

Strongest As 271

Chapter 271: Fight Fire with Fire

Qiao Gang was initially dazed but he immediately replied, "Of course, it's fine. But this way, brother Ye, you would be at a disadvantage. It's better the lighter you are. Sometimes, just a little weight can affect the race."

"Yea, brother. How about I wait for you here?" Tang Beiwei persuaded.

Ye Mo shook his head, "No, I must take you with me. Otherwise, I wouldn't feel safe leaving you here."

"In that case, brother Ye, go test your car." Qiao Gang saw that Ye Mo was dogmatic and didn't continue to try to persuade him.

The four cars of the Qiao family also had people guarding it outside. However, those not from the Qiao family weren't allowed to go near it. However, Ye Mo was the racer so when they came, the guard immediately moved aside.

Ye Mo brought Tang Beiwei in the customized Mercedes and drove two circles. Tang Beiwei asked, "Brother, did you notice something?"

Ye Mo nodded and said, "Mhm, I found two Earth Fiend killers. They must be coming for us. I'm worried to leave you here alone."

Tang Beiwei finally understood why Ye Mo insisted on taking her. Now, she knew the severity of the issue. It could be said from now on, either Ye Mo or the Earth Fiend had to die.

"What to do now? How about this you send me to the Ye family." Tang Beiwei had understood Ye Mo. If she followed behind Ye Mo, she would only be a burden. Although she didn't want to go to the Ye family, in order to not drag her brother down, she wouldn't mind stepping out of her comfort zone.

Ye Mo shook his head and said, "Beiwei, you're thinking too simple. If the Earth Fiend really has its target set on us two, then it wouldn't be any use even if you go to the Beijing Ye family. But you don't need to worry, I have a place to send you to. After I completely annihilate the Earth Fiend, then I will come to take you back. However, that place is empty and cold, you might not be able to take it."

Tang Beiwei nodded her head firmly and said, "Brother, don't worry about me. Just send me there, I'm not afraid."

"Okay. After I break through, I will make the Earth Fiend pay. How dare they target me." Ye Mo's tone went sharp.

"Wait, sit in the car and don't move. I'll check the car." Ye Mo suddenly stopped talking and frowned. The frigidness in his eyes was getting intense.

Tang Beiwei looked strangely at Ye Mo and asked, "What's wrong, brother?"

Ye Mo didn't reply. He stopped the car and used invisibility and came to the bottom of the car. He took off a time bomb. Luckily, he checked carefully with his spiritual sense. He didn't expect this car to even have a time bomb set up.

These people really had some power. If this car had a time bomb, it meant the other cars had a time bomb too. It seemed these Earth Fiend people were really prepared. Not only did they plant the time bomb but also sent two people over.

Ye Mo was sure that it was either the Cha family racer or the female hitman who planted the bomb. Zhang He didn't have such ability to do so.

After taking off the bomb, Ye Mo got in the car and drove it back.

"How's the car?" As soon as Ye Mo got off, Qiao Gang came and smiled.

Ye Mo nodded. "Not bad, this car has very good features after the customization. By the way, young master Qiao, can you help me get some water? I'm thirsty."

After getting Qiao Gang away, Ye Mo quickly went invisible and took off another 3 bombs from the Qiao family cars.

Ye Mo didn't dare to keep these bombs on him. Although he was sure the Earth Fiend people would detonate it during the race, who knew if they would go crazy and detonate it now. Just when he put the bomb aside and came back to the car, Qiao Gang came and passed a bottle of water to Ye Mo. "Brother Ye, let's go in and have a rest. It will start soon."

"Brother Ye, when the race begins, I suspect the Zhang family will play dirty. I will keep an eye on Zhang He that punk, while you keep an eye on the guy beside him. Also, we need to be mindful of the Yun family. We don't need to worry about the Cha family. Looking at the people they sent this time, they probably don't have much hope for the race." The few people went into the resting room and Qiao Gang immediately shared his analysis.

Ye Mo used his spirit sense to keep notice on the 4 cars. He was afraid that someone would try to do something to it again. However, although Ye Mo didn't agree with Qiao Gang's words, he didn't argue.

Things were the exact opposite of what Qiao Gang said. The most amicable Cha family was the most dangerous character.

"The race is about to begin. Let's go out. I'll go test my car." Qiao Gang stood up.

Ye Mo brought Tang Beiwei and Qiao Gang out and immediately noticed that nice looking female hitman. He immediately said to Tang Beiwei, "Beiwei, wait for me at the race course, I will drive the car over there immediately."

Tang Beiwei had no objections to all to Ye Mo's suggestions. She believed that everything Ye Mo did was right. No matter how mysterious Ye Mo was, she didn't mind as long as Ye Mo was her brother.

Ye Mo walked over to this girl. "Hello. I'm Ye Mo, can I get to know you?" Ye Mo smiled and extended his hand.

The girl didn't expect Ye Mo to go up to her. Although she wasn't that attractive in here, there were a few girls prettier than her. Her first reaction was that Ye Mo had already found her. But then she thought, this was impossible. She just came here, so no one knew her.

She reached out her hand anxiously, "Hello, I, I'm Dong Qing."

Ye Mo clearly felt her heart beat rapidly and then return to normal. It seemed this female hitman was still not experienced.

Ye Mo grabbed Dong Qing's hand and squeezed not letting go for a long time until Dong Qing's face blushed and tried to pull her hand out.

"Actually, I feel you're a special girl so I wanted to know you. You have a temperament that other girls don't have. It's quite attractive. I don't have any bad intentions, I just really want to ask you out for dinner. How about we go eat after the race, what do you think...?" Ye Mo was still using his spirit sense to make a mark. Of course, she wouldn't let Dong Qing pull her hand away so easily. Just when Dong Qing didn't know what to do, he let go of her hands.

Although it was a short time, Ye Mo already made a spirit sense mark on Dong Qing. After the race, he would follow this Dong Qing. Since the Earth Fiend was interested in him, he had to be friendly.

"I..." Dong Qing looked down and just said one word and blushed.

Ye Mo sneered. This hitman was quite good. She was more professional than actors, blushing at will.

"Sigh..." Ye Mo saw that Dong Qing didn't talk and sighed while staring at her chest.

"What's wrong..." Just when Dong Qing wanted to say something, she saw Ye Mo stare right at her chest. Her mind blanked out. Didn't the data not say that Ye Mo was very lustful? What was this?

Ye Mo smiled and didn't reply. Then he said, "Wait for me." And he turned to leave but he murmured, "If only it was a little bigger."

And Dong Qing happened to hear this remark. She immediately knew that Ye Mo was saying her chest was too small. However, Ye Mo's voice was very quiet. He probably didn't say it for her but she had this strange feeling.

Dong Qing bit her teeth. Although a hitman was supposed to be not affected by emotions, she was still infuriated by Ye Mo. How was her chest small? Did this guy have eyes? Although she knew Ye Mo was a dead person, she still wanted to charge up and grab him and ask how exactly was she small.

As a hitman, she should resist the urge but as a woman, she really couldn't tolerate that.

Ye Mo did it intentionally of course. His last words were meant to make Dong Qing angry and his spirit sense would disappear from her body. Although she wouldn't be able to find it even if Dong Qing wasn't infuriated, he still wanted to be more careful.

After all, after he killed the other killer, Dong Qing would be his only source. Instead of waiting for this organization to find him, he might as well attack them. It wasn't Ye Mo's character to wait. Since this organization wanted to look for trouble with him, Ye Mo would make them regret.

Ye Mo walked over the Mercedes and picked up the four bombs and then drove the car next to the Cha family cars.

Qiao Gang drove a customized Porsche. He was surprised seeing Ye Mo drive his car next to the Cha family cars but he soon understood. Ye Mo must think the Cha family would be easier to surpass and this decision was right.

There were eight cars and only Ye Mo took someone else in the car. Everyone else was surprised and soon started laughing at him. Who would bring another person in the car to a race?

Chapter 272: Go, Immediately Go

Dong Qing dazed for a moment. She obviously didn't expect Ye Mo would bring Tang Beiwei into the car. Tang Beiwei was her original target and since she was brought on the car by Ye Mo, things were easier. Dong Qing gasped a breath of relief. Although her higher ups said Ye Mo was very difficult to deal with and sent out two people at once, she felt the higher ups were being too careful. Perhaps this would be the easiest mission she would do.

As the light turned green from red, the Zhang family's black racer was the first to charge across the starting line. Meanwhile, Qiao Gang was the second to go. The two racers of the Yun family were the 3rd and 4th. Ye Mo was the fifth. He knew that if he didn't go, Zhang He wouldn't either. To Zhang He, his life was probably more important than blood coral.

Ye Mo anticipated right. The last to go was the two racers of the Cha family.

As expected, Zhang He went in front and blocked Ye Mo. This was mountain racing and only the starting part was spacious. The road got tighter as the race progressed. Some places only allowed one car to pass.

Zhang He's speed was very fast. He tailgated closely to Ye Mo's Mercedes while driving a Lamborghini.

Ye Mo sneered. Although he followed the two racers of Yun family closely, he wasn't able to shake Zhang He away. He didn't know when the Earth Fiend killer would detonate the bomb and he also wanted to see the power of this bomb.

Although the mountain racing course was very dangerous, the racers were still going very fast. That black driver was far ahead of everyone else. But Qiao Gang was slowly being overtaken by a racer of the Yun family. At this moment, they had driven one tenth of the path.

When they were about to go into the most dangerous section of the mountain waist, Ye Mo suddenly sped up his car. Meanwhile, Zhang He was planning to force Ye Mo off the cliff at this place.

Ye Mo knew that the moment he started to fight with Zhang He, it would be the time that hitman attacked.

Zhang He held his steering wheel tightly and sneered. "Fight with me? I started doing the mountain racing long time ago when you probably even didn't know what car racing was." He said this to himself and then suddenly stood down on the accelerator. His car dashed towards Ye Mo's tail. He was confident that he could squeeze Ye Mo into the cliff without anything happening to him.

Zhang He's calculations were very accurate. He had calculated that there was a turn ahead and he only needed to accelerate. Before Ye Mo could turn, he could bump Ye Mo off the cliff. Meanwhile, his car could use this repelling force to make a big turn without any affects. He had always been in mountain racing and knew how powerful this dash could be.

He also knew that this force couldn't be too strong nor too weak. If too strong, his car would follow off the cliff. If too weak, he wouldn't be able to bump Ye Mo off. Although it was a bit hard, Zhang He believed in his technique.

Rumble, the engine of the Lamborghini bursted carrying out white smoke. Just when Ye Mo was about to turn, it rammed towards Ye Mo's car. As soon as his car touched Ye Mo's car's tail, he would turn the steering wheel.

Behind Zhang He, the racer and the hitman of Cha family also dazed. Zhang He obviously wanted Ye Mo's life, this was what they wanted too.

At the same time, that Earth Fiend killer almost detonated the bomb but stopped, thinking that it would save him trouble if someone else would kill Ye Mo. He only needed to detonate the bomb on the car of Qiao Gang later.

After Zhang He slammed down on the accelerator, it almost instantly caught up to Ye Mo. Before Zhang He could rejoice, he felt something was wrong. Since he caught up, there should've been a collision and Ye Mo would be rammed off the mountain.

However, he found out that Ye Mo's car seemed to have suddenly disappeared while his car charged forward without halt. Not good, Ye Mo wanted both sides to end in death. He actually drove his car completely off the course. At this place, there was only enough room for one car to pass. Since Ye Mo moved aside, it meant he would fall off the cliff. Zhang He needed to turn sharply, however, as soon as he thought of that, he noticed that his car had went past the cliff.

It was over. Zhang He turned and looked at that moment. His mind was full of disbelief. Ye Mo's car only had two wheels on the side of the cliff. The other two were hanging in mid air. How was this possible. How did this car not fall off?

But soon, his consciousness disappeared with a loud bang. Zhang He's car drove off the course and crashed.

Although Tang Beiwei was nervous, she wasn't scared. She knew her brother's powers. He would definitely be able to handle this.

Ye Mo saw Zhang He fall off the cliff and sneered. You want to challenge me with your petty moves. But he was curious, that killer actually didn't detonate the bomb in the meantime.

He simply sent out his flying sword and used it to support the weight of his car. It seemed that his car only had two wheels on the road side. Although his flying sword couldn't hold it very long, it was enough for Zhang He to drive off the cliff.

After Zhang He's fall, Ye Mo drove the car onto the track again before taking back his flying sword.

"what was this?" the Cha family hitman rubbed his eyes. He thought he saw wrong. Ye Mo clearly drove his car off the road, why didn't he fall and could even drive back? This was absolutely impossible.

However, just when he didn't know what was going on, Ye Mo's car had already disappeared around the corner.

"why aren't you detonating? Hurry, we will retreat as soon as our mission is over." There was the call of his partner on the hitman's phone.

"yes, I'll detonate it now." This hitman was depressed. He put his hopes of Zhang He just then, but immediately, this hope was gone and Zhang He lost his life too.

The Cha family hitman pressed down on the detonator.

Rumble. Rumble.

There was two loud sounds and the two cars of Cha family both fell off the cliff at the same time and erupted into flames before even reaching the bottom. However, these two gusts of flames fell to the bottom immediately.

Dong Qing even managed to make out some flames at the foot of the mountain. She had a bad feeling and immediately called for her partner but there was no reply in a long time.

"not good." Her sixth sense as a hitman told her that this mission was probably a failure and her partner might have been in trouble. She remembered Ye Mo's faint smile and that whatever attitude. Dong Qing shivered.

As a guy who could easily kill her partner and catch crossbow arrows, how could he be killed so easily?

Ironically she had been thinking this might be the easiest mission yet. Cold sweat started dripping down on her back.

She subconsciously looked at the other two cars of the Qiao family. She had the urge to go up and see if the bombs were gone.

Dong Qing subconsciously looked at the people at the foot of the mountain. Everyone was staring at the screen, there were no cameras at the sites of the incidents. The big screen only occasionally showed who was first.

She secretly took out her phone and pretended to make a call as she neared the two cars of the Qiao family parked on the side. The race had started and no one paid attention to the remaining cars. People only cared about the result of the race.

Dong Qing neared the car and chose the other side. She squatted and only checked one of the cars. Her heart immediately sunk, the bomb was gone. It must've been put under the two cars of the Cha family.

Dong Qing suddenly felt a cold sense on her back. She put the bombs there herself and she had been watching these 4 cars. But they were still taken away and put under their own cars instead. She didn't even know about it at all. What sort of ability was this? Dong Qing couldn't calm down anymore. She had seen eerie things but something like this was her first time.

Her back sweated uncontrollably. When Ye Mo came over to shake her hand, had he already known her identity? Instantly Dong Qing drew the conclusion that Ye Mo had one hundred percent found out who she was and must've had a purpose to shake hands with her. Did he make some sort of mark on her in that short while?

Go, immediately go. She finally understood now why Ye Mo was going to bring his sister on the car. It was because he already knew who she was and was waiting till the end of the race to look for her trouble.

Although Dong Qing hadn't been in this career for long, her talent allowed her to succeed 5 assassinations in a short time. One of them was a mafia tycoon. it was very hard. If she succeeded this time, she would immediately get a second orange badge.

For any Earth Fiend hitman, any badge was honour and wealth. Once she acquired all of the 7 human badges, she would ascend to earth level hitman.

But today at this small place in Tan Du, she felt fear. Dong Qing didn't dare to stay for another minute. She was going to leave Tan Du as soon as possible and find a place to burn all of her clothes and then change her clothes before leaving.

Although she didn't know what Ye Mo left on her body, her killer's sixth sense constantly told her she was in danger.

Chapter 273: Blood Coral

Of course Ye Mo heard that loud explosion, he sneered but also felt threatened. If he wasn't careful, perhaps the bang would be coming from his car. This explosion would cause him heavy injury even if it didn't kill him. Plus, he had his sister in the car. These Earth Fiend people were really bleak.

"Brother, was the explosion just then from the car of that killer?" of course Tang Beiwei also heard the explosion.

Ye Mo nodded, "yes, that hitman planted the bomb under our car and was discovered by me. I put their bombs back and then they detonated the bombs on themselves. This is called you suffer what you do."

Tang Beiwei subconsciously clutched her hands and said after a long while of retrospective fear: "these people are so bad, it serves them right. It was too dangerous just then."

Then, her face showed worry. Although they avoided it this time, what about next time?

"Brother, I feel this society is really different from what I saw. Before, I only saw the surface and there were many that I couldn't see. Sigh. Only after experiencing it do I know how scary it is." Tang Beiwei exclaimed.

Ye Mo smiled. He had never felt this place was very safe. Although it was better than the cultivation realm, danger was still everywhere.

He had already killed the few people who wanted to kill him. Ye Mo's car had sped up. On the curved road, Ye Mo's car was getting faster and faster. It had only been a few minutes before he saw the car in 4th place. It was from the Yun family.

At a more spacious place, before this driver could react, Ye MO had surpassed him like the wind.

The 3rd was Qiao Gang. Qiao Gang was just surpassed by a Yun family driver and was now in 3rd place. However, it was impossible for the 4th place to surpass Qiao Gang.

Just when Qiao Gang was confused why Ye Mo still hadn't caught up, he saw Ye Mo's car rushing over like the wind. Of course Qiao Gang wouldn't fight with Ye Mo and immediately moved aside to let Ye Mo take over.

"keep this place." Ye Mo reminded before over taking Qiao Gang.

Ye Mo thought that as long as he could surpass that Yu family driver, the Qiao family would be the first. This was because although the black driver was first, Zhang He couldn't score points anymore.

The 2nd was that driver invited by the Yun family. His car skills were good indeed and didn't slow down even on such curvy roads.

Although only one car could pass ahead, it would be very simple for Ye Mo to take over him if he wanted. However, Ye Mo didn't want to do things so absurdly. That having two wheels hanging in mid air and not falling off was out of the ordinary. Despite this driver being very fast, he was still far from Ye Mo who controlled with his spirit sense.

This speed was already very fast for normal people but from Ye MO's perspective, this speed was countless times slower than his flying sword.

At a slightly wider section of the track, Ye Mo stood the accelerator down to the bottom and immediately surpassed the Yun family driver.

"Madman." That Yun family driver was a famous dangerous terrain racer in Japan but faced with Ye Mo who didn't slow down even when turning, he felt this was too crazy.

Ye Mo released his flying sword. As soon as he was about to lose control at corners, he would use the flying sword to push.

There was still 1/6th of the road but Ye Mo had already caught up to the black driver. Although the remaining 1/6th of the road was wide, there were no turns. It could be said this last part depended solely on the car itself. One only needed to step the accelerator down to the end.

That black racer obviously knew his car's performance was better than Ye Mo's. He drove a modified Ferrari. Plus, Ye Mo had someone in his car. The advantages were obvious. He didn't even need to stop Ye MO. He only needed to step on his accelerator and he would win the race.

Ye Mo also stood hard on the accelerator and released his flying sword at the same time making the sword push the back of the car increasing the speed this way.

The black man couldn't believe his Ferrari was slowly being overtaken by Ye Mo's car. He stood on the accelerator while looking at Ye Mo's Mercedes in confusion. A mere modified Mercedes could over take his Ferrari. This was impossible.

He was a racer. He only needed to hear the sound of the Mercedes and knew which generator it used. It couldn't compare with his Ferrari but how was this Mercedes faster than his car?

But no matter how hard he stood on the accelerator and could even feel his car was going to float, Ye Mo's car still surpassed his without hesitation. Just when he wanted to use other means, he found that Ye Mo's car had arrived at the final destination.

Ye Mo didn't go down the car and took back his flying sword. After he got off, the first thing he did was to check if Dong Qing was still here. As he expected, she had left.

However, Ye Mo wasn't worried. He had his spirit sense mark and would find her sooner or later. Plus, if she was still here, Ye Mo would be bemused. If a hitman didn't even have this sort of sense of vigilance, what sort of hitman was she.

There were loud rumbles, the rest of the people had arrived.

8 people took part in the race, and only 5 finished the race. The other three crashed. Although things were very cruel, word wouldn't get out.

The Yun family's two racers got 3rd and 5th, acquiring 10 points in total. The Zhang family had one death and the other got 2nd place. Their total points were 7. Cha family was 0. Qiao family got 1st and 4th, totally 13 points getting first in the race.

Other than the 1 million, the blood coral belonged to the Qiao family. Of course, the 1 million was just for sure, no one would care about this little money. The real prize was that blood coral.

"Ye brother, I was lucky to have you this time. I was right about you. You actually got first, haha. let's go. My grandpa really wants to see you. Come to my family." Qiao Gang came up grabbing Ye Mo's hand with excitement after hearing the Qiao family got first.

Ye Mo nodded, "okay, let's go to your family and see."

If there weren't the blood coral, Ye Mo wouldn't go to the Qiao family no matter what. He had a lot of things now but he needed to make sure if this blood coral was something of the cultivation realm. If it really was what he imagined, he would ask for it from the Qiao family.

Ye Mo's big name was out. Although the Qiao family was a family larger than the Ye family, they didn't dare to treat Ye Mo carelessly. They were very polite to him.

Although Qiao Zhen didn't come out to greet Ye Mo personally, he still came out during the feast.

"Mr. Ye, it was really lucky to have you this time, if it wasn't you, the blood coral wouldn't come to our Qiao family. Xiao Gang made a good friend this time. Come, Mr. Ye, cheers." Qiao Shengbao seemed to care about the blood coral the most. His eyes were full of excitement.

Ye Mo smiled, "Just some small things, not to worry. I wonder if I'm able to see this blood coral?" Ye Mo didn't really like this Qiao Shengbao. He was too materialistic so when he spoke, he didn't even have a title for Qiao Shengbao. If he confirmed that the blood coral wasn't what he was looking for, he would leave the Qiao family without hesitation. In this Qiao family, other than Qiao Gang who he had a good impression, he really didn't give a shit about the others.

"um..." Qiao Shengbao was obviously hesitating. In his eyes, although Ye Mo's name was out, this blood coral concerned great things.

"Fourth uncle, it's just having a look. It's no big deal." Qiao Gang immediately interrupted.

Qiao Zheng laughed, "Go, bring out the blood coral. let everyone see."

The leader of the family, old man Qiao even said this. Qiao Shengbao immediately had nothing to say. Although he really didn't want to take out the blood coral, he could only go in and bring it out.

As soon as the blood coral came out, there was faint spirit chi circulating it. Although it wasn't thick, Ye Mo immediately knew that his original guess was wrong. This blood coral really was a spirit herb of the cultivation realm but it also existed on Earth and even the name was the same. If he had this blood coral, perhaps he could reach stage 4 immediately.

Qiao Zheng was an old fox. He looked at Ye Mo's eyes and immediately knew that Ye Mo was also into this blood coral.

Before Ye Mo said anything, Qiao Zheng quickly said: "if this blood coral didn't concern the future of our Qiao family, it didn't matter if we gave it to you. However, this blood coral could allow 3 of the Qiao family members to reach yellow level. So other than the blood coral, Ye friend can bring up any other requests."

Ye Mo didn't expect Qiao Zheng to talk like this. He didn't even say anything yet but he immediately replied; "Mr. Qiao, this blood coral is very useful to me. If the Qiao family only need fortune to enter the yellow level, I can help with that. I can provide the pills for 5 Qiao family members to reach yellow level and one to reach black level. I will use all those to trade for this blood coral.

"Blasphemy." A cold voice sounded.

Qiao Gang immediately stood up, "Qiao Zhijun, what's the meaning of this? If Ye brother says he can, then he can."

Qiao Shengbao sneered and reproached to Qiao Zhijun, "Zhijun, Ye MO is a honoured guest of our Qiao family. Don't be disrespectful." Then, he turned to Ye Mo and said: "Sorry, blood coral is too important to our Qiao family. We can't agree to your request. This is a card to show our gratitude."

When he took out the card, Qiao SHengbao sneered. This Ye Mo was really full of shit. He dared to think of such an easy way to trick the Qiao family's blood coral. Stop dreaming. Taking out pills to reach yellow and black level, he probably thought the whole world was as dumb as him.

Chapter 274: Short Sight of Importance

Ye Mo frowned and said faintly: "So you mean you don't believe that I can take out those pills?"

Qiao Zheng also frowned. They had dropped a broad hint and Ye Mo still said something like that. It was crossing the line. Taking out a pill for martial artists to ascend, what a joke. No one would believe Ye Mo could bring out such a thing. Did he think this was some sort of cultivation world, such arrogance.

As expected, Qiao Shengbao said: "Mr. Ye, you helped our Qiao family. We all know you used a lot of efforts and our family is very grateful. There's 5 million on this card but to be honest, if it wasn't for the blood coral, we wouldn't even go to the race. As for your trade off for the blood coral, we all know what it means, so no need to...."

"In that case, never mind, I, Ye Mo, isn't someone who hadn't seen money before. I don't care about a mere few millions." Then, Ye MO took the card and ripped it to pieces. Only a few millions, were they giving money to a beggar? He treated Guo Taiming's illness, and in return, what he got paid, not mention the map, only the purple coral was worth at least a billion. Now, he helped the Qiao family win the blood coral but they only took out a few millions. This Qiao family was really stingy.

The four customized cars Qiao family used were worth at least 10 million. He helped the Qiao family win but they only took out 5 million. To be honest, Ye Mo didn't even know what the Qiao family was thinking. If they took out 20 or 30 million, then he would take it.

He rubbed the card and stood up saying to Tang Beiwei: "Beiwei, let's go." The Qiao family was not only not grateful to him but also treated him like a liar, giving him only 5 million. This made Ye Mo quite uncomfortable.

Until seeing Ye Mo and Tang Beiwei disappear from the living room, the people of the Qiao family finally reacted.

"Hmph, he's not polite at all, he was a hilly billy indeed. They gave him money and he was still acting up, a mere few million? He acted as though he was very rich. Was 5 million too less for helping with a race? Such greed and he even wanted our blood coral, keep dreaming, so shameless. Even if he didn't go, our Qiao family could still win." Qiao Zhijun immediately sneered.

Qiao Zheng's face was bad. This Ye Mo was too impolite and didn't even take the Qiao family seriously. Giving 5 million was his decision and this was because he was Ye Mo. He originally planned to only give 3 million. Qiao Zheng wanted to get angry but thinking about the Song family, he sunk his anger back into his stomach.

In his view, Qiao Gang's car skills were the best in the 4 families. Even if they didn't invite Ye Mo and invited another international racer, this race would be fine. And if they invited an international racer, the price would only be a few millions.

"Big brother, these Qiao family are really clueless. You're giving them more pills but they're blind. But why didn't you take the money. That was hard earned, why not take it...." Tang Beiwei was also unhappy that her brother didn't get the blood coral.

Ye Mo smiled, "The Qiao family was asking for trouble. Even if the blood coral can allow people to reach yellow level, it wouldn't have anything to do with them if they don't have the ability to protect it and let the Cha family take it from them. Even if the other families got it, trouble would still occur. If they don't have the ability, don't try to eat such a big meal. As for money, a few millions, do they think I've never seen money before. I helped Guo Taiming treat his illness, the stone he gave me was more than 1 billion."

Tang Beiwei asked confused: "brother, why would the Cha family be fine if they go it?"

Ye Mo said: "Cha family is a semi hidden family. If they get something, they would store it securely. Now that the Qiao family got it and the Cha family lost two racers, there's no way they wouldn't leak this information to the hidden sect people. However, I will finish the business with Cha family but just not now."

Ye Mo thought of Zhuo Aiguo and Qiao Zheng. Before, Zhuo Aiguo felt that the purple heart vine was useful to Ye Mo and gave it to him without hesitation and at that time, Ye Mo didn't show his abilities at all. The results showed that Zhuo Aiguo was right and he was compensated more. Compared to Zhuo Aiguo, Qiao Zheng was too short sighted.

"Ye brother, wait for me." Qiao Gang ran here breathing heavily. After catching up to Ye Mo, he said: "Sorry, Ye brother, I'm really sorry about this. Grandpa and the others don't believe you, I really...."

Ye Mo waved his hand and said: "Young master Qiao, it's already over, no need to talk about it. Plus, you can see it as me helping you, don't worry about the other things. But, I need to remind you that although the blood coral is useful to me, I'm also asking for it for the benefit of your family. It's no good for you family holding the blood coral."

Qiao Gang dazed and said stutteringly: "Ye brother, you, you're going to attack our family?"

Ye Mo smiled, "Young master Qiao, you think too little of me, Ye Mo. I'm not concerned about a mere blood coral. Plus, even if I ate a pill that would make me a god, I still have my principle of doing things. Just looking at our connection, I wouldn't attack the Qiao family. However, just because I won't do something doesn't mean other people won't. I suggest you go out and hide for a while."

"Ye brother, if you don't attack, our Qiao family is at least a big family. Under the current society, can someone come into our house and rob us?" Qiao Gang asked confused.

Ye MO shook his head, "there are too much things you don't understand. That Cha family is a semi hidden family, they can contact the hidden sects directly. If your Qiao family don't even know about the hidden sects, then pretend I never said anything. I've already given you a reminder. How you deal with it is your family's business."

"Thank you Ye brother, other people don't know about your abilities but I definitely believe you. But my grandpa doesn't believe me, sigh...." Qiao Gang said helplessly.

"It's fine, by the way, do you know where the blood coral was found?" Ye Mo asked casually.

Qiao Gang didn't hide anything about this and said: "At a place near the borders, there's a place called the Horn Straight. It's near the southern sea. At that time, I went with a few friends from the other families to go race there and found this blood coral washed up on the beach."

"Okay, thank you, we'll meet in time." Then, Ye Mo waved goodbye to Qiao Gang and took Tang Beiwei and left the Qiao family.

After a long time of silence, Qiao Gang went back to the Qiao family and decided to tell what Ye Mo said to grandpa.

"Blasphemy." As soon as he heard Qiao Gang's words, Qiao Zheng slammed the table and stared at Qiao Gang and said: "Although this Ye Mo isn't bad, he's too stingy. You should have less contact with him. This is a peaceful time. Do you think it's warring era? You believe robbery of homes. I think you're out of your mind. Zhijun is performing better than you in many places, and you need to stay in the family and get some rest."

Qiao Gang didn't expect that his grandpa would reproach him but grandpa's words also seemed reasonable. He turned around and immediately saw Qiao Zhijun's evil smile. He immediately felt angry but also knew his grandpa's authority and didn't dare to argue.

"Brother, are we going to Beijing now?" Tang Beiwei wanted to see her mother.

Ye Mo sighed, going to Beijing meant he had to kill people. Killing people would make Tang Beiwei's mother sad. This was quite complicated.

Thinking about this, Ye Mo could only say: "let's go to Ning Hai and see Qingxue first. After going to Ning Hai, we'll go to Beijing."

"mhm." Tang Beiwei didn't ask why but she could tell Ye Mo wasn't in a good mood. After a while, she said: "Is Qingxue sister my sister in law? By the way, brother, do you like Qingxue sister or Luo Ying sister?"

Although Tang Beiwei had seen neither of them, Ye Mo told her about them.

Ye Mo dazed. Although he never hid anything about Luo Ying and Qingxue, he really didn't now how to answer this question now that he was being put on the spot.

"To be honest, I feel that brother you're so excellent It's fine even if you have two wives." Tang Beiwei realized Ye Mo's hardship and said.

Ye Mo felt his chin helplessly, "I think I like them both but you're my sister, you would want me to get as much wives as possible. In other words, would you want to marry someone who will get two wives? Sigh."

Ye Mo didn't even get to tell Luo Ying about Qingxue before Luo Ying left. Although he had the thought of what Tang Beiwei suggested, this wasn't something he could decide.

Qingxue was fine, after all. Last time, she had already expressed she didn't mind being with Luo Ying, but what about Luo Ying? Ye Mo had no confidence at all.

"If that person had as much ability as brother, then I don't mind." Tang Beiwei said immediately but in her heart, of course she cared, she just wanted to comfort her brother.

Although he didn't notice that Tang Beiwei was trying to comfort him, Ye Mo felt that love was irrelevant to power. Did that mean someone with great power could have lots of love? This reasoning was too absurd. His love for Luo Ying was really love from life to death. There was nothing in it. As for Ning Qingxue, although Ye Mo had no feelings for her originally, the things Ning Qingxue did for him gradually made him like this girl.

If it was just gratitude, Ye Mo wouldn't fall in love with Ning Qingxue but those few days the two were together, Ye Mo had changed his opinion of Ning Qingxue and accepted her slowly at the same time. Although his love for Ning Qingxue was different to his love for Luo Ying, they both came from the bottom of his heart and there was nothing else inside.

Chapter 275: I need power faction

When Ye Mo brought Tang Beiwei to Ning Hai, it was already midday on the second day.

Before they reached the small yard, Ye Mo felt something was wrong. Ning Qingxue said she was waiting for him here and he believed her. However, Ning Qingxue actually wasn't in this yard.

Ye Mo and Tang Beiwei pushed open the door. The flower pots were still there but the silver heart grasses were all dead except for one. He got someone to send them back here for Ning Qingxue to look after. The only one alive was also quite wilted. That one was the one Ning Qingxue looked after and spilt her blood on.

What was going on?

Ye Mo wanted to ask Xu Wei but found out that Xu Wei also wasn't here. However, there were still Xu Wei's clothes hanging out in the garden. It seemed that Xu Wei hadn't left yet.

"Brother, is Qingxue sister not here?" Tang Beiwei also felt something wasn't right and subconsciously asked.

Ye Mo shook his head. He didn't know why Ning Qingxue wasn't here but her firm words from before were still by his ears, "I will wait for you at Ning Hai."

Although it was a few plain words, Mo believed Ning Qingxue said what she wanted. Before she waited till his arrival, she wouldn't leave. For this, Ye Mo didn't doubt it at all but now, Ning Qingxue wasn't here.

Ye Mo carefully checked the silver heart grass that hadn't died but found it wasn't due to lack of care. What was this?

Xu Wei just pushed the door open and saw Ye Mo standing by the flower pot. When she saw Tang Beiwei, she couldn't help to sigh. Ye Mo was really a womaniser. Not only did he know a lot of women but none of them was ugly. She was probably the uglier one or perhaps she could only compare with Li Mumei.

"Xu Wei, you're back? Where's Qingxue?" The first thing Ye mo asked seeing Xu Wei was about Ning Qingxue.

Xu Wei's eyes went red and immediately told everything that had happened to Ye Mo. Then, she said: "After Qingxue had recovered, she was taken to Yu state by her family and never came back. But after Qingxue left, no matter how I took care of these silver heart grasses, they were wilted and many had died. Only that tallest one is barely living."

Ning Qingxue was actually almost beaten to death. Ye Mo's fury immediately erupted. Who had such balls? It seemed he was too kind. Last time the Song family attacked Ning Qingxue, he hadn't even had time to annihilate the Song family but now, other people were also attacking Ning Qingxue.

A strong killing intent emanated from Ye Mo's body. Even Xu Wei and Tang Beiwei on the side took steps back subconsciously. Tang Beiwei looked at Ye Mo's bloodshot eyes and called out anxiously: "Brother..."

Ye Mo came to his senses and howled to the sky, "Regardless if it's Earth Fiend or others who hurt Ning Qingxue, I, Ye Mo, swear I will annihilate you in my life."

From Ye Mo's perspective, Earth Fiend had the greatest suspicion. He just had enmity with this organisation and this thing happened. He couldn't tolerate it.

Not right, even if this happened, Qingxue wouldn't leave Ning Hai after she had recovered. Ye Mo knew Ning Qingxue, she wouldn't give up waiting for him in Ning Hai for that.

"Xu Wei, you said Qingxue's wounds have recovered and she left Ning Hai?" Ye Mo calmed down and immediately realised that was suspicious.

Xu Wei was quite scared by Ye Mo and now just slowly recovered. Then, she said: "Yes, her wounds had fully healed, but, but....."

"But what?" Ye Mo frowned and asked.

Xu Wei looked carefully at Ye Mo and said: "Because her head was injured, although she had completely recovered, she forgot what had happened this year. It means that memories recovered to the point one year ago. She didn't even know me but she remembered everything clearly from one year ago and....."

Hearing this, Ye Mo's heart sunk, however, he believed he could cure her. Although head injuries couldn't even necessarily be healed with Lotus life seed, it wasn't a serious problem. Even if he couldn't, he would just tell her what had happened in this year. After all, she just lost some memories.

"And what?" thinking about this, Ye Mo felt a little relieved.

Xu Wei sighed and said: "Qingxue lost this year's memory but her parents were instead happy. She went back to Yu state listening to her parents. Qingxue sister didn't mention you at all and her parents didn't allow anyone to mention you."

Hearing this, Ye Mo's heart ached. If her parents really didn't like him, even if he went to Yu state, he won't necessarily be able to see Qingxue. He thought about Ning Qingxue venturing dangerously into the Shen Nong Jia just to find him and he yearned for her more. That was when he knew that he was this important in Ning Qingxue's heart.

No, he had to go see her even if her parents stopped him, he would go see her. Sorry, Qingxue, it was my fault you were hurt this time.

As though feeling the intense emotions in her brother's heart, Tang Beiwei subconsciously grabbed her brother's hands and called: "Brother."

Ye Mo sighed and caressed the silver heart grass that Ning Qingxue took care of. Softness surged in his heart. That silver heart grass seemed to have felt Ye Mo's caress and seemed a little more lively.

Xu Wei and Tang Beiwei didn't interrupt Ye Mo who had sunk into memories. They just looked at him fearing that he would do something crazy.

After long, Ye Mo looked up and asked: "Xu Wei, what did the attacker look like?"

Xu Wei immediately said: "It was a young Daoist at first and then came an old Daoist. That young Daoist was very lecherous and said he was going to take Qingxue away. Qingxue ignored him and he attacked. That young Daoist had a shield shaped jade ornament on his belt and it seemed to have the words Tai Yi."

"Tai Yi?" Ye Mo repeated and frowned. Was it a hidden sect? it was very rare for people from the hidden sect to come to the cities of the mortal world but it didn't matter, he would go ask Zhang Zhihui.

"Xu Wei, I will go see Qingxue. Please help me take care of this silver heart grass for a while." Ye Mo looked at the bloodied silver heart grass and felt his uneasiness in his chest. He was going to slaughter. Challenging him again and again. It was either his sister or the people around him.

Xu Wei rolled her eyes on Ye Mo, "I know, I'm going to charge a salary next time. You two only know to let me take care of this and that."

Xu Wei heard Tang Beiwei call Ye Mo brother and immediately knew this pretty girl was Ye Mo's sister and not lover. However, her skin was really good.

Ye Mo went back to the room. It was tidied very well. The small case he left to Ning Qingxue was carefully put on the head of the bed. Even the tools he used to produce pills were wiped clean, placed on a small metal rack. It was obvious that Ning Qingxue cared a lot about Ye Mo's things.

Ye Mo sat on the bed Ning Qingxue slept on. There were a few books about transplants. Ye Mo dazed. He seemed to see Ning Qingxue sit on the bed and read these books every night and then wait for him to come back.

"Qingxue, no matter who attacked you, I won't let them go." Ye Mo murmured.

He suddenly felt he was all alone by himself. If he had a power faction, he wouldn't need to send Beiwei away or even worry about the safety of the people around him.

Power, power, I will establish the greatest power on Earth. Since I can't cultivate to a high state here, I will use my power to create the greatest power. I want something that can disintergrate Earth Fiend with one word.

In that instance, Ye Mo had the impulse to howl to the heavens again.

"Beiwei, I will send you to a place. After I'm done with the things outside, I will come back to pick you up." Ye Mo calmed down and said.

Once he made up his mind, he wouldn't change it. It was as he said, no matter who it was, they would have to pay. After these things were done, he would form his own power.

"mhm." Tang Beiwei knew what her brother thought and knew she was only a burden following him around now.

Wuliang mountain. It wasn't their first time here. Although Tang Beiwei knew that her brother would take her to some place safe but she didn't expect him to take her here.

Ye Mo carried Tang Beiwei on his back and ran very rapidly on the mountain. He was going to start to fight with Earth Fiend soon. He must have no concerns so he needed to send Tang Beiwei away. Serenity was the best choice.

"Beiwei, after you arrive at Serenity, remember to cultivate what I taught you. If you really can't cultivate it, you can learn with Jing Xian and their stuff but remember not to tell anyone what I taught you." Ye Mo said.

Tang Beiwei felt very warm at heart. This was kinship! Her brother really gave her everything he had. She made up her mind in her heart, "Brother, don't worry, I will work here and try to not be cumbersome to you."

Tang Beiwei really did make up her mind. If she had her brother's powers today, she wouldn't need to hide everywhere and could even help her brother.

"mhm, pack those fireball charms away carefully. Don't take them out unless it's a life or death situation." Ye Mo was worried about Tang Beiwei's safety and gave her more than 100 fireball charms.

These fireballs charms weren't so useful to Ye Mo. Although they were good to use but it cost too much time to use them and their power to Ye Mo was just so so. It could be used against earth level martial artists but it was barely life threatening for tertiary stage earth levels. It really didn't have much use but it was good for self defence for Tang Beiwei.

Chapter 276: Please Leave

"Brother, I didn't think there would be people living here." Although Tang Beiwei was on Ye Mo's back, she was quite scared when Ye Mo jumped off the cliff. When she saw the road, she was more astonished.

Ye Mo nodded and said: "Those sects don't like the boisterous mortal world and these sort of places are more suited for cultivation."

"Was what you taught me that day also ancient martial arts? How come there weren't any martial arts moves?" Tang Beiwei asked curiously.

Ye Mo said seriously: "What I taught you wasn't ancient martial arts but something thousands of times more precious than it. You mustn't show it in front of others or tell anyone."

As Ye Mo introduced, Tang Beiwei gradually knew a little more about the hidden sects. The two talked as they walked and had arrived at Serenity.

Although the sect master didn't say it, she was quite grateful to Ye Mo. If Ye Mo didn't remove Jing Xi, she wouldn't even be able to control Serenity. After Ye Mo killed Jing Xi, Serenity was no longer flailing like before.

No matter what Jing Xian thought, she would've never expected Ye Mo to come to Serenity a second time and bring a very beautiful girl.

"Grand Jing Xian, this is my sister Tang Beiwei. Because I still have some businesses unresolved, I want to let me sister stay at your place for some time." Ye Mo had a request and didn't dare to be rude in front of Jing Xian.

Jing Xian looked at Tang Beiwei in surprise and then said: "Mr. Ye, this is the sister you said you've lost for more than 20 years?"

Ye Mo bowed and said: "Yes, my sister will live here for a while, when I come next time, there will be repayment."

Jing Xian sighed: "Since it's your sister, then no need to talk about repayment. It's just a pity on Susu, if only you brought her here earlier."

Ye Mo's heart was melancholic. He understood what Jing Xian meant. He left his sister at Serenity also because he wanted to wait for Luo Ying to come back.

After all that, the first thing Ye Mo did was to go to Yu state. He was going to see Ning Qingxue. No matter if he could cure her or not, he would still go.

Ning Qingxue's father Ning Zhongfei was quite decisive and left the Ning family resolutely for Ning Qingxue. With his strong connections and capable business mind, he established a new pharmaceutical company in the short span of a year.

In Yu state, Ning family was a wealthy family.

As soon as Ye Mo got to Yu state, he didn't spend much time to know that not only did Ning Qingxue recover physically but was being the manager of Ning Zhongfei's business.

The business was at the tallest sky scraper building at Yu state and it was very easy for Ye Mo to find it.

The building didn't belong to Ning Zhongfei yet and his company only rented two levels of the building. Ye Mo didn't receive much questioning and went upstairs. However, the girl in reception stopped Ye Mo.

"Sir, may I ask who you're looking for?" the girl was quite pretty and very polite.

"I'm looking for Ning Qingxue. May I ask is she here?" thinking about how he was about to meet Ning Qingxue, Ye Mo was a bit excited. He didn't know if the exact situation was as what Xu Wei said but if it really was, then what would he do if he couldn't cure her?

The girl showed a professional smile but didn't call and ask for permission. She asked again politely: "Sir, did you make an appointment?"

"No." Ye Mo shook his head subconsciously. He never thought that he wouldn't be able to see Ning Qingxue.

The front desk girl smiled apologetically: "Then I'm sorry, sir. I can't report in clients without appointments."

The front desk girl's sweet smile made Ye Mo unable to get angry but he didn't have a way to make the girl report in. Just when he was wondering if he should use invisibility to go in and see Ning Qingxue, there was a clanking of high heels on the ground.

"CEO Lan, Manager Li...." The girl saw the two and greeted politely.

Ye Mo turned around and saw someone familiar, it was Li Mumei. He was happy immediately and quickly said: "Li Mumei, I'm Ye Mo. I came to see Ning Qingxue this time...."

Ye Mo stopped his words, he felt the atmosphere wasn't right and Li Mumei's looks at him seemed a little weird as though she wanted to say something. Meanwhile, the woman beside Li Mumei frowned.

CEO Lan? Was it Ning Qingxue's mother Lan Yu? This meant that this CEO Lan was his future mother in law. Ye Mo felt a little awkward and walked up and said: 'Hello aunty, I'm Ye Mo. I came to see Qingxue."

The woman still frowned but Ye Mo said that already so she could only reply: "Do you know me?"

"I've heard Qingxue mention you. I believe you're Qingxue's mother, right?" Ye Mo didn't dare to be careless in front of Qingxue's mother.

Seeing Li Mumei wanting to say something and Lan Yu frowning, Ye Mo felt things weren't right and the scene sunk into silence.

After a long while, Lan Yu said: "Since you're Ye Mo, come in and let's have a talk, sigh...."

Then, Lan Yu walked in and Li Mumei gave Ye Mo a sympathetic look and also followed in. Ye Mo followed the two into the office helplessly.

Li Mumei went and made two cups of tea and then left closing the door.

"Ye Mo, I know you're someone with power, but...." Lan Yu paused as though trying to organise her words and said after a while: "Qingxue is my only daughter, and she is my treasure. Her dad and I won't be able to tolerate any harm to her. We work so hard just for Qingxue's future...."

Ye Mo sighed and said: "Aunty, don't beat about the bush. Although I'm emotional, I have done things that I won't regret. I like Qingxue but I'm not liking her for her wealth."

Lan Yu nodded and said: "In that case, I'll be straight forward. Of course I know you won't care about the little wealth our Ning family has but we care about our daughter. Ever since Qingxue knew you, she's been heavily injured twice. We almost lost our daughter. This was all because of you. This time, Qingxue was rammed by a car and sent to the hospital. She was announced dead but perhaps the heavens pitied us and Qingxue actually came back alive the second day."

Speaking to here, Lan Yu rubbed her eyes.

Ye Mo saw this and sighed. He didn't blame Lan Yu. He only had respect for a mother like this and he knew why Qingxue would come back alive. It was because she only fainted on the spot. This was all due to the necklace he made for her.

It was made from precious materials and inscribed with many formations. Although spirit chi would be consumed while used for defence, after a while, it would replenish. Qingxue could wake the second day because after replenishment, the necklace recovered her life force.

Looking at Ye Mo who was in silence, Lan Yu said again: "Ever since Qingxue met you, not only did she not want to come back to Yu state and always stayed at Ning Hai, it was also said that she went to flowing snake and the desert once all by herself. After two near death experiences, her dad and I can no longer handle this.

This time when Qingxue woke up, the heavens pitied us and she actually lost a year of memory. Her memory is at the time before she met you. So, Ye Mo, please, we beg you, let her live a peaceful life."

Then, Lan Yu looked hopefully at Ye Mo. She wanted Ye Mo to take pity on the heart of parents and not get close to her daughter again. She didn't know that Ning Qingxue also went to Shen Nong jia, otherwise, she would be even more concerned.

Ye Mo really wanted to fulfil Lan Yu's love for her daughter but he couldn't, not only did Ning Qingxue love him but he also loved Ning Qingxue. He had no hesitation and shook his head slowly.

"Ye Mo, why are you doing this? We beg you, let our Qingxue go...." Then, Lan Yu actually knelt down.

Ye Mo was dazed. He didn't expect Lan Yu to do this. At that moment, he felt his heart ache as though something precious was going to leave him.

"Mum, you....." the office door was opened and Ning Qingxue in a pale yellow dress stood at the door like a goddess. She looked dazily at Lan Yu who knelt on the ground and then moved her gaze upon Ye Mo.

But soon, she reacted and rushed over to help Lan Yu up. She turned around with a face of anger and looked at Ye Mo and asked: "Who are you? What do you want?"

"I...." Ye Mo opened his mouth but couldn't say a word. If Lan Yu telling him to leave Ning Qingxue made his heart ache, then Ning Qingxue's words now made his heart bleed. He knew that Ning Qingxue lost a year's of memory but his heart suddenly felt empty. That emptiness he could no accept.

'Qingxue, I'm Ye Mo. I know...." He was interrupted by Ning Qingxue before he finished.

She frowned and said: "Ye Mo, the engagement was determined by our previous generation. You are you and I am I. Why are you coming for me? I don't want you to come to my parents."

"But Qingxue, did you not know you lost a year's memory?" Ye Mo said desperately.

Ning Qingxue's eyes frowned more and looked at Ye Mo with disgust, "Qingxue isn't something you can call. I know you're the young master of the Ye family but that has nothing to do with me. Plus, I lost my memory but what's that got to do with you? Is there any use for you to force my mother? Please leave."

Chapter 277: That's all there is to it

Lan Yu heard Ning Qingxue's words and turned around saying apologetically to Ye Mo: "You can chat with Qingxue for a while but don't force her to do something she doesn't want. I don't want my daughter to be coerced, I'll go out first."

Then, Lan Yu walked out of the office. She really didn't want Ye Mo to have contact with Ning Qingxue but if she didn't give Ning Qingxue this chance, she would feel very uncomfortable and feel sorry to Qingxue.

"Qingxue, the memory you have lost is the memory with me this year. I want to help you see if you can be treated and recover your lost memory." Ye Mo said softly.

Ning Qingxue already had some slight anger on her face. She didn't understand why her mother would let her face Ye Mo alone. She had memories with this human trash? Keep dreaming.

"Ye Mo, I know you have been kicked out of the Ye family and you feel very bad but I'm telling you now. My dad also separated from the Ning family in Beijing. We have no connections at all. What era is it now? Stop holding the worlds of our grandpas. I feel this is really pointless." Ning Qingxue said disgustedly.

As though seeing Ye Mo's face was looking bad, Ning Qingxue sneered and continued: "Young master Ye, I have memories with you? Do you think this is possible? Plus, even if I do have some memories with you, I don't want to recover them. I don't want anything to do with you, okay?"

Ye Mo's face became pale but he still didn't blame Ning Qingxue. He knew that a year before, Ning Qingxue detested him to the greatest extent.

"Qingxue, if you believe me, let me treat you. If you have recovered your memories I think you will understand." Ye Mo stood up and walked forward a few steps.

Ning Qingxue immediately took a few steps back and said: "Don't come over. If you do I will call the police. And, I don't need you to treat me and I don't trust you either. I know very well what sort of person you are. I don't need my memories to understand you."

"Qingxue, but you made me love you. You said you will wait for me to come back. Why are things like this?"

Ye Mo's face became increasingly pale, he had never experienced love and had never felt what it was like for the person he loved to leave him.

Ning Qingxue looked coldly at Ye Mo. After hearing him out, she then said: "Ye Mo, don't be mushy. You have finished what you needed to say. Now you can go. I know that the one year I was with you and you like me. Is that fine? Oh and that year I also fell in love with you, okay. I know it all, now can you please leave?"

"So this is what losing feels like." Ye Mo murmured, his body was wobbly.

He was emotional and never would've thought the one he loved would leave him. Luo Ying left him due to misunderstanding but Ning Qingxue didn't even want to listen to him nor let him touch her. He didn't want to force her. Plus, even if he treated her, he might not be able to get her memories back.

He had this burning sensation in his heart that made him hard to breath. Why were things like this, why?

After a long while, Ye Mo took out a face preserving pill and a few golden needles and said: "I brought this face preserving pill over just for you and, I want to help you see if you can recover your memories."

Ning Qingxue's face was frost like and she said coldly: "Treatment is unnecessary, and face preserving pill? Okay, I'll eat it."

Ning Qingxue took the pill and ate it, then, she said: "Ye Mo, I've eaten the pill. Go, I beg you, don't try these tricks on me."

Ye Mo felt more and more depressed. He picked up the golden needle and still wanted to say something but Ning Qingxue immediately said: "Piss off."

Psh. Ye Mo finally couldn't hold the despair and pain in his heart and spat out a mouth of blood on the office desk.

After spitting out the blood, he actually felt more relieved. His mental state reached a new level. Since she wasn't his, why force it. At that moment, he seemed to have opened up and understood a lot and wanted to howl.

This was the frustration of recently being hunted, Luo Ying and Beiwei's things. With the thing with Ning Qingxue, it made his heart feel clumped. After spitting out the clotting blood, he felt very relieved and felt if he had any spirit grass now, he could immediately reach stage 4 chi gathering.

Ye Mo sighed. The Buddha says: "everything is so due to fate, starting from the begging to the end of fate. Everything is so." Perhaps he could keep that love in his heart and treat it as past memories, no longer necessary to flip out again.

Perhaps this was what it meant to be positive. Ye Mo's mental state calmed down and packed away the golden needles returning to his original composure.

Ning Qingxue saw the blood stain and actually felt pain in her heart. But this feeling was very strange, she could only draw the conclusion that this Ye Mo was immature. She never said she had any relationship with Ye Mo and she would never marry such a human trash.

Lan Yu pushed the door open and rushed in.

She saw the blood on the table and immediately said aggressively to Ye Mo: "Ye Mo, can we drop this? Leave, never come back to our Ning family."

She thought Ye Mo made her daughter spew blood and couldn't keep calm.

"I'm standing at your Ning family's place?" Ye Mo was calm and his tone was very bland. He actually wasn't very angry. He didn't blame Lan Yu nor Ning Qingxue. They had their lives and so did he.

"That's right, where you're standing. Leave immediately. Even the patch outside the front door belongs to us. Our family doesn't welcome you." Lan Yu was worried about her daughter and wasn't going to be polite with Ye Mo any more. She even sounded a little childish.

Ye Mo smiled calmly: "Oh, does the sky outside also belong to your family?"

Then, Ye Mo no longer wanted to say anything. Before Lan Yu replied, he took a step outside the window and disappeared.

Lan Yu and Ning Qingxue dazed for a good few seconds before coming to their senses. Ye Mo actually couldn't handle the trauma and jumped off the building. Although Ning Qingxue looked down on Ye Mo, she was still very worried about Ye Mo jumping off. This was the 8th floor. He wouldn't be alive after jumping off. She rushed over to the windows and looked down. There was no trace of him.

"Mum, don't call yet." Lan Yu was stumbling to call the police but was stopped by Ning Qingxue.

"What's wrong Qingxue?" Lan Yu calmed down.

Ning Qingxue breathed easy and looked down before saying: "He's quite capable. There's no trace of him at the bottom, and he probably climbed down the pipes and left."

"Qingxue, did you spit the blood here?" Lan Yu finally reacted now.

Ning Qingxue shook her head: "No, it's Ye Mo. He probably had some sort of trauma, sigh. He's quite pitiful actually. Abandoned by the Ye family but still not unenterprising."

"Huh...." Lan Yu stared straight at the blood stain. Ning Qingxue didn't know but she knew all too well. Suddenly, she felt that she did this thing very wrongly.

After long, Lan Yu sighed. Let the past be. Qingxue had her own life and Ye Mo had his new life. Qingxue didn't remember the days with Ye Mo and that was why she felt Ye Mo was pitiful. But Lan Yu was all too clear about Ye Mo's power in Beijing.

"Mum, my heart is aching. I want to go back and rest for a few days." Ning Qingxue felt her heart pulsing with pain. She had never had such a condition. What's happening today?

Lan Yu had a sliver of worry flash across her eyes and quickly replied: "Okay, let Mumei rest with you for a few days. Don't worry about the company. There's your dad and I here."

...

After Ye Mo left Yu state, his mood was down but his mental state broke through again. Now, he had dropped the sadness. Pursuing cultivation and long life was his path.

He was to go to the Song family next and finish things up, then, he would immediately try to go for stage four. After he was stage four it would be time for him to get revenge against Earth fiend and time when he established his own power.

No matter for himself or the people around him, he needed a strong power to provide protection. His cultivation also required large amounts of money.

With money, he could make all sorts of pills and make money faster. However, with more money, he also needed power to protect it.

Before going to Beijing, Ye Mo stopped by Ning Hai to look at that silver heart grass. It seemed to have gained some life force. Xu Wei hadn't finished work yet and he didn't wait for her. Xu Wei was very meticulous. She would do well what she promised. Next time when he came back, he wouldn't mind giving her a face preserving pill.

As for Yun Bing, Ye Mo didn't go to see her. He was originally planning to go to the university and ask about Shi Xiu, but he had already graduated and if he were to go to ask about him in Ning Hai University, perhaps he would see Yun Bing. Ever since the issue with Ning Qingxue, Ye Mo's heart had been rejective of staying alone with women.

Chapter 278: Cheating Self

Beijing Song family.

Contrary to Song Yuanyi and Song Qiming's expectation, the incident at Wuliang mountain had been past a few months and now, Ye Mo still came to Song family to look for trouble. Did they think wrong? If Ye Mo really didn't dare to come to the Song family, should they get the Song family people to come back to Beijing?

Perhaps Ye Mo didn't know the identity of Song Hai and them. The Song family didn't have the power to face off with Ye Mo so they could only resist for now.

Now, the Song family mansion was not near as busy and populated as before. Other than Song Yuanyi and Song Qiming, there was only Song Qishen. There were originally some third generation people here but after Song Hai disappeared, these people were sent away by Song Qiming.

Tang Jing felt really fortunate recently. Although Song Qiming wronged her before due to some reasons, he still never forgot about her. Before she died, he came and found her and gave her the warmness and love she had longed for many years.

Although before, all she had in her heart was hatred for Song Qiming, seeing Song Qiming kneel down before her and beg for her forgiveness, her heart had already forgiven him. It didn't matter that she suffered so much all these years, at least Qiming came back. Although Beiwei didn't want to come with her to Beijing, Qiming said that he wouldn't let anything happen to Beiwei. Tang Jing had no doubt of Song Qiming's words.

Although she still didn't go do surgery, her body was recovering gradually. Her face even looked healthier. Thinking that Song Qiming was with her everyday, she felt this joy at the bottom of her heart. Her years of longing and hope finally had a resolution she wanted. She didn't mind if Song Qiming was rich or powerful. In her heart, she only wanted to be with him and that would be the greatest joy of life.

Sometimes, Qiming would even sit with her for an entire night without any requests. He just sat with her like those years ago.

Tang Jing knew that Qiming wouldn't come today because he said he had a lot of work and would come back late. So, she made him some lotus soup. She didn't want him to work too hard. She still had a surprise for Qiming. It was that she could walk now.

Song Qiming's office usually didn't allow others to come in. but he told her that other's didn't include her. No one could replace her in his mind. He missed her for twenty years and didn't want to spend the rest of his life regretting. So, Tang Jing didn't mind that Song Qiming's office didn't allow others to come in. And now, there was barely anyone in the Song family mansion so no one cared about this.

What made Tang Jing disappointed was that when she came to Song Qiming's place, she noticed the second floor's lights were off. That meant that Song Qiming hadn't come back yet.

There was the sound of car rumble that drove into the room. The car didn't stop at the outer garden but drove straight in. Tang Jing knew that Song Qiming came back. Her heart rejoiced and wanted to bring the lotus soup over but she saw two people get off the car and stopped herself in her tracks.

Song Qiming got out but there was also another young girl. The two seemed quite intimate and the girl was holding Song Qiming's arms.

Didn't he tell her that he was divorced? And even if he didn't, this woman was not much older than Beiwei. Tang Jing suddenly felt her hands shaky. She didn't mind Song Qiming bringing back a girl but she cared that Song Qiming lied to her.

Song Qiming and that girl had walked under the office and were hugged together. There was the sound of hook up and seductive moans. Tang Jing didn't believe this was the Song Qiming who stayed with her every night before.

She was deeply disappointed but didn't hate Song Qiming. Perhaps her body wasn't well and she couldn't stay with him, that's why he was acting like this.

"Let's go upstairs." Song Qiming finally gasped and squished the girl's boobs and said.

"Mnhm, is that old woman still in the house? She's really annoying." The woman's voice sounded very sulky and was obviously unhappy.

Song Qiming sighed: "I have no choice. Our Song family is being threatened too much by that Ye Mo. She's Tang Beiwei's mother. I took her over just so that Ye Mo would have some concern. Originally, I thought that according to Ye Mo's personality, he might quite possibly not do anything to the Song family due to Tang Beiwei's mother but I think we've thought too much. He's by himself and he doesn't dare to do anything to the Song family no matter how strong he is. As for Tang Jing, let her be. Our Song family can still afford to feed a useless person."

The woman gasped into laughter: "Treating your old lover like a dog to feed."

"What old lover? Don't disgust me. Perhaps I would be interested in her 20 years ago but now, it's the hardest time of my life each night I talk to her. Sigh, don't worry about her. I just didn't expect her daughter to be Ye Mo's sister. She's really lucky. Otherwise, why would I even care about her." Song Qiming seemed to have thought of Tang Jing's looks and frowned.

That woman laughed again: "I heard that Tang Beiwei is a real beauty, you must be interested in her. How come you don't seem yourself when you talk about her."

Song Qiming smiled, "Pity, she's Ye Mo's sister. Our Song family shouldn't mess with him anymore."

"Be gentle.... I know you're interested in that girl. You even dare to fuck me...." The woman called and then, her mouth seemed to be blocked by something. After a long while, she gasped and said: "Of course I wouldn't mind about that Tang Jing. Who I care about is the tigress of your family. To be honest, I still need to thank that Ye Mo. If it wasn't for him, how could you send away that tigress? How do we dare to do this here, mhmm....."

She only spoke half the sentence and her mouth seemed to have been blocked by something.

At the corner, Tang Jing's hands and feet went cold. The bowl of lotus soup fell on the grass but she didn't seem to notice at all. The person who asked for forgiveness in front her was this sort of person. She suddenly felt that all the power of her body was going to leave her.

Ye Mo sighed. He originally came here to kill the Song family people but he saw this scene. He couldn't help but to feel sad for Tang Beiwei's mother, falling in love with such a man. Did she really not know what Song Qiming really was like? Did she really believe everything Song Qiming said? Ye Mo didn't believe it. Tang Jing was just cheating herself.

Perhaps she knew she didn't have long to live so she wanted to die with happiness, not a life of losing hope.

Sometimes, there is no reason for love. Ye Mo thought of Luo Ying. Would his love for her change because of anything else. He believed that Luo Ying wouldn't betray him but if she did?

Ye Mo asked himself and found that he would still like her just like how he loved Ning Qingxue. Ning Qingxue was so indifferent to him but he didn't blame her, nor did he resent her. He just enveloped that love and left it untouched.

Perhaps this was what Tang Jing was like to Song Qiming. Even though she knew that Song Qiming was tricking her, she would still rather cheat herself but now, she could no longer do that. Ye Mo believed that she must've regretted coming out to see this scene and hearing those words.

Ye Mo saw Song Qiming carry that girl and the two rustled upstairs. Meanwhile, Tang Jing spat out a mouthful of blood after a long while, then, she stood up slowly. She actually looked at Song Qiming wistfully before leaving.

Looking at Tang Jing's weak body like a small leaf in the frosty wind, Ye Mo actually felt uncomfortable. Why did she have to love such a man? But he couldn't help her at all and he knew that if he killed Song Qiming today and Tang Jing knew tomorrow, she will be very sad.

However, even so, he would still kill Song Qiming. From today on, he wouldn't let himself into trouble due to being soft on his enemies. He had to kill Song Qiming. However, after things here were done, he would take Tang Jing to live with Tang Beiwei.

The light beside the bedroom lit up. Song Qiming and that girl were already rolling together. That girls' clothes were completely ripped apart revealing two busty white rabbits. Song Qiming's two hands already started rubbing and squishing. At the same time, he was also trying to take off the clothes on himself. That woman seemed thirstier than Song Qiming and had flipped on top of Song Qiming more than once.

Ye Mo respected Song Qiming's stamina. He was in his 50s to 60s but he still had so much energy.

Ye Mo raised his hand and a gust of wind shot out. That voracious woman was knocked out cold on the bed. Song Qiming didn't even notice it at all until the woman stopped moving.

"Xiao Yue...." Song Qiming called out worriedly.

"You don't need to call. I've already knocked her out." Ye Mo's cold voice sounded.

Song Qiming's body shook and suddenly turned around. Under the dim yellow light, Ye Mo's figure stood by the door way.

Song Qiming was covered in cold sweat. After a long while, he asked: "Who, who are you?"

Chapter 279: Conflict Resolved

"I'm getting some payback." Ye Mo said and a curved sword suddenly appeared in his hands.

Song Qiming looked at Ye Mo not knowing where his curved sword appeared from. But immediately, he reacted and said in a shaky voice: "You, you are Ye Mo?"

"That's right. You're very smart. You know you owe me. It's just that I've been busy lately and only had time for this today." Ye Mo's voice was very cold.

Song Qiming was the leader of a family. Although he was very worried, he soon forced himself to calm down, "Young master Ye, the thing between our family and you is a complete misunderstanding. Although it's a misunderstanding, I've completely dispersed the Song family to show my apology to you. If you can let the Song family go once, I'm willing to swear that from today on, our Song family will just be a dog of yours."

"What a big misunderstanding!" Ye Mo sneered, "I'm not someone who exterminates. I've let your Song family go on more than one occasion but you challenged my bottom line. You dare to harm even Qingxue and Beiwei. You even made my sister harm me. I'll let you die with a clear mind. But don't worry, those vermin breed of you Song family, I won't leave one behind if I see one."

Song Qiming's face had the look of extreme desperation for life and said desperately: "That had nothing to do with our Song family. It was all Dongfang Xi's plan. Our Song family never...."

Before he finished, he could no longer say anything anymore. Ye Mo had shattered Song Qiming's aorta with his fist. Even as he died, he still had the look of trying to explain something.

Ye Mo didn't use a sword to kill him. The sword was just to scare him. There were no marks on both the inside and outside of Song Qiming's body.

Even though Ye Mo did this, many people would still guess he killed Song Qiming but Ye Mo was still going to do this. Sometimes, even though everyone knew, he still needed to put up a show.

If Song Qiming was killed by him blatantly, this thing couldn't be suppressed. After all, Song Qiming was an influential person.

He threw Song Qiming next to the woman. Ye Mo killed Song Yuanyi and Song Qishen next. There were only these 3 important people in this mansion. Although there were still some maids and gardeners, Ye Mo never wanted to kill everyone. He didn't even kill the guards.

As for Song Yuanyi and Song Qishen, Ye Mo just burnt them to ash. He only left Song Qiming's body.

Although he didn't kill all of the Song family's direct descendents, Ye Mo still felt a lot better. He had been constantly hunted by the Song family and now he finally killed a few leaders of the family. Then, Ye Mo headed towards where Tang Jing was. He wanted to tell her that he would bring her to Beiwei.

However, what Ye Mo didn't expect was that Tang Jing actually suicided. He felt a little sad. Tang Jing was a tragic woman and didn't even achieve some small aspirations in the end. He wished she would meet a good person next life.

Ye Mo silently burned Tang Jing's body and used a jade box to hold her ashes. He would give it to Beiwei next time.

After leaving the Song family, Ye Mo didn't go find Ye Ling. If he did now, it would be blatantly telling everyone that he killed the people at the Song family.

The second day, news got out that Song Qiming and his neice's wife were naked on the bed together and Song Qiming died of over excitement. Then, the first in command Song Yuanyi disappeared. The Song family fell into a deeper abyss after dispersing. The Song family of the five big families of China was like the sun of dusk, slowly falling down.

At this moment, Ye Mo had left Beijing. He went on the train towards Xian mountain. His destination was sharp sea corner, the place Qiao Gang and them found the blood coral. It was on his way so he also wanted to see how Fang Nan was doing. He had agreed to help him but was delayed by all sorts of things. He also needed Fang Nan to help him with something this time.

Because Ye Mo didn't buy a ticket and just jumped on, the first thing he wanted to do was find a seat.

However, because Beijing was the first station and there weren't many people going to Xian mountain, there were still some free spaces on the train. Ye Mo found a seat as soon as he got on.

"Brother, are you going to Jing Kou?" Ye Mo just got on and the middle aged man opposite him greeted and passed a cigarette.

Ye Mo pushed the cigarette back and smiled: "I'm going to Xian mountain but I don't smoke."

"I saw that you didn't bring a bag and I thought you were going to the closest station, Jing Kou. Xian Mountain isn't close. Even with this express train, it would take a whole day." This man was very meticulous.

Ye Mo noticed this man's hand had a lot of calluses and his muscles were very tight. It could be seen that he practiced martial arts. Although his inner qi cultivation didn't have a level yet or never even cultivated it systematically, normal people wouldn't be a match for him.

"It's good not to smoke. I'm an old smoker. Brother, are you going to Xian mountain to get rich?" This man packed the cigarettes away.

Although this man just introduced himself suddenly, Ye Mo didn't dislike him. Perhaps it was due to his look. Although he was very skinny, his eyes had spirit and didn't seem dodgy. Ye Mo hated those with dodgy glances. He didn't like those type of people. They were either really calculative or weak and timid people.

"No, I just want to go to Gui Lin. Xian Mountain is just a passing by place." Ye Mo didn't hide his destination.

"Gui Lin?" The middle aged man frowned. Then, another two people came. It was a young woman in her mid 20's and another youth with shades. It seemed the two were together. They both carried big bags.

The young man had some looks and dressed very simply. Her clothes were modest. This youth seemed scholarly and weak. The young woman smiled at Ye Mo and said to that youth: "Xiao Gong, you can sit on the opposite side."

Then, the young woman sat beside Ye Mo.

The man continued: "Brother, Gui Lin isn't a peaceful place. Why are you going there?"

Ye Mo smiled but didn't reply. The young woman sitting beside him had a faint smell of blood. Ye Mo had experienced countless killings so as soon as this young woman sat down, he felt it. And, this young woman had a little worried look. It meant that she killed before getting on the train. If she just injured someone, she wouldn't have this bloody smell but perhaps it was her first time so she felt scared.

But no matter how much this woman killed, it was irrelevant to him. He smiled and looked at the middle aged man: "I have a friend who's business isn't going too well. I'm going to help him."

Ye Mo was talking about Fang Nan. He did indeed want to go help Fang Nan. Fang Nan was a good person and he also wanted to create his own power faction. Fang Nan was a good choice.

"Your friend is doing business at the border? I heard that those people who can do business at the border aren't simple people. They've all seen blood and big scenes. They pretty much all killed before. Only then can they strike fear in others." This middle aged man said with a strange expression.

Ye Mo looked deeply at the man and immediately knew that he wasn't simple. He talked about blood purposely. Who would talk about this the first time they met a friend. This was too absurd and didn't even suit the topic of the conversation.

However, Ye Mo knew that this man could also tell what the woman did. He said this all just to comfort the woman. As for why he was doing this and how he knew, Ye Mo didn't know.

Ye Mo smiled, he didn't express his opinion and just didn't talk anymore. However, the young woman beside Ye Mo shook and gradually calmed down.

This man just said a sentence to test. Although he didn't know what was with the woman but he could tell something was wrong. However, he was more testing Ye Mo. Now that he saw that Ye Mo just smiled to his words and not say anything, he immediately knew Ye Mo was no ordinary person.

"I'm called Zang Jiayan, I'm planning to go have a look at Xian Mountain. Brother, what business does your brother do? Haha, if it's suitable, I also want to find something to do." Zang Jiangan's words were obvious. He was asking if there was an opportunity for cooperation.

Hearing his words, Ye Mo had an idea. This guy had a meticulous heart and was observational. Now that he asked this question, Ye Mo knew that he was someone bold and then considering how he comforted the woman. It meant that he was a decent person at least.

Thinking about this, Ye Mo nodded: "I'm Ye Mo. My friend is called Fang Nan. He's about to do big business. If Zang Brother wish to cooperate, it's fine. We are in need of people."

Just when Ye Mo finished and before Zang Jiayan could reply, a few police officers who looked serious reached out to Ye Mo.

That youth and the woman saw the police come over and immediately became pale. They even started shivering.

Chapter 280: Animal

"Yuan Meixiang, Yuan Gong, you two really know how to run heh, but now, someone suspects that you two are involved in a murder case at Jing Kou, Fang He town. You must go back for investigation." The head police seemed weak and fat but his tone was very serious.

That young woman calmed down instead and looked around before saying: "You don't need to do anything. I will go with you guys but I know that as long as I go, I will have no hopes of coming back out again so I will tell what happened to everyone here. I will let everyone know what is hiding in this world."

"Take her away.... Yuan Meixiang, if you have anything to say, tell your lawyer....." The police didn't wait for this young woman to finish and yelled.

"Haha.... my lawyer, as long as I fall into your hands, I would be devoured whole." That Yuan Meixiang girl started laughing out loud but her face was getting more and more miserable.

The two policemen behind the fat police had already came up. They grabbed her hands and was going to cuff her.

"Let her go. Let her speak. What can't other people hear?" Zang Jiayan suddenly stood up and pointed at the few policemen and said.

The fat police narrowed his eyes and looked at Zang Jiayan coldly and said: "What, you are going to help the culprit resist arrest?"

Zan Jiayan smacked down on the tea table, "Resist arrest? Just you, stop thinking so highly of yourself. You're only a small traffic police. What right do you have to call me helping others to resist arrest. I've seen all sorts of big scenes. You just said she was a suspect and now, she just suddenly became the culprit. White really becomes black in your mouth. Good job, good job. Sister, just tell us your situation. There are so many people here. I want to see who wouldn't let you speak."

As soon as Zang Jiayan spoke, there was chit chat in the carriage. Obviously, there were a lot of people who thought Zang Jiayan was right. They should give Yuan Meixiang a chance to speak.

"Who do you think you are, teaching a traffic police what to do? Don't you believe that I can take you away as well?" The policeman behind the fat police said impatiently.

Zang Jiayan laughed and took out a certificate and a few honor badges, "Who am I? I'm a soldier. When I was spilling blood for the country, where were you? Am I not even allowed to speak?"

The fat police scanned and saw that military certificate. It seemed like a veteran certificate but not really and there was a second level honor and a third level.

There were so much honor rewards and the fat police was also shocked but he was smart and didn't take these rewards to look at. Because if he didn't look at them, then he could say that he didn't know.

Yuan Meixiang saw that these few policemen didn't say anything and didn't continue to cuff her. She knew that this was her opportunity and immediately cried and said: "Three years ago, I just graduated from the University of Finance. When I passed by Jing Kou, Fang Nan town, I was being taken into custody illegally by Dou Sen and was forced to marry him. During the time, if I didn't do one thing that he wanted me to do, he would beat me viciously."

Then, Yuan Meixiang flipped up her clothes showing all the marks on her body and hands. They were shocking.

"Completely disregard of law." Zang Jiayan smashed down on the table furiously. Even the passengers in the carriage saw her and felt sympathetic for her.

Yuan Meixiang wiped her eyes and continued: "Half a year later, I found the opportunity to escape and went to the police department at Fang He town but not only was I not sent away but was instead beat up again and brought back by Dou Sen. Then, I had a child but it was sold by Dou Sen and I wanted to run away again but this time, Dou Sen guarded me closely and tortured me even more.

But this wasn't it. The animal didn't have money and actually wanted me to sleep with his friends and wanted me to sell my body to get money for him. I wouldn't comply no matter what. Later, my brother Yuan Gong found me. He looked for me for 3 years and the first thing he did when he found me was go to the police but I stopped her. Even so, this was found by Dou Sen, this animal. He got people to tie my brother up, I begged him to release my brother."

This weak looking youth rubbed his eyes and held Yuan Meixiang who was about to fall.

Yuan Meixiang sniffed: "Dou Sen agreed to my request but just when I was celebrating, a friend of his couldn't help anymore and told me Dou Seng's real plans. This animal was planning to sell my brother's kidney. That night, while Dou Sen was drunk, I stole his keys and let my brother out. But just when we were about to escape, we were found by Dou Sen. I fought with him and accidentally cut his neck. This thing has nothing to do with my brother. I know that if I went in, I would have no return but I beg you to let my brother go. He is innocent."

"Animal!" Zang Jiayan was furious, "Is there no law anymore. Dou Sen this animal deserved his death. If it was me, I would've killed him 100 times. Why can't you come out after you go in? You bunch of policemen, the country I fought for with my blood is going to be polluted by you like that?"

The few policemen frowned, they wanted to capture this woman away but they feared public outrage.

Just when the few policemen didn't know what to do, the train had arrived at the new station while Yuan Meixiang said miserably: "Because Dou Sen's brother is the captain of the Fang He police department. I heard that the previous captain was a righteous man and was harmed by Dou Sen. So if I go in, I'd be dead for sure. It was I who killed Dou Sen. It has nothing to do with my brother. I just want you guys to let my brother go."

"Okay, you've finished, now there will be someone to take you away. Whatever your situation is, you can tell it at the police department." The fat police looked hesitantly at Zang Jiayan before saying to Yuan Meixiang.

Zang Jiayan was full of anger. He knew that he couldn't stop the fate of them being taken into the police station but his personality compelled him to stop this.

"Killing my brother, how dare you, you evil bitch, you actually ran this far." Another two policemen rushed into the carriage. The one walking at the front had triangular eyes. As soon as he came in, he saw the two and had violent gazes from his eye. Obviously, in his eyes, the two were already dead.

"Dou Lin....." Yuan Meixiang saw the triangular eyed man and finally couldn't stop shaking her body.

Ye Mo patted Zang Jiayan who was about to talk: "When that Dou Lin attacks me and when he gives his verdict, help me record things."

Zang Jiayan dazed. Although he didn't know what Ye Mo meant, he still took out his phone and nodded.

"Old Fa, how come you still haven't cuffed her? Han Dan, take these two murderers away." Dou Lin looked coldly at the brother and sister.

"You are Dou Sen's brother Dou Lin? Your brother raped a woman and abused her and also sold organs. I think you helped out quite a lot didn't you? Scum." Ye Mo walked out and stopped the triangular eyed man saying coldly. He only needed to look at Yuan Meixiang's expression and tone and he would know that she didn't lie. She even avoided using extreme words.

Originally, Dou Lin was going to tell Ye Mo to piss off but when he heard the word scum, he could no longer control his anger and kicked towards Ye Mo.

Ye Mo sneered and kicked first onto Dou Lin's Achilles tendon before patting his forehead. Then, he continued to ask: "Tell me everything. All the bad things you did being a police and who you harmed."

Who would say the bad things they did? Just when everyone thought Ye Mo was dumb, Dou Lin's eyes became dazed and hearing Ye Mo's words, he murmured: "I killed captain Ba because he knew that I raped Du She's daughter and he wanted to arrest me... I provide all the girls at the Jing Kou brothels. They are all girls from outside who come here to work. I have made a deal with Ti boss that its 50 50 profit...."

Everything Dou Lin said was bloody and gruesome. There were so many people in the carriage but they all felt shivery. There was actually such an inhuman trash in this world.

Ye Mo looked back at Zang Jiayan and asked: "Did you record everything."

"Yes, I didn't expect these two brothers to be such bastards. They are worse than animals. I really want to kill him right now." Zang Jiayan stared at Dou Lin who knelt down. His eyes were pouring with flames.

Ye Mo smiled and pulled out a gun from somewhere and fired at Dou Lin's forehead. He actually killed Dou Lin in front of all these people.

Silence, the entire carriage sunk into silence. Even if Dou Lin could be sentenced to death 10000 times, he couldn't be killed here. And, this person carried a gun with him.

"You have a gun?" after a moment, the fat policeman stared at Ye Mo and asked while taking a few steps back. Obviously, he was worried Ye Mo would attack him.

Ye Mo looked at Han Dan who came with Dou Lin and said coldly: "I originally planned to kill you as well but you still have some uses. If you can't provide me with important sources, I will still kill you."

Although Han Dan had a gun, he was shaking and subconsciously nodded. Ye Mo then turned around and said to the fat police: "Indeed, I have a gun and I killed him. Show me document to the captain of this train." Then, Ye Mo took out his blue booklet and dumped it to the fat policeman.
