Chapter 301: The Chick Next Door

Ye Mo scanned his spirit sense out immediately but found out that upstairs was completely empty. Other than some dust covered furnitures, there was nothing. Ye Mo carefully looked through every corner but still didn't find anything. He scanned his spirit sense up to level 10 and even to 12 but still wasn't able to find anything. However, that knocking sound disappeared.

Ye Mo smiled plainly. He didn't care too much about such things. No matter what was doing strange things above him, it was fine as long as it didn't mess with him. If it did, then he would incinerate this thing even if he had to chase it to the ends of the earth.

One night passed quickly but Ye Mo had no interest of going upstairs to look. Even if it was a ghost cultivator, he wouldn't care if he wasn't involved.

Ye Mo just opened the door and saw the female owner of this place who brought him here last time bring in another tenant. The landlord saw Ye Mo and nodded happily. Ye Mo just moved in for a week and the second room on her level 8 apartment building was rented out. The price was almost twice that of Ye Mo's.

Other than him, there was someone else who was going to rent here? Ye Mo scanned this tenant and it was actually a woman, a young girl that wasn't even 20.

Such a young girl came to rent a haunted house? Ye Mo was shocked but this young girl looked very fresh and gave people a sense of lively and smart feel. With her long hair and white dress, she seemed very eye catchy.

But soon, Ye Mo understood. Although this girl wasn't even 20 yet, she was already in yellow level intermediate stage. This was very rare. Usually those with good talent reached yellow level middle stage at around 25-26. Most were over 30 but this girl was in her teens.

No wonder she wasn't scared of the haunted house. She was an ancient martial arts cultivator. Ye Mo immediately became vigilant. There was rarely any martial arts cultivators in the city but now, he saw one and she lived next door. Did this girl come for the bloody coral? That isn't right. He robbed the blood coral and opened a carnage. If she really came for the blood coral, her sect shouldn't just send a little yellow level middle stage girl for him. She was a loli.

The landlord really knew how to talk and said to Ye Mo: "Mo Ying, you and Luo Xuan will be neighbors from now. You need to look after your new neighbor."

Of course Ye Mo knew what the landlord meant. The landlord tricked this pretty little girl here and was just leaving her after taking the rent. She told him to look after her. From this, it could be seen that the landlord wasn't bad to the bones but she was quite bad. He could imagine that if this girl wasn't an ancient martial arts cultivator and lived here by herself. Perhaps she would be scared to death by that knocking sound at night. If some ghosts really came, she wouldn't even be able to live.

But Ye Mo knew this girl wasn't so simple. She reached yellow level middle stage at such a young age and her inner qi was rather abundant. She wasn't someone to be easily messed with. She definitely wasn't tricked here by the landlord, perhaps she had some motives. He needed to be careful of this little girl.

Ye Mo smiled but didn't say anything. He greeted the landlord and went downstairs.

As expected, when this girl heard the landlord's words, a sliver of contempt flashed across her eyes but she didn't say anything. Then, she immediately frowned and sighed. It seemed her character really wasn't good enough. If she was, then she shouldn't have felt contempt but nothing instead. So what if this person could look after her? Why did she look down on ordinary people.

Ye Mo drank soy milk beside the Chun An uni every morning. The soy milk here was tasty and cheap. Ye Mo really liked it. Every morning, he would have a few bean buns and a bowl of soy milk and then go back to cultivate.

This life made Ye Mo feel very serene. If he didn't have so much troubling things, he would rather live like this forever but he knew it was impossible.

Still had so many enemies to deal with and even after he was done with them, he needed to find spiritfuf things to cultivate. He really didn't want to live a boring life and die.

Ye Mo didn't leave as soon as he finished breakfast. He sat for a while more and mobilized his chi. It felt good. Perhaps in another week, he would recover completely.

Why did she come? Ye Mo looked up and saw that girl who just moved in come in to this soy milk place.

She asked for a bowl of soy milk and two bean paste buns. She sat down and saw Ye Mo opposite her. This girl smiled gently but didn't say anything.

Ye Mo stood up. He was prepared to leave but before he left, two youths came into this shop. One of them was actually the young master with an earring. It was he who brought Ye Mo out of Liang Po. Although he didn't know what he did, Ye Mo was very grateful.

This young master obviously didn't come to drink soy milk. He walked up to the girl straight away and looked at her in shock until the girl started to frown. Then, this youth was like a drooling pig and sat down in front of her, "Pretty girl hello. I'm Wu Zhenjun. I saw you once at Ke Uni yesterday, and it was like meeting a goddess. I originally thought I would never be able to see you today but I didn't expect to meet you here. We're really fated to meet again."

The youth wanted to act scholarly and poetic but his words and his outfit was completely opposite. It was quite funny.

The girl frowned: "Sorry, I don't know you. Please move aside."

"It's fine, it's fine. First time stranger second time friends." Wu Zhenjun waved his hand and said.

The girl stood up abruptly and said coldly: "If you don't move aside, then don't blame me for what's going to happen."

Wu Zhenjun quickly said: "That's fine. Do what you want to do. I just really want to know you. We can talk outside. There are too many people here...." Then, he was going to grab the girls' hand. It was unknown if that was intentional.

Ye Mo shook his head thinking this young was bold enough. But from this, it could be seen that this Wu Zhenjun had some background, otherwise, he wouldn't be starting to drag a girl in public.

As expected, this girl with one kick kicked Wu Zhenjun out far away. Wu Zhenjun smashed on the ground with a bloody nose.

But, this girl didn't stop there. She was going to step on him. Ye Mo knew that if that she stepped on him, perhaps this Wu young master would have inner wounds for the rest of his life. Those who cultivated ancient martial arts really didn't care about the lives of normal people and neither did this spiritfult looking girl.

Ye Mo immediately went in front of Wu Zhenjun and stopped the girl saying: "He didn't touch you and you've already kicked him. Let it go. Why are you still going to beat him."

Ye Mo owed Wu Zhenjun. Although Wu Zhenjun didn't know, it was not okay to beat Wu Zhenjun in front of him. He stopped this girl and if she really was still going to attack, then he wouldn't be so polite anymore.

When Ye Mo stopped the girl, everyone in the soy milk shop froze and so did the girl in front of him. Although she didn't really talk with the neighbor but she was a girl and the one being harassed. This man actually went to help the young master instead. Did even he have any conscience? Or was it that this man wanted to suck up to the rich young master that he was being so shameless in public.

Wu Zhenjun immediately knew he met a tough one. The youth who came with Wu Zhenjun quickly helped Wu Zhenjun up but didn't dare to look for trouble with this pretty girl. Although he was a hoodlum, he wasn't dumb and knew he would get bashed so he immediately picked up the phone and was about to call people.

The girl looked coldly at Ye Mo but didn't continue the attack. Just when she was prepared to leave, a police car stopped in front of the soy milk shop. It seemed some people feared the girl would be harassed and as soon as Wu Zhenjun came, someone called the police. He didn't expect the police to come this fast.

Two police officers came quickly and Ye Mo immediately recognized one of them. It was that woman who was sweeping for sex trade. He heard the male police call her Zhang Feng. He didn't expect to meet her today.

"It's you again? The one who bought sex was you and the one having public brawls is also you. What's your excuse now?" that policewoman looked at Ye Mo with disgust.

Hearing the policewoman's words, that pretty girl looked at Ye Mo in disgust and turned to leave.

Ye Mo smiled to the policewoman: "did I use your money to buy sex? Does it have anything to do with you? I like visiting hookers, so what? Brawling? Which eye did you see me brawling with? You want to be police with your level of skills? Don't make me laugh."

"You...." Zhang Feng was going to rage again.

But the cop who came with her quickly stopped her and looked coldly at Ye Mo. But before he spoke, he recognized Wu Zhenjun who stood behind Ye Mo. This policeman's face changed immediately but immediately returned to a smile. He walked in front of Wu Zhenjun and said: "Young master Jun, don't worry. Did this kid attack you? I'll take him away immediately."

"Shut up." Wu Zhenjun interrupted him and said to Ye Mo: "Thank you brother. I didn't expect this spicy chick to be so harsh. If it wasn't you, I really would be suffering now."

The policeman dazed. He didn't think Ye Mo was actually helping Wu Zhenjun but he immediately understood. Although he admired Ye Mo's foresight, he wished he could kick Ye Mo aside.

Zhang Feng looked at Ye Mo in contempt. This man was bad to the bones. She had understood that the one who attacked was the girl. She didn't expect this lustful man was also a fawn.

"It's nothing." Ye Mo said casually and immediately walked out of the soy milk shop. He had no interest in being connected with a young master like Wu Zhenjun. He only helped this time because Wu Zhenjun helped him.

Seeing Ye Mo walk out of the soy milk shop, Wu Zhenjun raised his thumb and yelled at the back: "Brother, next time you want a woman, come find me. I promise to take you to a place you'll be satisfied with."

That police listened awkwardly to Wu Zhenjun's words but was helpless.

Chapter 302: The girl who went ghost hunting at night

When Ye Mo came back home, he immediately started treating his wounds with chi. Ye Mo didn't know at all why this girl called Luo Xuan came here but her arrival gave Ye Mo a sense of anxiousness. He must recover his strength quickly. He had a feeling that the girl wasn't by herself. Perhaps, she had a few companions. She came here for something.

After a few meridian cycles, Ye Mo opened his eyes. He felt his wounds were better once again. He nodded and stood up with satisfaction. He looked outside and the sky was getting dark.

There was the sound of opening door from his neighbor. Ye Mo scanned his spirit sense out and knew that Luo Xuan girl had come back. He was very curious about where she came from and scanned his spirit sense into Luo Xuan's room.

With his current power, it was hard for Luo Xuan to notice his spirit sense. Once he reached chi gathering middle stage, even normal earth levels wouldn't be able to find his spirit sense.

But soon, Ye Mo was dazed. Luo Xuan was actually a nun. When she opened the luggage case, there were a few sets of nun clothes.

There were so many nuns nowadays even in the city? But Ye Mo was more certain that Luo Xuan was probably the disciple of some sect, quite possibly a hidden sect.

Ye Mo grew more careful. Was it too dangerous for him that Luo Xuan was a hidden sect student?

But he didn't want to change place. He finally found such place that was suitable for cultivation and concocting pills.

He thought for a long time and was sure that Luo Xuan didn't come here for him. She must've come here for something else. In another week, his wounds would recover and even if something happened, he could run away.

When Luo Xuan was packing things. Ye Mo noticed a large pile of books. It seemed that Luo Xuan was really studied at Ke uni. Ye Mo kept his spirit sense on Luo Xuan and found that after Luo Xuan finished packing, she took some clothes and went into the bathroom. It seemed that she was going for a shower. Ye Mo didn't follow in with his spirit sense. He wasn't interested in watching a loli take a shower.

Ye Mo took back his spirit sense and started to cultivate. A few hours later, Ye Mo heard another knocking at the top of the building. He stood up and his spirit sense scanned on Luo Xuan.

Luo Xuan also heard the knocking on the 9th floor. She wasn't as calm as Ye Mo and stood up abruptly. It seemed she was also meditating before.

Ye Mo found her face was a bit pale. Although she was yellow level middle stage ancient martial artist, she was still scared facing against such uncertainty.

Ye Mo laughed to himself. Weren't nuns and monks supposed to catch ghosts? But she was scared hearing knocking sounds. Ye Mo saw her walk to the balcony probably to close the window.

However, Ye Mo didn't expect that she actually went onto the balcony and crawl to the 9th floor. Ye Mo couldn't help to compliment her courage. She dared to go up to the 9th floor in the middle of the night to hunt ghosts. She did her job as a nun.

"Who's putting on that act? Come out now."

Luo Xuan pulled out a long sword from her waist and yelled.

Ye Mo immediately kept his spirit sense beside her. He also wanted to see what this knocking sound was from. Was it human or ghost. But it wasn't likely that it was human because Ye Mo didn't find anything with his spirit sense last night.

The ninth floor was in complete silence. That knocking sound also disappeared with Luo Xuan's arrival.

Luo Xuan grabbed the long sword and walked into the living room step by step. Ye Mo looked at her face and knew her anxiety.

Suddenly, Ye Mo saw Luo Xuan's long sword slice out without a notice while her body retreated rapidly a few steps and soon went back on the balcony but she didn't stop. It seemed as though she was knocked back by something.

Ye Mo was shocked. Was it something his spirit sense couldn't see? Ye Mo immediately realized that his wounds influenced the strength of his spirit sense. Thinking about this, Ye Mo condensed his spirit sense and scanned. Although the range was much smaller but Ye Mo did find a faint black shadow charging to Luo Xuan.

There really was a yin spirit? How could this be? If it was, then it would be much stronger than the one at Shen Nong Jia.

But soon, Ye Mo knew that those attacks didn't do too much damage to Luo Xuan. At most, it just made her scared.

Then, Luo Xuan came down from the ninth floor. Just when Ye Mo was wondering if he should help her, Luo Xuan tapped on the balcony of the 8th floor with her foot and rushed into her room. From her agility, it seemed her qing gong was really good.

However, that faint shadow didn't pursue and disappeared on the 9th floor. Just when Ye Mo want to search for it again, he couldn't find it. Ye Mo wasn't in a rush. When his wounds recovered, nothing would be able to hide.

Ye Mo's spirit sense came back and fell onto Luo Xuan. She sat in her room with a pale face but she took out a jade vase and took out a pill to eat. Her face started to look better.

Then, Ye Mo saw her take a peach tree wood sword and hung it on the door and then started to recover in meditation.

Although this girl was only yellow level middle stage, she was quite brave. However, Ye Mo wondered how she saw the ghost thing. Ye Mo didn't believe she had spirit sense.

A night passed.

The next morning Ye Mo got up and cleansed himself. His door was knocked. Ye Mo dazed. He had been here for two weeks and no one even came nearby his place. Who would knock on his door? Ye Mo scanned out his spirit sense and immediately found Luo Xuan at the door.

Ye Mo opened the door and studied Luo Xuan from head to toe. Her complexion seemed fine but seemed a little fatigued from the events last night.

As though seeing Ye Mo was fine, Luo Xuan's eyes flashed across an almost unperceivable relief. Then, she looked at Ye Mo who blocked the doorway and said: "We're neighbors, and the land lord also told you to take care of me. Aren't you going to invite me in for a seat?"

Ye Mo didn't understand what her intentions were but since she already said this, he could only open the door and say: "Then, please come in and have a seat."

Luo Xuan smiled and Ye Mo sighed to himself. This girl was almost as good as Ning Qingxue in looks. No wonder when young master Wu saw her, he was like a drooling pig. Thinking about Qingxue, a sliver of morose flashed across Ye Mo's eyes. He didn't want to think about her again but he couldn't help it sometimes. Ye Mo then thought about Luo Ying and wondered how she was doing. When he was stage 4 chi gathering, he could step on the flying sword and search for her.

As though seeing the sadness in Ye Mo's eyes, Luo Xuan had some shock in her eyes but soon recovered and sat down. She casually looked around Ye Mo's house and said: "I'm Luo Xuan. I'm studying at Ke uni. We're neighbors now. I still don't know what you're called."

"I'm Mo Ying, a jobless nomad. Oh, perhaps I will go out to find a job in a while." Ye Mo saw that strange look in Luo Xuan's eyes and felt uncomfortable so he explained. He was going to find a job, just not now.

as though seeing what Ye Mo thought, Luo Xuan didn't put down Ye Mo. Obviously, she thought she knew what sort of a person Ye Mo was. To be honest, a lazy person and liked to find prostitute. She smiled and was not interested in bullshitting with Ye Mo and said straight up: "I heard it's unclean here. Did you live here for a long time?"

Coming here to find info. Ye Mo smiled and knew Luo Xuan's intentions. But he had no news for her and said: "I only moved here less than a month ago."

Ye Mo wasn't sure if this girl was here to investigate so he said an obscure time line. This girl seemed astute and perhaps she would know something if he told her the real time.

But obviously, Ye Mo was thinking too much. Luo Xuan asked again: "You've lived here for so long. Have you observed anything or heard any strange noises?"

Ye Mo shook his head cluelessly and said: "I don't know about that. Each day, I just drop on the bed and sleep. Why would I even care about that."

"Have you not heard that this house is haunted? It's said that because a few people died here this apartment could not be sold out nor rented out." Luo Xuan didn't seem to be satisfied with Ye Mo's attitude and used the haunting to try to scare him.

Ye Mo stretched his arms and said in a whatever attitude: "I'm poor and lazy. Even if there was a ghost it wouldn't come for me. Plus, teachers taught us not to be superstitious. I didn't even go to uni and I know this. You are going to uni but you're still so superstitious. Little sister, it's not easy for the country to train a uni student. Don't be so superstitious please."

"You...." Luo Xuan stood up in anger but her anger soon disappeared. She looked at Ye Mo and smiled: "You sucked up to a young master yesterday. You won't be poor in the future. Although you're not superstitious but my home town has the customs and stories of ghosts. Hang this peach tree wood sword on the bedroom door. Perhaps it will be good for you."

Ye Mo frowned, he felt something was wrong with this little girl. He wasn't very friendly to her but she still gave him this. What were her intentions?

Chapter 303: Footprints That Appeared

Ye Mo frowned. Why did he feel something wasn't right with this little girl. He wasn't very friendly to her but she still gave him a peach wood sword.

Seeing as though Ye Mo didn't quite believe her, Luo Xuan seemingly angry dumped the peach wood sword and left. Ye Mo thought, did he think wrongly of her? Girls were soft hearted after all. Was she really trying to protect him?

Ye Mo picked up the peach wood sword and scanned it with his spirit sense. Immediately, he sneered. He understood what was going on. This wasn't a peach wood sword at all. It was a sword made from Black Dai wood.

Black Dai wood was very rare but Ye Mo knew it attracted ghosts. This wood grew in places with extreme yin chi and also contained Yin Fiend chi. The low level ghost cultivators in the cultivation realm liked using this material to cultivate.

Now that this girl gave this to him, the intentions were obvious. She wanted to use this to attract the ghost to his room. Although he didn't know why, Ye Mo was sure the intentions weren't good.

However, Ye Mo didn't think she wanted to harm him. If she did, killing him would be so much easier in her opinion. There was no need to attract the ghost with the black dai wood. However, Ye Mo wouldn't naively think that she wanted to get the thing down and annihilate it. If that was the case, she would hang it in her room not his.

No matter what, Ye Mo wasn't going to take it. He took this and really wanted to hang this on her room and even wanted to hang his yin fiend bead there. With the yin fiend bead there, all sorts of ghosts and spirits would rush there. But Ye Mo didn't want to do this. It wasn't because he didn't want her to get scared but he didn't want to use the yin fiend bead.

What did she want to do? Ye Mo scanned his spirit sense out. Luo Xuan sat in her room and drank some water while talking to herself: "Your fault for being such a bad person, I'll scare you this once. But you're also helping me out. When I get the ghost down, I will annihilate it. Otherwise, I'm really scared by myself."

Although Ye Mo's attention was very focused, he couldn't really hear what she said. She seemed to have said something about being scared. Did she want to annihilate the ghost but didn't dare to do it herself so she purposely put the black dai wood in his room and when the ghost came, she would come and help. With him being there, she would be braver? If that was the case, then this was too funny.

Ye Mo didn't know that his guess was spot on. Luo Xuan thought this exactly. Although she was a yellow level middle stage ancient martial arts cultivator, she was still a girl. And because she faced the evil spirit alone last night and almost fell to her death. If her qing gong wasn't good, perhaps she would've died already.

So today, she wanted Ye Mo to be by the side to bolden her. And, Ye Mo was a man, he had strong yang chi. This would lower the ghost's power.

Ye Mo thought for along time and couldn't decided on anything so he casually dumped the black dai wood aside and went out to eat breakfast. Ye Mo rarely took the elevator, he liked to walk down along the stairs.

Usually, when he passed the 4th level, he would see Han Sicai and Cai Jingyou and have a chat but today when he passed the 4th floor, he saw the two moving things in a hurry. There were two women and a few kids helping out.

Were they moving? Ye Mo thought and asked: "Are you two moving away?"

Han Sicali saw Ye Mo and quickly came over: "Mo Ying brother, did nothing happen at your floor last night?"

Ye Mo subconsciously shook his head and said: "What thing? Nothing?" but as soon as he finished, he remembered Luo Xuan going upstairs last night. But Han Sicali shouldn't be able to know such a thing.

Han Sicali looked around carefully and then whispered by Ye Mo's ear: "Mo brother, you need to move out quickly. That ghost came again last night. There's a small office at the 5th floor. For the first time, the boss stayed over and didn't leave. In the morning, we found his dead body in the office. This building is very evil. Lao Cai and I are leaving today."

People died at the 5th level? No wonder when he came down, there seemed to be less people. Did that thing come down last night?

Ye Mo frowned. He decided to go up and have a look tonight. If there really was something unclean, then he would destroy it.

If people died a lot, then police would come frequently and that would disturb his peaceful life. Ye Mo agreed and was no longer in the mood to say anything to them. He went to the soy milk shop and called for a cup. Then, Luo Xuan came.

Ye Mo didn't expect this woman to sit opposite him again and also asked for a cup of soy milk and two bean buns.

Ye Mo really wanted that Wu Young master to come and piss this little nun off again but he didn't see any signs of him. It seemed that this Luo Xuan had some power and used some ways to make this young master unable to come to her.

Seeing Ye Mo ignore her and just eat, Luo Xuan could only say: "Although I gave you the peach wood sword, if anything happens at night, you need to call for me to help. Do you know someone died today at the 5th floor? I heard it's..."

Ye Mo drank the cup of soy milk empty and interrupted her, "Do you know you're really annoying? What's my life or death got to do with you? I don't need you to worry about me. I'm going."

"You...." Luo Xuan stood up in anger and looked at Ye Mo. She resisted her disgust for this guy and came to talk to him but he still used that attitude to her. If it wasn't for the thing upstairs, she wouldn't want to say one word in front of Ye Mo at all. She had decided to make sure this guy was scared shitless before she would go over. He was too annoying.

"Luo Xuan....." a girl ran over and saw Ye Mo standing opposite her. A sliver of surprise flashed across her eyes but she quickly stood by Luo Xuan and whispered something to her ears. Luo Xuan stood up immediately and didn't even have time to drink the soy milk and left in a hurry with the girl.

Ye Mo scanned the girl. She was probably a normal student. There was no inner qi waves on her. However, he wondered what news that Luo Xuan heard that made her leave in such a hurry.

Although Ye Mo didn't want to be bothered with Luo Xuan, since she messed with him and lived next door, Ye Mo wanted to go investigate and see exactly what she wanted.

After returning, Ye Mo cultivated for a while and took out the remaining few snow lotus seeds. If only he had a lotus life pill now! His wounds would recover immediately. Pity, he had used up the 3 lotus life pills. Although he still had thousand year snow lotus. It wasn't so easy to concoct it into lotus life pill. Last time, he wasted almost half the ingredients. Now that he was injured, the success must be scarily low. If he wasted a few more snow lotus seeds, then it would be hard to find more.

Ye Mo took a lotus leaf and thought about it before eventually putting it in his mouth and chewing it. The leaf was good for concocting pills but it still had a large amount of impurities. When he was just injured, he didn't dare to eat it because he didn't have that much chi to refine the impurities.

But now, his wounds were going to recover in two days. Although he can refine the impurities, he didn't want to waste the lotus leaf for that. After all, it was the same if he recovered two days earlier or later.

But due to this uncertain factor Luo Xuan, Ye Mo didn't even dare to drag things on for a single day.

Although the leaf wasn't as good as the lotus life seed in recovery, the effects were obvious for Ye Mo's almost recovered wounds. It was only 6 hours and Ye Mo had not only fully recovered but his power also grew a little. His spirit sense could reach up to 150 radius.

Ye Mo ran his chi through another big meridian cycle and 12 small meridian cycles before standing up with a fresh spirit. Now that his wounds were gone, he could start concocting pills. But before that, Ye Mo still had to do something. He had to destroy whatever was upstairs as he felt this thing was affecting him.

Ye Mo originally thought that since Luo Xuan gave the black dai wood sword to him, she would come back at night to catch the ghost. But it was almost 10pm but there was no sound from next door. This Luo Xuan actually didn't come back tonight.

Ye Mo's face went cold. It seemed this woman really wanted him to die. If it was a normal person with the black dai wood hanging in the room with a ghost above, how can he live? This woman's heart was much more cruel than her looks.

At 10 pm, sound came from upstairs again. This time, it wasn't a knocking sound but footsteps.

Ye Mo scanned his spirit sense out. He found that the lift that stayed at the 8th floor went up and was about to reach the top level.

"This is quite interesting." Ye Mo sneered. He jumped on the balcony and went to the 9th floor. He wouldn't crawl onto the balcony like Luo Xuan. One wind control technique and he was standing on the balcony of the 9th floor.

Under the dim moonlight, there were clear footprints on the balcony. Ye Mo at first thought they were left behind by Luo Xuan last night.

But soon, Ye Mo realized something was wrong because there were footprints along beside Luo Xuan's. However, the footprints appeared very suddenly and walked to the window before disappearing. The footprints were larger than Luo Xuan's but were still clearly a woman's. Who was she?

Chapter 304: The woman on the 12th floor

In a broken down Daoist temple, three women and one man gathered here. If Ye Mo was here, he would recognize that one of them was Luo Xuan.

"Originally, we had half a year but now, we probably can't wait for half a year. I'm prepared to go back with my two younger martial sisters. Older martial brother Qi, are you going back as well?" The one speaking was a slightly older looking nun. However, her skin was creamy white while her temperament seemed royal and untouchable as if she was above the mortal world.

The man called Qi didn't have time to reply when an extremely beautiful woman next to him said: "But Luo Yue martial sister, I still haven't found what I wanted. And, Yu Lin martial brother haven't been out long. Yu Lin martial brother said it's very beneficial to his cultivation being out to experience the world. Plus, we only get this chance once every 50 years. If we go back before time is up, wouldn't it be too pity? Perhaps we can wait a bit more...."

"No, recently, a blood coral appeared in Liang Pu. This thing is very precious even at our place. That's why in the mortal world, there are hidden sect people everywhere. If we stay here, we might be found. Yu Lin martial brother isn't from the same sect as us. If he wants to stay, of course I won't say anything." The Luo Yue nun was very straight forward obviously not agreeing to that pretty girl's words.

Qi martial brother hesitated for a moment before saying: "Luo Yue martial sister, I can't go back yet. I still have something unfinished. Luo Fei martial sister's words are also reasonable. Plus, I will take care of her. After all, it's not easy coming out."

Luo Yue frowned. Seeing Qi martial brother and Luo Fei glancing at each other in that way, she felt uncomfortable. She felt that since Luo Fei martial sister chose nun cultivation, she shouldn't get close to someone like Qi Yulin. Plus, she didn't have a good impression of Qi Yulin either.

But Luo Yue didn't say anything and turned to the youngest girl and said: "Luo Xuan, what are your opinions?"

Luo Xuan said: "Big martial sister, I felt that I've learnt a lot in these two months outside. And I have a feeling that if I have another 2 or 3 months, I can completely look through the library of Chun An Uni. I believe that I can find what we need there. But if big martial sister feels that we should go back, I will listen to you."

Qi Yuling smiled and said: "Luo Yin martial sister, Luo Xuan is right. Sometimes, experiencing the outside world for a while and then go back for serene cultivation is better than constantly cultivating. I will take good care of these two martial sisters. Luo Yue martial sister, don't worry."

Luo Xuan smiled but didn't say anything. She thought different. She wouldn't need this Yulin martial brother to take care of.

Luo Yue sighed, "Okay, we'll go back after some more time. Luo Xuan, although you cultivate very fast, you still need to be careful. Although the people outside are weak, they are very cunning. It's very easy to fall into their schemes. You need to take care of yourself."

"I know, big martial sister." Luo Xuan poked out her tongue.

Looking at Qi martial brother and Luo Fei disappearing very quickly, Luo Xuan looked confused at big martial sister and asked: "Martial sister, why did you change your mind? That's not like you."

Luo Yue sighed looking at Luo Fei who disappeared far off. After a long while, she said: "Luo Xuan martial sister, have you noticed something different about your Luo Fei martial sister?"

"Not really? Why, what's wrong martial sister?" Luo Xuan asked in surprise.

Luo Yue frowned and said: "I only noticed later. Luo Fei has lost her virginity. If she goes back now, she won't get away from the harsh punishment from the sect so I don't know what to do either."

"What....." Luo Xuan exclaimed. After some time she said: "Is it Qi martial brother? How can he do that?"

Luo Yue sighed and said: "It should be him. Qi Yulin looks very charming but I feel he's not reliable and real. If he really loved Luo Fei martial sister, he wouldn't take her virginity now. Sigh, Luo Fei really doesn't know self love."

After pausing for a moment, Luo Yue continued: "Let's not talk about that. Luo Xuan you must remember not to trust anyone so easily especially the men outside. They're all very bad. You just need to search through the library in Chun An Uni. If something happens, you must remember to contact me."

"Mhm, martial sister I know. Even if you don't tell me, I know how bad the people outside are. I've met one recently. Oh no, not good....." Luo Xuan seemed to have remembered something and screamed. She seemed very worried.

"What's wrong, Luo Xuan." Luo Yue looked at Luo Xuan in surprise and asked.

Luo Xuan quickly said: "Uh... nothing, I have something urgent. I'll be going first, martial sister. I'll come find you when I have time." Then, Luo Xuan turned and left quickly.

She was really worried. She left that annoying guy next door the black dai wood as a bait for the ghost tonight. It was already 2-3 am now but she completely forgot about it.

Perhaps that Mo Ying was already completely dead. If that really was so, then she killed him. Although that man was disgusting, if he died due to her, she would feel very bad.

Just when Ye Mo reached the 9th floor, the sound disappeared and Ye Mo scanned his spirit sense, there was nothing on the 9th floor. Just when Ye Mo was about to look carefully, there seemed to be two shadows walking past to the 10th floor. After a brief moment, that walking sound appeared on the 10th floor. Ye Mo didn't even think and sped to the 10th floor.

The 10th floor was very quiet but Ye Mo's spirit sense scanned a few faint shadows. If he didn't have spirit sense, he wouldn't have been able to discern this.

However, these few people were like dolls and stood in the center of the living room not moving at all.

Ye Mo knew that people had souls and after death, the souls would disappear into nature. As for whether there was reincarnation, Ye Mo didn't know but he knew that the dead spirit couldn't appear in day light. Unless it was a ghost cultivator. Ghost cultivator had a cultivation method so they couldn't be treated as normal people.

But there couldn't be cultivation methods here much less ghost cultivator method. So how did the not yet dissipated souls stand there and not move?

Ye Mo scanned out his spirit sense but didn't find anything. He believed these normal ghosts weren't able to push Luo Xuan down. It meant that there was something above. Ye Mo came to the 11th floor.

But as soon as Ye Mo left the 10th floor, his spirit sense noticed those ghosts that didn't move started to walk around and the footsteps were very loud. Perhaps it was the ghost of the previous owner of the 10th floor. He was harmed and his soul was shackled.

Ye Mo also saw a few ghosts at the 11th floor but they seemed more ferocious than the 10th floor ones. When they saw Ye Mo, they actually charged up as though they were going to devour Ye Mo. Before they even reached Ye Mo, the bleak wind already came.

Ye Mo sneered and threw out a few fireballs. There was a sharp shriek and the ghosts disappeared traceless. Although they were burnt by Ye Mo, Ye Mo knew they were far from as powerful as the one Luo Xuan met last night.

Ye Mo then came to the 12th floor. He already knew that these ghosts weren't natural. It was probably someone farming these ghosts. It could be seen that this person was quite capable. Originally, people died like an extinguished candle. They would dissipate in the world to nothing.

But here, Ye Mo found someone who could control dead spirit and make it not dissipate and even condense. This was very strange.

At the 12th floor, Ye Mo found the black shadow that fought with Luo Xuan indeed.

This black shadow didn't seem to react to Ye Mo's arrival and Ye Mo wasn't in a rush to attack it. He scanned his spirit sense out and soon found one corner of the main bedroom was different. There was a wardrobe, he couldn't scan his spirit sense in.

Ye Mo didn't even think and walked to this corner and threw out a fireball. He didn't care about the black shadow in the middle. Although it was strong, it was nothing to Ye Mo. Other people couldn't see it but it had nowhere to hide up from Ye Mo's spirit sense.

And, Ye Mo knew that this black shadow was a ghoul formed artificially by someone. As for the other ghosts a few floors below, they should be the food for this fierce ghoul to make it grow.

Although he threw out a fireball, Ye Mo couldn't help but to sigh. China had a great landscape and vast sort of things, there were all sorts of people. There were also countless methods of feeding and keeping ghosts. However, people in the cities just rarely encountered them. He didn't expect to see someone overtly keeping ghosts in the city and grew out a rather strong one.

One could imagine how much souls were needed for this ghoul to be strong enough to beat yellow level middle stage martial artist. Souls weren't easy to get. Even if you had means to collect ghosts, you needed to act on it immediately. But once a person dies, his soul would disappear immediately so these souls needed to be collected on the spot.

From this, it could be seen that the ghost keeper was a cruel person. Ye Mo's killing intent rose, he threw out a few more fireballs.

Splash splash, the closet that kept his spirit sense out was broken and a woman wearing a large red robe stood out. Her face was pale and lips were vibrant red as though she was dead.

Chapter 305: Took the wrong medicine

But Ye Mo knew that the woman in front of him wasn't dead, she was alive. It was just that because she stayed with dead things all year long, she had this death chi on her.

"Who are you? Why are you ruining my thing? I know you're not easy to mess with. I never messed with you but you dare to mess with me, screech..." The woman's voice was sharp like a needle making people feel uncomfortable.

Ye Mo sneered, "I didn't want to be bothered with you but you already messed with me. I chose this place to cultivate in peace and I don't want to be disturbed by people nor ghosts but you dare to make sounds above me. And last night, you went to the 5th floor to kill someone. If you don't piss me off it's fine but since you already disturbed me, even if you run to the end of the earth, I will still burn you down to ashes."

The red robed woman reached out her chicken claws. Her nails were a few inches long and she shrieked: "You are too domineering. I killed people but I didn't kill you. What did that get to do with you? If I wasn't afraid of you, I would've killed the woman next door last night. What else do you want?"

Ye Mo dazed. This woman could tell he was strong? Not right. Ye Mo immediately knew the woman was lying. The woman didn't kill Luo Xuan last night not because of him. There must be another reason but Ye Mo didn't expose her and said coldly: "I am domineering. What are you going to do? I've killed all your ghouls downstairs. You don't like it? You are keeping so many ghouls, and from this it can be seen how many people you kill each day. You met me and you still try to mess with me. That's your bad luck."

"You think you're good just because you can shoot fireballs? Don't blame me for not reminding you, if you offend me, you're finished. Your whole family is finished." The woman shrieked.

She actually thought a fireball was nothing? This was the first time Ye Mo met someone like this on Earth. Even when the hidden sect people saw him shoot fireballs, they were very shocked. But he actually met someone who thought lowly of the fireball technique. Did she know how to do it too or was she also a spirit cultivator?

The woman saw Ye Mo was confused and sneered coldly. She reached out her long hand and a bulb of faint yellow fire appeared on her fingers. Although it was small, it was still very clear.

Ye Mo almost laughed. This woman was really funny. She thought his fireball was made through chemical means like hers. This chemical fire could only be used to scare people. It can't really harm anyone. She probably stayed in the graveyard for too long.

"Okay you're tough. I'll give up this building now. As long as you don't look for trouble with me." The red robed woman seemed to know Ye Mo wasn't easy to mess with and wasn't prepared to fight to the death with Ye Mo.

Ye Mo sneered, "Since I came, if I let you go so easily, you'd be overestimating yourself."

And, Ye Mo was sure that the woman wasn't going to give up like this. For someone like her, she wouldn't pass out on him who had so much power. To her, his soul was probably worth more than thousands of normal ghosts.

As soon as Ye Mo finished, that ghoul behind him suddenly charged at Ye Mo speedily. Ye Mo didn't even turn and multiple fireballs enveloped the ghouls.

An extremely putrid smell came. After a fit of sharp shrieks, the ghoul behind Ye Mo was burnt into nothing.

"You dare to kill my little pet...." The red clothed woman screamed as though her life line was killed by Ye Mo and she charged to Ye Mo immediately.

Ye Mo said plainly: "You're a mere yellow level tertiary stage ancient martial arts cultivator and you dare to act cocky in front of me."

The woman stopped suddenly in her tracks and looked at Ye Mo in surprise. After a good while, she stuttered: "You, you can see what my power level is?"

"This isn't something you can know. I will take your life. You've killed so many people, so you can go die as well." Then, Ye Mo shot out more than ten fireballs around the woman.

The woman shrieked: "Don't kill me. I'm a pupil of the 4 state 9 moon temple. If you kill me you will be hunted down by the masters of my sect."

Ye Mo sneered: "9 moon temple, is it very strong? Not long ago, I killed a guy called Nie Wubian. I wonder if he came from your sect. But no need for a hunt, in a while later, I will go to the 9 moon temple personally. This disgusting place does not deserve to exist."

Hearing Ye Mo's words, the red robed woman screamed: "You actually killed Wubian martial brother? Ahh, let me go. I'm willing to help you do anything...."

Before she finished her words, she was burnt to crisp by Ye Mo's fireball with only some dust left flying around. Ye Mo then looked at that thing that could block his spirit sense. It was a very strange wood. Ye Mo couldn't recognize it but it had already been burnt pretty badly by his fireball so Ye Mo just burnt it down completely.

This woman definitely had an artefact to control ghosts but Ye Mo didn't like such dirty stuff so he didn't even ask and burnt everything. Ye Mo scanned his spirit sense out. As soon as he killed the woman, all the ghosts from downstairs floated out and disappeared in nature.

"It's finally quiet now." Ye Mo sighed. He could go back to concoct pills. But why was none of the disciples of this 4 state 9 moon temple good? All of them were completely disgusting.

Ye Mo went back to the 8th floor and forgot to ask the woman if she made the elevator rise up to the 12th floor. But it probably was her. Who else would be that bored.

Ye Mo went back to his room and took out the blood coral. He carefully cut a third. He never hoped he would succeed on the first try, so he planned to concoct one cauldron first and then find the difficult parts of making the chi increasing pill. Then, he would make preparations and wholeheartedly make the second cauldron of pills.

That Luo Xuan still hadn't come back and she probably wouldn't be coming back tonight. This was perfect. Ye Mo didn't want anyone to disturb him while he concocted pills.

He took out the Shen Nong cauldron and shot out a gust of chi fire. Then, he took out some supplementary ingredients and dumped them into the cauldron as he started to melt them. There were many supplementary ingredients that could be used for the chi increasing pill. What Ye Mo used now were all from the Shen Nong Jia. Although they weren't as good as the ones in the cultivation realm but they were still decent in improving the potency of the pill.

Half an hour later, Ye Mo took out the waste from the cauldron and cut another piece of the blood coral and dumped it in. Another hour later, the medical droplets of blood coral started to coagulate. Ye Mo was getting more and more anxious. It would be good if he could concoct the chi increasing pill on the first try but if he couldn't, he would waste a cauldron full of ingredients.

But after half an hour, Ye Mo started to sweat. The chi increasing pill wasted too much spirit chi and wasn't something he could concoct now. But he had no choice. If he didn't make one, it was impossible to breakthrough fast in this environment.

Ye Mo went from strange to familiar with the concocting process but the chi increasing pill still had no signs of forming a pill. Although Ye Mo was worried, he knew this cauldron was probably going to go to waste. It wasn't that his method was wrong but that his chi wasn't enough. If he had a pill for chi recovery now, he was sure he could finish concocting it.

He knew his chi wasn't enough but Ye Mo didn't want to give up. He still held on tight. He was trying his luck: perhaps by accident the pill would form.

In a loud bang, the still liquid ingredients exploded in the cauldron causing an air wave pushing Ye Mo out.

Ye Mo's clothes were completely blown off and his hair was like wild grass. His body was red with the steaming drips of the ingredients. Ye Mo felt hardness of breath as his mouth seeped blood. Luckily, the inner wounds weren't serious.

His power was still too low. Ye Mo sighed. Just when he was getting up to pack up, his door was kicked open.

Ye Mo didn't have time to scan his spirit sense and just took back his cauldron without thinking. At the same time, his spirit sense locked onto his flying sword. That person dared to kick his door. He doesn't want to live.

"Mo Ying.... Are you okay? Sorry, I had something on and I forgot about this. I'm really sorry." It was Luo Xuan who charged in. Her eyes were indeed full of anxiety and worry.

Now looking at Ye Mo in such a wounded state, the regret in her eyes was even more. But she continued: "But luckily you're fine. If something really happened to you, I wouldn't be able to rest easy for the rest of my life. Although you're a bad person, I can't kill people....."

What was she on about? Ye Mo frowned thinking what had his concocting pills got to do with her. Why was she so worried about him?

But Ye Mo immediately realized that he was probably dumbed by the explosion. This woman left the black dai wood sword here obviously wanting to use him. Looking at her reactions, she didn't want his life. She was probably hindered by something and forgot she left the sword here.

Although Ye Mo realized that Luo Xuan wasn't trying to harm him, he still couldn't get a good feeling towards her. After all, she wanted to use him and she forgot about this when it was life threatening. It could be seen that she didn't care about human life but her worry was real. Considering this, I would let you go this time.

Just when Ye Mo struggled to get up, Luo Xuan took out a jade vase and gave Ye Mo a pill "This is for recovery. Eat it."

Ye Mo nodded. He also wanted to see how good this woman's pills were but as soon as Ye Mo ate it, his face changed immediately.

"Oh no, I took out the wrong pill." Luo Xuan's face changed drastically as she screamed.

Chapter 306: Tricking a little girl

"I actually gave you qi recovering pill for you. What should I do?" Luo Xuan was only 19. She knew what would happen if she gave a chi recovering pill to a normal person to eat.

Qi recovering pill was for ancient martial artists who were at least at yellow or above level to recover qi. If a normal person accidentally ate this, then the only result would be death from explosion.

In a hurry, she actually used this as a injury pill for Ye Mo this "ordinary person".

Ye Mo was also shocked but not because the pill Luo Xuan gave him was qi recovering pill but because the pill could actually recover his chi, although not much. Even he didn't have pills that could recover spirit chi. Where did this girl get it from? There were many valuable ingredients in the pill that he couldn't even find. But these ingredients were just made into simple qi recovery pill. What a waste of valuable things.

If he had enough of these pills, Ye Mo could imagine that he could even use that pill to make chi increasing pill. How could he get more of these pills from this little girl? He must get it.

Ye Mo's face kept changing. He really wanted to beat Luo Xuan down and search her body but Ye Mo couldn't do such a thing. If this woman tried to harm him before, he wouldn't have any moral bearings for doing this but the truth was, Luo Xuan wasn't trying to harm him. Should he still do it?

Seeing Ye Mo's strange face, Luo Xuan was more worried that even her tears started to appear. She looked at Ye Mo with big eyes but didn't have a good way to save him. Even if she took him to the hospital, he would still die. Plus, he wouldn't even make it to the hospital. She only knew murmuring: "Sorry, I really didn't mean it, sorry...."

"Is there something wrong with me? How come I feel my stomach isn't right?" Ye Mo thought for a while and asked.

Luo Xuan wiped her tears and nodded then saying: "Qi recovering pill can only be eaten by ancient martial artists. You will explode after eating, sorry, I...."

Ye Mo was trying so hard not to laugh but his face turned bleak and scary, "I'm going to die and it's caused by your qi recovery pill. So after I die and turn into a ghost, I will still follow you. I have no feud with you but you killed me. There's an extra ghost in this haunted house, so I can't let you go...."

Luo Xuan's face turned white but she shook her head: "I didn't mean it. In fact I'm not scared of ghosts. I actually went to catch the ghost at level 9...."

"No matter if you're afraid or not, I died by your hands so I will follow you day and night. If there's an opportunity I will eat you...." Ye Mo said nastily.

Luo Xuan was more worried and said: "I really didn't mean to harm you. If people die, their souls will dissipate.... Hm, how come your stomach isn't getting bigger. Normal people who eat the pills will have their stomachs gradually grow big and then end in an explosion....."

Ye Mo was alarmed. He must not let her see anything. Thinking about this, his stomach started to grow big gradually.

"Ahh, your stomach....." Luo Xuan wanted to slap her mouth. As soon as she said Ye Mo's stomach, it turned big.

"What do I do?" Luo Xuan was very worried but good thing was, although Mo Ying's stomach was growing big, it was very slow.

Ye Mo said with a struggle: "I'm going to die. You go out. I don't want you to watch me die."

"But...." Luo Xuan looked worriedly at Ye Mo and said after a while: "Sorry, I caused your death."

Ye Mo was so annoyed: I've already said that, and what's the use of saying sorry. Next line of the script should be: if you have any last wishes, I'll help you finish it.

Just when Ye Mo was prepared to remind Luo Xuan, she wiped her eyes and said: "If you still have any last wishes, I will definitely help you finish it."

Ye Mo's face grew bleaker as he said: "I don't want to hate you but I hate your qi recovery pill. Give me all your qi recovery pills. Before I die, I will exact revenge on these pills. That is my only wish."

Luo Xuan didn't think much of it and took out the qi recovery pills pitifully and said: "Actually, it's not the pill's fault. It's all my fault....."

Ye Mo saw that she didn't give the pills to him and quickly said: 'It's fine if you don't want to complete my wish. After I die, I will turn into a ghost and follow you day and night. Even if you're not afraid of ghosts, I will still find fellow ghosts and follow you."

Luo Xuan's face went white.

Now that Ye Mo said this, she quickly replied: "No you must not please. Okay, I'll give them to you." Then, she put the qi recovery pills in front of Ye Mo and said after a while: "If you turn into a ghost, don't follow me, even if you do, don't get too many ghosts to follow me...."

Ye Mo took back the qi recovery pills and was no longer in the mood to bull shit with Luo Xuan. He quickly said: "Okay, I won't follow you. You can go out. I want to be by myself. Remember to fixed the door for me."

Then, Ye Mo pushed Luo Xuan out and closed the door. Ye Mo looked at the pills in his hands and felt his face burning. It was like an adult tricking something from a little kid. But this woman couldn't be counted as a kid. Not only did she scheme him and also gave him the wrong pill.

If he really was a normal person, perhaps he would really have died. But Ye Mo also knew that he was finding excuses for himself. After all, this bottle of pills must be really expensive on earth. Never mind, when he concocted chi increasing pills, he would give her two. With two, perhaps she could reach black level elementary stage. That would be the compensation.

After all, without the qi recovery pill, it would be hard for Ye Mo to concoct the chi increasing pill at stage 3 chi gathering.

Luo Xuan stood outside and suddenly felt something wasn't quite right but she didn't know what was wrong.

Ye Mo packed up his room and took a shower. He scanned his spirit sense out and found that Luo Xuan hadn't left. She just sat in his living room dumbfounded.

Helplessly, Ye Mo could only open the door and looked at Luo Xuan and asked: 'How come you haven't left?'

"Huh, you're not dead? That's great! I thought....." but she didn't finish the rest of the sentence. Seeing that Ye Mo was fine, the happiness on her face was authentic.

Seeing this expression, Ye Mo felt more guilty but this guilt just flashed across quickly. He'll just give her some chi increasing pills, much more precious than her qi recovery pill.

Ye Mo could only say awkwardly: "Yea, originally, I felt my stomach was very uncomfortable and I don't know why but it seemed to be starting to get better. This is quite strange. Okay, you should be going back. It's just that my door is broken and I need to fix it tomorrow."

Ye Mo was afraid Luo Xuan would think about the pills and quickly directed her attention.

"Oh by the way, I forgot to ask you. When I just came in, I saw you were injured. Was it because the thing from upstairs came down? Wait, I'll go have a look." Then before Ye Mo could reply, Luo Xuan ran out quickly.

Ye Mo's spirit sense immediately followed and found that she actually went to the balcony of the 9th floor. She wasn't afraid today. This was really strange but when she reached the 9th floor, she checked carefully. Eventually, her eyes fell on the footprints on the ground.

One set was left behind by her but beside it she saw another set that also belonged to a woman. However, it disappeared at the end of the balcony. What made her surprised the most was that there was another set of footprints that was much larger. It appeared very suddenly because there were no footsteps around it.

Ye Mo looked at Luo Xuan's face that kept changing and commended on her meticulous mind. Although her experience was pitifully little, she was very meticulous.

That of course, was left behind by Ye Mo. He forgot to erase it. After he left the footprints, he just flew to the 10th floor so it appeared very suddenly.

Ye Mo thought Luo Xuan would go upstairs and look but she instead flipped down and came into Ye Mo's house.

"What are you doing back here?" Ye Mo was scared of facing Luo Xuan. She better not ask about the qi recovery pills. They were very useful to him.

Luo Xuan stood in front of Ye Mo and hesitated for a long time before saying shyly: "Um, Mo Ying, I just...."

"Aiya, my door is still not fixed. I'll have a look. I heard this building isn't safe. What if something at night comes into my house, I'll be dead." Ye Mo thought she was going to ask for the pills and didn't even think before interrupting her. He walked to the door and started to check it.

Luo Xuan quickly followed and said: "It's fine. I'll help you find someone to fix it tomorrow. If you don't feel safe at night, you can live at my place. There are 3 bedrooms."

"Um, that's not too good. How about you go first and when I want to come, I'll press your bell." Ye Mo immediately said.

"Okay, I'll go back first. I'm tired today. If you're coming then come earlier, otherwise, I'll fall asleep." Luo Xuan nodded but just when she walked to the doorway, she stopped. Ye Mo had a fright. Was she going to remember?

Chapter 307: Feeling Guilty

As expected, Luo Xuan suddenly stopped and hesitated for a moment before saying: "By the way, Mo Ying, can you give back the qi recovery pills I gave you? They are very important for me."

She was telling the truth. If she had those pills at night, perhaps she would even continue on to the 10th floor after 9. But without it, she didn't dare to go up. And, these pills were very precious. If she wasn't going outdoor for experience, she wouldn't even get that bottle. Even her master couldn't get these so easily.

Because Luo Xuan was the youngest, she got a bottle of qi recovery pills and there was only 12 inside.

Meanwhile, her two martial sisters only got 6. Because Ye Mo was going to die and wanted the qi recovery pills as his last wish, so although she couldn't bear it but she still gave them to him since he would die due to her.

But now, Ye Mo lived again and these qi recovery pills were so expensive. She must get them back. So no matter how Ye Mo interrupted, she always remembered that there was a bottle of qi recovery pills on Ye Mo.

Upon hearing Luo Xuan's words, Ye Mo almost spat blood. He tried for so long to try to divert attention but she still asked that question. There was no way he was going to give the pills back. He had no chi recovery pills now. It wasn't that he couldn't make them but he didn't have the resources. So, this bottle of pills was very important to Ye Mo. Without them, he wouldn't be able to make chi increasing pills.

Seeing that Ye Mo didn't talk for a long time, Luo Xuan was worried. Just when she was prepared to ask again, Ye Mo sighed, "Sigh, I thought I died in the hands of qi recovery pill so I threw them all away. Now that you ask me for it, I can't take it out."

"Huh...???" Luo Xuan heard Ye Mo's words and tears started to swell around her eyes. Such a precious bottle of pills were tipped out. She dazed for a long time before she wiped her eyes and asked: "Where did you tip them?"

Seeing that this little girl was crying, Ye Mo felt a little embarrassed but could only say: "I just threw it out the window casually. Who knows where it went. Perhaps, the pills have been eaten up by ants."

Upon hearing this, Luo Xuan went out immediately.

Ye Mo felt a sigh of relief. He finally tricked her away. If she stayed, then he really wouldn't be able to take it. It was just a bottle of qi recovery pills. It made him feel so guilty.

Ye Mo looked at the door that was kicked open and didn't bother to do anything. He went back to this room and was prepared to have a night's rest. When Luo Xuan went to uni tomorrow, he would make a few cauldrons of normal pills. When he got familiar, he would fully concentrate on the chi increasing pills.

But before Ye Mo got on bed, his spirit sense scanned Luo Xuan. This girl carried a mine torch searching for something downstairs.

No way, Ye Mo yawned helplessly. This woman was really annoying. He already said he threw it away but she was searching for it at night with a mine torch. How did that make him feel.

Sigh, let her be. Once she won't find it, she will give up. If he knew earlier, he should've said he threw it in the toilet. Ye Mo hardened his heart and went to sleep.

Ye Mo woke up in the morning with a fresh mind. He cleaned himself and was prepared to go downstairs to get soy milk. But he saw from the balcony that Luo Xuan was still searching downstairs. Ye Mo was shocked. Did she actually search for it the whole night.

Looking at Luo Xuan's state, Ye Mo fell silent. He sighed. Never mind, he'll give it back to her. Without those pills, he would think of another way. This made him feel so guilty.

Just when Ye Mo wanted to call Luo Xuan up to give the pills back to her, he saw her disappointed look as she turned into the building.

Ye Mo scanned that her eyes were quite black and a bit swollen. She was probably sad over the pills for the whole night but since she gave up, there was no need to give it back to her.

However, Ye Mo didn't dare to go down to drink soy milk. He didn't want to meet her again.

He went back in his room and fiddled with the yin fiend bead for a while and estimated that by this time, Luo Xuan should've been gone. Then, he walked out slowly.

"How come you still haven't left?" Ye Mo opened the door and saw Luo Xuan sitting in the living room thinking it was really convenient without a door.

Luo Xuan originally wanted to say something but seeing that Ye Mo opened the door to his bedroom, she immediately charged in. she looked carefully around his room before shaking her head.

He looked at her in shock thinking: if I'm going to steal it, I can't let you see it right?

Luo Xuan looked a while before turning back and saying: "Mo Ying, I just noticed that there was some yin fiend chi in your room. Something unclean might have come to your room last night. Did you find anything different last night?"

Ye Mo dazed. He took out the yin fiend bead just then and Luo Xuan noticed that chi. This girl was really sensitive. Ye Mo asked subconsciously: "How do you know?"

Luo Xuan said in a serious manner: "I can see things that others can't with my eyes and I seemed to have seen some yin fiend chi in your room. But it's very faint and it's gone now. But this isn't normal. I suggest you to stop living here."

Ye Mo commended but said: "Luo Xuan, it's such a waste that you don't become a nun." Then, he remembered, wasn't this little girl already a nun? Sigh, what a pity. Such a beautiful little girl actually became a nun.

As expected, a sliver of uneasiness appeared across Luo Xuan's face but she didn't say anything.

"Um, aren't you going to uni today..." Ye Mo feared staying with this Luo Xuan the most. Whenever he was with her, he couldn't help to think about the bottle of pills.

Luo Xuan shook her head: "Sorry, I wasn't at home last night and forgot your place didn't have a door. You were almost harmed by bad spirits. So, I called in the morning for you. Later, someone will come fix the door.

Ye Mo opened his mouth and thought, why Luo Xuan seemed different from a few days ago. Was it because she lost her pills that she went under a personality change? She should use the attitude she used against that young master Wu, then he wouldn't feel guilty.

"It doesn't matter. It's fine. I'm living very well here, very well...." Ye Mo waved his hands. Seeing Luo Xuan who wasn't convinced, Ye Mo could only say again: "I'm going down to get soy milk. See ya."

Then, Ye Mo left. He thought, if you won't leave, then I'll leave.

"Wait...." Luo Xuan suddenly stopped Ye Mo.

"What else is it?" Ye Mo looked at Luo Xuan strangely.

Luo Xuan hesitated before eventually saying: 'I have something that I want you to help me with.'

Ye Mo felt strange. Luo Xuan didn't seem like she needed his help. Plus, with her perception of him, she wouldn't ask him for help even if she needed to. What trick was she going to play now. Ye Mo didn't mind. If she didn't play tricks, then he would help her with something small. Even if she did try something, he wouldn't lose to a little girl.

Thinking about this, Ye Mo laughed, "Hahahaha, no problem. We're neighbors and you're a warmhearted person. We should be helping each other out occasionally. Tell me, what is it?"

"I have a qian bei in Chun An. It's his 100 years birthday so I want to go greet him. I'm wondering if you can come with me?" Luo Xuan eventually said.

Ye Mo felt strange: "Since he's your qian bei, then you can just go by yourself. Why are you getting me to go? Is he going to eat you or something?"

Luo Xuan quickly explained: "No, it's like this. This qian bei stayed in Chun An uni for a while. Chun An uni is one of the oldest unis in china. It's past life could be traced but to the Tang dynasty. 60 years ago, a lot of the books in the library were lost due to a big incident. But most of these books were collected by this qian bei. I love reading books so my family wants me to go meet this qian bei and try to see some of those old books."

"Then go read them. That qian bei has lived for 100 years. I don't think he's stingy to the point that he wouldn't let you read the books. Plus, if he really is that stingy, then there's no point in me going as well." Ye Mo said casually. He didn't want to go to public scenes. There would be a lot of people.

"But, that qian bei has a great grand son studying at Chun An uni. He's very sticky and I really don't want to go but I have to." Luo Xuan said troubled.

Ye Mo sneered: "So you're getting me to be your shield. Sorry, I don't like being shield."

Luo Xuan said seriously however: "No, I'm not making you as a shield. I really want you to help. You just said we're neighbors. You will help me? And, it is not going for long. When I'm looking at the books, you just need to keep him stalled. And, the qi recovery pills are something important my family gave me. I've already lost them. If I can't even do this, then I really don't know what to say when I get back.

Ye Mo dazed. There was allegorical meaning to Luo Xuan's words. Was she suspecting that he took her qi recovery pills?

Chapter 308: Catching the thief and loot

Hearing Luo Xuan say that, Ye Mo's face looked bad and said: "It's fine if I go but it must be a week later. It can't be these few days."

Even if he were to expose himself, it would have to be after he made his pills and reached stage 4. Otherwise, he would rather not take the pills. But hearing this little girl's words, she was already suspecting him.

Luo Xuan smiled sweetly, "There's still some time before that qian bei's birthday so you don't need to worry."

Looking at Luo Xuan leaving, Ye Mo suspected even more that his little tricks had been seen through. Perhaps she knew long ago that the qi recovery pills were on his hands. How were the little girls so smart these days?

Luo Xuan looked at Ye Mo go down and then murmured: 'My qi recovery pills were definitely taken by him. I didn't think he was this bad. He's a young man but he's not only lazy and also calls up hookers. He even tricks my things. He's really bad.

Big martial sister is right. The people outside are too evil. I just don't know where he hid my qi recovery pills. I'll let you meet the Huo Que of Chun An uni. You're fault for tricking my qi recovery pills. When you offend Huo Que, let's see what you are going to do? When you beg me for help, you can give my pills back."

When Ye Mo came back, he noticed that people were already here changing the door and Luo Xuan was watching from the side. She saw Ye Mo and nodded but didn't say anything. The door was changed soon but Luo Xuan gave the money. Ye Mo didn't have much money and she broke the door so he didn't offer to pay the money.

Looking at Ye Mo close the door Luo Xuan felt very uncomfortable. She thought, this man was not only bad but also stingy. Even though she broke his door, if he offered to pay, she wouldn't let him pay. But he didn't even make a courtesy offer.

But Luo Xuan thought about it and still took out her peach wood sword and hung it on Ye Mo's door. Ye Mo could see it clearly of course and this time it was a peach wood sword indeed. It seemed this Luo Xuan still had some conscience.

Ye Mo saw Luo Xuan get on the bed and sleep so he took back his spirit sense. He knew she didn't sleep last night.

Originally, Ye Mo planned to concoct some other pills for practice but looking at the ingredients in his storage ring, they were very little. If he used them all, perhaps he wouldn't even be able to concoct the chi increasing pill.

Ye Mo thought and decided in the end to try making the chi increasing pills first. He had Luo Xuan's qi recovery pills now. Although he didn't have 100% certainty to succeed but it wouldn't be like yesterday when he had no chance at all.

He was sure Luo Xuan had fallen asleep before he cut a half of the blood coral and took out the shen nong cauldron. He dumped the ingredients in and started to melt them into liquid like yesterday.

Two hours later, Ye Mo felt the depletion of his chi. He immediately took out a chi recovery pill and put it in his mouth. Although his chi recovered some, it was still far from enough. Ye Mo sighed, this qi recovery pill really wasn't good but Luo Xuan still treated it like treasure.

Ye Mo tipped out 5 pills and dumped them all in his mouth. After eating 6, Ye Mo finally felt his chi recovered by half. The withered chi fire at the bottom of the cauldron grew fiery again. Another hour later, Ye Mo ate another two and the liquid had started to coagulate.

Ye Mo kept all his mind inside the cauldron. He only had this chance. If he failed, he had no more qi recovery pills left despite having another cauldron full of ingredients. If it was in the cultivation realm, he could set up a chi gathering formation but now, he had nothing.

The liquid started to coagulate more and more. Although Ye Mo wanted to eat two more qi recovery pills, he couldn't split his attention to do it.

More and more sweat appeared on Ye Mo's body. His head even started to steam but at the same time, the aroma from the cauldron grew more and more intense. Eventually, all the pill liquid formed into pills. Ye Mo yelled and a crisp sound came from the cauldron. A few faint red pills flew out from the cauldron and Ye Mo quickly put them in jade containers.

He actually made 9. Ye Mo was overjoyed. This far exceeded his expectations.

Ye Mo packed away the cauldron and then realized that he was drenched in sweat. He felt a sense of weakness. Making this cauldron of pills made him lose a lot of power. He felt gratitude towards Luo Xuan. If he didn't meet this girl, then even in his best state, he wouldn't be able to make them.

Just when Ye Mo stood up, his door was kicked open.

Luo Xuan looked at Ye Mo who was full of fatigue and couldn't even say a word.

After a long while, only one word came out of her mouth, "You....."

Ye Mo looked at Luo Xuan helplessly. He wanted to cry. This girl kicked his door twice. The first time, front door, the second time, bedroom door. Luckily he finished making the pills, otherwise he would be finished.

"Luo Xuan, can you not kick my door next time please. All my privacy is being leaked by you." Ye Mo sighed.

If it wasn't because Luo Xuan supplied the qi recovery pills and he just finished concocting a cauldron of chi increasing pills, and he was in a good mood, perhaps he would've kicked this woman out already.

"Sorry, I didn't know what you were doing. Luckily I left a key to the front door and I called for you a long time and pressed the door bell but you didn't open. I thought something happened to you, so...." Luo Xuan said awkwardly.

Ye Mo looked at Luo Xuan helplessly "Am I not allowed to go out? I'm not your husband. You don't need to keep your eyes on me day and night. Please, don't kick my door again. And, don't keep saying sorry." Ye Mo sighed. Thinking that the good thing was he already made the pills, he would move away in a few days. He was scared of her.

Luo Xuan couldn't say that she left a sign on his door and she would know if he went out or if someone or some ghost came in, she would also know. How could she bear to say such a thing. Although her intention was to see if ghosts had come into his room but she was too embarrassed to say that. But soon, her eyes fell on a bottle beside Ye Mo. It was obviously her qi recovery pills bottle.

Ye Mo soon realized Luo Xuan's eyesight and could no longer say anything to criticize Luo Xuan. This was catching the thief and the loot.

Ye Mo laughed awkwardly: "Aiya, hahaha look, I already helped you find your qi recovery pills. You can take it back but I think there's only 3 left. I think the rest were eaten by ants. These ants are too evil. Do they not know that these things are very precious?" Then, Ye Mo stuffed the bottle back into Luo Xuan's hands.

Luo Xuan took the bottle and opened it. Seeing that there was only 3 pills left, tears started to swell around her eyes again.

Ye Mo stood there in embarrassment. After a long while he said: "Sorry, I took your qi recovery pills. It's because I'm also cultivating a martial arts and these qi recovery pills have some little use to me. What I said before was a lie."

Looking at Luo Xuan's sad face, Ye Mo really couldn't get himself to lie to this girl again and he told the truth.

Luo Xuan wiped her eyes and held the jade bottle tight but didn't say anything.

Ye Mo sighed: "Okay, when you go to that qian bei's family for birthday, I'll go help and I'll annoy that Huo Que so he can look for trouble with me. Is that okay?"

Luo Xuan took back the pills carefully and her face recovered. She looked up at Ye Mo: "I've known that you took the pills. When you ate the pills and were fine, I thought about it and knew you must also be cultivating inner qi. I originally wanted you to give a few back to me but because of me, you were almost killed by the ghost so I didn't say anything."

Ye Mo dazed, so this little girl already knew but he was still putting up an act. This was really awkward. It seemed that if you thought of others as fools, then you'd be the real fool.

Looking at Ye Mo's awkward state, Luo Xuan suddenly felt better but she continued: "I originally planned for that Huo Que to make trouble for you but since you gave me back my pills, I'll let you go. Come with me. I won't let that Huo guy give you trouble in the future. Don't worry, just, just....."

"Just what? If you have something, just say it." Ye Mo was shameless. Since the awkwardness was over, he recovered to normal immediately.

Luo Xuan looked at Ye Mo and said hesitantly: "Since you are also praising ancient martial arts, I need to tell you that the taboo for martial artists is distraction and lust. I see that you're not bad to the bones so I need to remind you. It's up to you if you listen or not."

Ye Mo was shocked by Luo Xuan's lightning words. He knew what he was in Luo Xuan's eyes. That policewoman said he was a whorehound.

Ye Mo waved his hand: "I know, you go back first. I will go in seclusive training these few days. Don't kick my door again. After I finish, I will come out and find you."

Although he wanted to compensate two qi increasing pills to Luo Xuan, he wouldn't do it before he ascended.

"Psch". This was the first time Ye Mo saw Luo Xuan laugh like that. He dazed. Luo Xuan said speechlessly: "Sigh, I suggest you not to do that. You probably watched too much fighting dramas. Hahaha, don't forget to eat then. I'm going first."

Chapter 309: Chi gathering middle stage

Looking at Luo Xuan walking out, Ye Mo just realized that he was being laughed at. She must've thought he was acting as those grand masters in those dramas, always going into solitary training. But her suspicion was right. After all, although there was solitary training in ancient martial arts but those were people at the peak of black level. And, they still had to eat food.

Ye Mo didn't explain. He had all the necessary conditions now and was ready to reach stage 4 chi gathering. That night, Ye Mo took a shower and cleaned his room. He used wind control to glide to the top of the building.

He was really scared of Luo Xuan. Perhaps if he didn't come out for 2 days, this girl was going to kick his door again. He didn't have that many doors to be kicked and if some accidents occurred, his chi might backlash and that would be deadly.

Ye Mo stood at the top of the building but didn't start cultivating immediately. He gazed into the lights of the distant. Ever since he came here, he had never properly thought of his future.

When he first came here, he was thinking if he could cultivate to the point where he could travel space and go back to find Luo Ying but now, he realized that this place wasn't even suited for cultivation. He could only keep his memories of Luo Ying in his heart.

But he really didn't want to live out an ordinary life like this. Luckily he found the silver heart grass. That gave him hope and the motivation to cultivate.

In the following days, he found that although this place wasn't suitable for cultivation, there were many spiritual things. As long as he could find enough of them, perhaps he could still cultivate to almighty state. But these spiritual things not only required luck but also money and power. He formed Luo Yue. He wanted to use it to gather wealth and collect all the spiritual items in the world.

During this time, he met Qingxue. She was an emotional girl. When she went to search for him at the Shen Nong Jia, he realized that he had already fell in love with this girl. Without him noticing, Qingxue had become equally important as Luo Ying in his heart. If he couldn't go back to Luo Yue to find Luo Ying, he was willing to live out a peaceful life with Qingxue like this.

In fact, Ye Mo also had another reason to establish Luo Yue. He always hoped that when Luo Ying recovered her memories, she would come look for him due to this name.

Ye Mo sighed and murmured: "Susu, wait for me. I'm going to reach stage 4 chi gathering. I can fly on the flying sword now. Even if I have to look everywhere, I will find you. I said that I won't let you suffer your entire life again, won't let you be harassed. Wait for me..... and Qingxue, I want to go see you....."

Ye Mo collected his thoughts and sat down. He took out a chi increasing pill and dumped it in his mouth. Then, he started to control his chi to do meridian cycles.

Ye Mo who had been accustomed to the scarcity of spirit chi was suddenly not used to the intense medicinal powers of the chi increasing pill. Strong spirit chi started to charge at the unopened barrier in Ye Mo again and again.

Even though Ye Mo was the peak of stage 3 chi gathering, it wasn't easy to reach stage 4 at such an environment. Without chi increasing pill, perhaps he would never be able to reach stage 4.

After some time, when the effects of the pill was about to dissipate, Ye Mo felt that he was still a bit off from breaking that barrier. He didn't even think before eating another 3 pills immediately.

The pills melted in his mouth turning into a large sum of spirit chi and started to charge at Ye Mo's meridians. Ye Mo just felt that pulsating pain in his meridians. He knew this was a precursor for breakthrough. He clenched his teeth and didn't stop for a moment at trying to breakthrough.

Rumble.

Ye Mo felt there was a loud bang in his body and the blocked meridian suddenly opened up. Some black impurities seeped from the surface of his body.

Large spirit chi rushed into his dan tian. A spirit chi more than twice as strong as before surged out making his meridians beat with more power.

Ye Mo tried using his spirit chi. It was pompous. He had experienced stage 4 chi gathering before but didn't have such power before. Was it stronger to breakthrough at places with scarce spirit chi?

Although he didn't know if this conjecture was correct, Ye Mo was sure that his current stage 4 was much stronger than his previous stage 4 in his past life.

He knew there was a milestone between chi gathering primary stage and middle stage but the difference in power exceeded Ye Mo's expectation. There were 9 levels in chi gathering. Level 1 to 3 was primary stage. 4-6 was middle stage and 7-9 was tertiary stage.

If chi increased at this rate, wouldn't his chi multiply many times again at level 7? Ye Mo rejoiced. He wanted to stand up and release his power but he knew that his state wasn't stabilized yet. He must not slack. It would be tragic if he fell back to chi gathering level 3 due to his cockiness.

Ye Mo didn't dare to think much and started to control his chi to go in meridian cycles to stabilize his state.

Luo Xuan stood in front of Ye Mo's door walking back and forth. She hadn't seen Ye Mo for two days and this made her worry again. Although she hung the peach wood sword on his door, who knew if the ghost could come in?

After hesitating for a long time, she finally couldn't resist the worry in her heart and opened the doors again but what made her disappointed was that the door was still broken and the other two doors weren't even closed. Was he harmed already?

Luo Xuan left Ye Mo's room and sighed. She guessed that it was highly likely her neighbor was harmed. Although this guy was quite annoying but after living with him for a week, she felt Ye Mo wasn't that bad. Although he liked sucking up to people but these people were everywhere. She should have persuaded him to leave early but she was too careless.

Plus, he lived next door. Although it wasn't much use but the more people the better. This building was too silent.

Thinking about this, Luo Xuan looked at the 9th floor as frost flashed across her eyes, "I'll go end you tonight, otherwise, you'd be harming others if you stayed here."

She had made up her mind to end that ghost. Although it was strong, she had 3 qi returning pills now.

The moon was high in the sky and Ye Mo suddenly stood up. His state was completely consolidated. At this moment, he felt that even if there was an earth level master in front of him, he would be a joke.

Ye Mo had a sudden urge. He took off his dirty clothes and used a few clear water spells on him. Then, his body was clean like a fetus.

Ye Mo took out a clean set of clothes from his ring and put it on his body before giving out a long sigh. Then, he took out his flying sword and under the control his chi gathering middle stage chi, the sword transformed into a huge sword that was a few meters long and one meter wide.

Ye Mo stood on the sword and with a long howl, the sword shot up into the sky and clouds.

That excitement and thrill filled Ye Mo's chest. He felt relieved as though he escaped a confinement.

Ye Mo darted in and out of the clouds on his sword. The wind blew his hair and clothes but he didn't want to raise up a barrier. He liked this feeling. It was a feeling of longing and great excitement. Ye Mo howled and the sound echoed his path in the sky.

Luo Xuan who just got to the 9th floor suddenly stopped. Did she hear Ye Mo's howl? Was it wrong? No it wasn't. It was at the top of the building. In desperation, Luo Xuan actually forgot to search for the ghost and quickly climbed up to the 10th floor. Then 11th and 12th.

Eventually, she got to the top and stood at the top. She felt relaxed as she looked at the lights in the distance.

Right, I came here to find Ye Mo. Luo Xuan remembered her purpose and looked around. The roof was quiet and empty making her feel free but lonely.

Suddenly, she had the impulse making her want to fly and soar into the sky. But then she sighed. She knew this was impossible. Even her master couldn't fly. Flying, that was just a legend.

Ye Mo's clothes? Luo Xuan turned around and saw a set of clothes. The clothes were dirty. It was obviously the set Ye Mo was wearing before.

Chapter 310: The elevator that went up by itself

So the ghost upstairs harmed him indeed. Now, the clothes confirmed her suspicion, Luo Xuan actually felt a faint sense of sadness and lost. Although she wasn't on good terms with Ye Mo, in this dead apartment block, a neighbor was much better than solitude.

But soon, her eyes went cold and was no longer in the mood to stay at the top of the building. She picked up her long sword and charged down without hesitation.

She went from the 12th to the 9th floor but didn't find anything at all. She felt very strange. Did the thing leave already?

If she really saw the ghost, Luo Xuan wouldn't be scared. She didn't believe that she would lose to a ghost. But she looked around and still didn't find anything. She actually started to feel scared. The things that were unseen were the scariest. Luo Xuan no longer dared to stay on the 9th floor and wanted to go down immediately, the faster the better.

But when she just reached the elevator of the 9th floor, she found that the elevator came up and opened by itself. There was nothing inside the elevator. The doors opened for a bit then closed and went up by itself. Then, it stopped at the 10th floor for a moment before going up to the 11th floor.

Luo Xuan could no longer calm down anymore. She felt goosebumps on her head. She just came down and didn't find anything but now, this elevator was going upstairs by itself. She could no longer hold back the terror in her heart. There was only her living here above level 3 but she couldn't even see anything. Her eyes were supposed to see a lot of things.

Originally, there was Mo Ying next door but he was definitely harmed. Luo Xuan resisted the terror in her heart and climbed down from the balcony. She wanted to go downstairs and not stay here for tonight. That elevator was too scary. At this moment, she realized that that Mo Ying could embolden her even without doing anything. But now, he had gone.

When Luo Xuan came down, she found that the balcony belonged to Mo Ying.

"Ahhhhh...." Luo Xuan screamed at Ye Mo who was not far away. He appeared too suddenly. Luo Xuan felt her skin had already started getting more goosebumps. Wasn't he dead? How did he appear here?

"You said you won't follow me. I didn't kill you. You must not come here please." Luo Xuan had already forgotten she was someone who could hunt ghosts. She actually started to feel scared towards Ye Mo.

Ye Mo looked at her strangely: "What are you on about? Wasn't your courage usually pretty great? And you went up to the 9th floor to hunt ghosts. Why do you have that expression? This room is where I live. You came to my place and you're telling me not to come over. You're really strange. Did I not tell you I was going into solitary training? Why did you come here?"

"You didn't die?" Luo Xuan came back to her sense and still looked at Ye Mo unsurely.

"You're dead!" Ye Mo said unhappily. He just reached chi gathering middle stage and had a ride in the sky. But as soon as he came back, this girl said he was dead.

Luo Xuan suddenly had an overjoyed expression on her face. She grabbed Ye Mo's hands, "You didn't die. You really didn't die! Great! I thought you died. Your hands are still warm. You didn't die, [whimpers]..."

As she spoke, Luo Xuan actually started crying and she almost went into his arms.

Ye Mo frowned. Was this girl okay? Why was she so scared? He knew her guts and that night, she fought with the ghost. Although she was pushed downstairs, her qing gong still saved her life and she was a yellow level middle stage cultivator. What was going on?

"What happened?" Ye Mo didn't push Luo Xuan away, he didn't know what happened to her.

"hmm, don't move...." Ye Mo saw Luo Xuan's eyes were strange. He grabbed Luo Xuan's wrist. Indeed, in her body there was some dark unclean qi. She was already a yellow level warrior and could see things others could not. How could such evil qi attach to her body?

Ye Mo used his chi to force out that dark qi and burnt it.

At this moment, Luo Xuan realized that she had ran into Ye Mo's arms. She quickly moved out and said: "What was I doing just then? And what happened to you? I saw your clothes at the top of the building?"

"You went upstairs?" Ye Mo thought that there were no ghosts upstairs now and even if there were, she shouldn't be scared like this. Plus, since there were no ghosts here, how was she intruded by evil qi?

"I dumped my clothes there, after I finished solitary training. I went to the roof and stood for a while. Because I was full of sweat, I took off my clothes there." Ye Mo said.

Luo Xuan had calmed down by now and breathed before saying: "So that's what happened. I was so scared. I thought something happened to you so I went upstairs by myself wanting to kill the ghost to get revenge for you, but when I got to the 12th floor there was nothing. And then, I saw your clothes and I got angrier so I went down again but I didn't find anything."

Ye Mo asked strangely: "Since you didn't find anything, why were you so scared?" he didn't ask her why evil qi got inside her body? But he felt quite grateful of Luo Xuan. After all, she went to get revenge for him.

Luo Xuan still had some after shock fear, "I don't know. I thought I wouldn't be afraid of ghosts but at the 9th floor, I saw the elevator go up and open up by itself. There was nothing inside. I didn't see anything but then the elevator continued up to the 10th floor. Then, I became scared and jumped down immediately. I was prepared to leave but I saw you."

Ye Mo frowned and murmured to himself: "So the elevator moving has nothing to do with that woman. What was going on?"

"With what woman?' Luo Xuan asked.

Ye Mo waved his hand: "Nothing important but luckily you came down early. If you came down a little later, perhaps you wouldn't be able to come down. Amazing, even I didn't notice this."

"Mo Ying, tell me. You live here and you're not afraid of ghosts. And you said even you didn't notice. Are you a disciple of the Mao Mountain?" at this moment, Luo Xuan also knew that Ye Mo was no ordinary person. She was almost harmed living here but a normal person could live here so freely? That wasn't normal.

Ye Mo nodded seriously: "I'm an immortal. Ghosts are insects in my eyes. Normal ghosts who see a master like me ran as far as they can."

"Psht..." Luo Xuan heard Ye Mo's bull shit and felt much better.

After saying that, Ye Mo also felt a little embarrassed. That night when he went up to kill the ghost, the elevator also moved up by itself but he didn't notice anything. It was obviously bullshit saying that ghosts ran as far as they could when they saw him.

"Okay, you go back to sleep. I'll go up and have a look." Ye Mo said. He really didn't believe something could hide right under his nose.

"Don't." although the bleak chi inside Luo Xuan's body had been burnt, the lesson she learnt tonight was too big. It allowed her to understand that although she was a yellow level martial artists, there were a lot of things she couldn't control. She still thought that although Ye Mo had some small capabilities, he was still far from her. Even she almost couldn't come down, if Ye Mo went, he would be dead for sure.

Ye Mo looked helplessly at this little girl who, a few days ago, still had great aspirations in catching ghosts and said: "Okay, then I'll go up in a few days. But since you're so scared, why are you still staying here? Do you not know that this is a haunted building?"

Luo Xuan shook her head: "I know. That's why I moved over. I lived at the uni before but it affected my cultivation and a lot of people kept annoying me. So now I live at the haunted building, no one had come to annoy me these days. I feel so much better. And, I'm not scared of ghosts. Ghosts are scared of me."

Ye Mo looked at Luo Xuan in shock, "You sure you're not afraid of ghosts?"

Luo Xuan hesitated for a moment: "Most of the times, I'm not scared but the one I met tonight was too powerful. I couldn't even see it, so...."

"So, you were scared, right?" Ye Mo said.

Luo Xuan nodded unexpectedly: "Yes."

Then, Luo Xuan looked at Ye Mo's room and said embarrassingly: "Um, Mo Ying, your room door is broken. How about you come over to mine. I still have an empty room."

Ye Mo pointed at his two empty rooms: "I also have empty rooms too. Why do I need to live at your place?"

"Because.....because...." Luo Xuan stumbled for a long time but still couldn't say it.

Ye Mo was in a good mood. He smiled and said: "Because you're scared of ghosts right. Never mind. On account of your chi recovery pills letting me reach great heaven state, I'll help you once. But I'm telling you, I'm leaving here in at most a week, so you'll be living by yourself still."

"You're bluffing again, great heaven...." Luo Xuan rolled her eyes. She wouldn't believe Ye Mo's words but she continued: "Perhaps next week after going to that qian bei's house to look at the books, I can leave too."

Ye Mo didn't know if great heaven level masters could fly but he felt that now he ascended to level 4, he was so much stronger than before. He wouldn't even care about great heaven state masters. Plus, Zhang Zhihui said there was rarely any great heaven level masters. What would he be afraid of.

"Right, since you're a disciple of Mao Mountain, you shouldn't be afraid of ghosts. There was a loud bang in your apartment a few days ago and why were you injured." Luo Xuan remembered what happened a few days ago and asked.

Ye Mo smiled, "When did I say I'm a disciple of Mao Mountain? I'm a pill master. Last time I borrowed your qi recovery pills to concoct a few pills. After eating those pills, you will ascend immediately. After you rest up, I'll give you one to eat and you'll know.

Luo Xuan looked at Ye Mo strangely for a long time before saying: "You're really capable, aren't you? Not only are you great heaven level but you're also a pill master. But never mind about the pills, I suggest you go find a job tomorrow. Otherwise, you day dream too much staying home all day long."
