Chapter 1071 - 445: Why Is Fourth Grade Cold Qi So Terrifying? (2)

He has now become a powerhouse at the Initial Stage of the Strongest Immortal Lord, possessing a Divine Soul of Supreme Realm. With his current abilities, manipulating hundreds of magical artifacts or immortal artifacts simultaneously is not a difficult task. However, achieving mastery like Sima Ling, manipulating hundreds of artifacts as if they were butterflies fluttering through the air, is quite challenging!

This Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, clearly possesses a special manipulation type immortal technique!

However, as Guang Yu'er said, the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, as an established Immortal Sect, ranks fifth among the Great Immortal Sects in the Immortal Realm, possessing countless inheritances from ancestral Earth Immortals and Strongest Immortal Lords. Unfortunately, this generation of elders and disciples from the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect made the wrong choice, like the Spirit Cauldron Immortal Sect of the Central Divine Dynasty Western Region, becoming spies for the Profound Yin Demon Sect within the Human Race of the Immortal Realm, betraying the entire Human Race!

Under such circumstances, regardless of how many disciples the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect has, how deep its foundations are, and how many inheritances it possesses, the only outcome is severed inheritance and the destruction of the sect!

Feeling melancholy, Lin Xuankong didn't hold back in action,

The remaining fourteen Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect were all activating their magical artifacts and began energizing their immortal bodies, swirling around to avoid the strand of cold energy Lin Xuankong was wielding!

Unfortunately,

Lin Xuankong now,

is a powerhouse at the Initial Stage of the Strongest Immortal Lord, possessing a Divine Soul of Supreme Realm, and further has the Perfection Realm Guangqing Cold Extreme Skill comparable to the Qiaan Yuan Immortal Technique!

Such powerful strength combined with his extraordinary talent is not something that Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals can resist suddenly, even though these Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals hail from the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect with its powerful inheritances!

In just a few breaths,

The white cold energy Lin Xuankong unleashed finally navigated through the gaps between the myriad flying resentful souls, magical artifacts, and immortal artifacts, passing through the immortal bodies of the chain of Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect!

In the final moment,

That incredibly agile strand of white cold energy, circled around the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, for dozens of breaths, finally breaking through his near-perfect defense and penetrating into his immortal body.

At this moment,

The Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect and Second Elder Sima Ling were all silent.

Many Earth Immortals glanced at each other, somewhat uneasy, continuously energizing their Immortal Yuan to internally examine their immortal bodies. Yet, regardless of how the Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect scrutinized internally, they couldn't detect what hidden danger the Guangqing Cold Extreme Skill's cold energy left within them!

The Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, after a self-check with Energized Immortal Yuan, still failed to find anything, looked toward Lin Xuankong somewhat uneasy, and said solemnly:

"Fellow members, do not panic, perhaps the cold energy Lin Xuankong just activated wasn't the Guangqing Cold Extreme Skill! Instead of worrying here, let's join forces to attack Guang Yu'er's cold energy defense. Judging by the state of her cold energy, it likely won't last beyond three to five breaths before collapsing completely!"

Although feeling uneasy, the Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect realized there was no retreat at this point, so they all shouted loudly, once again activating their Immortal Yuan and magical artifacts, as well as the countless resentful souls summoned by the Blood Banner, aimed at Guang Yu'er's central strand of Guangqing Cold Extreme Skill's cold energy!

At this moment, standing beside Guang Yu'er, Lin Xuankong sighed softly, watching these desperate Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, and spoke:

"Each of you has cultivated for tens of thousands of years, possessing strong immortal techniques, yet you choose to cut yourselves off from the Human Race of the Immortal Realm. In that case, don't blame me, Lin Xuankong, for being ruthless..."

"Enough nonsense! Once Guang Yu'er's cold energy defense breaks, it will be your moment of capture. A mere Fourth-Grade Earth Immortal truly believes her Guangqing Cold Extreme Skill's cold energy is formidable?" Sima Ling, the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, shouted, cutting Lin Xuankong's words short.

But before he finished speaking,

It seemed he sensed something, his body trembled sharply, and his eyes showed a sudden hint of fear.

Simultaneously,

The surrounding twenty-seven Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect also echoed Sima Ling's reaction, their immortal bodies quivering, Immortal Yuan stagnant, faces displaying a hint of fear.

Immediately,

The Blood Banner Ten Thousand Demons Array controlled by the twenty-eight Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect suddenly vanished, the numerous resentful souls howled miserably, dispersing into the air, turning into thin blood mist!

Their energized magical artifacts and immortal artifacts suspended in mid-air then fell like birds without the ability to fly, crashing onto the jade floor of the Guangqing Immortal Hall, making a series of clinks!

Meanwhile, those Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect had chains of white frost spreading from their dantian, rapidly moving across their dharma robes, chests, legs, feet, and heads!

In less than a tenth of a breath,

All twenty-eight Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect stood frozen, immobilized by the cold energy Lin Xuankong had unleashed within their immortal bodies, turned into lifelike snowmen!

At that moment, these Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect were affected even in their hair by the terrifying Perfection Realm Guangqing Cold Extreme Skill's cold energy, freezing into pure white, their eyelashes and eyes transformed to pure white as well.

These are genuine Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals,

Their powerful immortal bodies only second to the powerhouses of the Strongest Immortal Lord-level!

Such immortal bodies, even if submerged in lava that melts rock, wouldn't suffer any damage,

Even flying into deep space where it's extremely cold and dark wouldn't affect them,

Such immortal bodies, even if fully attacked by Eighth-Grade Realm Earth Immortals' magical artifacts or immortal techniques, would not sustain damages!

Yet, in this moment,

When Lin Xuankong activated the Guangqing Cold Extreme Skill, Ignited the cold energy within their bodies,

These Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect turned like fragile ants, falling into a cold hell, instantly frozen, unable to move their eyes, completely halted breathing, their massive reserves of Immortal Yuan entirely frozen, unable to circulate any further!

Guang Yu'er, a newly advanced Strongest Immortal Lord of the Guangqing Immortal Sect who also cultivated the Guangqing Cold Extreme Skill, glimpsed this scene and couldn't help but change slightly, looking toward Lin Xuankong, calling softly:

"Such terrifying Guangqing Cold Extreme Skill cold energy, even I, who have cultivated it for over ten thousand years, cannot trigger. I fear only my sect's master, teacher Immortal Lord Qiaan Yuan, and uncle Immortal Lord Kunyuan in the entire Immortal Realm could activate such fearsome cold energy!

Xuankong, you, you are merely a Fourth-Grade Earth Immortal; how could your realm trigger such powerful Guangqing Cold Extreme Skill cold energy!"

Just after saying this,

Guang Yu'er, the newly advanced Strongest Immortal Lord of the Guangqing Immortal Sect, suddenly thought of something,

Then fixed her gaze on Lin Xuankong, bulging eyes in shock as she spoke:

"Wrong, absolutely wrong!

Most importantly, you've evidently cultivated the Guangqing Cold Extreme Skill for only a hundred years!

In such short time, how could you master our Guangqing Immortal Sect's most challenging Guangqing Cold Extreme Skill to this terrible realm? This realm definitely goes beyond Great Success Realm; this is clearly the realm of the Perfection Realm Guangqing Cold Extreme Skill, only the Strongest Immortal Lord-level powerhouses can wield!"

Chapter 1072 - 446: Thirty-Six Fourth Spirit Fruits of the Immortal Realm

Listening to the inquiry of the Strongest Immortal Lord Guang Yu'er, who appeared puzzled,

Lin Xuankong displayed a somewhat helpless expression,

The new Strongest Immortal Lord of the Guangqing Immortal Sect, Guang Yu'er, truly cared for him deeply. Even in extremely dangerous situations, the first thing she thought of was how to protect him, telling him to quickly retreat into her Celestial Demon Bone Secret Realm.

However, the reason why his cultivation had progressed so rapidly and the power of his immortal techniques was so high was truly too mysterious!

He couldn't possibly tell Yu'er that the reason for such rapid cultivation and powerful immortal techniques was due to his Life Plate...

After a brief contemplation, Lin Xuankong showed a smile,

"Your future husband has many mysteries; aren't you curious why I have such strong Artifact Refining Talent? Aren't you curious why my Path of Array Formation improved so fast? Aren't you curious why my Immortal Path Realm advanced so swiftly?"

Seeing that Lin Xuankong did not directly answer her question but instead countered with more questions, Guang Yu'er couldn't help but feel a bit frustrated and found her beloved even more mysterious.

Yet, in a moment, the new Strongest Immortal Lord of the Guangqing Immortal Sect, Guang Yu'er, smiled and raised her eyebrows, saying, "Alright, you, this guy, if you don't intend to tell me, I'm not willing to listen anyway. With more time together in the future, I'll eventually know why you are so extraordinary!"

After saying this, Guang Yu'er looked at the Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect who were frozen into ice sculptures and frowned:

"To speak of it, although my Guangqing Immortal Sect and the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect have had constant minor frictions, after all, we have been old rivals for over two hundred thousand years. Right now, this old rival of the Guangqing Immortal Sect has degenerated to such a state, beginning to collude with those demons from the Profound Yin Demon Sect; it is truly lamentable!"

Before her voice fell,

The twenty-eight Ninth-Grade Perfection Level Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect who were frozen into ice sculptures suddenly trembled, except for the Second Elder Sima Ling of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect. The other Ninth-Grade Perfection Level Earth Immortals shockingly showed numerous cracks starting from their heads!

Those extremely visible cracks began at the top of the heads of these Ninth-Grade Perfection Level Earth Immortals from the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect and spread downwards, even causing their Dharma Robes that had been frozen white to appear with numerous cracks that quickly spread to their lower bodies, legs, and feet!

In the end,

As a series of 'crackling' sounds echoed,

The 27 Ninth-Grade Perfection Level Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, along with their Dharma Robes, shattered completely into tiny ice particles on the ground!

The most astonishing thing was,

Even the supposedly indestructible Golden Cores that were said to protect the Divine Souls of Earth Immortals were frozen into pure white among those tiny ice particles on the ground!

Even though those Golden Cores did not shatter or develop cracks, being frozen to such a pure white color by the terrifying cold, it was imaginable that even if these Ninth-Grade Perfection Level Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect had gathered their Divine Souls into the Golden Cores just now, they would have had no chance of escape; their Divine Souls must have already been shattered!

Seeing this situation,

Guang Yu'er finally released the anxiety that she had harbored in her heart, took a deep breath, steadied her spirit, and then withdrew the chill of her Strongest Immortal Lord-level Guangqing Cold Extreme Skill.

Lin Xuankong then stepped towards the frozen ice sculpture of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect's Second Elder, Sima Ling.

With a slight exertion of Immortal Yuan, Lin Xuankong raised a hand and pointed at the ice sculpture of Sima Ling. Instantly, a trace of coldness began to spread quickly from Sima Ling's originally pure white frozen head, causing the temperature in the guest room of the Guangqing Immortal Hall to drop significantly.

Under Lin Xuankong's 'thawing' technique, some of the original skin color returned to the head of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect's Second Elder, Sima Ling, whose originally pure white frozen eyes started to rotate swiftly.

Lin Xuankong looked at Sima Ling, whose eyes were rolling around, and said in a cold voice:

"Don't harbor any crooked thoughts. The Immortal Yuan in your entire body, including the Immortal Yuan in all your meridians, the Immortal Yuan in your Dantian, the Immortal Yuan in your Golden Core, and the Immortal Yuan in your Immortal Body, have all been obliterated by the cold of my Guangqing Cold Extreme Skill. You have no chance to restore your Immortal Yuan or to escape and survive!"

Hearing Lin Xuankong say this, a trace of despair appeared in the eyes of the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect. He remained silent for a moment, then raised his eyes to look at Lin Xuankong and spoke with extreme difficulty:

"Lin Xuankong, I indeed underestimated you. I thought that under the miraculous medicinal effect of the Nine-Striped Bodhi Fruit husk, even a Strongest Immortal Lord-level powerhouse would be affected. You and Guang Yu'er, Guang Ling'Er, and others surely wouldn't have any chance to resist. Unfortunately, the heavens did not favor me, as Guang Yu'er actually progressed to the Initial Stage of the Strongest Immortal Lord, and you even hid your strength!

My actions this time, Sima Ling, were all for the sake of pursuing the Dao, for the future of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, and even if it didn't succeed, I have no regrets in this life!

If you keep me alive, you must be trying to extract some information from me. Haha, I, Sima Ling, am not afraid of death and will not succumb to your threats. Besides, you have just slaughtered a full twenty-seven Ninth-Grade Perfection Level Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect. I hate you to the core, so how could I possibly tell you anything? If you want to kill, then kill. There's no need for more words!

Chapter 1073 - 446: Thirty-Six Immortal Realm Fourth Spirit Fruits (Part 2)

However, what the twenty-eight of us have done this time was a conspiracy among ourselves, without informing any other cultivators at the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect. Even Sect Master Sima Huo and the Grand Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect didn't know. You can kill me, but if you blame the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect for today's events, it really wouldn't be what a righteous cultivator does!"

Seeing Sima Ling speak so boldly,

Lin Xuankong was somewhat surprised. However, just now Sima Ling and those twenty-seven Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals from the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect were intent on capturing him to hand over to the Profound Yin Demon Sect. They even planned to harm Guang Yu'er, Bai E Qilin, and Cyan Forehead Qilin. How could Lin Xuankong just let this enemy go because Sima Ling was a brave man?

After a few glances at the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Lin Xuankong's eyes revealed a hint of killing intent, and he coldly said:

"Killing you is naturally extremely easy, but what your Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect has done today is already standing in opposition to countless human races in the Immortal Realm. At such times, no cultivator from the human race in the Immortal Realm will let the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect go!

Moreover, after Yu'er regains her strength, our Guangqing Cold Extreme Skill will sweep through all your cultivators from the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect. It's not a particularly difficult task, right!

What a shame, within a day, I'm afraid the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect will be completely erased from the Immortal Realm. Thousands of years from now, there may no longer be any Earth Immortal mentioning the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect. There will be few who know that there once was a sect named Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect among the countless Immortal Sects. It ranked fifth and was feared by countless cultivators!"

Seeing Lin Xuankong say such things, despair deepened in the eyes of Sima Ling, the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect. He exclaimed anxiously, "Lin Xuankong, as the renowned artifact refining master in today's Immortal Realm, how could you be so ruthless? I've already said that the other Earth Immortals and cultivators of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect had nothing to do with today's events!"

Beside him, the new Strongest Immortal Lord of the Guangqing Immortal Sect, Guang Yu'er, had a cold expression, and said coldly: "Xuankong, why talk so much with this shameless traitor!

I, Guang Yu'er, can tolerate anything, but I absolutely will not allow anyone to harm you!

If you ask me, let's crush him now. After I remove the effects of the Nine-Striped Bodhi Fruit, we will head to the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, uproot them entirely, kill them cleanly. Not only will we kill them thoroughly, but also the Earth Immortals and cultivators associated with them, we will slaughter them cleanly, at least make blood flow, to warn the countless cultivators in the Immortal Realm! If you soften, I will do the killing!"

Lin Xuankong: ...

Buddy, when I talked about exterminating the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, I was planning to frighten this Second Elder a bit, to get some potentially important information out of him!

But my new wife seems to be even more ruthless than me,

Apparently, because those Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect fellows targeted me, Yu'er has grown to absolutely despise these Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect guys!

If it weren't for my lover still being influenced by the Nine-Striped Bodhi Fruit, she would have immediately gone to the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect for a massacre!

Well, this lady is very ruthless, but I like it!

While Lin Xuankong secretly marveled at his lover's decisiveness and ruthlessness, the Second Elder Sima Ling of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect became filled with despair and anger upon hearing Guang Yu'er's words, nearly tearing his eyes.

He heard of Guang Yu'er's cold, arrogant, fierce nature when in the Immortal Realm Central State, so at this moment, he didn't doubt that this newly ascended Strongest Immortal Lord Guang Yu'er from the Guangqing Immortal Sect would indeed do as she said. Additionally, her current strength and the powerful background of the Guangqing Immortal Sect are definitely capable of wiping out all Earth Immortals and disciples of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect!

In the midst of anxiety, despair, anger, and sorrow, the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect spoke rapidly:

"Immortal Lord Guang, Immortal Lin, I assure you that everything I've said is absolutely true!

Within the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, except for the twenty-seven Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals who came with me, the other Earth Immortals and disciples absolutely don't know that I've already made contact with the Third Demon Lord of the Profound Yin Demon Sect. I, Sima Ling, dare to swear by countless lifetimes of future reincarnation, dare to swear by Heavenly Dao, if my words at this moment are false, let me be reincarnated as a pig or dog, living eternally eating urine and excrement!"

Hearing this, Lin Xuankong frowned,

Guang Yu'er glared fiercely at Sima Ling and coldly said: "Hmph, since you've sworn by reincarnation and Heavenly Dao, I will temporarily believe what you've just said is true. However, even if it's true, so what? Since those who acted together with you are all Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, this time your major crime of exploiting the Profound Yin Demon Sect and acting against Xuankong will inevitably fall on your Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect. The Earth Immortals and disciples of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect will likewise be unable to escape this catastrophe, and I will not let the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect get away!"

"You you you you..."

Even after such a vow, Guang Yu'er still wanted to obliterate the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect. Sima Ling was in such urgency that he didn't quite know what to say.

Guang Yu'er was too lazy to say anything more to this Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect and directly walked outside, coldly saying: "I will now head to the council hall to inform my master Qiaan Yuan the Immortal Lord and other Strongest Immortal Lords about the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect's plot. Hmph, I imagine these seniors will be very willing to act together with me."

"Immortal Lord Guang, please, no!"

If it weren't for being frozen, his Immortal Yuan destroyed, the Second Elder Sima Ling of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect might have urgently knelt down to beg for mercy on the spot!

"Immortal Lord Guang, this time, I, the old Sima Ling, acting against Immortal Profound Void, definitely deserves death, but the other Earth Immortals and disciples of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect really have nothing to do with this matter! As long as Immortal Lord Guang spares the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect and allows its legacy not to be broken, Sima Ling is willing to hand over all treasures accumulated over eighty thousand years to Immortal Lord Guang, and reveal the location of the treasure storage!"

Upon hearing this, Guang Yu'er, who had almost reached the guest hall door, sneered, "As a Ninth-Grade Earth Immortal, what good things could you have collected in eighty thousand years? How could I fancy the measly stuff in your hands!"

Sima Ling exclaimed anxiously: "The Grand Elder and Sect Master of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect have been in seclusion for tens of thousands of years, seeking breakthrough to the Strongest Immortal Lord realm. Over the years, the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect has been under my management. Without even mentioning other resources, in those tens of thousands of years, I've privately collected as many as thirty-six Nine-Striped Bodhi Fruits, equivalent to twelve Seven-Leaf Spirit Teas!"

Nine-Striped Bodhi Fruits,

A total of thirty-six!

Lin Xuankong's heart couldn't help but jump upon hearing this.

For other cultivators,

Thirty-six Nine-Striped Bodhi Fruits equate to twelve Seven-Leaf Spirit Teas,

It mainly enhances the chances of fusion of Immortal Body and Divine Soul, certainly making them incredibly precious and extremely rare!

But for me, they are even more precious, the effect more important, because once these spirit medicines and spirit fruits are consumed by me, they boast effects over one hundred and seventy-fold!

For my Young Lady Li Xiaolan, Second Lady Zhao Yufei, they equate to nearly ninety-fold effect, vastly increasing their chances of directly advancing to the Initial Stage of the Strongest Immortal Lord, like Guang Yu'er. Although they're not yet cultivated to the Ninth-Grade Perfection Realm, how could I, their husband, let go of such opportunities beneficial to their future Immortal Path Realm!

Of course, the Second Elder Sima Ling of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect definitely didn't bring these precious thirty-six Nine-Striped Bodhi Fruits with him. They must be placed in an extremely concealed location, impossible for others to find!

Considering this, Lin Xuankong couldn't help but be tempted,

Guang Yu'er's footsteps also paused slightly, but soon enough, the new Strongest Immortal Lord from the Guangqing Immortal Sect snorted coldly and continued moving towards the outside, "Hmph, you think thirty-six Nine-Striped Bodhi Fruits can equal the lives of nearly a million cultivators and Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect? Seems like the lives of countless disciples and Earth Immortals of your Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect aren't particularly valuable!"

Chapter 1074 - 447: Enormous Harvest, Shaking the Immortal Realm Human Race

Upon hearing Guang Yu'er speak in this manner,

Lin Xuankong glanced somewhat unexpectedly at his strongest Immortal Lord-level lover, feeling quite fond of her ruthlessness!

He certainly understood well, that Guang Yu'er was not entirely unmoved, after all, it was a full thirty-six Nine-Striped Bodhi Fruits, the rarity of which could probably shake up half of the Immortal Realm!

Even if it were as Guang Yu'er suggested, she directly annihilated the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect and snatched the Nine-Striped Bodhi Fruit tree from within the sect, it would likely still take forty to fifty thousand years to obtain so many Nine-Striped Bodhi Fruits!

Moreover, throughout the entire Immortal Realm, countless cultivators and Earth Immortals yearned fiercely for these Bodhi Fruits, second only to the Seven-Leaf Spirit Tea. Even those strongest Immortal Lords were willing to put aside their dignity and spend considerable resources to exchange for Nine-Striped Bodhi Fruits at the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect!

Therefore, Guang Yu'er saying this now seemed clearly aimed at extracting more useful information from this Two Elder Sima Ling of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect!

At this moment, Elder Sima Ling of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect surely understood Guang Yu'er's intentions, yet at this moment where one is the knife and the other is the fish, even if Sima Ling understood Guang Yu'er's ruthless intentions, he had no choice but to plead desperately!

"Immortal Lord Guang, Immortal Lord Guang!

As long as Immortal Lord Guang spares the innocent Earth Immortals and disciples of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, this old one is not only willing to tell you the location where the thirty-six Nine-Striped Bodhi Fruits are hidden, but also willing to reveal the location where all the immortal arts of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect are recorded in jade scrolls to the Immortal Lord!

These immortal arts were acquired by countless predecessors of our Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect over hundreds of thousands of years, each incredibly powerful, even if they cannot match your sect's nine supreme immortal arts, they are not too far off!

The location where these jade scrolls documenting all the immortal arts of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect are kept is extremely important; currently, only this old one knows of it, even our sect master and grand elder, due to not having managed affairs for many years, are unaware of the location!"

This Two Elder Sima Ling of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect was truly anxious beyond measure at this moment!

He knew all too well that if Guang Yu'er truly reached the council hall and informed everyone of what happened at Guangqing Immortal Hall today, even if the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect would not face immediate extinction, it would become a hated target, just like a rat crossing the street, spurned by all the Immortal Realm Human Race, and destruction would be not far off!

Alas,

Sima Ling of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect felt utmost despair once more, when Guang Yu'er, having heard him propose the second condition, halted her steps briefly, yet still proceeded outward,

Guang Yu'er's icy voice echoed once more,

"Hmph, my Guangqing Immortal Sect's nine supreme immortal arts, praised by the countless fellow cultivators of the Immortal Realm as the indisputable nine supreme immortal arts of the Immortal Realm, each is extremely refined, even if I devote myself to cultivation, to perfectly master all of them, it would take at least hundreds of thousands of years! Besides these nine supreme immortal arts, Guangqing Immortal Sect has countless other refined immortal arts, why would I need the immortal arts of your Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect!"

Even before the voice faded, the footsteps of Lin Xuankong's strongest Immortal Lord-level lover echoed once more.

As the sound of Guang Yu'er's footsteps faded further into the distance, desperation grew increasingly profound in Elder Sima Ling's eyes,

A moment later,

a ruthless glint flashed in his eyes as he mustered his last bit of strength to shout,

"Immortal Lord Guang, there's another extremely important matter, concerning the safety of the entire Immortal Realm, affecting every Immortal Realm Human Race, it could nearly decide the ultimate outcome of the upcoming Immortal Demon War!"

This secret was only known to me because I successfully completed many missions secretly assigned by the Third Demon Lord in those earlier times, thus earning the Third Demon Lord's great trust!

If Immortal Lord Guang insists on annihilating the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, this secret, one which could nearly determine the ultimate victory or defeat in the upcoming Immortal Demon War, could only be buried with this old man forever!"

As soon as Elder Sima Ling of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect said this, Guang Yu'er's footsteps abruptly stopped.

The next moment,

Guang Yu'er transformed into a streak of light, shooting over to stand beside Lin Xuankong,

With a glance exchanged between them, both furrowed their brows, then turned their attention toward Elder Sima Ling of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect.

Lin Xuankong spoke with indistinct joy and worry: "Sima Ling, do not spout nonsense. Although Profound Yin Demon Sect possesses seventy-two Demon Lords, countless demons and demon generals, and recently obtained a wisp of Celestial Demon Power! However, in the face of this Immortal Demon War, the numerous Demon Race of the Boundaryless Mountain and the many Great Accomplishment Bodhisattvas of the Spirit Platform Buddha Realm surely understand the principle of common peril, they will undoubtedly come to aid!

Even though our Immortal Realm Human Race has fewer top-level Immortal Lord-level powerhouses than the multitude of Demon Lords in Profound Yin Demon Sect, counting in the numerous Demon Race's Immortal Lord-level Demon Kings and the Great Accomplishment Bodhisattvas of the Spirit Platform Buddha Realm, the number of top-tier powerhouses is not much less than that of Profound Yin Demon Sect!

As for Profound Yin Demon Sect obtaining a hint of Celestial Demon Power, what is there to fear!

I, Lin Xuankong, have already refined a large quantity of Mid-grade Immortal Artifacts for the Immortal Realm Human Race. If forced, I could even refine some High-grade Immortal Artifacts for the top-tier powerhouses of the Immortal Realm Human Race!

In such a situation, no matter how formidable Profound Yin Demon Sect is, the final victory or defeat is still uncertain!"

Chapter 1075 - 447: Enormous Gains, Overturning the Immortal Realm Human Race (2)

The Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, finished listening to Lin Xuankong's words and smiled bitterly, sighing:

"Immortal Lin's artifact refining techniques are certainly astounding. Nowadays, the entire Immortal Realm Human Race has been directly elevated by a significant level with the support of Immortal Lin's artifact refining technique. If it weren't for the Profound Yin Demon Sect obtaining a sliver of power from the Upper Realm Celestial Demon this time, the Immortal Realm Human Race, backed by Immortal Lin, would surely have achieved a great victory, severely damaging the Profound Yin Demon Sect!

Alas, it is a pity. Immortal Lin was born in unfortunate times. Even though your artifact refining techniques are unparalleled in ancient and present times, how could you know the terror of that sliver of Celestial Demon power the Demon Child Gang Bone obtained? It is a sliver of power from an ancient Celestial Demon of the Upper Realm!

In the entire Immortal Realm Human Race, how many Great Powers have ascended to the Upper Realm over hundreds of thousands to millions of years? Yet, during all those millennia, has there ever been a Human Race powerhouse who ascended to the Upper Realm and transmitted even a hint of power back to the Immortal Realm? Has there ever been a Human Race powerhouse who ascended to the Upper Realm and projected even a fragment of information back to the Immortal Realm?

To this day, all human cultivators in the Immortal Realm remain oblivious to the true state of the Upper Realm!

However, that ancient Celestial Demon, Thousand Illusion Celestial Monarch, from the Upper Realm, can project a sliver of Celestial Demon power into the Immortal Realm!

Judging from this fact, shouldn't Immortal Lin and Immortal Lord Guang perceive the fearsome and mighty nature of that ancient Celestial Demon, Thousand Illusion Celestial Monarch from the Upper Realm?

If not for this, how could I, Sima Ling, feel such utter despair? Hasn't Sima Ling willingly accepted future contempt from countless human cultivators so that countless Earth Immortals and disciples of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect can survive by relying on the Demon Sect? Isn't it also because of the doom-laden message I received from the Third Demon Lord that has left me completely hopeless about the upcoming Immortal Demon War, giving the Human Race almost no chance of triumphing over the Profound Yin Demon Sect!"

Upon hearing this, Lin Xuankong and Guang Yu'er, standing before the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, couldn't help but furrow their brows once more.

Though unwilling to accept, Lin Xuankong and Guang Yu'er had to acknowledge, that the Celestial Demon capable of projecting a sliver of demon power into the Immortal Realm is indeed possibly more powerful than they imagined!

After all, the number of Earth Immortals from the Immortal Realm Human Race who ascended to the Upper Realm over countless years is well over ten thousand. Yet until now, not one ascended powerhouse has ever breached the barrier between the Upper Realm and the Immortal Realm to transmit even a tidbit of information back to the Immortal Realm. The Immortal Realm Human Race's understanding of the Upper Realm is almost entirely speculative. Even the term Earth Immortal stems from numerous cultivators believing that ascendants to the Upper Realm are the true immortals, and deserve to be regarded as true Celestial Immortals!

It should be noted, a million years ago, the resources within the Immortal Realm were countless times more abundant than they are now. In the various perilous and secret realms, heavenly materials, spirit fruits, elixirs filled with divine wondrous abilities and effects were scattered everywhere. Those tools and treasures held by human powerhouses who reached the limit of Earth Immortal in the Ancient Era, Ancient Times, Ancient Era, Middle Ages, and Near Ancient Era and ascended to the Upper Realm were overwhelmingly superior compared to today's Earth Immortals in the Immortal Realm!

Yet still, not a single Earth Immortal ever transmitted even an iota of information after ascending to the Upper Realm!

If it weren't for each ascension involving a Strongest Immortal Lord-level powerhouse witnessing the ethereal celestial music during heavenly tribulations and seeing their power surge dramatically, with immortal yuan refined to a degree beyond the reach of Earth Immortals, hardly anyone in the Immortal Realm would consider the Upper Realm as anything but mythical...

Reflecting upon these things, Lin Xuankong, initially filled with confidence about the numerous powerful cards he possessed, found his expression growing slightly solemn as he gazed at the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling. He spoke in a deep voice, "Continue, tell me about that ancient Celestial Demon called Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch; how strong is this sliver of Celestial Demon power projected to the Immortal Realm, what kind of wondrous power does it possess, and what capabilities?"

The Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, seemed to recall the circumstances when he first learned about that sliver of Celestial Demon power. On his aged and frail face, a hint of fear suddenly appeared, causing even the pupils within his eyes to contract slightly.

He struggled to reinvigorate himself, gazing at Lin Xuankong and Guang Yu'er, speaking with a face full of fear and despair:

"Though I, Sima Ling, have a request for you two, I dare not hide anything from you,

I can only say, the information I received was from the Third Demon Lord of the Profound Yin Demon Sect who informed me. Whether it intended to intimidate me or brag about the Profound Yin Demon Sect's power, this old man is unsure. However, given the fanatical faith those demons, demon generals, and demon lords possess regarding the Celestial Demon, they should not talk nonsense when concerning affairs related to the Celestial Demon!

According to this Third Demon Lord of the Profound Yin Demon Sect,

The ancient Celestial Demon, Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch, not only projected a sliver of Celestial Demon power into the Lower Realm but also transmitted quite a bit of information.

As it said, our world, consisting of the Human Race Immortal Realm, the Demon Race Boundaryless Mountain, along with the Profound Yin Demon Realm, Spirit Platform Buddha Realm, and countless small domains, are just one of the myriad Great Worlds derived from the Supreme Origin Realm, originally named Golden Dragon Immortal Realm, a world spawned when a Celestial Demon from the Upper Realm fell and perished, plummeting into Chaos Space and naturally creating a Great World!

And throughout countless ages, innumerable Great Worlds have spawned in various forms from the Supreme Origin Realm, numbering beyond a trillion!

Among them, some Great Worlds spawn strange creatures, immortal and indestructible, with only beings from the Upper Realm wielding True Spirit power capable of nullifying the life of such enigmatic entities!

Furthermore, some Great Worlds spawn beings of exceedingly short lifespans, yet possess horrid reproductive capabilities, capable of propagating billions in a single breath, and can merge to wield terrifying abilities, even able to erode the barriers between the Upper Realm and the Chaos of Great Worlds, causing harm to the Upper Realm's True Spirit!

Among these, countless Great Worlds appear vast and boundless, yet cannot generate a sliver of Immortal Yuan power, resulting in lifeforms spawned within to have shockingly short lifespans, only surviving by utilizing forces called machinery, electricity, magnetism, nuclear power!"

At this point, the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, showed a hint of contemplation on his face and sighed, "Though understanding those countless Great Worlds described by the Third Celestial Demon may not genuinely exist, the thought of possibly existing outside our Golden Dragon Immortal Realm are those innumerable wondrous Great Worlds, diametrically different from the Golden Dragon Immortal Realm, even knowing the Third Celestial Demon may be beguiling this old man, this old man cannot help but marvel at the mystery of the Supreme Origin Realm, and the marvels of countless Great Worlds!"

Yet this Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, really cannot comprehend,

His words caused tumultuous waves to surge in Lin Xuankong's heart standing before him!

Staring at the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling ahead, listening to Sima Ling speak regarding a world incapable of generating Immortal Yuan power, Lin Xuankong suddenly recalled his original homeland, a world occasionally appearing in his memory during cultivation, that Blue Planet he almost forgot!

At times, Lin Xuankong can even feel a misperception that the Blue Planet and everything that transpired may have merely been an old man's dream at best!

And at this moment,

Tumultuous waves surged within Lin Xuankong's heart,

The Supreme Origin Realm, perhaps the Third Demon Lord's words hold truth?

Is the Upper Realm mentioned by countless Human Race cultivators within the Immortal Realm called the Supreme Origin Realm? And among the countless Great Worlds derived from the Supreme Origin Realm, exists the Cosmos containing that Blue Planet where he once lived? If his memories of everything on that Blue Planet aren't merely a dream, then perhaps his true homeland resides among the many Great Worlds derived from the Supreme Origin Realm!

Perhaps, if one day he can cultivate to a certain level, he may return to that Blue Planet, to his true homeland once?

Chapter 1076 - 448: Thousand Illusions and Ten Thousand Curses, Curse of Time

However, Lin Xuankong was well aware, if what the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, said was entirely true, and the Third Demon Lord of the Profound Yin Demon Sect had not deceived his minion Sima Ling, then the idea of returning to his blue planet homeland was definitely not something he could accomplish now!

Because at this moment, he wasn't even in the same great world as that blue planet!

To one day stand at the pinnacle of this world and ascend to the upper realm known as the Supreme Origin Realm, then one day traverse countless worlds to return to his homeland, he feared he didn't know how long he would need to cultivate!

But,

even if there is the slightest possibility,

one must attempt; since one can come here, there must be a way to return!

Thinking of this, Lin Xuankong felt his heart fill with hope, while beside him, Guang Yu'er furrowed her brows, showing a slight expression of impatience on her charming face, looking at the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, and coldly said:

"Do you have some ulterior motive, planning to stall for time? Seeing the way you are, spouting a bunch of highly elusive, unverifiable words, you must be hoping the cold power of Guangqing Cold Extreme Skill will diminish, allowing you to escape?"

Sima Ling glanced at her and immediately displayed a bitter smile,

"Sima Ling knows he betrayed the Immortal Realm Human Race, which can be said to be a grave sin. Today, surely there is no path to life, how could I dare to risk the sacrifice of countless fellow disciples of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect by deceiving the two of you!

Everything Sima Ling said was true, and I definitely had no intention of stalling time. Moreover, the Guangqing Cold Extreme Skill displayed by Immortal Lin is incredibly powerful; it's simply impossible for me to escape!"

Upon hearing this, Guang Yu'er glared at him, intending to say something, but Lin Xuankong spoke up beside her, saying, "Yu'er, let him continue without interruption!"

Upon seeing Lin Xuankong speak, Guang Yu'er's previously fierce and cold expression instantly turned into a gentle and obedient one, nodding: "Okay, then I'll remain quiet!"

Witnessing this,

the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, looked at Lin Xuankong with some surprise, thinking that Lin Xuankong, despite being in the Fourth Grade Realm, not only possessed unparalleled talent but also had various miraculous means, able to make a Strongest Immortal Lord-level powerhouse, usually cold and proud in nature, like Guang Yu'er, so obedient... Alas, accepting the Third Demon Lord's task to deal with Lin Xuankong was truly the biggest mistake of my life, even ambushing a Strongest Immortal Lord would likely be easier than dealing with Lin Xuankong!

But this Lin Xuankong, whether in Immortal Yuan fluctuation or Immortal Body, seemed to be merely a Fourth Grade Realm Earth Immortal!

After a moment of reflection,

"What I just said was not intended to stall for time, but to inform the two Immortals that the audacious assault on the entire Immortal Realm, Boundaryless Mountain, Spirit Platform Buddha Realm by the Profound Yin Demon Sect is not due to their Demon Child Gang Bone and several Demon Lords being mindlessly reckless, but because there is indeed extremely terrifying Upper Realm Celestial Demon support behind the Profound Yin Demon Sect, and the ancient Celestial Demon known as Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch is indeed frighteningly powerful!"

Lin Xuankong slightly furrowed his brows and asked,

"Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch, ancient Celestial Demon...then what kind of power does the celestial demon force transmitted to this Golden Dragon Immortal Realm possess?"

According to what you said before, given that breaking through the World Wall of the Supreme Origin Realm is incredibly difficult, those Immortal Realm Human Race experts who ascend to the upper realm can't break through the World Wall; even if the ancient Celestial Demon Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch could transmit a celestial demon force to the lower realm, it should have lost most of its power due to the World Wall, so how could the Demon Child Gang Bone of Profound Yin Demon Sect be so strong even if he fused with that celestial demon force?"

The Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, sighed and said:

"If the celestial demon force of the ancient Celestial Demon, Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch, transmitted to the Golden Dragon Immortal Realm were merely the ordinary magic of Immortal Realm Earth Immortals, then despite being powerful, it would ultimately have limits! Furthermore, the celestial demon force, once transmitted to the large world of the Golden Dragon Immortal Realm, would be constrained by this world's rules, unable to break past the various laws of this great world!

Add to this, combining the Immortal Realm Human Race, the Spirit Platform Buddha Realm, and the Unbounded Mountain Demon Race, there are perhaps sixty Strongest Immortal Lord-level powerhouses, each having fused their Divine Soul with Immortal Body, possessing the frightening Blood Rebirth ability, almost impossible to be killed by the power of any Immortal Technique before the lifespan of their Divine Soul is exhausted!

With all these calculations, it seems the Demon Child Gang Bone of the Profound Yin Demon Sect, even if he fused with that celestial demon force of the Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch, couldn't possibly succeed in defeating so many Strongest Immortal Lord-level powerhouses!

But,

you two Immortals do not know, that the celestial demon force transmitted to the Golden Dragon Immortal Realm by the renowned ancient Celestial Demon Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch from the Supreme Origin Realm is a type of magic known as the Thousand Illusions and Ten Thousand Curses, a Curse of Time Demon Technique!"

Upon hearing this,

Lin Xuankong and Guang Yu'er exchanged glances, both frowning,

Guang Yu'er furrowing her brow as she looked at the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, "Curse of Time? Is it a magic related to the Power of Time? Is it very powerful? Don't mention anything else, my master, Immortal Lord Luoshui, Elder Yaan, can casually set up a New Luo Water Array capable of influencing the flow of time, such means can also affect time!"

Chapter 1077 - 448: Thousand Illusions and Ten Thousand Curses, Curse of Time_2

The Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, sighed and said:

"Sima Ling certainly knows about the Demon-Suppressing Immortal Carriage and the Luo Water Array of the Immortal Lord Yaan Mingyu, but forgive this old man for speaking frankly, the Luo Water Array of the Immortal Lord Yaan Mingyu, though powerful and capable of affecting the flow of time with its mysterious effects, pales in comparison to the Curse of Time from the Ancient Celestial Demon Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch. The difference is vast!"

"What?

Old Sima, you can't be spouting nonsense!

The Immortal Lord Yaan Mingyu's New Luo Water Array, when operated with abundant resources, can alter the time flow speed within the array's range, even boosting it a hundredfold!

Do you understand the concept of a hundredfold?

It's as if a Cultivator within the New Luo Water Array spends a hundred years in seclusion, while externally, only one year has passed!

This essentially grants Cultivators within the New Luo Water Array a hundred times the cultivation speed of others!

Such a divine and incredible method, how dare you say it can't compare to that Ancient Celestial Demon Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch's Curse of Time? You old geezer, it seems you've been brainwashed by the Third Demon Lord of the Profound Yin Demon Sect, believing only those little demons and Demon Lords are strong!"

Upon hearing the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, claim that the Curse of Time is stronger than the New Luo Water Array, Immortal Lord Guang Yu'er immediately expressed dissatisfaction.

After all, Lin Xuankong's little lover, Guang Yu'er, was quite envious and yearned to cultivate together with Lin Xuankong within the New Luo Water Array!

A hundredfold cultivation speed is enticing to any Cultivator in pursuit of power!

However, the New Luo Water Array, which Guang Yu'er prized and longed for, was disparaged by Sima Ling, making it hard for her to tolerate it.

Yet, at this moment, Lin Xuankong did not seem too surprised, since to Lin Xuankong, his master Immortal Lord Yaan Mingyu's New Luo Water Array was certainly considered the most mystical array of the Immortal Realm, not only possessing defensive and offensive capabilities but also altering the time flow speed, making it remarkably divine. But compared to Lin Xuankong's Vigorous in Old Age Life Plate, being Old and Wise and the talents related to Wives, Children, Elders, and Youngsters, it wasn't extraordinarily strong!

Because a hundredfold cultivation speed, for Lin Xuankong now, wasn't considered an immense enhancement anymore --- currently, Lin Xuankong holds a cultivation speed over a hundred seventy times, with the capability to amplify the effects of various Spirit Fruits and Elixirs by the same magnitude, and even provides his Wives, Children, Elders, and Youngsters with tremendous cultivation speed boosts and elevated effectiveness from consuming Spirit Fruits and Elixirs!

This is Lin Xuankong now,

if in a hundred years, a thousand years, or even ten thousand years,

Lin Xuankong can't imagine how fast his cultivation speed might be at that time! Not to mention Lin Xuankong himself, when he reaches ten thousand years, his wife and master Immortal Lord Yaan Mingyu, and adopted son Little Hu, will all have a cultivation speed of five thousand times, further enhancing the effect of all Spirit Fruits and Elixirs by five thousand times!

What about ten thousand years, a hundred thousand years, or even five million years?

By then, forget Lin Xuankong himself, even those around him, the cultivation speed bonuses they possess, will surpass any top genius of the Golden Dragon Immortal Realm countless times!

Holding these powerful talents is why Lin Xuankong deeply comprehends that above all others and beyond all skies, his master Immortal Lord Yaan Mingyu's array techniques and New Luo Water Array, while exceptionally divine, are ultimately surpassed by greater methods!

As Lin Xuankong mused,

"Immortal Lord Guang, Immortal Lin, the Curse of Time transmitted by the Ancient Celestial Demon Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch to the Lower Realm not only affects the flow of time by a hundredfold but directly impacts the targeted beings, accelerating their time flow by a thousand, ten thousand, or even a hundred thousand years!

The Third Demon Lord of the Profound Yin Demon Sect, though not explicitly elaborating on the effectiveness of the Demon Child Gang Bone's Curse of Time, stated that all Ninth-Grade Demon Artifact Level Demon Generals of the Profound Yin Demon Sect were blessed by it, directly advancing their cultivation by a hundred thousand years!

It is precisely because the Demon Child Gang Bone cast the Curse of Time, driven by the Celestial Demon Power, upon all Ninth-Grade Demon Artifact Level Demon Generals, that those once equal to Immortal Realm Human Race Earth Immortals became exceedingly formidable, and although they hadn't broken through to the Demon Lord Realm, they gained significant enhancements, emerging as new Ninth-Grade Demon Artifact Level Demon Generals, who even ordinary Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals can't harm!"

Upon hearing this much from Sima Ling,

Guang Yu'er, initially somewhat impatient, suddenly recalled her past experience with Lin Xuankong guarding the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect against the eighty Ninth-Grade Demon Artifact Level Demon Generals,

Back then, Guang Yu'er was a Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortal,

Despite her vast discrepancy from the Strongest Immortal Lord level, she had mastered a powerful technique of the Guangqing Immortal Sect, the Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortal ability, far surpassing the power of ordinary Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortals from small to medium Immortal sects!

However,

even though she was a Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortal, much stronger than an ordinary Earth Immortal by an unimaginable margin, she couldn't break through the defenses of a Ninth-Grade Demon Artifact Level Demon General with her full power using the Guangqing Cold Extreme Skill!

At the time, Guang Yu'er was indeed extraordinarily shocked, for earlier, during her training with Immortal Lord Qiaan Yuan, she had confronted the Ninth-Grade Demon Artifact Level Demon General from the Profound Yin Demon Sect with a Ninth-Grade Realm, and she had won! Without this, at that time, Immortal Lord Qiaan Yuan and Immortal Lord Kunyuan wouldn't have confidently made a wager with Immortal Lord Yaan Mingyu!

But to Guang Yu'er's surprise, when she and Lin Xuankong were at the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect, they encountered those new Ninth-Grade Demon Artifact Level Demon Generals, whom she couldn't even hurt despite the utmost effort!

Upon contemplating this, Guang Yu'er's expression transformed multiple times, she shook her head and said:

"No wonder, back then I couldn't even penetrate the defense of a single new Ninth-Grade Demon Artifact Level Demon General, which almost led me to lose complete confidence in my strength and Immortal Technique! It turns out those new Ninth-Grade Demon Artifact Level Demon Generals had their cultivation heightened by a hundred thousand years under the Demon Child Gang Bone's Curse of Time, meaning the ones I was attacking were aged demon Generals over ten thousand years old!

In this light, back then, as a mere Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortal with over ten thousand years of cultivation, failing to break through an aged demon Generals' defense seemed justified!"

At this time, the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, showed a hint of despair in his eyes and sighed:

"Immortal Lord Guang, Immortal Lin, most terrifyingly, according to the Third Demon Lord, the Demon Child Gang Bone of the Profound Yin Demon Sect leveraged the positive effects of the Curse of Time, not only enhancing all Ninth-Grade Demon Artifact Level Demon Generals but also stimulating the power of the Ancient Celestial Demon Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch, significantly augmenting the strength of all Demon Lords of the Profound Yin Demon Sect!"

"Moreover, the astounding effect of the Curse of Time, apart from this, boasts extremely terrifying offensive capabilities!"

Chapter 1078 - 449: The Terrifying Effects of the Curse of Time

As the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, spoke up,

Even the usually cold and proud Guang Yu'er couldn't help but shrink her pupils, thinking about the terrifying war the Immortal Realm Human Race would soon face, which would be extremely brutal!

Especially, if the information from the Second Elder Sima Ling of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect is true,

The Curse of Time conveyed by the Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch to the Golden Dragon Immortal Realm has a might that indeed surpasses almost all the Immortal Techniques held by the Immortal Realm's sects!

This Ancient Celestial Demon, Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch, dwelling in the Upper Realm, with its various Demon Techniques and inherent power, is terrifying enough to suffocate anyone. After all, as per the Second Elder Sima Ling of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, the Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch is famed as the Celestial Demon of Ten Thousand Curses, and this Curse of Time is just one of its controlled Demon Techniques!

Thinking of this, Guang Yu'er furrowed her brows and asked, "With such might in the Curse of Time, it can directly increase the cultivation of the Demon Race practicing demon techniques by a hundred thousand, could it be done without any cost?"

The Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, shook his head,

"As for the cost of performing this Curse of Time with the Demon Child Gang Bone fused with Celestial Demon Power... naturally, it requires a massive blood sacrifice. It's said that for each advancement of a Demon General of Ninth-Grade Demon Artifact Level by a hundred thousand years of cultivation, at least a hundred thousand mortal tier seven-grade beings must be blood-sacrificed!

To enhance the cultivation of a Demon Lord Level expert by a hundred thousand years would require an overwhelmingly large number of blood sacrifices!

This time, the Profound Yin Demon Sect launched bold attacks against the entire Immortal Realm, and even captured countless cultivators in the Eastern Domain of the Immortal Realm, as it needed to blood-sacrifice a huge number of cultivators and earthly immortals to complete the strength enhancement for the Ninth-Grade Demon Artifact Level Demon Generals and Demon Lord Level experts!

Even though it requires a massive blood sacrifice, the terrifying Celestial Demon Power of this Curse of Time still brings a sense of despair, Hence, I find it hard to believe that despite united efforts, the Immortal Realm Human Race has scarcely any chance to withstand this massive invasion by the Profound Yin Demon Sect!"

At this, the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, turned to gaze at Lin Xuankong and sighed, "It was precisely because I was intimidated by the frightening Celestial Demon Power that I nurtured ulterior motives, planning to capture Immortal Lin and surrender him to the Profound Yin Demon Sect's demon, hoping that amidst the ensuing Immortal-Demon final battle, the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect's hundreds of thousands of earthly immortals and cultivators could see a glimmer of hope!

Alas, I sadly underestimated the means of Immortal Lin!

But... but Immortal Lin, though strong, ultimately is but one individual's force, aiming to resist the massively enhanced might of the entire Profound Yin Demon Sect, and the trace of Celestial Demon Power conveyed from the Upper Realm by the Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch is extremely difficult, extremely difficult!

If this Immortal-Demon final battle could be delayed by a few thousand years, with Immortal Lin's astonishing artifact refining skills, he could surely refine even more, stronger Immortal Artifacts, or potentially refine High-Grade Immortal Artifacts. At that time, the Immortal Realm Human Race might have some chance to collectively resist the Profound Yin Demon Sect, but now, where is the time!"

Lin Xuankong, upon hearing this, also couldn't help but marvel at the techniques of the Ancient Celestial Demon, Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch, from the Upper Realm.

The Ancient Celestial Demon, renowned for the Ten Thousand Curses, just conveyed a trace of the Curse of Time, employing Celestial Demon Power, holds the potential to overturn the entire Golden Dragon Immortal Realm. That Ancient Celestial Demon, Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch, is indeed frighteningly powerful!

Yet, upon reflection,

He couldn't help but think of his various talents from the Vigorous in Old Age Life Plate, briefly comparing them, rekindling a flicker of hope within himself.

Lin Xuankong secretly thought:

This Curse of Time from that Ancient Celestial Demon, Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch, is indeed powerful, it can swiftly enhance the strength of numerous Profound Yin Demon Sect strong demon races, even directly boosting a hundred thousand years of cultivation, but when compared with my Old and Wise talent, it seems slightly inferior!

Because my Old and Wise talent, although it cannot instantly enhance my cultivation, allows me to accelerate my strength enhancement significantly, crucially without any cost—though that Ancient Celestial Demon, Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch's Curse of Time is strong, it can only be cast once on a target, requiring massive blood sacrifices, ultimately it's the path of evil!

Although that Ancient Celestial Demon, Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch's Curse of Time can be used on numerous targets, when allied with my Old and Wise talent and the Wives, Children, Elders, and Youngsters talent, why couldn't it be applied to numerous Immortal Realm Human Race?

Additionally, my Old and Wise talent has another stronger aspect: it can incredibly enhance the effects of various Spirit Fruit and Elixirs, even enabling one like Guang Yu'er, a Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortal, under the influence of Seven-leaf Spirit Tea and Wives, Children, Elders, and Youngsters talent, rapidly become the top-tier expert of the Early Stage of the Strongest Immortal Lord realm....

This point is something even the effect of that Ancient Celestial Demon, Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch's Curse of Time cannot compare with, since the strength of the Ninth-Grade Demon Artifact Level Demon General enhanced by the Curse of Time is tougher than the Ninth-Grade Perfect Level Earth Immortal, yet still cannot directly boost those Ninth-Grade Demon Artifact Level Demon Generals to the Demon Lord Realm!

Blood sacrifices to enhance strength ultimately have limits, it's the path of evil, not the true path allowing cultivators to undergo Metamorphosis on the Immortal Path!

Considering this, Lin Xuankong, initially feeling some helplessness due to the Second Elder Sima Ling of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect's description, had his mental burden significantly lightened.

Chapter 1079 - 449: The Terrifying Effects of the Curse of Time (Part 2)

However, Lin Xuankong had to admit, ever since his Vigorous in Old Age Life Plate started to take effect, the Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch, who was said to be an ancient Celestial Demon from the Upper Realm, did indeed bring him considerable pressure. This kind of pressure was something he had never experienced in over a hundred years of cultivation!

Even when facing his master, Immortal Lord Luoshui, Yaan Mingyu, he had never felt such terrifying pressure!

No wonder they were such a fearsome presence in the Supreme Origin Realm, but who knows, what kind of existence is this Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch within the Supreme Origin Realm?

If within the Supreme Origin Realm, all were terrifying existences like the Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch, then the strength of the Celestial Demons there truly exerted an immense amount of pressure!

At this moment, Lin Xuankong had no idea that the Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch, whom he regarded as a great source of pressure, was actually the oldest and most powerful Celestial Demon in the entire Supreme Origin Realm. The Saint Monarch led countless Celestial Demons within the Supreme Origin Realm, gathering almost all the terrifying power of the Celestial Demons. Without such power, the Thousand Illusion Saint Monarch would not have been able to break through the World Wall of the Supreme Origin Realm and transmit a trace of Celestial Demon power to various great worlds!

Composing himself, Lin Xuankong looked towards the Second Elder Sima Ling of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect and said:

"The outcome of the ultimate battle between Immortals and Demons is still undetermined. Although the Demon Child Gang Bone of the Profound Yin Demon Sect can enhance the strength of numerous demon leaders within the Profound Yin Demon Sect through the Curse of Time, can't I, Lin Xuankong, also refine a large number of Immortal Artifacts for the Immortal Realm Human Race's powerhouses?

You just mentioned that besides enhancing the strength of those in the Demon Race, the Curse of Time also has a frightening attack effect. This is something we must guard against!

Go on then, what exactly is the attack method of this Curse of Time? What kind of power does it possess? How can it be defended against, do you know?"

While the Curse of Time's effect on boosting the Demon Race's strength was indeed formidable and would likely make any Earth Immortal despair upon learning of it, in Lin Xuankong's view, since the Curse of Time could not directly elevate the demon leaders of the Profound Yin Demon Sect from Demon General Level to Demon Lord Realm, there was still hope. However, the Curse of Time, after all, derived from the power of an ancient Celestial Demon from the Upper Realm; its attack effect must not be underestimated!

Hearing Lin Xuankong's question,

Sima Ling, the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, had a change in his eyes and suddenly fell silent, looking at Lin Xuankong with a faint expression of plea in his gaze.

Clearly, this was a critical moment, and the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect hoped that the information he was providing, which would have a significant impact on the Immortal Demon War, could earn him Lin Xuankong's promise to spare the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect and give its hundreds of thousands of Earth Immortals and cultivators a path to survival!

Seeing Sima Ling, the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, in this manner, Lin Xuankong thought it over slightly and said solemnly:

"The other Earth Immortals and disciples of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, who did not get involved in the collusion with the Profound Yin Demon Sect, can rest assured. I, Lin Xuankong, am not a bloodthirsty person, and I will definitely not hold the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect's people accountable!"

Beside him, the Strongest Immortal Lord, Guang Yu'er, let out a cold snort, her pretty face full of murder intent, and said coldly, "You better start talking quickly. At a time like this, do you think you have the leverage to bargain? If you dawdle any longer, I'll head straight to the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect myself!"

At this moment, as the Strongest Immortal Lord, Guang Yu'er exuded an air of murder, while Sima Ling, the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, revealed a slight expression of relief in his eyes, clearly indicating that this Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect was old and wise, having long discerned who held the authority between Lin Xuankong and Guang Yu'er...

Having obtained Lin Xuankong's promise, this Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, finally felt at ease and continued to speak:

"When the Third Demon Lord communicated with me and intimidated me, he didn't explicitly describe how strong the attack effect of the Curse of Time was, but he highlighted that the terrifying curse effect of the Curse of Time could instantly impact the opponent's lifespan foundation, greatly accelerating the aging of the target. As for exactly how much lifespan it could affect or how many years it could age the opponent, I am unaware!

What can be certain is that the horrifying demon technique of the Curse of Time, in terms of affecting the target's lifespan, should depend on how many living creatures were used in blood sacrifice!

Moreover, as I know, all curse-type demon techniques of the Demon Race can also be triggered by paying a commensurate price, which means that when the Curse of Time is activated with the intent to curse the opponent's lifespan, it can consume the lifespan of the one executing the Curse of Time to initiate it!

Regarding how many years the opponent could age with one initiation of this curse, I am unclear, and the Third Demon Lord wouldn't possibly disclose such important information to me.

Although, all demons within the Profound Yin Demon Realm are Longevity Species, renowned for their lengthy lifespans, some Demon Lord-level powerhouses possess a lifespan limit of over one million years, such powerful demons, if they could, under the influence of the Curse of Time, cast curses upon the strongest Immortal Lords of the Immortal Realm Human Race, might lead to the fall of quite a few among them!

When Immortal Lin and Immortal Lord Guang face the Demon Lords of the Profound Yin Demon Sect in the future, it's wise to exercise caution.

The lifespan limits of the Immortal Realm Human Race's strongest Immortal Lord-level powerhouses far exceed those of typical Earth Immortals, yet most only have a lifespan limit of a hundred thousand to two hundred thousand years!"

Beside Lin Xuankong, the Strongest Immortal Lord, Guang Yu'er, upon hearing this, couldn't help but furrow her brows again, if the Curse of Time could rely on its terrifying curse effect to impact the lifespan limits of targets, then indeed this demon technique was extremely terrifying. The lifespan limits of the strongest Immortal Lords of the Human Race cannot be compared to those of the Demon Lords of the Profound Yin Demon Sect!

The same goes for myself; without consuming some Supreme Spirit Fruits and Elixirs that increase lifespan, my normal lifespan limit is about a hundred and forty to a hundred and fifty thousand years, nowhere near comparable to the Longevity Species of demons. Moreover, they can even use the blood sacrifice of living creatures to cast curses!

Especially Xuankong... The Strongest Immortal Lord Guang Yu'er felt a hint of worry in her heart, Xuankong is now one of the most important targets of the Profound Yin Demon Sect, it seems like the Demon Lords of the Profound Yin Demon Sect and the Demon Child Gang Bone aim to capture Xuankong alive!

However, in the event of a true outbreak of the war, if the Demon Lords of the Profound Yin Demon Sect and the Demon Child Gang Bone become desperate and decide to eliminate Xuankong, who significantly enhances the Immortal Realm Human Race as an Artifact Refining Master..... If the Demon Lords of the Profound Yin Demon Sect use the Curse of Time through the Demon Child Gang Bone against Xuankong, how could Xuankong withstand it!

Not to mention Xuankong's current Realm, which does not afford a high lifespan limit; even if Xuankong suddenly ascended to the Strongest Immortal Lord level, having a lifespan limit of hundreds of thousands of years, he still wouldn't withstand such a fearsome curse!

Hearing this, Lin Xuankong also felt a bit of pressure in his heart, he secretly sensed the grand purple-golden characters within his Life Plate, and yes, his current lifespan limit was over five million years, a figure he once believed to be all but immortal, but facing the Curse of Time from the Demon Child Gang Bone of the Profound Yin Demon Sect, it seemed still slightly insufficient!

If all Demon Lord-level powerhouses of the Profound Yin Demon Sect could utilize the Curse of Time through the Demon Child Gang Bone against him, his splendid lifespan of over five million years might only last against the lifespan limits of seven or eight Demon Lords before collapsing!

Yet, the Profound Yin Demon Sect hosts seventy-two Demon Lord-level powerhouses, and this count hasn't even accounted for the vast number of Ninth-Grade Demon Artifact-level Demon Generals within the Profound Yin Demon Sect!

Furthermore, that Demon Child Gang Bone of the Profound Yin Demon Sect might use blood sacrifices of living beings to activate the enigmatic power of the Curse of Time, and if they perform a large-scale blood sacrifice to unleash the Curse of Time, who knows how much of his lifespan limit might be siphoned away!

Calculating this, the pressure is truly immense... no, if I wish to ensure my complete safety in this ultimate battle between Immortals and Demons, I must figure out a way to procure some Spirit Fruits and Elixirs to extend my lifespan limit further!

Chapter 1080 - 450: Treasure in Hand

At this Hour, the Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, looked carefully at Lin Xuankong and spoke with some emotion:

"There's another matter,

The Third Demon Lord of the Profound Yin Demon Sect also mentioned it, though not in detail!

It's related to a great war involving various races like demons, humans, and buddhas in the Supreme Origin Realm, saying that the task of capturing Immortal Lin given to me is extremely important, not only influencing the pace of this Immortal Demon War but possibly affecting the dispute in the Supreme Origin Realm!"

Upon hearing Sima Ling of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect say so, the Strongest Immortal Lord Guang Yu'er snorted lightly,

"Do you even need to say that? Every Earth Immortal in the Immortal Realm is well aware of this!

Xuankong's Artifact Refining Technique is unmatched throughout the ages. I believe even the Artifact Refining Masters from the Ancient Era, Middle Ages, or the distant past cannot compare to Xuankong!

During those periods like the Ancient Era, Middle Ages, etc., although the human race's Artifact Refining Masters in the Immortal Realm produced many Middle to High-Grade Immortal Artifacts and even a few Ninth-Grade Immortal Artifacts, the reason could very well be due to the abundance of Heavenly Materials and Earthly Treasures during those eras. Even now extremely precious items like Celestial Demon Blood Fruit, Seven-leaf Spirit Tea, and Nine-Striped Bodhi Fruits were more plentiful than now!

Thinking back to the Ancient Era and others, the Refining Masters of the Human Race might have created so many Middle to High-Grade Immortal Artifacts because they used exceptionally spiritual materials, thereby having a chance to refine some Ninth-Grade Immortal Artifacts!

Yet Xuankong should be the sole individual across countless eras in the Immortal Realm capable of refining First-Grade Immortal Artifacts using materials meant for initial-grade immortal artifacts, subsequently achieving Second, Third, and even Fourth-Grade Immortal Artifacts! The difficulty of such refinement is worlds apart!

In today's Immortal Realm, before Xuankong created numerous immortal artifacts, even First-Grade Immortal Artifacts were limited, Second-Grade were exceedingly rare, and the sole Third-Grade Immortal Artifact belonged to the Sect Leader of the Divine Dynasty Immortal Sect!

Those demons of the Profound Yin Demon Sect planning to refine high-grade demon artifacts must wish to get extremely strong immortal artifacts as materials!

Under such circumstances,

The demons, demon generals, and demon lords of the Profound Yin Demon Sect, and the so-called demon child would likely dream of capturing Xuankong, forcing him to refine many immortal artifacts for them to pollute and refine!"

Listening to such high praise from the affectionate partner of the Strongest Immortal Lord, Guang Yu'er, Lin Xuankong felt a slight sense of emotion. Although his current Path of Artifact Refining is naturally strong, he still can't directly refine Ninth-Grade Immortal Artifacts. He obtained the method for refining growth-type immortal artifacts from Artifact Refining Genius Miss Xiao and, together with Miss Xiao, refined an extremely strong growth-type immortal artifact, cultivating it to become a Ninth-Grade Immortal Artifact with a huge resource expenditure!

In today's entire Immortal Realm, the real first genius in artifact refining who stands unmatched through time is indeed Miss Xiao!

Of course, to speak of it, I had a significant contribution to this too!

Though the artifact refining talent of Miss Xiao is astonishing, without my Vigorous in Old Age Life Plate and the Old and Wise Talent, providing Miss Xiao with nearly ninety times growth in comprehension speed, Miss Xiao's Path of Artifact Refining might only be at the stage of High-Grade Spiritual Artifacts and not at her Immortal Path Realm!

Thus speaking, Miss Xiao and I can be said to have achieved greatness together!

While Lin Xuankong pondered this,

The Second Elder of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, Sima Ling, spoke: "I, Sima Ling, have now informed the two Immortals of everything I know concerning the Profound Yin Demon Sect!

As for the thirty-six Nine-Striped Bodhi Fruits and the Immortal Technique Jade Scroll from the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect I promised to the two Immortals earlier, are hidden in the eighteenth Celestial Crystal Cave and the sixty-ninth Earth Fire Cave in the Seventy-two Cave Perilous Lands of Central State in the Immortal Realm!

I, Sima Ling, only hope the two Immortals can spare the hundreds of thousands of disciples and Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, not sever the inheritance from my hands!"

"The eighteenth Celestial Crystal Cave and the sixty-ninth Earth Fire Cave in the Seventy-two Cave Perilous Lands?"

The Strongest Immortal Lord Guang Yu'er's eyes moved, her figure shifted as she took down one of the Fourth-Grade Immortal Artifacts used by Lin Xuankong to set up the Nine-Layered Thousand Cranes Grand Array. She spoke to the Second Elder Sima Ling of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect in a cold tone: "I shall head to the Seventy-two Cave Perilous Lands of Central State now, to retrieve the thirty-six Nine-Striped Bodhi Fruits and the Immortal Technique Jade Scroll for Xuankong. If your information is true, although you cannot escape the death sentence this time, at least I won't touch the disciples and Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect further!"

Upon hearing this, the Second Elder Sima Ling of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect immediately called out somewhat excitedly: "If Immortal Lord Guang can truly spare the hundreds of thousands of disciples and Earth Immortals of the Ten Thousand Laws Immortal Sect, I, Sima Ling, would be immensely grateful, immensely grateful!"

Seeing Guang Yu'er activate her Immortal Yuan, preparing to leave, Lin Xuankong frowned and said: "Since it's a quite famous perilous land in the Immortal Realm, why don't I go with you, so we can look out for each other!"

Originally bearing a cold expression, upon hearing Lin Xuankong's words, the Strongest Immortal Lord Guang Yu'er's expression shifted to one of warmth, softly saying: "There's no need for you to go. You really think I progressed to a Strongest Immortal Lord Level for nothing? An Hour has almost passed now, my strength has recovered more than ninety percent, a mere Seventy-two Cave Perilous Land pales in comparison with true dangers like the Blood-colored Mist Forbidden Land!
