Chapter 221: Being Serious

He fantasized a while and was troubled again. Runes were hard to make and costed a lot to produce.

There were no demon beast blood here, but he could replace it with ferocious beast blood. The main thing was that it took too much time. Last time, Ye Mo took a month to make 8 runes, but 8 weakened fireball runes wouldn't be able to do anything to that nun.

Although it was related to his cultivation level at the time, Ye Mo didn't think he could make very much a day.

Ye Mo thought for a long time and couldn't think of a better way to protect himself. He couldn't improve his power, so he could only improve his equipments. It seemed that he wouldn't be able to see Susu today, but it was fine that he knew she was here. He needed to go back and make some preparations.

Thinking about this, Ye Mo came back the way he came from. He decided to make runes first and bring large amounts of runes to find trouble with Jing Xi.

He needed large amounts of money to make runes, but he didn't have much now. Last time, he cured Zhuo Aiguo's uncle's disease, but he was embarrassed to ask for money. Now, he realized how much he needed money.

But Ye Mo had some ways for getting beast blood. He searched Wu Liang mountain the entire night and hunted a leopard and a deer. Their blood was enough.

Then, Ye Mo left Wuliang Mountain and came to Yu Yuan City.

It wasn't too far from Wuliang Mountain. Ye Mo bought large amounts of Yellow Biao Paper and some Red Ink Sand before buying a brush. He spent the only money he had on him.

He wanted to call Er Hu and ask if he had money, but thinking about it, Ye Mo gave up the idea. He wasn't at Luo Cang, and Er Hu's business must not be going well. Perhaps they didn't even get one single order. This was possible. If Er Hu knew he needed money, he would give Er Hu mental burden. He should use up the materials he had first.

Ye Mo found a hotel and hung up the sign do not disturb before starting to focus on making runes.

Although his idea was good, reality disappointed him. After a whole day, he wasted 20 sets of materials but only made 6. Although it was countless times better than before, Ye Mo was still very unhappy with the result.

The 2nd and 3rd day were slightly better. He made 16 altogether, but he wasted more. If things continued like this, Ye Mo felt it wasn't going to work out. First, he expended materials too fast, second, it was too slow.

The fourth day, the 100 sets of materials Ye Mo prepared only had 20 left. He felt things weren't going to work. If he couldn't improve the means he made the runes, he would need to gather more money. Making runes was a money burning thing.

She had never met him before, but he wanted her to trick someone she didn't know. A sense of disgust rose from her heart; Tang Beiwei couldn't even be bothered to look at the middle-aged man as she said, "Sorry, I'm not interested." Then, she turned to leave.

The middle-aged man didn't even move as he slowly said, "According to what I know, if your mother doesn't have surgery soon, she would last half a month at most. Think about it, how hard was it for her to bring you up? When you're finally grown up, she needs to leave. If you don't have a way, never mind, but you do have a way to save her now, but you don't choose it. Ask yourself, are you treating her right?"

"You..." Tang Beiwei turned around and looked at the man in fury, "You want me to trick someone I don't know? I'm not treating my sense of moral right."

"Hmph." The middle aged man sneered. "Do you think we can't choose other people? I'll be honest with you, I pity you, that's why I chose you. This is very simple. You just need to bring that man to a place, and you don't need to worry about the rest. This isn't tricking, if he really likes you, at most, you told him a lie once."

Tang Beiwei's face changed drastically; she detested the man in front of her, but she knew he was saying the truth. If her mother didn't get surgery, she would last 2 weeks at most.

Thinking about how her mum brought her up, pushing a small trolley to do business regardless of the wind or the rain, Tang Beiwei felt her heart was bleeding.

She hesitated for a long time before asking, "Take him to where?"

Ye Mo walked out of the hotel and pondered. There was a way to get money, but since Qingxue was living at Ning Hai, she must not have much on her. How about he borrow some from Jingwen, she was a wealthy girl, shouldn't it be a problem?

But then it was hard for him to ask a girl for money. Ye Mo thought and still couldn't make up his mind. He took out a jade artefact and looked. He decided to go to the magic artefact shop and see if he could sell it for a good price; if no one could tell its worth, he would then borrow from Su Jingwen.

On the opposite side of the street, a middle-aged woman pushed a small trolley with food. She was selling snacks for night. A car drove past quickly with the markings city management on it. She quickly packed up her stall, but she accidentally spilt all the sauces on the ground.

The middle-aged woman looked anxiously as the car drove past. She gasped a sigh of relief and then slowly started to pick up the things on the ground. Although no one helped her, a girl in her 20s came in front of the stall and helped her pick things up. Ye Mo smiled and thought this girl had a good heart.

The magic artefact shop wasn't far from Ye Mo's hotel. He just walked a few minutes and he already arrived. The place was a small building, but Ye Mo didn't feel any sense of spirit at all from afar. He knew it wasn't very good and hesitated if he could sell his jade.

And, opposite this shop was a bar; from a business point of view, it was very unreasonable.

"Sir, would you like to buy magic artefact?" As soon as Ye Mo walked in, a girl in her 20s came and asked.

Ye Mo smiled/ "I'll take a look first."

"Okay, please take your time." The girl was very polite, but Ye Mo knew no matter how polite she was, not much customers would come if there were no real things.

Ye Mo scanned and was disappointed. These were worse than the ones from the social night. It could be said none of them were real.

In this situation, it would be impossible for the boss to pay him a high price. Ye Mo thought so and he knew he shouldn't even bother.

Just when Ye Mo turned his head and walked out of the shop, he saw the girl who helped the middle-aged woman pick things up being harassed into a bar by two youths who had their hair dyed like a ghost.

The girl was struggling, so it was obvious she was being forced.

Ye Mo frowned, this was a legal society, so how could this happen in broad daylight? Ye Mo knew about this, but it wasn't even dark yet.

He had a good impression of this good-hearted girl and was prepared to help her throw the two youth away, but he scanned his spirit sense and stopped his actions.

Although the girl was pulled in by the two youth and her head was low while struggling, Ye Mo could scan the corner of her eye. There was no fear nor anger and worry. Her eyes were full of guilt, deep guilt.

She was being abducted but felt guilty? Ye Mo shook his head, he saw it clearly with his spirit sense. What was this? Her abnormal eyes made Ye Mo hesitate, so he didn't go up to save her.

Ye Mo walked slowly towards the door of the bar but kept his spirit sense to the girl. The two youth pulled her into a private room and slammed the door shut.

Ye Mo didn't come save her. Tang Beiwei felt relieved but disappointed. The good looking youth had such little courage. However, since he didn't take the bait, she couldn't be blamed.

Rip, a large part of Tang Beiwei's top was ripped down, showing large pieces of snowy white skin.

"Stop, what are you doing? Stop!" Tang Beiwei's eyes showed worry, wasn't this an act? Why was it real now?

"Haha, stop, do you think someone I, Wang Xianxian, is interested in can run away?" A small door opened in the room and a youth walked out.

Tang Beiwei angrily broke free of one hand and said, "I had a business deal with Wei Yongqian, he told me to come and act, let me go."

"Haha, act!" Wang Xianxian laughed again. "Do you like acting? Very well, Lang Pi show something, let me and this chick watch while we act. This watery-eyed girl, my money is well spent."

The red-haired youth that grabbed Tang Beiwei agreed and let her go. Then, he took out a remote and the tv immediately showed a pair of nude male and female, yelling and moaning.

Chapter 222: Struggle

Just when Ye Mo was suspicious, he saw the girl had a large piece of her clothes ripped off and her eyes started becoming fearful and worried. It was no longer the guilt from before, what was this? Did he see wrong before?

At this moment, Tang Beiwei realized she might have been sold, and Ye Mo didn't follow her. The people in here were being real. There was no doubt about it. She broke free of one person and rushed to the door. Wang Xianxian quickly came up and pulled her.

"You want to go? I've paid money, you haven't paid for that yet, don't think about running."

"Animal, let me go, if you pull me again, I'm going to call the police." Why was she so stupid? She was tricked to a city she had never been before to trick someone else, was this karma?

Rip, another piece of her clothes was ripped off, and her face was now full of despair.

"Brother Wang, enjoy her first, we'll go out to ease some fire too." The two youth saw the scene on the TV get spicier and was burning with lust.

Before Wang Xianxian spoke, a voice replied, "Since you came, you don't need to leave."

"Who?" Everyone in the room looked towards the door as though in tacit agreement. A young man appeared there. No one knew when he came in.

Tang Beiwei immediately recognized that youth was the person she was supposed to trick. He was called Ye Mo; she didn't expect him to really fall for it. She took the opportunity to hide behind Ye Mo cursing Wei Yongqian over and over again. She was also tricked by him, so she would reveal all of his evil plans later.

"Who are you? Don't you know this is my territory, punk, piss off, don't piss me off." Wang Xianxian was full of anger being interrupted when he was about to enjoy life.

Ye Mo raised his leg and kicked Wang Xianxian into the room, then kicked the other two in as well. The three couldn't resist at all.

Ye Mo turned to Tang Beiwei and said, "Wait for me, I'll ask them a few questions inside."

Then, Ye Mo went in and closed the door.

At this moment, the three finally realized Ye Mo was a tough guy.

Ye Mo scanned the three and suddenly threw out 2 fireballs burning the two lackeys into dust. They didn't even have time to scream. Then, Ye Mo sat and looked coldly at Wang Xian. "You have 3 seconds, if you don't tell me the full story, you will be like that too."

Wang Xianxian looked at his two lackeys turn to dust in terror. His teeth were rattling, and he couldn't say a complete sentence. He had never seen this sort of thing before. Two fireballs and people were dead. There wasn't even a body left.

"If you're not going to speak, then don't." Then, Ye Mo had another fire ball in his hand.

Wang Xianxian controlled his shaking and said, "Don't... we tricked that girl from another city... originally, she came to be my head slut... I didn't think..."

Wang Xianxian didn't need to say the rest and Ye Mo already guessed it. That girl was probably tricked here from another city to be sold here as a prostitute. He shook his head and turned Wang Xianxian to ash with a raise of his hand.

When Ye Mo had walked out of the room, Tang Beiwei had regained her composure, but her face was still pale. She had pulled the plug of the TV, but her clothes were still ripped. Even though she used her hands, she still couldn't cover it.

Ye Mo took out a shirt of his and passed it to her. "Put that on and we can talk outside."

The girl quickly put on the clothes and didn't even notice where the clothes came from. She just said to Ye Mo gratefully, "Thank you for just then, I..."

Ye Mo waved his hand. "Go out first."

"But outside?" although Tang Beiwei didn't know what Ye Mo did to the three inside, there were still a lot of people outside.

Ye Mo smiled. "Don't talk, just stay by my side."

Then, Ye Mo used invisibility, cloaking him and Tang Beiwei. He walked out of the room and closed the door.

Tang Beiwei didn't know she was invisible but looked at the passing by people. No one seemed to notice them and they just waltzed out of the bar.

Then, Ye Mo took off the invisibility and asked, "What happened just then?"

Tang Beiwei pouted her lips and said, "I have something important to tell you, take me to a far away place?"

Ye Mo frowned his brows; he had never seen Tang Beiwei before, so where did this important thing come from? He immediately shook his head and said, "No need, I still have things to do, you're out of danger, leave quickly."

Seeing that Ye Mo was going to go, Tang Beiwei was a bit worried. She wanted to tell Ye Mo about Wei Yongqian trying to harm him, but at this moment, her phone rung again.

"It's you..." Tang Beiwei said hatefully.

Wei Yongqian's plain voice sounded, "Your mother is doing a pre surgical check up. I believe you should understand. I didn't tell Wang Xianxian about this, because he's just a lackey, it's impossible for him to act. So it had to be real. Plus, if he couldn't beat Ye Mo, he would spoil our plan, but we wouldn't let Wang Xianxian do anything to you. If Ye Mo didn't go in past a certain time, our men would go in so don't blame me." Wei Yongqian seemed to know Tang Beiwei would succumb and his voice was always so calm.

"Wei Yongqian, I'm not doing it, I will earn money for my mother myself, animal." Tang Beiwei was about to hang up.

Wei Yongqian dazed, he didn't expect Tang Beiwei to call it quits just when they were about to succeed. He quickly said: "the doctors checked and said if your mother didn't do surgery now, she wouldn't even last a week. Your mother isn't far, if you don't believe me, I can give the phone to her and let her talk.

"Plus, do you think you can amass 300k for the surgery in a week? Stop dreaming, you have succeeded half now, you just need to bring him to the place on the 27th, and your mother would be saved. Think about it. If you regret it, your mother will leave the surgical table immediately..."

Tang Beiwei helplessly put down the phone and looked at Ye Mo who was not far away. She couldn't calm down at all. If she regretted, she would be giving away her mother's life. Just thinking about her mother's thin like stick body gave her pain. Her mother was like that due to her. How could she kill her mother's last hope for survival?

Ye Mo looked at Tang Beiwei. This girl was strange; he saved her, but she didn't leave and still stayed here being indecisive.

Tang Beiwei hesitated for a long time. Her love for her mother took the upper hand. She had a good impression to Ye Mo. If possible, she would give her first time to him to repay him saving her life. Plus, she believed Ye Mo wouldn't be in danger even if she brought Ye Mo there. She didn't believe Wei Yongqian dared to kill.

Tang Beiwei chased up to Ye Mo and worriedly said, "Brother, thank you for saving me, but I'm still a little scared, and I don't have money on me, not even money for a ticket..."

Ye Mo studied Tang Beiwei, she did look not very wealthy and her phone was very old styled too. He really didn't know why she came here.

"I don't have money either, I can't help you with this." Ye Mo shook his head. He really didn't have money; he forgot to search their pockets before.

Tang Beiwei looked at Ye Mo's clothes, it wasn't bad? How could he not have money? But since she made up her mind, she couldn't go back again. She quickly said: "Big brother, I need to go to my grandma; as long as I go to her place, I will have money to go back."

Ye Mo looked at Tang Beiwei. He had this constant feeling that this girl was acting weird. She had escaped death, but why did she keep sticking to him, plus she had those weird eyes before.

Seeing Ye Mo not talk, Tang Beiwei's pale face was a little red, she quickly said, "Big brother, sorry, I really don't know anyone here. You saved me, I should leave immediately, but I..."

Then, Tang Beiwei eyes reddened, she really wanted to cry. Someone saved her, but she was trying to trick him. Although she didn't want to harm Ye Mo, she also couldn't face her helpless mother. She felt it was so hard. If she was just by herself, she wouldn't follow Ye Mo so shamelessly.

"Stop..." Ye Mo saw Tang Beiwei was about to cry and quickly told her to stop. He was scared of women's tears the most. After a while, he said, "What's your name? Where is your grandma?"

Tang Beiwei wiped her eyes before helplessly saying, "I'm Tang Beiwei, my grandma is in Wuliang Mountain. Big brother, I don't know your name yet...."

"Wuliang Mountain?" Ye Mo repeated and asked, "I'm Ye Mo, is your grandma doing business at the tourist places at Wuliang Mountain?"

Tang Beiwei shook her head. "No, Brother Ye, the place she's living at is a bit far off."

Ye Mo didn't ask and said, "I don't have money recently either but follow me first. I'll see if I can earn some money and give you some. I don't have time to go find your grandma with you. I'm really busy, I can't help you with this."

Ye Mo was kind-hearted and had a good impression of this very soft and good looking Tang Beiwei, but he really couldn't pull out time to go with her to find her grandma.

Chapter 223: Bottom Line

Ye Mo brought Tang Beiwei to a hotel and walked to the reception and said, "Can you get me another room, I'll give you the bond tomorrow."

The girl looked at Ye Mo and then looked at Tang Beiwei behind him. She talked as though she had never seen Ye Mo before. "Sorry, sir, you need to pay if you wish to book another room."

Ye Mo didn't think the reception would be so stingy, he had been living here for four days already.

Just when Ye Mo wanted to talk, he was pulled by Tang Beiwei, "Brother Ye, I'll share a room with you tonight, don't spend more money."

Ye Mo thought so too; he was going to be making runes at night, so he wouldn't be sleeping anyways. He could leave the bed to Tang Beiwei. Now that Tang Beiwei said this, he didn't want to waste time talking to the reception and nodded. "In that case, let's go up first."

Tang Beiwei followed to Ye Mo's room and saw it was a single bed room. She felt this sorrow for some reason. Although she was very grateful to Ye Mo and have decided to give her first time to him to compensate for tricking him when he saved her, but when she was really about to face it, she couldn't accept it.

But since Ye Mo could bring her to this room, that meant he had that thought too. If he didn't, why did he bring a single girl into a single room?

When Tang Beiwei was taking a shower, Ye Mo organized the materials. There were still 20 sets. Ye Mo took out the phone and hesitated a long time. He still couldn't decide if he was going to call Su Jingwen. He sighed and thought he should wait till tomorrow. There were 20 left, and it was enough for the night.

She used a towel to wrap her body, but her long white legs still showed. She had a very slim figure, rendering this stunning sense of enticement.

However, Ye Mo didn't have any feelings at all. It was as though Tang Beiwei wasn't as seductive as Jing Xi. He looked curiously at Tang Beiwei and said, "You finished the shower, then go and sleep on the bed."

Ye Mo thought she was going to thank him first, but she just agreed and went to the bed. Ye Mo shook his head; she really wasn't going to act polite.

Tang Beiwei slept on the bed with her heart thumping. She didn't know when Ye Mo would come. She felt shaky. She wanted Ye Mo to come early, and after it was done, she would feel less guilty. Tang Beiwei's heart was nervous and conflicted, plus, she had been quite stressed lately, so she fell asleep unknowingly.

Seeing Tang Beiwei had fallen asleep, Ye Mo started to make runes again. Although he tried to be careful and not waste materials. A night was over and he only made 7 from 20 sets of materials. The success rate was still less than a third.

He rested for a long while before sighing. He packed up the things and took a shower. It was almost dawn, and he knew he had to borrow money. If he didn't, it was impossible to beat Jing Xi with the 30 runes he made. Plus, there might be more than one with Jing Xi's strength.

Tang Beiwei slept very comfortably. She opened her eyes but didn't see anyone beside her. Ye Mo didn't sleep on the bed last night. She sat up subconsciously and realized her clothes were fine, untouched. The blanket slid down and she quickly pulled.

Ye Mo saw Tang Beiwei sit up. He came over and said, "I need to go out for a bit, don't run around after you get up. Wait till I get some money."

Ye Mo knew that he killed 3 people last night, and although no one knew what happened last night, if they didn't appear for so long, it would arouse suspicion.

"You didn't sleep on the bed last night?" Tang Beiwei asked in surprise. Ye Mo's words made her feel warm and more guilty.

"No, I was doing things last night," Ye Mo casually said.

"Huh..." Tang Beiwei was worried. Ye Mo didn't take her last night; it was going to be daylight soon, what should she do? Today was the 25th already.

"Brother Ye, can you come up and stay with me for a bit? I..." Tang Beiwei said such embarrassing words for the first time. She felt her body shake heavily.

Ye Mo looked strangely at Tang Beiwei and thought did he look wrong? What else could it be for a girl to ask a man to sleep with her?

Seeing Ye Mo shake his head, Tang Beiwei was worried and pulled his hand. "Sorry, Brother Ye, this is my first time, I , I want to give it to you..."

After saying this, she was full of sweat, and her face was indescribably red. She would've never thought she would say something so shameless. However, she had no experience in seducing men and could only express it so straightforwardly.

Ye Mo grabbed her wrist. Tang Beiwei felt relieved; he was finally going to take it. She didn't know if she was disappointed or happy. There were all sorts of feelings, but she didn't dare to look at Ye Mo.

Ye Mo noticed the bracelet on Tang Beiwei's wrist. It was the exact same one his sister gave him, what was this?

Tang Beiwei's hand was grabbed by Ye Mo, but she didn't see him do anything for a long while. The rudeness retreated, and she looked up strangely at Ye Mo.

"Brother Ye...." Tang Beiwei called out quietly. Her impression of Ye Mo was getting better and better. If it was a normal person, he probably would've done something already. She was the prettiest girl in her school, but Ye Mo still didn't do anything

Ye Mo sighed. "Tang Beiwei, can you tell me where you got your bracelet from?"

"Huh..." She knew now that Ye Mo grabbed her wrist because he was looking at her bracelet. This was the thing left behind by her mother to recognize her brother, did he like it? If he did, she would give it to him.

Thinking about this, Tang Beiwei took it off and gave it to Ye Mo. "My mum gave this to me not long ago, Brother Ye, you saved me, you don't want me, but if you like this bracelet, then take it."

Ye Mo took the bracelet and looked at it carefully. It was indeed the same as his bracelet. The jade and imprints were the same, there was no difference.

He passed the bracelet to Tang Beiwei and smiled. "Sleep for a while more, I'm not trying to take your bracelet, just having a look."

Tang Beiwei took the bracelet in confusion. She didn't understand what Ye Mo meant. Did he really have no intentions for her? Was she not good looking enough for him? If there was anything Tang Beiwei had to be proud of, it was her looks. She never thought she looked worse than anyone.

Ye Mo picked up the phone and was about to call Ye Ling about the bracelet, but he realized his phone was out of battery, so he put it aside to charge. Then, he walked to Tang Beiwei's bedside and said, "Can you lend me your phone?"

"Huh..." Tang Beiwei saw Ye Mo walk over and her heart started thumping again. However, she didn't expect Ye Mo to be just borrowing her phone as she quickly said, "Okay, here." Then, she passed the phone beside her pillow to Ye Mo.

Ye Mo remembered Ye Ling's number and he dialled it. However, the info that appeared made Ye Mo freeze. After he dialled the number, the words Ye Mo's girlfriend came up.

Tang Beiwei knew Ye Ling? No, since she wrote Ye Mo's Girlfriend, it meant that she had heard of him, but she asked him for his name before. This girl was acting, Ye Mo looked coldly at Tang Beiwei and hung up for now.

Tang Beiwei was looking at Ye Mo while thinking. But now, Ye Mo suddenly looked at her and his eyes were very cold. She shivered subconsciously. Ye Mo's eyes were too cold. From yesterday till now, she had never seen such cold eyes from Ye Mo.

Ye Mo walked up to Tang Beiwei's bed and pulled away her blanket, revealing the wonderful body of hers that only had lingerie on. However, Ye Mo acted as though he didn't see it, he grabbed her up and walked to the window and coldly said, "This is the sixth floor, if you say one lie, I will throw you down immediately. Tell me, why did you find me intentionally, what is it?"

Tang Beiwei still didn't wake up from the shock, but when Ye Mo asked her, she realized it. She looked at herself just wearing lingerie on, but was carried by Ye Mo's hand. She was very embarrassed. Her eyes went red and tears gushed out once again.

Ye Mo didn't seem to see it and coldly said once again, "You have one minute, if you don't talk, then don't blame me."

"Throw me down, I, I..." Tang Beiwei had this sudden sense of being wronged. Instead of living like this, she might as well die. When her mother died, she could stay with her mother. Why live in the world and be abused.

Ye Mo looked at Tang Beiwei in surprise; she didn't even fear death, was there a crueller plan?

Ye Ling was his sister, and that was his bottom line. They dared to touch her, then don't blame him. No matter what, he had to investigate this clear.

He threw Tang Beiwei on the bed once again and coldly said, "Tell me everything, what do you want with me and who sent you?"

Chapter 224: Discovering the Evil Plan

Tang Beiwei pouted her lips and sat on the ground. She didn't care about how she looked but just didn't say a word. She hated Ye Mo; her original good impression of Ye Mo was gone immediately. This person was so barbaric, not caring she was a girl at all and just carried her by the neck. No wonder someone was targeting him, served him right.

Ye Mo sneered; the only reason he didn't use forceful interrogation was because she had a bracelet.

"I don't know why you have my sister's number saved or why you purposely came close to me. I just know that I won't let the person live no matter who tries to touch my sister. I admit your acting skills are quite good, you even tricked even me. I'll give you another minute, if you don't talk, then don't blame me for using force." Ye Mo's voice was getting colder and colder.

Tang Beiwei looked up in surprise. "Who did you say is your sister? When do I know your sister?"

Just when Ye Mo wanted to rage, he saw Tang Beiwei didn't seem to be lying, so he sneered and said, "The one saved as Ye Mo's girlfriend on your phone is my sister. Not only did you record my sister's number, but you also tried to get close to me, what do you want?"

Tang Beiwei was caught off guard; she subconsciously wanted to stand up but immediately realized her situation and quickly covered herself with the blanket. She frowned and didn't talk.

Ye Mo stared deadly at Tang Beiwei. If she tried to play any tricks, he would start using forceful interrogation.

Tang Beiwei didn't know why Wei Yongqian said Ye Mo's sister was his girlfriend. However, no matter what, Tang Beiwei knew Wei Yongqian was tricking her. From today till now, he had been lying to her the whole time.

Tang Beiwei had decided to spill everything. When she look up, she saw Ye Mo giving her a deadly stare. Tang Beiwei subconsciously covered her chest.

Ye Mo sneered. "You don't need to worry, I'm not interested in you, don't need to keep acting."

Tang Beiwei's face grew more pale but didn't rebuke Ye Mo's words; she rubbed her eyes and said, "A few days ago, a person called Wei Yongqian found me and said you stole someone's girlfriend, and that person wants to teach you a lesson. So they told me to get close to you, even if I can't be your girlfriend, I needed to get close to you and best..."

"Get in bed with me, right? You don't need to stutter, I didn't see you being shy before." Ye Mo sneered.

Tang Beiwei bit her lips till blood came out but she didn't notice it at all. She continued, "Yes, then I'm to take you somewhere and that person would bring your girlfriend there too. Your girlfriend would call me, and I would tell her the place. Then, she would see me being intimate with you, and that way, your girlfriend could see who you really are and then, I would get intimate with other men in front of you in order to make you..."

"Take my life right?" Ye Mo's voice was really cold, making Tang Beiwei shiver.

Tang Beiwei quickly shook her head. "No, they said they would beat you up at most and injure you. They want to make you feel despair, make your girlfriend feel despair to you..."

Tang Beiwei spoke till now and didn't even believe it herself, would these people really do that? Wei Yongqian had lied to her a few times already, could his words be trusted?

"Hmph...." Ye Mo was sure that these people not only wanted his life but also Ye Ling's too. Perhaps they would rape her in front of him to make him lose his marbles. Ye Mo sneered. "I wonder how much your first time was sold for? Oh, right, perhaps it's not your first time, who knows how many times you have been sold?"

Because Ye Ling's life was on the line, it was the first time Ye Mo spoke so harshly to a girl.

Tang Beiwei opened her mouth and spat out blood. Her face was pale like paper, but she bit her teeth not wanting to say a word.

She had tricked him already, so he could do whatever he wanted to her. She could only blame herself for having such a harsh life. Anyone could step on her dignity and life. She had no parents anyways. Although she tricked him too, she was taking the most precious thing she had to compensate him, was this not enough?

Ye Mo saw that Tang Beiwei spat out blood being angered by him so much and couldn't bother to look at her. Although she was pitiful, she was more detestable.

Ye Mo picked up the phone and called Ye Ling.

"Brother, why did you call, I haven't been able to contact you," Ye Ling's crisp voice sounded, making Ye Mo feel relieved.

"Mm, I'll be coming back soon, has someone been calling you recently to come out?" Ye Mo asked immediately.

Ye Ling's voice quickly sounded, "No, what's wrong?"

"Good, listen, if I want to find you, I will call you myself. If someone else calls you, don't believe them, do you understand? And, my phone won't be shut recently, call me immediately if something happens," Ye Mo warned.

Ye Ling knew that she didn't know about a lot of Ye Mo's things and worriedly asked, "I understand, are you alright, brother?"

"I'm fine, I need to ask you one thing, can you tell me more specifically about the bracelet you gave me last time?"

Ye Ling didn't know why Ye Mo suddenly asked about this. She hesitated for a moment before saying, "Second brother gave this to you saying your mother left it behind. I don't know the specifics."

Ye Mo hung up the phone in disappointment. He expected this answer, but he was still disappointed.

To be honest, he came from a different world, so he didn't really care about the bracelet that much. But today, he saw the same bracelet and that reminded him of this again.

Ye Mo walked in front of Tang Beiwei and looked at the blood she spat as well as her pale face. He suddenly thought had he been too harsh.

"Draw out the place Wei Yongqian told you to bring me to." Then, Ye Mo gave Tang Beiwei pen and paper.

Tang Beiwei was like a doll and didn't move at all.

Ye Mo sneered. "I know even if you don't say, is it at a distant place? Tricking my sister and I there and then kill us? You're very smart, do you think these people would let you go after killing us? You're too naïve. I don't know what they promised you, but I can surely tell you, stop dreaming."

Tang Beiwei's dead eyes seemed to move a little. She looked up subconsciously and numbly said to Ye Mo, "I never wanted to kill you nor harm your sister. Those people just want to take revenge on you, kill..." Tang Beiwei had a jeer on her face but didn't say anything. It was a legal society now, could they kill easily?

Ye Mo was thinking, who wanted to trick him there? The Song Family or someone else? The Song Family had the guts? Ye Mo sneered, if one didn't kill the snake, he would be harmed by it. Regardless of whether it was the Song Family, he needed to go to Beijing and end this. He wasn't afraid of them, but what about the people he cared about?

But why did these people choose Tang Beiwei? He took a good look at her face. Although her face was numb and swollen, he saw that she was a girl that was as pretty as Su Jingwen. It was just that she didn't put on any make up. She didn't even draw her brows, but there was a sense of natural beauty.

Ye Mo took back his eyes, thinking these people were really sinister. He didn't know where they found her, but since Ye Ling was fine and he noticed this plan, his anger towards Tang Beiwei was gradually gone.

He stood up and looked at Tang Beiwei and said, "Whether you believe it or not, these people tricked me there to kill me so you owe me. If you still have conscience, then tell me. What did they promise you? And where did your bracelet come from."

Tang Beiwei was sure from Ye Mo's tone that what he said was true. Those people really wanted to kill him. Although Ye Mo was so vicious with his words just then, Tang Beiwei felt Ye Mo was more trustworthy than Wei Yongqian.

Perhaps it was because Ye Mo cared about his sister too much. When could she have a brother who cared about her like that? Her sister was really fortunate having a brother that cared about her so much. Then, Tang Beiwei thought about herself. She was a wild child. Other than a mother she lived with, no one else cared about her. All the people that tried to get close to her had all sorts of motives. They either lusted after her beauty or had sinister plans. Thinking about this, she couldn't help but shed tears.

Although she warned herself again and again that she couldn't shed tears in front of this mean person even if she died, but she couldn't help the feeling of sadness from sprawling up.

Ye Mo didn't force her again. He just coldly stood there, waiting for her to reply. Although he knew Tang Beiwei must've been tricked, he didn't sympathise her at all.

"Because my mum needs surgery, but I can't afford the money, so..." Tang Beiwei didn't continue.

Ye Mo had understood and regretted using those vicious words to attack her just then. He should forgive a girl who sold herself for her mother no matter what the reason.

Ye Mo's eyes eased up and his voice was no longer as cold as before. "Talk about that bracelet, my words were too serious before, sorry. However, you're so old already, how can you be tricked so easily? Seeing how you're desperate to save your mother, I won't hold it against you."

Chapter 225: Crying Out Loud

Tang Beiwei looked up at Ye Mo in shock. She seemed to be astonished by Ye Mo's calm temperament. Ever since he knew he was tricked by her, his tone had been getting colder and colder. This was the first time he talked to her with such tone. She felt a sense of being wronged and wanted to cry, but she knew that no matter how she felt wronged, she shouldn't cry in front of strangers again.

Seeing Tang Beiwei cry more and more, Ye Mo frowned but didn't say anything. He was waiting. Although he really wanted to go now, Tang Beiwei still hadn't told him about the bracelet, and he didn't want to just leave like that.

After a long while, Tang Beiwei calmed herself down and said, "The bracelet was given to me by my mother when she was really sick. She said I wasn't her biological daughter but was picked up from a temple 20 years ago. The bracelet was left behind before, and my mum said I was one of two children left there. Other than my mother, another couple took a child too. We would use these bracelets to recognize each other, so...."

Ye Mo was suddenly shocked. If what Tang Beiwei said was real, then wouldn't the other child be him? Was he really picked up from the temple? He thought about the DNA test at the Ye Family, that was actually real? His face suddenly paled. That meant that Tang Beiwei was his real sister but Ye Ling wasn't.

However, he just made her spit blood. Although his soul wasn't the original Ye Mo, he couldn't avoid the blood on him.

Tang Beiwei didn't look up at Ye Mo and said, "Ye Mo, although I wanted to harm you, I didn't get the chance to. Since you don't want me, if you like this bracelet, then take it. Treat it as my compensation. To me, I have no kin other than my mum. After mum leaves, there's no need for me to keep this bracelet..." Her voice got quieter until it was almost unheard.

For the first time, Ye Mo regretted what he did and said. Ever since he started cultivation, he had never regretted about anything. This time, he truly regretted. It was because Ye Ling was involved that he was so angry and his words became harsh.

Although he wasn't completely sure Tang Beiwei was his sister, Ye Mo was now deeply regretful towards his vulgarness.

Tang Beiwei looked down in melancholy but didn't notice Ye Mo move at all. She subconsciously looked up at Ye Mo. Ye Mo's face was very pale, perhaps even as pale as her.

"Ye..." Tang Beiwei forgot about her situation and forgot about how the man in front of her was so rude to her.

Ye Mo took a long sigh and stared at Tang Beiwei for a long while. Tang Beiwei couldn't take Ye Mo's look and looked down again. She didn't know what Ye Mo was going to do to her; she just didn't care anymore.

Ye Mo sat down, helped put a jacket on Tang Beiwei, and put his arm around her bring her to rest on him. Tang Beiwei was shocked, what happened to Ye Mo? He didn't seem to be right.

"Sorry, Beiwei, my words were too harsh, I apologize to you." Ye Mo thought Tang Beiwei was living quite a harsh life and felt more uncomfortable. His eyes gradually became cruel; no matter who tricked Tang Beiwei over and harmed her like this, he would scatter their bone dusts everywhere.

Then, Ye Mo took a sudden shiver, did that person know they were brothers and sister? If that was the case, this person was too cruel and scary.

Luckily, Ye Mo had his principle and had Luo Ying and Ning Qingxue in his heart. Otherwise, Ye Mo didn't dare to think about the consequences.

Ye Mo's eyes grew colder, such malevolent means. If it was really like this, he wouldn't be able to sleep unless this person was dead. There was such an animal in the world.

Tang Beiwei felt surprised at Ye Mo saying sorry for the second time, if the first time was casual, then this time, Tang Beiwei truly felt Ye Mo's apology. And, he changed to calling her Beiwei.

She laid in Ye Mo's arms and had this feeling of not wanting move. If only someone protected her like this all the time, she wouldn't need to be bullied everywhere.

Just when Tang Beiwei was thinking, she suddenly felt Ye Mo's body go cold. There was a killing intent from his bones. This made her shiver and suddenly leave Ye Mo.

Seeing Tang Beiwei look at him in terror, Ye Mo knew he spilt his killing intent. He took it back and took a medical pill and gave it to her, "Beiwei, eat this first, I'll help you strengthen your body.."

Tang Beiwei looked at the pill in surprise and thought for a while but still ate it. She didn't ask why; if Ye Mo was going to do something to her, she would concede her fate.

Then, Ye Mo took out needles to unblock all the meridians that was blocked due to her extreme sadness. Then, he helped her strengthen her body with spirit chi. Two hours later, he pulled out the needles with sweat all over his forehead.

Tang Beiwei also realized her body seemed to be full of power. She was full spirited and that depressing feeling in her heart was gone. She even felt very light and comfortable.

She saw that many impurities have been squeezed out from her pores and seemed to have realized something. Then, she looked at Ye Mo who sat on the bed full of sweat and had a pale face. Although she didn't know what Ye Mo did to her, she knew that Ye Mo used a lot of strength to help her improve her body.

Ye Mo opened his eyes and said to Tang Beiwei, "Go take a shower first, I will talk to you later."

Although she didn't understand what was happening, she went to take a shower quickly.

Ye Mo expended a lot of energy this time. Ye Mo had never helped anyone do this before even for Ning Qingxue. He did it this time for Tang Beiwei because he felt he owed her.

Ye Mo looked at the money he had left in the ring, barely tens of dollars. It seemed he couldn't avoid borrowing money. He didn't ask from Ye Ling because he knew she had no money now too.

Tang Beiwei took a shower for almost an hour. When she came out, she had switched clothes but the shirt was still Ye Mo's.

After she took a shower, she seemed to have had a complete makeover. Because Ye Mo cleansed her body and meridians, she had this indescribable noble temperament on her.

When she looked at herself in the mirror, she was also very shocked. She didn't know what Ye Mo did for her, but it must be something amazing. And Ye Mo didn't seem like an ordinary person too.

Ye Mo looked at Tang Beiwei and felt satisfied. Other than that sorrow that couldn't be washed away, she was completely different.

"What do you want to talk about with me?" Tang Beiwei had regained her composure. She buried the sorrow in her heart deeply. She had decided to go back to Tan Du immediately. If her mother really couldn't be cured, she would take her mum away and stay with her. She had done her best. Instead of being harassed everywhere, she might as well go back with her mother.

Ye Mo took out a bracelet and said, "I suspect we're brothers and sisters because I also have this bracelet."

Tang Beiwei suddenly started to shake. She jumped up abruptly and took the bracelet from Ye Mo's hands and compared it to hers. It was a pair.

Her red face became pale once again. Her hands were shaking, even her entire body was shaking. She didn't expect the kin she was supposed to find was the person torturing her. Before she knew who Ye Mo was, she could endure it, but now that she knew Ye Mo was probably her brother, she was about to collapse.

She wanted a brother who loved her and spoiled her, but she couldn't accept it when the reality was in front of her.

Tang Beiwei's face grew paler and paler. She suddenly took the bracelet and smashed it towards Ye Mo and dashed out of the door without saying a word.

There was a sense of despair flashing across Ye Mo's eyes. From a soul perspective, he didn't have any connections to Tang Beiwei, but this blood relation thing couldn't be severed.

Ye Mo chased out. He knew that Tang Beiwei must feel really bad now, but he didn't try to pull here. Perhaps after a while, she would feel better.

Tang Beiwei's brain was full of chaos. Ye Mo was actually her brother. She would rather never found her brother than have Ye Mo as her brother.

She almost did something unforgivable. If it wasn't that Ye Mo wasn't interested in her, she couldn't even imagine the consequences.

Tang Beiwei kept running. She hated Ye Mo; if he had the bracelet, why didn't he take it out earlier? There were so many people in the world, why did it have to be Ye Mo?

Tang Beiwei kept running forward tirelessly as though something ahead could set her free. Her brain was chaotic, she wasn't thinking.

Ye Mo followed behind her worriedly. He knew that Tang Beiwei needed to release her feelings, and after she calmed down, she would be able to accept things.

Ye Mo stopped. He saw Tang Beiwei go up the elevator. It was a glass elevator, when Ye Mo came, it was already going up.

The numb look in her eyes shook Ye Mo's heart. Why did she go up the elevator? Soon, Ye Mo thought, was she going to jump off the building? He suddenly regretted not pulling her and let her run.

The elevator was getting smaller and smaller and Ye Mo scanned Tang Beiwei nervously with his spirit sense. Luckily, this building was only 70 meters tall, that was still in range of his spirit sense.

Ye Mo was looking at her thinking if he should go up and bring her down. But suddenly, Tang Beiwei opened the window at the top floor and jumped.

Seeing Tang Beiwei jump, he finally felt relieved. He jumped without hesitation, using a spirit chi wall to slow her descent before carrying her just before she landed. Before people could react, he left there.

The moment Tang Beiwei jumped, she felt relieved. Everything was going to end.

But when she woke up again, she found she was in Ye Mo's arms. She had a fright, did her brother jump too?

"Beiwei, you're really dumb, why did you jump? If I couldn't catch you, I wouldn't forgive myself." Ye Mo's tone was a little sad. He didn't know who was right and who was wrong.

Tang Beiwei finally understood that Ye Mo caught her. That depression in her heart finally disappeared. The endless feeling of being wronged rushed up her heart, and she finally couldn't resist it anymore. She hugged Ye Mo and cried out.

Chapter 226: Deep and Meaningful Talk

Ye Mo could understand how Tang Beiwei was feeling. A girl who was bullied and helpless faced huge pressure but couldn't find any help. She even had to do things against her conscience, but at last found her kin and thought that she almost did something unforgivable.

He put Tang Beiwei down and stayed silent for a while before saying, "We both didn't know at the time. Plus, even now, we can't be sure if we're related for sure. After all, we can't just tell by a bracelet so don't worry. Even if we're really siblings, we don't need to worry even more, right?"

Tang Beiwei stopped and looked at Ye Mo, "Brother Ye... um, do you want to do a DNA test with me?" She didn't know what to call Ye Mo. She felt brother was too sudden, but Ye Mo wasn't suitable either.

Ye Mo smiled. "No need, I don't like that. Real or fake, you will be my sister from now on. I will treat you just like Ye Ling. No matter what happens, just come find me. Remember, I'm your brother."

"Brother..." Tang Beiwei seemed a little lost as she wiped her eyes. She wanted to say something but eventually didn't. Was her prayer finally heard by the heavens and did she finally get a big brother? Ye Mo said he didn't want to do DNA check, but she felt a little lost. She didn't know whether to listen to him or not.

Ye Mo waved his hand and said, "I was planning to go Wuliang Mountain a few days later, but since these people keep testing me, if I don't do something, they'll think I'm scared of them. Beiwei, you don't need to go anywhere, follow me and wait till I treat your mother."

"You know how to treat illness?" Tang Beiwei looked at Ye Mo in surprise. She remembered Ye Mo using acupuncture in the morning.

"Didn't think I could meet you here, this is such a coincidence. Master, it's my luck." A porsche stopped in front of Ye Mo. As the words sounded, a youth jumped out of the car.

Ye Mo had seen this person before. It was the one who wanted to race him when he was with Jing Xi.

This youth came and shook Ye Mo's hands. "I'm Qiao Gang, I saw your car skills that day and I'm really amazed, ugh, is this your girlfriend? She's really pretty."

Qiao Gang was very lively; before Ye Mo even spoke, he already treated Ye Mo as a racing friend.

Ye Mo laughed and said, "I'm Ye Mo, this is my sister Tang Beiwei, pleasure to meet you."

Qiao Gang had this understanding look. His sister didn't have the same last name as him, who would believe you. The sister nowadays were the sisters being f*cked. Hearing Ye Mo say that, he also laughed. "So that's it, um Brother Ye, I've been trying to find you last time seeing your car skills. I just heard your car went into Yu Yuan, but I really didn't expect to see you here. I'm so lucky. I don't have much hobbies but I love cars. If Ye brother don't mind, I wish to invite you to food and talk about car skills."

Ye Mo smiled and said, "That's fine but I don't have time now, I still have important things to do, so let's talk about it next time."

If it was a normal person, they would've realized that Ye Mo was not interested, but Qiao Gang just fazed and said, "No problem, I'm a little famous around here. If you need any help just ask me because I might need your help soon, this is my name card."

Qiao Gang passed it to Ye Mo and rubbed his hands. Obviously, he was a little awkward about finding Ye Mo for help. Although he was very energetic and social, it was the first time they met properly, much less Ye Mo didn't really want to talk to him. His words were quite unsuitable, but he had seen Ye Mo's car skills. As long as Ye Mo got in the car, he wouldn't be able to chase up to him at all.

Although he didn't know Ye Mo well, he knew he wasn't someone to be shocked by status and money. If that was possible, Ye Mo wouldn't have ignored him last time and drove off. After all, not much people drove limited edition cars like him, as such, in order to be friends with someone like Ye Mo, he needed to lower himself and treat him as equal.

Ye Mo took the name card and looked. He knew that this person wasn't as straightforward as he appeared. This person knew this was the best way to communicate with him. This Qiao Gang wasn't an impulsive person but was quite cunning. He knew how to observe and even knew the best means to communicate with people.

This was a little interesting, but Ye Mo didn't detest it. Perhaps he really liked cars and wanted to find someone to help him race.

"No need for help, I'm just missing some money and I'm going back to get some money. If I'm free, I will call you," Ye Mo said that intentionally. He wanted to see how much of a help this Qiao Gang could give him. If it could solve his money difficulties, he didn't mind help Qiao Gang. However, if he was going to be stingy on this, then never mind.

Hearing this, Qiao Gang's face was immediately filled with smile. "Brother Ye, although it's not something to brag about, but I have some money to spend. How much do you need, Brother Ye?"

Ye Mo nodded and casually said, "I wonder what you would like me to help with?"

Qiao Gang saw that his plan was seen through and rubbed his hands awkwardly. "There's a race at the end of next month. It's very important to me, but I know with my skills, I'm not likely to win, if..."

Ye Mo already knew what it was; he waved his hand and asked, "What's the largest prize?"

"The prize is only a little less than a million, but we all don't care about the prize money. Instead, something else is awarded with the prize money. Other than this, there are also some conflicts in interest, but..." Qiao Gang was stuttering. Obviously, some things weren't good to make clear.

Ye Mo waved his hand and said, "Okay, I'll agree to help you get this first. I'm not interested in other things, I need 500k now, I will contact you by the end of the month."

Hearing Ye Mo's words, Qiao Gang's face was full of joy and surprise. He quickly stuffed a card in Ye Mo's hands. "Password is all 8, there's around 600k in there. I'll be waiting for your call." Then, before Ye Mo could talk, he didn't even ask for Ye Mo's contact number and just went in the car. A rumble echoed out and the car soon disappeared. Qiao Gang clearly saw Ye Mo's car skills; the latter could use a normal Audi to leave his Porsche in the dust. This wasn't something normal people could do.

Ye Mo shook his head thinking this Qiao Gang is really interesting. It was obvious that Qiao Gang was very rich. He didn't really care about that few hundred thousands, and he wouldn't worry that Ye Mo would go back on his words for that amount. Qiao Gang was afraid he would regret his actions, so he quickly drove away—decisively and astutely.

Tang Beiwei looked at Ye Mo in a daze and said after a while, "Brother, you know this person?" Then, she just realized that her brother sounded so natural.

Ye Mo shook his head. "I don't know him."

"Don't know, then why did he give so much money to you? And these people are usually powerful, if we annoy him, we... Plus, racing is dangerous and, and..." Before Tang Beiwei finished, Ye Mo already knew what she was thinking.

Tang Beiwei was living at the bottom and was scared of these young masters the most.

Ye Mo caressed her head pitifully and said, "It's okay, if I'm not in need of money shortly, I wouldn't care about a few hundred thousand. Let's go eat first and talk later."

Tang Beiwei helplessly shook her head; she worked so hard for 200k and was about to sell everything she had, but her brother just said one sentence and got 600k from someone he didn't even know.

After eating with Tang Beiwei, he took out 200k to buy 1000 sets of materials before helping Tang Beiwei buy some clothes. Then, he gave the remaining 300k to her.

"I don't need money, I just want to go back and save my mother," Tang Beiwei rejected.

Ye Mo stashed the card on her hand again and said, "You also saw that it's very easy for me to earn money so take these first. Wait till tomorrow and call Wei Yongqian, just do according to the original plan."

Tang Beiwei hesitantly took the card and said, "Brother, since you already know he's trying to harm you, why are you still taking the bait?"

Ye Mo sneered and said to Tang Beiwei, "I know he's plotting against me, that's why I'm going, don't worry."

Ye Mo and Tang Beiwei went back to the hotel but saw police out there investigating. He immediately knew that Wang Xianxian's incident was probably being investigated right now. He immediately called Qiao Gang. Although he didn't know who he was, a small thing like this shouldn't be hard for him.

Chapter 227: The Most Satisfying Way of Revenge

As soon as Qiao Gang picked up Ye Mo's call, he was very happy. To him, this was Ye Mo telling him how to contact him indirectly. He quickly told Ye Mo not to worry and no one would come investigate him. He didn't know that only permitted numbers could reach Ye Mo's phone. Other people wouldn't be able to reach it since his phone was a custom made one given to him by Han Zaixin.

Ye Mo put down the phone and sighed; it was so easy with connections.

As soon as he hung up, his phone sounded again. It was Ye Ling.

Ye Ling's voice was anxious. Ye Mo told her to be careful in the morning and now, there was someone calling her to go Wuliang Mountain saying Ye Mo was waiting for her there.

Ye Mo was angry and told Ye Ling to say she wouldn't be able to leave now and needed a few days if she received this call again.

Then, he told her to not go places even the school and just stay at the Ye Family Mansion. Then, he called Zhang Jue.

"Instructor, I thought you were ditching us. You haven't contacted us for so long." Zhang Jue's voice was welcoming. He was very happy about Ye Mo's call. Ye Mo knew Zhang Jue thought of him as a real friend and felt warm at heart, but he seriously said, "Please help look after my sister these few days. And, tell Li Hu about the Song Family and ask him to find a few people to keep eyes on them. If there's something, call me immediately."

"Don't worry, instructor, leave it to me," Zhang Jue's affirmative voice sounded.

Ye Mo felt slightly relieved and then said, "Brother Zhang, stop calling me instructor. If you think we're friends, then just call me Ye Mo."

"Haha, okay, I'll call you Young Master Mo from now." Zhang Jue knew Ye Mo was treating him as a brother now and felt even happier.

Ye Mo then called Li Hu. Although he already asked Zhang Jue, he was still afraid something would happen to Ye Ling.

Tang Beiwei looked at Ye Mo make all those calls and quietly said after half a beat, "Is Ye Ling your sister? You're really nice to her." She thought of Ye Mo being very harsh to her due to Ye Ling and felt sour.

Ye Mo looked at Tang Beiwei and subconsciously smiled while patting her head. "You're also my sister, I will treat you the same. Stop feeling bad over what happened in the morning, that is the first and last time."

Just when she was about to tell Ye Mo not to always pat her head, she was a little lost in thought. She finally had a big brother too. She wouldn't need to live like before and be harassed everywhere. Thinking about this, her eyes got red. Everything was like a dream, was this really a dream? She inched her arm and felt pain, it shouldn't be a dream.

"Let's go, what are you thinking about, let's go in first." Ye Mo pulled.

"Now that we have money, I'll open another room." Tang Beiwei came to her senses.

Ye Mo waved his hand. "No need, you are still staying with me tonight."

"Huh..." Tang Beiwei looked at Ye Mo in shock. They didn't know they were siblings yesterday, but now that they did, how can they still live together?

Ye Mo pulled Tang Beiwei in, and when there was no one, he said, "If you changed room tonight, people would know immediately and my plan will fail."

"Oh..." Tang Beiwei understood but still worriedly said, "Brother, they have a lot of people and their plan is precise, you're just by yourself."

Ye Mo had decided to have a carnage. It wasn't suitable to bring Tang Beiwei.

"No, I want to go as well. Although I'm a girl, I still know a few moves. I can help you," Tang Beiwei rejected.

Ye Mo closed the door and felt warm. Kins were kins indeed. She was still plotting against him yesterday, but now, she was risking her life to help him.

However, he wouldn't allow Tang Beiwei to go with him no matter what. Ye Mo knew that since these people had made up their mind, they were sure they could keep him. It meant that they spent a lot of effort, and if Tang Beiwei went, he wouldn't be able to take care of her.

"Beiwei, do you think other people could catch you when you fall from tens of meters high?" Ye Mo didn't try to persuade her but used fact to ask.

Tang Beiwei fazed; indeed, she still didn't remember how she was caught falling from that high. Anyone wouldn't be able to catch her? She looked at Ye Mo full of inquisition.

Ye Mo told her straight up because Tang Beiwei was his sister. "Because I've learnt some Dao magic." Tang Beiwei was more and more confused. She was taught atheism from school, so how did Dao magic come out?

Ye Mo knew it would only get more confusing the more he tried to explain so he could only say, "You don't need to know about it for now, you will understand in the future. Call Wei Yongqian first and tell him you have succeeded. Ask him what to do next. I need to make some things, don't disturb me for now."

Although Tang Beiwei didn't know what that Dao Magic was, but she wasn't dumb. No normal person could catch someone falling from tens of meters high. Perhaps she would be a burden to Ye Mo if she really went.

Ye Mo helped Tang Beiwei make a defensive necklace and started to make more charms. Because he had a lot of materials, Ye Mo didn't need to worry about wasting material. At 5 pm, he had made 10 from 30 sets of materials.

When Ye Mo stood up, Tang Beiwei was already waiting for him with two boxes of food.

Beijing Song Family.

Dongfang Xi, Song Qiming and Song Hai were still discussing things in a secret room. Other than Dongfang Xi who was calm, both Song Qiming and Song Hai were worried.

"Ye Ling said she isn't free tomorrow nor the day after, what is this? Mr. Dongfang, didn't you say Ye Ling would go as soon as she got news of Ye Mo?" Song Qiming worriedly said.

Song Hai interrupted, "Could Ye Ling have reached Ye Mo and knew that Ye Mo didn't call her?"

Dongfang Xi was calm and said, "Don't worry about that, Ye Mo's phone is always off. No one can reach him. I've done my investigation."

Song Hai suddenly said, "How about we try calling him?"

Dongfang Xi shook his head. "No need, when Ye Ling said she wasn't free, I already tried Ye Mo's phone. It can't be reached indeed. We don't need to doubt this. Plus, even if Ye Ling didn't go, our plan would prevail."

"How does that work?" Song Qiming asked desperately.

Dongfang Xi shook his head and said, "You will know when the time is right. Tang Beiwei just called and told me that she had succeeded and asked us what to do next. I've decided to make the plan to tonight."

Song Hai said with confusion, "Mr. Dongfang why bring it forward? Didn't we say tomorrow morning?"

Dongfang Xi waved his hand and said, "There's already people guarding outside the auction today, so I was just waiting for Ye Ling to go. However, since she can't and said she didn't have time, we need to be more careful no matter what. Other than Ye Ling, everyone else is in position. As such, in order to prevent more accidents, we will move tonight. The main thing is I, Dongfang Xi, succeeded."

Seeing Song Qiming and Song Hai look at him in confusion, Dongfang Xi sneered. "Song Family leader, you just need to watch the show. I promise you you will get revenge in the most satisfying way. Song Hai and I can go to Wuliang Mountain immediately. I will let Ye Mo know the consequences of troubling me."

Then, Dongfang Xi looked at Song Qiming but was full of contempt. When this guy first heard about Tang Jin, he immediately acted as though he cared a lot. People would've thought he was coerced all those years ago, but it had been a few days now and he seemed to have forgotten about it. He didn't even ask about Dongfang Xi. It could be seen he was a hypocrite, but this was best.

Hearing Dongfang Xi's words, Song Qiming was immediately excited. He couldn't wait to see how Dongfang Xi was going to torture Ye Mo. However, he was also scared at the same time; it was too scary getting into enmity with this person. If it wasn't because his status was sensitive, even he wanted to see Ye Mo's face of despair.

After food, Tang Beiwei packed things up and said, "Brother, you didn't sleep last night, I'll sleep on the couch tonight so you can get some good rest."

Ye Mo waved his hand. "No need, I have important business tonight, you sleep at night, don't worry about me."

Just when Tang Beiwei wanted to say something, her phone rang; she picked it up, then looked at Ye Mo and said, "Brother, it's that Wei Yongqian. I called him in the afternoon, and now he's calling me."

Ye Mo immediately said, "Answer it first. No matter what he says, agree."

Tang Beiwei nodded and accepted the call. Ye Mo walked beside her.

"Xiao Tang, a change of plan, the hirer wants to go tonight so you need to bring Ye Mo to that place tonight. Tomorrow, you can go back to Tan Du and stay with your mother. You don't need to worry about everything else," Wei Yongqian's voice sounded.

Dongfagn Xi replied, "Okay, I will take him there immediately. Mhm, I know what to do."

Chapter 228: Escape

Ye Mo took out the defensive necklace and gave it to Tang Beiwei. "Put this on you. After I go, close the windows shut and don't open the door until I come back."

Since these people plotted to harm him, he couldn't be sure if they would harm Tang Beiwei too.

"It's such a pretty necklace, brother, is this for me?" Tang Beiwei loved the exquisite necklace. She never had any jewelry. This was her first.

Ye Mo was a little guilty. Tang Beiwei didn't even have a proper jewelry on her and used an old second hand phone. He knew she had been living a hard life these recent years, but he didn't want to say. He just noted that he needed to care about this sister more.

Thinking about this, Ye Mo said, "You mustn't take this off. These are some charms I made. If someone comes in, just throw these at them. When you throw it out, you need to say Lin."

Tang Beiwei looked at ten palm-sized charms that Ye Mo passed over and dazed for a while. Did her brother spend the entire afternoon making these? Was this the Dao magic he said?

Seeing Tang Beiwei's confusion, Ye Mo immediately said, "This is a Fireball Charm, remember, throw it out and it will form a fireball to engulf the person, don't try it casually."

Brother, this..." Tang Beiwei didn't know what to say.

Ye Mo waved his hand and said, "You just need to remember my words, I don't even have time to love you, how can I harm you? After I leave, you must wait till I come back."

Ye Mo repeatedly warned her and Tang Beiwei also nodded seriously. She knew that she was wrong before. That Wei Yongqian definitely didn't just want to teach her brother a lesson. He really wanted to kill. She also understood that if they just wanted to teach her brother a lesson, they wouldn't spend this much money.

Ye Mo walked out of the room and closed the door. He knew these people were very sly and evil, so he didn't want Tang Beiwei to be in danger. He searched with his spirit sense carefully and was sure that the monitoring people were quite far from here.

But even so, he still used invisibility to leave the hotel. After walking out a long while, he then called a taxi towards the location Tang Beiwei told him. The reason he used invisibility was because he was afraid people would see only he came out.

He needed to kill all of them before they had time to react. In fact, it would be best to take Tang Beiwei with him, but Ye Mo was afraid the enemy would be too strong. And, he didn't want Tang Beiwei to see him kill people.

Wuliang Mountain was a sacred place for Buddhists, and Wuliang Mountain's Xishuang Temple was much bigger than many sacred temples. However, barely a few people knew about it. The reason was simple, it wasn't open to tourists and was hidden in the dangerous ranges of the mountain.

The temple itself wasn't dangerous, but the location was. There was a big canyon before one could enter the temple, and in that canyon, there was a deep bottomless cliff. It could be said that it was the biggest obstacle to getting to the temple.

But at this moment, there were no one stopping people from entering the temple because the biggest auction of the hidden sects was about to be held here and this cliff had been connected by a huge metal chain bridge. No one knew how it was connected, however.

At this moment, Dongfang Xi and two Yellow Level masters were hiding in a discrete location in the canyon waiting for Ye Mo's arrival. Meanwhile, Song Hai and a few Song Family Yellow Level warriors as well as Li Mingqiang were waiting at the two sides of the canyon. They were waiting for Tang Beiwei to bring Ye Mo into that metal chain bridge and come back. If they couldn't, it meant that they already died.

Other than Dongfang Xi and Li Mingqiang, other people were very focused. Dongfang Xi wasn't worried because he was confident. Li Mingqiang, on the other hand, was a Black Level tertiary stage master. He didn't care about a mere Ye Mo.

Song Hai opened his phone and checked before saying to Dongfang Xi, "Mr. Dongfang, a car is driving over here. It should be Ye Mo and Tang Beiwei, but strangely, the people I stationed around the hotel didn't see the two leave. I don't know how they got on the car.

Dongfang Xi's heart suddenly jumped. He thought of the Tu Town outside the desert and how Ye Mo could be invisible. He started getting a bad feeling, but his face didn't show it at all. "Song Hai, the quality of your people needs improvement."

Song Hai nodded and said, "I'm just afraid Ye Mo doesn't have a life to come back after entering the metal bridge. In that case, although we got our revenge, it will not be very satisfying."

Dongfang Xi nodded. "Brother Song doesn't need to worry. This will definitely be a satisfying revenge. But you're right, after all, the two guarding there are too strong. It wouldn't be good if they beat him to death. I need to go communicate inside. The reason we can stay here was because I told them. Now, I'll go tell them to leave Ye Mo one last breath, it should be fine."

Then, Dongfang Xi ordered the two next to him to listen to Song Hai. Then, he said to Song Hai, "I'll be very quick, you take command here for now."

Although Song Hai guessed Dongfang Xi was connected to the two from the hidden sects, he didn't think he could actually talk to them directly. He quite admired this and said, "Thank you, Mr. Dongfang, leave this place to me."

Dongfang Xi left as soon as he spoke and was headed towards the metal chain bridge, but soon, he twisted and his body was blocked by trees.

Dongfang Xi ran out a few hundred meters before hiding behind a rock and called.

"What's the matter? Why is there no report after the target has come out?" Dongfang Xi's voice was worried.

"Advisor, we've been using the telescope to monitor the door of the hotel constantly, we didn't see any target?" Soon, his men reported.

Dongfang Xi knew things wasn't good. There must've been a mistake, but theoretically, his plan shouldn't have been exposed? What was this? Even Song Qiming didn't know about this, so it was pure coincidence that he knew about Tang Beiwei and Ye Mo. However, how did Ye Mo know?

"Immediately send a few people into the target's room, if she's by herself, take her away immediately and leave Yu Yuan to the next location before contacting me." Dongfang Xi was very decisive; he didn't know which part of the plan failed, but since no one saw Ye Mo at the hotel, it meant he was suspicious or knew about the plan, that's why he hid.

Regardless of whether the plan was a success or failure, he needed to run. He would call his men later; if both of them left the hotel, then he would make his next decision. If it was only Tang Beiwei, then the plan has failed for sure.

After Ye Mo left, Tang Beiwei casually put the Fireball charms on the table and took off that necklace playing with it as though she couldn't let go of it. Although never had any jewelry, she had seen many of the celebrities' jewelry on TV and seen it at the shopping malls.

She had never seen a jewelry prettier than the one her brother gave her. The pearls emitted a faint glow and rendered a sense of serenity.

It was really pretty. What happened today was like a dream, and she wasn't completely awake now. She had a brother who was very nice to her, but when he didn't know she was his sister, he was really mean and scary.

Was Ye Mo really her brother? He really had a lot of secrets. She saw him take things out from him, but his clothes were really thin, so where did he leave things? And, he bought so many materials today but she didn't know where he put them.

Suddenly, there was a banging on the door. Tang Beiwei was shocked; his brother said he would call her if he was going to come in. Who was knocking now?

Tang Beiwei immediately thought of Ye Mo's words and put the necklace on her and picked up the ten charms and stared worriedly at the door.

There was another fit of knocking. Tang Beiwei summoned the courage, walked beside the door and asked, "Who is outside?"

She didn't expect the knocking to suddenly stop after she asked. She immediately began to worry; brother wasn't here. Was the charms he gave her effective?

Although Dongfang Xi thought he probably was thinking too much, he would never take a risk on any small possibility. Last time at Sai Na, if he wasn't quick, he would've been dead already. So regardless if Ye Mo fell for it, he would retreat decisively.

He had no business there regardless.

Dongfang Xi took out the vibrating phone and answered the call. His men's report shocked him. He was only guessing, but he didn't really expect Tang Beiwei to be still at the hotel.

Dongfang Xi sweated and immediately told his men to take her away and wait for his call. Then, he turned off his phone and ran for his life towards the outside. He didn't dare to meet up with his men at the hotel. He didn't believe Ye Mo would leave Tang Beiwei there after knowing his plan. He must have measures.

The more he ran, the more he regretted. From now on, no matter what he did, he wouldn't come personally again. Although it was satisfying telling Ye Mo the truth in front of Ye Mo and watch him die in rage, nothing was more important than his life.

Chapter 229: Carnage

Another bang and the door was kicked open. A waitress who wanted to stop them was kicked away by the man outside and couldn't get up.

Tang Beiwei saw the 3 men charge in and charged towards her the moment they entered. Tang Beiwei's heart shook and took many steps back.

The man in front had grabbed towards her. Obviously, he didn't see Tang Beiwei as a threat at all. To him, Tang Beiwei was just a goat ready to be slaughtered.

Tang Beiwei, in a fit of worry, threw a few charms at the man and yelled Lin repeatedly.

Rumble, a ball of fire engulfed the man, but soon, the flame disappeared and there was just a small pile of ash flying around. Tang Beiwei was shocked and couldn't react at all. What was this? She didn't even feel any heat from that ball of flame, but the man who was surrounded by it disappeared. This was too strange. Was that Fireball Charm that strong? Wasn't this immortal magic? Who was her brother? She subconsciously looked at the remaining few charms in her hands.

The two men behind stopped and looked at the flying ashes in shock. Their minds froze. Burning a person to ash? How could this be? However, they already saw it with their own eyes, so how could it be fake?

The two came to their senses after many seconds and looked at the runes in her hands not daring to take a step forward. They turned to run.

Until they disappeared, Tang Beiwei finally realized that the fireballs were real and also scarily strong. That temperature was enough to turn people to ash in an instant.

Tang Beiwei looked at the door that was kicked to pieces and knew there was no point staying here anymore. She immediately left the hotel and looked at the 7 remaining charms in her hands thinking that with that, she could go help Ye Mo. She quickly called a taxi to where Ye Mo was going.

The scene wasn't bloody before, so Tang Beiwei didn't think much of it, but now that she sat on the car and thought a person burnt to ash, she couldn't help but to feel disgusted.

"Are you car sick?" the driver asked.

"Mhm, a bit." Tang Beiwei made the driver stop as she vomited.

Ye Mo got off the car when it couldn't go further. He then went into the forest from the side of the path Tang Beiwei pointed. Ye Mo's speed was very fast, the same as a car. It was just half an hour and he saw a long canyon just like Tang Beiwei said.

Ye Mo entered immediately and spread out his spirit sense at the same time.

Song Hai, from a distance, saw one person entering the canyon. He felt something was wrong and looked at Li Mingqiang and said, "Why is there only one person? Did he notice something so he came by himself? You two go ahead and see."

Song Hai's last sentence was to the two men Dongfang Xi brought.

After the two men left, Li Mingqiang sneered. "I knew that Dongfang Xi wasn't reliable. I would believe the hidden sect people would let him set up ambush here, but I don't believe he can talk to them directly."

Song Hai suddenly stood up. "Predecessor Li, I think this thing may really be what you said, what should we do now?"

Li Mingqiang sneered. "I don't believe that Ye Mo has 3 heads and 6 arms. Regardless of whether he dares to step on the metal chain bridge, I won't be afraid of him. Without Dongfang Xi, can I not avenge my disciple?"

"There's only 8 people, this is disappointing. If you want to take your revenge, then come," as soon as Li Mingqiang spoke, Ye Mo's voice sounded out.

Song Hai's face immediately became pale; he didn't think Ye Mo could find them and not go onto the metal chain bridge first. They were hiding on the side of the canyon, so how did Ye Mo find them? But soon, he reacted and said, "Surround him, Predecessor Li, keep him there and the rest attack him together."

The reason Song Hai said this was because he knew if he ordered to retreat, he would be the first to die. The rest of the people were all much stronger than him.

Everyone surrounded Ye Mo.

Ye Mo looked at Song Hai who was slowly retreating and sneered. "If you dare to take half a step back, I will kill you first."

Song Hai stopped his steps. He didn't know why, but he didn't dare to retreat a bit at all.

"Tell me your names." Ye Mo scanned them; his tone was cold.

Li Mingqiang sneered and said, "I'm Li Mingqiang, little bastard, just because you learnt some martial arts, you dare to be so cocky and kill my disciple Hu Qiu. I will sacrifice your head to him. You will pay for your insolence."

Ye Mo's eyes immediately went cold. Li Mingqiang was Hu Qiu's master, so he immediately knew it was the Song Family. His guess was right. The Song Family was really bold. Not only bold, they even thought of such an evil way of revenge. In Ye Mo's heart now, the Song Family was already a pile of dead bones.

"In that case, die." Ye Mo casually took out Bian Po's long sword and slashed towards them.

He also learnt this from Bian Po. If Bian Po knew that not only was his weapon taken by Ye Mo but so was his moves after his death, would he crawl out from the ground and cry?

Other than Li Mingqiang noticing Ye Mo suddenly had a sword in his hand, no one else saw the sword. They only saw a ray of white light.

Li Mingqiang was also dazed a bit. He clearly saw Ye Mo was barehanded, so how did he suddenly have a long sword?

Psh, there were blood spilling sound everywhere. Song Hai realized the 4 Yellow Level warriors had become bodies under Ye Mo's sword light. They couldn't even defend themselves.

Although Ye Mo's attack was a sudden one, he still killed 4 with it. This scared Song Hai so much that his legs started to shake. He really didn't expect Ye Mo to be this strong. It seemed Dongfang Xi didn't overestimate him, but instead underestimated him. Song Hai wanted to escape, but his leg shook so much that he couldn't even walk.

Li Mingqiang saw Ye Mo kill four with one slash and knew he underestimated Ye Mo. He was definitely stronger than him. Thinking about this, he didn't dare to drift off with his mind. He took out the whip from his waist and surrounded Ye Mo with the other two Yellow Level peak stage fighters.

Li Mingqiang's whip shook, becoming a series of whip shadows surrounding Ye Mo. The two Yellow Level masters behind Ye Mo also attacked Ye Mo with their curved swords without hesitation.

Although Li Mingqiang's whip was countless grades better than that Hu Qiu, it was still a far cry from Daoist Xian.

Ye Mo didn't even use wind blade and just brought up his sword. Strike, strike, strike, he slashed out many times. His chi was plenty and had a long sword in his hand, so was so much easier than when he fought Daoist Xian.

Li Mingqiang actually blocked 6 strikes from Ye Mo before there was the sound of his whip breaking. Ye Mo then broke another curved sword slicing one of the men Dongfang Xi brought in half.

Fresh blood spewed out, and Ye Mo took a few steps back to prevent the blood from dripping on his body.

Seeing this bloody scene, Song Hai's leg curved; he couldn't resist anymore and vomited. He had killed people and interrogated people, but he had never seen such a bloody scene.

Luckily, Ye Mo didn't bring Tang Beiwei here. He stared coldly at Li Mingqiang who was a little stunned. There was full of coldness and killing intent in his eyes.

Li Mingqiang looked at the half of a whip he had in his hands. He didn't have the composure he had initially. Although Ye Mo killed four Yellow Levels at the start, he felt he could also barely do it. But now, he felt he couldn't defeat Ye Mo at all. This Ye Mo was too strong, and Li Mingqiang felt regret for the first time.

When Ye Mo killed the first 4, he sliced his sword across their throat and the scene wasn't so bloody, but now, one was cut in half by him. The remaining Yellow Level master looked at his bloodied companion with a pale face. After half a beat, he suddenly threw away his curved sword and turned to run.

Ye Mo didn't even look and just casually swiped a wind blade at him. The man's legs were immediately sliced off and convulsed non stop on the ground.

"If you can let me go, I..." Li Mingqiang was scared. He had never seen someone as strong as Ye Mo. He had lost the will to fight.

Ye Mo sneered, no matter how Li Mingqiang begged for mercy, he never planned on letting them go. Before Li Mingqiang finished his sentence, Ye Mo's sword sliced again and Li Mingqiang's voice suddenly stopped. He was decapitated.

Chapter 230: Fated Coincidental Encounter

The Yellow Level fighter who had his legs cut off kept convulsing. He looked up and saw Ye Mo cut off Li Mingqiang's head. Under such great fear, he actually took out his knife and stabbed it into his heart.

Ye Mo didn't bother with him and just stared coldly at Song Hai as he walked slowly towards him.

Song Hai's face became bloodless. He was full of regrets; he regretted coming with Dongfang Xi. He even regretted not persuading the leader to not mess with Ye Mo, but now, it was all over. Ye Mo wasn't a person, he was a demon. Looking at the bloodied scene, he couldn't resist the waves of shock in his heart. Just how many people has he killed?

"Don't kill me, I'll tell you everything..." Seeing Ye Mo walk over, Song Hai's tone was of extreme terror. If he had another option, he would rather leave the Song Family and hide than to go against Ye Mo.

"No need, I will make you speak the truth." Then, Ye Mo tapped on Song Hai's forehead.

Song Hai's manner immediately became soulless and dumb. Then, Ye Mo coldly said, "Tell me everything about the Song Family's plan."

"Yes...." Song Hai didn't struggle at all.

After the taxi drove to the foot of Wuliang Mountain and a bit in, no matter how Tang Beiwei requested, the taxi driver wasn't willing to drive 1 meter further.

Tang Beiwei knew that the driver was probably scared since it was night. But luckily, it was probably about half an hour walk ahead. Tang Beiwei didn't force the driver, got off the car and ran into the mountains.

The driver didn't know what a girl was doing this late in a barren place like the Wuliang Mountain, but this wasn't something he could be concerned with. He quickly turned around and left with his greatest speed.

40 minutes later, Tang Beiwei came up from the mountain roads breathing heavily. She went into the side of the forest. After running into the forest, the silence of the night made her scared.

The feral cats and nocturnal birds's cries scared her. She didn't dare to stay and walked faster and faster. However, she didn't have Ye Mo's capabilities and fell over many times after only walking a few hundred meters.

Crack, there was the sound of a branch breaking, Tang Beiwei stopped subconsciously. Under the faint moonlight, a black shadow ran over.

Tang Beiwei's skin was tingling; there was a black shadow in the forest at night? She was so scared she didn't dare to move, but the black shadow stopped 5 or 6 meters in front of her. It was a humanoid figure, very skinny and had a goatie. He seemed very out of shape.

There was someone up there this late? However, she looked on the ground and saw a shadow. Since there was a shadow, it meant it was a person, not a ghost. Tang Beiwei calmed down a little and stared at the shadow but didn't talk.

Dongfang Xi was about to reach the mountain roads but he actually saw a girl this late in the woods. He was indeed frightened quite a bit when he saw Tang Beiwei, but he immediately recognized her; it was Tang Beiwei.

Dongfang Xi rejoiced, Ye Mo that bastard almost made him die. He finally ran and survived. Today, he was finally able to take something back. Even though Tang Beiwei was a woman, her ability to make it here from the hotel meant that she had a few tricks. Dongfang Xi wouldn't be careless facing against someone like her. He didn't even think and pulled out the gun and fired twice at her. He didn't want to kill her immediately. He will torture her to death and let Ye Mo know what happened to her.

Tang Beiwei saw Dongfang Xi and took a breath of relief upon realizing he wasn't a ghost. She was confused why this person was running in the mountains this late at night, but suddenly, Dongfang Xi fired twice at her.

Tang Beiwei didn't even have time to react and saw a faint yellow barrier erect in front of her. But immediately, the barrier broke. Just when Tang Beiwei wanted to see what happened, there was another barrier. 5 or 6 broke before two bullets fell in front of her.

Tang Beiwei finally realized at this moment that the person opened fire. She didn't have time to think how the bullet didn't hit her. She just subconsciously grabbed a rock from the ground and threw it.

Dongfang Xi fire twice and knew Tang Beiwei was meat in his hands, but he didn't expect the two shots to miss. When he reacted, Tang Beiwei's stone was coming over.

Smash, it hit right on Dongfang Xi's face. Dongfang Xi clearly heard his nose break. His eyes were blurred as he raised his gun and fired again while covering his face with his hand.

The 3rd shot didn't affect Tang Beiwei at all. However, Tang Beiwei thought of the light before and it came from her necklace. She looked down and saw the glow was dimmer. It wasn't as pretty as when Ye Mo gave it to her.

Tang Beiwei was extremely angry and threw another 2 rocks at Dongfang Xi. At this moment, she had completely forgotteb she had fireball charms. She was just angry this man broke her necklace.

One hit his forehead and another hit his arm.

Dongfang Xi yelled and felt viscous blood flow down. The hand holding the gun was hit and the gun flew onto the ground uncontrollably. Tang Beiwei looked at Dongfang Xi who squatted on the ground and kicked onto his head. The skinny Dongfang Xi was kicked over and struggled to get up.

Tang Beiwei picked up the gun and now remembered she had Fireball Charms. She took out one but shook her head. If she used that... This guy was already a goner, as such, she didn't use one and just beat him down. This way, she managed to save a Fireball Charm.

She felt her necklace again. Tang Beiwei's heart was bleeding. Her brother finally gave her a good necklace, and it was ruined like this by the bastard. So brother's necklace could protect her, otherwise, Tang Beiwei thought of the two gun shots and didn't dare to think the consequences.

This guy was too bad, she must not let him go. She didn't even know him and he was going to kill her. Tang Beiwei picked up the gun and aimed it at Dongfagn Xi ready to fire.

Tang Beiwei never shot a gun before, but she knew it was easy. She only had to pull the trigger. Bang, Tang Beiwei realized her shot went wide.

At this moment, Dongfang Xi flipped over and sat up. He also woke up under the gun fire and looked at the pistol in her hands. There was terror in his eyes and he quickly said, "Girl, don't fire, I didn't see clearly just then, I thought it was something else, so I fired. That was a misunderstanding, a complete misunderstanding. Think about it, how would I know there was people here this late at night?"

Tang Beiwei frowned, did he really not see it?

Seeing Tang Beiwei frown and her gun was slanting down, Dongfang Xi felt relieved and quickly said, "It really is a misunderstanding. I'm lost and have been going around the mountain in circles, may I ask how to get out of here?"

Tang Beiwei looked at Dongfang Xi's eyes; it was calm and he didn't seem to be lying. However, who would be out here this late at night, this was quite strange. Tang Beiwei suddenly remembered this road lead to that canyon. Was it someone her brother missed?

She subconsciously looked at Dongfang Xi's eyes again, it was too calm. This wasn't right, she learnt acting before. Although it was very easy at that time, was he not scared of the gun when she was pointing it at him? His eyes should be scared a little, right? However, she didn't see it at all.

She then looked at Dongfang Xi's hands. They seemed to be moving slowly as though trying to support himself up, but Tang Beiwei already had the preconceived opinion that he escaped from her brother. She walked a few steps in and pointed the gun at Dongfang Xi's hand and fired.

It was this close that Tang Beiwei didn't miss hitting Dongfang Xi right in the arm.

Crank, a knife fell to the ground. Tang Beiwei immediately knew she was right. This guy was bad and almost killed her.

Dongfang Xi's face immediately became pale. He didn't think Tang Beiwei would fire again. The knife in his hand fell. He originally wanted to stab her when she came to help him up, but now, he felt worried.

This girl was really fierce. He didn't know that since Tang Beiwei was so pretty, she acted very fierce to stop people advancing on her.

"Don't shoot, I was telling the truth...." Although Dongfang Xi was still trying to trick Tang Beiwei, but his eyes weren't as calm as before.

"Okay, I won't fire," Tang Beiwei said and took a few steps forward.

Dongfang Xi felt relieved but stared deadly at Tang Beiwei. As soon as she came near, he would take the gun from her. However, when Tang Beiwei was about two meters from him, she stopped and fired again at Dongfang Xi's knee.

"Arghhhhhh, you stupid b*tch." Dongfang Xi didn't expect Tang Beiwei who was so kind just then to be so nasty.

Tang Beiwei ignored him and fired again at his leg, thinking that this pistol was really easy to use.

However, she pulled the trigger many times and there was no reaction. She immediately understood she was out of bullets.

She put the gun in her pocket and took out a Fireball Charm but took a few steps back.
