Chapter 341: Know One's Face But Don't Know One's Heart

Xie Weizhen didn't expect Su Jingwen to actually say it out. He thought that what happened between them two couldn't be mentioned at home. But now, not only did she say it, she also said it in front of her mother. This caught Xie Weizheng off guard.

However, Xie Weizheng quickly reacted and walked over to Mu An, bowing: "Aunty, it's because I saw Jingwen book a hotel room with another man. I was scared that Jingwen was inexperienced and tricked. I didn't choose my words carefully at the time because I cared about Jingwen too much...."

Su Jingwen's face was green with anger. She didn't think that Xie Weizheng would twist the truth in such ways in front of her mother. It was obviously he who went into room with another woman but now blamed it on her.

Mu An's heart sunk. Her first reaction was disbelief. She knew her daughter all too well. Now, Xie Weizhen said her daughter booked a room with a man. How could she accept this!

Just when Mu An was going to reproach Xie Weizheng, Su Jingwen said coldly: "Xie Weizheng, who are you to me? I booked a room with the person I like. What's that got to do with you? I like it. I'm happy. Go, go now. Our family doesn't welcome you."

"Xiao Wen...." Mu An looked at her daughter in shock. She didn't expect her daughter to admit it.

Xie Weizheng suddenly stood up straight and said in a calm tone: "Aunty, I really don't mind what Jingwen did from the bottom of my heart. I really like her. I just want to invite her out for a talk. Of course, if she doesn't agree, I will also respect her and give up these thoughts."

"Weizheng, you've been studying abroad and I don't see you being that devoted to Jingwen. How come this time..."

Mu An was still thinking about her daughter booking a hotel room with a man. But she also felt Xie Weizheng wasn't right today.

"Xie Weizheng, I won't go out with you. If you have something you can say it here. If you don't, then you can go." Su Jingwen looked coldly at Xie Weizheng. Her tone was freezing cold.

Mu An knew her daughter's personality. Since she said she won't go out, she won't go out for sure. But thinking about Xie Weizheng, she said helplessly: "Xiao Wen, how about you just have one more talk with Weizheng. If you guys can sort it out, then things go on. If not, then never mind."

Before Su Jingwen could reply, Xie Weizheng quickly bowed and said: "Yes, aunt, I will explain things properly to Jingwen. If Jingwen really disagrees, I will also respect her wishes."

Su Jingwen looked hesitantly at her mother. In the depth of her heart, she really didn't want to go out with Xie Weizheng but her mum also said this was the last time.

Just when Su Jingwen was still hesitating, a maid brought in a disk and walked in front of Mu An passing the disk to her, "Aunt An, someone just sent in this saying it needs to be watched immediately."

When the TV screen showed, Xie Weizheng's face changed drastically. He walked up a few steps and was going to take out the disk. Mu An stopped him, "Weizheng what are you doing?"

Xie Weizheng's face changed many times before saying: "I'm a little uncomfortable. I'm going." Then, he didn't even care about Mu An's strange eyes and turned to leave.

Mu An and Su Jingwen who were very confused quickly knew from the disk why Xie Weizheng was leaving. This disk recorded the plan Xie Weizheng had for Ye Mo and Su Jingwen.

The more Mu An watched, the angrier her face got. Xie Weizheng was planning to capture Ye Mo and Su Jingwen and then get many people to rape Su Jingwen in front of Ye Mo. After this, they were still planning how to transfer Mu An's assets.

Slap, Mu An slapped the tea table, "What did I do to your Xie family? How dare you be like this!"

"Mum..." Su Jingwen quickly came to pat her mother on the back. She was scared her mum would get sick. Although she already knew what sort of a person Xie Weizheng was, she was still in disbelief at his brutality. He was asking her out so he could rape her.

After long, Mu An calmed down and turned off the DVD player. She looked at her daughter and asked: "Xiao Wen, did you really....."

Su Jingwen shook her head, "Mother, it was just a friend. I was in the room with my friend and when we came out, we happened to see Xie Weizheng with another woman. He was going to hit me but my friend taught him a lesson."

"This bastard." Mu An said and then after a while, she continued to ask: "Xiao Wen, did your friend send this disk?"

Su Jingwen contemplated for a while and then said: "I believe it is him but he probably has something on so he didn't come."

"If you have time, get your friend to come sit for a while. You don't need to worry about Xie Weizheng but the Xie family is no small entity. Your friend can even get this this fast meaning that he's not that simple either. You like him right?" Mu An nodded and asked. She knew her daughter too well. If her daughter didn't like this person, then, she wouldn't go into the same room with this person no matter what.

Su Jingwen blushed and hesitated for a while before saying: "Mum, he already has someone he likes. And it's not that I like him. I just don't have any vigilance for him. I feel he's trustworthy. He's a good person and..."

Mu An smiled, "You've said so many good things about him. How can you still say you don't like him? So what if he has someone he likes? As long as they're not married, anyone can like him. Plus, my daughter is no lesser than anyone else. What were you going to say before?"

Mu An felt quite guilty to her daughter. If it wasn't for this disk, she was going to persuade her daughter to go out with Xie Weizheng. You know one's face but you don't know one's heart. Mu An sighed. Xie

Weizheng only went out a few years and had turned so cruel but you couldn't tell from his appearance at all.

Su Jingwen could only say: "Mum, he's Ye Mo, the one who cured your sickness and the one sold me the spirit cleansing charm."

"It's him...." Mu An had long been wanting to see Ye Mo and didn't expect him to be in Ning Hai.

Xie Weizheng walked out of the Su family with a bleak face. He really couldn't understand how his discussion in the afternoon turned into a disk this rapidly and was sent to the person he was plotting against.

Xie Weizheng opened the car door and sat in the car spitting coldly: "Su, so what if you know? I will make you regret betraying me. What I can't get no one shall get."

"Pity, you no longer have that chance." A voice suddenly came from his back seat.

"Who is it?" Xie Weizheng turned around abruptly and saw a middle aged man holding a gun at his head.

This man sneered: "You can go back and see your men in hell. Who I am is not important, the people in the business call me 9th uncle. You can call me that too. Oh, by the way, my previous occupation is a killer."

Xie Weizheng calmed down from his initial shock. He wasn't someone inexperienced, soon, he realized that the disk was also sent by this 9th uncle.

"9th uncle, we have no feud, plus, aren't you killers doing your job for money? How much do you need? Name your price." Although Xie Weizheng was shaking, he immediately realized what was the focal point.

9th uncle sneered, "Drive your car first."

After Xie Weizheng started the car, the middle aged man said coldly: "no feud? You are attacking my boss's woman, is that no feud? Ye Mo is my big boss, and Su Jingwen is my boss's woman. Tell me if we have feud or not? You only have yourself to blame."

Xie Weizheng opened his mouth. He didn't expect Ye Mo to be this powerful. In the turn of an eye, not only was his schemes known and he became a prisoner to Ye Mo. Since this man was a killer, what else didn't he dare to do? Perhaps he would shoot his head the next moment. Now, Xie Weizheng was really scared.

Ye Mo killed Ren Sha and destroyed all the Gu bugs. Then, he spun around the island. This island was very small, less than one square kilometer. Ren Sha didn't build any grandiloquent houses on it. Just a few simple bases used for his cultivation. However, Ye Mo didn't know why Ren Sha bought such a small island.

Ye Mo felt a lot more relieved after annihilating the Earth Fiend. That constant feeling of threat had gone.

Ye Mo walked into a room. This was probably used by Ren Sha for cultivation. He wanted to see how this Ren Sha cultivated.

Just when Ye Mo walked in, he was shocked by the dense spirit chi here. Although this was still a far cry from the cultivation realm, it still surprised Ye Mo. Spirit chi was too rare and the density of this chi here was very good despite having some impurities.

Ye Mo soon discovered that the chi here was dissipating. He looked around and immediately realized what was going on. He couldn't help to curse Ren Sha. There was a spirit well here but after Ren Sha found this place, he dug the spirit well and ruined it.

Although it was faster to cultivate here, the spirit chi here would soon dissipate. A dug up spirit well, no matter how strong Ye Mo was, he couldn't recover it.

The only way was to sit down and cultivate, absorbing as much as he could. Once the spirit chi dissipated, he couldn't absorb anymore. Thinking about this, Ye Mo sat down and cultivated without hesitation.

Chapter 342: Hurt

When Ye Mo woke up again, he felt that the spirit chi here had dissipated. He then stood up with regret. He felt his power went up a level. Although he was still stage 4, he wouldn't be short on spirit chi if he flew from Ning Hai to Hong Kong on the flying sword.

Ye Mo felt hungry and this shocked him. Normally, it would be fine if he didn't eat for two or three days but now he was hungry meaning that it had been at least more than 3 days.

Thinking about the time he missed, Ye Mo got on the flying sword and headed straight for Ning Hai.

When Ye Mo came to Ning Hai, he still saw Yang Jiu and Han Zai guarding outside of Wei Xian.

The two were already very desperate. Ye Mo said he would be back the second day or that night. But now, it was the 4th day and Ye Mo still hadn't come looking for them. Despite this, the two didn't leave Ning Hai.

Although he didn't know why Ye Mo hasn't come back yet, Yang Jiu had the premonition that something happened to Earth Fiend. He knew about the strict rules in Earth Fiend. They hadn't reported back in a few days. If Earth Fiend was still fine, they would've come looking for them in Ning Hai. Since they still hadn't come, it meant that something happened to Earth Fiend.

When Ye Mo came back, they saw him immediately and came up greeting him. After some talk, Ye Mo realized that he had been cultivating for 4 days, no wonder his stomach was hungry.

"Qian bei, I've dealt with that Xie guy. He wanted to scheme against you and Ms. Su Jingwen. We caught his evidence. We're wondering now if we should kill him?" Yang Jiu was very reverent to Ye Mo. He knew that Ye Mo went to annihilate the Earth Fiend and now that he was back. Although he didn't dare to ask about the result, he had connections and found signs. Accompanied with his previous guesses, Yang Jiu immediately knew that something really happened to the Earth Fiend.

Ye Mo waved his hand: "You two can deal with him. It's better if you can get some money out of him but even if you can, don't let him live too easily. As for his life, it doesn't matter if it's taken or not. After this, you two immediately go to Flowing Snake and look for my second brother Xu Ping. I have some people starting out a company for me at Flowing Snake. There will be places for you. After I deal with some things, I will also go to Flowing Snake. As for Earth Fiend, you don't need to worry about them. I have pulled them up from their roots."

Yang Jiu and Han Zai looked at Ye Mo in shock. He actually annihilated the Earth Fiend. Pulling such a big hitmen organization from its roots. This was only a few days. Ye Mo seemed more mysterious in their hearts now.

After arranging the two, Ye Mo didn't go look for Su Jingwen. He went straight to Xuan Jiang. He still had a goal and that was to go to the He Liu Sect.

But Ye Mo was disappointed to find that the Xuan Jiang Zhang family didn't know about Zhang Zhihui at all. When he went to the family leader, only then did he know about Zhang Zhihui. However, the leader told Ye Mo that Zhang Zhihui hadn't met up with them nor contacted them for a long time.

Ye Mo estimated. It was actually after he sent Zhang Zhihui to annihilate the Broken Fist Hall, there was no longer any news of Zhang Zhihui.

Putting that aside, Ye Mo went to Wu Liang mountain. Since the Earth Fiend was gone, he needed to bring back his sister Tang Beiwei.

Wuliang mountain still looked the same with many tourists.

Ye Mo came to the entrance of Serenity. On the platform, he realized that the chain to Serenity had gone.

Someone cut the metal chains? Ye Mo was shocked. This definitely wouldn't be by Serenity because although the hidden sects didn't go into the world, they would still have connections to the outside world. They still had some necessities that they needed to trade.

If his sister wasn't there, he wouldn't be so worried but she was.

Ye Mo immediately stood on the flying sword and came to the opposite side of the cliff. Soon, he went into the Serenity valley. Coming out of the tunnel and at the end of the small road, it was the front door of Serenity. He scanned his spirit sense in.

Tang Beiwei was looking after the blue flower blue leaf grass and seemed to be very focused. It was as though nothing could move her attention from it.

Ye Mo breathed easy. Tang Beiwei was fine. Looking at where she lived, it seemed fine. Jing Xian didn't mistreat his sister.

Ye Mo quickly went into the yard that his sister was in and called, "Beiwei."

Tang Beiwei turned around abruptly and saw Ye Mo. She dropped the spade in her hands without a thought and ran away pulling Ye Mo's arm and said with a face full of joy: "Brother, you're here."

Ye Mo patted her shoulder apologetically and didn't know how to say it to her.

"What's wrong? Brother." Tang Beiwei felt Ye Mo's hesitation and asked desperately. She had a bad feeling in her heart.

"Beiwei, sorry, brother went a little late, and your mother has already passed away...." Ye Mo took out Tang Jing's ashes and passed it to Tang Beiwei. Although he knew this would only make her sad, he didn't know any other way to bring it to Tang Beiwei.

Tang Beiwei let go of Ye Mo's hands and took the box in disbelief. She couldn't say anything for a long time. Although Tang Jing wasn't her real mother, in her heart, no one could take Tang Jing's place. Tang Jing was her mother.

But her mother was taken to Beijing. How long had it been? And an ash box was brought back. She couldn't take it. she couldn't believe it. Her mother went to enjoy life not die. Why did things have to be this way? Why? Tang Beiwei was frozen.

Ever since she was young, her mother used her weak shoulders to bring her up to adult because nothing could stop the love a mother had for her daughter. Whether it was raining or windy, snow or hail, her mother always pushed that little cart sheltering her.

But today, the daughter grew up. The mother still wasn't able to enjoy life yet and left like that.

"Mum...." Tang Beiwei held the ash box in daze and cried out. She knelt down, tears raining down.

Ye Mo looked at Tang Beiwei crying and didn't try to comfort her. She needed to cry out the sorrow in her heart now.

After a long while, Tang Beiwei's voice was even sounding coarse. Then Ye Mo carried her up, "Beiwei, aunty had left. She definitely don't want to see you like this. Find a place and lay your mother to rest."

Tang Beiwei sniffed and looked at Ye Mo before hugging him and crying again. Lucky she still had a brother. If she didn't have her brother and her mother died, then she wouldn't have anyone in this world. She would just be living alone in this world and lose the will to live.

This was all done by Tang Beiwei. Ye Mo didn't intervene. After Tang Beiwei had done all that, Ye Mo went down on his knees and kowtowed a few times with Tang Beiwei.

"Beiwei, come with me, I'll take you to my company." Ye Mo saw that Tang Beiwei was getting more and more morose so he wanted to take her out and lighten up her mood.

Tang Beiwei shook her head, "Brother, I don't want to leave yet. The people here are very nice to me and I also like the life here. Mum just left, I still want to stay with her for a while."

"Beiwei, you...." Ye Mo didn't expect Tang Beiwei's decision to stay in such an enclosed place.

Tang Beiwei walked by Ye Mo's side and held onto his arm before saying slowly: "Brother, other than you, I have no other kin in this world. I know you're going out to find Luo Ying. I might as well wait for you here. After you find her, you can bring her to see me."

Then, she stayed silent for a while before saying softly: "Brother, sometimes, I really hope I'm not your sister. If I'm not, I will marry you and go find Luo Ying with you."

Tang Beiwei was very clear in her mind that even if she left with Ye Mo, she would still be living by herself. Ye Mo would be going out to find Luo Ying. And, she was used to living here.

Ye Mo rubbed Tang Beiwei's hair and said: "Don't talk nonsense. let's go to where you stay first."

"Mhm, brother, the blue flower blue leaf grass you gave me last time grew another flower." Tang Beiwei seemed to have recovered a little from the sadness.

Ye Mo nodded and said: "Mhm, I've seen it already. You've taken good care of it. Thank you, Beiwei. And, your cultivation is going well too. You have reached stage one. You still need to work hard though. I will teach you properly this time before I go."

Tang Beiwei shook her head however, "Brother, I don't like you saying thank you to me. And, I will

Chapter 343: Wuliang Dian Cang

"Patron Ye, what Beiwei asked is also what I'm curious about." Jing Xian appeared silently in front of Ye Mo and Tang Beiwei.

Ye Mo was focused on the conversation with Tang Beiwei and didn't notice Jing Xian's arrival. Even so, he applauded the nun. It was no simple task to arrive here without his notice even if he wasn't concentrated.

"Master." Tang Beiwei quickly bowed.

Ye Mo looked strangely at Tang Beiwei. Did she plead Jing Xian to be her master? How come she didn't tell him. As though seeing Ye Mo's surprise, Jing Xian said plainly: "I instructed her a few times when she was cultivating. Her cultivation method is very extraordinary. I don't dare to take her in as my disciple, but she insists on me being her master."

Ye Mo immediately understood what was going on and quickly bowed: "Thank you Jing Xian qian bei for taking in Beiwei. I, Ye Mo, thank you here."

Although he said that, Ye Mo was worried. He was afraid Jing Xian would see through Tang Beiwei's cultivation method. If his spirit chi cultivation method was seen through, then it would be ground breaking.

Jing Xian quickly closed her palms and said: "Patron Ye, you are too polite. Jing Xian doesn't dare to be so. I see that patron has become stronger than last time, congratulations."

"Brother, sorry, I didn't have time to tell you yet. Master pointed out some meridians and chakra points for me. I cultivated the rest by myself. Master said I'm not suited to the Serenity cultivation method. I just need to keep cultivating my current method." Tang Beiwei quickly said.

Ye Mo felt relieved. Although Tang Beiwei's words were a little rude to her master, she was desperately trying to explain to him that she didn't disclose the cultivation method. Despite this, Ye Mo still wanted to write an ancient martial arts cultivation method for Tang Beiwei. Once people asked, she can use that as an excuse.

Seeing Ye Mo nod, Tang Beiwei immediately said: "Brother, you still haven't said how you came?"

Ye Mo knew that Jing Xian was also waiting for his answer: "I saw that the metal chain was broken so I jumped over."

Tang Beiwei didn't say anything. She knew that her brother had many strange capabilities but Jing Xian was extremely shocked. Jumped over? She wouldn't believe this no matter what but Ye Mo definitely came from the original way. Otherwise, how would he know that the chains were broken? But if Ye Mo didn't jump over, how did he come?

"Jing Xian qian bei, please tell me how that metal chain broke?" Ye Mo asked. If his sister wasn't here, then he wouldn't care but she was so he had to know what was going on. He didn't want his sister to be in the slightest danger.

Jing Xian looked at Ye Mo once. Although she knew Ye Mo was lying, she couldn't keep asking. She nodded and said: "Jing Xi actually agreed on the marriage between Susu and Bian Chao and privately took the marriage gift of Dian Cang. We didn't know about this at all. But a few days ago, Dian Cang sect people came to Serenity to marry Susu but found that Susu had left Serenity. The people were immediately angered."

Ye Mo didn't finish hearing and was also angry. Although Jing Xi was killed by him, how dare the Dian Cang people want Luo Ying. Luo Ying was the most precious person to him in this world. The Dian Cang people dare to come touch her.

Jing Xian sighed and continued: "Since Jing Xi is no longer here, so we can't reply to the Dian Cang people. Eventually, people came from Dian Cang injured Jing Ci martial sister. If it wasn't Beiwei, the Dian Cang people wouldn't just settle things there."

Tang Beiwei looked at her master in surprise: "Master, I didn't do anything though. I didn't know what happened either? I just heard that Jing Hui martial uncle said the metal chains were broken. Although I knew that my brother could come over, I don't know how he came over either. What's this got to do with me?"

Jing Xian looked apologetically at Tang Beiwei and said: "Sorry Beiwei, I didn't tell you about this. I was afraid you would worry. The Dian Cang people was still going to rampage after beating Jing Ci but the young master of Dian Cang saw Tang Beiwei and was immediately shocked. He immediately changed his target to Beiwei and requested Beiwei to marry him instead of Susu. Bian Chao was going to bring Beiwei with him but I stopped him telling them that even if they were going to do so, they needed to wait a few days for Beiwei's brother to come back.

They said that I was right, and they were keen on face-saving. So they went back to prepare for marriage gift. It would be 3 days before they come back. As for the marriage gift they gave last time, they would want it back when Susu comes back."

"Master...." Tang Beiwei looked at her master in shock and subconsciously held onto Ye Mo's arm tight. She was thinking, if her brother didn't come, was her master going to marry her into that Dian Cang or something?

Ye Mo's face was very bad. Although he didn't know what Jing Xi meant, he definitely wasn't going to let his sister be forced into a marriage.

Jing Xi glanced at Ye Mo and said: "Just when I didn't know what to do, patron Ye came. I can't decide on this issue. Although I want to send Tang Beiwei away in secret, if Dian Cang knew about this, not only will Beiwei have nowhere to hide but our Serenity will also be destroyed and so will your Ye family."

"Brother...." Tang Beiwei held Ye Mo's hand tightly and called out worriedly. She knew her brother was strong but even Serenity was so worried about Dian Cang. She didn't dare to guess if her brother was a match for them.

Seeing Ye Mo's face bleak and killing intent leaking, Jing Xian said worriedly: "Dian Cang is different from Serenity. Any one of their elders is earth level. And, Dian Cang is one of the 6 big sects. Although they are ranked last, their power is far from what our sect can compare."

Ye Mo's face eased up. He knew that he couldn't blame Jing Xi for this. She really couldn't do anything. Thinking about this, Ye Mo nodded: "Jing Xian qian bei, thank you for taking care of Beiwei. A mere Dian Cang is no threat to me. I can beat the He Liu sect to fragmentation then there would be no reason for me to worry about Dian Cang."

Jing Xian heard Ye Mo's words and was dazed. Ye Mo actually beat He Liu Sect to fragmentation? What was this? Their sect was secluded and thus didn't know what happened in the outside world.

After a moment, Jing Xian asked hesitantly: "Patron Ye, are you sure it's the He Liu sect? He Liu sect is also one of the 6 big hidden sects. They are ranked even higher than Dian Cang."

Ye Mo smiled, "They schemed for my blood coral and ambushed me but I killed them all. Then, these people wanted to cause trouble at the Beijing Ye family. I killed all of them again. By the way, Jing Xian qian bei. I want to go to the base of He Liu sect and see. Do you know where their sect is?"

Jing Xian replied after a long while: "Sorry, I don't know. Even if I do, I can't tell you. This is the rule of the hidden sects."

Despite guessing this would be the result, Ye Mo was still a bit disappointed. He pulled his sister hands and bid goodbye to Jing Xian and returned to where his sister lived.

Once returning there, Ye Mo asked: "Beiwei, tell me, you didn't teach anyone else the cultivation method I taught you right?"

Tang Beiwei immediately said: "No, brother, I know what you taught me is different from them. I'm not that dumb. My master just felt that the speed with which I gathered inner qi was very rapid and thus thought my cultivation method was really good. She never asked me what I was cultivating and just gave me tips on things I didn't understand.

Ye Mo nodded and said: "Good, you must never tell anyone what you're cultivating. I'm going to stay here for a while and write out an ancient martial arts cultivation method for you. If someone asks, just say it's that."

"Brother, are you really going to live here for a while?" Tang Beiwei was feeling down but she became excited hearing that Ye Mo was going to stay for a while.

Ye Mo nodded and said: "That Dian Cang sect dare to scheme for you and your sister in law. I will make them disappear. And, I'll also stay here for a while teaching you cultivation. And, you kept that blue flower blue leaf grass quite well. I still have a purple heart vine here. I also need you to grow that for me. This will be our future food. You must not treat it carelessly."

"I know brother." Tang Beiwei immediately replied

Tang Beiwei hesitated before eventually asked: "Brother, when that metal chain broke, I was really worried if you were still able to come. But then, I thought that you must be able to come over. Although you did come over indeed, I still want to know how you got over? Did it take a lot of time?"

Tang Beiwei opened her mouth wide and looked at Ye Mo. After a moment, she said dazily: "Brother, did you really spend a few seconds to fly over?"

If it was someone else, she would've filtered the words as bullshit but whatever Ye Mo said Tang Beiwei believed unconditionally because she trusted her brother. Every single thing he did was something she didn't dare to imagine before.

Looking Tang Beiwei who was still a little sad, Ye Mo patted her head. Although it seemed Tang Beiwei was very mature, she was still very young. Before she met him, she had gone through too much hardship. Not long after meeting him, her mother passed away. Reality was too cruel to her.

"Beiwei, at night brother will take you to fly in the sky." Ye Mo saw the longing in her eyes.

Chapter 344: You dare to go to Dian Cang

The night was quiet. Jing Xian stood outside the tallest temple of Serenity looking out into the boundless cosmos. Serenity was passed on from her master to her, but was controlled by her little martial sister for many years. If Ye Mo didn't come, this stalemate would continue.

Countless times, she wanted to warn Jing Xi not to cross the line and do things for the good of the sect but she couldn't say it much less do anything. It was because Jing Xi was her martial sister and saw the things between him and her with her own eyes.

Although Jing Xi didn't know that man was Jing Xi's brother. Before he died, he asked her to take care of Jing Xi. But she hadn't been able to do it. She could resist not taking action herself but she couldn't stop Ye Mo from doing anything.

She originally thought that Ye Mo would be no match for Jing Xi and she would come out to mediate the fight in the end. But she didn't expect things to turn that quickly. Jing Xi was actually killed by Ye Mo. She felt she owed him and didn't do as she promised.

After Jing Xi died, she cast these thoughts aside and wanted to improve Serenity but then Dian Cang came. Jing Xian sighed. Perhaps she really wasn't suited to being the sect leader.

A purple ray shot over from not far but Jing Xian was shocked. She rubbed her eyes as she thought she was seeing things but after looking carefully, she found out her eyes were right. It was real. That purple ray was a broad sword and standing on top of the sword was Ye Mo and his sister Tang Beiwei.

"He can flying on the sword? Great Heaven? Or surpassed Great heaven?" Jing Xian was dumbfounded. She finally understood how Ye Mo came over but she was more confused. Was there really such thing in the world? This had surpassed the realm of ancient martial arts.

Even great heaven masters hadn't being said to be able to fly on swords. It's said that the Da Mo ancestor, cultivated ancient martial arts to the extreme and crossed a river with a blade of grass. But even so, he couldn't fly on a sword.

"Brother, are you saying I can do this as well?" Tang Beiwei stood on the flying sword and was lost in this endless sky. Her melancholic mood also lightened up.

"You can." Ye Mo nodded.

Ye Mo was arranged to stay in Luo Ying's room. This was also what he wanted. He liked where Luo Ying lived before. It gave him too many memories.

The second day, Ye Mo felt that the way Jing Xian looked at him wasn't quite right but he didn't care.

3 days passed quickly as Ye Mo taught Tang Beiwei cultivation. During this time, other than Jing Xian coming to talk to Ye Mo occasionally, no one else came.

Then, the Dian Cang people arrived outside exactly on time. This time, there were 5 here. Other than one who was black level middle stage, the rest were at least earth level middle stage. These 5 people were enough to annihilate the Serenity.

However, these people were stopped from entering by a young man.

"We Dian Cang people are here to present the marriage gift. Who are you, daring to stand in our way?" The leading man was in his 50's. He was bulky and had a silky white robe seeming very tightly.

"I am Tang Beiwei's brother. I don't agree to the marriage for my sister. You may leave. I'm standing here not to let dogs in in case they go around biting people." Ye Mo smiled.

The white man didn't even have time to react to the first half of the sentence before his face developed into rage by the second half of the sentence. Their sect was ranked 6th in the outer hidden sects but was still one of the 6 big sects. This arrogant young man dared to be so cocky calling them dogs.

"You've got balls! What right have you to dictate to us? So what if you disagree? What sort of thing are you? Even if our young master wants your mother, you'll have to agree much less your sister." The weakest man yelled and was full of contempt in his eyes.

Ye Mo's eyes went cold. He took a step forward and shot out a windblade. The white clothed man reacted quickly. He saw Ye Mo come over and before Ye Mo could get near that man, he punched.

Ye Mo sneered and also punched after the windblade. The white robed man felt an intense pain making him retreat many steps back. There was still huge pulsating pain in his arm.

Splat, blood shot high and that cocky black level warrior was cut in half from head to toe.

Blood and organs flew around writhing with the body making the scene very eerie and terrifying. Everyone was stunned.

"Animal, you're asking to die. How dare you kill our Dian Cang people." At this moment, the two slightly weaker middle aged men reacted and charged to Ye Mo. One kicked to Ye Mo's knee cap, the other kicked to Ye Mo's dan tian. Obviously, they wanted to break Ye Mo's leg and abolish Ye Mo's power so they could torture him slowly.

They could tell that although Ye Mo killed their companion, that was due to the ambush attack and that companion was the weakest. Thus, they were very confident in themselves. They were sure two kicks were enough to break Ye Mo.

The leader man was shocked instead. He didn't expect Ye Mo to be this strong at such a young age. Even so, he still wasn't a threat to him. Although that punch was strong, it was at most earth level primary stage power.

Now that his two companions attacked Ye Mo, there was a jeer at the corner of his mouth. No matter how strong Ye Mo was, he couldn't avoid that. No matter who Ye Mo was to Tang Beiwei, he couldn't act cocky in front of Dian Cang. There was only death for those who killed the Dian Cang people.

However, if he knew that Ye Mo didn't even use a tenth of his power, what would he think? Ye Mo due to anger used 90% of his power for that wind blade but only used 10% for his punch.

Seeing the two kicks, Ye Mo knew that they underestimated him but even so, he wouldn't have mercy. He swooped out with his leg.

Crack, two crisp sounds and the two men's legs were broken.

By the time the leader realized that his men broke their legs, Ye Mo already kicked twice again.

The two were kicked flying and splashed blood all over the sky falling into the distant cliff.

Dead, two earth level warriors dead. Including the one before, 3 of the 5 of them had already died. The remaining two looked at the cliff in astonishment.

The other man beside the white robed man looked in rage and howled as he charged at Ye Mo.

The white robed man pulled him in time, "Zhong Dan, don't be impulsive." Although his two companions didn't use full power, he could tell Ye Mo got an unfathomable depth of ability. He wasn't just an ordinary earth level. At least Zhong Dan was no match for him because his hand was still hurting now.

The Zhong Dan guy came to his senses. He immediately understood that if he charged up, he would still be kicked off the cliff. Although he didn't charge over, the fury in his eyes was burning. One of the dead was his brother Zhong Ding.

"Friend, no matter who you are, you killed on attack without asking anything. Is this what your master taught you? How do you place us Dian Cang? Do you think you can take on our entire Dian Cang by yourself? I'm Hu Nuoping. If you don't give a good explanation today, then even if I die, I will fight you to the end." The white robed man sneered. If he wasn't concerned that he was no match for Ye Mo, he would've long charged up.

Ye Mo looked at the man in contempt and said coldly: "You're right. I was never planning to let your Dian Cang sect go. Stop wasting time and lead the way. I'll go to your sect."

"You dare to come to our Dian Cang?" Hu Nuoping seemed to be verifying Ye Mo's words. He didn't expect Ye Mo to dare to follow him after killing so many of their Dian Cang people. He was still thinking about how to get the news back and ask for backup.

Ye Mo laughed, "Is your Dian Cang a tiger cave or something? Am I unable to go? Since you dare to plot for my sister, then don't blame me for the consequences."

Hu Nuoping looked coldly at Ye Mo. Although he was sure that Ye Mo's power was not far from his but he wasn't sure if he was a match for Ye Mo. That's why he was hesitating not to attack. Since Ye Mo was going to Dian Cang now, that would be the best. He could cultivate to this state at such a young age, it could be seen that there must be a great secret on this young man.

Instead of killing him here, he might as well bring him back. Thinking about this, Hu Nuoping sneered and turned to Serenity calling out: "Jing Xian, we Dian Cang will be back."

Ye Mo suddenly said coldly: "Old fart, if you don't leave now then you don't need to leave anymore. I will kill you right here right now."

Chapter 345: Internal Conflict

"Brother, you need to be careful." Tang Beiwei resisted the disgusting bloodbath and came up in front of Ye Mo. Although she wanted to go with Ye Mo, she knew that she wouldn't be able to help and would instead be a hindrance.

Jing Xian stopped the Serenity disciples who were going up. Ever since she saw that Ye Mo could fly on a sword a few days ago, she knew that Ye Mo's power was far from what they could compare with. She hid this thing in her heart. She knew that if words got out, how much ruckus it would cause.

"Beiwei, wait for me here. I will be back in a while." Ye Mo comforted Tang Beiwei and then followed Huo Nuoping the two and left Serenity.

Hu Nuoping heard Ye Mo's words and sneered inside. He wanted to come back after killing our Dian Cang people? He was dreaming!

Ye Mo followed the two onto the cliff at Serenity before he knew how they came over. It was a balloon flotation device. There was a generator and a propeller. It was a simple helicopter to be exact.

Seeing this, Ye Mo sneered. It seemed that the hidden sects were not so hidden. They even had such things. They were intact with the times.

Zhong Dan looked furiously at Ye Mo but didn't dare to attack. He could only start up the balloon device. If he could beat Ye Mo, then 100 Ye Mo's would've been dead.

After the balloon helicopter started, it soon went into the misty Wuliang mountain disappearing amongst the mountains.

Ye Mo scanned out his spirit sense but could only see foggy valleys. There was no sense of direction at all.

Hu Nuoping looked coldly at Ye Mo and didn't say anything. In his eyes, Ye Mo was a dead person. He only needed to die at Dian Cang. This balloon helicopter passed through the mist for more than an hour before landing at a platform that was surrounded by mountains. However, there was a small temple made by bricks here. Everything around was covered by the fog and no structures could be seen. It was unknown if this place was still even in Wuliang mountain. Ye Mo applauded. There were too many mountains that were hard for ordinary people to reach in China.

Zhong Dan walked out of the balloon helicopter and looked coldly at Ye Mo sneering: "After you die, I will go down to comfort your family. I promise each and everyone of them will be very happy. So happy that they can't even die if they want to. Every single woman of your Ye family will be proud of me."

Ye Mo looked at Zhong Dan and said plainly: "Pitty, you won't have that chance." Then, he raised his hand and let out another windblade. Zhong Dan was suddenly split in half falling with shocked eyes.

"You, dare to still kill people at the foot of our sect." Hu Nuoping looked as though he was going to eat Ye Mo but he didn't dare to attack. However, he was just more shocked. Even his tone was shaky. Originally, he just thought Ye Mo had a fast blade, so fast that he didn't notice at the time.

But just now, he saw it clearly. Ye Mo didn't use a sword at all. He just swiped with his hand. Was this the legendary chi gathering to form blade? His face was like a dead man's. If this Tang Beiwei's brother was really this scary, then even if Dian Cang killed him, how much price would they have to pay? He didn't dare to imagine.

Ye Mo said plainly: "Hu Nuoping, if you say anymore and not lead the way, then I will kill you as well. My patience is very limited."

Hu Nuoping shivered and turned to leave. He didn't dare to piss off Ye Mo. Although it was only a short time, he had completely understood what sort of person Ye Mo was. He was a demon. Dian Cang was also like an overlord but in front of him, Dian Cang was an old granny eating vegetables.

Seeing Hu Nuoping continue walking, Ye Mo followed but before he left, he waved his hand and two fireballs shot out turning that small temple and the hot air balloon into a gust of fire.

Hu Nuoping looked at the two gusts of fire as his mouth spasmed. He didn't say anything but walked faster.

Ye Mo followed Hu Nuoping across two dozens of meters long metal chains and crossed a few valley roads before reaching a group of ancient styled buildings. In front of these buildings, there was a 50 meter tall mountain stairs. After the stairs, there was a huge monolith a few meters tall in front with the two big words Dian Cang.

Ye Mo sighed. Whether it was temperament or environment, Dian Cang was so much stronger than Serenity. Just these ancient yet elegant buildings weren't something Serenity could compare with.

"Elder Hu....." Hu Nuoping walked in front of the stone monolith and a guarding sect member greeted.

Ye Mo scanned his spirit sense. If he didn't come here himself, he really couldn't imagine that there was such an heavenly realm like place amongst these mountains. It seemed that there weren't much disciples in this sect either. Ye Mo only saw around 100 people.

Hu Nuoping walked outside the main stadium at the huge bell and quickly rushed there. He pulled the ropes and kept knocking the huge bell.

Dang..... Dang... the deep tremendous sound immediately surged through the sect. Ye Mo knew what Hu Nuoping was doing but just watched coldly and didn't stop him.

"Hu Nuoping what are you trying to do?" An old man with white beard charged out from the stadium and pointed at Hu Nuoping in anger.

Before Hu Nuoping could say anything, dozens of people came out from the big stadium. Some even had wounds on them. Ye Mo's spirit sense scanned that there were at least 5 heavily injured people inside but these people were obviously divided into two sides.

"Martial brother Hu, why did you knock the alarm bell for no reason? Is someone going to annihilate our Dian Cang?" another old man walked out, his face was obviously unhappy.

Hu Nuoping didn't expect the Dian Cang people to be already gathered here but he didn't have the mood to think. He immediately went up to the middle aged man in the middle and bowed before pointing at Ye Mo: "Sect master, this person killed multiple members of our sect and followed me to Dian Cang wanting to annihilate us. Please make the order to kill this man immediately,"

Hearing Hu Nuoping's words, the dozens of Dian Cang sect members surrounded Ye Mo without the sect leader's orders. Those who still had enmity towards each other directed it to Ye Mo.

The middle aged man called the sect leader looked at Ye Mo for a long time before saying: "Elder Hu, I only see you from the people who went with you to Serenity. Are you saying this man together with Serenity killed everyone who went with you?"

"Yes, sect master, this man calls him Tang Beiwei's brother. We didn't even go into Serenity and had 3 of us killed by him. Then, on the way back, Zhong Dan was killed by him. Before he came in, he also burned out Dian Cang temple at the foot of the mountain." Hu Nuoping said with gritted teeth.

Before the sect leader said anything, a big man with a face of beard pulled out his hack sword and charged at Ye Mo. In his eyes, Ye Mo killed many Dian Cang people at such a young age, it must be due to some tricks.

Crank. The man's long sword was stopped, it was a middle aged man who used a long sword.

"Yu Xianlin, why are you stopping me. This person killed this many of our Dian Cang sect members. Are you going to help him?" The bearded man yelled in anger.

This middle aged man said slowly: "Bian Feng martial brother, this man killed our Dian Cang sect members, he must die for sure but before this, should we ask or not why he killed out sect members? If it wasn't for Bian Chao's arrogance, why would he come killing our sect members?"

Seeing Wang Xianling stop Bian Feng, the middle aged sect leader showed anger, " Wang Xianling, are you going to help this outsider who killed our sect members?"

"Bian sect master, this man killed our sect members. Not matter what reason, he has to die but if it wasn't Bian Chao, why would he do that? Why would our sect members go to Serenity. Plus, this man could kill our sect members meaning that Serenity was helping him. If it wasn't for Bian Chao, why would Serenity have conflict with us?

Although Hu martial brother brought him back for punishment, I still hope that sect leader can be fair and punish Bian Chao heavily and give out your position as sect leader. Otherwise, we can disregard offending Serenity but what if we offend one of the 6 big sects next time?" this was the old man who reproached Hu Nuoping.

Ye Mo had understood now. This old things thought he was brought back by Hu Nuoping and when he came with Hu Nuoping, Dian Cang seemed to be in internal conflict.

This old man's side seemed to have conflict with the sect leader's side. They were fighting for the position of the sect leader and then he and Hu Nuoping came in and interrupted this.

Hu Nuoping opened his mouth wanting to explain that Serenity didn't help Ye Mo but he also could tell that Dian Cang was in internal conflict.

Ye Mo sneered, "Shut up all of you. Bring out Bian Chao now, before I slaughter, I need to sever this scum's legs. Otherwise, I came all this way but still haven't seen the pig I'm supposed to kill."

Ye Mo's angry yell made this entire place silent. Everyone stared at Ye Mo. What right did this young man have to be this cocky? He was facing all of Dian Cang and he still dared to be so cocky. He's lived enough has he?

Chapter 346: Grapple

"You're asking to die." A young man less than 30 suddenly charged over. The long sword in his hand was going to hack Ye Mo. However, he was stopped by Hu Nuoping when he attacked. Other people didn't know how strong Ye Mo was but Hu Nuoping knew all too well.

Ye Mo looked at this angry youth and suddenly took out the exact same looking sword and said: "These two swords are actually the same. So it seems you are that Bian Chao. But, you're so much weaker than your brother Bian Po. You're still at black level."

"You killed my brother?" Bian Chao saw the long sword in Ye Mo's hands and his eyes were bursting with fury, "Hu Nuoping, let me go. I'm going to kill this bastard personally."

"You killed my son Bian Po?" At this moment, the middle aged man's eyes turned cold like a frosty beam wanting to penetrate Ye Mo immediately. But in the depth of his heart, he felt threatened. This man was so young but could see through Bian Chao's power. He definitely wasn't simple.

Ye Mo played with the long sword in his hand, "Not bad, at Shen Nong Jia, Bian Po wanted to kill me but was killed by me. A few days ago, I went to see my sister but I heard you Dian Cang had another animal called Bian Chao wanting to hit on my sister. Therefore, I had to come over and kill this animal as well."

Before Hu Nuoping could talk, two black level men and one earth level already charged towards Ye Mo. Hu Nuoping wanted to stop them but it was already too late. Ye Mo's long sword turned into a blade beam swooping the three who charged at him. A mere earth level primary stage and two black level middle stage had no threat to Ye Mo.

Almost at the same time the blade ray flashed. Three extra bodies appeared on the ground. And not far way, Ye Mo carried the sword with an indifferent face.

In the time of a few seconds, Ye Mo already killed three showing his power to everyone at the scene.

Silence, the square fell into silence.

"Dian Cang disciples, kill him immediately." The sect leader was the first to react and yelled. He saw Ye Mo's eyes sweep towards him and actually felt a little cold. He no longer knew if it was fear or terror in his heart.

In that instant, more than thirty Dian Cang disciples charged up, and dozens of weapons smashed towards Ye Mo.

Bian sect leader looked at the old man beside him who didn't move and the twenty or so people behind him who also didn't move and said coldly: "Elder Liu, the enemy is in front of us. Why aren't you moving?"

The old man sneered: "Bian Xihai, you don't deserve to be sect leader. You couldn't educate your son and caused such trouble for Dian Cang and you still want me to help you? You not only let your son go rob woman in the mortal world but also in Serenity. Now, someone has attacked us. Your son made this mess and why should we wipe his ass?"

Bian Xihai laughed, "Liu Rushan, stop being disgusting. You are noble enough yourself? Who killed more than 50 people in Beijing two decades ago? Who hunted someone for over 30000 km for a spirit washing flower? Now, you want my position? Stop dreaming. Even if your people don't attack, you think I can't kill a mere kid?"

"Really? Then, have a look." Liu Rushan said coldly.

When his men surrounded Ye Mo, Bian Xihai no longer looked at Ye Mo anymore. There were more than 30 people and 5 earth levels among them. No matter how strong Ye Mo was, he would be dead for sure.

But when Bian Xihai turned around, it was as though he fell into an ice cave. Those attacking Ye Mo had died more than half. Broken limbs flew everywhere.

"Hu Nuoping, immediately lay down the Dian Cang Seven Kill Formation." Bian Xihai saw the terror in front of his eyes. He didn't even have time to pull out his sword before he joined the battle. He gathered all his chi and punched at Ye Mo.

Such strong chi, Ye Mo immediately felt Bian Xihai's intense killing intent and that relentless temperament. Ye Mo sneered. You want to kill me with one punch? He also jumped up and punched.

The two fists clashed creating a loud thud. Bian Xihai was sent flying many meters away and was stopped by Hu Nuoping. Bian Xihai was astonished. That punch shattered all the bones in that arm.

Ye Mo brought up the sword creating bloody mists. Another few black level warriors fell to the ground. Resisting the huge pain and shock, Bian Xihai surrounded Ye Mo with Hu Nuoping and the remaining five people.

Liu Rushan on the side was also shocked. He knew Bian Xihai's power all too well. It was no less than him. They were both at earth level peak stage but he couldn't even defend against one punch from this young man. This young man was too absurd. If he killed Bian Xihai and then came to kill them, it would be very easy.

Not only Liu Rushan but also the twenty or so people behind him looked at Ye Mo as though he was a ghost. Ye Mo's decisive carnage gave them too much of a shock.

"Just who are you?" Bian Xihai looked coldly at Ye Mo. He didn't even look at Bian Chao who had his limbs cut off by Ye Mo.

Ye Mo looked at the positions these seven people took. It was probably a formation but he didn't care at all. He pulled out his flying sword slowly and said: "I'm Ye Mo. I came to Dian Cang today to collect lives."

"What? You are Ye Mo?" Not only was Bian Xihai shocked but so was Liu Rushan. They were not as ill-informed as Serenity. Actually they knew everything about Ye Mo's slaughter. Ye Mo destroyed He Liu sect and was looking for He Liu sect's base. It's said that the He Liu sect sealed their sect access due to this.

Bian Xihai reacted very fast and immediately knew how terrifying Ye Mo was. He looked at Liu Rushan pleadingly but Liu Rushan avoided his look. Bian Xihai suppressed the anger and unwillingness in his heart and said to Ye Mo: "Since you are Ye Mo, you have quite a name, why won't you let us go? When did our Dian Cang offend you. If you want to stand up for Serenity, you just need to tell us and we will give you your due respect."

Bian Xihai was obviously backing down but no one would laugh at him. Ye Mo was too terrifying, and looked at him, he didn't even seem to fight at full strength. What would happen if he fought at full strength?

Ye Mo didn't reply to Bian Xihai and walked in front of Bian Chao and stood on him, "Luo Ying is my wife. Tang Beiwei is my sister. You scum of Dian Cang dare come to Serenity asking for Susu and Beiwei. Tell me should I come annihilate your sect? My motto is: as long as you don't mess with me, I won't mess with you. But since you messed with me, then don't blame me for the consequences."

Then, Ye Mo stamped heavily on Bian Chao, Bian Chao was killed without even getting to make a sound.

"Ye bastard, either you die or I die today." Bian Xihai saw that Bian Chao was killed right in front of his eyes and could no longer hold back his fury. Even if he was no match for Ye Mo, he was still going to kill him.

As Bian Xihai charged up, Hu Nuoping and the other five attacked Ye Mo from different angles.

Although they attacked from different angles, their target was actually the same spot. Six earth levels and one black level peak stage warrior fought at full strength. Ye Mo actually found that he had nowhere to go. No matter which direction he dodged, he would face full powered attacks from the other six.

Other than clashing head on, Ye Mo had nowhere to hide. Even if he were to fly, he had to dodge this round of attack first.

Rumble. The seven were sent flying by Ye Mo but they soon gathered together. Obviously, their injuries weren't serious. But Ye Mo spat out blood and was also knocked back. He couldn't help to be shocked. The formation these seven made was too strong. The black level dragged down the force of the formation. If it wasn't for that one dragging the others down, that attack would've made things quite hard for him.

Ye Mo knew he was injured but he couldn't dodge. The only way was to fly up and so he did.

The place where they fought already had a few meter deep ditch. Even the cobblestone on the square was pulverized.

The seven both rejoiced after seeing Ye Mo was forced up. It was because this formation had a death trap. As long as a person was forced into the air, no matter what master he was, even great heaven master, this person would be half dead.

The seven people stood in their positions again and gathered all their qi aiming at the blank space in between them.

The moment Ye Mo jumped up, he knew he had underestimated everyone in the world. China was big and there were all sorts of capable people. If he couldn't fly on his sword, today would be the day he died.

Ye Mo's keen eyes had perceived what their trump card was. The first punch was the set up and the second punch was the killing blow. If this formation was used by seven earth level peak stages, then even with his current power, he couldn't jump up and could only wait to be killed by the second punch.

Pity, there was a black level among them. What was more unfortunate was that Ye Mo could fly, so he wouldn't fall down.

Liu Rushan also looked strangely at the eight people fighting. He wanted them to kill each other or Ye Mo kill Bian Xihai. But now, it seemed that Ye Mo was dead for sure. But that was good as well, after all, Ye Mo killed most of Bian Xihai's people. The remaining few were not a threat.

Chapter 347: Shocking Means

Bian Xihai's face was hideous but he was very joyful. Ye Mo was forced into the air by the Dian Cang Seven Kill formation. He was dead for sure. As long as he fell, it would mean certain death. Ye Mo would be dead if he fell into the formation from the air even if he was in perfect state much less he was injured now.

Rumble. Bian Xihai led the Seven Kill formation into a second full powered attack. Bubbles and dust flew everywhere but Bian Xihai and Hu Nuoping's hearts sank. That hit didn't seem to have hit Ye Mo.

They didn't dare to believe that. Even great heaven masters couldn't stop in the air and wait until their punches landed much less Ye Mo wasn't great heaven. There was no way that attack could be dodged.

But the truth hit them hard.

'Retreat!' Bian Xihai reacted rapidly. He knew things weren't good as soon as that attack missed. Although he didn't know how Ye Mo stayed in the air but as long as he did, then they would be the ones to die. The force of their attack was already done, and as long as Ye Mo attacked, even the simplest attack would damage them heavily.

Although Bian Xihai was the first to react, he still seemed a little slow. A door sized huge sword swooped down with cold wind and spun the 7 together.

"No..." Bian Xihai could no longer control the terror in his heart and tried to retreat by using all the chi in his body.

Slice. A huge sword sliced and the huge square of Dian Cang sect had a more than ten meter deep ravine slashed out by this sword. Other than Bian Xihai who barely managed to escape, the remaining 6 all died.

With blood spewing out of his mouth, Bian Xihai stood there like a doll looking numbly at the place he had stood before. It had turned into a deep ravine. He couldn't even say a single word now. Ye Mo's power and menace exceeded his comprehension. Was this even human?

Their Dian Cang actually offended someone this terrifying and led him to their sect. If Dian Cang was annihilated due to this, then he, Bian Xihai, would be the sinner of Dian Cang. Although he had conflicts with Liu Rushan over power, this was all internal conflict. But now, Ye Mo had the power to kill all of Dian Cang.

He started to regret. He shouldn't have indulged his soo. If not for Bian Chao, Ye Mo wouldn't attack Dian Cang. But now, he couldn't even save the sect much less get revenge. If he knew this earlier, he might as well have given the sect leader position to Liu Rushan. If he knew Bian Chao would cause such big trouble, he would've killed him earlier. But now, it was all too late.

Liu Rushan also looked at the deep ravine dumbly. He couldn't understand this at all. He clearly saw a huge door sized sword slice down but immediately, the sword was gone.

Was he dreaming? Liu Rushan looked at the disciples with their mouths wide open behind him. He knew what he saw is real. Ye Mo indeed hacked down with a huge door sized sword but then the sword turned into nothing and disappeared quickly.

At this moment, he was no longer thinking about Bian Xihai's wrongs. He only had annoyance and hate. This Bian Chao actually brought such a calamity to Dian Cang. Before, he had talked about Ye Mo being a big trouble only for bashing Bian Xihai, but now he really knew that this was a big trouble. Things had gone out of their control. He was sure that it would be their turn after Bian Xihai was killed, .

Ye Mo took away the flying sword and walked slowly to Bian Xihai. He must kill this person.

"A Mi Tuo Fo, patron Ye, since you have already killed the main culprit, why don't you just stop killing now? It would be the best!" An old yet powerful voice sounded. Almost at the same time, a monk whose face was obscure suddenly appeared on the square.

Ye Mo was shocked. He already kept his spirit sense on alert but he still didn't notice when this monk came. There was such a powerful monk in this world? Although he used up a lot of spirit chi, only less than half remaining, he was still shocked.

"Wu Dao qian bei, please save us Dian Cang...." Hearing this voice, not only did Bian Xihai but even Liu Rushan kneel and beg.

He's Wu Dao? Ye Mo looked carefully at this monk but still couldn't see anything special. But he had heard of this monk. Zhang Zhihui told him before that there were no great heaven masters in this world other than Wu Dao. But it's said that Wu Dao was only half way great heaven. But now, Ye Mo was sure that this Wu Dao definitely wasn't half way great heaven. Not only couldn't he see Wu Dao's face but he also couldn't see his power level.

In that instant, Ye Mo knew that this Wu Dao was definitely stronger than him. Although Wu Dao might not be able to kill him, he wouldn't be able to get much out of fighting Wu Dao.

What to do? A monk poking his nose into others' business! Should he fight?

No matter what, he needed to fight to know if he was a match for this monk. Thinking about this, Ye Mo didn't waste time talking and jumped up. The long sword in his hand went straightly towards Bian Xihai. He was certain that this old monk would stop him.

As expected, just when the long sword reached Bian Xihai, the monk jumped up and after muttering a Buddhist call, he punched twice. No matter how eerie Ye Mo's sword attacking angles were, the attacks were blocked by the monk's fists.

Crank, Crank. If Ye Mo didn't know that the monk was empty handed, he would've thought it was their weapons clashing together.

After multiple clashes, Ye Mo's long sword was knocked aside and he also retreated a few steps. Then, he looked at Wu Dao and said coldly: "Monk, are you really going to intervene with this?"

"A Mi Tuo Fo, patron's power is great. The chi in the sword has already materialized. It could be seen that patron has great wisdom. However, patron's killing intent is too dense. It's best if you come with me into the mountains to dispel your aggression." Wu Dao monk said as though this was how things were meant to be.

Ye Mo was furious, and sneered, "Monk, you're saying you're going to take me away? Are you the pacific police or what? Let me see how you're going to capture me today.

The monk stopped talking and just jumped up grabbing at Ye Mo with his withered hands. Ye Mo condensed a chi fire ball on his fist and punched at Wu Dao.

"Bang bang...." After another few clashes, chi fire splattered and Wu Dao retreated many meters looking at Ye Mo with seriousness. He was tricked by Ye Mo. Ye Mo applied a chi fire on his fist and it made him suffer greatly. But Ye Mo didn't have it very easy either. He stopped himself after almost retreating more than ten meters.

Ye Mo's spirit sense scanned Wu Dao's fist but found that it was only slightly charred. His chi fire didn't affect Wu Dao's fist at all.

So strong, Ye Mo exclaimed. Even if for stage 4 chi gathering cultivators, they wouldn't be completely fine like Wu Dao after being attacked by Ye Mo's qi fire ball.

"Patron's power is strong but are you really going to annihilate Dian Cang?" Wu Dao's voice grew deep and even saved his usual A Mi Tuo Fo.

Liu Rushan could also tell that the Wu Dao monk couldn't do anything to Ye Mo and was even more shocked. Wu Dao qianbei was the publicly recognized strongest in the outer hidden sects. Although he was said to be half way great heaven, no one knew how strong he really was.

If Ye Mo defeated Wu Dao, then what should they do? thinking about this, Liu Rushan felt frigidness again. He saw how decisive in killing Ye Mo was.

Liu Rushan no longer hesitated and stood up saluting Ye Mo with his fist: "Young master Ye, Bian Chao was indulged by his father and did wrong things. Now, young master Ye have already killed Bian Chao. Please, on account of Wu Dao qian bei, stop now. I swear that if young master Ye is willing to stop here, our entire sect wouldn't hold any grudges to young master Ye. If we revoke this oath, let the heavens perish us."

"Okay, in that case, I'll end this feud with Dian Cang on account of Wu Dao qian bei. But I must kill Bian Xihai." Ye Mo said coldly. He didn't really care if he killed the rest, plus, Wu Dao was here. And, Wu Dao's power made Ye Mo respect him and even changed his greeting to him.

Wu Dao said A Mi Tuo Fu again and then said: "Patron Ye, you're too murderous. Since I came, I won't let you kill anymore."

"Really?" Ye Mo suddenly flew up and headed outside Dian Cang. Just when Wu Dao didn't know what Ye Mo was going to do, a purple ray sliced across the sky like a comet and disappeared with Bian Xihai's head.

Far away down the stairs of the mountain, Ye Mo's voice sounded, "Wu Dao qian bei, on your account, I'll end the feud with Dian Cang. But if you dare to come for me again, then don't blame me. As for dispelling my killing intent with you, I'm not interested in that for now."

Wu Dao didn't seem to hear Ye Mo's words but murmured to himself: "It was actually flying sword, flying sword, the legendary flying sword..."

Liu Rushan and the others looked in terror at Bian Xihai who fell dead to the ground and shivered. So this was Ye Mo's killing blow. He had been strong to this point. But soon, he felt lucky for his decision. If he didn't choose the opportunity to talk to Ye Mo while Wu Dao was here, perhaps his dead body would also be on the ground now.

"A Mi Tuo Fo." The monk called again and disappeared. Even Liu Rushan didn't know how he left.

Then, Liu Rushan wiped the sweat on his forehead and said seriously: "Starting from now, Dian Cang sect will seal sect for 5 years like He Liu Sect. From now on, Dian Cang sect members are not allowed to mess with Ye family people."

Chapter 348: Start of Luo Yue

The remaining Dian Cang members looked dazily like Liu Rushan at the putrid scene. They understood why Liu Rushan did that. If they pissed off someone like Ye Mo again, then he wouldn't hesitate to annihilate Dian Cang.

And, the reason he didn't annihilate Dian Cang completely wasn't because he was suddenly turned to be nice and tolerant but Wu Dao qian bei intervened. Ye Mo didn't have the confidence to defeat Wu Dao and plus, Liu Rushan sworn an oath. Thus, he stopped. If Wu Dao qian bei didn't come, Ye Mo would completely annihilate Dian Cang for sure. Even so, Ye Mo killed Bian Xihai before he left.

Just looking at how he killed Bian Xihai in front of Wu Dao qian bei, one could see that Ye Mo wouldn't allow any threats to exist. He knew that the feud between him and Bian Xihai was unresolvable so he killed him.

And, although Liu Rushan made the oath, if Ye Mo didn't want to let Dian Cang go and came back again, they wouldn't have any way out of it. So, he chose to seal the sect. This was the safest way.

Moreover, it was very hard for a hidden sect to cultivate a black level warrior. It required even a top talented person many years. Ye Mo killed almost seventy percent of the Dian Cang's strong disciples. Dian Cang could be said to have been fragmented. Ye Mo didn't even need to come. Any smaller sect could finish off Dian Cang and acquire this place.

At this moment, Dian Cang was treading on thin ice so they had to be careful.

Ye Mo stood on the flying sword and charged into the air. Although he killed almost all of the elite in Dian Cang in this battle, he also paid a price. He was injured and used up a lot of chi. After he fought with Wu Dao, he immediately knew that he wasn't a match for that monk yet so he decisively chose to retreat.

According to his original plan, he was going to annihilate the entire sect and search their stores. But since something happened, he wouldn't come again second time. He knew that although he felt threatened by Wu Dao, this feeling of threat was mutual. Although he was no match for Wu Dao yet, there was no way Wu Dao could capture him. Plus, if they really fought a life and death battle, it's unknown who would win yet.

When Ye Mo came back to Serenity, Tang Beiwei was already waiting for him. Seeing her brother come back, she finally felt relieved. She knew her brother was strong, but this time, he went to Dian Cang. She heard her master say that Dian Cang was one of the six big sects of the hidden sects. Although they were the last ranked, but it didn't mean they were weak.

"Let's go, we'll talk when we get back. I'll ask your master and see if she can help set up that chain again." Ye Mo smiled at Tang Beiwei and said.

"No need, master said she could fix the chain herself." Tang Beiwei shook her head.

Ye Mo nodded, "In that case, I won't do anything. After we go back, I'll make a few amulets for you."

Unexpectedly, after Ye Mo came back from Dian Cang, Jing Xian didn't ask anything. Although she often came to Tang Beiwei's place, she never asked Ye Mo what happened at Dian Cang.

Since she didn't ask, Ye Mo wouldn't tell her, and he stayed at Serenity. He usually went around gathering herbs. The rest of the time, he spent with his sister cultivating the blue flower blue leaf grass and the purple heart vine and teaching her cultivation.

The life of Ye Mo here in Serenity was lived silently and slowly, without ups and downs. In the depth of Wuliang mountain where humans didn't set foot in, there were a lot of precious herbs. Two weeks later, Ye Mo finally gathered all the ingredients and made another cauldron of chi increasing pills. He also made another cauldron of lotus life seed and face preserving pills.

Ye Mo failed in making the first cauldron of chi increasing pills, and succeeded in making the second cauldron with 9 pills due to Luo Xuan's qi recovery pills. Now, Ye Mo was at stage 4 chi gathering and made 12 pills in his third cauldron. This made him rejoice greatly.

Ye Mo let Tang Beiwei consume one to reach stage two chi gathering and then left her with two telling her to eat another after reaching stage two peak.

As though feeling that her brother was going, Tang Beiwei was no longer in the mood to cultivate. She spent everyday with Ye Mo. She hoped her brother would stay here but she knew that was not possible.

This morning, Tang Beiwei came to Ye Mo's place in the morning but didn't see her brother. Instead, she saw a letter on the table. Tang Beiwei knew that her brother had left for sure. Although she knew her brother would be back to see her, she still felt down. She picked up that letter. Below it was a small dagger that her brother made for her. Suddenly, she had the urge to cry.

A sigh sounded from behind Tang Beiwei. Tang Beiwei turned around and saw her master watching her from behind. Tang Beiwei called out master tiredly.

Jing Xian walked in and patted Tang Beiwei's hair. After a long time, she said: "Beiwei, your brother is no ordinary person and you also know that. That's why you stayed here. I think if you want to live a wealthy life, you only need to ask and your brother would get it for you."

"Master, I don't like the boisterous city. I like the peaceful worriless life here." Tang Beiwei immediately shook her head.

Jing Xian nodded and said: "That's why you need to work hard and cultivate. Don't disappoint your brother. I think he will come back to see you. Perhaps the next time he comes back, he will take you away with him."

Tang Beiwei shook her head and didn't talk. If she wanted to leave, she could get her brother to take her this time, but she didn't want to go back to the city and live the life of no kin. Although her brother left, her mother was still here.

And, she knew that a lot of the things her brother did was too extraordinary. So, she couldn't be of hindrance to her brother. Staying here, her brother didn't have to worry about her. After she had enough power, then, she could go help her brother.

In her eyes, there was no right or wrong. As long as her brother did it, it was all right. So she would never ask what Ye Mo did nor talk about it.

Ye Mo didn't tell Tang Beiwei when he left. He knew that ever since seeing this sister, she seemed very emotional. She became a completely different Tang Beiwei now to the one he first saw. When he first met her, she was very subjective and was even prickly.

Ye Mo knew it was due to her living under poverty and prejudice. If she didn't act tough, then perhaps she would've long been devoured by others. When Tang Beiwei was young, she must've never experienced the feeling of being loved. She didn't even have a childhood so she cherished Ye Mo's love a lot.

When Ye Mo came to Flowing Snake, he almost couldn't believe his eyes.

This place was no longer rowdy and chaotic like a few months ago. Countless workers worked tirelessly everywhere.

What was this?

"Ye brother...." A voice of joy sounded. Fang Nan brought a few of his minions over.

"Fang Nan, what's this?" Ye Mo looked at Fang Nan with a ruddy and ecstatic face. Although he saw that Fang Nan had ascended yellow level middle stage, this wasn't what he cared about the most. He was thinking about how Fang Nan hired all these workers? How did he have the money?

Fang Nan said joyfully: "Ye brother, everyone was happy when you annihilated the Amphibian Gang. In the borderland area, it's all managed by our Luo Yue Trade Company now.... Zang brother and Xu brother are here."

Ye Mo saw Zang Jiayan and Xu Ping run over. And then he found that Mo Hai was also here.

"Master...." Erhu and Lu Xiaozhen ran over excitedly. Ever since Ye Mo left Luo Cang, this was the first time they saw him again.

"Let's go. We'll talk inside." Ye Mo was also happy to see so many friends and brothers.

The people sat around Ye Mo in a big room. They had been gathered here due to Ye Mo and were now fighting for a common goal.

"Where's Yang Jiu?" Ye Mo didn't see Yang Jiu and Han Zai.

Zang Jiayan immediately said: "Those two, with Yu Miaodan and Yuan Meixiang are going to apply to customs. Jack shipped us some medicinal equipments from England."

Seeing Ye Mo's confusion, Mo Hai immediately said: "Jack is that British you saw on the boat last time. He's the manager of the England Barry Medicinal Corporation's Asian Operations. After knowing that you are the owner of Luo Yue, he asked to invest in Luo Yue."

So it was him. Ye Mo immediately remembered that little girl Jenny who admired him greatly.

Zang Jiayan continued: "CEO Ye, this time, it's all due to Mo Hai brother that we can register as a company and re-establish Flowing Snake. Their Hong Kong Mo Corporation provided 200 million dollars to our company to start up and brought over Jack to invest in us. However, regarding the shares, we don't dare to say much. We have to ask you to decide when you're back."

Hearing Zang Jiayan's words, Mo Hai quickly said: "Ye qian bei, it's my uncle's will to invest in Luo Yue and my uncle doesn't need Luo Yue shares. My uncle said we must support whatever qian bei does. As for Jack, he doesn't need shares. He just hopes Luo Yue can cooperate with his company."

Ye Mo already knew what to do on his mind and no longer talked about shares. He knew that he saved Mo Kang before and Mo Kang now was trying to pay him back. He wouldn't mistreat Mo Kang however. As for that British Jack, he was very cunning and already thought about future co-operations.

Ye Mo took out two chi increasing pills to Mo Hai, "These two pills are called chi increasing pills. Help me put them up for auction. One of this is enough for a warrior below earth level to breakthrough."

"Yes, qian bei." Mo Hai took the pills excitedly. Although he didn't know what earth level was, he knew this was related to ancient martial arts. These pills could allow ancient martial artists to ascend and this meant they were extremely powerful.

Xu Ping immediately said: "Third brother, your pill is too precious. I'm black level middle stage now. I'm sure I will ascend a stage half a year later. I've never even dreamed of such things before."

Ye Mo smiled: "Second brother, in the future, our company will be renowned across the globe. There will be many ruffians coming to start trouble, so the stronger second brother is, the better."

"Dealing with ruffians is what I love to do most. Third brother, don't worry. I'm sure those scums outside won't be able to see our tech at all." Xu Ping patted his chest and promised.

Ye Mo looked at Yu Erhu and said: "Erhu, when I'm not here, you can learn ancient martial arts with your martial uncle Xu. You must not drop it."

"Yes, master." Yu Erhu quickly replied.

Zang Jiayan said perplexedly: "CEO Ye, I've seen the pills Erhu made. We can't mass produce them. Although it's good, it's too hard to develop and grow the business. Plus, no matter how strict we keep the secrecy, if specialists buy our pill for analysis, they may be able to figure out its pharmaceutical formulations."

Ye Mo smiled, "Zang brother don't worry. Not only can our pill be mass produced but other people won't be able to copy it."

Then, Ye Mo turned and said to Mo Hai: "Mo Hai, after you go back and sell these two pills, help me buy 200 million worth of jade. I don't need it to be very good quality. Just average is fine."

"Okay, qian bei don't worry. I got this covered." Mo Hai stood up and promised. Although he was shocked at Ye Mo's request, he didn't ask anything.

Ye Mo waved his hand, "Don't call me qian bei. Just say my name."

After two hours of meeting, Ye Mo knew that the Luo Yue corporation was managed by Zang Jiayan and Yu Miaodan. After Yu Miaodan came back, Ye Mo made his decision.

Zang Jiayan and Yu Miaodan would still be responsible for sales. Yuan Meixiang and Lu Xiaozhen would be temporarily responsible for finance. At the same time, Xu Ping would be substitute for Ye Mo, responsible for appropriating funds and signing papers.

The safety of the company was the most important and Yang Nan and Yang Jiu were responsible for this.

A month later, Mo Hai came back to Flowing Snake. Mo Kang came with him. He heard that Ye Mo was in Flowing Snake so he came personally. He admired Ye Mo from the bottom of his heart.

After the two chi increasing pills were released, they were bought by a Hong Kong family, selling for 300 million.

Ye Mo also sighed. There was no more blood coral. If he still had some, he could gather money only by selling these pills. However, this price was far lower than the price in the hidden sect auction. If they were put up for the auction last time, then perhaps the price would double or more.

The 200 million worth of jade were all set up around the factories of Flowing Snake. There were no spirit stones here, Ye Mo could only use a lesser material to build a spirit gathering formation around the factories. The effect was far inferior to one made with spirit stones but it could still produce spirit chi.

The chi gathered was only enough to make pills and was far from enough for cultivation. At the same time, Ye Mo added a few spirit gathering formations on the beauty pill machines to guarantee quality.

Ye Mo used a month and changed the formulation of the beauty pills and taught it to Yu Erhu. However, these pills could only be made under special circumstances because it needed spirit chi.

And Ye Mo's spirit gathering formation satisfied this requirement. If this was in the cultivation realm, there would be spirit chi everywhere and such low grade pills wouldn't need any formations. But that wasn't the case on Earth.

The second pill Ye Mo taught Yu Erhu was the heart preserving pill. It could ease up all sorts of fatigue and remove of hidden dangers in the body. As for other pills, Ye Mo told Yu Erhu that they would make them after the two pills succeeded. It wasn't too smart to introduce all the products once.

The main reason Ye Mo made this company was to gather all sorts of spirit grasses. He even drew the grasses down and gave them to Zang Jiayan. He asked Zang Jiayan and his men to search for them.

After all these things were done, Ye Mo left Flowing Snake. Ye Mo knew that with the current circumstance, he wouldn't be able to ascend if he stayed in one place. staying in the same spot.

From then on, Ye Mo, alone with his sword, had been searching the whole China to find Luo Ying.

Chapter 349: Sensation

It has been almost half a year since Ye Mo left Flowing Snake.

During this half a year, a piece of huge news has been circulating amongst the upper class at the international level. That news being that the arrogant hitman organization Earth Fiend had been completely destroyed overnight due to offending a certain strong person. Royalty and the wealthy alike all felt fear upon hearing the name of Earth Fiend. At the same time, in the remaining big hitman organizations, this person has been listed as someone they mustn't touch at all costs.

However, in the hidden sects the most shocking thing wasn't this, but that Dian Cang and He Liu sect were almost annihilated. These two sects were the bourgeoisie of the hidden sects but due to offending some youth, they were almost eradicated.

If Elder Qu of He Liu sect hadn't returned in time and sealed the sect, then perhaps they would be gone now. Also, if the new sect leader of Dian Cang hadn't picked the right opportunity to apologise, and if Wu Dao Qian Bei hadn't intervened in time, perhaps they would've been annihilated too. Even so, these two sects were greatly damaged and were no longer as strong as the other 4 big sects.

Of course, in the mafia, the most prevalent news was the annihilation of the Amphibian gang and the retraction of Metal river. Even Nan Qing was stunned that all of this could be caused by offending one and the same person.

Everything seemed to be related to one person. Some people knew who this person was, but most didn't.

However, this wasn't what normal citizens cared about. These things were unrelated to their daily lives. They didn't care about it. Instead, they were more interested in the newly risen Luo Yue Pharmaceutical Company.

Although the name Luo Yue was very strange, a name wasn't too much cause for concern. What people cared about the most was that the company still hadn't even pushed out their products. People didn't even know what the company was producing, but two super companies were already willing to cooperate with it.

One was the leading family entrepreneurship of Hong Kong, Mo Corporation. The other was the world renowned England Barry Corporation.

Whether this company was created as a hoax or not, their first product, the beauty pill, received a lot of heated debate.

The instruction manual said the beauty pill could not only slow aging but also remove marks and wrinkles on the face, while making the skin white. Long term use could even increase one's life span.

At this moment, all sorts of commentary, suspicion, cursing and anger were pointed at the pharmaceutical regulation institution. This obviously fraudulent product could actually reach the market. Even idiots could tell this was a fake ad. All the ad was missing was saying the pill was an immortality pill. Yet the institution clearly supported the beauty pill's legitimacy saying there had been no backdoor dealings.

Despite the pressure of such criticism, the beauty pill was still put on the shelves on the foreseen date. This made a lot of the dubious citizens confused. Some people were even prepared to buy one and give it a try, but many soon gave up the thought.

This was because one bottle was being sold for 100k. And there were only 6 pills in a bottle.

The price was decided on after much consideration by Zang Jiayan and Yu Miaodan. The effects of the beauty pill were undoubtedly there. Of course, this batch of pills couldn't be compared with the batch Ye Mo had made. Those had been made with Ye Mo's essence chi and the ingredients had been much more precious.

And now, the beauty pills used less precious ingredients and were mass produced so the price was a little lower.

Although the current 6 pills together were less potent than one of the original pills, the effects were still obvious. After consuming a bottle, there will be results.

Although it had been marketed as magical, no one bought them because no one believed it and because the price was so exorbitant.

At the Gui Lin distribution point, 30 bottles were sold at once.

Xi Yuerong also hadn't expected that she would be able to see the beauty pill again at Gui Lin. Ever since she bought one for 200k at the Luo Cang social night, she had never seen it again. Although she went back to Luo Cang a few times afterwards, she didn't find anything.

She hadn't expected to see this at Gui Lin. Although it didn't smell as good as the one she bought last time, it smelled quite the same. Xi Yuerong immediately realized that it came from the same place as the one she bought last time.

Ever since she had eaten that beauty pill, not only had her face become shiny and smooth, her skin had also become white. A lot of people who knew her asked her where she'd bought the pill, but when they went to Luo Cang again, Ye Mo had already left.

So this time, she didn't hesitate to use up the 3 million in her card. If it wasn't that she didn't have enough money, she would've bought more.

With a first customer buying, furthermore buying so much at once, people started to buy the beauty pills. Although it was still only one bottle at a time, that was much better compared to nothing being sold yesterday.

However, this situation didn't last long. A week later, almost all the distribution points were full of people. Just a few days had passed, and the beauty pills that had been stacked for a week were sold out, and large amounts of orders were sent to Luo Yue Company.

The beauty pill was authentic. It was more authentic than what it said in the instruction manual. There was really such a thing in the world, such a magical pill. Almost everyone who had first bought the beauty pill saw a business opportunity and it was they who bought them like crazy. They knew that this price would multiply in the next month.

Over the course of one short month, all sorts of reports showed that the beauty pill was heavenly and magical. This new pill not only shocked all levels of China but also the rest of the major pharmaceutical companies throughout the world.

Instantly, everyone knew why the international big companies England Barry Corporation and Hong Kong Mo Corporation would cooperate with Luo Yue Corporation. Such an out of this world company, only an idiot wouldn't cooperate with them.

But everyone was disappointed when Luo Yue Corporation announced that they do not accept any orders nor cooperations with other companies. Even the beauty pills were only sold at certain chosen places.

This was madness. The entire earth was shaken into a frenzy by Luo Yue Corporations. What pill could have such an overwhelming effect? What company can be as dominant as Luo Yue? They're not even receiving orders! On top of that, the announcer also mentioned that they will be bringing out more products.

In this short time, the deserted Flowing Snake became busy with people. But, Flowing Snake was the borderland between two countries. This land was disputed territory. No one had wanted to stay here in this chaotic land but after the popularity of the beauty pill, it became popular too. The factories of the beauty pills were heavily guarded though. No one could come close.

At a normal restaurant in Yu state, an emaciated young man sat drinking just a Mao Tai. He was Ye Mo. During this half a year, Ye Mo had been to many places and even went to a few hidden sects, but he still had no news of Luo Ying.

Some places were hard to reach for other people, but they were nothing to Ye Mo. No matter how hard to get to the place was, he only needed to step on his flying sword to reach it.

This time, he passed by Yu state and remembered Ning Qingxue. Eventually, he couldn't resist the longing in his heart and wanted to come and see Ning Qingxue. He wondered how she had been lately. Although he knew it wasn't good to do this, he didn't hate Ning Qingxue. Perhaps one day when she remembered what happened between them, she would feel more pain than him. So, he had never hated her. He was waiting for her to remember.

Sometimes, Ye Mo wanted to drop these things. But once he thought about it or saw something that triggered the memories, he could no longer resist the longing in his heart. He couldn't just calmly walk past Yu state this time. He chose to stay. Regardless of whether he could see Qingxue or not, he still wanted to go have a look.

There was a connection which couldn't be severed or set aside. Ye Mo couldn't be carefree, he wanted to, but he couldn't.

Yu state Mao Yuan tower was the headquarters of Fei Yu Corporations. At the CEO's office nr. 808, the CEO was listening to Vice CEO Li Mumei's report. Li Mumei was talking about the recently popular beauty pill.

"Mumei, you're saying the headquarters of this Luo Yue corporation is in Flowing Snake? Isn't Flowing Snake very chaotic?" Ning Qingxue heard Li Mumei's report and asked with a frown.

Chapter 350: Those memories

"Qingxue, you've actually been to Flowing Snake before. However, I heard that Flowing Snake isn't the same as before due to Luo Yue Corporation. It's now very popular and prosperous. It's said that it's even safer than some mainland cities," Li Mumei sighed.

She felt that Ning Qingxue was getting prettier and prettier but also colder and colder like ice. Aunty said to not let Qingxue remember the past, but she didn't know if this was right or wrong. She's been with her the most, and she felt Qingxue had changed too much. Instead of letting her be like this, she might as well remember the past.

However, she didn't dare make Qingxue remember it overtly. She could only give a hint occasionally. Otherwise, if Qingxue's mother knew, she wouldn't be happy.

As expected, Ning Qingxue frowned and then said after a long while: "Mumei, you said that the memories I lost are partially about Flowing Snake? Why would I go there?"

Li Mumei nodded, "Yes, Qingxue. Although I don't know why you went to Flowing Snake, but I think it was related to him."

Ning Qingxue frowned again and subconsciously felt the necklace on her chest before saying slowly: "Mumei, when I went to Luo Hong temple last time, Master Wu Guang said that perhaps before I died I intentionally used my soul to wrap up the memories I didn't want to lose. However, the doctors judged that I just lost one year's worth of memory, and they said it was due to a concussion. Master Wu Guang's words sounded more metaphysical or implausible, so I..."

Although the doctor's words sounded more authentic, Li Mumei still wanted to tell Ning Qingxue to believe the monk. However, she remembered Ning Qingxue's mother's words and resisted the urge. In the depth of her heart she was also lost. She didn't know if it was right or wrong to help Ning Qingxue remember those things. Ning Qingxue did almost lose her life twice with Ye Mo so she didn't dare speak. Who knew if that would happen a third time.

Also, Li Mumei had investigated Ning Qingxue's tracks during that year. Not only did she go to Flowing Snake alone, she also went to the desert with Chi Wanqing. She even went to Shen Nong Jia by herself. Although she didn't know what happened during these events, Li Mumei knew it was related to Ye Mo.

Furthermore, the terrifying incident of the Heaven Ditch seems to have occurred at the same time as when Ning Qingxue left.

So, only she knew that Ning Qingxue's lost memories weren't for a year, but specifically the memories with Ye Mo. It seemed to be very coherent with what that monk had said. However, he said that only high level cultivators could do that and she wasn't sure if Ning Qingxue had cultivated that stuff.

If it wasn't because she remembered that Ning Qingxue had never cultivated ancient martial arts, she really wouldn't be able to resist telling her. Besides, even if Ning Qingxue had cultivated ancient martial arts, she wouldn't have been able to reach a high level due to her age.

"Mumei, I heard that CEO Zang of the Luo Yue corporation is hard to talk to and has rejected most well known corporations. They probably wouldn't even look straight at our Fei Yu Corporation. I'm a bit tired today. I'm going back first, we'll talk tomorrow." Then, Ning Qingxue got up and felt her chest. She felt her heart was aching a little, but the hospital had never been able to find a problem.

"Qingxue, are you okay?" Li Mumei saw Ning Qingxue's actions and knew her heart was aching again.

Ning Qingxue shook her head, "I'm fine."

Seeing Ning Qingxue and Xiao Yue leave together, Li Mumei had a certain strange feeling. She didn't know what she should do now.

After finishing a day's work, Li Mumei fatiguedly walked out of the building. She walked into the car park to drive her buggy but saw a person standing by a small road off in the distance.

It was Ye Mo. Li Mumei recognized Ye Mo straight away. He seemed a little emaciated. He stood at the road not moving an inch as though a statue standing there for eternity. His eyes were fixed on an office on the 8th floor. Li Mumei's heart shook. She knew that Ye Mo came to see Ning Qingxue, but she had already finished work.

He really had changed. She could no longer associate the current Ye Mo with the abandoned son from before. Perhaps since meeting Ye Mo at Su Jingwen's birthday party, he had changed.

Thinking about Ning Qingxue's cold expression, Li Mumei could no longer resist knowing and not telling. She had to tell Ning Qingxue. If she didn't, perhaps many years later Ning Qingxue would hate her for life.

Qingxue must've cared about Ye Mo too much and not have wanted to forget him. That's why when she was about to die, she enveloped her memories. That was because she loved Ye Mo too much. "Master Wu Guang is right, it must be like this. I don't understand why Qingxue would know ancient martial arts, but I can ask Ye Mo."

Thinking about this, Li Mumei opened the car door and was going to talk to Ye Mo, but when she looked at where he had been standing, it was empty. Ye Mo was nowhere to be seen.

Ye Mo jumped up to the window he had jumped off last time. He didn't need to go up and only needed to scan from down there to know that Ning Qingxue had left. Nonetheless, he looked at her office in a daze. So what if Ning Qingxue wasn't in her office. Even if she had been, what could he have done?

Ye Mo sighed and turned to leave.

Although Ye Mo had already left, Li Mumei still made up her mind to tell Ning Qingxue everything she knew. Even if she didn't care about those memories, even if Ning Qingxue's mother would blame her, she would still say it.

Having made up her mind, she drove to Ning Qingxue's place.

Li Mumei opened Ning Qingxue's room and saw her stand by the window. She was holding her chest and looking into the distant buildings in a daze. Li Mumei suddenly realized that Ning Qingxue's gaze was similar to Ye Mo's.

Li Mumei hesitated for a while before biting her lips and saying: "Qingxue, I don't know if I should tell you, but if you really don't want to know, I won't say it. If you do, I will tell you everything I know."

Ning Qingxue sat down and also poured herself some tea before saying slowly: "Is this about me and Ye Mo?"

"Mhm," Li Mumei nodded, "although in your memory, you feel disgusted about him, a lot happened in between. I, I don't know if I should say it and I don't know if you will care."

Ning Qingxue sunk into a long silence before saying: "In fact, I don't feel disgusted about him. I just feel that we're impossible. I know why Ye Mo came up last time, but I won't believe it. Besides, I know Ye Mo's character very well. I won't like someone like him. Although I simply don't like him, my mom detests him. Last time, she even kneeled to him for me. I don't want to see him and I don't want to think about him. I am me, he is him, there is nothing between us."

Li Mumei stared at Ning Qingxue for a long time before saying: "Qingxue, is that really how you feel? If it is, I won't mention him again and I will also forget about all of it."

"I..." Ning Qingxue hesitated. Her attitude wasn't as adamant as the first time. When Li Mumei asked a second time, she wavered. Even though she was sure she wouldn't like Ye Mo, someone with nothing good about him, she still had the subtle feeling that her heart ache was related to Ye MO.

Every time someone mentioned this name or whenever she thought about the name, she had that heart ache feeling. She even felt this necklace of hers was related to Ye Mo, since every time she felt pain, she would just feel the necklace and the pain would slowly disappear.

"Qingxue, you didn't turn around just then, but how did you know it was me and not aunty?" Li Mumei suddenly thought of this.

Ning Qingxue was dazed. Yeah, just then, she knew it was Mumei without turning around.

"Also, there were many times in the office where you didn't even look up yet still knew if it was me or Xiao Yue. Although you could judge by our footsteps, but even when they sound very light, you are still able to tell. So, I really suspect that you have learnt ancient martial arts," Li Mumei said dubiously.

Ning Qingxue sighed and looked at Li Mumei: "Mumei, tell me about Ye Mo and I. I really don't believe there could be anything between us..." After hesitating for a moment, Ning Qingxue said: "Mumei, no matter what, don't tell my mother about our conversation today."

Li Mumei nodded: "I know, even if you hadn't said anything, I wouldn't have told her."
