Chapter 1141: I Came to see Wen Caiyi Goddess

Yan Guan said slowly, "Many might have guessed that not far into the future, there will be some changes that will shake South Peace State and even the entire Luo Yue continent. Although we don't know what it is yet, we've set up the teleportation formation connecting the two states."

Then, Yan Guan looked at Yang Feicheng. "Thank you Infinity Sect's sect leader for increasing the relationship between us and being willing to marry Wen Caiyi goddess into our sect. Using this opportunity, I would like to announce something to everyone. In order to prevent something really happening to the South Peace State cultivation world, sect leader Yang and I propose to create a South Peace State sect alliance."

Many people started discussing. They realized what this was. Almost all the 7-star and above sects were invited. Although some sect's high level members weren't here, they'd sent representatives.

The 9-star sects were fine but some small sects began to worry. If they didn't join this alliance, would they be suppressed by 9-star sects just like Sword Valley?

Sword Valley was an ancient sect and a 7-star sect, but Infinity Sect just annihilated on a whim.

"I agree with sect leader Yan and sect leader Yang's idea. After we build the South Alliance, it would gather the strength of us South Peace State cultivators and weld the sects together in case of sudden incidents. This would benefit all South Peace State sects," a Lightning Cloud Sect old man got up and said.

Ye Mo looked at this old man, he was disaster transformation state peak stage and could reach truth realisation state at any time.

"We from Eternity Sea Sect also agree..."

"We from Earth Demon Sect also agree.."

Some 7-star and 8-star sect didn't know what to do anymore upon seeing that some sects began supporting this. Who knew if they would be controlled after joining this alliance? No sect wanted to be ruled by someone else, especially in the cultivation realm that valued freedom. But three 9-star sects had already agreed. Even if some sects didn't agree, no one dared to disobey.

Ye Mo looked at Earth Demon Sect strangely, wasn't that sect only 6-star? How were they here too? The lowest standard here was to be a 7-star sect.

Ye Mo had a bad feeling. He also killed Wu Yu from Eternity Sea Sect, but only Yi Pandie knew about it. She wouldn't betray him.

Seeing that more sects were going to support this, Ye Mo got up and smiled. "Haha, today's really a good day..."

This was a serious topic but Ye Mo smiling ruined that serious atmosphere.

If someone else did this, even if the 9-star sects didn't reproach them, their 7 and 8-star sects would come say something.

But it was Ye Mo and no one dared to do this. After all, his other identity was Pill City's honorary vice city lord.

Pill City was the only 10-star power, no one dared to touch that.

"Haha, pill king Ye is right, today is indeed a good day." Yan Guan smiled.

Yang Feicheng and Lightning Cloud Sect's sect leader Wang Chuanhe's face were green with anger, but even they didn't dare to openly attack Ye Mo.

Now that they hadn't brought the conflict to the surface, Ye Mo couldn't use Pill City to fight them. But if they brought things to the surface, who knows what the two Pill City city lords would do?

The Pill City's power wasn't just a few truth realisation state elders and the two city lord that they showed. Their real power was invisible. Otherwise, they wouldn't be renowned as the only 10-star city.

Ye Mo smiled and saluted with his fists to Yan Guan. "Today's a great day because it's the day goddess Wen chooses a husband. This is the good news, the proper business. After the proper business is over, the rest of qian beis here can discuss about other big things. Otherwise, someone like me who only likes small business and paparazzi will fall asleep listening to such big news. It's really unbearable. I've long admired goddess Wen's big name, so I came to see goddess Wen today. Sect leader Yan, there are quite some people like me, shouldn't you finish the proper business first?"

If someone else said something as absurd as this, Yan Guan would've dragged him out already, but he could only smile at this Pill City honor vice city lord.

"Pill king Ye is right. sect leader Yang and sect leader Wang, what do you think?"

Yang Feicheng's eyes were ice cold. In his eyes, Ye Mo was a dead man. Even if he couldn't kill him here, since he dared to come to Black Ice Mountain, then don't blame him for attacking. He just didn't expect Ye Mo to suddenly appear here and foil his plan.

Some 7 and 8-star sect core sect members were discussing how bold this pill king Ye was, overtly rebuking the decision of three 9-star sect leaders and no one dared to reject. Those who didn't want to join the South Alliance were all grateful to Ye Mo. Ye Mo did something they didn't dare to do.

Yang Feicheng said calmly, "Does pill king Ye not think something that concerns our entire South Peace State cultivation world is not a big matter? Or does pill king Ye not care about the safety of our South Peace State cultivation world?"

Ye Mo clapped twice and laughed. "Old brother, well said. I'm an idiot, the safety of South Peace State have powerful beings like you to take care of it. But you're right, I really don't care. Your South Alliance, I don't want to join and nor do I want to waste time here. So, goddess Wen's business is big business to me."

"You..." Yang Feicheng's face was green but he didn't dare to do anything to Ye Mo.

"I agree to city lord Ye's words. As for the South Alliance, those sects willing to join can discuss with each other. We from Abstruse Sound Sect don't wish to join," a middle aged woman saluted with her fists and said.

"I agree with Abstruse Sound Sect's elder Fu regarding the South Alliance, I think even if there's to be an alliance, it needs to be discussed with the Pill City city lord. Pill City is a 10-star sect, yet they don't even know about this. Clearly, this thing isn't planned well. Our Clear Dream Mosque won't participate for now," an old nun from Clear Dream Mosque said.

"We from God Wind Valley agree with city lord Ye," another representative got up.

"We from Heaven Star Sect agree with city lord Ye."

"Ethereal Immortal Pond..."

Seeing more and more people agree with Ye Mo, the Infinity Sect and Lightning Cloud Sect leaders' faces looked worse and worse.

Even Yan Guan felt things weren't right. He didn't know about Infinity Sect and Ye Mo, so he accepted when Infinity Sect came to show good will. Now it seemed that there was great conflict between Infinity Sect and city lord Ye. If that was the case, he really needed to reconsider.

From what the audience showed, city lord Ye had great respect and the support of many 9-star sects. Thinking about how Ye Mo was also brothers with Lu Wuhu, Yan Guan felt things were going the wrong direction.

"Haha, okay, I agree to city lord Ye's proposal, we'll discuss the alliance later. All the guests are here today for our Black Ice Sect's marriage, how can we delay that? It's my fault," Yan Guan immediately said.

Yang Feicheng also immediately got up and smiled. "City lord Ye is right, today is the day of marriage after all. It's the bliss of Wen Caiyi and our sect that she's marrying into Black Ice Sect. So today, I'm going to add bliss on top of bliss, I need to request sect leader for something else."

Yan Guan breathed easy seeing that Yang Feicheng put the alliance matter aside.

“I heard that Black Ice Sect’s Black Cloud Peak core disciple Luo Susu is both talented and beautiful, ranked as number one in South Peace State ten beauties with Caiyi. Our Infinity Sect’s core disciple Dong Tianya is also a talented genius. So we’ve brought one low grade spirit artifact and a truth spirit pill as a wedding gift, hoping to form this marriage....”

People immediately broke into discussion. They were astounded that the Infinity Sect was willing to pay so much.

Chapter 1142: Chop it and Serve with Wine

Ye Mo sneered, this old man really dared to do such a thing, luckily he came today.

Yan Guan was also dazed. He didn’t expect Infinity Sect’s Yang Feicheng to offer such good terms. The Truth Realization Pill was something very rare, at least Black Ice Sect didn’t have it.

Even other 9-star sects wouldn’t have too many, at most one or two. Most of the truth realisation state cultivators were ancient beings except for an extremely few new ones. The Truth Realisation Pill was the only pill that could give disaster transformation state cultivators an extra 20% chance of reaching truth realisation state. This was something that even spirit stones couldn’t buy.

Even 9-star sects wouldn’t easily use truth realisation pills as this was the future of the sect. Yet, the Infinity Sect took out a truth realisation pill and another low grade spirit range. He was disaster transformation state peak stage and he needed the Truth Realisation Pill the most.

Most of the disaster transformation state cultivators on Luo Yue continent relied on Truth Realisation pills to reach truth realisation state. Only a few rare ones could use other means to reach truth realisation state. Most stayed in disaster transformation state forever.

Yan Guan’s hands were shaky. He wanted to say something but Ye Mo knew things weren’t good, so he quickly stood up and said coldly to Yang Feicheng, “Sorry then, sect leader Yang, Luo Susu is my wife. Tang Beiwei is my sister. I came to pick them up today, you can take back your shitty schemes.”

“Hmph.” Yang Feicheng sneered but ignored Ye Mo and looked at Yan Guan.

Clearly, he meant that Ye Mo was intentionally trying to start problems with him. This was not only being disrespectful to Infinity Sect but also Black Ice Sect.

Ye Mo knew that this wasn't the best time to bring this up, but he had to. The bastard Yang Feicheng was too sinister, how dare he scheme for Susu? Ye Mo cursed that his power was so low, if he was truth realisation state he would've already fought Yang Feicheng.

He had no reason to tolerate schemes for Susu, but he had to.

Indeed Yuan Guan's face sunk down, he had been really polite with Ye Mo, but now Ye Mo's actions clearly made it seem that he didn't take Black Ice sect Seriously and didn't care about Luo Susu's reputation.

He looked at Ye Mo coldly and said, “City lord Ye, although you're the vice city lord of Pill City, we, Black Ice Sect, are a 9-star sect too. Not anyone can do what they like, aren't your words over the top?”

Even though Yan Guan was furious, he had to control his words.

“Insolent brat, how dare you insult my disciple? Is a mere level seven pill king very significant? I'm going to slice you!” The old female cultivator behind Yan Guan rose up furiously but was stopped by another Black Ice Sect cauldron filling state cultivator. No matter what, clearly it wasn't good to attack Ye Mo here.

Ye Mo looked at that old woman, she was cauldron filling state. He didn't expect this old woman to be Susu's master. He heard Qingxue say that Susu's master is very nice to Susu, so he wasn't angry.

Even some other sect leaders and cultivators felt Ye Mo was crossing the line. Everyone knew that Ye Mo had Ning Qingxue. His previous words with Infinity Sect's sect leader clearly meant that there was conflict between them. Now that Infinity Sect took out a marriage gift to propose to Luo Susu, he immediately came out and said Susu was his wife. How could there be such a coincidence in the world?

But because Ye Mo helped them a lot by saying what they didn't dare to say, no one said anything.

But one elder from Lightning Cloud Sect sneered, "The Pill City honorary city lord is indeed arrogant, marrying whomever he wants. Who dares to disobey him?"

How could Ye Mo not tell that this elder was trying to start trouble? However, he ignored him. He walked to Yan Guan and bowed before saying politely, "Sect leader Yan, this must be Susu's master, you're Ye Mo's qian bei as well. I wasn't invited to Black Ice Sect this time and I believe you guys know that. But Wan Bei indeed came to pick up my wife Susu and my sister Beiwei. If you don't believe me, you can bring them here to ask them."

Yan Guan and the female cultivator were dazed, they could tell Ye Mo was being genuine. But this was too coincidental.

Other sect cultivators also looked at Ye Mo in confusion. Even they weren't sure if Ye Mo was telling the truth. Many people felt Ye Mo wasn't lying as this was too easy to prove. They only had to ask Luo Susu or Tang Beiwei.

Wen Caiyi clenched her fists and stared at Ye Mo. She didn't doubt at all that Susu was Ye Mo's wife.

Wen Caiyi thought of her oath, no matter who Luo Susu's husband was, she would rob him from her and then kick him back. In reality, Luo Susu's husband was indeed a dragon amongst men, he was so young and already a level seven pill king. She couldn't even see his power level.

"Ye Mo do you think that you can do whatever you want as an honorary city lord of Pill City? How can there be such a coincidence in the world? I, He Ling, will kill you here today – so what?" a grey-robed old man formed a huge cultivation essence hand and wanted to kill Ye Mo on the spot.

No one expected He Ling really dared to do this.

Yan Guan cursed, Black Ice Sect only had one truth realisation state grand elder, but that elder wasn't here. There was no way to stop it.

Many cultivators greeted Ye Mo before, but no one was willing to help Ye Mo stop this. Ji Ling quickly got up and said, "He qian bei, wait."

But He Ling didn't seem to hear it and reached the cultivation essence huge hand over.

A hollow spirit state cultivator really couldn't do anything against a truth realisation state cultivator.

Ye Mo smiled and said, "Old Lu, someone really doesn't take me seriously and dares to attack. Chop off his claw and let's serve it for our first wine today."

Everyone heard this and was dazed, what did Ye Mo mean?

Only Lu Wuhu understood what Ye Mo meant, first wine meant his first time attacking for him.

Lu Wuhu didn't even care about 9-star sect, he cared about when Ye Mo asked him to attack the three times. To him, the earlier the better. He was all too happy that Ye Mo asked for his help. Without hesitation, he also reached out a giant hand of cultivation essence.

Lu Wuhu had been in truth realisation state for countless years and was the pinnacle being. He Ling was only a truth realisation state primary stage cultivator. He was a far cry from Lu Wuhu.

Thud

He Ling's cultivation essence giant hand was instantly crippled. At the same time, he spat blood. In just one move, he was injured. One could see how powerful Lu Wuhu was.

Luckily Lu Wuhu knew that he was a 9-star sect grand elder and didn't really cut his hand off.

"Lu qian bei, what do you mean by this?" Yang Feicheng's face changed. If Lu Wuhu helped Ye Mo, they wouldn't be able to kill Ye Mo even after he left Black Ice Sect, much less now.

Lu Wuhu said lazily, "Why do I need to tell you? How dare you attack my brother in front of me, are you asking to die? This is a warning, the next time won't be so simple. I won't joke with you guys."

Everyone instantly froze, Ye Mo called Lu Wuhu 'old Lu' and with one word Lu Wuhu attacked for him. Even Yue Qichao had to call Lu Wuhu 'qian bei'. With such powerful support, who dared to attack Ye Mo?

Yan Guan sweated cold, if Fan Yizhu really attacked Ye Mo, then they would have been finished.

Chapter 1143: Is the Pill City Easy to Pick on?

"Susu is our Black Ice Sect's sect member, my personal disciple. Even the Infinity Sect's sect leader brought wedding gifts and personally came to propose. Pill king Ye, do you think just because you're from Pill City, you can forcefully take away my Black Ice Sect member?" the old female cultivator asked.

She then looked around and saluted with her fists. "Our Black Ice Sect isn't as powerful as Pill City, but we're still a 9-star sect. No one can abuse us like this. I don't care what Susu's identity in the mortal world was, but she's my personal disciple now. She will marry whom I want her to marry. No one can force me. Otherwise, even if I die I will maintain the authority of the Black Ice Sect."

Everyone could tell that Fan Lianzhu's words meant that she already believed Susu was Ye Mo's wife, but she still dominantly believed that Ye Mo had no right to take away Susu from Black Ice Sect.

Ye Mo had some good impression of Susu's master originally, but now that he heard this, he was furious. He got up and said coldly, "I called you qian bei because you're Susu's master, don't think you're anything special. Susu is indeed your disciple and I'm grateful you took care of her, but she didn't sell herself to you. You have no right to decide what she wants to do. That's Susu's own decision to make."

"You..." Fan Lianzhu's face was green with anger. In the cultivation realm, the respect for masters was the utmost highest. Ye Mo said he was Susu's husband but now spoke to her like this. She almost spat blood.

Yan Guan quickly got up and said, "City lord Ye, I believe your words too. We'll ask Beiwei later and we'll know. But you also know that when Susu came into our sect, she hadn't established her foundation yet.

She was just with a few mortal girls. According to the rules of our cultivation realm, coming into this cultivation realm is severing off your ties to the mortal realm. Everything in the past has nothing to do with her....”

Ye Mo’s face sunk and said coldly, “So sect leader Yan means that Susu has nothing to do with me now? As for what she thinks herself, you don’t need to consider, is that right?”

Yan Guan stuttered. If someone else said this, he would immediately rebut, “So what?” but he didn’t dare to say that to Ye Mo. Ye Mo had Lu Wuhu next to him and there was Pill City supporting him. And Abstruse Sound Sect as well as Clear Dream Mosque also seemed to be supporting him.

But Lightning Cloud Sect’s sect leader Wang Chuanhe got up and said, “City lord Ye, according to the rules of the cultivation realm, after Luo Susu entered the Black Ice sect, she indeed severed off her mortal ties. Even if she was related to city lord Ye in the past, that’s the past. And the number one important thing for us cultivators after entering a sect is respecting our masters. Elder Fan is Luo Susu’s master, she does have the right to make Susu listen to her. Does city lord Ye think you can forcefully change the rules of the cultivation realm just because you’re Pill City’s honorary city lord?”

Wang Chuanhe was mocking Ye Mo as even if the two city lords of Pill City were here, they wouldn’t be able to change that rule. Even though this rule now was just for show and many disciples still returned home after cultivation and no one would care, this rule did indeed exist.

Ye Mo was furious, these guys dared to say this because his power was weak. If he was a truth realisation state cultivator, who would dare to say that? Lu Wuhu could protect him, but he wouldn’t go challenge 9-star sects. Pill City was on his side, but that rule was just. Although it didn’t make sense, it meant that they had reason on their side.

If Ye Mo forcefully pushed this rule away, even the Pill City wouldn’t be able to find a good excuse to help him.

Lu Wuhu didn’t care about this at all. Although he was with Ye Mo, his relationship with him was far from what other people thought. He just wanted to return Ye Mo’s favor as quickly as possible or there would be confinements for his cultivation. Thus, he didn’t help Ye Mo say anything at all Luo Fei was very worried but her power was too low and wasn't able to say anything for Ye Mo. Ji Ling was too honest and didn't know what to say.

In that moment, Ye Mo was all by himself. Ye Mo's heart sunk. He knew he had to have a reason to take Susu away.

If his power was strong enough, he would just say, "I'm going to break this rule, what are you going to do?" However, his power wasn't enough to say that.

Seeing the situation go into a stalemate, a middle aged man woman got up and said, "Elder Fan is right and sect leader Wang is also right, but since sect leader Yang can propose to Black Ice Sect, so can sect leader Ye."

This at least helped Ye Mo break the stalemate.

Ye Mo was grateful to this beautiful woman. He heard Mi Zhenjie's sound transmission to him that this woman was 9-star sect Heaven Demon Sect's elder Le Yao, cauldron filling state.

Ye Mo gave her a grateful look but before Ye Mo said anything that elder Fan's words almost angered Ye Mo to attack right on the spot.

"Heaven Demon Sect's elder Le is right, now that sect leader Yang brought such a generous proposal gift I've decided to marry my disciple Luo Susu into Infinity Sect."

"Bullshit!" Ye Mo couldn't resist the anger anymore and pointed at Fan Lianzhu cursing.

"What? City lord Ye are you going to take away Susu by force? Then I'll tell you that sect leader Yang's proposal gift isn't something other people can bring out. City lord Ye, although you're a pill king but can you concoct the Truth Realisation Pill? So give up." Lightning Cloud Sect's Wang Chuanhe said calmly.

He wanted to make Ye Mo more angry but with this, but Ye Mo calmed down instead. He knew his downsides, he looked glorious on the surface but he didn't have any bargaining chips except for Lu Wuhu helping him twice.

Ye Mo suddenly sat down and said calmly, "Sect leader Wang and elder Fan, according to your words, Susu should completely listen to Black Ice Sect and not be able to make any of her own decisions?"

"Of course, we cultivators should respect our masters, how can the disciple not listen to the master?" Wang Chuanhe repeated.

But unexpectedly, Ye Mo looked at Lu Wuhu. "Brother Lu, so you tricked me before?"

Lu Wuhu looked at Ye Mo in confusion. "How did I trick you?"

Ye Mo said calmly, "Didn't you say that Infinity Sect's goddess Wen wasn't happy with the husband her sect arranged for her so she would choose a husband through competition. But I just heard sect leader Wang say that she doesn't have any right to make that proposal. Even if the Infinity Sect makes her marry a dog, it seems she just has to agree. But you told a different story. Isn't this tricking me?"

Lu Wuhu immediately understood Ye Mo, he glared at Infinity Sect Yang Feicheng and Black Ice Sect Yan Guan saying coldly, "So the two sect leaders are here to play a joke on me. The invitation given to me clearly says that goddess Wen is choosing her husband herself. How is it now that she has no right to choose? Do you think I'm easy to pick on?"

Yan Guan quickly saluted with his fists. "Lu qian bei, you've misunderstood, no matter what we wouldn't trick Lu qian bei, goddess Wen can indeed choose her own husband."

Yan Guan didn't want to say it, but he had to. If he angered Lu Wuhu, even if he couldn't annihilate the entire sect by himself, he could cause a massive slaughter here.

"Oh, then I thought too much." Lu Wuhu nodded. He knew that was already enough to help Ye Mo.

Ye Mo sneered. "So goddess Wen can choose her husband but Luo Susu can't. Is it because Black Ice Sect isn't as powerful as Infinity Sect or is goddess Wen prettier than Luo Susu? Or is it that Susu is my wife and I'm the vice city lord of Pill City and the Black Ice Sect looks down on Pill City?"

Those sects supporting Ye Mo praised his retaliation.

Hearing this, Yan Guan and Fan Lianzhu's faces looked really bad.

After no one spoke for a long time, Ye Mo suddenly slammed the table. "So the Black Ice Sect thinks the Pill City is easy to abuse? Speaking such bullshit? Brother Lu, lend me a messenger flying sword, I need to message city lord Yue, our Pill City has fallen to such a level!"

Chapter 1144: What Thing are you?

"Wait, city lord Ye, I think there's a misunderstanding. Black Ice Sect is a 9-star sect, how can we force Susu to do something that she doesn't want? We'll call Susu up later and let her choose herself. Elder Fan's just saying angry words, don't think too much of it city lord Ye."

Yan Guan then looked at Susu's master. "Elder Fan, why don't you call Luo Susu here, we can use this opportunity to find a good home for her."

Yan Guan was a bit scared. If Yue Qichao was brought here too, then things wouldn't be so easy.

To be honest, if Fan Lianzhu wasn't domineeringly fighting against Ye Mo, he didn't want to have conflicts with Ye Mo. Ye Mo was such a young level seven pill king and the vice city lord of Pill City. His future was limitless. Why would he have conflict with such a person?

Although the Infinity Sect's proposal gift was enticing, Ye Mo's origin was big too. Ye Mo wasn't simple himself, it was good if Susu could marry Ye Mo. But Fan Lianzhu's personality was too straightforward and created this awkward situation.

Fan Lianzhu also seemed to know that her words weren't appropriate before. Ye Mo was young and weak, but his background was too strong. The Black Ice Sect indeed couldn't offend him, she didn't like Ye Mo but didn't say anything.

Now that Yan Guan asked about Luo Susu, she could only say, "Susu is still in solitary cultivation, she hasn't finished yet."

Yan Guan breathed easy and laughed, “In that case, let’s put this thing aside and watch the battle of the young prodigies of our sect. Our sect members can also get a chance of receiving a few pointers from the many qian beis here. ”

Wen Caiyi looked at Ye Mo and flames almost spewed out of her eyes. There was no way she wasn’t jealous of Susu having such a genius husband, but Ye Mo talking about her marrying a dog made her angry and embarrassed. She wanted to kill Ye Mo.

Yang Feicheng knew that in this situation, it was impossible to forcefully take away Luo Susu so he could only say coldly, “City lord Ye is right and we should indeed consider Luo Susu’s opinion, but we’ve already brought our proposal gift, how come I don’t see city lord Ye’s proposal gift? Plus, even if you took out your proposal gift now – we, Infinity Sect, brought it up first. Are you trying to go against the Infinity Sect intentionally?”

“Yeah, he’s already vice city lord of Pill City, of course he needs to fight with us 9-star sects! Otherwise, how come you just mentioned this, sect leader Yang, and then pill king Ye mentioned it too?” Lightning Cloud Sect’s sect leader Wang Chuanhe said.

“Haha....” Ye Mo laughed. “Sect leader Yang, you’re right. How come I just mentioned to sect leader Yan of Black Ice Sect about Susu and you intervened? Oh, if you don’t believe me, you can asked sect leader Yan who asked about Susu first.”

Seeing everyone look at him, Yan Guan was annoyed at Yang Feicheng looking for trouble, but he couldn’t lie so he could only nod. “When city lord Ye first saw me, he indeed mentioned Susu.”

Hearing this, everyone looked at Yang Feicheng. Many people realized that it wasn’t Ye Mo looking for trouble but Yang Feicheng. Many people knew about the conflict between Ye Mo and Lightning Cloud Sect and now they wondered since when did Ye Mo become enemies with the Infinity Sect? This city lord Ye’s trouble causing capabilities were on par with his pill concoction abilities.

Yang Feicheng’s face sunk. “What is city lord Ye’s proposal gift?”

Ye Mo smiled calmly. “I’ve only been in pill concoction for ten years and I’m already a level seven pill king. If I say I will become level nine pill king in ten years, I don’t think anyone would doubt me.”

Everyone was silent at these words as they all knew Ye Mo wasn't lying.

The hardest breakthrough wasn't level seven to level nine but level three to level four and level six to level seven. Ye Mo was a level seven pill king now, so reaching level nine was just a matter of time.

Other people may take thousands of years to do this but Ye Mo was an anomaly.

"So what? At least you're not a level nine pill king now," an Earth Demon Sect sect elder stood up and said.

Ye Mo sneered, "What thing are you, do you have the right to talk when I'm speak? Piss off!"

"You..." the elder's face was green, but he really couldn't say anything. Although they were just a 6-star sect, they were invited here by Infinity Sect. This place wasn't Pill City, yet Ye Mo was being so cocky, even telling him to piss off.

Even Yan Guan's face changed. This wasn't just slapping Earth Demon sect's face but also Black Ice Sect's face. This was on their land.

Ye Mo saw that Yan Guan was going to speak but he immediately said to Lu Wuhu, "Brother Lu, another fly here, throw him out please. We can drink again."

Lu Wuhu was hoping for this. After this, it would mean he only needed to help Ye Mo attack one more time. Then he only owed Ye Mo one favor.

Lu Wuhu reached out a cultivation essence giant hand and grabbed that elder, throwing him off Black Ice Peak.

Yan Guan ate the words he was going to say. His face was red with anger but he could only hold it in.

But Ye Mo saluted with his fists to Yan Guan. “Sorry sect leader Yan, I was too impulsive just then. Please forgive me, after this, I will apologize to sect leader Yan.”

Yan Guan waved his hand and said, “You’re being too polite, city lord Ye.”

Yan Guan could only suck it up, and Ye Mo apologized too.

“City lord Ye is so domineering, he just said one thing and you threw him out. This is indeed the character of the Pill City.” Yang Feicheng was shaking with anger, but there was nothing he could do.

Ye Mo looked at him and smiled. “Does sect leader Yang feel the air is too stuffy here as well?”

Lu Wuhu’s eyes lit up immediately hearing this. He hope Ye Mo would say to throw Yang Feicheng out as well.

Yang Feicheng was disaster transformation state power, but facing truth realisation state middle stage peak Lu Wuhu, he could put up no resistance. Lu Wuhu was a madman, no one dared to mess with him – but this madman was currently Ye Mo’s henchman.

If he really got thrown out, he would be done for. Infinity Sect would decline from this and he might as well die.

He just sneered and didn’t say anything.

Ye Mo smiled and continued, “By the way, where were we? I forgot, a fly just flew out.”

He was just threatening Yang Feicheng. He didn’t dare to really throw him out. Lu Wuhu only had one more time of attacking for him, but even if there were countless times, he couldn’t force Infinity Sect to the edge of the cliff right now.

If he really pissed off a 9-star sect, and they killed him now, would the Pill City get revenge for a dead pill king? They would at most just kill the main culprit. They wouldn’t fight a 9-star sect to the death.

“You said just then you would become a level nine pill king 10 years later?” that Heaven Demon Sect’s woman smiled and reminded Ye Mo.

Ye Mo smiled and saluted with his fists. “Thanks for your reminder sister, next time I will concoct pills for you for free.”

The woman just didn’t like the Infinity Sect and Lightning Cloud Sect forming the South alliance. Ye Mo said the words she wanted to say and she was grateful to Ye Mo. Thus, she helped Ye Mo too, but because of that, she got such a huge reward. She was overjoyed. She immediately got up and said to Ye Mo, “Le Yao thanks city lord Ye, please come be a guest at our sect when you have time. We will pour flowers to welcome you.”

Chapter 1145: Fight to be Husband

Other sect cultivators looked at Le Yao in envy, if they knew this earlier, they would’ve done the same. But some sects didn’t think like that, Sword Valley was just annihilated. Only Le Yao dared to help Ye Mo as she was also from a 9-star sect.

Ye Mo then said, “After I become a level nine pill king 10 years later, I can help Black Ice Sect concoct two cauldrons of Truth Realisation pills. I believe Black Ice Sect can afford these ten years right? That’s just a part of the proposal gift, second is that I can give the concoction method of Spirit Weaving Pill to Black Ice Sect’s pill master, and I can even provide Heaven Glory pills to Black Ice Sect with priority. As for spirit ranges, if Black Ice sect wants some I can go borrow a few.”

Everyone gasped for breath.

It seemed that Ye Mo was bluffing when he said he would borrow a few spirit ranges, but it was very simple. With his support from Pill City, it was very easy to take out a few low grade spirit ranges from Pill City.

Ye Mo’s proposal gift was countless times better than Infinity Sect’s. Infinity Sect took out just one spirit range but Ye Mo took out a Spirit Weaving Pill recipe. This recipe was enough for Black Ice Sect to benefit immeasurably. It was like the difference of giving people money and teaching them how to make money.

The Infinity Sect elder sneered, "It's all hollow."

Ye Mo smiled and didn't say anything, he believed Black Ice Sect's sect leader wasn't dumb.

Hearing this, even Yan Guan took a cold breath in. He didn't believe Ye Mo was bullshitting. Even if Ye Mo couldn't become a level nine pill king ten years later, he could concoct body condensation state to cauldron filling state pill Kun Filling pills. Even a few cauldrons of that was enough for Black Ice Sect.

It was uncertain if the Truth Realisation Pill from Infinity Sect would create a truth realisation state cultivator, but Ye Mo could bring a constant supply of pills. It was easy to judge which was better.

The Infinity Sect elder saw Yan Guan's face and knew that their gift had lost. Before Yan Guan said anything, he quickly said, "In that case, we'll fight to be her husband like for Wen Caiyi."

Ye Mo sneered. "Wen Caiyi chose that method herself, Luo Susu didn't bring that up. You have no right to say that, only Susu can decide."

Now that both sides provided proposal gifts, Yan Guan preferred Ye Mo's proposal gift more. He wasn't able to reach disaster transformation state peak stage and his divine damnation would be ready in a short time. Ye Mo's timing of ten years later was perfect. Even if he wasn't able to concoct it, he could ask some Pill City pill king qian bei to do this. Yan Guan didn't doubt that at all.

But Infinity Sect was also a 9-star sect whose power was much stronger than Black Ice Sect. It wasn't good to offend them as well.

Yan Guan looked around and knew that only he could make up the mind. He quickly looked at Fan Lianzhu and said, "Elder Fan, how about you call Luo Susu over here?"

Fan Lianzhu said stubbornly, "Susu is in solitary cultivation, she can't be disturbed. She's my disciple, I don't want my disciple to marry an useless person. We'll do as Infinity Sect proposed, fight to be the husband. If Wen Caiyi can choose that, why can't Susu? I'm sure that even if Susu leaves solitary cultivation, she wouldn't reject."

She then looked at Ye Mo plainly, "City lord Ye, you're some significant figure, right? I don't think you would be scared to fight for Susu?"

She was very annoyed and angry at Ye Mo being disrespectful to her. She was a genius-like person as well. Even those with higher power than her would call her 'elder' and she was now the peak leader of Black Cloud Peak. Since when did someone say 'bullshit' to her? She didn't want Susu to marry someone like this.

"Last time, Wen Caiyi said that she wanted her husband to be a worldly prodigy so she chose this method of finding a husband. My disciple Susu is equally ranked first with her. I don't think city lord Ye would think Susu is not as good as Caiyi, so you don't dare to fight over her?" Fan Lianzhu asked, fearing that Ye Mo wouldn't agree.

She didn't dare to be domineering anymore. Even Infinity Sect was unable to do anything the hard way, so she could only play with words.

Of course Ye Mo wouldn't think Susu wasn't as good as Wen Caiyi but he sneered, "Whether or not I'm useless, people can discuss themselves. No matter how much I say myself, it's just boasting. Even in fighting, I'm no weaker than anyone. But I'm only hollow spirit state level one, are you going to call an ancient being to fight me?"

"Don't worry, those fighting you won't be much older than you. Susu is my disciple, I won't let her marry an old man. You're not the only genius on Luo Yue continent, there will be plenty. Same rules as Wen Caiyi's rules, they'll all be geniuses within 60 years of age," Fan Lianzhu said coldly.

Ye Mo didn't argue. Although 60 was quite old to Ye Mo, in the cultivation realm it was just the beginning. He believed that if he couldn't even beat a cultivator younger than 60, the Three Birth Chant wasn't deserving of its name.

He wasn't sure if there were body condensation state cultivators under 60 years of age, but there were definitely hollow spirit state tertiary stage cultivators. Jing Yingli was only 30 and already hollow spirit state level one. If there was some cultivator like Jing Yingli, he would be able to reach hollow spirit state peak stage for sure.

“Okay, since city lord Ye agrees to this then we’ll do that,” Yan Guan quickly said.

Wen Caiyi stood out and bowed to Yang Feicheng and then Yan Guan. “Yan qian bei, there’s no right for wan bei to talk here, but it concerns my entire life – please allow me to bring a suggestion.”

Yan Guan nodded, “Caiyi say anything you like. You’ll be one of us too, it’s fine.”

Wen Caiyi bowed again before saying, “Since martial sister Susu is choosing husband from a fight like me, I think we should put the two competitions together. All the prodigy sect members of the big sects are here with their sects. I think the contestants shouldn’t be limited to Black Ice Sect members. Any prodigy as long as he’s young enough can participate. If wan bei and martial sister Susu find someone we like, we can choose ourself too. What do you think Yan qian bei?”

Yang Feicheng didn’t say anything. Ye Mo already ruined the South Alliance thing, so it was unnecessary for Wen Caiyi to marry into Black Ice Sect.

If it was before, Yan Guan would really want the marriage alliance with Infinity Sect, but after all these problems, he gave up that idea. Now that Wen Caiyi brought this up, he was very enthusiastic.

“Okay, okay...” Yan Guan quickly said. “Caiyi, your suggestion is very good. Now that so many prodigies are here at Black Ice Mountain, we can all see the glory of the younger generation. All the prodigies here today can join the competition. As long as Caiyi and Susu don’t mind, you can propose.”

Hearing this, all the prodigy sect members grew excited.

To them, it was the fortune from their past life to be able to dual cultivate with someone as beautiful as Wen Caiyi. As for Luo Susu, many people wanted to, but seeing Ye Mo’s actions they knew it was impractical. They knew that even if they beat Ye Mo, their sect wouldn’t let them marry Luo Susu. But Wen Caiyi was different, she didn’t have a husband and she brought up this method of choosing her husband.

Chapter 1146: Susu Finishes Solitary Cultivation

Seeing that Lu Wuhu didn't help Ye Mo say anything, Yan Guan breathed easy. He was scared that Lu Wuhu would be domineering and forcefully take away Luo Susu. In order to preserve their face, they could only fight with Lu Wuhu. Even if they won, the result wouldn't be what Yan Guan wanted.

They would also be offending Pill City in the process.

After elder Fan brought up the tournament, Ye Mo didn't let Lu Wuhu forcefully attack and Lu Wuhu didn't stand up himself. This made Yan Guan breathe easy and guess the relationship between the two. If their relationship was really as Ye Mo said, then Lu Wuhu should've said something

Yan Guan saw this detail and so did people from other sects. They were all ancient beings. Ye Mo was so dominant before, but when elder Fan brought up the competition to decide Luo Susu's husband, Ye Mo didn't rebuke her. The only explanation was that Ye Mo didn't have enough power to back him up or Ye Mo was too impulsive and was tricked by elder Fan.

Ye Mo agreed because he didn't like Wen Caiyi trying to challenge Susu before, saying that Susu wasn't as good as her. So he was going to make Wen Caiyi open her eyes and see how much better Susu's husband was than the man she was going to choose.

But it was indeed also because he didn't have the power to say no. Pill City was powerful but it was only a threat. If he tried to forcefully take away Beiwei and Susu and forced these 9-star sects into a corner, then a fight would break out. As long as someone held Lu Wuhu down, he would be instantly killed. After he died, what could the Pill City do?

Ye Mo knew that if he continued to be dominant he would anger 9-star sects for sure. He Ling already attacked him and he would've died if it wasn't for Lu Wuhu.

At the same time, Ye Mo felt he miscalculated. He should've invited Yue Qichao. Then, no one would dare to say anything if he tried to take away Susu and Beiwei.

It all came down to power, his power was low and his connections weren't enough. He was only a level seven pill king, he didn't have Yue Qichao and Shen Guanqing's power and connections. If they were here, perhaps with a single word 9-star sects would help them.

Since the competition was necessary, Ye Mo thought of it as getting back at Wen Caiyi for Susu.

But he wasn't an idiot, since he agreed to the competition, he couldn't keep giving them that much proposal gift.

Ye Mo got up and said again, "Sect leader Yan, since you choose the competition, then I will take back my proposal gift. I don't believe every sect who participates in the competition will give as much I as gave. Since sect leader Yan agreed to the competition, then it means you're giving up my proposal gift. Everyone needs to be equal. I don't think that just because the Black Ice Sect thinks the Pill City is wealthy, I have to pay more in terms of a proposal gift to join the participants. Of course, I don't mind giving more for my proposal gift but I don't believe the Black Ice Sect would take my proposal gift and still make me fight for Susu."

"...." Hearing this, Yan Guan was dazed. The reason he agreed to this competition was because regardless of whether Ye Mo won or lost, the proposal gift would be theirs.

He had already calculated this. He didn't want to offend Infinity Sect, so let Pill City offend them. If Ye Mo won, then no problem and that was the most satisfying result. But if Ye Mo lost to an ordinary 7-star or 8-star sect, Ye Mo know that those sects won't dare to fight over Susu with Ye Mo, so Susu would eventually be taken away by Ye Mo.

If Ye Mo lost to a 9-star sect or even Infinity Sect or Lightning Cloud Sect, with how important Susu was to Ye Mo, he would bargain heavily over her. No 9-star sect could compete with Pill City, so Susu would eventually be taken away by Ye Mo and he would still get the proposal gift.

But now, Ye Mo said the proposal gift was no more, how could that be?

But he just agreed to this and now he couldn't regret. He turned around and glared at Fan Lianzhu coldly. If she just agreed to let Ye Mo take away Susu, there wouldn't be so much trouble. Although they would offend Infinity Sect, but they would connect with Pill City's level seven pill king.

Fan Lianzhu calmed down now and knew what she didn't wasn't good. She had never thought of marrying Susu out. If Ye Mo didn't come, then she wouldn't even marry her to Infinity Sect. She rejected core sect members' proposals already.

She agreed to Yang Feicheng because firstly, Ye Mo gave her a bad impression, and secondly since she knew Susu would be taken by Ye Mo eventually, as even the Black Ice Sect couldn't fight with Pill City.

So in her anger, she agreed with Yang Feicheng. As for agreeing to the competition, it was completely because she was furious Ye Mo said she was bullshitting.

She calmed down now and knew what she did didn't benefit the sect at all, but she had already done it.

In a room at the Black Cloud Peak, Tang Beiwei looked at Luo Ying in confusion. "Sister Susu, you're already golden core state peak stage, why did you suddenly come out of solitary cultivation?"

A pale yellow dressed woman sat opposite Tang Beiwei.

Luo Ying frowned. "I feel restless. It's as though something is about to happen, so I came out."

Tang Beiwei heard this and said, "Sister Susu, how about I ask master and we'll go visit Qingxue?"

Luo Ying knew Tang Beiwei wanted her to go out and have some fresh air. She smiled sweetly and replied, "I'm fine but we should indeed visit her as well as Luo Fei and Yun Ziyi."

Tang Beiwei just wanted to speak when her spirit sense scanned a pink dressed lady rushing in. "Sister Susu, martial sister Rong is here."

"Martial sister Rong." Luo Ying and Tang Beiwei got up.

Zhao Rong looked at Susu and said desperately, "Martial sister Susu, you finished solitary cultivation?"

"Yeah martial sister Rong. What happened? Why do you seem very desperate?" Luo Ying asked.

“Almost all the sects 7-star and above came to Black Ice Peak. I heard it’s for Wen Caiyi choosing a husband. But then the news I got wasn’t this, I heard the sect leader and elder Fan are also using this chance to choose a husband for Susu. What do we do?” Zhao Rong was worried. She didn’t know who Susu’s husband was, but she knew she had a husband.

“Impossible!” Susu exclaimed with a pale face. Her master was very nice to her, she would never agree to this. This sort of thing had happened more than once and master rejected without hesitation.

“Sister Susu...” Tang Beiwei grabbed Luo Ying’s hand worriedly.

“I’ll go see master,” Luo Ying said adamantly.

Zhao Rong grabbed Luo Ying’s hand. “People at the Black Ice Hall are all powerful people, you won’t be able to get in. Today Infinity Sect’s sect leader brought a proposal gift and then Pill City vice city lord seemed to have a conflict and suddenly he wanted to take you away. So, the two started fighting and then the sect leader agreed to choose a husband through competition like Wen Caiyi.”

“Pill City vice city lord is here too?” Tang Beiwei and Susu rarely went out so they didn’t know Ye Mo was vice city lord.

Zhao Rong nodded. “Yes, he’s the person Ning Qingxue is married too. He was the pill king tournament number one, Ning Qingxue was taken away by him on the spot and the Ethereal Immortal Pond didn’t dare to say anything. I think today might end up the same way.”

Tang Beiwei and Luo Ying’s hands shook.

“Now isn’t the time to worry, we need to think of a way...” Zhao Rong started.

“Did Ning Qingxue really get taken away by that city lord? Ning Qingxue didn’t resist?” Luo Ying’s tone grew impetuous.

Zhao Rong nodded, "Yes, she seemed very intimate with that city lord Ye, she was willing. How could she resist?"

"City lord Ye?" Tang Beiwei and Luo Ying asked at the same time.

Zhao Rong nodded. "Yes, he's Ye Mo. He's not only pill king tournament number one but the honorary vice city lord of Pill City as well. He came to Black Ice Peak today to fight over martial sister Susu with Infinity Sect... Susu, Beiwei, where are you going?"

Zhao Rong hadn't finished but Susu and Beiwei had already charged out towards Black Cloud Peak.

Chapter 1147: Dominating Strike

In the Black Ice Peak Hall, everyone was waiting for the first challenger but Ye Mo suddenly walked out and stood in the middle.

No one knew what he was going to do.

"Friends, sect leaders. I've already said and I believe everyone knows that Susu is my wife. I'm standing here today, if anyone dares to try for Susu, then come up by all means. Don't blame me for not being polite. Today is goddess Wen's blissful day and I came to celebrate too, not to fight. The friend who gets goddess Wen can challenge anyone, but don't challenge me."

Ye Mo's tone suddenly grew cold, "If anyone dares to try for Susu, don't challenge anyone else, just challenge me – I'll take it all."

Then Ye Mo scanned Yang Feicheng and Wang Chuanhe coldly before glaring at Fan Lianzhu as he said word by word, "No matter who you are, if you dare to try for Susu, come at me!"

Wen Caiyi's face was green, she was ignored by Ye Mo again.

The hall sunk into a brief silence. Such domineering words!

“City lord Ye is really domineering, Infinity Sect’s Nan Jinsheng wants to test if your power is as dominating as your words.” A blue cultivator robed man flew out.

Only hollow spirit state level two and he dared to challenge him, Ye Mo sneered.

Nan Jinsheng came up and then saluted with his fists to the Infinity Sect and Black Ice Sect leaders saying, “Injuries are unavoidable in fights. If wan bei accidentally injures or kills city lord Ye, what happens?”

“Hmph!” Lightning Cloud Sect’s Wang Chuanhe sneered. “If you don’t have the power, it serves you right to be killed, otherwise just leave and don’t embarrass yourself.”

Nan Jinsheng smiled and bowed, “Thank you for your hint sect leader Wang, wan bei understands.”

Then, Nan Jinsheng waved his hand and a hexagonal bell floated above his head while a low-grade cultivation artifact golden dragon sword appeared in his hand. He looked calmly at Ye Mo. “I’m interested in Luo Susu, what are you going to do? A mere hollow spirit state level one dares to be so cocky, I’ve long since had enough with you.”

“As you wish.” Icy cold chi was emitted from all over Ye Mo’s body. That killing intent rose when Nan Jinsheng said he was interested in Luo Susu. Even the other cultivators in the hall could feel Ye Mo’s endless killing intent. Some low powered cultivators shivered subconsciously.

“Such powerful killing intent!” A few sect leaders were stunned. With this killing intent swooping out, everyone knew that Ye Mo wasn’t just good at pill concoction.

Nan Jinsheng didn’t consider Ye Mo a threat at all.

He just didn’t expect Ye Mo’s killing intent to be this intense and he subconsciously shivered.

But before he could move, a monotone ray of purple swept over, that overwhelming killing intent growing more intense.

“Hua.... Mountain..... Strike.....”

There was only endless killing intent for those who dared to try for Susu. He used his full powered Illusion Cloud Hua Mountain strike without hesitation.

This was a strike that had no defense, only one attacking with all his might. This strike gathered all his fury.

Nan Jinsheng saw his opponent hack out a longsword – more like a kitchen knife to be specific. But facing this kitchen knife, he actually felt a sliver of fear. What kitchen knife could emit such terrifying killing intent and purple rays? He subconsciously wanted to use his golden dragon sword but he saw his cultivation essence slowed down in that instant.

What sword technique was this? Nan Jinsheng was shaken.

But this strike was too fast and too powerful. It was as though if this strike didn't kill him, Ye Mo would chase him to the ends of the world.

“No.....” Nan Jinsheng howled in despair and felt the purple ray slice down from his brow and then another clank. That was his defense bell. Ye Mo hacked open his defense bell and killed him.

Blood mist spewed, Nan Jinsheng was killed without even being able to release his magic artifact.

The hall sunk into silence.

He had killed a hollow spirit state level two cultivator with one strike, and this was Infinity Sect core disciple Nan Jinsheng. Not only that, the two halves of the body were suddenly torn apart by the residual sword ray.

The sect leaders took a cold breath in. Since when had they seen such a powerful hollow spirit state level one? Killing a hollow spirit state level two with one strike, and this was splitting open the defense bell first and then cutting him in half from the forehead down.

Domineering, too domineering!

Just how much anger and terrifying killing intent was needed to explode with such power? The silence lingered for a long time before Yan Guan said drily, "The first battle, city lord Ye wins."

Yang Feicheng's face was so bleak that water was about to drip out. He glared at Ye Mo, he didn't expect Ye Mo to be this strong. This man must not be left alive! If he matured, how could the Infinity Sect exist?

Fan Lianzhu saw this and subconsciously shivered. She regretted her decision even more. Ye Mo was this powerful at hollow spirit state level one, if he grew up, who could fight him? This guy was another Chu Jiuyu.

"You ambushed him!" one elder said in fury.

Ye Mo clutched Zi Xu tightly and didn't even look at him. He was reminiscing that strike. He had achieved new enlightenment.

Heaven Demon Sect's Le Yao suddenly laughed, "Elder your eyes are really good. Even we didn't see city lord Ye ambush, but you saw it. How come I saw Nan Jinsheng challenge city lord Ye first and release his magic artifact? It seems I'm blind."

"Shut up!" Yang Feicheng yelled and that elder stopped with a red face. He was only cauldron filling state level one and Le Yao was cauldron filling state tertiary stage.

Yang Feicheng immediately said to another elder, "Send a messenger flying sword and tell Ming Wujian and Tie Baifei to come."

"Yes." The elder immediately sent a messenger flying sword. Ming Wujian and Tie Baifei were the two most excellent hollow spirit state cultivators in Infinity Sect. They weren't the strongest in hollow spirit state but they were the youngest hollow spirit state cultivators. Tie Baifei was hollow spirit state level six and Ming Wujian was hollow spirit state level seven, he was even on the hollow spirit state trial tablets.

At the same time, Lightning Cloud Sect and a few other sects sent messenger flying swords as well, clearly to gather excellent sect members.

Ye Mo didn't seem to see this and fully comprehended that move before scanning around and saying coldly, "Whoever dares to try for Susu, come up – I'll take it all."

At the same time, two women desperately flew over on flying swords at the entrance to the hall. They heard Ye Mo's voice and charged inside the hall without hesitation. The disciple guarding the entrance was about to stop them but he was stopped by another cultivator who said, "Wait, they're Luo Susu and Tang Beiwei. Sect leader was asking for them two, let them go in."

Ye Mo also stopped talking and looked at the entrance of the hall with surprise and joy.

"Brother...."

"Husband..."

Usually, Luo Ying would rather call Ye Mo martial brother than husband but today the joy of reunion was inexpressible. It was like her heart was about to explode.

"Beiwei, Susu." Ye Mo's heart softened. As long as they were fine then all was good. No matter what happened, he could take them away. He was scared to not even be able to see them. At this moment, his anger towards Fan Lianzhu lessened. If her master purposely targeted Susu, she wouldn't be able to see him.

Luo Ying rushed into Ye Mo's arms and even Tang Beiwei came up and hugged Ye Mo's arm.

Nothing could compare with the joy of reunion, nothing could express their feelings right now.

To Ye Mo, he knew Susu was at Black Ice Sect but he couldn't come and take her away. That insulting and oppressive feeling was inexplicable. No one understood it. He cultivated like crazy, risking his life, but he was still so far from those ancient beings. Before the pill king tournament, he was worse than an insect.

Now that the woman of his life was in his arms, Ye Mo's mood was soothed. What other pity was there when he took her back to Pill City?"

Chapter 1148: Wen Caiyi's Unhappiness

Many people were still immersed in Ye Mo's dominating strike but now they were dazed by Ye Mo's soft feelings.

The bloody body was still on the ground but then there was this scene of reunion, it seemed very unharmonious.

Fan Lianzhu saw her disciple who usually never showed any expression to male cultivators being so intimate with Ye Mo. She didn't understand.

Even if Ye Mo was her husband, she shouldn't be like that. Susu was in the cultivation realm now, her mortal ties should've been faint if not completely severed. Even in the cultivation realm, men and women got together mostly for dual cultivation. She really didn't understand that joy of reunion.

Ye Mo no longer had the mood to challenge and pulled Susu and Beiwei back to his seat.

Susu and Beiwei spoke with Ye Mo for a long time before calming down. Now, Susu saw what happened in the hall and began to worry. But then she and Tang Beiwei saw her master and sect leader, they were going to greet them but Ye Mo stopped them. "Don't go now."

Luo Susu respected her master but if she had to choose between her master or Ye Mo, she would choose Ye Mo without hesitation. So she sat down, Tang Beiwei didn't move either.

Fan Lianzhu saw this and sighed. She knew she was wrong, she thought Susu would listen to her for sure but now she knew that in her disciple's heart her status was far lesser than this city lord Ye.

"Susu, Beiwei," Luo Fei called.

“Luo Fei, how are you here too?” Tang Beiwei just saw Luo Fei and asked.

The hall wasn't as silent as before and there were people cleaning up the mess, but no one dared to speak while Ye Mo was talking.

“What? Sword Valley was annihilated by Infinity Sect? What about sister Ziyi?” Tang Beiwei asked in shock.

Tang Beiwei's voice was too loud and almost the entire hall heard her. If someone else dared to do this, they would've been reproached or killed by He Ling.

But no one said anything. Yang Feicheng's face was bleak as usual. He could only kill Ye Mo through challenge, nothing else.

Luo Fei and them glared at Infinity Sect and said word by word, “Yes, I will get justice for my sect.”

Ye Mo didn't say anything, he knew he could only protect him and the few people around him for now. He was still too far from getting revenge from Infinity Sect.

Yan Guan saw this and breathed easy. He knew that those who would challenge Ye Mo now were either idiots or those who had a feud with Ye Mo.

Yan Guan suddenly up and said, “Since city lord Ye has gone down, those who want to fight please come up. The competition continues.”

No one came out for a long time, many were shocked by Ye Mo's magnificent strike.

In this awkward moment, a Black Ice Sect disciple got up and bowed to Yan Guan and the elders as well as the sect leaders before saying, “Wan bei Black Ice Sect's disciple Zhan Shuiyong, I've long admired Infinity Sect's goddess Wen. I agree to goddess Wen's decision, those who have the same idea as me can come up and challenge me.”

Zhan Shuiyong was ordinary looking and seemed scholarly.

Zhan Shuiyong didn't even look at Wen Caiyi. Clearly, he didn't come for Wen Caiyi. He just didn't want his sect leader to be in an awkward situation.

He was nascent soul state level five and very young, but clearly it was impossible for him to get Wen Caiyi.

Wen Caiyi understood this as well and glared at Ye Mo and Luo Susu. There was this inexplicable anger in her heart.

Ye Mo had been using her as an excuse from the start. Then, he killed Nan Jinsheng from her sect with one strike for Luo Susu and was being all lovey dovey with Luo Susu now.

Ye Mo was not only Pill City's city lord but also a level seven pill king as well as someone who could easily kill those with higher cultivation levels than him. Compared to those prodigies admiring her, Ye Mo was a genius amongst geniuses. Even with how talented Yuan Guannan was, he was killed by Ye Mo in the Truth Fall Palace. From this, it was easy to tell that Ye Mo was much better than Yuan Guannan.

She was ranked equally first with Luo Susu in the South Peace State ten beauties. Now that Ye Mo was Susu's husband, clearly no matter who won this competition, he wouldn't be as good as Ye Mo.

She once publicly said that Luo Susu did not deserve to be ranked equally first with her, but now her husband was so much better than her. This was slapping her face.

And even Zhan Shuiyong didn't come up for her, she was more unhappy. She once swore that no matter who Luo Susu's husband was, she would steal him and then kick him back, but now she no longer had that faith. City lord Ye wasn't interested in her the least bit, he was even disgusted by her.

"Heaven Yan Sect's Wang Dutan – brother Zhan please go easy." Another nascent soul state level six came out.

Clearly he didn't come for Wen Caiyi, it wasn't that Wen Caiyi was unattractive to him, but he knew that it was impossible to get Wen Caiyi with his power.

Wang Dutan was a 7-star core sect member and had reached nascent soul state level six in less than 60 years, this was rather good talent. He wanted to challenge Zhan Shuiyong because he wanted to know the difference between him and 9-star sect members at the same cultivation level.

The fight between the two was a completely friendly practice fight, so it seemed very flashy but there was no killing intent.

Even though they were big sect core disciples, Ye Mo really didn't have the interest to watch this sort of fight.

Zhan Shuiyong was smart and cunning. Compared to Wang Dutan who focused on cultivation, his fighting experience and cultivation level was a little weaker. In about 8 minutes, he was hacked out by Wang Dutan and lightly injured. He lost.

Zhan Shuiyong didn't come for Wen Caiyi so it didn't that he lost, but at the door of Black Ice Sect, a core disciple was kicked out and injured. This immediately made other core disciples unhappy.

Before Wang Dutan went down, another Black Ice Sect nascent soul state level six cultivator flew up and said, "Brother Wang is good, Zhang Wu comes to learn of your mastery."

Then, before Wang Dutan could reply, a hammer shaped magic artifact was released. Different than before, it wasn't just a practice fight. Zhang Wu attacked with full power.

Sword chi and hammer shadows filled the hall. The Black Ice Sect's cauldron filling state elders quickly set up some restrictions.

Wang Dutan wasn't as good as Zhang Wu and already had fought before. In less than 7 minutes, he was sent flying and splitting blood.

A nascent soul state tertiary stage from Heaven Yan saw this and immediately stood up, wanting to get back.

But an elder stopped him in time clearly knowing that if this continued, the fight between Ye Mo and Nan Jinsheng might start again.

Other than Zhan Shuiyong, the other people didn't even mention Wen Caiyi, clearly they didn't come to fight for her.

Wen Caiyi's face was very bad, she was South Peace State's number one beauty but was ignored to this extent.

Luckily, not long after, a God Wind valley nascent soul state level nine cultivator walked out. He saluted with his fists to Zhang Wu and said, "God Wind Valley Yu Tong came for goddess Wen, brother Wu please."

Chapter 1149: So it's to Kill Ye Mo

Zhang Wu was just here to get revenge for Zhan Shuiyong and then he was planning to go down. Now that Yu Tong came up for Wen Caiyi, he knew he wasn't a match for Yu Tong so he saluted with his fists, "Brother Yu is already nascent soul state tertiary stage, I don't think I can beat you."

Then, he left.

After Zhang Wu went down, some core disciples of big sects came to fight. They had really come for Wen Caiyi.

The scene heated up and finally Wen Caiyi wasn't in an awkward situation anymore.

Ye Mo didn't watch the matches, his mind was focused on Luo Ying. If it wasn't that he couldn't leave now, he would've left with Luo Ying already.

6 hours later, a terrifying explosion made Ye Mo and them look up a little. The two fighting were hollow spirit state power, one hollow spirit state level five and one hollow spirit state level seven.

The hollow spirit state level five was from Black Ice Sect and the hollow spirit state level seven was from Nan Gong Village.

Nan Gong Village was an 8-star sect, Ye Mo didn't care about this sect, but after hearing Shan Bingfeng's words, he started being attentive to this sect. They were a 9-star village before and called Fish Jump Through Dragon Gate Village. He was planning to go visit it when he was powerful enough. Now, he had met a cultivator from there.

The Nan Gong Village cultivator was clearly more powerful than the Black Ice Sect cultivator. He had beaten the Black Ice Sect cultivator to the point of heavy injury.

Seeing this, the Black Ice Sect elders and sect leader's faces seemed very bad. The competition was brought up by Black Ice Sect and Infinity Sect, but now, Black Ice Sect had completely lost. Their last hollow spirit state level five disciple was beaten. Nothing was more embarrassing than this as a host.

They were losing their wife to other sects in front of all these big sects. But there was nothing they could do. While they did have more powerful sect members, they were older than 60 years.

Even other sects didn't understand. Nan Gong Village was just an 8-star sect, even if they were going to beat a Black Ice Sect member, they didn't have to do it that way.

Seeing Ye Mo stare at that Nan Gong Village cultivator, Mi Zhenjie sound transmissioned, "That is Nan Gong Village's prodigy sect member Nan Gong Yihui. He's hollow spirit state level seven and ranked 39th on the hollow spirit state trial tablet. He has won 12 rounds in a row."

Ye Mo nodded, he didn't expect Nan Gong Village to be this confident and not give any respect to Black Ice Sect.

A Black Ice Sect elder was the announcer and so he had to announce, "Nan Gong Village's Nan Gong Yihui claims victory, anyone else want to challenge Nan Gong Yihui for goddess Wen?"

The elder asked a few times and no one replied. Clearly those core disciples lost the courage to fight after seeing nan Gong Yihui's power.

Nan Gong Yihui's raised his lips showing great confidence. He looked at Wen Caiyi and his eyes were full of joy. Clearly to him, Wen Caiyi was his.

But then, another square-faced cultivator walked out. Nan Gong Yihui had never been able to encounter an opponent. He saw it was a hollow spirit state level six cultivator and his eyes immediately lit up.

"I was troubled that no one could give me a proper fight. Friend, you came at the right time, release your magic artifact. I'll let you have three moves first." Nan Gong Yihui waved his crescent blades.

That square faced cultivator said indifferently, "You're no match for me, I'm not challenging you, move aside."

No one had dared to say such a thing up until now, and Nan Gong Yihui's face immediately went cold. If it wasn't that his elders repeatedly said he couldn't do what Ye Mo did and hack an enemy apart, he would've done that already. But pity, the elders said he must not kill here.

This square faced cultivator's words made him want to kill him.

"Then let's see how I'm not a match for you." Nan Gong Yihui released his crescent blades.

As soon as they were released, they made a piercing sound that brought circle-like sword light that enveloped the square-faced cultivator. The rings seemed to increase endlessly.

The people around knew how powerful this move of Nan Gong Yihui was. The crescent rings were very eerie, it was very hard to escape after being enveloped by them. Nan Gong Yihui was not allowed to kill here or rarely anyone would be able to escape with their lives.

That square-faced cultivator's face changed when he was trapped by the white blade circles, but he sneered and used a few hand signs. A red mist appeared around him and the white blade rings started to dissipate. Moments later, he had completely broken free.

A big bell appeared above his head and he said coldly to Nan Gong Yihui, "You have the right to fight with me."

But before Nan Gong Yihui said anything, a young cultivator came up. He seemed much more handsome and easy going than the square-faced cultivator. He stopped the square-faced cultivator and saluted with his fists to Nan Gong Yihui. "Caiyi is our martial sister, we're not here to fight over her with you. This is my martial brother Tie Baifei, he admires goddess Susu's beauty and that's why he came. Martial brother Nan Gong, you wouldn't be interested in goddess Susu as well, right?"

Nan Gong Yihui quickly waved his hand. "No, how can I? I'm only interested in goddess Wen."

Hearing Nan Gong Yihui's reply, the smiling youth was a little disappointed but he still said, "Now that there's no one challenging you, my martial sister is just there. You can go talk to her."

"Okay, okay, sorry for being rude before." Nan Gong Yihui just realized this was goddess Wen's martial brother. If he offended him, it wouldn't be good for the future. He was hollow spirit state level seven and thought he was the number one genius, yet he called hollow spirit state level six Tie Baifei 'martial brother', clearly, he loved Wen Caiyi too much.

After Nan Gong Yihui left,, that smiling youth looked at him in contempt before patting that square-faced cultivator's shoulder without saying anything.

However, it was clear to everyone that they came to start trouble and maybe even kill Ye Mo.

Yan Guan realized that the Infinity Sect indeed didn't want to let Ye Mo go. It seemed there was quite the conflict between them. Otherwise, they wouldn't call two masters from the sect. From Infinity Sect to here, they came in such a short time. Even if there was a teleportation formation, they would need top grade space transmission runes.

If the Infinity Sect really killed Ye Mo here, then Black Ice Sect would need to take a part of Pill City's fury.

Those people who had a good impression of Ye Mo started to sigh for him and those angry at Ye Mo started to rejoice at Ye Mo's impending doom.

After the two left, the square-faced cultivator said loudly "Infinity Sect's Tie Baifei admires Black Ice Sect's Luo Susu, I came here to challenge. I'm waiting for anyone who likes goddess Susu."

Susu looked at Ye Mo in confusion. She was already with Ye Mo, why did someone else say that?

Luckily they couldn't tell Tie Baifei's power or they would be very worried and stop Ye Mo from fighting.

No one looked favourably at Ye Mo. Ye Mo was powerful, but the difference between him and hollow spirit state level six was too great. That Tie Baifei was on par with hollow spirit state level seven Nan Gong Yihui and everyone saw Nan Gong Yihui's power.

Even Le Yao sighed. She had just connected with Ye Mo and he was about to die. Even if she wanted to help Ye Mo, there was nothing she could do.

Ye Mo comforted the two girls and walked up to Tie Baifei and released Zi Xu. He didn't say anything but his killing intent began to soar, Zi Xu also hummed as though being more keen on this battle than Ye Mo.

Chapter 1150: Such a Magnificent Purple Ray

"You're Ye Mo?" Tie Baifei sneered and then looked at Ye Mo contemptuously. "You're a mere hollow spirit state level one, Nan Jinsheng really wasted his years of cultivation cultivating like a dog."

Ye Mo said calmly, "Soon, you will realise that you haven't been cultivating like a human as well..."

Ye Mo hacked out Illusion Cloud formation kill strike. Although his understanding of Illusion Cloud Hua Mountain strike was a level higher now, he knew that it was impossible to kill a master like Tie Baifei in one move.

Countless purple rays flew out and completely enveloped Tie Baifei.

Tie Baifei sneered and waved his hand. That huge bell started spinning above his head. Eventually, Ye Mo's purple sword rays clashed with the bell shadows creating intense clanking sounds.

"You have some power indeed." Tie Baifei waved his hand and a pale red longsword landed in his hand. At the same time, it turned into a red mist. It felt eerie that a huge man was using a red flying sword.

But suddenly, Ye Mo felt it seemed to be cold.

Suddenly, Ye Mo felt the space before him turning a blizzard, but the sky was covered with red snowflakes. The snowflakes weren't hexagonal but triangular.

It was just a wave of snow flakes, but they were like ice pillars to Ye Mo. They were bone chilling and squeezed the space around him, giving less space to move around as though in the end he would be crushed by the snowflakes.

Everyone could just see red snowflakes flying about in the hall and the hall turning extremely cold. Tie Baifei danced with his longsword as though the ruler of this icy world. Meanwhile, Ye Mo had disappeared amongst the snowflakes.

Only a few purple sword rays that seeped out made people feel that Ye Mo was still alive.

Seeing Ye Mo in this predicament, Fan Lianzhu sighed. She wasn't sighing for Ye Mo but for Luo Susu. She knew how important this city lord Ye was to Susu just by seeing her reaction, but now the two just met and he was about to be killed.

Personally she liked Ye Mo being killed, but she really liked her disciple Susu, far more than Tang Beiwei.

Yan Guan frowned. He was beginning to think of how to explain to the Pill City and bring Black Ice Sect out of this mess if Ye Mo was killed.

Le Yao closed her eyes, she had seen Tie Baifei's sword technique, this blood snowflake was extremely powerful and eerie. Any cultivator trapped by the snowflakes would be killed. This was because the cultivator's spirit sense and cultivation essence would get wasted more and more. If he couldn't break free right from the start, there was an even lesser chance of him breaking free later on.

When cultivating to the extreme, the snowflakes were hexagonal, but Tie Baifei's snowflakes were only triangular. Even so, they were still very powerful.

Luo Ying and Tang Beiwei got up worriedly, sweat came out of their hands. They just saw Ye Mo and now he was going to be killed?

Ye Mo was getting more and more impetuous being suppressed by the snow flakes. He felt his skin get colder and colder.

He even felt his spirit sense and cultivation essence were being wasted to resist against the cold. Ye Mo could imagine that if this continued, he would never be able to break free. He ate a Spirit Recovery Pill and forcefully used a few spirit sense strikes.

After using that, Ye Mo immediately felt the coldness and impetuous feeling dissipate quite a bit. He quickly used Illusion Cloud Division Strike now.

More snowflakes were crippled.

At this moment, Ye Mo yelled and used Illusion Cloud Exert Will strike again.

At the same time, cultivators outside could see more and more purple rays popping out of the red snowflakes. At the start it was one, two then three, four, then ten, then tens, and then hundreds.

Ye Mo's figure became clearer and clearer as well. Soon, the purple rays were evenly matched with the snowflakes. Finally, Luo Susu and Tang Beiwei breathed easy and sat down.

Tie Baifei saw Ye Mo break free and was a little surprised, but he showed an even colder sneer. The bell suddenly howled and broke free from the purple sword rays, instantly pressing down on Ye Mo.

Ye Mo just broke free from that eerie barrage of snow flakes. It restricted his spirit sense and rendered him unable to perfectly hack Zi Xu. How could he let Tie Baifei trap him in that again?

When the bell shadows rose again, Ye Mo hacked out Illusion Cloud formation kill strike with Illusion Cloud division strike and exert will strike before. This fully unleashed Illusion Cloud formation kill strike's power and instantly trapped Tie Baifei again.

At this moment, Le Yao opened her eyes but saw Ye Mo break free from the red snowflakes and immediately rejoiced. She didn't expect Ye Mo to be this powerful, being able to break free from the blood snowflakes after being trapped inside.

Thinking about how Ye Mo killed Nan Jinsheng in one strike, she knew that Ye Mo was far from just a pill king.

Seeing his bell being trapped by Ye Mo's purple sword rays again, Tie Baifei sneered and used spells faster. The red longsword seemed more and more vibrant.

Ye Mo trapped the bell and had nothing to worry about now, he used a few more spirit sense blades.

Tie Baifei felt his sea of consciousness ache and his movements slowed. He immediately broke free from Ye Mo's spirit sense strike, but before he could keep using blood snowflakes, he saw another vibrant purple ray come.

At this moment, he felt this purple ray was so pretty, it was so vibrant as though it was going to take him to a place he should be going. He even desired to follow it.

'Not right!' Tie Baifei instantly realized and forcefully burned some essence blood to call back the bell to block this ray.

Ye Mo just needed this moment of time and hacked out Illusion Cloud Hua Mountain strike – straight forward and fearless.

With this strike, the entire hall was covered in purple. This purple was not only pretty and enticing but also seemed to have come from heaven.

Some female cultivator looked at that purple ray and closed their eyes in adoration. Almost all weak powered cultivators just wanted to have this purple ray and not think about anything.

Tie Baifei felt that purple ray sweep past his head and he heard his bones crack and his body crumble.

He barely opened his eyes and looked at Ye Mo, speaking softly, "Such a pretty purple ray..."

Then, he fell down and his body broke into pieces.

Ye Mo put away Zi Xu and closed his eyes, he entered a new palace of sword dao. He created a new sword technique, he learned this from Tie Baifei's blood snowflakes.

After a moment, Ye Mo opened his eyes and murmured, "Pinching flower purple ray, the heavens are only an inch away."

His strike was like a pinch of flowers, silent. When people thought this was a sword ray from the heavens, the sword ray was only an inch away. Even if they were killed, they were willing.

The Illusion Cloud Hua Mountain strike was complete, it wasn't as crude as before. It had become a lethal blow.

Everyone took a cold breath in. No one understood this strike, but those above cauldron filling state knew the terror of Ye Mo's strike.

Even Yang Feicheng stared at Ye Mo with a face of shock and horror. He even forgot his anger, forgot another prodigy sect member was killed by Ye Mo. He was thinking that Ye Mo was only hollow spirit state level one and this powerful. When he was disaster transformation state or even truth realisation state, who would be able to stop him?

At this moment, all the sect leaders were shocked, not that Ye Mo was able to kill hollow spirit state level six Tie Baifei, but due to that purple ray.
