

Chapter 1406 Silver-Form Body

Liam's first attempt to absorb the blood essence of the Blood Sovereign spanned an intense three days and nights.

Throughout this ordeal, both his spirit and body had endured tremendous pain.

Had it not been for his unwavering determination to save Julie and Asher, the excruciating pain might have overwhelmed him.

After three grueling days, Liam opened his eyes, free from the torment at last.

Once the cultivation was over, he couldn't wait to see the changes in his body.

He had previously speculated that the blood essence of the Blood Sovereign could elevate his body to the "Silver-Form Body" level.

Sure enough, upon inspecting himself, Liam noticed that his skin's color, once the bronze hue because of his Copper-Form Body, had transformed into a gleaming silver.

Liam was overjoyed. The silver hue now covering his body signified that his body had become the "Silver-Form Body".

Reaching this level filled him with excitement. It was a major breakthrough for him.

This achievement was crucial. Strengthening his body's defenses meant there would be fewer risks for him during future missions, especially when facing off against enemies.

Liam vividly recalled his encounter with the Primogem Emperor of the Blood Clan before. During that battle, his Copper-Form Body, combined with his Mortal-grade armor, had bought him precious time.

Without these defenses, he wouldn't have been able to hold off long enough for Caden and Christos to arrive.

That experience taught Liam just how vital strong defensive abilities were for a cultivator's survival. After all, his life depended on it.

Liam couldn't wait to test the strength of his Silver-Form Body.

He summoned his elemental giant and employed every testing method he could think of.

After some testing, he reached a rough conclusion.

If his opponent was a level-nine Primogem King, it would be nearly impossible for them to break through his defense using their own strength.

Previously, Liam's Copper-Form Body could only defend against attacks from enemies at the Primogem Expert level, and even then, it was limited to those in the early stages.

He hadn't expected such a dramatic leap in defensive power after advancing to the Silver-Form Body.

The improvement was astonishing.

Liam's thoughts wandered as he began to imagine just how formidable he might become when he eventually reached the Gold-Form Body.

How strong would his defense be then?

At that stage, he might even be able to hold his own against a Primogem Emperor or possibly even a Primogem Saint.

With that thought, Liam, who had been sitting cross-legged, stood up.

Now that his body's defense power had significantly improved, he decided not to continue his seclusion and instead venture out to do missions.

At this moment, his top priority was to carry out missions and accumulate enough points to elevate his clearance level.

Chapter 1406 Silver-Form Body

With his body now at the "Silver-Form Body" level, he felt confident in his ability to protect himself as he embarked on these challenging missions.

Our ads aim to provide better support for authors.

 I want no ads >