Chapter 461: Terrifying Celestial Tribulation, Buddhist Spiritual Treasure

At this moment, the expressions of the tens of thousands of cultivators gathered in the distance shifted unpredictably. As cultivators, they had certainly heard of the Immortal Tribulation. However, since most of them hailed from various dynasties, they had never had the chance to witness a cultivator undergoing such an ordeal in person. Now, seeing with their own eyes the dark clouds pressing down—bearing down upon the incredibly vast Immortal City of the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect, an oppressive force that even the city's Grand Array, reputed to withstand attacks from High-Grade Earth Immortals, could not repel—How could these cultivators not be filled with terror!

Especially when they saw the countless bolts of Divine Thunder converging above the young nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism, and watched as these innumerable streaks of lightning twisted and writhed, the cultivators' faces paled further.

Most cultivators quickly fell back. Lin Xuankong and his seven companions retreated approximately 3.3 kilometers. The other cultivators, already positioned hundreds of meters, or even as far as 3.3 kilometers away, still did not dare to linger. They continued to retreat until they had withdrawn several more kilometers, finally stopping at a distance of more than ten kilometers (over twenty li) from the event. Only then did they, one by one, leap onto some of the tall buildings within Spiritual Crane Immortal City to observe from afar.

At this time, it wasn't just the cultivators attending the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect's disciple recruitment ceremony who were watching with rapt attention. Cultivators from various other streets and buildings, having noticed the ominous change in the heavens, had also flown out to gaze in this direction. Spiritual Crane Immortal City was already immense, and now, atop its countless structures, the number of cultivators observing the Celestial Tribulation likely numbered in the millions.

Many people began to discuss the event.

"After ten years, Spiritual Crane Immortal City is witnessing another cultivator undergoing a tribulation! The last one, if I recall, was Huang Yunhai, the eldest son of Huang Liutao, Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect's Second-Grade Earth Immortal, right?"

"Yes, that's him! That Celestial Tribulation, like this one, was a Divine Thunder Celestial Tribulation! I heard that while it's not the most difficult to overcome, it still ranks among the top twenty of the one hundred and eight types of Celestial Tribulations!"

"Indeed! When Huang Yunhai faced his tribulation ten years ago, it's said Huang Liutao specially requisitioned a First-Grade Immortal Artifact from the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect for him. He also prepared a vast number of treasures to help resist the tribulation, including three Tier Nine Magical Artifacts, six Tier Eight Magical Artifacts, and twelve Tier Seven Magical Artifacts! Even so, under the assault of that Celestial Tribulation, not only were many of Huang Yunhai's Magical Artifacts instantly obliterated, but even that First-Grade Immortal Artifact exhausted its True Qi within three breaths! In the end, Fellow Daoist Huang could only rely on his cultivation technique to withstand the tribulation, and he nearly perished. If Second-Grade Earth Immortal Huang Liutao hadn't forcefully intervened in the Celestial Tribulation, I'm afraid Huang Yunhai would have been lost! Unfortunately, interfering with a Celestial Tribulation prevents the Golden Core from condensing and the Divine Soul from merging with it. It also causes severe injuries to the Divine Soul and meridians. It's said that Fellow Daoist Huang's realm dropped as a result; his Li Fire Vein was damaged, reducing him to the Eighth-Layer Realm. Even now, ten years later, he still hasn't recovered to the Ninth Layer!"

"However, this Divine Thunder Celestial Tribulation seems even more ferocious than the one Fellow Daoist Huang from the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect faced! I remember the previous tribulation didn't gather such an expansive area of tribulation clouds!"

"Cultivators possess different talents and cultivation techniques, so the tribulations they invoke naturally vary. It is said that the more potent the tribulation, the stronger the resulting Initial Tier Earth Immortal Golden Core. This, in turn, leads to faster cultivation speed within the Initial Tier Earth Immortal Realm. Unfortunately, even ordinary tribulations are exceedingly difficult to overcome. The tribulation before us appears even more formidable; this fellow Daoist undergoing it likely faces a high probability of failure!"

"Alas, such is the nature of Celestial Tribulations. Attaining Immortal Ascension is never easy! In the more than two hundred years I've resided in Spiritual Crane Immortal City, I've personally witnessed twenty-three Celestial Tribulations. Yet, only one person managed to endure to the end and successfully pass: Qu Lin Immortal Venerable, who achieved the Initial Tier Earth Immortal realm and was granted a Spirit Peak here in Spiritual Crane Immortal City!"

"It's true. Across the countless dynasties under the rule of the Central Divine Dynasty's Western Region, the total number of cultivators likely amounts to trillions. Yet, how many ultimately succeed in passing the Celestial Tribulation to become an Initial Tier Earth Immortal with an eight-thousand-year lifespan? Every millennium, only a few dozen manage to reach the Earth Immortal realm!"

Listening to the discussions from a distance, Lin Xuankong felt a growing pressure in his heart. Achieving the Initial Tier Earth Immortal realm is truly no easy feat, he secretly pondered. There are countless cultivators in the Central Divine Dynasty's Western Region, yet over a millennium, only a few dozen manage to advance to the Initial Tier Earth Immortal Realm! Will this young nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism be able to withstand such a ferocious Celestial Tribulation? Regardless, being able to witness the might of a Celestial Tribulation firsthand is undoubtedly a good thing for me. It will help me prepare for my own future advancement to the Initial Tier Earth Immortal Realm and lay an excellent foundation!

With this thought, he roused his spirits, his eyes narrowing as he focused intently on the young nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism.

At this very moment, it wasn't merely the countless Transcendent Realm cultivators within Spiritual Crane Immortal City who were focused on this Celestial Tribulation. Far in the distance, at the site of the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect's main sect, upon the Lingxiu Immortal Mountains, numerous Immortals had already emerged, floating out from their cultivation abodes. They gazed towards this location from a hundred li (fifty kilometers) away.

Even the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect's disciple recruitment competition had not disturbed these Earth Immortals from their secluded cultivation. Yet, the Celestial Tribulation triggered by this young nun had captured the attention of many among them. One could only imagine that this young nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism possessed truly exceptional talent to be capable of invoking a Divine Thunder Celestial Tribulation powerful enough to startle even Immortals!

Countless Cultivators and Earth Immortals watched intently as the long-awaited Divine Thunder Celestial Tribulation finally descended!

The sky suddenly flashed brightly. Immediately, a bolt of lightning as thick as a building, containing terrifying Divine Thunder power, instantly traversed several thousand feet and struck the small Buddhist nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism, who had already landed on the ground!

At the same time, the young nun, who had been somewhat injured by the attacks of Yang Ding, a disciple of the Fire Spirit Sect, suddenly emitted an even brighter Buddha's Light from within her body. From her Dantian, an even more brilliant cluster of Buddha's Light began to gather. This light was so intense that it penetrated her body and radiated outward, showcasing its incredible brilliance!

BOOM!

With a resounding roar, the Divine Thunder struck the Buddha's Light atop the young nun's head. The terrifying Divine Thunder, which seemed capable of destroying any life form, clashed with the Buddha's Light, causing a massive explosion!

When the full power of the Divine Thunder was unleashed upon the Buddha's Light, it instantly dimmed, nearly extinguished completely. This demonstrated the terrifying power of the Divine Thunder strike—hundreds, even thousands, of attacks from Yang Ding, the Fire Spirit Sect disciple, had not managed to dim her Buddha's Light to such an extent!

This was only the first Divine Thunder. The number of Divine Thunders gathering in the sky was not just tens of thousands but likely hundreds of thousands, perhaps even millions...

Could this young nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism really have any chance of surviving the Initial-Tier Earth Immortal Tribulation?

Seeing this scene, Lin Xuankong couldn't help but feel a stir, a hint of doubt appearing in his eyes.

According to what Young Lady Li Xiaolan had told him, when a Cultivator reaches Ninth-Layer Perfection and consumes the Immortal Ascension Treasure Pill, the five internal meridians, such as the Sunflower Water Vein and the Thick Earth Vein, converge to form a Void Pill. At that point, although a trace of Immortal Yuan generates within the Void Pill, it is not an Earth Immortal Golden Core, so the Cultivator cannot independently produce Immortal Yuan. Therefore, the Cultivator must find a place abundant with Immortal Yuan. Then, they must use the Void Pill to absorb a vast amount of Immortal Yuan, triggering the Celestial Tribulation. Through the tempering of Celestial Thunder, fierce winds, Thick Earth, and other aspects of the Celestial Tribulation, the Golden Core and Divine Soul are thoroughly refined. Eventually, this forms an Earth Immortal Golden Core capable of absorbing and producing Immortal Yuan. Only by completing these steps is there a chance to step into the Initial-Tier Earth Immortal Realm.

But this process is extremely dangerous, as the Celestial Tribulation is often unpredictable. No matter what preparations a Cultivator makes beforehand, they may not necessarily withstand the terrifying Celestial Tribulation. After all, not every Cultivator can find Immortal Artifacts and various Treasures to resist it. The Celestial Tribulation must be faced by the Cultivator alone. If other Earth Immortals intervene, the Celestial Tribulation will immediately disappear. In such a case, the Cultivator's efforts would be wasted.

Yet, this young nun is from the extremely powerful Spirit Platform Buddhism. Why did she not prepare any Spiritual Treasures or Immortal Artifacts? Why isn't she in an Immortal Yuan Cave Mansion? Instead, she's here, facing the Immortal Tribulation relying solely on her own Cultivation Technique. Could it be that Spirit Platform Buddhism, which claims to practice without external aids, actually extends this to Crossing the Celestial Tribulation as well? If so, the young nun's chances of surviving the Celestial Tribulation would be practically zero!

While Lin Xuankong was filled with doubt, the countless Divine Thunders in the high sky were continuously striking down towards the young nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism!

Those bolts of Divine Thunder, each nearly capable of injuring a Ninth-Layer Perfection Cultivator on the spot, struck the young nun's Buddha's Light. It seemed as though they could tear apart her Protective Buddha's Light at any moment!

The Buddha's Light visibly grew dimmer and thinner...

Seeing this, the countless cultivators spectating from afar began shaking their heads and sighing.

"Attempting to cross the tribulation without being in an Immortal Yuan Cave Mansion, nor preparing any Spiritual Treasures or Immortal Artifacts, it seems this young nun will fail her tribulation!"

"Indeed, no matter how strong her Cultivation Technique is, its power can't exceed that of Divine Thunder! The Celestial Tribulation appears according to the Cultivator's strength and Talent—the stronger the Cultivator, the stronger the tribulation they face!"

"What a pity. I thought that since the Celestial Tribulation this young nun attracted was so fierce, she must have some powerful methods!"

While everyone was discussing, Flaming Blade Duan River, kneeling on the red cloud, had a gloating look in his eyes. He would never dare offend Galin Bodhisattva of Spirit Platform Buddhism. The consequences of offending the Bodhisattva were unbearable, not just for him, but even for the Fire Spirit Sect. That was why he had knelt before countless Cultivators and personally slain his own True Disciple, to avoid bringing disaster upon himself.

In his heart, he had long wished to tear Galin Bodhisattva to pieces! Seeing the young nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism struggling so hard against the Celestial Tribulation, how could he not be secretly pleased!

At this moment, almost all the Cultivators present believed that this young nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism could not pass the Celestial Tribulation. Even Lin Xuankong silently shook his head.

After all, the overwhelming Divine Thunders would make even an Initial-Tier Earth Immortal frown. How could a cultivator at the Ninth Layer of the Transcendence Realm, who had already been drained of much True Qi by Yang Ding of the Fire Spirit Sect, possibly withstand them?

However, just as everyone was shaking their heads, sighing, or secretly rejoicing, the young nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism suddenly raised her hand, and a semi-transparent Jade Bottle appeared in her grasp.

As soon as the Jade Bottle appeared, it emanated harmonious green light, enveloping the young nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism. This light blocked the terrifying power of the Divine Thunders from the sky. Only a fraction of the Divine Thunder, in the form of fine white bolts of lightning, managed to pass through and illuminate the young nun's body!

At the same time, the blood that had stained her entire body transformed into countless tiny blood droplets under the influence of the green light. These droplets floated upwards, returning to her nostrils, the corners of her mouth, her ears, and even countless pores. This scene was incredibly miraculous. It was as if, under the influence of that semi-transparent Jade Bottle, time had reversed. The blood that had flowed from the young nun of Spirit Platform Buddhism now retraced its path!

Immediately after, the young nun of Spirit Platform Buddhism's face, which had been as pale as paper, instantly became ruddy. It seemed that her injuries from the terrifying attack by the Fire Spirit Sect disciple Yang Ding, as well as those from the Divine Thunder Celestial Tribulation, had all healed!

Moreover, the Buddha's Light emanating from her entire body and the Void Pill in her Dantian no longer dimmed under the influence of the green light but instead became increasingly brighter!

At this point, even though the Divine Thunder continued to strike from the sky, the Buddha's Light around this young nun of Spirit Platform Buddhism not only did not dim but became brighter and brighter!

The most peculiar thing was the Void Pill in her Dantian that emitted Buddha's Light. Under the refinement of tiny white lightning, it became more rounded and brighter. The Buddha's Light it emitted continuously twisted to form many mysterious scenes!

Among those scenes were Fairies draped in white Buddhist Robes, their postures elegant and features dignified; white Celestial Dragons, powerful and magnificent, flew around her, twisting and weaving; and numerous tiny illusory projections of Buddhist Disciples gathered, continuously chanting Buddhist Spells.

Galin Bodhisattva, floating five hundred feet away, witnessed this scene and could not help but nod slightly, a smile appearing on her dignified and beautiful face.

As these scenes appeared, the Celestial Tribulation Clouds in the sky roiled even more fiercely!

Originally, the terrifying lightning bolts as thick as a building struck down one after another, but now, nine bolts at a time struck down!

These were Divine Thunders that even Ninth-Layer Perfection Cultivators could hardly withstand—nine bolts at once! If an ordinary Ninth-Layer Perfection Cultivator, lacking a substantial Magical Artifact for protection, encountered these nine bolts of Divine Thunder striking simultaneously, they would likely be severely injured on the spot. Resisting the Celestial Tribulation would be out of the question; even survival would be uncertain.

However, the young nun of Spirit Platform Buddhism, already beginning her Metamorphosis, faced the extremely bright and ferocious Divine Thunder bombardment with a calm expression. Her hands were clasped together, holding the semi-transparent Purification Bottle, as she continuously chanted Buddhist Spells. The scenes around her shifted constantly, becoming clearer. It seemed as if the Fairies, Nine Heavens Divine Dragons, countless Buddhist Disciples, and numerous Buddhist guardian Divine Beasts within those scenes would turn into real beings at any moment!

When the Divine Thunder struck those scenes formed by the Buddha's Light, although the scenes became somewhat faint, they could never break through to attack the young nun of Spirit Platform Buddhism!

Moreover, as the young nun of Spirit Platform Buddhism continuously urged the semi-transparent Purification Bottle, it gradually became more transparent. Moments later, it turned completely transparent. Indeed, were it not for Lin Xuankong's exceptionally sharp vision from his Eight Gates Celestial Eye, it would have been almost impossible to discern that the young nun was still holding the Purification Bottle!

As the Divine Thunder of the Celestial Tribulation continuously struck, numerous fine, pure white bolts of lightning were absorbed near the now transparent Purification Bottle. Guided by the green light, they swiftly entered the Dantian of the young nun of Spirit Platform Buddhism!

Lin Xuankong watched this scene, a hint of surprise in his eyes. Just moments ago, this young nun of Spirit Platform Buddhism was clearly on the verge of collapse. Yet, this semi-transparent Purification Bottle has completely turned the situation around! Most peculiar of all, this semi-transparent bottle doesn't emit even a trace of Immortal Yuan. It doesn't seem to be an Immortal Artifact at all!

Chapter 464: The Immortal Tribulation is Nothing More, Galin Bodhisattva Bestows a Treasure

Lin Xuankong thought to himself, It looks like this is another Buddhist Spiritual Treasure! This Spirit Platform Buddhism is truly different from many Immortal Sects. Even the stronger Immortal Sects, like the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect and Fire Spirit Immortal Sect, have their Immortals pursuing powerful Immortal Artifacts, seeking treasures made from large quantities of Demon Pearls and precious materials for Artifact Refining. But the Spirit Platform Buddhism has its unique Buddhist Techniques, which can transform ordinary materials into Spiritual Treasures! Although Lan told me that various Buddhist Spiritual Treasures mostly lean towards assistance, healing, and defense, they are still incredibly mystical, each excelling in its own way! This novice nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism holds a Purification Bottle that seems to be made of ordinary Glazed Glass. In a place like the Great Xia Dynasty, it would be worth merely a few hundred taels of silver. But after being blessed by the Bodhisattvas of Spirit Platform Buddhism... its value must have multiplied by tens of thousands, even millions of times!

With this thought, Lin Xuankong secretly activated his Eighth Celestial Eye and looked towards the transparent Purification Bottle.

Several lines of text instantly appeared on the Purification Bottle held by the novice nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism:

[Glazed Jade Bottle: An Enlightenment Treasure blessed by Yu Zhen Bodhisattva of Spirit Platform Buddhism at the Great Success Realm, using Buddha Light, Buddha Skill, and Buddha Words. Blessed for two hundred eighty years and two hundred fifty-four days, it contains a trace of the reversal power from the Ten Thousand Laws Saint Buddha.

Effects of the Glazed Jade Bottle:

1. Upon channeling True Qi into it, it can instantly reverse any injuries sustained within the last twelve hours, recovering even fatal ones.
3. Activation with True Qi for three breaths can guide the Immortal Yuan from the Celestial Tribulation to temper the user, accelerating the Divine Thunder tempering process and increasing the success rate of crossing the Initial Tier Earth Immortal Celestial Tribulation by eighty percent.

Buddha Power: 1,349/2,683]

Seeing these details, Lin Xuankong couldn't help but feel a tinge of astonishment. This seemingly unremarkable Glazed Jade Bottle, after being blessed by Yu Zhen Bodhisattva of Spirit Platform Buddhism at the Great Success Realm, possesses such incredible mystical effects? It can instantly reverse and heal injuries, and even form protective Buddha's Light! Most astonishingly, what entices me the most is that this Glazed Jade Bottle can accelerate the Celestial Tribulation's tempering effects and speed, increasing the success rate of crossing the Initial Tier Celestial Tribulation by eighty percent! What does an eighty percent increase mean? According to the discussions among Cultivators earlier, in the past two hundred years, over twenty Cultivators have attempted to undergo their Celestial Tribulation in Spiritual Crane Immortal City. Among them were not only highly talented Cultivators but also a descendant of an Earth Immortal Powerhouse. Yet, despite thorough preparations, all of them failed; not a single one succeeded! Moreover, in the past thousand years, only a few dozen have successfully overcome their Celestial Tribulation... And this is considering that most Cultivators faced tribulations less formidable than the one this novice nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism is currently enduring. It just shows how extremely low the success rate of Crossing the Tribulation is! This seemingly ordinary little Spiritual Treasure can directly increase the success rate by eighty percent! That Yu Zhen Bodhisattva of Spirit Platform Buddhism is truly extraordinary. I wonder how powerful she must be to create such a Spiritual Treasure with just her blessing! Most importantly, if this Spiritual Treasure were in my possession, combined with my vast array of Immortal Artifacts and my Cyan Nether Immortal Sword, I could probably pass the Celestial Tribulation with my eyes closed! Absolutely no problem! However... such a precious Spiritual Treasure, comparable even to the Plant Spirit Bottle Galin

Bodhisattva gave me earlier, I probably won't have a chance to obtain it. But I could try to borrow it before my own Celestial Tribulation! Borrowing it shouldn't be too much to ask. Galin Bodhisattva was so agreeable when we were together; she shouldn't refuse me! As long as she lends me this Spiritual Treasure, I'm willing to do anything—as long as it doesn't involve forcing me to join Spirit Platform Buddhism...

Thinking of this, Lin Xuankong's heart burned with excitement. Attending the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect's disciple recruitment ceremony this time was truly the best decision! Otherwise, how would I have had the chance to witness such an incredibly mystical Spiritual Treasure? Increasing the success rate of crossing the Initial Tier Celestial Tribulation by eighty percent... amazing!

Lin Xuankong looked closely at Galin Bodhisattva, his heart filled with joy.

At this moment, while Lin Xuankong was filled with joy because of the Glazed Jade Bottle, the Cultivators watching from a distance were already dumbfounded.

Previously, these countless Cultivators had been astonished by the reputation of Spirit Platform Buddhism and by the sight of Flaming Blade Duan River, known for his unrestrained power, kneeling and begging for mercy. Now, however, almost every Cultivator was stunned by the Spiritual Treasure held by the novice nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism!

"Impossible! How can such a powerful treasure exist in this world? Not only can it help Cultivators resist the Celestial Tribulation, but it also seems capable of gathering the primordial Immortal Yuan from within the tribulation to help that Spirit Platform Buddhism disciple temper her body and Golden Core!"

"If I hadn't seen it with my own eyes, I would never have believed such a powerful Spiritual Treasure existed in this world! Such a treasure... can actually help Cultivators easily pass through the Celestial Tribulation. Is this why Spirit Platform Buddhism is able to be the foremost Buddhist Sect among thousands?"

"Indeed! Spirit Platform Buddhism truly lives up to its name as the foremost Buddhist Sect. This small Jade Bottle is truly, immensely surprising!"

Chapter 465: The Immortal Tribulation Is Merely So, Galin Bodhisattva Bestows a Treasure_2

"Tsk tsk, to come to Spiritual Crane Immortal City for business and witness such a terrifying Celestial Tribulation with my own eyes—it truly is worth the trip! But this time, the most astonishing thing is that treasure! It's unbelievable how powerful Spirit Platform Buddhism is!"

"Sigh, I wonder if Spirit Platform Buddhism is still accepting disciples. Does an old man like me, at 360 years old, have a chance to join?"

As everyone discussed and sighed, their eyes were all fixed on the Purification Bottle in the hands of the little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism.

The vast Celestial Tribulation Clouds and the volleys of nine Divine Thunderbolts striking down couldn't capture their attention. Everyone's eyes were filled with intense eagerness as they looked at the Glazed Jade Bottle!

Among them, there were even some Earth Immortals floating in the far distance. These immortals had already transcended mortality, naturally possessing extremely strong eyesight—even stronger than Lin Xuankong's Fifth Celestial Eye. Of course, they could clearly see the Purification Bottle in the hands of the little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism!

These powerful Earth Immortals stared so eagerly at the Glazed Purification Bottle. It wasn't because they needed it themselves; as Earth Immortals who had already passed the Initial Tier Celestial Tribulation, such a Glazed Jade Bottle, though extraordinary, was of no use to them. Their eagerness stemmed from the fact that they all had descendants, relatives, and disciples!

They might not need it, but their descendants and disciples would need it in the future to overcome the Celestial Tribulation!

And the Celestial Tribulation is extremely terrifying and incredibly difficult to overcome. How could they not want such a Buddhist Spiritual Treasure to help their disciples and descendants pass the Celestial Tribulation!

Unfortunately, even though these Earth Immortals of different Grades had eager eyes, none dared to harbor any ill intentions towards Galin Bodhisattva...

Because that was Galin Bodhisattva, the True Disciple of Yu Zhen Bodhisattva, the Great Accomplishment Bodhisattva of Spirit Platform Buddhism. Yu Zhen Bodhisattva was not only the strongest and most famous Bodhisattva but also the one who had slain the most demons. That Bodhisattva tolerated no injustice! If not for Yu Zhen Bodhisattva, the Profound Yin Demon Sect, which had almost annihilated the Central Divine Dynasty back then, would never have been defeated by Spirit Platform Buddhism.

Knowing this, however eager or desperate the Earth Immortals were to obtain this Spiritual Treasure, none dared to act against Galin Bodhisattva or try to take it by force.

While these Earth Immortals were envious, Li Xiaohu, who was standing beside Lin Xuankong, had initially been looking with concern at the little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism. Seeing that she was finally safe, he couldn't help but relax.

He scratched his head and sighed, "Godfather, this Divine Thunder Celestial Tribulation is just too much! From the moment it started releasing Divine Thunder until now, probably over a hundred thousand bolts have already struck. With this power and at this frightening frequency, if I, Little Hu, were standing there, I'd be pulverized into crumbs!"

Lin Xuankong couldn't help but laugh. "Wrong. You're not considering your own capabilities! With your strength, without an Immortal Artifact's help, you'd likely be turned to ashes by the first dozen or so bolts of Divine Thunder. How could you possibly endure over a hundred thousand?"

Li Xiaohu:

He shook his head repeatedly. "Godfather, that's not right. As the saying goes, 'A tiger father doesn't raise a dog son.' If I'm that much of a weakling, then you, Godfather, would be the king of weaklings!"

Lin Xuankong:

Beside him, Han Lu slapped Li Xiaohu on the head. "Stop spouting nonsense all day! How could Godfather be the 'king of weaklings'? At the very least, he'd be a phoenix head, not a chicken head! Besides, Xiaohu, your focus is off! Shouldn't you be paying attention to the Purification Bottle in the hands of that little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism right now?"

Yang Er nodded slightly beside them. "Indeed, this Buddhist Spiritual Treasure is truly miraculous. It can actually reverse the fate of a Cultivator who was almost killed by the Celestial Tribulation! If there are no further changes in this Divine Thunder Celestial Tribulation, this little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism is almost certain to overcome the Celestial Tribulation successfully!"

The more composed Hu Shuo nodded. "The key point is, Spirit Platform Buddhism doesn't even need to search for materials for Refining Immortal Artifacts. They can transform the mundane into the magical with just Buddhist Techniques, creating super Spiritual Treasures that countless Cultivators fiercely covet!"

Little Hu, upon hearing this, suddenly leaned close to Lin Xuankong, his face serious and earnest. "Godfather, I have something very urgent and important to remind you. Aren't you and that Galin Bodhisattva... an item? When you face your Celestial Tribulation in the future, you could borrow this Purification Bottle! If you did, forget about any stupid Celestial Tribulation harming you—you'd probably be able to strike it back and smash it to smithereens!"

Lin Xuankong glanced at him. "An item, my foot! We just purely admire each other, that's all!"

"Moreover, such a precious Buddhist Spiritual Treasure isn't something you can just borrow easily! And do you think the Celestial Tribulation is some Demon you can fight back against? If you offend the Heavenly Dao, it'll directly blast you with a hundred thousand bolts of Divine Thunder, enough to cook your brain!"

Just as he was saying this, he suddenly sensed something and quickly turned to look towards the little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism.

The sight that met his eyes filled them with anticipation. The Buddha's Light at the Dantian of the little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism had become extremely condensed and was constantly emitting lights of various colors: the black light of Sunflower Water, the shimmering golden light of the Geng Metal Vein, the gray yet incredibly stable light of the Thick Earth Vein, the red light of Li Fire, and the vibrant green light of the Wood Vein!

Lin Xuankong's pupils contracted, and he thought to himself:

Five Strange Veins emitting light simultaneously... This must be the precursor to the five Spiritual Objects fusing with Immortal Yuan to form a true Initial Tier Earth Immortal Golden Core! It seems this time, with that Glazed Jade Bottle, this little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism is really going to overcome this Celestial Tribulation!

At this moment, the little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism's chanting of Buddhist hymns grew louder and more urgent.

The continuous drone of Buddhist Spells resonated in the ears of every Cultivator present, shaking their Heart Spirits. Even the very ground of the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect, inscribed with powerful Arrays, trembled ceaselessly with the sound of the chanting!

And the little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism, directly in the midst of countless bolts of the Celestial Tribulation's Divine Thunder, suddenly shivered. Then, her entire body, along with her Buddhist Robe and the countless Buddhist images surrounding her, began to grow larger and larger!

After just a few breaths, this little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism had impressively transformed, her form now towering to fifteen thousand feet, truly supporting the heavens and standing firm upon the earth!

The Buddha's Light emanating from her body became countless times more brilliant! Even Cultivators thousands, or even tens of thousands, of feet away couldn't help but exclaim in awe at the dazzling radiance!

Lin Xuankong watched this scene, his heart swelling with anticipation. This little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism was indeed growing stronger, already beginning to master the kind of physical transformation technique that only Initial Tier Earth Immortals could possess!

That Glazed Purification Bottle was truly miraculous. Not only could it reverse injuries, but right before the eyes of countless Cultivators, it had reversed the fate of this little Buddhist nun!

That Glazed Purification Bottle... Lin Xuankong's eyes burned with eagerness.

Chapter 466: The Conditions of Galin Bodhisattva, As Many Spiritual Treasures As Needed

At this moment, the tribulation clouds high in the sky grew even darker. Although it was clearly daytime, hardly any light penetrated from the heavens, as if Spiritual Crane Immortal City had suddenly shifted from day to the darkest night! However, in the skies above the head of the little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism, countless bolts of Divine Thunder as thick as small buildings became even more brilliant, merging together and striking towards her Buddha's Light!

However, now that she had stepped into the Half-Step Earth Immortal realm, the little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism faced the increasing bolts of Divine Thunder with ever-increasing ease! With the assistance of the Glazed Purification Bottle, the numerous bolts of Divine Thunder could no longer shake her Buddha's Light; instead, they tempered her Immortal Body, causing it to become ever more grand!

At this time, every cultivator watching the little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism was absolutely certain that this little nun would definitely pass this Celestial Tribulation! This little nun had almost perished under the Divine Thunder Celestial Tribulation moments ago. Yet, in the blink of an eye, she overcame the tribulation with the help of the Purification Bottle, becoming the first cultivator in Spiritual Crane Immortal City in decades to do so. Thinking of this, they gazed upon the Glazed Purification Bottle with intense fervour, their breathing becoming slightly rapid!

As cultivators, who wouldn't want to become a true immortal with long life and limitless power? But as cultivators, how many could break through the Celestial Tribulation and ultimately become an immortal? This mystical Glazed Purification Bottle before them... how could they not crave it!

But considering that the owner of this Glazed Purification Bottle was from Spirit Platform Buddhism, no matter how much they yearned for it, they could only suppress their greed deep in their hearts! Reaching Ninth-Layer Perfection and Crossing the Celestial Tribulation might result in failure, being knocked down a realm, or even death. But offending Spirit Platform Buddhism, especially the cultivators from Yu Zhen Bodhisattva's lineage, certainly meant death with no chance of survival! Those were formidable people; even Flame Saber, the Sect Leader of the Fire Spirit Sect, would have to kneel and beg them for mercy! And despite Flame Saber Duan River kneeling there all this time, Galin Bodhisattva had yet to acknowledge him!

At that moment, the previously pitch-black sky suddenly brightened. The endless dark clouds covering Spiritual Crane Immortal City violently churned, and then a circular passageway with a thousand-zhang diameter opened above the head of the little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism! A vast amount of dense, pure Immortal Yuan surged out from the passage, descending towards the little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism!

At the same time, a series of melodious Immortal Music came from the passage. This Immortal Music was entirely different from the mundane sounds of silk and bamboo, resonating directly within the hearts of countless cultivators! Numerous pure white Immortal Lotuses also fell from the passage, landing on the little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism!

The pure Immortal Yuan and white Immortal Lotuses were incredibly magical. Even the formidable Buddha's Light defense surrounding the little nun could not block their penetration. Of course, the little nun would never dream of resisting these pure Immortal Yuan and white Immortal Lotuses now. Her Initial Tier Immortal Body was already mostly refined; only the final step remained. Upon accepting the nourishment of these pure Immortal Yuan and white Immortal Lotuses, she would complete the final step of Crossing the Tribulation!

As the pure Immortal Yuan and white Immortal Lotuses continuously poured in and were absorbed by her, her Immortal Body grew increasingly grand and perfect, with every curve of her body radiating streamlined elegance!

After thirty breaths, the little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism, who had been clasping her hands in prayer, suddenly opened her eyes, her face full of joy!

In the next moment, the countless onlooking cultivators suddenly felt a brightening before their eyes. The countless tribulation clouds that had been covering the skies of Spiritual Crane Immortal City completely dissipated, revealing a sky as blue as a clear wash. This transformation was completely silent. It was as if the countless tribulation clouds that had just obscured the sky were mere illusions in everyone's eyes, as if they had never truly existed!

"She really crossed the Celestial Tribulation! Unbelievable! At the start of the tribulation, we thought this severely injured little nun would certainly perish on the spot!"

"Tsk tsk, after decades, Spiritual Crane Immortal City finally has someone Crossing the Celestial Tribulation again! Moreover, the grandeur of this Celestial Tribulation far surpassed the dozens of previous tribulations. Since this little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism overcame this Celestial Tribulation, she will likely forge an extremely powerful Initial Tier Immortal Body and Initial Tier Golden Core. Her future cultivation speed will far surpass other Initial Tier Earth Immortals!"

"That's not the most incredible part. The most incredible thing is the Spiritual Treasure held by this little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism!"

"Alas, it's said that Spirit Platform Buddhism is extremely discerning when accepting disciples, prioritizing Wisdom Root. Even if your cultivation speed is extremely fast and your talent is excellent, you might not be able to join. Otherwise, if one could join Spirit Platform Buddhism in this lifetime, wouldn't Crossing the Celestial Tribulation become a simple matter in the future?"

"Not necessarily. Such powerful Buddhist Spiritual Treasures are likely not plentiful, even within Spirit Platform Buddhism!"

The numerous cultivators all sighed with emotion. Many envied the little nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism, but even more were jealous of her Glazed Purification Bottle. Everyone's gaze was fixed on the Glazed Purification Bottle, almost unable to look away, as if it were the most captivating beauty in the world!

At this moment, clear and majestic voices resounded from various directions in Spiritual Crane Immortal City.

Chapter 467: Galin Bodhisattva's Conditions, As Many Spiritual Treasures As Needed_2

"Wanxiang Sheng, Master of the Twenty-first Spirit Peak of the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect, congratulates the disciple of Galin Bodhisattva on successfully passing the Celestial Tribulation! This Celestial Tribulation was so fierce, yet your esteemed Sect's disciple managed to pass it calmly. It is truly moving. The Spirit Platform Buddhism indeed deserves its reputation as the foremost Buddhist Sect in the world!"

"Qi Lin, Master of the Twenty-third Spirit Peak of the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect, congratulates the disciple of Galin Bodhisattva on passing the Celestial Tribulation! This grand occasion truly deserves a celebration. I will send disciples with this Spirit Peak's specialty, three-thousand-year-old reishi, to Galin Bodhisattva's residence to offer congratulations!"

"Guo Ru, from the Ninth Immortal Mansion of the Profound Origin Immortal Sect, congratulates the disciple of Galin Bodhisattva on passing the Celestial Tribulation! This Celestial Tribulation was incredibly fierce, the likes of which I have not seen in a thousand years. It almost rivals the Celestial Tribulation that Guo Xia, our Profound Origin Immortal Sect's foremost Earth Immortal of the past millennium, once passed! I believe that Galin Bodhisattva's disciple will surely achieve the rank of Great Accomplishment Bodhisattva in the future. Guo Ru offers his congratulations!"

"Huarong, from the Seventh Immortal Mountain of the Yinlei Immortal Sect, congratulates the disciple of Galin Bodhisattva on..."

These voices clearly came from the various Earth Immortals observing from a distance. Even these Earth Immortals sighed in awe, evidently surprised that the little nun from the Spirit Platform Buddhism had managed to pass such a fierce Celestial Tribulation. They all expressed their intentions to send gifts and visit later.

「In mid-air」

Galin Bodhisattva clasped her palms together and bowed in return to the Earth Immortals. After they had all returned to their respective Spirit Peaks, she looked at the joyful little nun.

A smile appeared on her face. "Yikong, among my many disciples, you have the best Comprehension and the finest Wisdom Root. Now that you have successfully passed the Celestial Tribulation and become a Bodhisattva, it fills my heart with joy as your master!"

The little nun of the Spirit Platform Buddhism, Yikong, had already achieved the Initial Tier Earth Immortal Body. Her form quivered and transformed to a normal height before she floated towards Galin Bodhisattva. Upon reaching her, Yikong knelt devoutly before her master's Lotus Platform and presented the Glazed Purification Bottle.

"This time, if Master hadn't found an unconventional way for this disciple to withstand the opponent's attacks, how could I have reached the Bodhisattva Realm so quickly! Moreover, without the Glazed Purification Bottle Master bestowed upon me, this disciple would likely have been struck down by the Divine Thunder Celestial Tribulation, possibly destroying this body completely! This disciple is eternally grateful for Master's guidance!"

Yikong then moved behind Galin Bodhisattva, standing respectfully by her side.

As a disciple of Galin Bodhisattva, Yikong knew better than anyone the terrifying Celestial Tribulation her master had faced when she first entered the Initial Tier Earth Immortal Realm. If the Celestial Tribulation

Yikong herself had faced was a terrifying one seen only once in centuries, then the Celestial Tribulation Master Galin had faced was a terrifying one seen only once in tens of thousands of years!

Now that she had achieved the status of Bodhisattva, the fierce Celestial Tribulation she had faced would greatly accelerate her future cultivation speed beyond that of a normal Initial Tier Earth Immortal. Furthermore, because her master had faced a Celestial Tribulation seen only once in tens of thousands of years, her Bodhisattva Body and Bodhisattva Golden Core far surpassed those of countless Earth Immortals from previous generations.

If it weren't for this, how could her master have become a Second-Grade Earth Immortal in just two to three hundred years? Moreover, in the past ten-odd days, she had advanced to the Late Stage as a Second-Grade Earth Immortal, encountering almost no bottlenecks!

Little Bodhisattva Yikong gazed at her master, Galin Bodhisattva, with devotion and reverence.

In her view, Galin Bodhisattva was undoubtedly the most talented Bodhisattva of the Spirit Platform Buddhism, possessing the greatest Wisdom Root and Comprehension. She was destined to reach the Ninth Grade Great Accomplishment Bodhisattva Realm. Even Ancestor Yu Zhen Bodhisattva had once said that Galin Bodhisattva might be the only one in tens of thousands of years with the potential to enter the Celestial Immortal Realm and achieve the Saint Buddha Realm!

At this thought, Little Bodhisattva Yikong glanced around.

Seeing all the Cultivators gazing at her with envy, she shook her head slightly. Her own Celestial Tribulation was nothing in comparison. If these Cultivators had witnessed the Celestial Tribulation Master Galin faced two hundred years ago, their Dao Hearts would likely have been shaken on the spot, leaving them terrified of Celestial Tribulations forever!

Back then, her master had barely survived that Celestial Tribulation using thirty-two Glazed Purification Bottles, thirty-one of which were destroyed. If Ancestor Yu Zhen Bodhisattva hadn't consecrated two more Glazed Purification Bottles afterward, the disciples of the Spirit Platform Buddhism might never have had the chance to use such precious, rare, and miraculous Buddhist Spiritual Treasures!

Her gaze fell upon the Glazed Purification Bottle in Galin Bodhisattva's hand. I wonder when Master Galin will reach the Ninth Grade Great Accomplishment Bodhisattva Realm? At that time, if Galin

Bodhisattva and Ancestor Yu Zhen Bodhisattva could consecrate and empower treasures together, the various Spiritual Treasures of the Spirit Platform Buddhism would surely multiply! Hmm, that might take over a thousand, or even several thousand years! After all, cultivation for Bodhisattvas in the Earth Immortal Realm is extremely difficult. Even someone with Master's Talent and Comprehension, far surpassing any contemporary Earth Immortal, must still cultivate step by step!

「At this moment」

Kneeling not far away were Flaming Blade Duan River, Sect Leader of the Fire Spirit Immortal Sect; the Second Prince Chang Li behind him; and a dozen disciples of the Fire Spirit Immortal Sect. All of them cast greedy looks at the Glazed Purification Bottle in Galin Bodhisattva's hand.

Especially Second Prince Chang Li; he had already attained Ninth-Layer Perfection. He was planning to compete for the Sixth Celestial Vein in the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect. Whether he managed to achieve Condensation of the Sixth Vein or not, he was prepared to take the Immortal Ascension Treasure Pill prepared by his Martial Uncle Duan River, then seek some Treasures to pass the Celestial Tribulation!

But the ferocity of the Celestial Tribulation is something that every Ninth-Layer Perfection Cultivator fears. This was true even for him, the most favored disciple of the Vice Sect Leader of the Fire Spirit Immortal Sect. He prided himself on having prepared numerous Treasures and even had the chance to use the Flame Saber of his Martial Uncle, Flaming Blade Duan River, during his tribulation. Despite this, he still harbored doubts about successfully Crossing the Celestial Tribulation!

After all, cultivators who obtained the Immortal Ascension Treasure Pill, various Treasures, and an Immortal Yuan Cave Mansion to prepare for their Celestial Tribulation—weren't they all extremely well-prepared? Weren't they all dragons and phoenixes among mortals, supreme prodigies valued by their Immortal Sects? Even so, not even one in a hundred could safely and smoothly transcend to the Initial Tier Earth Immortal Realm. Most Cultivators only managed to barely scrape through after several attempts at Crossing the Celestial Tribulation...

Now, seeing with his own eyes that Yikong from Spirit Platform Buddhism had effortlessly passed the terrifyingly fierce Celestial Tribulation with the help of that Glazed Purification Bottle, how could his heart not be moved!

But Second Prince Chang Li knew very well that compared to the heritage of Spirit Platform Buddhism, his so-called Xianluo Dynasty was nothing. Even the Fire Spirit Immortal Sect, with his Martial Uncle

Flaming Blade Duan River behind it, was no more than a tiny ant beneath the foot of a Divine Dragon! Given such an overwhelming disparity in power, how could he possibly acquire the Spiritual Treasures of Spirit Platform Buddhism!

Buy?

The Immortal Realms occupied by Spirit Platform Buddhism were said to be larger than all the territories of the Central Divine Dynasty's Immortal Sects combined. This even included the total area of the Secret Realms containing Celestial Demon Bones owned by the Earth Immortals. With such vast resources, how could Spirit Platform Buddhism possibly be lacking? How could they ever sell such a Spiritual Treasure!

Rob?

Spirit Platform Buddhism had even thrashed the First Demon Sect, the Profound Yin Demon Sect. If not for Spirit Platform Buddhism's great demon-slaying war, countless Immortal Realms in the Central Divine Dynasty might have already been seized by the Profound Yin Demon Sect! How many Earth Immortals would dare to act against Spirit Platform Buddhism, an entity that could so easily thrash the Profound Yin Demon Sect? Throughout this world, perhaps only the fiends of the Profound Yin Demon Sect would occasionally dare to cause trouble in Spirit Platform Buddhism's Immortal Realms. As for the Earth Immortals from other Immortal Sects, they would be too busy trying to curry favor; who would dare to make a move against them!

Borrow?

Pay a hefty price to use Spirit Platform Buddhism's Spiritual Treasure temporarily? Those were Spirit Platform Buddhism's Spiritual Treasures! They were said to be crafted from ordinary materials and thus easily damaged. Which Immortal Sect could afford to borrow one? If it were damaged, their entire Immortal Sect would have to compensate, and even then, Spirit Platform Buddhism might not be satisfied! Perhaps some extremely powerful Immortal Sects could borrow them, like the Divine Dynasty Immortal Sect of the Central Divine Dynasty, which was hailed as the Celestial Court! Apart from them, other Immortal Sects, even those with dealings with Spirit Platform Buddhism, would find it exceedingly difficult to borrow their Spiritual Treasures. Not even the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect could manage it. Otherwise, the situation where no one in Spiritual Crane Immortal City had advanced to the Earth Immortal Realm in a hundred years wouldn't have occurred!

As for his own Fire Spirit Immortal Sect...

Second Prince Chang Li glanced bitterly at his Martial Uncle, Flaming Blade Duan River, who was kneeling on the ground. A bitter taste filled his mouth.

The Fire Spirit Immortal Sect had always acted domineeringly. While this style made things convenient for him at times, every advantage had its disadvantage! At the very least, he was absolutely certain of one thing: while the Earth Immortals of the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect might have a sliver of a chance to borrow a Spiritual Treasure from Spirit Platform Buddhism, it was utterly impossible for his Fire Spirit Immortal Sect! Sigh, especially today! That Yang Ding, who deserved to die ten thousand times—of all people he could have beaten, he had to thrash a young nun from Spirit Platform Buddhism! Because of that damn fellow, he and his Martial Uncle had no idea what punishment awaited them, let alone even dreaming of borrowing their Spiritual Treasures!

Second Prince Chang Li was feeling deeply frustrated when his eyes suddenly flickered, and he looked towards Lin Xuankong's position in disbelief. For at that moment, he clearly saw a shocking sight: the renowned Galin Bodhisattva from Spirit Platform Buddhism—the one who had made even his Martial Uncle, Flaming Blade Duan River, kneel and beg for mercy—was suddenly drifting towards Lin Xuankong and starting a conversation with him!

How could this be possible?

That was the lofty Galin Bodhisattva, capable of subjugating all the Earth Immortals in Spiritual Crane Immortal City! She could even dominate the entire Central Divine Dynasty Western Region with just her Second-Grade Earth Immortal Realm! How could that fellow, Lin Xuankong—the one who seemed to have some special relationship with Xiaoo Ying'Er—possibly know Galin Bodhisattva? He was said to be just an ordinary Cultivator from the Great Xia Dynasty! How could a Cultivator from such a remote, backward, and desolate Dynasty possibly know Galin Bodhisattva?

As Second Prince Chang Li stood there in shock, Flaming Blade Duan River, still kneeling, also revealed a puzzled expression. He frowned and let out a soft, "Hmm?"

Back at the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect auction, this fellow calling himself Mu Shiba was someone I absolutely had to eliminate! And his friend, Lii Xiaolan, she was also someone I was a hundred percent set on dealing with! But how could this Mu Shiba know Galin Bodhisattva? And from the looks of it, their relationship seemed quite good? Damn it, truly damn it!

Flaming Blade Duan River's face showed astonishment, his eyes filled with shame and hatred.

At this moment, Galin Bodhisattva, who had landed beside Lin Xuankong, chatted casually with him for a few moments. Then, a smile touched her lips as she said, "Fellow Daoist Mu, has some time passed? Have you thought it through? Are you interested in joining our Spirit Platform Buddhism? A Cultivator like you, with such profound Wisdom Root and discerning eyes—if you were to join our Spirit Platform Buddhism, shave your head and become a monk, and then cultivate Buddhist Technique, your progress would surely be meteoric. In the future, achieving the rank of Minor Success Bodhisattva or Great Accomplishment Bodhisattva would definitely be within reach. You might even have a chance to glimpse the Saint Buddha Realm, which is comparable to the Celestial Immortal Realm!"

Chapter 469: Conditions posed by Galin Bodhisattva, Spiritual Treasures in Abundance_4

Become a monk? Lin Xuankong decisively shook his head. However, after recalling Little Bodhisattva Yikong's Buddhist Technique and the various incredible Spiritual Treasures of the Spirit Platform Buddha, Lin Xuankong felt tempted. He couldn't help but ask, "Can I become a Lay Disciple of Spirit Platform Buddhism?"

"What is a Lay Disciple?" Little Bodhisattva Yikong, who stood behind Galin Bodhisattva, couldn't help but ask curiously.

Galin Bodhisattva also showed a touch of confusion on her elegant and dignified face upon hearing this.

Seeing this, Lin Xuankong couldn't help but feel a bit strange. "It means joining the Buddhist Sect, where one can learn Buddhist Technique and various Secret Techniques, but not fully joining. You don't have to shave your head or obey strict rules. You can eat meat, drink alcohol, curse, and even marry."

"UH!"

After Lin Xuankong finished speaking, even Little Bodhisattva Yikong, who was firmly rooted in a Buddha Heart, raised his eyebrows and looked at Lin Xuankong with some contempt. Good heavens! If it weren't for the Buddhist Sect rules that prohibit insulting others, I would truly want to scold this shameless guy! Once you join the Buddhist Sect, you must adhere to strict rules to keep the Buddha Heart pure and untainted. If you do all these things like drinking, eating meat, and marrying as he said, how can you be a Buddhist Disciple!

Even Li Xiaohu and others standing beside Lin Xuankong were all looking at Lin Xuankong, utterly speechless at his peculiar ideas.

Seeing this, Lin Xuankong secretly shook his head. This world is indeed different from my original Blue Star! In my Blue Star, there are many Lay Disciples in the Buddhist Sect, and even formal disciples engage in all kinds of online activities, becoming internet celebrities, drinking, eating meat, driving sports cars, and dating girls! Alas, different worlds indeed have vastly different norms!

At this moment, Galin Bodhisattva looked at Lin Xuankong, shook her head slightly, and said, "It seems that Mr. Lin still clings to worldly attachments and is obsessed with various illusions of the mundane world! Alas, how could you know that cultivating inner peace brings far more joy and serenity than all those worldly temptations!"

Lin Xuankong smiled and said, "Unfortunately, I, Mu Shiba, am a common person who likes to eat meat, drink alcohol, and appreciate beauty. Master Galin's kind intentions are wasted on me!"

Hearing this, Galin Bodhisattva thought for a while, then raised her eyebrows and looked at Lin Xuankong.

"If you join Spirit Platform Buddhism and become a monk, you can freely use all the Spiritual Treasures of Spirit Platform Buddhism, including the most famous twenty-eight Spiritual Treasures, and this Glazed Purification Bottle that helps Cultivators survive the Celestial Tribulation!"

Hearing this, Lin Xuankong was stunned.

Joining Spirit Platform Buddhism allows you to use all their Spiritual Treasures? These conditions... This is an attempt to overwhelm me with their countless Spiritual Treasures, to stun me into submission! This is too much!

Remembering the Plant Spirit Bottle he once obtained, and thinking about the miraculous effect of the Glazed Purification Bottle he just saw, Lin Xuankong had to admit, he was indeed tempted!

At this time, not only was Lin Xuankong slightly stunned, but even Little Bodhisattva Yikong, who had been practicing Buddhism with Master Galin for two hundred years, was stunned at the words of Master Galin.

Little Bodhisattva Yikong knew that Master Galin had once given Lin Xuankong a Plant Spirit Bottle. Bodhisattva Yu Zhen had previously consecrated and empowered several such Plant Spirit Bottles, and Spirit Platform Buddhism currently possessed a few more. However, Spirit Platform Buddhism only had three Glazed Purification Bottles. To obtain more, they would have to wait for Bodhisattva Yu Zhen to emerge from seclusion. Then, it would take several hundred more years of consecration and empowerment to create even a few more! The Glazed Purification Bottle is no less precious than the Plant Spirit Bottle; in fact, in terms of rarity, it's significantly more so. And Master Galin even said she would give this Mu Shiba many Sect Spiritual Treasures, including the Sect's twenty-eight most powerful ones?

Chapter 470: He Actually Refused the Spiritual Treasure, The World Has Gone Mad

Upon hearing Galin Bodhisattva's words, Li Xiaohu, Hu Shuo, and the others were all dumbfounded.

Li Xiaohu even couldn't help scratching his head. He moved closer to Lin Xuankong, giving him frequent winks. His expression was clearly saying to Lin Xuankong, "Agree quickly! Heavens, those are the countless Spiritual Treasures of the Spirit Platform Buddhism, free for the taking! Others couldn't hope for such an opportunity! That's the chance to join the Spirit Platform Buddhism; others might not get such a chance even if they reincarnated a hundred or ten thousand times!"

However, with the various Talents brought by the Vigorous in Old Age Life Plate, Lin Xuankong couldn't care less about which Immortal Sect he joined! For him, going to the Spiritual Crane Immortal City was just a step toward becoming an Immortal. As long as he could learn any Immortal Technique and continue to enhance his strength after becoming an Earth Immortal, that would suffice! Whether he joined the Spirit Platform Buddhism or the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect didn't make much difference to him! The only difference was the various Spiritual Treasures of the Spirit Platform Buddhism!

After all, with Xiao Xiuyi's help, Lin Xuankong could effortlessly refine a large number of Immortal Artifacts. Perhaps, even without waiting for the future, the number of Immortal Artifacts Lin Xuankong currently possessed was already enough to make him the person with the most Immortal Artifacts in the entire Central Divine Dynasty! But the primary function of Immortal Artifacts is attack and defense, with no other uses. The various Buddhist Spiritual Treasures of the Spirit Platform Buddhism, blessed and consecrated by Yu Zhen Bodhisattva, however, possessed all sorts of wondrous and astounding effects!

But to join the Spirit Platform Buddhism and endure the various precepts and rules of Buddhism just for the Spiritual Treasures?

Lin Xuankong pondered briefly and finally made up his mind.

He looked at Galin Bodhisattva, at her dignified and elegant face, and smiled, saying, "Galin Bodhisattva, your sincere invitation and the high regard you show for me, Mu Shiba, are truly touching. Unfortunately, as a mere layman, Mu Shiba cannot let go of the myriad temptations of the mundane world. Perhaps Mu Shiba will change in the future, but for now, I must admit, it's impossible for me to let go of those things!"

Yikong Xiao Bodhisattva, standing by, widened his eyes upon hearing this.

Heavens! Is this guy out of his mind?! The terms Master Galin offered are such that even the Bodhisattvas of our Spirit Platform Buddhism who have reached the Minor Success Realm cannot obtain them! Those Theravada Bodhisattvas of the Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Grade Earth Immortal Realms need to personally seek permission from Yu Zhen Bodhisattva at Sumeru Spirit Mountain to use the various Spiritual Treasures of the Spirit Platform Buddhism! This guy actually refused when faced with such terms?

Little Bodhisattva Yikong almost thought he had heard wrong.

Li Xiaohu, Hu Shuo, Yang Mountain, and the others were even more astonished. Li Er couldn't help but vigorously shake his shaved head. The Liy Family Brothers were just as shocked. If it weren't for their consistent respect for Lin Xuankong and their ingrained habit of obeying his orders without question, the Lin Family Seven Tigers might all have voiced their opposition!

Although they hadn't heard much about the prestige of the Spirit Platform Buddhism, Flaming Blade Duan River's current behavior was enough for them to glimpse its terrifying power and strength. Yet Lin Xuankong chose not to join?

Galin Bodhisattva, hearing Lin Xuankong's refusal, showed a touch of helplessness in her elegant eyes. She shook her head slightly and said, "As I expected, Mr. Mu, you seem quite concerned about the precepts of the Spirit Platform Buddhism and cannot let go of the various temptations of the mundane world. However, in the future, when you reach the Earth Immortal Realm and witness the world's changes and vicissitudes, you may come to an enlightenment!

"All things in this world are ultimately like lightning and dew, fleeting and ephemeral. Even if you cultivate to become a Ninth-Grade Earth Immortal, you will eventually exhaust your Lifespan. Only Buddhist Techniques can allow you to preserve your complete karmic wisdom through reincarnation, enabling you to continually re-cultivate, and sooner or later achieve the Celestial Immortal Realm and transcend this world! As for the Immortal Techniques of other Immortal Sects, most only allow cultivation up to the Ninth-Grade Earth Immortal, with no way to progress further!"

She paused there, then continued, "Since Galin sees great potential in you, Mr. Mu, I won't give up so easily. Whenever you change your mind, please seek me out."

Lin Xuankong nodded slightly, but his eyes were steadfast.

He had indeed never heard from other Immortal Sects that Buddhist Techniques could allow Cultivators to maintain their complete karmic wisdom through reincarnation, cultivating life after life until achieving the Celestial Immortal and Saint Buddha Realms. Perhaps among those fiends from the Profound Yin Demon Sect, there were those who cultivated Possession Demon Techniques...

However, since he possessed the Great Reincarnation Technique and could shed his mortal coil and be reborn at any time, why would he care about such an inducement!

Galin Bodhisattva raised her hand, offering the semi-transparent Glazed Purification Bottle to Lin Xuankong. "Mr. Mu, you are likely going to participate in the Spiritual Crane Immortal Sect's disciple selection grand ceremony. With your abilities and Treasures, securing the Sixth Celestial Vein Spiritual Object should not be an issue! I imagine it won't be long before you need to undergo the Celestial Tribulation!

"This Glazed Purification Bottle was personally consecrated and empowered by my master, Great Accomplishment Yu Zhen Bodhisattva. It possesses various Buddhist spiritual efficacies and can greatly increase your chances of success when you undergo the Celestial Tribulation! Since we were fated to meet again today, let this Glazed Purification Bottle remain with you for the time being, Mr. Mu!"

Hearing this, Lin Xuankong's eyes shifted slightly.

He had just rejected Galin Bodhisattva's invitation to join the Spirit Platform Buddhism, yet she still offered him the Glazed Purification Bottle!

Such a precious Buddhist Spiritual Treasure... Galin Bodhisattva was truly generous, offering it just like that. Although she said it was temporary, she didn't specify when it should be returned... Has this beautiful young Bodhisattva truly taken a liking to me? Is she determined to befriend me, trying various ways to win me over, so that I might join the Spirit Platform Buddhism in the future?

Little Bodhisattva Yikong, seeing this, widened his already wide eyes even further.

The three thousand Spiritual Treasures of the Spirit Platform Buddhism are all enshrined and protected by the Buddhist Disciples and have never been allowed to leave the sect! The last time, Master Galin gave that extremely precious Plant Spirit Bottle to this Mu Shiba, and that was understandable. After all, it was said that this Mu Shiba had helped Master Galin repel the Four Great Demons of the Profound Yin Demon Sect. Speaking of which, Master Galin's safety was far more important than the Plant Spirit Bottle. In the eyes of Great Accomplishment Yu Zhen Bodhisattva, Master Galin was someone who could become a Saint Buddha in the future! But this time, why is she giving away another Spiritual Treasure! And it's one of the Spirit Platform Buddhism's extremely important Spiritual Treasures!

Not far away, Flaming Blade Duan River, Second Prince Chang Li, and the dozen or so Fire Spirit Sect disciples kneeling in mid-air, witnessed this scene. They were all utterly astonished, their eyes filled not only with greed but also brimming with envy, jealousy, and hatred!

That's a precious Treasure of the Spirit Platform Buddhism that can help someone pass the Celestial Tribulation! That's a Spiritual Treasure that not even the entire Fire Spirit Immortal Sect possesses! If the Fire Spirit Immortal Sect possessed even one such Spiritual Treasure, the number of their Earth Immortals could probably increase more than ten-fold, instantly making them the strongest Immortal Sect in the Western Region of the Central Divine Dynasty! Yet, such an incredibly precious and rare Spiritual Treasure from the Spirit Platform Buddhism, one that even High-Grade Earth Immortals would covet, Galin Bodhisattva was actually going to give to this mere Ninth-Layer Perfection Cultivator! And this Mu Shiba had just rejected Galin Bodhisattva's invitation to join the Buddhist Sect! Crazy! This world has gone crazy! This is impossible, absolutely impossible! I must be hallucinating!

Flaming Blade Duan River's mind shouted loudly; his mentality, cultivated over a thousand years, shattered on the spot!
