Chapter 341: Significant Progress in Sixth-Layer Perfection Strength, Immortal Corpse in the Sealing Demon Mountain Range_2

These hundred or so little girls would be personally taught martial arts Cultivation and Alchemy Techniques by Lii Xiaolan. Once these girls had mastered the most basic Nine Revolutions Qi Replenishing Elixir Refining Methods, Lin Xuankong wouldn't have to chew medicinal herbs every day but could enjoy sweet elixirs daily!

Xiao Xiuyi also selected a hundred rather clever little girls to train them in the manufacturing of Profound Iron Machinery.

More than two months passed, and many of these girls were already able to independently complete the refining and polishing of certain Profound Iron Components. According to Xiao Xiuyi, once these little girls had all completed their training, the production of Profound Iron Machinery would increase by more than tenfold!

The sole current limitation on Profound Iron Machinery was the finite number of Profound Truth Jade Particles in Lin Xuankong's possession. However, building thousands of Profound Truth Tractors was not an issue.

Over with Zhao Yufei, she also gathered some relatively intelligent women to form her management team. With the powerful organization of this Zhao Family lady, order among the tens of thousands of civilians was well-maintained in all aspects. Lin Xuankong didn't have to worry about any chaotic matters; he could completely act as a hands-off king!

However, the fact that women managed all key positions made Lin Xuankong feel somewhat emotional. Should I perhaps bring in one of the men like Little Hu, Yang Mountain, or Han Lu to form a men's team? Otherwise, it feels like my Secret Realm is leaning towards female dominance!

「This morning,」

Lin Xuankong finished his Cultivation Technique and looked into his Life Plate.

Lin Xuankong: Remaining Lifespan, eight hundred sixty-two years and ten days.

Life Plate: [Vigorous in Old Age]

Life Plate First Talent: [Old and Wise]—Cultivation speed increases with age. Current age sixty, Cultivation Speed increased sixtyfold.

Life Plate Second Talent: [Wives, Children, Elders, and Youngsters]—Capable of continually obtaining the Cultivation Techniques and skills of his wives and children...

For other Tier Six Cultivators, more than two months was likely just the blink of an eye. After all, from the Sixth Layer onwards, the Cultivation Speed of ordinary Martial Cultivators slowed down significantly. Normally, for a Cultivator to progress from Mid-grade to Late Stage of the Sixth Layer, it would take at least several decades. As for progressing from Late Stage to Perfection... that depended on fate! Elder Hua Yanluo of the Celestial Sect, for example, had been at the Late Stage of the Sixth Layer for many years with no progress in her Realm.

But in just over two months, Lin Xuankong had swiftly advanced from Mid-grade of the Sixth Layer to Sixth-Layer Perfection! Now, Lin Xuankong was only one Thick Earth Spiritual Object away from advancing to the Seventh Layer Realm!

Among them, the Yin Talisman Technique, his primary Cultivation Technique, was already approaching Perfection within the Great Success in Micro Mastery Realm.

The Shadow Concealment Primordial Technique, Fierce Tiger Roar Bone Technique, and Blood-Burning Secret Technique had also progressed significantly. Now, if Lin Xuankong used these three explosive Secret Techniques along with the Kui Ox Drum, he could increase his Explosive Power by fortyfold!

According to Lin Xuankong's estimation, at his current Sixth-Layer Perfection Realm, if he activated these explosive Secret Techniques, his Explosive Power could rival that of an expert at the Eighth-Layer Perfection Realm!

Among all his techniques, the Blood Eating Technique had progressed the fastest! Lin Xuankong's Blood Eating Technique had now become the first of his arts to reach the Divine Skill Realm. Upon reaching this realm, Lin Xuankong discovered that even standing on a mountain peak and inhaling a few mouthfuls of the southeast wind could replenish some of his Qi Blood.

Additionally, when he consumed medicinal herbs and Demon Flesh, the same portion could convert into over twenty percent more Qi Blood Amount! Twenty percent might not sound like much, but considering Lin Xuankong consumed tens of thousands of jin of food, the additional converted Qi Blood Amount was terrifyingly large!

His Tier Nine True Spirit Bone mastery had reached 3,678 points. The Ba Mountain Secret Realm now had a diameter of over 6,800 li. Lin Xuankong clearly remembered that the Earth of his previous life had a diameter of over 20,000 li. This meant the diameter of Lin Xuankong's Ba Mountain Secret Realm was already about one-third of Earth's!

This area was so vast that the land the tens of thousands of commoners under Lin Xuankong's command could cultivate amounted to less than one-ten-thousandth of the Secret Realm's total expanse! This made Lin Xuankong sigh with emotion. The Secret Realm was too large, its resources too abundant; being unable to develop it all at once was a blissful worry.

Of course, among all his advancements, what pleased Lin Xuankong the most were the Great Reincarnation Technique and the Cyan Nether Immortal Sword!

The Great Reincarnation Technique could now easily resurrect individuals who had died within the last few hours—a vast improvement from the previous limit of just over a hundred breaths!

The Cyan Nether Immortal Sword had been nurtured with forty-nine Demon Pearls and was about halfway to Grade-Entering! Once it was nurtured to the First Grade, the Cyan Nether Immortal Sword would undergo a complete Metamorphosis, capable of easily slaying cultivators at the peak of the Mortal Tier—those at the Late Stage of the Ninth Layer, or even Ninth-Layer Perfection!

At that point, any Ninth Layer cultivator below the Immortal Realm would be fodder for Lin Xuankong; he could kill as many as came. Most importantly, if he could instantly kill Ninth Layer experts, even those possessing Celestial Demon Bones wouldn't have time to evade and would perish directly! Then, someone like that so-called Immortal Sect True Inheritance, Cao Yu, would be dealt with in a mere flash of his sword light!

「At Wutong Village Lin Residence,」

Lin Xuankong, in a pleasant mood, had just emerged from the underground chamber when he saw Li Xiaohu already squatting beside the little brown bear, waiting for him.

"Elder Lin, you're finally out! Why haven't you come out these past few days? Something major has happened in the Sealing Demon Mountain Range!" Upon seeing Lin Xuankong, Little Hu hurried to his side.

Something major in the Sealing Demon Mountain Range?

Lin Xuankong's expression tightened. Could something have happened to the ore vein? The ore vein was related to the Thick Earth Spiritual Object and the Geng Metal Spiritual Object, not to mention Geng Metal Crystal Stones. It was naturally extremely important to him.

Li Xiaohu nodded. "It's indeed something at the ore vein!"

"What happened?"

Li Xiaohu frowned and said, "Last night, the Sealing Demon Mountain Range radiated a brilliant light. Besides the original rich auras of Geng Metal and Thick Earth, three new auras had appeared! Reportedly, these three auras belonged to Sunflower Water Spiritual Objects, Wood Spirit Objects, and Li Fire Spirit Objects respectively!"

Lin Xuankong's expression shifted. Auras of five kinds of Spiritual Objects? How is this possible? Five types of Spiritual Objects appearing at the same spot—could there be five types of ore veins there? But Sunflower Water Spiritual Objects and Wood Spirit Objects aren't things that can be generated in ore veins!

Li Xiaohu scratched his head and said, "I didn't believe it at first either. But after Brother Yang Shan and I sent men to investigate, we received news confirming that they were indeed the auras of five kinds of Spiritual Objects!

"The Third Princess has already issued an order for all Cultivators to prepare; they might head to the Sealing Demon Mountain Range at any time!"

Lin Xuankong raised his eyebrows. "So, the Celestial Sect and the Holy Dragon Association are giving up on investigating the Immortal Artifact's whereabouts and preparing for an official war?"

They should have started fighting long ago! I've been waiting for the main army to draw attention, waiting to take advantage of the chaos, for over two months now. If they don't start fighting soon, I'll have to challenge the Great Demons of the Sealing Demon Mountain Range myself to break through to the Seventh Layer!

Li Xiaohu said, "They've been investigating back and forth but found nothing, so what's the use! Moreover, there's a rumor that the reason the Sealing Demon Mountain Range manifested the auras of five kinds of Spiritual Objects is because it's not merely a Spiritual Object Vein, but an Immortal Cave Mansion from ten thousand years ago. There might be the Immortal Corpse of a Fallen Immortal and various leftover Immortal Treasures there!

"According to the rumors, this kind of massive opportunity is unique in the entire Great Xia Dynasty; nothing like it has ever appeared before!"

Immortal Cave Mansion! Immortal Corpse! Immortal Treasures!

Lin Xuankong's gaze froze.

Li Xiaohu said, "Elder Lin, such a miraculous event has occurred. What arrangements do you have?"

Lin Xuankong pondered for a moment, then waved slightly to signal him to wait. Then, Lin Xuankong walked to the side of the courtyard, his Double Pupils activated, and he gazed towards Linshui Pavilion in the inner city.

Are the rumors about the five types of Spiritual Objects, the Immortal Cave Mansion, the Immortal Corpse, and the treasures true? Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er would surely have some information!

Chapter 342: The Vicious Immortal Sect True Inheritance, Five Elements Extermination Immortal Array

A strand of red light quickly flew into Xiaoo Ying'Er's body in the Linshui Pavilion. Lin Xuankong retracted his Double Pupil and looked around through Xiaoo Ying'Er's field of vision. In the council hall of Linshui Pavilion, the five Grand Elders of the Celestial Sect were all present. However, the five Grand Elders had all changed in appearance!

Back then, these five Grand Elders of the Celestial Sect, who were at the Late Eighth Layer or Perfection stage, each had hair as white as a crane, graceful bodies, and exquisite facial features. Now, all five of them had wrinkled skin, haggard appearances, and hunched backs, resembling elderly people in their sixties. They looked even older than Lin Xuankong had when he first crossed over.

If these five were not dressed in luxurious clothes, with a gleam of sharpness in their eyes and an expression of majestic presence, Lin Xuankong might have thought they were not the five Grand Elders of the Profound Phoenix Celestial Sect discussing important matters, but rather five old ladies chatting about household matters!

It seems that True Disciple Cao Yu from the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect has used the Time Technique multiple times recently! Lin Xuankong thought. This Celestial Demon Technique that robs others of their Lifespan is truly sinister... And this kind of Celestial Demon Technique, used to control others, indeed has enormous deterrence!

"High hall, bright mirror, grieve white hair; morning like black silk, evening becomes snow." This saying described a painful and terrifying reality for anyone, let alone for these prominent figures at the peak of the Great Xia Dynasty who held significant power. The key point was that, according to Cao Yu, this Time Technique could be reversed!

In the council hall, all six people, including Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er, were silently waiting, as if for someone.

About the time it takes to brew a cup of tea later, a voice suddenly came from outside the council hall, "Third Princess, Grand Elders, the information has been disseminated, right?"

Following this, True Disciple Cao Yu from the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect, dressed in a white robe, floated into the council hall. He cast a rather arrogant glance over the six people present.

The five Grand Elders of the Celestial Sect stood up immediately upon seeing Cao Yu. Their expressions were rather complicated, showing hidden resentment and a trace of fear.

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er also stood up. "News that an Immortal Cave Mansion might have appeared in the Sealing Demon Mountain Range is out. By now, everyone in the Great Marsh Prefecture and the neighboring State Mansions should know."

Cao Yu said coldly, "I don't want 'should.' I want an absolute guarantee. Three days from now, even if I randomly pick an old person or a child from the Six Prefectures of Nanjiang, they must all know about the possible appearance of the Immortal Cave Mansion in the Sealing Demon Mountain Range! This matter shouldn't be difficult for you, Third Princess, or for the Grand Elders, correct?"

Faced with Cao Yu's aggressive attitude, Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er frowned. Suppressing her frustration, she said, "I will dispatch more people to spread the rumors everywhere. Within three days, I guarantee that everyone in the Six Prefectures of Nanjiang, down to the women and children, will know!"

Cao Yu nodded slightly, a trace of coldness on his face. "That Cultivator who collected the Immortal Artifact is hiding very well. Almost all corners of Great Xia have been turned upside down, yet his whereabouts still haven't been found. However, with an enormous opportunity like an Immortal Cave Mansion appearing, and since he possesses an Immortal Artifact, he definitely won't miss this chance!

"This time, as long as he appears in the Sealing Demon Mountain Range, the Immortal Artifact will certainly fall into my hands!"

He then looked at the five Grand Elders in the council hall. "Grand Elders, do not resent me for using the Time Technique on you. I, Cao Yu, am under the orders of my Immortal Sect's elders. If I can't complete this task, the hardships I will face in the future will be hundreds of times more painful than yours! Of course, if the news about the Immortal Cave Mansion successfully lures out the Cultivator who collected the Immortal Artifact, you will all have contributed greatly to the Immortal Sect. I will then certainly use the Time Technique to restore your Lifespans!"

Upon hearing this, Ouyang Qinglan and the others all cupped their hands in respect, expressing that they dared not resent him.

Cao Yu nodded slightly and looked at Xiaoo Ying'Er. "Third Princess, if I can obtain that Immortal Artifact this time, it's possible my Immortal Master, in a good mood, might bestow upon your Great Xia two or three Magical Artifacts! By then, your Great Xia will no longer need to worry about any demonic calamities, nor about attacks from the Rakshasa Kingdom's Demon Sects!

"As for that Immortal Artifact, without stepping into the Immortal Realm, one can only activate it for a few breaths at most. Its power, though great, consumes too many resources! Moreover, as the saying goes, 'an innocent man gets into trouble because of his wealth.' If the Immortal Artifact remains in your Great Xia, it will bring many troubles in the future. An Immortal Artifact is not something the Great Xia Dynasty can possess!

"Never mind the future; there are already traces of disciples from the Fallen Crow Demon Sect in the Great Marsh Prefecture. Other Demon Sects might also send people. With Great Xia's capabilities, how could you possibly handle it? I am truly doing this for your own good!"

Upon hearing these words, everyone present frowned and secretly cursed Cao Yu. Outwardly, however, they all feigned agreement and nodded in compliance.

After Cao Yu finished speaking, he flicked his sleeve and turned to walk out of the hall. "I returned from the Sealing Demon Mountain Range today and am quite tired. I will stay here in Linshui Pavilion!"

With that said, he headed towards a guest room in the distance. This True Disciple of the Immortal Sect behaved as if he were in his own home, extremely reckless and presumptuous in the territory of the Profound Phoenix Celestial Sect.

After Cao Yu entered the guest room, Ouyang Qinglan, one of the five Grand Elders, whose aged face twitched slightly, transmitted a message to the others, including Xiaoo Ying'Er: "This Cao Yu is becoming increasingly unruly! Our Profound Phoenix Celestial Sect's residence is filled with female disciples. No man has ever dared to stay overnight here, yet he acts this way! It's utterly infuriating!"

Chapter 343: The Vicious Immortal Sect True Inheritance, Five Elements Extermination Immortal Array_2

The other four Grand Elders also had darkened faces, but all remained silent, evidently helpless against this Cao Yu.

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er sighed softly. "Five Grand Elders, please go and arrange the dissemination of the news. I am a bit frustrated and need to be alone for a while!"

After the five Grand Elders had left, Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er went straight into a secret chamber behind the council hall. Standing in the slightly dim secret chamber, her delicate face showed anger, her fair hands trembling slightly, clearly indicating her extreme fury.

Since childhood, she had been exceptionally talented and was the Princess of Great Xia. Later, she even became the Celestial Sect Saintess. In her decades of growth, she had never suffered such humiliation, never been ordered about arbitrarily, nor watched helplessly as her close ones were stripped of their lifespan!

If she hadn't known that Great Xia could not bear the consequences of dealing with Cao Yu, she would have long ago asked the Celestial Sect Leader and several Supreme Elders to join forces and kill him!

「Lin Residence.」

After hearing Cao Yu's orders to the Third Princess in the council hall, Lin Xuankong couldn't help but frown.

There truly seems to be a significant issue with the matter of the Immortal Cave Mansion... Actually, it made sense when he thought about it. How could it be so coincidental? An Immortal Cave Mansion appearing right after I gathered the Immortal Artifact, not to mention the rumors about an Immortal Corpse and Immortal Relics! This Cao Yu clearly wants to seize my Immortal Artifact, and now he has set up this trap to lure me in!

But how could he be so sure he can handle a Cultivator possessing an Immortal Artifact? Is it because he is a Ninth Layer Late Stage Cultivator? Or is it because the Immortal Sect Magical Artifact he possesses is exceptionally powerful? Or is it his Time Technique?

With these doubts, Lin Xuankong pondered for a moment before looking towards Linshui Pavilion again.

In the dark chamber of the council hall, Xiaoo Ying'Er repressed her fury deep within her heart. As she gradually calmed down, she planned to cultivate the Blood Bath Divine Skill.

Suddenly, her expression changed. She stood up, looking around in surprise because a voice had just appeared in her mind.

"Third Princess, no need to search. Mu Shiba is not nearby; I am using a Secret Technique to communicate with you from a distance!"

Astonishment and joy filled Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er's face. "Is that Mr. Mu? Is it really Mr. Mu? Mr. Mu, you are truly astonishing! Your voice isn't sounding in my ears but directly in my mind. This is clearly not the Sound Transmission Skill; this Secret Technique is incredibly magical!"

Lin Xuankong's voice sounded again, "Third Princess, I have something I wish to ask you!"

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er's lips curved into a smile. "It's been months since we last saw each other, Mr. Mu, and I've missed you. I have already refined the Profound Truth Jade Particles you secretly sent into four Tier-Seven Demon Prison Cages! With such powerful treasures, it will be much easier for the Great Xia Dynasty to deal with Demons and refine them into Spirit Puppets! Mr. Mu, you have helped me so much. I am deeply grateful and don't know how to repay you! If there's anything you wish to ask, please feel free. I will tell you everything I know!"

Lin Xuankong said, "Is it true that an Immortal Cave Mansion appeared in the Sealing Demon Mountain Range of Great Marsh Prefecture?"

Upon hearing this, Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er's delicate face changed, and she fell silent. She bit her lip, pondered for a long while, and then finally made up her mind. "Mr. Mu, this matter is of great importance, and I originally shouldn't disclose it to you. However, you have helped me so much and saved my life multiple times; how could I deceive you! In truth, no Immortal Cave Mansion appeared in the Sealing Demon Mountain Range of Great Marsh Prefecture. Moreover, the Thick Earth and Geng Metal ore veins that had appeared there were already collected by ten Ninth Layer Late Stage disciples from the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect who came to Great Marsh Prefecture! The five kinds of hazy auras appearing there are actually emitted by a large number of Five Elements Spiritual Objects carried by the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect disciples. The purpose is to attract many Cultivators and lure out the one who obtained the Immortal Artifact!"

Lin Xuankong couldn't help but feel a jolt in his heart upon hearing this.

So it really was a damned trap! But are Immortal Sect disciples always this brazen? They actually used a large number of Five Elements Spiritual Objects, placed them in the Sealing Demon Mountain Range, and just let their auras diffuse freely? I still haven't obtained a Thick Earth Spiritual Object to advance, yet these Immortal Sect disciples not only possess Thick Earth Spiritual Objects but also many other Spiritual Objects... There truly is a vast difference between Immortals and mortals!

After pondering for a while, he continued to ask, "Since the Immortal Sect disciples placed a large number of Five Elements Spiritual Objects in the Sealing Demon Mountain Range, what about the Great Demons there?"

Xiao Ying'er said, "After the ten disciples of the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect arrived in Great Marsh Prefecture, they went directly to the Sealing Demon Mountain Range to collect the ore veins and Spiritual Objects. Then, those ten Immortal Sect disciples used Magical Artifacts to drive away the five Tier Nine Great Demons there! Now, only some Low-Tier Demons controlled by the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect remain in the Sealing Demon Mountain Range!"

They drove away five Tier Nine Great Demons! The Immortal Sect disciples used Magical Artifacts?

Thinking of this, Lin Xuankong had some doubts. The Immortal Sect disciples used Magical Artifacts to drive away the Great Demons? Does this mean they didn't bring any Immortal Artifacts with them? Without Immortal Artifacts, where do they get the confidence to set up a trap for a Cultivator possessing an Immortal Artifact?

Xiao Ying'er said, "The power of Immortal Artifacts is terrifying; even the Immortal Sects in the Central Divine Dynasty have very few. It's said that the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect possesses only one First Grade Treasure Seal Immortal Artifact. However, such a Grade-Entering Immortal Ultimate Treasure cannot be casually used by disciples! These Immortal Sect disciples are using Magical Artifacts whose might far surpasses Battle Armor! As for how to deal with the Cultivator who obtained the Immortal Artifact... The ten Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect disciples have set up a grand array called the Five Elements Extermination Array near the ore veins in the Sealing Demon Mountain Range, using some Profound Truth Jade and Magical Artifacts. It's said that this Five Elements Extermination Immortal Array can withstand dozens of attacks from an Immortal Artifact and block the full-powered attack of an Initial Tier Immortal. Moreover, once activated, it can unleash three attacks comparable in power to an Immortal Artifact! Cao Yu and those Immortal Sect disciples plan to use the lure of the Immortal Cave Mansion to attract that Cultivator. Then, they will use the Five Elements Extermination Immortal Array to kill him and seize the Immortal Artifact!"

Lin Xuankong frowned. "Aren't they afraid that the Cultivator who obtained the Immortal Artifact might be an Immortal?"

Xiaoo Ying'Er shook her head slightly. "According to Cao Yu, he personally observed the attack traces in Prison Dragon City and is very certain that the Cultivator using the Immortal Artifact has not reached the Immortal Realm. The Five Elements Extermination Immortal Array is said to be able to harm even an Initial Tier Immortal, so it can naturally deal with that Cultivator!"

Speaking of this, Xiaoo Ying'Er frowned. "Cao Yu is relying on the Immortal Sect's backing and his extremely insidious Time Technique to force me to send people everywhere to spread the news. Unfortunately, I, the dignified Third Princess of Great Xia, am being coerced and can only help the wicked do evil by assisting him in setting up this trap... I just hope that Cultivator doesn't fall for it!"

The Five Elements Extermination Immortal Array can harm even an Initial Tier Immortal! If I, a Sixth-Layer Perfection Cultivator, were to be attacked by the array... Thankfully, I possess the Demon Reflected Pupils of the Eight Gates Celestial Eye. Otherwise, if I rashly charged in, wouldn't I lose both my life and my weapon, perishing on the spot!

Thinking of this, Lin Xuankong felt a strong sense of crisis. Indeed, possessing a treasure makes an innocent man guilty. My life has long been coveted by both the Immortal Sects and Demon Sects!

"Mr. Mu, I am currently very troubled. If you have time, could you come to Linshui Pavilion for a discussion and offer me some advice?" Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er asked.

Upon hearing this, Lin Xuankong suddenly had an idea. "Third Princess, do you intend to deal with that Cao Yu?"

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er was slightly stunned, then quickly shook her head repeatedly. "Cao Yu is a True Disciple of the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect's Leader, extremely esteemed, and highly valued by the Immortal Sect. Moreover, as far as I know, these True Disciples all have Divine Soul Tokens left in the Immortal Sect. If he is killed, the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect will immediately know of his demise. At that time, if the Immortal Sect Leader becomes enraged, the entire Great Xia Dynasty might be overthrown, and countless people would perish as a result! Though I deeply hate that arrogant Cao Yu, how would I dare to touch him? It's not just me; even my father and the Celestial Sect Leader, even the Fallen Crow Demon Sect and other Demon Sects of the Rakshasa Kingdom, wouldn't dare to kill this Cao Yu!"

Chapter 344: I Really Don't Want to be the Prince Consort, Ying'Er is Not Wronged

The Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect is indeed different from ordinary sects; to think that their True Disciples actually have Divine Soul Tokens left within the Immortal Sect!

Can't kill him? But if I don't deal with this Cao Yu, and he continues to scheme against me like this, who knows when I might find myself in a life-threatening crisis! Today, he managed to set a trap involving an Immortal Cave Mansion, making the entire Great Xia play along with his charade. Who knows what other insidious schemes this cunning and malicious fellow will concoct in the future? Moreover, the Thick Earth Spiritual Object I need now, and the Geng Metal Spiritual Object I'll require later, have both fallen into the hands of Immortal Sect disciples... I must come up with a foolproof plan to resolve this crisis!

Lin Xuankong frowned deeply, contemplating carefully.

A moment later, his eyes suddenly lit up.

"Third Princess, there are many ways to deal with a Cultivator; why must we kill him?

I've actually thought of a way. Not only would we not have to kill him, but we could also bring this Cao Yu under control. It's just that this method... might inconvenience you somewhat, Third Princess, and would require your full cooperation!"

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er's expression changed upon hearing Lin Xuankong's words.

"Mr. Mu, you have always been incredibly talented, and Ying'Er believes you may have a way... But Cao Yu's identity is highly special. Can your method really control him? If something goes wrong, while Ying'Er herself might not face mortal danger, the Five Great Elders of the Celestial Sect and you, Mr. Mu, would likely be in peril!"

Lin Xuankong said, "Absolutely. As long as you cooperate with me, Third Princess, I guarantee there will be no flaws!"

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er frowned in thought for a moment.

"But Cao Yu has a top-grade Protective Jade Token. It's said that even attacks from Tier Nine Spiritual Artifacts can't easily harm him. Moreover, attacks from First-grade Immortal Artifacts can only negate a significant portion of their power, failing to deliver a fatal blow. So, Mr. Mu, how could you possibly control him?"

Lin Xuankong said, "It seems the Third Princess doesn't trust me? Is the Third Princess content to let this Cao Yu run rampant in Great Xia and the Profound Phoenix Celestial Sect, trampling all over Great Xia with impunity?"

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er fell silent upon these words.

After a long while, a resolute look appeared in her eyes.

"Mr. Mu, you have repeatedly demonstrated wondrous abilities, and Ying'Er has long been convinced of your talent. I believe you must have a way. Please, tell me. As long as your method is truly effective and won't negatively impact the Great Xia Dynasty, Ying'Er will definitely cooperate!"

Lin Xuankong said, "Third Princess, your Profound Phoenix Celestial Sect's Blood Bath Divine Skill can absorb the True Qi of your opponents, right?"

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er nodded slightly.

"The divine power of the Blood Bath Divine Skill is indeed wondrous, and it can rapidly absorb True Qi. But does Mr. Mu intend for me to attack Cao Yu and absorb his True Qi?"

But Cao Yu is at the Ninth Layer Late Stage; his True Qi is incredibly abundant and condensed. Ying'Er is merely at the Sixth Layer Early Stage. To absorb his highly condensed True Qi, I would need to make physical contact with him for at least ten breaths! Cao Yu has always been exceedingly cunning; how could he possibly allow me to get near him, let alone give me ten breaths of time!"

Lin Xuankong said, "What if the target for the Third Princess to absorb is a Sixth Layer Cultivator?"

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er frowned, "The Blood Bath Divine Skill is Great Xia's most powerful Divine Technique. Against a Cultivator of the Same Tier, it can naturally absorb all their True Qi in an instant!"

Upon hearing this, Lin Xuankong promptly said,

"In that case, then there won't be any problem at all!"

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er was somewhat surprised.

"Mr. Mu, what exactly is your plan? I've already said, Cao Yu is extremely cunning. He would never let me get close to him, much less give me enough time to absorb his True Qi!"

Lin Xuankong smiled, "The Third Princess only needs to promise me one thing. It's just that this matter... might be a little trying for you, Princess!"

Xiaoo Ying'Er said, "Please speak, Mr. Mu. As long as it is something Ying'Er can do, I will certainly assist fully!"

"In that case, Third Princess, just call me 'husband'!" Lin Xuankong's voice drifted over softly.

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er was momentarily speechless. Her expression flickered. Mr. Mu wants her to call him 'husband'? Weren't we just discussing how to deal with Cao Yu? What could calling him 'husband' possibly have to do with that?

"Mr. Mu, are you serious? Ying'Er has always regarded you as a teacher, a mentor, with the utmost respect!" Xiaoo Ying'Er suddenly felt that Mr. Mu was acting rather erratically today.

"It's merely a matter of calling me 'husband'; I'm not asking the Princess to genuinely consider me her husband! However, if you call me 'husband,' my confidence in dealing with Cao Yu will indeed increase. Of that, I am absolutely certain!" Lin Xuankong said.

"Is this Mr. Mu's condition for helping me deal with Cao Yu? To become my Prince Consort?"

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er frowned slightly. This Third Princess clearly didn't believe that simply calling him 'husband' could cause Mu Shiba's strength to surge, greatly increasing his confidence when facing enemies. Honestly, not even a child would believe such a thing!

Lin Xuankong was taken aback. Prince Consort? What condition? Am I the type to take advantage of someone's predicament or prey on a beautiful woman? Am I the type to be swayed by every pretty face I see? I genuinely have no desire to become the Prince Consort! This is solely to increase my chances when dealing with Cao Yu!

"The Third Princess misunderstands. How could I, Mu Shiba, possibly take advantage of someone's predicament? But explaining this is rather complicated. You just need to do as I ask. I know asking you to call me 'husband' is putting you in an awkward position, Third Princess," Lin Xuankong said, looking somewhat embarrassed.

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er gently bit her lip.

'Husband'... calling Mu Shiba 'husband'... She suddenly recalled the times in the Ba Mountain Secret Realm when Mu Shiba had repeatedly saved her life, and the astonishing talent and strength he had demonstrated time and again.

Chapter 345: I Really Don't Want to be a Prince Consort, Ying'Er is Not Wronged_2

Especially, that scene of being alone in the cave of the Ba Mountain Secret Realm... Although at that time, my heart did not stir much, Mr. Mu was indeed the only man I had ever been alone with in my life!

As the memories surfaced in her mind, the originally clear eyes of the Third Princess of Great Xia suddenly became a bit misty. After a moment, her eyebrows suddenly rose.

"If Mr. Mu can truly help Ying'Er out of her current predicament and help the Great Xia Dynasty eliminate the dark clouds hanging over our heads, let alone just calling him 'husband' once, even if he really wants... to marry Ying'Er, Ying'Er would agree! Moreover, with Mr. Mu's great talents and gifts, for him to be Ying'Er's Prince Consort, Ying'Er would be more than willing! Ying'Er would not feel wronged!"

Saying this, she slightly lowered her head, hesitated momentarily, then softly uttered, "Husband!"

At this moment, the light in the secret chamber was dim. Xiaoo Ying'Er herself was already extraordinarily beautiful, and under the dim light, her elegance was even more striking!

It was just a pity. At this moment, Lin Xuankong was dozens of miles away. He couldn't see Xiaoo Ying'Er's peerless beauty, let alone the slight shyness now gracing the face of this usually dignified Third Princess!

Lin Xuankong's voice came through, "Hmm!"

Upon hearing Lin Xuankong's affirmation, Xiaoo Ying'Er's expression immediately froze, her clear eyes filled with a complex emotion.

In the next instant, Lin Xuankong felt a large amount of insight about the Blood Bath Divine Skill flood into his mind.

He forced himself to say, "Third Princess, please wait a moment, I have some urgent matters! I will discuss with you shortly how to deal with Cao Yu!"

"Hmm, Mr.... Mr. Mu, if you have business, please go ahead!" Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er said, a hint of surprise in her voice.

A strange feeling arose in her heart. Mr. Mu asking her to call him 'husband' just so he could deal with Cao Yu—was he serious? This surely was a condition! Or perhaps Mr. Mu had some feelings for her all along and was using this opportunity to express them? But with Mr. Mu's great talents, how could he not know that Ying'Er's heart is in turmoil now, with no mind for romance! Expressing his feelings at this time... he really has poor timing!

For a moment, a thousand thoughts raced through Xiaoo Ying'Er's mind, yet the more she pondered, the more confused she became, unable to make sense of it.

「At the Lin Residence,」

A little over an hour later, Lin Xuankong finally recovered from the massive influx of information. He sat on a stone bench in the courtyard, carefully contemplating the many cultivation techniques of the Blood Bath Divine Skill.

Moments later, the large characters of his Life Plate in his mind slightly changed:

[Wife Xiaoo Ying'Er: Profound Phoenix Strange Vein.

Blood Bath Divine Skill: Returning to the Essence 42/1000]

At this moment, having mastered the Blood Bath Divine Skill, Lin Xuankong's eyes showed a hint of joyous surprise.

This Blood Bath Divine Skill truly lives up to its name as the first Divine Technique of the Profound Phoenix Celestial Sect of the Great Xia Dynasty!

While this secret art doesn't match the Shadow Concealment Primordial Technique in terms of boosting explosive power, it still provides a fivefold increase—higher than that of the Kui Ox Drum. The critical aspect is that once activated, it can absorb massive amounts of an opponent's Qi Blood and True Qi through contact!

Cultivators of the same tier, upon contact, could have their True Qi instantly absorbed and converted for his use. The higher the realm, the faster the absorption. Once cultivated to a High Realm, contact isn't even necessary; True Qi can be used for ranged attacks to absorb and convert an opponent's True Qi!

Moreover, the most powerful aspect of the Blood Bath Divine Skill is its healing capability. Once cultivated to a High Realm, it can heal one's own injuries by absorbing an opponent's True Qi. Even if internal organs are damaged, bones shattered, or meridians destroyed, activating the technique allows for rapid recovery—even more terrifying than the Marsh Python's regenerative abilities! After all, the Marsh Python's regeneration relies on water sources, whereas the Blood Bath Divine Skill only needs to absorb an opponent's True Qi to recover swiftly!

Of course, to achieve the healing effect of the Blood Bath Divine Skill, one must at least reach the realm of Great Success in Micro Mastery. The higher the realm, the stronger and faster the recovery. At an extremely High Realm, it's almost akin to the Undying Body of a Profound Phoenix True Spirit, with regenerative abilities comparable to a Divine Demon!

No wonder this technique is called Great Xia's First Divine Technique. It can attack, absorb True Qi, and heal—one Divine Technique with multiple miraculous uses!

Naturally, like the Young Lady's Shadow Concealment Primordial Technique, this Blood Bath Divine Skill also has extremely high bloodline requirements. Ordinary cultivators simply cannot cultivate it to a High Realm...

Having obtained another Divine Technique, a Secret Technique, the crucial part is that this significantly enhances my chances of dealing with Cao Yu!

Lin Xuankong's mood greatly improved. He walked quickly towards Li Xiaohu, who was guarding the courtyard gate.

Secretly circulating the Blood Bath Divine Skill, Lin Xuankong stretched out his hand and touched Little Hu. Immediately, Little Hu trembled all over, and the True Qi in his body instantly vanished!

Li Xiaohu, sensing the changes in his body, showed a surprised expression. "Elder Lin, what secret technique is this? It's terrifying how it can instantly dissipate my True Qi!"

Lin Xuankong smiled without speaking, circulated his True Qi again, and poured it back into Little Hu.

Li Xiaohu was stunned. "Elder Lin, the True Qi is back... what are you doing?"

Preparing to practice a few more times, Lin Xuankong patted Little Hu's head, and Little Hu trembled again.

After repeating this dozens of times and confirming there were no issues with performing the Blood Bath Divine Skill, Lin Xuankong finally let Little Hu go.

Li Xiaohu, weak all over, leaned against the steps, looking at Lin Xuankong with a strange expression. "Elder Lin~~~~~ what is this?"

Lin Xuankong laughed heartily. "Go back to the Feng Family and wait for my good news!"

After speaking, he leaped away, leaving the astonished Little Hu sitting there.

「Dozens of breaths later,」

Disguised, Lin Xuankong silently stood beside the Celestial Sect's stationed area, looking southeast towards Linshui Pavilion.

Cao Yu, the True Disciple of the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect, was in a guest room in that southeastern corner. This Cao Yu had set up a web of schemes against him. If he hadn't been cautious and investigated thoroughly, and had instead gone directly to the Sealing Demon Mountain Range, he might already be a wandering ghost!

The Five Elements Extermination Immortal Array! Just hearing the name of this Grand Array, one knows it's formidable—certainly not something a Tier Six Cultivator like him could resist! Now that this arrogant and vicious fellow is conveniently at Linshui Pavilion, it's the best time to deal with him!

After watching for a moment, Lin Xuankong's Double Pupils appeared. A wisp of red light instantly flew out, heading towards the secret chamber of the council hall.

Xiaoo Ying'Er, who was lost in her thoughts, suddenly froze. At this moment, Lin Xuankong's voice reached her ears, "Third Princess, I'm ready on my end. If we are to deal with Cao Yu, we can coordinate our actions now!"

Hearing the voice, Xiaoo Ying'Er stood up immediately. She bit her lip, a hint of dread in her eyes. "Mr. Mu, Cao Yu is cunning by nature, powerful, and possesses many treasures; he is not easy to deal with. Are you really confident enough? Ying'Er is not afraid of danger. Even if my attempt to deal with Cao Yu fails, he wouldn't dare to kill me easily! But Mr. Mu, you... if you make a move against him and fail, your life might be in danger! If Cao Yu becomes enraged, even Ying'Er wouldn't be able to save you from him!"

Lin Xuankong's eyes showed a hint of determination. "Rest assured, Third Princess, Mu Shiba has a foolproof plan! As long as you cooperate with me seamlessly, tonight will be when Cao Yu is subdued! As for how to cooperate specifically..."

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er listened carefully to the voice in her mind. After a moment, she nodded. Then, she gracefully walked out of the secret chamber. Upon reaching the council hall, she said, "Ding Rui, go invite True Disciple Cao Yu from the Immortal Sect. I have extremely urgent matters to discuss with him face to face!"

Chapter 346: Mr. Mu's Mysterious Methods, Perplexed Xiaoo Ying'Er

Ding Rui, who was guarding outside the council hall, immediately cupped her hands and said, "Disciple obeys!"

After Ding Rui left and the area outside the council hall was empty, a figure noiselessly drifted into the hall.

When Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er saw 'Mu Shiba' land in front of her, her pretty face showed a somewhat complicated expression.

Thinking about how she had just called Mu Shiba her husband, even though she had always been magnanimous, she couldn't help but feel a bit restrained at this moment, not knowing what to say.

Lin Xuankong saw this and naturally understood what Xiaoo Ying'Er was thinking. He smiled and said via voice transmission, "We are about to deal with that Immortal Sect True Inheritance, Cao Yu. Third Princess, please don't let your thoughts wander at this critical time! Your cooperation is crucial to whether this matter succeeds or fails!"

After speaking, he took a pill from his bosom, placed it in Xiaoo Ying'Er's hand, then swiftly moved into the room next to the council hall.

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er saw how certain 'Mu Shiba' was. Looking at the pill in her hand, her previously chaotic mood gradually calmed down, and a look of determination appeared in her eyes...

After a moment, a white-robed figure descended into the council hall; it was none other than the True Disciple of the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect, Cao Yu.

He walked straight to the main seat in the council hall, sat down, and looked at Xiaoo Ying'Er with a calm expression. "Third Princess, you summoned me suddenly. What is it? You can speak now."

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er frowned and said, "News from the Celestial Sect indicates that some suspicious cultivators are secretly purchasing vast quantities of demon flesh. The amount is extremely large, at least several million jin, clearly not for normal cultivation needs. It's highly probable it's for nurturing an immortal artifact. Upon receiving this news, I became highly suspicious, so I invited Cao Zhen's Biography here to discuss it."

Cao Yu, who had been sitting steadily in the main seat, showed a slight change in expression upon hearing this. He asked in quick succession, "In which state mansion of Great Xia? Have those cultivators acquiring demon flesh been put under surveillance? Which faction do those cultivators belong to? And have you found out the specific destination of the demon flesh?"

Seeing Cao Yu's rather urgent expression and his rapid-fire questions, Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er smiled faintly.

She picked up the teapot from the table—the one in which the pill had dissolved—and poured some tea into both Cao Yu's cup and her own.

"Why is Cao Zhen's Biography so anxious?"

"For the past three months, our Great Xia Dynasty has mobilized countless cultivators to secretly investigate everywhere, and now we finally have some clues... The value of this information is immeasurable. Does Cao Zhen's Biography think Ying'Er will tell you so easily?"

Cao Yu's face darkened slightly at her words. He scrutinized Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er carefully, his expression turning cold as he said, "The Great Xia Dynasty is working for our Immortal Sect. If you render meritorious service, you will naturally be rewarded! Those rewards will certainly not disappoint the Third Princess!"

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er raised her eyebrows, gave a slight curtsy, and then looked straight at Cao Yu.

"Cao Zhen's Biography need not blame Ying'Er for speaking directly!"

"The value of an immortal artifact is extremely precious, as Ying'Er has also heard! Even in the Central Divine Dynasty, the number of immortal artifacts is very scarce. Your Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect only possesses one such artifact, right? Even the top Immortal Sects don't have many immortal artifacts!"

"If that immortal artifact appearing in our Great Xia Dynasty were to be obtained by the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect, the Sect's strength would undoubtedly increase significantly, and its status among the many Immortal Sects of the Central Divine Dynasty would be greatly elevated! Such a monumental merit would surely earn Cao Zhen's Biography great rewards from the Immortals of the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect!"

"Of course, Ying'Er wouldn't dare to hope for all those rewards, but Cao Zhen's Biography must clearly state what benefits the Great Xia Dynasty will receive!"

Cao Yu stared at Xiaoo Ying'Er, a hint of eagerness suddenly appearing in his eyes. "It seems the Third Princess's information is quite important. Are you certain there's news of an immortal artifact there?"

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er smiled without speaking.

Cao Yu pondered for a moment before standing up abruptly, his breathing becoming a bit ragged.

In the past few months, he had spared no effort, using both soft and hard tactics to control the Five Great Elders of the Profound Phoenix Celestial Sect, all to obtain news of the immortal artifact, all for the Sect Leader's rewards. Now that there was finally some news, how could he not be excited!

"Third Princess, if your information is indeed true, and you can help me capture that cultivator and obtain that immortal artifact, I, Cao Yu, will certainly not shortchange the Great Xia Dynasty... As for specific benefits, how about a Tier Nine Spiritual Artifact?"

"A Tier Nine Spiritual Artifact?" Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er's expression flickered.

Cao Yu nodded. "A Tier Nine Spiritual Artifact is the most powerful magical artifact below an immortal artifact!"

"Although it can't take a life with a mere thought like an immortal artifact, a Tier Nine Spiritual Artifact weighs one hundred thousand jin and can increase the attack range of a cultivator's Secret Technique by a full thirty times. If activated by a Ninth Layer Cultivator, its attack range extends to thirty li, making it terrifyingly powerful!"

"With the aid of a Tier Nine Spiritual Artifact, your Great Xia Dynasty will no longer need to fear the Demon Sects of the Rakshasa Kingdom!"

"After all, not even the Demon Venerables of the Six Great Demon Sects possess a Tier Nine Spiritual Artifact!"

Upon hearing this, a trace of excitement seemed to flicker in Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er's eyes. "Is what Cao Zhen's Biography says true? If I help you find that cultivator, will you truly give my Great Xia Dynasty a Tier Nine Spiritual Artifact—one that weighs one hundred thousand jin and can increase an attacker's range thirtyfold?"

Cao Yu nodded slightly. "Naturally, it is true!"

He looked at Xiaoo Ying'Er's excited expression and sneered inwardly. No matter how strong a magical artifact, compared to an immortal artifact, the difference in value is still like that between heaven and earth, or clouds and mud. In the Central Divine Dynasty, even a hundred magical artifacts can't compare to a single immortal artifact capable of striking an opponent thousands of li away!

Chapter 347: Mr. Mu's Mysterious Methods, Perplexed Xiaoo Ying'Er_2

The Great Xia Dynasty doesn't even possess a single Tier One Spiritual Artifact. Given Xiaoo Ying'Er's limited experience, it was normal for her to be so excited!

While he sneered inwardly, Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er picked up two teacups and handed one to Cao Yu. "Cao Zhen's Biography, a gentleman's word is his bond. Drink this tea as a token of our agreement!"

After speaking, Xiaoo Ying'Er drained the tea in her hand in one gulp.

Cao Yu, at this moment, was also excited about the Immortal Artifact, so how could he suspect Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er would tamper with the tea? Furthermore, he had personally witnessed Xiaoo Ying'Er drink tea from the same teapot, completely lowering his guard. Moreover, as an Immortal Sect True Inheritance, how could he have imagined that the lifespans of the Celestial Sect's Five Great Elders were in his hands, yet the Third Princess would poison him at this very juncture...

He picked up the teacup, drank it in one gulp, and then said with some urgency, "Third Princess, you should be able to tell me now where the Immortal Artifact's traces have appeared. Which State Mansion is it in, and which faction does it belong to... Huh, no!"

Mid-sentence, Cao Yu's expression suddenly changed dramatically. He sensed his realm plummeting rapidly and looked coldly at Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er.

"There's something strange about this tea! It contains Corpse Scorpion Venom, which can cause a cultivator's realm to drop!"

Upon hearing this, Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er's expression also changed dramatically. "No, my cultivation is also rapidly decreasing! How can this be? This is the territory of the Profound Phoenix Celestial Sect; how could anyone possibly sneak in and poison us?"

Cao Yu, sensing his realm rapidly declining, had no time to worry about anything else. He immediately retrieved a Tier Seven Magical Artifact from his Ghost Frog Pouch, moved far away from Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er, and then looked nervously towards the entrance of the council hall.

Just then, Cao Yu suddenly felt a hand press down on his shoulder.

With Cao Yu's keen senses, he hadn't detected Lin Xuankong's hand at all before it touched him. Such a powerful effect of concealing one's form and movements was naturally Lin Xuankong utilizing the Shadow Concealment Primordial Technique! The Hidden Shadow effect of the Shadow Concealment Primordial Technique was so potent that even Lin Xuankong, who possessed the Eight Gates Celestial Eye, found it impossible to guard against effectively and would always be snuck up on from behind by Young Lady; how could Cao Yu, who lacked the Eight Gates Celestial Eye, fare any better!

At the same time, Lin Xuankong's voice leisurely reached Cao Yu's ears, "Cao Zhen's Biography, your senses are indeed sharp. That is indeed Corpse Scorpion Venom, Tier Nine Perfection Corpse Scorpion Venom!"

As the voice sounded, before Cao Yu could react, he felt the immense amount of True Qi within his body instantly dissipate.

The True Qi in his body, already tainted with Corpse Scorpion Venom, was completely absorbed by the person behind him.

Losing the True Qi in his body, Cao Yu's expression changed. He couldn't even hold the heavy Tier Seven Magical Artifact in his hand.

The Tier Seven Magical Artifact, weighing 70,000 to 80,000 pounds, fell to the ground with a CLANG, smashing a pit several feet deep into the incredibly sturdy floor of Linshui Pavilion!

Cao Yu turned his head in astonishment and saw Lin Xuankong looking at him with a cold expression.

At this moment, having lost all his True Qi, Cao Yu couldn't even activate the Time Technique, nor could he use any of the Immortal Sect's spells. He couldn't even expend True Qi to open a Spirit Vein Transference through his Celestial Demon Bone, his strongest life-saving measure, to escape!

By now, how could Cao Yu not understand that he had fallen for a scheme by the person before him and Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er!

He struggled violently, trying to shake off the hand on his shoulder.

But the Tier Nine Perfection Corpse Scorpion Venom was terrifyingly potent; it had already reduced his cultivation to the Third or Fourth Layer Realm. How could the power he could muster at such a realm possibly break free from Lin Xuankong's control!

After struggling in vain, Cao Yu's expression grew even colder.

He abruptly turned his head to look at Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er. "Xiaoo Ying'Er, you have some nerve! Are you out of your mind? Are you insane? You actually teamed up with someone else to attack me? Don't you know I am an Immortal Sect True Inheritance of the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect? Even your father and the Celestial Sect Leader treat me with utmost respect and wouldn't dare to offend me in the slightest! Don't you know that if anything happens to me, the Divine Soul Token I left at the Immortal Sect's encampment will immediately react? Then, if my master, who is already in the Earth Immortal Realm, becomes enraged, the entire Great Xia Dynasty will be utterly annihilated! The thousand-year foundation of the Great Xia Dynasty will be destroyed in an instant!"

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er remained silent. Lin Xuankong spoke coldly, "How would the Divine Soul Token react? Cao Yu, I don't intend to kill you!"

Hearing this, Cao Yu's heart relaxed slightly. His expression gradually calmed, and a hint of confidence and coldness returned to his face. "Since you don't dare to kill me, then let go immediately. If you two choose Cliff Leash at this moment, I might spare you and let bygones be bygones!"

Lin Xuankong, however, chuckled. "But I don't intend to let you go either!"

Cao Yu, whose expression had just turned cold, felt his heart tighten upon hearing this. "What exactly do you want?"

Lin Xuankong ignored him and turned to Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er. "Third Princess, I need to take Cao Yu away for a while. When I've settled the matters I need to attend to, I will bring him back!"

Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er nodded slightly, yet a trace of bewilderment appeared in her eyes.

"Mr. Mu, please proceed according to your own plan. However, Ying'Er has some questions. The method Mr. Mu used just now to absorb True Qi, was that the Blood Bath Divine Skill?"

"This Blood Bath Divine Skill is a secret tradition of my Celestial Sect; absolutely no outsider can learn it. Moreover, in the entire Great Xia, I am the only one with the Profound Phoenix Strange Vein. If others cultivate it, they can at most reach the Realm of Integration... The Blood Bath Divine Skill you just displayed is at the same realm as mine, having already reached the Returning to the Essence Realm. Mr. Mu, how did you achieve this?"

Of course, it was because of your rather pleasant term of endearment—'husband.' If not for that 'husband,' which allowed me to gain the Blood Bath Divine Skill and absorb all of Cao Yu's True Qi, how could I have subdued Cao Yu so easily!

Thinking this, Lin Xuankong wore a calm smile. "I naturally have my ways! However, I cannot explain this matter to the Third Princess for the time being!"

"You are that Mr. Mu who can refine the Demon Prison Cage? But you just absorbed my True Qi, which was tainted with Corpse Scorpion Venom. Why do you show no signs of poisoning, nor has your cultivation dropped?" Cao Yu suddenly recalled something and looked at Lin Xuankong, his face etched with astonishment.

At this moment, Lin Xuankong raised his right hand and gently patted Xiaoo Ying'Er's shoulder, who was also afflicted by the Corpse Scorpion Venom. Instantly, a large amount of True Qi with Immortal Tier Poison Resistance flowed into her.

After the True Qi was infused into her body, Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er felt a lightness spread through her. Her cultivation, which had been suppressed to the Second Layer Realm by the Corpse Scorpion Venom, immediately recovered fully, returning to the Mid-Grade Sixth Layer.

A hint of amazement appeared on Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er's pretty face.

Cao Yu, still under Lin Xuankong's control, stared with wide eyes, exclaiming in disbelief, "This... this... To instantly dispel Tier Nine Corpse Scorpion Venom! Such an ability can only be possessed by an extremely powerful cultivator in the Earth Immortal Realm who has Immortal Tier Poison Resistance! You... but the refinement level of your True Qi is far from the Eighth Layer, at most around the Sixth or Seventh Layer of cultivation. How can you possess Immortal Tier Poison Resistance!"

"Immortal Tier Poison Resistance? Earth Immortal Realm?" Hearing Cao Yu say this, the amazement on Xiaoo Ying'Er's face deepened.

Lin Xuankong didn't answer. He picked up Cao Yu and walked outside, disappearing into the night in the blink of an eye.

Xiaoo Ying'Er stood there, her face a picture of astonishment, gazing out of the council hall. Various doubts surfaced in her mind.

Why had she and Cao Yu noticed nothing when Mr. Mu approached him?

Why was Mr. Mu able to dispel the Corpse Scorpion Venom with a wave of his hand? Could he truly possess an Immortal Tier body, as Cao Yu had suggested?

Why did Mr. Mu suddenly possess the Blood Bath Divine Skill, and at the same realm as her own? In the entire Great Xia Dynasty, she was the only one who had cultivated the Blood Bath Divine Skill to the Returning to the Essence Realm! Even the Immortal Sect True Inheritance and her own father had only reached the Realm of Integration!

Thinking further about Mr. Mu's astounding methods in refining the Demon Prison Cage, and his ability to master the Spirit Puppet Technique in just a few days... Third Princess Xiaoo Ying'Er's pretty face was filled with confusion. She felt that this Mr. Mu's talent and abilities increasingly surpassed her imagination, making him seem ever more mysterious.

Most importantly, she had wanted to control Cao Yu to help the Great Xia Dynasty contend for the Immortal Artifact. Why was Mr. Mu helping her like this? Or perhaps, that secured Immortal Artifact, the cultivator who secured the Immortal Artifact, had something to do with Mr. Mu... A gleam flickered in Xiaoo Ying'Er's beautiful eyes, and they suddenly lit up.

"Third Princess, what just happened here?" Several sounds of rushing air suddenly came from outside the council hall. Five figures drifted in from outside; they were the five Grand Elders, their skin wrinkled and hair white, looking wizened and frail.

Chapter 348: I, Cao Yu, Absolutely Disagree, The Terrifying Deterrent Power of the Great Reincarnation Technique

After a moment, within the Lin Residence, Li Xiaohu, who was waiting in the courtyard, dragged a man dressed in prison clothes and looked towards Lin Xuankong, who had returned with Cao Yu.

"Elder Lin, you sent back a message asking me to prepare a death row prisoner. I immediately sent someone to bring this guy from the Great Marsh Prefecture's prison! This death row prisoner may just be an ordinary person, but he is extremely vicious and inhumane! Because he lost all his money gambling, he even tried to steal his own parents' coffin money. During the struggle, he beat his elderly parents to death. He is absolutely deserving of death!"

Lin Xuankong nodded slightly, placed Cao Yu on the ground, then looked at Li Xiaohu and smiled, "Little Hu, I have a question for you: do you have the guts to impersonate a Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect disciple? This task is quite dangerous!"

Li Xiaohu was stunned. "Impersonate a Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect disciple..."

To the previous Li Xiaohu, never mind an Immortal Sect that could dominate the Great Xia Dynasty; even a small Martial Dao sect like the Yin Talisman Sect was an unattainable giant to him! However, thinking of Elder Lin's various means and the exciting life he had experienced since following Elder Lin, Li Xiaohu thought for a moment and then nodded vigorously, smiling as he spoke:

"Elder Lin, Little Hu's life is yours! Whatever you want Little Hu to do, Little Hu will do. If you want me to impersonate an Immortal Sect disciple, then that's what I'll do. Even if you want me to impersonate the Emperor of Great Xia, or an Immortal from an Immortal Sect, I'd do it. At worst, it's just death! I've even been the Patriarch of the Feng Family. Everything I've experienced in this life has been unprecedentedly exciting. What is there to fear?"

Lin Xuankong laughed. "Good! Now I'll have you impersonate a Profound Sect true inheritance disciple. In the future, you might even get the chance to become an Immortal!"

Cao Yu, controlled by the Manluo Demon Pearl, listened to their conversation, his face showing a mix of shock and disbelief. He swallowed heavily, then mustered the courage to put on a fierce expression. "Elder Lin? So your real name isn't Mu Shiba? But, no matter who you are, if you plan to touch me, you'd better consider the consequences! The wrath of the Immortal Sect Leader is something not even the entire Great Xia Dynasty can withstand. When an Immortal is angered, millions could die, and the Great Xia Dynasty wouldn't hold up. Can small fry like you bear that? If my master catches you, you won't live nor die peacefully. Even if you're killed, your tattered Divine Soul would be tortured for hundreds or thousands of years! And you still plan to impersonate an Immortal Sect disciple? How can an Immortal Sect disciple be impersonated with mere disguises? It's simply delusional! I advise you two, it's best you use Cliff Leash now, to avoid regretting it later, when you'll wish for death but be unable to die!"

Lin Xuankong ignored Cao Yu. The True Qi in his body suddenly circulated, and the Great Reincarnation Technique immediately took effect on the death row prisoner.

Instantly, the death row prisoner, who had a look of fear on his face, trembled and collapsed to the ground like a pile of mud. His faintly real yet illusory Divine Soul floated above his body.

Next, the Great Reincarnation Technique took effect on Li Xiaohu. Li Xiaohu's eyes froze, and his body fell face down to the ground with a thud. Meanwhile, the Immortal Sect True Inheritance Cao Yu maintained his forced fierce expression and fell to the ground facing upward.

Under normal circumstances, the Great Reincarnation Technique certainly wouldn't work on Cao Yu! Because the Great Reincarnation Technique can only affect cultivators of the Same Tier or lower as Lin Xuankong. Cao Yu, being at the Ninth Layer Late Stage, was beyond the technique's range. However, Cao Yu was afflicted with the Tier Nine Perfection Corpse Scorpion Venom, drastically lowering his Realm; it had now gradually been reduced to the First Layer. At this Realm, the Great Reincarnation Technique could certainly be easily executed!

At this moment, the Divine Souls of the death row prisoner, Li Xiaohu, and Cao Yu floated mid-air. The three of them looked at each other's Divine Souls with different expressions on their faces.

The death row prisoner, who had killed his parents, wore a look of bewilderment mixed with fear and panic, as everything before him was beyond the comprehension of an ordinary person. Meanwhile, Li Xiaohu was rather relaxed and natural; after all, this wasn't his first reincarnation! The Immortal Sect True Inheritance Cao Yu was utterly shocked.

He looked at his faintly real yet illusory body in disbelief and uncertainty, exclaiming, "Is this a Secret Technique for Controlling Divine Soul? Even my master, Lord Spiritual Crane, could only extract the tattered Divine Souls of cultivators after killing them. How can you extract the Divine Souls of living cultivators? Does such a Secret Technique truly exist in this world?"

Unfortunately, Lin Xuankong still didn't pay him any attention, nor did he have any interest in answering his question.

The next moment, Lin Xuankong slightly waved his hand, and the three Divine Souls instantly floated. The Divine Soul of the death row prisoner who killed his own parents floated aimlessly and landed on Yu, a little fish in the pool in the courtyard, immediately reincarnating as an animal. Cao Yu's Divine Soul was then involuntarily directed toward the nearly lifeless body of the death row prisoner, while Li Xiaohu's Divine Soul floated and settled into Cao Yu's body!

Immediately after, Cao Yu's exclamation echoed, "How... how did you do this? You actually possess such an extremely evil, extremely sinister Secret Technique, able to so easily control another person's Divine Soul, able to make another's Divine Soul achieve Possession of a different body? I... I am now..."

"Cao Zhen's Biography of the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect, you are no longer a so-called Immortal Sect disciple. You are now an ordinary person who hasn't even entered the First Layer Early Stage, and a death row prisoner at that!" Lin Xuankong looked at him coldly.

Chapter 349: I, Cao Yu, Absolutely Disagree, The Terrifying Deterrent Power of the Great Reincarnation Technique_2

Cao Yu looked at the prisoner's uniform he wore, sensing his weak physique and the emptiness within his Dantian. Extreme panic filled his eyes, and his expression gradually twisted.

Just then, 'Cao Yu's' voice suddenly rang out, "Elder Lin, is this body truly that of an Immortal Sect disciple? It feels so weak, not even comparable to Patriarch Feng's body!"

Hearing Li Xiaohu's complaint, Lin Xuankong smiled. He walked over, raised his hand, and poured a large amount of True Qi into Little Hu's body, immediately dispersing all the Tier Nine Perfection Corpse Scorpion Venom.

Li Xiaohu, whose cultivation had been suppressed to a lower Realm, felt his eyes widen immediately. "Huh, now this feels right. This body feels quite strong now, much stronger than Patriarch Feng's body!"

Lin Xuankong patted his head. "What do you mean, 'much stronger'? This is a Late Stage Ninth Layer body, a full four great Realms higher than Patriarch Feng! Even if you cultivated in Patriarch Feng's body for ten lifetimes, you wouldn't necessarily reach this Realm. Even I am currently three Realms below this body's level!"

Li Xiaohu scratched his head, grinning foolishly.

Nearby, Cao Yu began to tremble as he watched his own body being possessed, his expression continuously distorting. "You... you actually allowed someone to possess my body! Aren't you afraid of being discovered by the ten disciples of my Immortal Sect? When that happens, not only will you die, but both of you will!"

Lin Xuankong first stowed away Patriarch Feng's dormant body, then turned to Cao Yu. "Of course, I don't want to be discovered, and I don't want the possession of your body to be exposed. Therefore, you must now tell Little Hu everything about the Immortal Sect: the ten disciples, your master, and yourself. Be detailed; don't miss a single thing!"

Hearing this, Cao Yu couldn't help but tremble with rage. His face twitched as he glared at Lin Xuankong. "Are you dreaming? You think I would cooperate with you, help you deceive my junior brothers, and help you control my body more smoothly? That's absolutely, utterly impossible! I would rather die than agree!"

A cold glint flashed in Lin Xuankong's eyes. He grabbed Cao Yu by the shoulder and dragged him to the edge of the pool, pointing to a small fish swimming frantically in the water. "Do you see that little fish? That's the death row prisoner, newly reincarnated. You must have seen his Divine Soul gradually shrink and merge into that fish! If you cooperate with me, this feeble body of yours, though weak, can still keep you alive. However, if you show even the slightest hint of half-heartedness or resistance, things might get rather grim for you. Perhaps one day, when I'm in a particularly foul mood, I'll have you reincarnated as a dung beetle, destined to roll dung balls for eternity. Or maybe I'll turn you into a pig, forcing you to wallow in a cesspool day in and day out. Or, to be more direct, perhaps I'll reincarnate you as a maggot. I imagine that would be quite... stimulating! Or perhaps, I'll make you reincarnate into all sorts of animals and beasts, forcing you to endure endless cycles of pain unimaginable to the Human Race! And the most special part? Throughout this endless reincarnation, I can keep your Human Race Divine Soul intact, ensuring your existence is a torment worse than death!"

Hearing this, Cao Yu froze, intense fear filling his eyes.

Just then, Cao Yu suddenly saw Lin Xuankong raise his right hand. The complete Divine Soul of the death row prisoner was drawn out from the small fish and forced into a bug in the grass by the pool. Lin Xuankong then said, "For a creature that killed its own parents to become a carefree fish? That's letting it off far too easily!"

Seeing the bug writhing and hearing Lin Xuankong's words, Cao Yu couldn't stop himself from trembling all over. Even though he knew Lin Xuankong was killing a chicken to scare the monkeys, he couldn't help but be terrified... To be so easily manipulated, to be reincarnated into various animals and insects while still possessing a complete Divine Soul and human consciousness—the agony was unimaginable, far more terrifying than any torture described in the legends of hell!

"So, what do you say now?" Lin Xuankong said calmly. "Interested in having a little chat with this young brother of mine? Of course, if you cooperate well, it's not impossible that I might let you go. Perhaps, on the day I have this young brother of mine reincarnate into an Immortal's body, I'll allow you to reincarnate back into your own!"

Although Cao Yu knew this terrifying man was likely just drawing a pie in the sky for him, a sliver of hope uncontrollably rose in his heart.

After trembling for a long while, Cao Yu's spirit finally broke. He sighed heavily and lowered his head. "Fine, I'll talk. I'll tell you everything. Whatever you want to know, I'll tell you all of it!" He raised his head, a hint of desperation in his eyes. "I don't ask you to return my body to me after I've told you everything. I only beg that when the day comes for you to kill me, you don't reincarnate me as one of those animals or insects!"

Seeing Cao Yu's psychological defenses finally crumble, a smile touched Lin Xuankong's lips. "Rest assured. Although you're quite cunning and malicious, and you've schemed against me several times, you haven't actually managed to harm me! So, as long as you tell me everything you know, I won't make things difficult for you! Besides, and this is crucial, if you tell me everything, you'll become a traitor to the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect! And since you'll be a traitor to the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect, you can naturally be my friend!"

Hearing this, Cao Yu slumped to the ground, all strength leaving him.

A traitor to the Immortal Sect... He had entered the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect as a child. Because of his unique Talent, possessing the Profound Bone Strange Vein, he was exceptionally suited for cultivating one of the sect's Secret Techniques. Therefore, Lord Spiritual Crane valued him immensely, spending countless resources to nurture him. These resources finally allowed him to reach the Late Stage of the Ninth Layer before he turned thirty, making him the fastest genius of the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect's younger generation to reach this stage!

And now, the foremost genius of the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect's younger generation was about to become a traitor to the Immortal Sect?

Thinking of this, he suddenly regretted not having been more patient, not waiting a few more years to break through to the Earth Immortal Realm before seeking the riches and splendors of the mortal world! How arrogant he had once been, believing that within the entire Great Xia Dynasty, absolutely no one would dare act against him and risk alerting the Divine Soul Token... Who could have ever imagined he would encounter such a bizarre and terrifying individual!

"Huh, Elder Lin, this fellow seems to have a piece of Celestial Demon Bone in his body!" Li Xiaohu suddenly exclaimed. "Judging by its size, it seems to be about as big as a finger, similar to the Tier Two Celestial Demon Bone you mentioned! And this guy's Ghost Frog Pouch has a lot of good stuff in it! There are treasures shimmering with a dense aura that I don't even recognize!"

Hearing this, Lin Xuankong's eyes lit up. A Tier Two Celestial Demon Bone! This Celestial Demon Bone must be the very thing that granted Cao Yu the Time Technique! And as an Immortal Sect True Inheritance, the treasures in Cao Yu's Ghost Frog Pouch must surely be plentiful!

Chapter 350: Immortal Sect Disciple's Hundred Treasures Pouch, Foster Father Above

Li Xiaohu marveled while glancing at Cao Yu's Ghost Frog Pouch, then directly took it from his waist and handed it to Lin Xuankong. "Elder Lin, there are just too many treasures that dazzle the eyes here. I can only recognize the Demon Flesh inside; the other treasures, I really can't tell what they are!"

Cao Yu, hearing this, felt utterly distressed. The numerous treasures in the Ghost Frog Pouch were painstakingly accumulated over my twenty-plus years in the Immortal Sect. Throughout the entire sect, apart from the various Elders and Peak Masters, probably no other disciple possessed more treasures than I did! And precisely because they were hard-earned, I never wasted any of them, not even the High-Tier Demon Flesh. Yet now, they've all fallen into the hands of these two. The real issue is that this fellow occupying my body is a complete bumpkin who doesn't even recognize my treasures. This is truly a case of treasures wasted on a philistine, like casting pearls onto cow dung—and not just any cow dung, but the runny kind!

While Cao Yu was internally fuming, Lin Xuankong had already taken the Ghost Frog Pouch. He examined it carefully and smiled. "This Demon Flesh has an extraordinary aura; it should at least be Tier Eight and Tier Nine Demon Flesh. Tier Eight and Tier Nine Great Demons are formidable; unless you possess an Immortal Artifact, they're extremely hard to kill! There must be hundreds of thousands of pounds of Tier Eight and Nine Demon Flesh here. That's truly excellent, enough to keep me fed for one or two hundred days. Truly excellent!"

Lin Xuankong now had to nurture the Tier Nine Celestial Demon Bone and an Immortal Sword, demanding a large amount of Qi Blood. Though production in the Secret Realm was booming, the various medicinal herbs still needed time to mature on a large scale. During this period, his need for Qi Blood remained quite urgent. Suddenly obtaining hundreds of thousands of pounds of Tier Eight and Tier Nine Demon Flesh—even if he ate voraciously—it would last him around a hundred days! Cao Yu's High-Tier Demon Flesh was indeed 'a timely help'!

In that moment, Lin Xuankong looked at Cao Yu beside him and actually found him a bit more pleasing to the eye!

Upon hearing Lin's words, Cao Yu felt even more incensed! He glanced at Lin Xuankong. What a braggart! Tier Eight and Tier Nine Demon Flesh are immense supplements; a single pound is equivalent to hundreds, even thousands, of pounds of Tier Three Demon Flesh. Unless you're a Taotie, eating too much would make your stomach explode on the spot!

Lin Xuankong then flipped through the Ghost Frog Pouch and pulled out fifty pieces of Profound Truth Jade, a smile reappearing on his face. "Fifty pieces of Profound Truth Jade. With this much jade, the production of various equipment in the Secret Realm can be intensified. Hmm, these Profound Truth Jades are also excellent; the Hundred Treasures Pouch of an Immortal Sect True Disciple truly holds numerous treasures, extraordinary indeed!"

Cao Yu was speechless. This is the most painful moment of my thirty years of life! What is life's greatest pain? It isn't what you can't obtain or what you've already lost! Life's greatest pain is losing something precious, only for the one who obtains it to flaunt it right in your face. This 'Elder Lin' is simply inhuman, an utterly disgusting evil!

Next, Lin Xuankong took out Cao Yu's seventh-tier, longsword-shaped Magical Artifact. He weighed it carefully, his expression turning serious as he nodded. "This seventh-tier Magical Artifact is more than ten times heavier than the Ruyi Battle Armor. Indeed, the Magical Artifacts of the Central Divine Dynasty Immortal Sect's True Inheritance are powerful! Such an artifact, although inferior to an Immortal Artifact, could severely injure an Eighth-Layer Great Demon with a full-force blow, and even a Ninth-Layer Great Demon wouldn't dare to face it head-on!"

The bragging is endless! I can't take it anymore! I really want to bash my brains out right now! Cao Yu's face grew increasingly ashen.

Lin Xuankong put away the Magical Artifact and reached into the Ghost Frog Pouch again. Moments later, he retrieved over twenty round crystals. Among them, nine emanated a swirling brown Spiritual Light, another seven emitted a silver-white Spiritual Light, while the remaining seven glowed with a swirling crimson light—clearly all extremely special treasures!

Li Xiaohu's eyes shone as he stared at the treasures. "Elder Lin, these glowing treasures must be the legendary Spiritual Objects, right? I've never seen such beautiful treasures, not even in the Feng Family's treasure vault!"

Lin Xuankong nodded slightly, then turned to Cao Yu. "Yu, can you explain what these Spiritual Objects are?"

Yu! Yu? Apart from the supremely respected Master Teacher in the Immortal Sect, when has anyone ever called me Yu? Everyone who sees me, Cao Yu, respectfully calls me Cao Zhen's Biography! I simply... Sigh, a fallen phoenix is truly worse off than a chicken!

"Yes, Mr. Lin!" Cao Yu felt aggrieved but forced a subservient expression onto his face. When you're under someone else's roof, you have to bow your head! Born human, who isn't afraid of being reincarnated as a maggot!

With that subservient look, he began, "These nine Thick Earth Spiritual Objects and seven Geng Metal Spiritual Objects were found by me and ten of my junior martial brothers in the mining veins of the Sealing Demon Mountain Range. I received thirty percent, while the other ten junior martial brothers took seventy percent. Among these Spiritual Objects, those emitting brown light are premium Thick Earth Spiritual Objects, capable of increasing a Tier Six Cultivator's chance of advancing to Tier Seven by about two percent. Those emitting silver-white light are premium Geng Metal Spiritual Objects, capable of increasing a Tier Seven Cultivator's chance of advancing to Tier Eight by about two percent! Both types of Spiritual Objects are highly valuable. Even in the Central Divine Dynasty, you'd need to spend over ten Grade-Entering Profound Truth Jades to buy a single one!"

Hearing this, Lin Xuankong couldn't help but be moved. "I was just planning to get some Thick Earth Spiritual Objects, and now I've even obtained Geng Metal Spiritual Objects!"
