Chapter 2021: God art instant second

Taba Feiyang showed a cruel smile on his face. He was certain he could block this arrow. Even though he used all his cards and was heavily injured, if he blocked this arrow, he would get return that was multiple times. Other than the Golden Bow of Divine Extermination, this little immortal emperor must have plenty of good things. Otherwise, that Dao Actualisation Divine Emperor wouldn't leave him behind and hunt this immortal emperor instead.

The nearby life force completely disappeared. The golden bone arrow dominated this space. Suddenly, layers of black mist appeared around Taba Feiyang. His hair instantly turned white and his body aged. A huge golden estate appeared.

He was burning his life to defend against this arrow. He knew that even if this golden arrow hit his divine estate, it would be fine. No one knew how terrifying this divine estate was other than him. He had been in the Mu Hua God mountain spirit controlling this estate for countless years. Even though he burned his life now, he could only barely move the estate. This was with him being on the Cheng Zheng lake and having the abyss metal card. Otherwise, even if he spirit controlled for millions of years, he wouldn't be able to move the estate.

To be specific, he can't mobilise the estate, the abyss metal card mobilized it.

This all happened in an instant. The bone arrow would definitely hit his estate and maybe it could break the divine estate but he would definitely be fine.

Although Ye Mo's face was extremely pale, his body suddenly had this flow of time. He walked up and raised his hand saying "Instant... second..."

That instant was eternity. When Ye Mo waved out instant second, eternity was set.

The rivers of time swept taking away countless pitiful scenes. These scenes flowed past Taba Feiyang's eyes. Everything paused at this moment and so did Taba Feiyang. He saw the girl he grew up with leave him. he saw the tragedy he experienced when he first begun cultivation. He saw his parents and brothers, he saw everything in the past...

Time sped away...

Before Taba Feiyang could reflect himself in this river of time and think about what he had lost, the scene flowed again. Taba Feiyang suddenly woke up but the golden bone arrow had already touched his body. Death and disintegration of life instantly perfused in his body.

"Time law, pause... so terrifying..." Taba Feiyang could only say these words as his body suddenly exploded.

Rumble. The huge divine estate disappeared again.

Ye Mo spat many mouthful of blood. The Golden Bow of Divine Extermination fell to the ground and at that instant, his dark black hair turned snow white again.

The entire lake fell silent but moments later, small ginseng and small ginseng came out of the golden page world.

They didn't wait for long before Ye Mo was awake. They said in post terror "This person is so strong."

"Boss you're so strong. You're not even a divine emperor but you killed a dao vindication divine emperor. No one would believe such a thing." Shadowless quickly said.

Ye Mo ate a few pills and shook his head "Without the Golden Bow of Divine Extermination, I wouldn't be able to kill him. if he didn't underestimate me and called out that golden estate earlier, I still wouldn't be able to kill him. At some other place, even if I killed him I would be dead myself too. with my current power, I'm still far from facing Dao Moulding Divine Emperor."

Small ginseng and shadowless were speechless.

Ye Mo calmed his essence chi and came up to Taba Feiyang's body. The blood axe was gone but the six glory soul shaking light was still there. It looked like a fist sized orb.

However, there were some cracks on the orb. One can see just how terrifying the Golden Bow of Divine Extermination was.

Ye Mo picked the orb up and put it in his golden page world. He didn't find a storage ring. Other than this, he found an extremely thin mask and a shiny black metal card.

Ye Mo immediately thought of that disappearing golden estate. It seemed that belong to Taba Feiyang but he didn't keep that with him. It might be at the bottom of the lake and his things would be in that divine estate.

Thinking about this, Ye Mo picked up the mask and metal card. The mask was fine after being shot by the golden bone arrow. It definitely wasn't something simple.

Ye Mo casually put this mask on his face and soon, he was shocked. He found that he couldn't even feel he wore a mask.

He thought of the Dao Actualisation Divine Emperor he offended. Ye Mo didn't take off the mask. He was thinking whether that divine emperor would be constantly watching him.

He picked up the metal card but found that with his immortal emperor peak stage spirit sense, he couldn't scan in. Ye Mo was very shocked.

He released Blue Like Morning Sky. Blue Like Morning Sky was now a god flame and could even melt the top materials of the God Necropolis Domain but Blue Like Morning Sky burned the card for 15 minutes and the card didn't show any signs of melting. Instead, instant second yin chi was growing stronger.

Ye Mo put the metal card in a jade box and put it in his golden page world. he felt he might be able to use it in the future.

After collecting his loot, Ye Mo didn't go inside the lake immediately. He had less than 10% of his power. He had to recover his power first. Otherwise, it would be dangerous if he encountered something else at the bottom of the lake.

He let shadowless and small ginseng go into the golden page world. Ye Mo went in too and controlled the golden page world to go back into the time whirlpools of the mountain.

After a few months, Ye Mo came back to the lake. His god essence had recovered. Although his sea of consciousness hadn't completely recovered, it was just a matter of time. His snow white hair turned grey. If it wasn't that his face was still young, he would seem like an old man now.

Even though he killed the Dao Moulding Divine Emperor, Ye Mo felt this lake was still strange. There was an eerie chi and a ghost chi.

Ye Mo didn't believe it was cause by Taba Feiyang killing too many immortal emperors. He wouldn't leave behind any of their chi.

Ye Mo was very careful to enter the lake. Two hours later, he finally came to the bottom of the lake. Ye Mo found that where the divine estate was before, there was nothing.

Chapter 2022: Eerie Stairway

Ye Mo stood where he was in disappointment. The divine estate was called out by Taba Feiyang but it was interrupted by his instant second god art and disappeared.

Because of this, Ye Mo thought the estate would be where it was before but now it wasn't there. Without it, he wouldn't be able to get Taba Feiyang's belongings.

Ye Mo took out that metal card again. He felt this card was related to the divine estate.

Ye Mo's spirit sense scanned this metal card again but it still couldn't scan in.

Just when Ye Mo was going to put it away and search around, he felt the metal card grow colder in his hands. A black light flowed in the metal card and at the same time, four subtle words showed in Ye Mo's consciousness Yin Abyss Metal Card.

This card was called Yin Abyss Metal Card? Ye Mo just thought of this and saw a divine estate slowly appear out of thin air. The huge divine estate slowly cleared up to Ye Mo's surprise. In just ten seconds, that huge door appeared again.

"So the divine estate is activated by the metal card." Ye Mo murmured.

At this moment, the door had appeared so Ye Mo went near it without hesitation.

When he came to the side, he realised that there was no blood lake water around the divine estate. He didn't need to keep up a water barrier with god essence.

Ye Mo grabbed the card and carefully went into the estate. After going in, there was this yin chi surrounding him.

Ye Mo was even more careful. His spirit sense scanned in the palace and found that the palace was very empty. There was nothing but a yin yang fish painting. There were all sorts of paintings on the walls and Ye Mo didn't understand a single one of them.

No wonder those immortal emperors immediately wanted to come out after coming in this palace. This estate was empty, it was very obvious. They didn't need to waste time to search.

Ye Mo walked to the yin yang fish painting and found that it was slowly spinning. His spirit sense scanned in but was pushed out by the fish.

Such a strange pattern. Ye Mo soon saw a metal card picture next to the yin yang fish painting. The picture of the metal card was exactly the same one as in his hand. Ye Mo compared them side by side, they were exactly the same.

More strangely, the metal card stuck into the metal card image itself. It went deeper and deeper until eventually completely immersing into it. Then, it became a level surface with the painting.

Ye Mo quickly grabbed the metal card but no matter how much force he used, it was tightly sealed into the painting.

Ye Mo didn't keep trying to get the card. He was a bit disappointed. This was no dao essence divine emperor nor the place Taba Feiyang stored his things.

Taba Feiyang's storage ring was probably completely destroyed by his golden bone arrow. This was normal. He wasn't able to control the bone arrow and instant second to a specific level. it was difficult to preserve the storage ring.

Just when Ye Mo got up in disappointment, the yin yang fish painting made a cracking sound. Then, the two fish split apart.

As they separated, a deep stairway appeared before Ye Mo. Ye Mo scanned his spirit sense in and found that his spirit sense couldn't even penetrate one meter. He could only see three stairs with his eyes.

Ye Mo stared at this obscure stairway in shock. He didn't know where it led to nor has he seen such an eerie place. There was nothing stopping him but his spirit sense could only see three steps.

After hesitating moments later, Ye Mo released Zi Xu and stepped on the first step.

The stair seemed very hollow and could disappear at any time. The entire stairway seemed to be shaking as though it could fall into the void at anytime.

Ye Mo stopped. He wasn't just worried about the stairway disappearing but also about the calling of souls and the extremely bleak chi coming from below the stairs.

Ye Mo breathed slowly. He finally realised why there was a bleak chi. It was the calling of ghosts. It was all below the stairs. He wondered what thing could have such dense yin chi.

He finally realised why Taba Feiyang didn't want to leave this place. He got the metal card somewhere and opened this divine estate. His cultivation method might need this ghost and bleak chi. As for the immortal emperors he brought here, it was probably not just for cultivation.

In fact, Ye Mo guessed pretty much right. Taba Feiyang always cultivated here. The yin chi here was too heavy, he had to keep finding some extreme yang essence blood to mediate his essence spirit that was corroded by yin chi. Otherwise, he would become half human half ghost.

Ye Mo went down two more stairs. He felt the more he went down, the heavier the yin chi was. There was also hatred attached to it. Ye Mo felt it was difficult after going down less than five stairs.

Before Ye Mo could adjust, a powerful bleak chi struck him. Even though he was immortal emperor peak stage, he couldn't resist at all and was smashed back onto the divine estate hall.

Crack. The yin yang fish closed.

The metal card flew out and landed in the middle of the hall.

Ye Mo picked up the card and felt a little annoyed.

He placed the metal card on his hand and said "That Taba Feiyang could cultivate here. Perhaps he even controlled how to open the Mu Hua god mountain. But I can't even leave here."

After talking, Ye Mo found his metal card flash with dark light. It seemed like it was about to be activated at anytime.

Did it have teleporting capabilities? Ye Mo grabbed the metal card in joy and called "Teleport out..."

"Take me out of here.."

"Out..."

“Out of Mu Hua god mountain...”

Ye Mo tried all sorts of sayings but the metal card just flowed with dark rays and nothing else.

Chapter 2023: I Shall Vindicate Dao

After this, Ye Mo searched the divine estate for a few more days and didn't find any way out. He did find some formation flag marks left behind by Taba feiyang.

A few days later, Ye Mo could only return to the golden page world helplessly.

Coming in again this time, Ye Mo was ready to vindicate dao. He had never come in contact with dao vindication divine emperor cultivation method nor knew anything about dao vindication. There was no predecessor experience he could borrow. He had no cultivation resources nor anything to do now, so he could only seek dao vindication.

Other people might not have a high level world spirit item for dao vindication but Ye Mo had plenty. He had the newly opened chaos world as well as the bitter bamboo and chaos tree.

Ye Mo looked at the bitter bamboo and chaos tree. He didn't hesitate and chose to be enlightened under the chaos tree. They were unique things in the world but the chaos tree contained dao chi while bitter bamboo only had spirit item chi.

Ever since the beginning, Ye Mo spent all his time either finding cultivation resources or cultivating after finding cultivation resources. He had never really had the time to sit down quietly and meditate. Now, he really had nothing to do so he sat down below the chaos tree to learn his dao.

As soon Ye Mo sat down, he didn't need to calm down and was immersed in the vast chi of the chaos tree.

He seemed to have entered an endless scroll of existence. From the underworld to the mortal realm then the cultivation realm, immortal realm and then to the divine dao realm...

The clearly separated realms appeared in front of his eyes like a beautiful landscape scroll painting. He saw the clear divisions of the stars and the prosperity in the universe...

But as time went on, the beautiful cosmos became obscure. Resources were depleted and competition grew more intense. There was battle raging in the mortal realms, there was fighting everywhere in the cultivation realm and immortal realm.

A chi of destruction emanated in the realms.

At this moment, a small seed blossomed in the void and grew. The small seed grew into the chaos tree that stretched across many realms. The dense life force emitted from the tree went back to nourish the endless cosmos.

The obscure and desolate realms returned to their original state and flourished more.

But the tree that crossed many realms was eventually found. These powerful beings started to fight over this huge tree of life.

Battles, carnage, destruction, wither...

All sorts of chi filled the universe. The chaos tree with dense life force was attacked by all sorts of things and started to wither. Despite this, no one stopped the fight. everyone wanted to own the chaos tree for themselves. Everyone wanted to be the ruler of the cosmos.

Powerful beings were killed, sects were annihilated. Planets were spirit controlled, heaven domains were crumbled...

The highest sacred land in this universe, the divine dao realm finally cracked open from such terrifying battles. The beautiful landscape became devastated.

Some powerful beings fled the divine dao realm and went to foreign lands. When a few top powerful beings left, the remaining people didn't have the power to fight for the chaos tree.

But at this moment, the big tree started to wither. Its essence turned into a drop of tear and the tear transformed into a small seed.

Without the nourishment of the tree, the void became pale. The abyssal realm was broken. There were souls calling everywhere. The cultivation realm was deprived of resources and the immortal realm was crippled.

In the golden age world, the chaos tree was blossoming green and the dense green chi completely enveloped Ye Mo.

"I shall vindicate dao..."

Ye Mo woke up from that scene and slowly spat these words. He was still feeling the vast dao chi under the chaos tree emotionlessly.

"The world fragmented, divine dao broken, immortal realm crippled, laws incomplete, how to vindicate dao..."

A voice sounded in Ye Mo's sea of consciousness. This voice cycled over again and again as though it would never stop. What confused Ye Mo was that this voice sounded a bit like his.

Ye Mo's consciousness was long connected with the chaos tree now. He suddenly felt unjust. How come other people could vindicate dao but he couldn't. There were dao vindicators in the God Necropolis Domain and immortal realm. There were even some dao essence divine emperors. How come he was extra to dao vindication?

"I shall vindicate dao!" Ye Mo said without hesitation and firmly. He didn't know the rules to dao vindication. If he did, he would've long vindicated his dao.

“The world is incomplete, instant second daos are small daos.” The voice seemed to know what Ye Mo thought and said.

Was there a difference between dao? Ye Mo didn’t completely understand. Did he have to wait till the God Necropolis Domain was repaired to divine dao realm before he could vindicate great dao? Or wait till the immortal realm was repaired? He didn’t have such capability now.

Suddenly, Ye Mo gained this enlightenment. This was making him promise to repair the God Necropolis Domain and bring together the 33 heavens of the immortal realm.

There was a subtle voice calling in his voice that if he was willing to promise to do all this, his dao would come together and he would be vindicating the highest dao.

When I vindicate dao, I shall do my best to repair the God Necropolis Domain, when I vindicate dao, I shall do my best to repair the divine dao realm, when I vindicate, I shall do my best to close together the immortal realm...

Ye Mo suddenly felt that if he said these words loudly he would succeed in dao vindication and vindicate the highest dao.

Ye Mo cultivated the Three Birth Chant and knew his heart very well. At this moment, there was this extreme discomfort rising from the bottom of his heart. He didn’t like this feeling of being threatened. This was like making him promise to do things and then he could vindicate dao.

Whether or not he did those things was his choice, it was irrelevant to dao vindication.

In his past life and this life, he did things based on his heart. Regardless if the threat was good or bad for him, he had this feeling from the depth of his heart that he didn’t want to be forced. Even if he could never vindicate dao in his life, he didn’t want to be forced by this foreign will.

Ye Mo suddenly stopped his meditation and opened his eyes as he got up and yelled “The golden page world is mine, I planted the chaos tree, I shall vindicate my own dao. I do everything on my own will. Nothing in the world, no one in the world shall control my dao. If there’s any foreign will, sever...”

Ye Mo said and sliced down with Zi Xu in the void. A grey light seeped out from the chaos tree and was sliced to pieces.

Ye Mo took a long breath and this feeling of comfort rose up. This feeling was indescribable. This was the feeling of freedom.

At the same time, he felt the heavy and serious chaos tree become light and joyful. It was like an old man turned to a playful kid.

The next moment, a green light fused into Ye Mo's dan tian. Ye Mo shook and truly woke up.

The world seemed to have become clear to him. Even the nearby space became very meticulous. He felt he found a way to improve his god art.

Ye Mo knew he didn't vindicate dao but he became a half divine. The power of law became clearer to him.

"hmm, where is the chaos tree?" Ye Mo immediately found that the chaos tree next to him disappeared.

Before he could ask small ginseng and shadowless, there was this joyful emotion coming from his dan tian. He soon a green tree happily waving in his dan tian.

"I understand." Ye Mo said. He severed the will planted in the chaos tree. With this, the chaos tree immediately recognized him as master.

Chapter 2024: Unreasonable Disaster

Ye Mo knew that with his talent and learning, half divine was the extreme. Even if he went into solitary cultivation for countless years, he would still be half divine without new enlightenments.

He wanted to vindicate dao so he would have to leave the golden page world and go back to the greater world to experience things. Ye Mo wasn't sad. He was the master of the chaos tree now and his power increased another level. If he wasn't blasted to a million pieces, he wouldn't die with the chaos tree in his dan tian.

When he came out of the golden page world and stood in the divine estate palace again he knew that the only way out of the Mu Hua god mountain was through this mysterious divine estate.

Ye Mo didn't open that yin yang fish tunnel again. He knew that even though with his increased tower, he wouldn't be able to pass that stairway. He would at most go down a few extra steps.

And Ye Mo was certain that tunnel didn't lead outside. With the powerful resistance there, even Taba Feiyang wouldn't be able to go down.

Ye Mo walked to the first painting of the palace. The painting looked like it was sculpted on there. The surface was uneven but when Ye Mo subconsciously felt it with his hands, it felt extremely smooth and even.

This first painting was very simple. A servant who was wearing a hat struggled to carry water. Ye Mo focused on it for a few minutes and suddenly felt that he was about to be embedded into the painting. He was shocked and subconsciously retreated.

Rumble. A powerful force from the painting smashed him away.

Ye Mo didn't dare to keep looking at the first one. He came to the second one. It was two people running. Ye Mo didn't scan his spirit sense in, he felt this wasn't the way out he was looking for.

Third, fourth...

When Ye Mo walked to the seventh painting, he stopped again. He felt this painting gave him the least pressure. It was very simple. It was of a grand sect. there were mountain ranges rising and descending. There was four great golden words before the sect, Xu Yue divine dao. A grey robed man stood before the sect and looked at these four words. There was only his back. His hands were behind his back and his clothes seemed to wave with the wind.

It was just a painting. There was no will nor essence spirit but Ye Mo still felt the man's terrifying power. It was as though he could turn him to dust easily. This made Ye Mo extremely uncomfortable.

Just when his eyes were going to leave this figure, another metal card image appeared next to the figure. The image was his abyss metal card. Ye Mo took it out without hesitation.

He felt another dark ray flow out of the painting that connected with the dark ray from the metal card.

An extremely powerful force came and Ye Mo was surrounded by this dark ray.

Not good, he was going to get dragged into the painting. Ye Mo used all his god essence to try to break free but no matter what he did, he couldn't break free at all.

The next moment, Ye Mo felt this light sweep him into a void tunnel.

Ye Mo stopped struggling. He felt the tunnel didn't bring him into that painting but really teleported him away.

Rumble. Ye Mo landed on solid ground. He immediately protected himself with god essence and clutched Zi Xu tightly.

Moments later, Ye Mo relaxed. There were ravines everywhere and broken walls. Half of that mountain range was sideways on the ground.

Ye Mo looked at the metal card, there seemed to be this melancholic chi inside but it soon disappeared. Even the light from the metal card disappeared. This metal card became icy cold again.

This metal card wasn't simple. It seemed the first painting wasn't trying to suck him in but teleport him to somewhere. Perhaps every painting in that palace could teleport him somewhere. Ye Mo put away the metal card and started to study his surrounding. He was certain he was teleported out of the Mu Hua god mountain.

At the same time, Ye Mo realised that he was standing at where the figure was standing in the painting.

Ye Mo took in a cold breath. There were ravines that his spirit sense couldn't scan to the bottom and the destroyed tens of thousands of km of mountain range. Just how much power was needed for this?

Xu Yue Divine Dao was clearly a powerful ancient sect but now it was destroyed to this level.

A black figure suddenly charged out of the ravine. Ye Mo punched and the figure made a sharp scream before dispersing. A black beast core fell on the ground. Ye Mo picked it up and immediately realised "I came back to the God Necropolis Domain."

He just killed a mist demon beast but his power was now much stronger than when he first came to the God Necropolis Domain.

A few days later, Ye Mo's spirit sense found a market place.

After making sure there was no top level dao vindication powerful beings, Ye Mo came to this market. He wanted to ask how far this place was from the Mu Hua god mountain. He also needed to find a way to other big cities and find ways people vindicated dao.

To Ye Mo, he didn't know what dao vindication was at all.

In the God Necropolis Domain, many dao vindicators vindicated small dao but that didn't affect Ye Mo from learning their experience. His Three Birth Chant could utilize other people's experience to walk out his own great dao.

Ye Mo entered and stopped an ordinary immortal monarch tertiary stage, he saluted with his fists and asked "Dao friend may I ask..."

Before Ye Mo could finish, that immortal monarch tertiary stage's face changed and quickly said "Qian bei, wan bei don't know...."

Then, he soon disappeared into the crowd.

Ye Mo looked at this with confusion, what was going on?

Just when Ye Mo wanted to ask someone else, he found that everyone avoided him like the plague.

Ye Mo soon realised. It was this mask. He got thie mask from Taba Feiyang. It seemed he really did do a lot of bad things.

But wait, when Taba Feiyang direct people to attack the divine estate, no one said anything to him.

"Die, Taba Feiyang..." A few powerful dashing lights came. Ye Mo suspected one of them was divine emperor power.

They sealed off his exit and released all sorts of magic artefact.

Ye Mo cursed. He wore this mask to prevent that Dao Actualisation Divine Emperor from finding him but this Taba Feiyang offended more people. No wonder he hid in the mountain. Ye Mo dashed away without hesitation.

It wasn't that he was scared of these people. He just didn't want to have these meaningless fights.

Chapter 2025: The extra martial sister

Ye Mo didn't use instant transmission means. His five element mobility technique was far more powerful than before. he quickly charged out of the market place.

"This is really unlucky." Ye Mo was about to pull the mask off.

An extremely subtle space wave made Ye Mo stop the action. He knew someone was coming and was immediately about to flee.

"Martial brother Feiyang, it's really you..." A voice of surprise and joy sounded.

At the same time, a white robed female immortal appeared before Ye Mo. She was actually half divine power. She had long eyebrows and snow white skin. Her black hair was tied up. There was a yellow immortal cloud silk wrapped around her chest but it couldn't constrict the high peaks. The immortal skirt flowed in the wind. Accompanied with her looks, one had to be amazed by her beauty.

Ye Mo thought. Would this woman be Taba Feiyang's partner. Taba Feiyang looked like a ghost and yet he had such a good looking partner.

"Martial brother, come back with me." The voice plead with a sad and soft tone.

Clearly, she wasn't just ordinary relationship with Taba Feiyang. He couldn't go so casually now. otherwise, if she was suspicious, it might be another power hunting after him.

Seeing Ye Mo not talk, the woman could only continue "Feiyang, dao vindication isn't as easy as you think. Without the help of sect and family, neither of us can reach dao vindication. Plus, it's extremely hard to vindicate dao with your cultivation method. You've offended too many people trying to cultivate that cultivation method. You did too many things that go against the interest of the sect. Feiyang I want you to wake up. I will definitely help you vindicate dao. And, I want to vindicate dao with you..."

The emotions in her eyes were obvious.

Ye Mo's brain thought rapidly. He suspected that the Taba Feiyang he killed wasn't her martial brother. It might be that martial brother Feiyang was killed by that Dao Moulding Divine Emperor and that Dao Moulding Divine Emperor used the mask to change into Taba Feiyang's look and use this identity to do bad things everywhere.

"I will vindicate dao through my own capabilities." Ye Mo mimicked the Dao Moulding Divine Emperor's voice and said coldly.

There was tears in the woman's eyes "Feiyang, I know it's been hard for you all these years. You're so much older than before. when you left many years ago, you were half divine and now you're still half divine..."

The woman seemed too sad and didn't continue talking about this and said "Chang Fei divine dao city has a divine emperor dao discussion square. There will be half a years of dao discussion. After that, those who have enlightened can go to the border of God Necropolis Domain to attain the fortune of great god art."

Hearing this, Ye Mo almost called out. God Necropolis Domain, was he not at God Necropolis Domain? If he was at God Necropolis Domain, why would the woman say go to God Necropolis Domain. however, Ye Mo was interested in that divine emperor dao discussion square.

Ye Mo knew his talent. It was probably very hard to vindicate dao just with his own experience. He didn't have to copy other people's path completely but just know how they vindicated dao.

Seeing Ye Mo not answer, the woman continued "Before, the place you wanted to go the most was God Necropolis Domain, now that you have a chance and to listen to other people discussing dao, why are you giving up? Did you forget what you said before?"

"I've offended too many people." Ye Mo said heavily.

Hearing this, the woman said in surprise and joy "It's okay, I have a face mask magic artefact here. Just come back with me and once we vindicate dao, everything else will be insects."

The woman took out a mask magic artefact and gave it to Ye Mo.

Ye Mo took the mask and felt there was some danger but he couldn't exactly tell what danger it was.

"Martial sister, can you mark me a jade slip about the God Necropolis Domain." Ye Mo hesitated and asked.

The woman dazed and then took out a jade slip and some things to Ye Mo "I know about the same as you. I've added some things, have it."

Ye Mo took it but didn't look at it. he said to this woman "I want to be alone for a while. Wait for me at Chang Fei divine dao city. If I want to go I will go there to find you. If not, don't feel bad, don't keep waiting for me."

Then, Ye Mo used mobility technique and disappeared.

He really wanted to go to the dao discussion but he wasn't that dumb to go with this woman. No matter how well he acted, if he got too close with this woman, he would be spotted out.

Seeing Ye Mo leave alone, that joyful face sunk. She didn't chase Ye Mo but stared at Ye Mo's direction for a long time before saying coldly "You killed my martial brother Feiyang. Even if you escape to the edges of heaven, I, Shan Yingyao, will annihilate your soul."

Ye Mo didn't know he was already spotted out but he wasn't relying on her. He was just using her. Ten million km away, Ye Mo found a quiet place to enter the golden page world.

Ye Mo immediately took out the jade slip she gave him.

Ye Mo immediately noticed something wrong. There seemed to be a subtle spirit sense mark but he searched the jade slip with spirit sense and found nothing.

Ye Mo threw the jade slip away without hesitation. A spirit sense mark invisible to spirit sense and the eye shot at him. if it wasn't that this world was his, he wouldn't be able to feel it. How could Ye Mo let this spirit sense mark fall on him.

There was time space law in the spirit sense mark. Ye Mo's domain and god essence couldn't stop this mark not bind it.

"Instant second..."

Ye Mo used instant second in his shock. As soon as the spirit sense mark was frozen by instant second, he released Blue Like Morning Sky to burn it.

"So powerful." Ye Mo was covered in sweat.

Ye Mo using instant second in here was many times stronger than outside. After all, this world was his. Once his cultivation level reached a powerful point, he can even stop the flow of time in the golden page world.

Ye Mo's face was pale after using the instant second.

Ye Mo took out that mask and burned with Blue Like Morning Sky. Since there was a mark in the jade slip, there was no way there wouldn't be a spirit sense mark in this face mask.

Indeed, another spirit sense mark charged out of the mask and shot at Ye Mo.

With his previous experience, Ye Mo used another instant second without hesitation and burned with Blue Like Morning Sky. This spirit sense mark was instantly vaporized.

Chapter 2026: Chang Fei Divine Dao City

He used two instant seconds. Even though this golden page world was Ye Mo's world, Ye Mo almost couldn't handle it. Luckily the chaos tree in his dan tian quickly released life force. In just 15 minutes, Ye Mo completely recovered.

Ye Mo breathed easy. Chaos tree made a huge difference. He checked over his body and made sure there was no problem before he grabbed the jade slip.

He felt that these two marks were made by at least Dao Essence Divine Emperor.

Probably even Taba Feiyang wouldn't be able to escape the mark.

He was able to escape because he had the golden page world, instant second and god flame to burn the mark.

15 minutes later, Ye Mo put down the jade slip. He finally understood that the place he was at was indeed the God Necropolis Domain but it wasn't the real God Necropolis Domain. It was just that the God Necropolis Domain was in this region so it was called the God Necropolis Domain.

Specifically speaking, this place was a broken domain of the divine dao realm. But in the divine dao realm, there was a true God Necropolis Domain. that place had all sorts of dao laws and chi. There are also primordial god arts and the dead remains of powerful beings. Compared to God Necropolis Domain, Mu Hua god mountain was just a place of time law.

Meanwhile, the God Necropolis Domain was filled with all sorts of laws and dao chi. It's also the grounds of where a few Primordial Essence Divine Emperor died.

It was because of this that many people would go to God Necropolis Domain for dao vindication. God Necropolis Domain was too famous so that the people here just named this broken realm after the God Necropolis Domain.

The jade slip said that many immortal emperors vindicated dao at the God Necropolis Domain. Some immortal emperors became wealthy there as they found the remains of Primordial Essence Divine Emperor and had the magic artefact of the Primordial Essence Divine Emperor. If they found the heritage of Primordial Essence Divine Emperor, it meant that had the path to the top of dao.

Ye Mo put the jade slip down and thought for a while before eventually deciding to go to Chang Fei Divine Dao city. Regardless if he could go to that dao discussion, he would have to try. If he went, he would benefit plenty from there. Ye Mo also wanted to learn about how to vindicate dao in the God Necropolis Domain.

In the God Necropolis Domain, the big powers had their own circle. It was very hard to get into this circle and listen to their dao discussion. However, it wasn't impossible.

His grey hair couldn't turn into black hair yet. This was due to the damage on his essence chi. It couldn't be repaired by eating a pill. After his essence chi recovered, his hair would turn black.

But Ye Mo didn't want to wait that long. That woman had seen him with the grey hair. Even if he took off the mask, she would recognize him.

Ye Mo just shaved off all his hair and made a top grade immortal artefact buddhist bead and hung it on his chest. Thinking of Du Feng monk, Ye Mo made another gourd and put it on his waist. The wine inside was made by small ginseng.

After taking his mask off, he returned to his original look.

The reason Ye Mo chose this look was because after talking to Du Feng monk, he had some understanding of Nan Ming heaven Zen Temple's cultivation method.

Most importantly, he had a golden bell buddhist fruit. If he took out this dao fruit, no one would suspect his identity.

In this broken divine dao realm, it wasn't easy to find a top sect. The main reason was resources were scarce here and it was the law of the jungle. Most people wanted to vindicate dao and weren't willing to take out their resources.

It was because of this that some god corner families were more powerful than ordinary sects.

Chang Fei Divine Dao city was an exception. Even the divine dao realm was broken, it was still boundless. It was no surprise that such a prosperous city existed.

Ye Mo walked in and felt a completely different atmosphere to the immortal realm. It felt depressing, it wasn't as comfortable as the immortal cities.

There weren't many monks but there were monks so Ye Mo's look wasn't very unique.

At this moment, Ye Mo suppressed his power to immortal emperor peak stage. He was planning to go into a bar and search for news.

Just when Ye Mo walked in, he saw a figure dash out and then there was a red light hacking at that figure.

Ye Mo moved aside and that figure fell to the ground. Seeing how that red light was going to hack the person on the ground in half, Ye Mo suddenly kicked.

That red light was immediately crippled.

The person on the ground got up and quickly saluted with his fists "Thank you qian bei for saving me."

Ye Mo didn't answer and just looked at the person chasing out. This person was only an immortal monarch middle stage.

"Wanbei greet qian bei, sorry for offending qian bei." The immortal monarch saw that it was some monk whose power level he couldn't see through, he quickly bowed.

This really was the law of the jungle.

"You have no business here." Ye Mo waved his hand. He just casually saved that person as in that instant, he thought of when he was kicked down by Feng Kong Grand Emperor.

Seeing Ye Mo didn't blame him, the immortal monarch saluted with his fists and disappeared.

Then, Ye Mo started to look at the guy he saved.

He seemed very young but was immortal king peak stage. He seemed very chubby and his eyes were narrow. He seemed miserable as though he was always bullied.

But then, Ye Mo noticed something different. He felt some ancient chi on this chubby boy. He felt such chi on shadowless before.

"Boss this guy has the same chi as me." Shadowless sound transmissioned from the golden page world.

Same chi? Ye Mo immediately remembered that shadowless came from the dragon race. Was this chubby kid a dragon too? however, he looked like a human.

"Come in with me." Ye Mo nodded and called the chubby boy in.

The chubby boy followed Ye Mo into the bar.

There were some people here. Ye Mo glanced casually and saw a few immortal emperor and even a Dao Moulding Divine Emperor. He immediately. Took back his spirit sense. He really didn't understand how there were so many powerful people here and yet that little immortal monarch dared to kill someone here.

No one said anything about him stopping the immortal monarch. Ye Mo realised, no one would mind other people's business.

Chapter 2027: Hard to enter dao discussion square

Ye Mo wanted to find a room and ask about this chubby boy but when he asked for a room, everyone stared at him with a strange look. Ye Mo immediately knew he said something wrong again.

“Qian bei, the bar is just a place to drink. There are no rooms.” The chubby boy said.

“Oh, I see.” Ye Mo said casually.

Although Ye Mo was poor, he still had the god crystals to drink. He took the chubby boy to a corner and sat down. When the waiter brought the wine over, the chubby boy’s eyes never left the wine kettle.

So this chubby boy is a wine addict. Ye Mo opened the wine kettle and found this wine was really trash.

The chubby boy gulped down some saliva “Qian bei, the wine of this bar is really good. It’s median high quality in half god wine.”

Ye Mo almost spat the wine out. This sort of wine was called half god wine? He pushed the wine kettle to the boy “I don’t like this wine, you can have it all.”

“Thank you qian bei.” The chubby boy said and grabbed the kettle.

Ye Mo took out the wine gourd from his waist and drank. Just when he wanted to ask, he heard a shocked voice say “Good wine.”

Ye Mo dazed. No shit it was good wine. His wine was made with corner soul weed and yin blue plum. After he found plenty of top god spirit herbs, he made small ginseng work the wine again.

The person who said this just smelled it and knew it was good wine. Clearly, he was a wine lover too.

“Dao friend, may I sit here.” A slightly coarse voice sounded in front of Ye Mo.

It was that Dao Moulding Divine Emperor. Ye Mo's eyes spasmed. Although he killed a Dao Moulding Divine Emperor as an immortal emperor peak stage, he didn't cockily think he could take one out for sure.

People could kill in here and no one stopped the immortal monarch from killing the boy. People could kill here without being responsible.

If this Dao Moulding Divine Emperor attacked him and he shot out the four Golden Bow of Divine Extermination arrows, he would be a goat waiting to be slaughtered.

"Of course, dao friend have a seat." Ye Mo saluted with his fists.

The chubby boy didn't care who came over as long as he had wine to drink.

"Dao friend indeed drank good wine. I've been through countless divine dao cities in the God Necropolis Domain and countless god corners. It's the first time I've smelled such good wine. Where did you buy this wine?" The Dao Moulding Divine Emperor asked.

Ye Mo gave his kettle to the Dao Moulding Divine Emperor "I made it myself. If you like it then have it."

"Thank you dao friend." The Dao Moulding Divine Emperor took the kettle and drank.

Ye Mo was wary. This Dao Moulding Divine Emperor's god essence was dense and seemed stronger than Taba feiyang. His long hair was braided and his chiseled face made him look extremely handsome.

"Thank you dao friend, this is a great wine, I'm called Du Qixi." The Dao Moulding Divine Emperor clearly had different views of Ye Mo after drinking his name and told Ye Mo his name.

Ye Mo realised. In the God Necropolis Domain, spirit items were rare and people wouldn't use it to make wine. The things he used to make his wine were all precious. Plus, the recipe was from the ancestor of making wine, Chu Chen divine emperor.

"I'm called Ye Mo." Ye Mo saluted with his fists but didn't keep taking out wine.

Du Qixi drank half a kettl and said "Brother Ye seemed to be here the first time?"

Ye Mo quickly answered "I haven't been able to vindicate dao after reaching immortal emperor peak stage so I've been searching around for opportunities. I heard there would be a divine emperor dao discussion square here at Chang Fei Divine Dao Cityso I came over wanting to hear the dao discussion."

There were no teleportation formations in the God Necropolis Domain as there were void fissures everywhere. Even flying with magic artefact could get you devoured by the void fissure much less teleportation formation.

"It's probably not going to be easy to get there." Du Qixi put the wine kettle down and looked at Ye Mo.

"Brother Du, you're probably already Dao Moulding Divine Emperor right? Isn't the dao discussion square Dao Moulding Divine Emperor discussing doa and then immortal emperors listen?" Ye Mo asked in confusion.

Du Qixi smiled bitterly "It's held by all the big powers joined together. There's not only Dao Nourishment Divine Emperor but also Dao Actualisation Divine Emperor discussing dao. There will even be the number one Dao Essence Divine Emperor of Chang Fei Divine Dao City, Sikong Shan coming to discuss dao personally. He had been stuck in Dao Essence Divine Emperor for countless years. After he discusses dao this time, he would head to the God Necropolis Domain to find opportunity to break through to Primordial Essence Divine Emperor. Before he goes there, he would take some immortal emperor with him. who wouldn't want such opportunity."

"Does one have to be taken by Dao Essence Divine Emperor to go God Necropolis Domain?" Ye Mo asked in shock.

Du Qixi rolled his eyes at Ye Mo "Brother Ye, I can tell you know nothing about dao vindication. Of those who can vindicate dao, 90% of them did so at the border of the God Necropolis Domain. You can't go to the border without Dao Moulding Divine Emperor power. Dao Nourishment Divine Emperor and Dao Actualisation Divine Emperor can only go to the border of the God Necropolis Domain alone. They can't bring someone there. Only Dao Essence Divine Emperor can bring someone there. Dao Essence Divine Emperor can bring ten people there.

“This Sikong qian bei is quite a nice person.” Ye Mo sighed.

Du Qixi glanced at Ye Mo and said “Those dao essence qian bei who went in the God Necropolis Domain never came out. Sikong qian bei is gambling one last time by entering the God Necropolis Domain to vindicate primordial essence dao. He’s not taking the ten people for no reason. He needs top level dao fruit and god spirit item. He will see who was greater contributions and then take them in.

Ye Mo nodded. This meant that an outsider like him has no chance even if he went to the dao discussion square.

“Brother Du may I ask if you know about the Mu hua god mountain?” Ye Mo asked.

“I’ve heard about it, it’s said it recently opened once. It’s too far from the Chang Fei Divine Dao City. It takes decades to just get there. Otherwise, I would go to the mountain once.” Du Qixi sighed.

Hearing this, Ye Mo’s mind was set. The further away it was from Chang Fei Divine Dao City, the better it was for Ye Mo.

“It seems brother Du is here for the dao discussion?” Ye Mo asked.

“That’s right but I have no chance too unless I have a top spirit item or a dao fruit. But if I do, I wouldn’t want to use a dao fruit to get a spot to listen to dao.” Du Qixi said.

Ye Mo was planning to risk things and act as Taba Feiyang but hearing this he immediately said “Brother Du, you’re saying you can definitely go to the dao discussion square if you have dao fruit?”

Chapter 2028: Take Away Chubby kid

“Of course, do you think it’s that easy to get dao fruits? I heard nine time dao fruits came out of the Mu Hua mountain this time, what a pity...” Du Qixi sighed.

Ye Mo finally realised why Taba Feiyang could vindicate dao this quickly. That guy was in the Muhua God mountain. As soon as it opened, he would be able to go out and scavenge dao fruits first. This guy definitely had a lot of good things in his storage ring but what a pity, it was destroyed.

Ye Mo felt Du Qixi was a nice person so he sound transmissioned “Brother Du, I have a dao fruit. Just say you’re a friend of mine and see if you can go in with it.”

“What?” Du Qixi said in shock that he even forgot to sound transmission.

Ye Mo could only say “I want to try my luck and see if I can get into the divine emperor dao discussion square.”

Du Qixi reacted and immediately got up “Of course, let’s go now.”

He couldn’t wait anymore.

“Don’t be in a rush, I still have some important things to ask this little brother.” Ye Mo saw that the chubby kid had finished the kettle and asked Du Qixi.

Du Qixi seemed to know Ye Mo had business with the chubby kid so he got up and smiled “I’ll wait for you at my spot, just let me know when you’re ready.”

“What is your name? Where do you come from?” Ye Mo set up sound barrier restriction and asked.

The chubby kid looked dazily at Ye Mo and there was a sliver of fear in his eyes.

Ye Mo felt this and smiled "Don't worry. Although I guessed your origin a bit but I just want to get it clear. You should know that if someone else guessed your origin like me, you probably would've been killed already."

"I, I..." The chubby kid was clearly more and more scared. He feared this the most. He knew clearly what the consequence would be if people recognized who he was.

After a long while, the chubby kid finally calmed down a bit and stuttered "I'm called Qiu Rang. When my mother gave birth to me she told uncle Yin to sneak me away. Then, uncle Yin used rune and we came to God Necropolis Domain... then uncle Yin died protecting me..."

Ye Mo finally understood. This chubby kid was called Qiu Rang. He probably came from dragon race. His mother was a young girl waiting to be married. She seemed to live in a huge water palace. Ye Mo guessed that was the dragon palace.

However, the rules there were very strict. His mother was pregnant before marriage and this was a huge violation of law. Qiu Rang was a target of hunting. Qiu Rang's mother let her personal assistant uncle Yin take Qiu Rang and flee.

Uncle Yin came to the God Necropolis Domain somehow but then later people realised there was a subtle dragon horn on the chubby kid's head and wanted to take him away. Uncle Yin died with that person trying to protect Qiu Rang. Qiu Rang had no survival capabilities and could only starve.

However, this guy loved drinking so much that he would forget his own name. He was beaten because of it countless times. He seemed quite lucky to be alive though after all these dangerous times.

Ye Mo scanned his spirit sense into the chubby kid's hair and found a dragon horn popping out.

Ye Mo knew that he definitely did something that was no good to himself. The chubby kid had been in the city for this long and loved drinking that much. He should've long been killed but he still survived now. The only explanation was that someone knew the chubby kid was a dragon and was secretly protecting him.

Qiu Rang had no family here so of course they weren't protecting him for his benefit. This way, there would only be two motives. One was to use the chubby kid to draw other dragon race here and the second was to just keep the chubby kid as livestock.

Ye Mo believed the second possibility was greater. Dragon essence blood had dragon chi. It wouldn't form if you locked him up.

If that person wanted to use the chubby kid's dragon chi to cultivate, he can't lock the chubby kid.

Ye Mo was speechless. He was wondering why things were so coincidental that he saved the chubby kid. Even if he didn't intervene someone would.

Ye Mo wanted Qiu Rang to go but he was only half divine. Even in the immortal realm, there were people stronger than him much less Chang Fei divine dao city? The person who dared to keep Qiu Rang was no simple character.

At this moment, shadowless suddenly made the sound "Boss, this chubby kid is so pitiful and he's dragon race. Why don't you let him stay in the golden page world with us."

Ye Mo hesitated. If the chubby kid went into the golden page world, he could never go away. otherwise, his golden page world would be exposed.

Shadowless's words resonated with him. He was abandoned too. shadowless and the chubby kid had a similar fate to him. if he didn't intervene, this chubby kid would be dead for sure and in a terrible way.

Thinking about this, Ye Mo sound transmissioned to shadowless "I'll ask him. if he's willing then I'll take him away. If not, we can't mind too much business."

Seeing the chubby kid's fearful look Ye Mo sighed "Qiu Rang, do you know that if you keep staying here you would die sooner or later?"

Unexpectedly, the chubby kid nodded quickly.

Ye Mo shook his head "You don't know your situation. Someone already knows you're a dragon race but he didn't capture you because he wants to you grow up here alone. He's keeping you as a livestock. Think about it, everytime you're in danger does someone help you or when you need cultivation resources, does it just magically come into your hands?"

The chubby kid heard this and dazed but soon reacted. He stared at Ye Mo in shock soon realizing what he meant.

"It seems you're not too dumb. Let me be honest with you, you were saved before because people were protecting you. Otherwise, you're a little immortal king and you go around stealing wine. How can you live for so long here? But me saving you this time is a real coincidence."

Seeing the chubby kid get scared, Ye Mo continued "I have a friend who is also dragon race. He wants me to help you. If you're willing then I'll take you away but if you're not willing, I'll give you a kettle of wine and you can leave yourself. if you're willing to come with me, there's a condition. You must not go out. Even if you leave in the future, you must swear to not spill my secrets."

"Qian bei, wan bei is willing." The chubby kid agreed without hesitation.

Ye Mo was confused. The chubby kid wasn't dumb, wasn't he scared of him tricking him?

"You're not scared of me tricking you?" Ye Mo immediately asked.

"Qian bei, you're definitely not from the dao city. You come from a far away place. otherwise, you wouldn't be asking for a room here. Even if I don't leave with qian bei, I will probably die here. If I leave with qian bei, I might be able to see my mum again. If qian bei wants my blood, I'll just be dying earlier. I've already known this over the years." The chubby kid said firmly.

"Not bad, you're very smart but don't worry I won't take your blood. The things I have are countless times better than your little impure dragon blood. Relax and I'll take you in." Ye Mo laughed. He quite like this kid now.

"Now?" the chubby kid subconsciously looked at everyone in the bar.

Ye Mo said "Yes, now."

He had decided to take the chubby kid away. Even if he went somewhere else, people would know so he might as well take him away publicly. No matter how strong the guy who wanted the chubby kid was, he wouldn't dare to go to the dao discussion square. He would go there now.

Chapter 2029: Terror of the Dao Essence Divine Emperor

He still had another condition for going to the dao discussion square and that was for that Sikong Shan to take him to the God Necropolis Domain. otherwise, he would be wasting that divine dao fruit. When he went to the God Necropolis Domain, who would be able to find him?

The chubby kid was strictly speaking not human, he was a dragon. Even if Ye Mo's golden page world wasn't complete, he could put him inside much less now. His golden page world was completed.

There were quite a lot of people in the bar and they were shocked to see Ye Mo take the chubby kid away. people here weren't dumb. The chubby kid didn't have a simple origin. Yet Ye Mo was an immortal emperor and dared to take him away. he didn't want to live.

Other people were wondering how Ye Mo had the guts to take him away not how Ye Mo took the kid away. Most immortal emperors had their small world or cultivation home magic artefact.

"You didn't do this well. That chubby kid is nice but you're not the only one interested in him." Du Qixi said.

Hearing this, Ye Mo realised Du Qixi knew that chubby kid was a dragon but Ye Mo wasn't scared. He sound transmissioned "Can we enter the dao discussion square with dao fruit?"

"Of course but do you think everyone can get dao fruit? Although you haven't taken it out I know you wouldn't lie to me."

“Good, I have dao fruit. We can both go in and then ask Sikong qian bei to take us to the God Necropolis Domain border. Who would be able to find me there? I’m worried about you. You came with me. If those people can’t find me they might blame it on you.” Ye Mo said plainly.

If Du Qixi didn’t dare to go with him, he would go alone.

Du Qixi said proudly “Although I’m an solo cultivator, I’m not scared of anyone.”

Du Qixi wasn’t bluffing. He didn’t dare to offend big powers but they wouldn’t offend him for no reason either. They clearly knew that Ye Mo took the chubby kid, they wouldn’t be dumb enough to still offend him, a Dao Moulding Divine Emperor.

“Good, unless those people dares to come for me now, otherwise, I wouldn’t be scared.” Ye Mo laughed. Even if he couldn’t go to God Necropolis Domain this time, he was confident in his transmission means.

Du Qixi said calmly “Don’t worry, even if they want trouble with you it would be after you leave the city.”

“This is the dao discussion square?” Ye Mo and Du Qixi came to a barren outback. The view ahead was blurry, clearly it was barricaded by restriction.

Ye Mo thought the dao discussion would be in a grand palace but there was no signs of buildings at all here.

Du Qixi nodded “Dao is innature, of course you can’t discuss dao inside. Only outside would you feel a sliver of the dao they discuss.”

“Good knowledge.” Another dmbd came up to Du Qixi and saluted with his fists.

Then the Dao Moulding Divine Emperor said “But the dao discussion is about to start here please move aside dao friends.”

Ye Mo immediately came up and said “We came to listen in...”

“Sorry, not everyone can come, move aside.” The divine emperor wasn’t so polite to an immortal emperor peak stage.

Ye Mo wasn’t angry and instead said with a smile “Brother Du and I both want to enter the dao discussion square. I also want to ask Sikong qian bei to give me a spot to the God Necropolis Domain.”

“Haha...” That divine emperor was so angry he laughed. A mere immortal emperor dared to say this. Who did he think he was? The ten spots were already decided, how could other people intervene?

“I have a dao fruit and I want to give this to Sikong divine emperor qian bei.” Ye Mo said loudly.

They discussed this together. If they really dared to take the dao fruit and sign up alone, they would not only lose the dao fruit but their lives too.

Ye Mo and Du Qixi didn’t come from some big power. If the organisers of this dao discussion took their dao fruits, even Sikong Shan might not know.

So they came to the agreement to take out the dao fruit outside the dao discussion square and say it loudly. Only then would the organisers be concerned.

As soon as Ye Mo said this, that Dao Moulding Divine Emperor’s face changed. He immediately said “You really have dao fruit? What dao fruit is it? Show me.”

Ye Mo said in contempt “What dao fruit I have is nothing to do with you. This is for Sikong qian bei. In time, I’ll just give it to Sikong qian bei.”

The Dao Moulding Divine Emperor calmed down and said plainly “Even if you have dao fruit, we need to check it before we let you go in. If you don’t even know what your dao fruit is, how are we going to report to Sikong qian bei?”

“I have a dao fruit so of course I’m giving it to Sikong qian bei. If Sikong qian bei isn’t here, I will wait for a while. After all, the dao fruit is too precious, I don’t trust giving it to you.” Ye Mo said loudly.

The Dao Moulding Divine Emperor said plainly “In that case leave, we don’t welcome liars here.”

There was faint killing intent on the Dao Moulding Divine Emperor and Ye Mo could feel it. he was certain that as soon as they leave, there would be someone to stop them.

“Since they don’t want dao fruit, I’m going. Brother Du, didn’t you say that Sikong qian bei was collecting dao fruits? I finally found one and now they said they don’t want it.” Ye Mo’s voice was not only loud but also carried some god essence.

The Dao Moulding Divine Emperor was furious but before he could continue, a plain voice sounded “Who said I didn’t want dao fruit?”

“Sikong qian bei.” The Dao Moulding Divine Emperor quickly bowed.

A grey robed skinny man appeared before the three and moments later, two more people came.

Ye Mo’s eyes spasmed. Although he knew Sikong Shan would probably notice if he said dao fruit loudly but when Sikong Shan came up to him, he realised how terrifying he was.

His spirit sense has been watching the surrounding but despite this, he didn’t notice at all when Sikong Shan came before them. He didn’t even notice the two people behind Sikong Shan. One could see how pitiful his power was to a Dao Essence Divine Emperor.

That Dao Moulding Divine Emperor bowed and didn’t even dare to stand up. He couldn’t even control the sweat going down his back. This wasn’t just fear but a powerful dao rune pressure.

Chapter 2030: Suspicious

That skinny man ignored the scared Dao Moulding Divine Emperor and just stared at Ye Mo seriously and asked "I'm Sikong Shan, you called me over because you have a dao fruit?"

Ye Mo knew his schemes couldn't trick this person so he said "Ye Mo greet qian bei. Wan bei said that loudly because wan bei knows that only if I deliver the dao fruit to qian bei personally would I get a chance to enter the dao discussion grounds."

Ye Mo didn't say that if he didn't hand it to Sikong Shan personally, the dao fruit probably would be robbed away but he was hinting to this.

Seeing Ye Mo didn't argue, Sikong Shan nodded "Take out your dao fruit."

He knew what Ye Mo meant and knew it was the truth but he was about to go vindicate primordial essence so he wasn't going to hassle with these families over this.

Ye Mo immediately took out the jade box containing golden bell buddhist fruit to Sikong Shan. Sikong Shan didn't promise anything but Ye Mo had to take it out. Even if Sikong Shan took the dao fruit and didn't want to do anything, Ye Mo would have to suck it up.

"Hmm..." Sikong Shan opened the jade box and immediately shut it. there was extreme surprise and joy on his face.

He didn't expect he had such huge fortune. Ye Mo gave him golden bell buddhist fruit. This was one of the top dao fruits. Only an outsider like Ye Mo would think that if you didn't cultivate buddhist god art you didn't need this dao fruit.

The fruit was extremely useful to anyone. It not only had buddhist dao power but also a sliver of buddhist source power.

Any dao fruit that had source power was the highest level of dao fruit.

“Great, great...” Sikong Shan said and put away the jade box. He was extremely happy. Even if he got nothing out of this dao discussion, just this buddhist dao fruit would be enough.

“You cultivate buddhist dao and yet can take out this dao fruit. You’re rather genuine...” Sikong Shan didn’t doubt Ye Mo’s appearance. His spirit sense checked Ye Mo’s storage ring.

Ye Mo knew that if he took out dao fruit, people might check his storage ring so he changed the restriction to an ordinary one. Otherwise, Sikong Shan might not be able to check it.

After checking Ye Mo’s storage ring, Sikong Shan was even happier. Although there were good things inside, this buddhist fruit was the most precious. He didn’t suspect Ye Mo would have a second fruit as each tree only had one fruit.

“It seems you desperately want to vindicate dao. I’ll take this dao fruit, tell me what you want.” Sikong Shan smiled.

Ye Mo rejoiced and quickly bowed “Wan bei and friend Du Qixi want to listen to qian bei’s dao discussion and also hope that qian bei would take wan bei to God Necropolis Domain border.”

Sikong Shan nodded “These two requests aren’t too bad. I agree. Go inside. After the dao discussion, I will add you to the list and take you to the God Necropolis Domain border.”

“Thank you qian bei.” Ye Mo rejoiced and thanked.

Sikong Shan nodded slightly and disappeared.

Ye Mo knew the dao discussion haven’t started but he could go in now. He looked at that Dao Moulding Divine Emperor and said “Open the restriction, I’m going in with my friend.”

The Dao Moulding Divine Emperor’s face was green but he had to do this and let them in.

“Idiot.” That Dao Moulding Divine Emperor cursed. Only an idiot would take out a dao fruit just to enter the dao discussion square.

“Wait...” A crisp voice called out behind Ye Mo.

Ye Mo’s heart sunk, he could tell this voice was Taba Feiyang’s martial sister. He looked at the half divine woman and asked “immortal goddess, were you talking to me?”

The woman’s face changed and reproached “I’m not from Immortal Goddess Sacred Sect. Be careful of your words monk.”

Ye Mo cursed. He just said that out of a respect but he didn’t realise that immortal goddess had to be from that specific sect.

Du Qixi quickly sound transmissioned to Ye Mo “You must not call those not from Immortal Goddess Sacred Sect immortal goddess, just call them goddess. She is Shan Du god estate young mistress Shan Yingyao. She’s not easy to mess with.”

Ye Mo immediately realised and saluted with his fists “What business does goddess have with monk?”

Shan Yingyao’s face eased and stared at Ye Mo asking coldly “I’ve never seen you in the city before? Did you just come here?”

Ye Mo was shocked. The woman must’ve realised he was different. Luckily, he didn’t keep using Taba Feiyang’s disguise or he would’ve been dead. She probably recognized the fake Taba Feiyang already.

“Yes I’m indeed from somewhere else. Brother Du told me that there was a divine emperor dao discussion here and told me to come. I hurried and luckily came on time.” Ye Mo said.

Shan Yingyao glanced at Du Qixi. She knew him but didn’t expect this monk was his friend.

“There are limited spots to go in, how did you get in?”

Shan Yingyao asked.

“He got a dao fruit and Sikong Qian bei came here...” The Dao Moulding Divine Emperor guard wanted to suck up to Shan Yingyao and explained.

“Dao fruit?” Shan Yingyao looked at Ye Mo in shock and said “You’re quite lucky.”

She felt Ye Mo had this familiar chi but she couldn’t tell what it was. Her cultivation method and talent was unique and could easily discern chi. That’s why she stopped Ye Mo. Luckily Ye Mo acted as a monk. She couldn’t think of when she had seen a monk no matter how hard she thought.

In an extremely ancient palace, a yellow bearded man was furious. He just got news that the little dragon he kept in the city was taken away. This person who took him away had a dao fruit and gave it to Sikong Shan. He even got the promise to be taken to God Necropolis Domain border.

“Lord, we definitely have nothing we can do now that the person is entering the dao discussion square. But since he’s going to the God Necropolis Domain border, our Zhu Dragon god tower has someone going there too. The city lord Zhongsun Xinhuai’s son and Chi Xiao god corner’s master Hong Haoyan would all be going. If we contact them and give them some benefit, that Ye Mo would never be able to escape.”

A woman beside the man said calmly.

The yellow bearded man nodded “Okay, we’ll do this, there’s one day before the dao discussion starts. Go contact these people first.”

...

Shan Yingyao stayed here to wait for the person acting as Taba Feiyang. But she knew there was a very small chance that guy came.

After entering the dao discussion area, Ye Mo realised this place was no difference to any wilderness. There were already tens of people sitting on cushions.

Ye Mo and Du Qixi found a distant place to stay and then Ye Mo asked "Brother Du, is that Shan Yingyao not simple?"

Du Qixi nodded "That's right, she comes from Shan Du god estate. There's a dao actualization powerful being there. She's really loved in the estate and no one dares to mess with him. If I'm not wrong, she will definitely get a chance to go to God Necropolis Domain border. So you need to be careful not to offend her."
