything. Jeremias immediately adopted a stern expression, ready to defend himself.

Just as Jeremias was about to speak, Annabella's expression hardened, and she said sharply, "Still planning to deny it? Julio, Jeremias, no wonder you two are brothers! Before Liam intervened, you saw Lindy surrounded by Titan Bugs and tried to abandon both her and me to save yourselves. Only you two could stoop so low!"

Annabella, always direct, couldn't hold back her anger upon seeing Julio and Jeremias attempting to lie. She promptly called out their earlier attempt to betray their teammates.

With Liam and Annabella taking a firm stance, Lindy quickly realized that Julio and Jeremias had indeed planned to abandon her earlier.

Her expression darkened, and she discarded any thoughts of defending them. Instead, she glared at them.

Julio, caught off guard by Annabella's direct confrontation, still tried to defend himself, saying, "Lindy, don't listen to them. You're misunderstanding my intentions. I wasn't trying to flee; I was figuring out a way to save us."

At this point, there was no way Lindy would naively believe Julio's lies. Her expression turned icy as she demanded, "If that's true, then what was your plan to save us?"

Caught without a plausible explanation, Julio hesitated, struggling to articulate a convincing response.

When Lindy saw Julio struggle to justify himself, her anger reached its peak. She said coldly, "Julio, I've tolerated you out of respect since your elder is a friend of my mentor. I didn't expect you to be such a coward! I won't inform your elder of this, but you can no longer be part of this team. I refuse to associate with someone who abandons their teammates."

Julio's and Jeremias's expressions shifted. Being left alone in the Titan Bugs' stronghold would be dangerous for them. They were not ready to accept this easily.

In a tone laced with desperation, they began to explain, "Lindy, you've got it all wrong..."

Lindy's expression remained unchanged, showing she would not be deceived by them. She turned away, ignoring them.

Seeing her resolve, Liam said, "Lindy, let's leave."

Lindy nodded and departed with Liam and the others.

Julio and Jeremias stood frozen, watching the team fade into the distance, their faces a mixture of anger and despair.

Jeremias, unwilling to accept their fate, whispered urgently to Julio, "Are we just going to let them walk away? This place is overrun with Titan Bugs as powerful as Primogem Kings. We can't make it out alive on our own."

Julio's expression darkened as he responded in a low tone, "We've already severed ties with them. Let's find new allies. I'll make sure Annabella and Lindy regret this decision! And that Liam, I will kill him for doing this to us!"
