

Chapter 1598 Teaming Up With Lindy

Liam had always felt grateful to Lindy.

The Shadow Palace's trials in the Secret realm were notorious for their brutality, with clans battling fiercely for supremacy. It was Lindy who had bravely saved his life amidst that chaos. Without her, he might never have ascended to the Cosmic realm or witnessed its marvels.

Trying to sound nonchalant, Liam said, "Lindy, what mission are you on? I'm fresh out of ideas right now, so I think I'll just tag along with you."

Lindy, caught off guard by his question, stared at him in surprise.

Liam was a celebrated talent in the entire Human Clan. If he accompanied her on an ordinary mission, that would only be a waste of time for him.

Despite feeling secretly moved, Lindy was ready to decline his proposal.

However, before she could get a word out, Liam interjected with a grin, "Hey, I have a lot of free time right now. And I'm on the brink of hitting level-five authorization, so really, any mission will do."

Lindy realized Liam was just looking for an excuse to team up with her. Her gaze softened, filled with affection.

Unaware of her shifting emotions, Liam continued playfully, "Lindy, when we get to the mission location, you have to protect me."

Lindy's laughter was light and teasing. "Considering how powerful you are, it's hard to tell who'll need protecting."

Still smiling, Liam asked, "Lindy, can you tell me what the mission entails?"

Since he was gearing up to accompany her, it made sense for him to know what they were getting into.

Lindy didn't hesitate this time and granted him access to her mission details.

"Level-four Mission: Clear out No. 1568 non-life planetary system in the Rosefinch Galaxy. Objectives include the elimination of at least a thousand mysterious creatures within a hundred days and securing their crystal cores as evidence. This mission allows for team collaboration, with a maximum of two individuals per team."

Lindy said, "Rewards are hefty—two thousand mission points for each of us upon successful completion. But bear in mind, if we don't pull it off, they'll dock a thousand points from each of our accounts."

Liam perused the mission details and gave a slight nod. "Understood."

He then turned to scan the mission posting machine positioned behind him. After a brief search, he found this mission on the bottom page of the level-four section.

Without a second thought, he chose to accept it.

At that moment, the Network of Human Sovereign confirmed a mission contract with him.

Turning back to Lindy, Liam said, "I've sent you a team request through the Network of Human Sovereign. Check your email and accept it. We're going to be a team this time."

Lindy's eyes lit up with excitement when she realized Liam was serious about teaming up with her.

After all, Liam's power was undeniably formidable. In other words, with Liam on the team, this mission would be easy to complete.

Before Liam's decision, Lindy had noted that the creatures targeted in their mission were notoriously hard to track. Although a hundred days might seem generous, the reality was that locating and eliminating a thousand elusive creatures posed a significant challenge.

But now, with Liam on board, Lindy felt a surge of confidence. Together, they would surely complete the mission successfully.
