Chapter 381: To Be Caught In One's Own Trap

Jason laughed bleakly and pressed down on the controller. A few of the metal cages opened and the starved lion, leopard and tiger rushed out, charging towards Ye Mo and Johnson.

Jason saw Ye Mo wip the leopard away with one kick and yelled, "Open fire and break that Chinese man's leg!"

Around one hundred people fired simultaneously, all focusing on the same spot. There were sparks all over, yet Ye Mo was nowhere to be seen.

At this moment, Ye Mo jumped up to where the people were standing and incapacitated their meridians with rapid speed before throwing them down below.

Ye Mo was very fast; after running one circle, he had thrown the hundred or so people down onto the fighting ring. Only then did Jason react. He immediately realized that this Ye guy was far more powerful than he had expected. This gladiator ring couldn't trap him at all.

Howls of pain sounded in the gladiator ring mixed with the roaring of beasts, making people shiver.

The only thought in Jason's head was to leave this place as soon as possible. Suo Ren was faster than him, but as soon as the two stood up, they saw Ye Mo standing in front of them.

"Mr Ye..." Jason wanted to say something, but he didn't know what to say. The reason he could live so well until today was because he never exposed himself to danger.

Today however, even though he thought he had prepared for everything, he had miscalculated. This man has exceeded the limits of humans. Who could jump twenty meters high and throw his men into the gladiator ring in such a short time.

If he got another chance, he would rather abandon his beautiful manor and leave as far as he could, rather than face Ye Mo. This person wasn't a human; he was the devil.

"You are Jason?" Ye Mo looked at this man who had reigned over San Francisco all these years. He didn't expect he would be so scared facing death head-on.

"Yes, yes, good sir. I have a lot of money, I'll give it all to you, as long as you have mercy on me..."

"Oh, where is your money?" Ye Mo asked candidly. If there was a lot of cash, he didn't mind taking some; he was short on money anyway.

Jason saw that Ye Mo was interested in his money and immediately became excited. He ordered Suo Ren hurriedly, "Quickly explain to Mr Ye."

Suo Ren raised his pale face and said slowly, "Jason's money is all in stocks. He owns six companies and 5 shopping malls. These things can't be turned into money straight away. They need to be sold. But if Jason suddenly sells these things, the FBI will investigate. This way, not only would you not get the money, but it will also cause you trouble."

"Suo Ren, you, why are you putting it like that..." Jason could tell that Suo Ren wasn't helping him talk and was instead saying that his money couldn't be taken now. If it couldn't, what use was he then?

Ye Mo looked at Jason and questioned, "In other words, you have no money right now?"

"I do, I do! I still have 50 million in my bank account," Jason no longer dared let Suo Ren help him translate.

Ye Mo took out his card and gave it to Jason, "Transfer all your money to me as fast as possible. Otherwise, you'll see I don't have much patience."

"Okay, okay; but after I do that..." Jason asked hesitantly. As long as Ye Mo agreed to let him go, he would do anything.

Ye Mo declared coldly, "Don't challenge my patience. I don't have so much time that I can wait for you. If you don't want to, fine by me. I'll just toss you down."

"I'll do it, I'll do it!" Jason didn't dare say anything more. He took out his phone and started making transactions.

Just looking at the blood bath down there shook his mind. Those gang members couldn't crawl up and were being torn apart by the beasts.

Suo Ren looked at Jason who was rushing to make the transaction. There was ridicule on his pale face. He knew that even if Jason made the transaction, Ye Mo wouldn't let him go. He could already see the sharp killing intent in Ye Mo's eyes.

But in the depth of his heart, he was also shocked. He had witnessed many masters, but it was the first time he met someone of Ye Mo's caliber. He saw with his own eyes how Ye Mo flew up. That moment, he at first thought he had seen wrongly.

If it had been someone else, he would've thought of many ways to run, but in front of Ye Mo, he felt helpless. This young man was too scary. He could tell he was the traitor of the Chinese gang from tens of meters away.

"It is done," Jason handed the card back to Ye Mo in a fawning manner.

Ye Mo took the card and said to Jason, "Since it's done, you can go down now."

"No, how can you not-" Jason was kicked down amidst the bloody bodies by Ye Mo.

He still couldn't understand even at the moment of his death. Johnson had told him about the character of Chinese, and being in contact with Chinese people all these years it had been confirmed indeed. Usually, as long as he appeared subdued and respectful to Chinese people, they would be soft. And when he gave them everything he could, they would let him go. But the reality now was exactly the opposite.

He only had one thought of regret; why on earth did he build this gladiator ring? He never would've thought that he would be fighting the beasts in here one day, being the owner of the ring.

Suo Ren lacked the resolve to look at the bloody scene and tried his best to think of a way to live.

Ye Mo looked plainly at him and said, "You're a smart guy. Tell me how you betrayed the Chinese gang and where sister Yan is."

Suo Ren shuddered and hesitated for a long time, "I just want to live."

Ye Mo uttered frigidly, "You don't have the right to argue with me. I can make you talk even if you don't want to. You're worth less than an ant in my eyes."

"You are the Ye Mo who annihilated Earth Fiend aren't you?" Suo Ren suddenly asked something completely irrelevant.

Ye Mo said plainly, "I am. You're indeed clever and even know about this. But even so, what of it?"

"So it's you indeed. I should've known earlier, I'm such an idiot, such an idiot..." Suo Ren murmured for a long time and still didn't reply to Ye Mo's question.

Ye Mo sneered, "Since you don't want to talk, then don't blame me."

"Hold up," Suo Ren suddenly raised his hand calmly.

Seeing Ye Mo wait, Suo Ren started talking, "The moment I lay my eyes on sister Yan, I realized that she was the woman of my dreams. So, I joined the Chinese gang without further thought. For more than ten years, I did everything for the Chinese gang without hesitation, all for sister Yan."

"If things had just continued like that, perhaps nothing would've happened. But one day, I really couldn't bear with the longing for her; I confessed to her."

Suo Ren stopped as though reminiscing on past memories, then he shook his head before continuing, "What I hadn't expected, however, was that the gang leader Peng Hanwen would hear it. He used the 'three knives and six holes' torture on me without hesitation, saying that I shouldn't have dared harass sister Yan. I knew that sister Yan was the gang leader's goddess. No one was allowed to get close to her."

Having said that much, Suo Ren pulled up his pants to show six scars on his leg.

"That torture made me lose all hope for the Chinese gang. I betrayed the gang and sided with the Grey Alliance, helping them scheme. My only demand was for Jason to give sister Yan to me." There was longing and a sliver of madness in Suo Ren's eyes.

"But, afterwards, I couldn't find sister Yan. I don't know where she went. Although I suspect that sister Yan was killed by Jason, I have no evidence at all. Ever since, I've been living my life in pain. Not because I betrayed the Chinese gang, but because I brought harm to sister Yan." Then, he went silent.

"What reason could Jason have to kill sister Yan?" Ye Mo asked.

Suo Ren answered dejectedly, "I suspect Jason wanted me to settle and scheme for the Grey Alliance without any distraction. Of course, this is only my guess."

Ye Mo looked coldly at Suo Ren, "Since you can't provide better info, you can go down and accompany your boss."

Thus, Ye Mo grabbed Suo Ren and was going to fling him down. Suo Ren quickly screamed, "Ye Mo, you can't kill me-"

Chapter 382: Hanwen's Descendants

Ye Mo looked coldly at Suo Ren, "Why can't I kill you?"

Suo Ren quickly said, "Your mother-in-law is in my hands now. if you kill me, your mother-in-law will be dead for sure."

Ye Mo frowned. Although he was sure that there couldn't be such a coincidence, Ning Zhongfei did indeed come to San Francisco a few days ago. What if this was true?

He let Suo Ren down and asked coldly, "Where is she?"

"I can tell you right away, but you have to ensure my safety," Suo Ren said without hesitation. He knew this was his only chance at staying alive.

"Then there's no need," Ye Mo pointed at Suo Ren's forehead. He wouldn't negotiate with someone like that. There were too many ways to make him tell the truth.

Suo Ren seemed as if he'd lost focus as Ye Mo interrogated, "Tell me everything you know about my mother-in-law."

Suo Ren answered expressionlessly, "Ning Zhongfei and Lan Yu represented Fei Yu Corporation wanting to cooperate with CKG Corporation in the US. I have a friend at CKG and thus knew about it. Your name in China was just too big, so I started to investigate you, but before I could finish, you came. But I do know that Ning Qingxue is your wife and hence that Lan Yu is your mother-in-law."

Ye Mo frowned, "Where is Lan Yu now?"

Suo Ren replied, "I don't know. I just heard that they already left CGK. I don't know anything about her; I just said that to save my life."

"Then in that case, get the fuck down there." Ye Mo threw Suo Ren down. He couldn't help but applaud this shorty for his quick thinking.

Suo Ren woke up in the middle of the air. Facing the bloody scene, there was a look of desperation in his eyes.

Ye Mo scanned with his spirit sense; all of the gang members here had been killed. The rest were some servants. It didn't matter if they lived. He had earned big this time. He annihilated the Grey Alliance and earned a big load of cash.

Even if there were still some remaining members of the Grey Alliance, they wouldn't be able to cause much trouble. Besides, with all the people the Grey Alliance had offended all these years, perhaps as soon as after his departure, they would come looking for vengeance.

Even that Zhu guy from Hong Martial Gang would come, much less other people.

Ye Mo shot tens of fireballs down below and turned this gladiator ring into a sea of fire before leaving.

It seemed that if he wanted to find sister Yan, he would have to pay a visit to the Vietnamese gang who had found the bracelet. But that guy who got the bracelet had already been killed by Tong Zhu; that was one lead less.

Although he was sure that Lan Yu would be okay, she was still his mother-in-law. Since she was still in San Francisco and was tracked by Suo Ren, he should go find out her whereabouts. Gang activity had been quite prevalent recently in these areas. It wouldn't be good if she fell in their hands.

Although this probability was small, what's wrong with checking it out for safety's sake?

When Ye Mo returned to Ming Yu Tower, Shi Kaigen and Tong Zhu were worriedly waiting. Although Ye Mo hadn't left that long with Johnson, the Grey Alliance have made a name for themselves in China Town that they weren't to be messed with. If something happened to their new big brother, they would be gone for sure.

Seeing Ye Mo come in, they finally felt relieved. Old He knew that Shi Kaigen followed Ye Mo now and thus also showed respect to Ye Mo.

At the top floor, Ye Mo called Shi Kaigen and Tong Zhu over and asked, "The Grey Alliance is over, you don't need to worry about it. Now, I want to ask, do you know about a business called CGK, a pharmaceutical corporation?"

Shi Kaigen and Tong Zhu knew that since Ye Mo came back, it meant that Grey Alliance was a thing of the past, but they were still shocked when they heard it really was so.

Shi Kaigen replied, "Yes, I know this company. It's a moderately sized pharmaceutical company in San Francisco. Their main activity is at the eastern suburbs, but their office building is in the most developed inner city."

Ye Mo nodded and said, "Someone I know called Lan Yu was doing business negotiations with them not long ago and didn't seem to make any progress. Go and see where she is now,. You only need to find out where she is; no need to startle her."

After that, Ye Mo walked into the busy China Town streets again. Almost all the TVs in bars and entertainment centers were playing the news about a UFO invading the States. All the citizens of America had to be vigilant. If they were to find any relevant information, they should call the police.

He had only been walking around for one hour when Shi Kaigen called saying that he needed to report in and was waiting for him at Ming Yu Tower.

When Ye Mo came back, both Shi Kaigen and Tong Zhu had returned. Furthermore, they had brought two people. One was a Chinese less than 30 years old, his eyes full of spirit and ferocity, with a faint killing chi on him. One could easily see he was no simple character, however his power was a bit low; only yellow level primary stage at most.

The other was a white man of medium build, his eyes looking around very rapidly. Yet what was different about him, was that he was tied up.

"Brother Ye, this is the leader of the Tang Gang, Wen Yueji. He heard that big brother was looking for Lan Yu and tied up Fred here, bringing him over," Shi Kaigen quickly explained.

Ye Mo looked at Wen Yueji in confusion. He was looking for news of Lan Yu. Why did this guy deliver a tied up foreigner to him?

Wen Yueji saw Ye Mo look over and quickly bowed with his fist, "Ye qian bei, I've heard of your big name but hadn't been fortunate enough to see you until today. Now that I got this chance to meet qian bei, please allow me to follow you like Shi Kaigen."

Ye Mo frowned, "I won't be staying here, why would you follow me?"

Wen Yueji immediately said resolutely, "If qian bei is going back to China, I'm willing to accompany qian bei. If qian bei wishes for me to stay and conquer turf here, I'm willing to stay too."

Ye Mo looked coldly at Wen Yueji and said, "You're quite calculating. You know that I'm not interested in a small place like this, so you want to use me to climb higher up. Do you know that I only need to raise my hand and you'll be dead?"

Wen Yueji's forehead started sweating. He immediately said, "Wan bei's words are all truthful. It's because I've sworn that if someone could kill Jason, I would be willing to be that person's servant for life. Qian bei killed Jason, so I wish to be loyal to you. From now on, I am changing my name to Peng Yueji."

Ye Mo suddenly asked, "Who is Peng Wenhan to you?"

Peng Yueji laughed bitterly, "I'm his only son. When my father formed the Chinese gang, I was only a few years old. Father was afraid that the gang would affect mother, my little sister and me, so he sent us to another city. Although I don't know if father had any other reasons, this is a fact for sure."

"More than ten years ago, I was playing hide and seek with my sister at night. I hid in a big closet, but because my sister didn't find me for a long time, I fell asleep in the closet. When I woke up, I found my mother and sister as well as the maid all bathed in a pool of blood."

Ye Mo sighed, "Sit down and talk."

Peng Yueji nodded and continued, "I soon realized that our enemies were closeby. There was nothing taken from the house, so in the end I didn't call the police. I knew that even if I did, my family wouldn't come back alive. I wanted revenge. I was aware that my dad was in China Town, so I rushed there. When I arrived, I immediately understood everything. My father's older brother from the gang saved me and helped me establish the Tang Gang. The only cause of our gang was to kill Jason and destroy the Grey Alliance to get revenge."

Peng Yueji took a long sigh after this and spoke slowly with his eyes on Ye Mo, "A lot of the brothers at the Hong Martial Gang originate from the Chinese gang. So I quickly found out what qian bei did. When qian bei went to the Grey alliance, I was very excited and kept sending people to watch out for news. Soon, I got the news that the Grey Alliance was annihilated. I wanted to find qian bei and give my thanks. Without qian bei, I would never have been able to get revenge in my entire life."

Afterwards, Peng Yueji was going to kneel, but Ye Mo stopped him. He pointed at the white man and asked, "What about him?"

Chapter 383: The Person Enduring the Most Hardship

Peng Yueji immediately explained, "Qian bei, Fred is CGK's main representative in their negotiation with Fei Yu Corporation. If something happened to Lan Yu, it must be due to him, so I tied him up."

Ye Mo was almost speechless, "Who said something happened to Lan Yu? I just wanted to figure out where she was at the moment, I never said anything happened to her."

Peng Yueji saw that he had misunderstood Ye Mo and was greatly worried. He said, "Ye qian bei, Fred is the most infamous human trafficker in San Francisco. He looks glamorous on the outside, 'sales manager of a big company', but secretly he commits all sorts of crimes. Normal people don't know about these things, but in the mafia everyone knows about it. Because Suo Ren of Grey Alliance was his supporting pillar, he still roams free."

Ye Mo suddenly realized something. So this was the friend Suo Ren had in CGK he was talking about. Had he really dared do something to Lan Yu?

Thinking about it, Ye Mo's face sunk, and he asked coldly, "I don't know if something happened to Lan Yu. Gang leader Peng, ask this person for me. Does he know the whereabouts of Lan Yu? If he really had the guts to do something to Lan Yu, I will kill him right now."

"Yes, if qian bei doesn't mind, just call me Yue Ji. Don't call me gang leader," Peng Yueji humbly stated.

Ye Mo nodded, "Alright, then you can be the same as Zhu Zi and Shi Kaigen."

Hearing Ye Mo agree to his request, Peng Yueji made up his mind to not disappoint Ye Mo. He turned to talk to Fred and used one threat after another.

Fred might have done human trafficking, he still couldn't stand the threats and yells of Peng Yueji. Soon, he told everything.

Hearing Peng Yueji's explanation, Ye Mo was speechless. Although Fred was a human trafficker, it's not like he sold everyone. He had to make sure they were safe to traffic. Lan Yu wasn't safe, so he didn't intend to do anything to her.

Instead it was Lan Yu who found him. When Ning Zhongfei was leaving America, Lan Yu met up with Fred once again. She took out a card with 100k USD and wanted to bribe him.

How could Fred not take the money that was given to him? He took the card immediately and promised to introduce Lan Yu to a new company and told her not to worry.

Fred wasn't planning on doing anything to her and was really going to introduce her to a small company and just finish things up.

But at this moment, CGK heard that Fei Yu got the spot for Asia and immediately wanted to re-negotiate with Fei Yu. This was Fred's job, so Fred got really worried.

If this deal was exposed, he would be screwed over for sure. As long as Lan Yu knew that her company was chosen, this deal would get exposed. At that time, not only would Fred lose his job, he could also face jail time.

Therefore, Fred could only lock Lan Yu up. At this moment, Ning Zhongfei happened to call. Fred forced Lan Yu to report that she was safe and took her phone.

At this step, Fred was planning to sell Lan Yu after all, so he called an organization called Five States and sold Lan Yu to them.

Having listened to all this, Ye Mo's voice went cold. He looked frostily at Fred, "Where is this Five States?"

After Peng Yueji had asked the details of where to meet the Five States and where their HQ was, Ye Mo threw a fireball without hesitation.

This was the first time Ye Mo had used a fireball in front of them. Even Shi Kaigen and Tong Zhu were shocked, much less Peng Yueji who saw Ye Mo for the first time.

At this moment, they realized that they were far from knowing Ye Mo. They had only witnessed a part of Ye Mo's power. No one had been able to force him to show his true power yet.

"I'm going to Five States immediately. Kaigen and Zhu, stay with Yueji first," Ye Mo was very uncomfortable thinking that a human trafficking organization had taken Lan Yu.

Lan Yu hadn't been through much hardship up until now. She was living in a spacious, grandiose room. There were even a few maids serving her. She was really confused. She understood of course that she had been tricked by Fred.

Although she didn't comprehend why she was being served like this as someone who had been sold, Lan Yu knew her situation wasn't good.

She regretted her naivety. It had always been her husband doing the business trips, and only when her daughter got old, did she also help. It was only after moving to Yu state that she learnt how hard it was doing business.

Seeing their company gradually decline under the will of Yuan Bei, she was also very desperate.

This time she had come to America to seek cooperation with CGK but was rejected without hesitation. She didn't expect the person whom she bribed to be so greedy and even sell her. If it wasn't that when some black person was about to violate her, she told them she was the CEO of Fei Yu, she would've been raped already.

Lan Yu felt something was very odd. After she said that, someone kicked that black man away and even killed the man.

Lan Yu hadn't witnessed the bloody scene, but she still felt gratitude to that person who helped her.

That person was a low-level leader here, so her treatment changed for the better soon. Not only was she moved away from the people being sold, all her belongings were returned to her too.

More than that, they also brought her to this luxurious place to live and eat well. But no matter how good the conditions here were, it couldn't stop her desperate longing to go home.

If she had known that Fei Yu was going to get the spot, why would she have stayed so shamelessly to negotiate with CGK?

Lan Yu wondered though, 'Was Fei Yu's reputation that good nowadays?'

.....

The person enduring the greatest hardship now wasn't Lan Yu, but the big boss who had just bought this human trafficking organisation.

Although Five States was a human trafficking organization, they didn't operate just in the field of human trafficking. The big boss of Five States was a Chinese man called Sha 1; he only has one arm.

Even if Fei Yu had gotten the only spot in the world, they wouldn't care.

But this Fei Yu's CEO had another identity; mother-in-law of that slaughter god Ye Mo.

Sha 1 knew clearly how strong Ren Sha was. He could make anyone die by his will. He had seen many powerful ancient martial artists try to challenge Ren Sha, yet all of them had died. Aside from that, Sha 1 also knew Ren Sha's cultivation method; using other people's lives to increase his own power.

When Ren Sha had wanted to kill Ye Mo, he had sent killers everywhere. But this pissed Ye Mo off, and he came to Hong Kong from Chun An in an extremely short amount of time. Even now, Sha 1 still didn't know how Ye Mo came to Hong Kong.

And exactly this kind of tough guy like Ren Sha was not only killed by Ye Mo, but even the entire Earth Fiend organization, other than him who had escaped with one arm, was completely massacred. Even Ren Sha's base seemed to have been searched by Ye Mo.

Afterwards, Sha 1 also went to Hong Kong to investigate secretly; Ren Sha couldn't be more dead. Compared to Ren Sha, Nan Qing and Metal River was nothing. They had all offended Ye Mo, and all of them disappeared or went into decline.

If there was one person in this world that Sha 1 didn't dare offend, then it was Ye Mo.

He didn't think that Ye Mo wouldn't be able to find him here. He was sure that if Ye Mo wanted to kill him, then even if he hid on the edges of the earth, he would still die.

Sha 1 fled to the USA, wanting to use this human trafficking business to store up wealth and start another hitman organization. But this business earned just a little bit of name for itself, and he offended someone like Ye Mo. This made Sha 1 very annoyed and worried.

That's why when he knew that the person he had captured was Lan Yu, he immediately decided to let her eat well and live well and send someone to get Fred.

But the people he sent reported that Fred was gone. This got Sha 1 even more worried. If he couldn't think of a way, he would be gone for sure. Once Ye Mo came here, he would be done for.

Chapter 384: He Feng Yuan Family

"Quickly get CEO Lan over here." After finding out that Fred was missing, Sha 1 immediately began to worry. His original plan was to capture Fred and ask for forgiveness in front of Lan Yu, but now Fred was missing.

"Wait," Sha 1 stopped his men and tidied his clothes, "I'll go myself."

Lan Yu was anxiously waiting in the luxurious room when Sha 1 walked in nervously.

"CEO Lan, I'm Sha 1 of Five States. My men are stupid and actually believed Fred's words, so they were disrespectful to CEO Lan. Please forgive me, CEO Lan," Sha 1 apologized and made a 90 degree bow.

Lan Yu looked at Sha 1 in confusion. Since when did human traffickers become so polite to the people they kidnap?

Seeing Lan Yu not talk, Sha 1 quickly said, "CEO Lan, in fact, I tried to capture Fred, but he has gone missing currently. Hence, we haven't been able to find him yet."

Although Lan Yu was still confused, she said, "I don't need you to say you're wrong, I just want to leave. All I want now is for you to let me go."

Sha 1 wiped the sweat off his head, "No problem, of course you can leave. There's a card here, the password is all 1s. Although I know CEO Lan isn't short on money, this is my compensation for all my mistakes."

Lan Yu didn't understand what was going on, but this was what she wanted. As for the reason, if she couldn't think of it, she might as well not think about it.

When he brought her back onto the streets, Sha 1 wiped the sweat off his forehead and ordered, "Send two people to secretly protect her. If anyone dares offend her, don't blame me for being rude."

The Luo Yue conference was over. Out of all the companies present, the unhappiest had to be the Yuan Bei Corporation. It was the largest pharmaceutical company in China with its power spread all over the globe.

More than that, in the He Feng area, the Yuan family was the local overlord. Even the Vice-Mayor had to consider his words.

But today, the young CEO of Yuan Bei Corporation was slapped in the face by Luo Yue's CEO Yu in front of a few hundred corporations from all over the world and had been escorted out of the place.

This was a complete insult to Yuan Bei Corporation.

"Yu Miaodan, I don't care how popular your Luo Yue Corporation is, nor who is behind Luo Yue Corporation. If I don't send you to the 18th level of hell, I, Yuan Qibing, am a pig. Ning Qingxue, don't think that just because you have Luo Yue supporting you, you can forget about everything. When you kneel in front of me begging for mercy, you will know who's boss!" Yuan Qibing smashed the last cup on the table and finally calmed down a little.

Yuan Qibing always thought himself a calm and elegant person. The reason he was acting out like this was all because of Luo Yue and Ning Qingxue.

A woman in her 30's wearing a light blue professional dress walked in. She bowed respectfully to Yuan Qibing and then took out a folder handing it to him, "Young CEO, this is what I managed to investigate. Luo Yue Corporation's sudden rise to fame is due to the support of Hong Kong Mo Family Corporation.

Yuan Qibing didn't look at the files and frowned, "Hong Kong Mo Family Corporation? Did they know Luo Yue had such a powerful product at the time? Who's the big boss behind Luo Yue?"

The woman replied, "They aren't registered in China, and their data is completely safeguarded. With our current resources, we can't find out their registration information. Aside from that, there is more bad news: the new health pill they are producing is listed as a military cooperation. It's said that the military is having negotiations with them now.

"What?" Yuan Qibing suddenly stood up. He wasn't dumb. Although he wanted to annihilate Luo Yue immediately, he knew this wasn't to be rushed.

If Luo Yue caught the military's eye, then it would be hard for him to do anything. Although his Yuan family was not bad, they weren't enough in comparison. They couldn't even know much of the inside news.

"Immediately obtain the recipe for the two pills before they start their cooperation with the military. And don't they have a pharmacist called Yu? Take her to He Feng secretly. As for that Ning Qingxue; hmph, can a woman I want fly away?"

"Did you find out who is supporting Luo Yue?" After his moment of anger, Yuan Qibing had returned to his cool countenance. Those who knew him would know this was when he was at his angriest and scariest.

The woman replied, "We can't tell for now. Yu Miaodan prepared a lot of things herself. She's very capable."

"Capable? Haha, the more capable the better. I like capable women. Hope she's as capable in bed too. Though this woman is a bit old, she can serve as an entry," Yuan Qibing laughed hysterically.

This woman didn't seem to mind Yuan Qibing's laughter and said calmly, "Ning Qingxue has for some reason left Beijing. When we found out that she was going to Ning Hai, she had already left. She just flew to Hong Kong and is now waiting for a flight to San Francisco."

Yuan Qibing stopped. He was confused. This was the gloriest moment of all for Fei Yu; how could she, being the big boss, leave? Anyway, the more alone she was, the better it was for him.

"Have you found out whether she's married?" Yuan Qibing asked.

"Yes, she is. Her husband is the former young master of the Ye family, but because he wasn't welcomed and was found out to be of bastard blood, he was kicked out of the Ye family. After he married Ning Qingxue, he soon disappeared," the woman replied.

Yuan Qibing walked to her and grabbed her ass, squeezing and rubbing, "Alright, not bad."

It was unknown whether he was referring to her work or her ass.

However, she remained calm and didn't look harassed at all.

Just when he was about to reach his hand into her chest, the phone sounded.

Yuan Qibing picked up the phone and just spoke a few words before putting the phone down. He said to the woman, "Go out first."

"Yes." She walked out of his office calmly and without even tidying up her clothes.

Seeing this woman walk out, Yuan Qibing called again, yet this time, his voice became cold and calculated. If someone heard him now, they wouldn't connect him to the Yuan Qibing who sounded infuriated and threw things around.

"Uncle Ping, what did my dad say?" there were no more emotions in his voice.

A clear and deep voice sounded, "Young CEO, the CEO is here. I'll hand the phone to him."

Soon afterwards, a voice that sounded a little old could be heard, "Bing'er, I know about what has happened. Those Luo Yue guys are indeed very cocky, but before we act we need to investigate things clearly. Our number one rule of the family is to do things carefully, and take revenge swiftly. We try not to offend people, but once we do, we need to beat them to death. We can't give them any chances of survival."

"Yes, dad. I've already investigated them. They don't have that big of a support. I just received news that Ning Qingxue is preparing to go to San Francisco in two hours," not only did he sound slower and more respectful, his tone itself was full of reason.

"Mhm, but don't underestimate that husband of Ning Qingxue's. Although he has gone missing, from what the Song family members said, this Ye Mo doesn't seem to be simple. The leader of the Song family, Song Qiming, has ordered the Song family members not to offend Ye Mo. I don't know if this is related to the Ye family, but since there was such an order, you need to be careful of that Ye Mo."

Yuan Qibing replied, "I know, however the Song family and Ye family were never as strong as they claimed to be. Their opponents didn't even do anything, yet they started to decline. The Song family was even kicked out of Beijing."

Chapter 385: Sha 1's Horror

There was silence on the phone. Afterwards, the old voice sounded again, "Bing'er, although Yuan family started as a business family and is now the largest pharmaceutical company in China, our power is far less than that of those great families of China. There are many things that we don't know. The Song and Ye family might have declined, who knows if they aren't just showing weakness intentionally? No matter what, you should never underestimate a big family of China, not even the Ning family."

"Dad, then this time, should I..." Yuan Qibing's tone went a little despondent but still respectful.

"Haha, although our Yuan family can't compare with those big families, we can't be bullied by any small fishes either. If that Ye Mo hadn't disappeared, perhaps we would have to be concerned of the Ye family. But now, there's only a Ning Zhongfei who left the Ning family and a recent start-up company. That's not enough to ride on our heads."

Finally, some joy could be noticed in Yuan Qibing's tone, "Dad, you mean?"

"I've already arranged people to handle things in Flowing Snake. You just stay in Beijing for now and make some friends with those big families' members. As for that Ning Qingxue, don't worry; I will send people to board the same plane as her."

....

Lan Yu walked onto the streets, sure that she was free indeed. She could even go to the police right away.

But, of course she wouldn't do that, because this was America and not China. The first thing she did was to find a public phone to call her husband.

Hearing that Lan Yu was fine, Ning Zhongfei was very excited. He told Lan Yu to come back and at the same time cancelled his plans to go to America.

Lan Yu was scared that her husband would be worried, thus she didn't tell him that she had been kidnapped and just said she'd lost her phone.

Ning Zhongfei then wanted to call his daughter, but her phone was turned off. Ning Zhongfei guessed that she might have gone to the US.

She was probably still on the plane.

After his men told him that Lan Yu had called home to say she was safe, Sha 1 finally calmed down a little. If Ye Mo knew that Lan Yu was safe, he wouldn't come to the US. If he didn't come to the US, he wouldn't find him.

Just when Sha 1 had settled down, his men reported to say that the gang leader of the Tang Gang, Peng Yueji was here.

Sha 1 was only afraid of Ye Mo, he wasn't afraid of anyone else, not even Jason. Although he was far from as strong as Jason, Jason couldn't kill him. If Jason pissed him off, he just might be the one to kill Jason first."

However, Peng Yueji was still the leader of a gang. He couldn't just not see him. Compared to the gangs in China Town, his organization was more obscure.

"Invite him in," although Peng Yueji was a gang leader, he didn't have enough importance for him to go out and greet him. When Earth Fiend was renowned throughout the world, who had the right to look down on him?

"No need, I'm in already," a clear voice sounded and two people walked in.

Sha 1 knew Peng Yueji, of course. He was also in San Francisco after all.

But he noticed that the person who was talking wasn't Peng Yueji. Instead, it was the young man in front of him. As a gang leader, Peng Yueji was actually 3 steps behind this young man.

"You-" Just when Sha 1 wanted to ask who this young man was, he saw his face and quickly got up as if his ass were on fire.

"Five States' Sha 1 greets Ye Mo qian bei," Sha 1 kneeled down on one knee.

He knew Ye Mo was very capable, but he didn't expect him to come to the State this quick, having the gang leader of Tang Gang showing him the way.

At this moment, it had only been a few hours since Lan Yu left. Sha 1's back sweated uncontrollably; Ye Mo had come too quickly.

Not only was Peng Yueji in a daze, Ye Mo as well looked confusedly at Sha 1.

Peng Yueji knew his reputation wasn't as grand as that of the big boss of Five States. Although these guys hadn't been here for that long yet, their name was already pretty big. A few small gangs had wanted to chase them away, but they all disappeared in one night.

It was unknown whether because Jason didn't care about the small interests here, or because he too was concerned about the Five States that he didn't do anything about them. Yet today, their big boss was actually kneeling down.

"You know me?" Ye Mo looked at Sha 1 who only had one arm and asked plainly.

Sha 1 quickly nodded, "Yes, I was once the leader of Earth Fiend. Qian bei killed that bastard Ren Sha, and I managed to escape with my life. I'm very grateful to qian bei."

Hearing Sha 1's words, Peng Yueji was having tsunamis in his heart. He had never thought that Sha 1 was the former big boss of Earth Fiend. Many stories concerning the disappearance of Earth Fiend circled in the world, but none of them were certain. Peng Yueji now finally knew that the hitman organization Earth Fiend that made the entire world cower in fear had actually been annihilated by Ye Mo.

He realized once again that he had underestimated his new big brother. Five States' fame wasn't that big, but he was sure that if people knew the big boss of Five States was the former big boss of Earth Fiend, then no one would dare try anything with Five States.

Ye Mo nodded, "No wonder when I killed the Gu bugs, two of them didn't have full vitality. So one of it was yours. I think there were two that escaped. Didn't expect one of them to be the big boss of Earth Fiend."

"Please have mercy, Ye qian bei. There was nothing but a deep feud between me and Ren Sha, I'm only grateful to qian bei and mean no disrespect," Sha 1 quickly said. He didn't expect that other than him, there had been someone else who also escaped.

Ye Mo waved his hand, "You don't have to put it like that. It's thanks to your own capabilities that you were able to escape. As for those people who try to mess with me, I would never give them a second chance. But I didn't come here to ask you about this today. I think since you know that I'm Ye Mo, you've done your research on me. With your capabilities, I'm sure you can guess why I came today."

"Yes, Ye qian bei. Yesterday, my men were dumb and listened to the words of this guy called Fred. He brought CEO Lan to my place. Luckily, CEO Lan declared who she was, and I immediately brought her to a safe place.

I killed those people who brought her here as well as a black man who tried to assault her. Urthermore, I wanted to go kill that Fred, but he went missing," Sha 1 answered with fright. He didn't change anything to the story.

Ye Mo nodded. Since Sha 1 had recognized Lan Yu's identity, he wouldn't dare do anything to her. Seeing Ye Mo nod, Sha 1 finally felt a little relieved and continued, "A few hours ago, I already sent her away and ordered two men to secretly protect her. I believe she's at the airport now."

At this moment, Ye Mo's phone sounded, and he picked up. It was Shi Kaigen, saying that he had seen Lan Yu at the airport, and she didn't appear harmed.

Ye Mo hung up and said to Sha 1, "Stand up. You did well, I owe you one."

Sha 1 stood up in surprise and joy; he wouldn't have expected Ye Mo to be so easy to talk to. Not only did he not use this chance to punish him, he also willingly said he owed him one. Ye Mo's favour was no ordinary thing. Thinking about this, Sha 1 said excitedly, "Ye qian bei, this is what I am supposed to do, you're being too polite."

Ye Mo waved his hand, "No need, I can help you do one thing within my ability in the future. For now, I'll be going."

"Qian bei, wan bei would like to dare ask qian bei to stay for dinner," Sha 1 knew this chance was rare and quickly uttered.

Ye Mo said plainly, "I don't like being around human trafficking." Then, Ye Mo left along with Peng Yueji.

Chapter 386: Vietnamese Gang Annihilated

In San Francisco, although the Vietnamese gang wasn't the number one most ancient gang, it was definitely one of the older gangs, possessing great power.

When the Chinese gang had been at its prime, the Vietnamese gang was barely able to survive. After the Chinese gang was annihilated, the Vietnamese gang and Mountain Gang took over large amounts of territory and developed rapidly. Until today, where the Vietnamese gang had become the second largest gang.

Zhu Hongsheng, who had great aspirations but low capabilities, was leading his Hong Martial Gang on a path of decline. They were far from comparable to the Vietnamese gang, and the Tang Gang, with restricted land and wealth, was even worse.

The leader of the Vietnamese gang was called Jin Zhaonan. He had been a high ranking officer in the Vietnamese military, but because of his insubordination and the killing of his superior's beloved woman, he became a wanted criminal. Thus, he fled to America and established the Vietnamese gang.

Jin Zhaonan wasn't someone Zhu Hongsheng could compare with. He had gotten the news of Ye Mo charging into the Hong Martial Gang's base and massacring the Grey Alliance.

Now that Jin Zhaonan also knew that the Grey Alliance had been annihilated, he guessed that Ye Mo's next stop would be his Vietnamese gang, for no other reason than because Ye Mo wanted to find out sister Yan's whereabouts. And that bracelet had been robbed precisely from the Vietnamese gang.

Even though Jin Zhaonan believed that the Vietnamese gang wouldn't lose to anyone in China Town, he wasn't so cocky as to think he could annihilate the Grey Alliance. So, when he heard that Ye Mo had done so, Jin Zhaonan's face turned very bad. He was sure it wouldn't be long before Ye Mo came to their HQ.

"Er Xi, what do you think?" Jin Zhaonan really wished to retreat, but he didn't want to leave the empire he had here. Also, subconsciously he thought that the reason Ye Mo had managed to annihilate the Grey Alliance had to of course be related to his power, but also for a major part because Jason must have underestimated Ye Mo. If he was prepared, and bombarded Ye Mo with heavy fire power the moment he arrived, Jin Zhaonan believed that Ye Mo would have no way to escape.

Er Xi's full name was Li Erxi. He had come from Vietnam to San Francisco together with Jin Zhaonan and had helped him build the gang. It could be said he was Jin Zhaonan's strongest help.

Li Erxi mused a bit before saying, "We don't know this Ye Mo very well, but he was capable of easily killing the more than 20 people Johnson had brought and subjugated Johnson with ease. It's clear that he's really powerful. Whether or not it had anything to do with Jason underestimating him, we need to deal with him very carefully. But just as you said, no matter how strong he is, if we surround Ye Mo and spray bullets all over him, how can he live?"

"Erxi, you mean that we should fight?" Jin Zhaonan's eyebrows raised. He was of the same opinion but just felt something wasn't right, hence he had asked Li Erxi.

Li Erxi nodded seriously and said, "I have two suggestions; one, we immediately leave San Francisco as far away as we can. Since we can't understand Ye Mo, we can avoid him. Two, we simply kill him. Once he enters our trap, we concentrate our fire and just kill him. No matter how strong he is, he can't avoid that much fire power unless he can fly."

Jin Zhaonan heard Li Erxi's words and clenched his fists, punched in the air, "Let's do it! I refuse to believe that he can fly. We've been building what we have in San Francisco for decades. I really can't just let it go like that. Erxi, gather up all the brothers in the gang and let's do this."

At this moment, in a simple room in the HQ of Tang Gang, Ye Mo sat at the top with Peng Yueji, Shi Kaigen and Tong Zhu on the side.

"Brother Ye, do we go to Jin Zhaonan's base now?" Shi Kaigen had known Ye Mo for the longest, so he just asked.

Ye Mo shook his head, "If after this we all left, then it would be fine to go up to their door right now. However, after this you guys will be staying for the moment, so it wouldn't be good to charge up to their doors immediately. Yueji, what do you think?"

Peng Yueji bowed before replying, "Brother Ye, I think we should attack at night. Tonight, there's a clash between Mountain Gang and Hong Martial Gang. If we wait until night to annihilate the Vietnamese gang, then it'll be unlikely for anyone to intervene. And after the two gangs clash and we eradicate the Vietnamese gang, then our Tang Gang will be able to grow rapidly here."

Ye Mo nodded. This Peng Yueji had some brains and thought the same as him. Although it was very easy for him to annihilate Mountain Gang, for the Tang Gang to grow afterwards, they would have to get rid of Hong Martial Gang. But the two originated from the same gang; it wouldn't be good to just kill them off like that.

"Let's do this then. Tonight, I will go to the Vietnamese gang. After Mountain Gang and Hong Martial Gang clash, Yueji will bring people to take over the turf. Take the Vietnamese gang's land too, and Grey Alliance's as well."

This expansion was nothing to Ye Mo, but as for Peng Yueji and co., they were all too excited. In the future, Tang Gang would be the biggest gang in all of San Francisco.

The HQ of the Vietnamese gang was at a pier. Ye Mo believed that they must have already gotten news of him annihilating the Grey Alliance. Indeed, as soon as Ye Mo arrived, his spirit sense noticed people hiding, ready to ambush him. Although they didn't have as many weapons as Jason had used, some of them even took out rocket launchers. The moment Ye Mo stood in their trap, all these attacks would come smashing at him.

Even Ye Mo wasn't confident he could escape with that many weapons firing at him. Jason had still been of the mind to play games with him, but seeing these Vietnamese gang people, they would definitely try to kill him straight away.

"He's already here. He's about 250 meters away from us," far away, Jin Zhaonan and Li Erxi watched Ye Mo on a device.

"Hmm, he turned to leave. Did he see it? Should we attack?" Li Erxi noticed that Ye Mo was going to leave, getting further and further away.

Jin Zhaonan's face changed as he spoke with satisfaction, "Don't attack; if we attack him now, he would be injured at most. We probably can't kill him. We shouldn't scare him, so wait a little while longer."

Ye Mo didn't go all too far. He knew that as soon as he had gotten near, his actions had been under surveillance.

He turned back to the pier and turned invisible. Then, with his fastest speed, he started killing his way to those gang members ambushing him.

A few minutes later, Ye Mo appeared in Jin Zhaonan and Li Erxi's view again.

"He's back! And he's entered attacking range," Li Erxi said with excitement.

Jin Zhaonan also became very thrilled. He thought that as long as he killed Ye Mo tonight, no one else would be able to pose a threat anymore.

"Open fire," Jin Zhaonan ordered and also raised his own gun.

However, there weren't the loud bangs of guns he had imagined, nor were there any explosions. Jin Zhaonan was just about to start shooting, when he found that the gun in his hands had disappeared. Standing in front of him and Li Erxi was a young man with a sneer on his face.

"You are Ye Mo..." Li Erxi's heart sunk to the bottom. He knew that it wouldn't be easy to kill Ye Mo, but he had still underestimated him.

Ye Mo grabbed a rifle and bent it. The gun barrel turned into a U-shape.

"I am Ye Mo," Ye Mo dumped the gun and kicked Li Erxi away as he sat down.

Jin Zhaonan suddenly noticed blood flowing from where his men had been hiding before. He pointed at Ye Mo in terror, "Ye Mo, what did you do to my men? How dare you kill all of my men, you..."

Ye Mo looked at Jin Zhaonan as though he was an idiot, "You're saying that I went too far? So I shouldn't kill your men and should just bring over my head to you?"

Li Erxi stopped Jin Zhaonan. He knew that Jin Zhaonan was different from Jason. These people Ye Mo killed were all his brothers he had brought along from the army. Every one of them was precious to him. And now, Ye Mo had killed them all. No wonder he was extremely furious.

But Jin Zhaonan was obviously dumbed by his fury. No matter how angry he was, the person standing before them could take their lives at any time.

"Ye Mo, I realize that we underestimated you, and now that you killed all of our brothers in the gang, what do you want? Under what conditions can you let the two of us go? Name your price," Li Erxi said calmly.

Hearing Li Erxi's words, Jin Zhaonan also gradually calmed down. He took note of the situation he was in; Ye Mo could kill him like a chicken at any moment.

He regretted not taking Li Erxi's first suggestion. He should've abandoned everything here and taken his brothers away from San Francisco. How could someone who could effortlessly annihilate the Grey Alliance be taken out so easily?

Chapter 387: Hijack plane

It was already too late by now. Only when Jin Zhaonan had calmed down, did he finally realize Ye Mo's terror.

"Tell me any news you have about sister Yan. I will decide whether or not you live based on that," Ye Mo said plainly.

"I can hand over the entire wealth our gang has accumulated all these years," Jin Zhaonan offered.

Ye Mo sneered, "You think I care about that little money of yours? To me, it's much too simple to earn money. I will give you one minute; if you don't speak up now, there will be no second chance."

Before Ye Mo said anything else, Li Erxi recounted, "More than ten years ago, the Grey Alliance fought the Chinese gang and ordered us to come along. At that time, our power was too weak, so we didn't dare disobey. We could only send out ten of our brothers to help. Two of them indeed met sister Yan. A guy from the Chinese gang who was protecting sister Yan killed one of our brothers, while the other brother escaped.

And then recently, I heard that you got that bracelet from one of our men. It turned out that that bracelet had been taken from sister Yan by the brother who escaped. He had reported that although he had seen sister Yan, she had escaped. Aside from that, he never mentioned anything about getting a bracelet."

Jin Zhaonan quickly nodded, "Yes, that is what happened. Sister Yan wasn't anyone important anyways, so even though she disappeared, no one cared to investigate."

Ye Mo could tell the two weren't lying and that they knew very little. He had come to the US to investigate the bracelet, but the lead died off here.

Thinking about this, Ye Mo got annoyed. He raised his hand and gave the two of them a fireball each.

...

The next day, the biggest news in San Francisco was the clash between mobs with the police attacking suddenly. In one night, many gangs had disappeared, returning peace to the citizens.

Of course, this was just the official story. The actual situation was that Grey Alliance and the Vietnamese gang had been annihilated by Ye Mo, and the Mountain Gang and Hong Martial Gang had both been heavily wounded, hence they were all scooped up by the police. Now, the Tang Gang was the biggest gang.

Although there were a lot of small gangs, no one dared fight for interests with the Tang Gang.

At this moment, Ning Qingxue sat on the plane towards San Francisco with her brows tightly locked together. Their Fei Yu Corporation could finally rest easy, yet now, she couldn't contact her mother. To her, her parents' safety was the most important, and the company's prosperity came after that.

If something happened to her mother, then no matter how well things were with Fei Yu Corporation, it wouldn't be what she wanted. So, knowing that her mother had gotten lost in the US, the first thing Ning Qingxue did was to go to San Francisco from Hong Kong. The plane flight was more than ten hours. Ning Qingxue rubbed her head and tried to relax.

She took out a fireball charm and looked at it carefully. It looked like an exquisitely decorated piece of paper. She had told Tang Beiwei that she was going out for a few days and Tang Beiwei persuaded her to take this. Tang Beiwei gave her more than 10; she couldn't reject it, so she took them and put them in her bag.

Without what had happened with Su Jingwen, Ning Qingxue would think there was something wrong with Tang Beiwei, but now, she didn't dare think of the charm as something useless.

Just when Ning Qingxue was studying the charm, two ordinary men walked past her seeming like they were going to use the toilet. But when they walked past her, Ning Qingxue suddenly felt her necklace go a little cold.

If it were before, she wouldn't think much of it, but now that she knew her necklace was a defensive artefact, this sudden coldness made her alert. She subconsciously looked at the two men and at this moment, one of them looked back. He immediately avoided her gaze. There was something wrong with these two.

Ning Qingxue quickly stood up and wanted to report this suspicious situation, but the moment she did, the middle-aged woman next to her suddenly pointed a gun at her and said softly, "Mrs Ning, please don't move around; my gun isn't very obedient."

At this moment, Ning Qingxue had understood that these people were targeting her. She sat down slowly and looked coldly at the woman, "Who are you? What do you want?"

"You don't need to worry about that, you just need to remember that you're under our control now. We're not hijacking the plane though, we're here to invite Mrs Ning to be our guest," The woman smiled.

In her eyes, it was really an insult to her identity to use a gun against a weak woman like Ning Qingxue.

Ning Qingxue didn't feel very anxious and declared frostily, "Tell me who you are, I. If you don't, I will resist immediately."

The woman smiled, "It's fine if I tell you. However, it's not because I'm afraid you will resist, but because you will soon see that person. His surname is Yuan; shouldn't have annoyed him."

"So it's that scum," Ning Qingxue sneered. She didn't think that Yuan Qibing would be this bold to abduct her on the plane.

The two men didn't come back, but Ning Qingxue was sure that they were watching her from close by.

Seeing Ning Qingxue quieten down, the woman didn't say anything further. Their mission was to watch Ning Qingxue until Yuan Qibing came over.

"Nobody move! We are simply hijacking the plane, not killing anyone. But if someone doesn't do as told, then don't blame us," the two men suddenly took out their guns and pointed at the passengers.

Ning Qingxue was stunned. Was Yuan Qibing crazy? No matter how much power he had, can he really hijack a plane? Is he not afraid of dragging the Yuan family into a bottomless pit?

Ning Qingxue subconsciously looked at the woman beside her and noticed that she was very shocked too. Ning Qingxue immediately realized that the thugs and the woman weren't from the same group. They just happened to be on the same plane.

Although Ning Qingxue was calm, not everyone was as calm as her. A fat man immediately screamed and ran off from his seat.

Bang, blood spilled and he crashed onto the ground.

The plane was silent; even the cries of children were stopped by adults.

There was only suppressed sniffing. At this moment, the plane suddenly started shaking. Some people's faces were already getting pale.

Bang bang -there was the feeling of losing balance.

Everyone feared that it was the end, the plane was crashing. The plane became boisterous again.

Two white men who just got up were immediately shot. As they fell, the two thugs yelled again, "Everyone sit down! Anyone who disobeys will be executed immediately."

Chapter 388: Abduction

At this moment, the plane finally stabilized and seemed to be gradually ascending.

Ning Qingxue took a small breath of relief. She wasn't afraid of death, but she didn't want to die here for no reason.

Everyone started to calm down as the plane stabilized. Just as the thugs had promised, they didn't want their lives.

At this time, a man walked out with a HKMP5 assault rifle in his hands. He waved to the two men pointing guns at the passengers and walked along the aisle. Everytime he saw a young and beautiful woman, he nodded and appeared to be delighted.

Ning Qingxue's heart sunk. Just when she wanted to find something to cover her face with, that man stood in front of her.

For a long time she didn't hear him say anything. Ning Qingxue looked up to see this man staring dazily at her.

He had even started to drool.

"Yosh, Chinese woman, you are so beautiful... You, come out..." This man pointed the gun at Ning Qingxue.

Ning Qingxue shook; she knew she was done for. This person wasn't going to let her go. She desperately tried to think of a way to get away from this person, but couldn't think of any.

Then, the other two started muttering in Japanese. So they were all from Japan.

Ning Qingxue suddenly thought of the middle aged woman beside her and grabbed her hand and said, "Didn't you say you were going to take me to America? If I'm taken away by these people, how are you going to bring me to the US? If you don't protect me, young master Yuan will be very angry."

Ning Qingxue was prepared to die, but if she did, she was going to bring Yuan Qibing's person down with her.

As expected, the middle aged woman's face went pale, and she quickly said, "This has nothing to do with me, I don't know you, let me go!"

But no matter what she said, that man only got more impatient, so he grabbed the woman and tossed her to the side, starting to spray her with bullets.

She was soon soaked in blood.

"Women are the most precious thing to us. Now that I've already killed her, if you still waste my time then don't blame me for what's coming next, pretty Chinese woman," he pointed the gun at Ning Qingxue and threatened. That was actually Chinese; though the pronunciation was a bit off.

Ning Qingxue originally planned to get the gun from that woman, but looking at her body soaked in blood, she felt disgusted. She didn't know where the woman had hidden the gun. Now that the Japanese kept pointing the gun at her, she could only stand up and walk to the end of the plane.

There were also two hijackers at the end of the plane. It could be seen that this was a big crew. But Ning Qingxue didn't care, she was thinking about how not to be raped.

The two men saw this guy and bowed.

He kicked open a door and aimed the gun at Ning Qingxue, signalling her to enter. Seeing Ning Qingxue walk in, he closed the door and laughed.

"Chinese woman, take off your clothes. Let me admire your body first. You are the prettiest Asian I have ever seen. Today, you will be my woman," The man went to a seat and sat down.

Ning Qingxue's eyes brightened up, she saw a parachute in the room and there was an emergency door. If she could get this parachute and jump out from there... Ning Qingxue's heart started beating rapidly. She really didn't want to die like that; there were too many things she still had to do.

"Hurry up, don't make me do it. If I do it, you won't be so comfortable. I like my women tamed," The man saw Ning Qingxue start to look around and was getting restless.

Ning Qingxue suddenly smiled sweetly and sat down. Upon seeing this smile, the man who was getting impatient was dumbfounded. Such a beauty! He felt his heart beating fast. Just imagining how this woman was about to be his, he couldn't hold the excitement in his heart.

Dongben Yinji had seen too many beauties and taken countless of them, but this was the first time he saw someone like Ning Qingxue who would make him feel as though he were in heaven just by gazing at her. And this goddess in front of his eyes was about to be his. This almost made him doubt reality.

But soon he refocused. He knew that on the plane he might be the boss, once they got off and got into the base, this woman wouldn't be his.

"I'd like to know why you hijack a plane yet don't want money. Why do you need such a big plane?" Ning Qingxue asked. Her hand was grabbing onto a fireball charm, the question was just to distract him.

She didn't know if the fireball charm Tang Beiwei gave her would be of any use. If it wasn't, she would be no match for this guy. So, she didn't dare use the fireball straight away. She had to find something to kill herself with before the event of the fireball charm turning out to be useless. Even if she had to die, she couldn't be assaulted by an animal.

"You ask too many questions. But, my beauty, since you're about to enter the base, you are one of us. It's fine if I tell you. You can call yourself lucky; this plane has Professor Eiastein in it. He is the person we're looking for. Of course, everyone else on the plane is a bonus and will be serving our great country. You should be honoured that you're about to be a part of our great empire," Dongben Yinji said with pride.

"Professor Eiastein? The two times Nobel prize winner for chemistry?" Ning Qingxue was really shocked. She didn't expect the professor to be in Hong Kong and take the same plane as her to San Francisco. What did these people want a chemistry professor for?

Ning Qingxue suddenly figured, 'Did these people want to start World War 3?' She suddenly thought of one more thing and said, "Three years ago, a nuclear physicist called Wearbro disappeared on a passenger jet. Five years ago, the electron specialist Pillie. They..."

Dongben Yinji laughed, "Your imagination sure is good. But yes, you're right. They are all serving our great empire at our base."

Ning Qingxue was shocked. These disappearances were all related to them, yet for some reason, it had remained unknown who did it.

Ning Qingxue shook. She remembered what she was about to do and suppressed the thoughts in her mind. Ning Qingxue noticed a small dagger not far away; she rejoiced and ran towards it.

Dongben Yinji saw this and sneered. He sent a palm towards Ning Qingxue.

Thud -Ning Qingxue grabbed the dagger as Dongben Yinji was blocked by a white barrier which shocked him away, sending him crashing into the metal wall.

Dongben Yinji looked at his palm in astonishment. It was red as though he'd just slapped a very hard surface. He looked at the woman, and there seemed to be nothing in front of her.

Grabbing the dagger, Ning Qingxue rejoiced. This defensive necklace was useful indeed. She could rest easy now; even if her fireball charm turned out to be useless, she could commit suicide with the dagger.

At this moment, Ning Qingxue was full of gratitude towards Ye Mo. If it wasn't for Ye Mo, that palm would've injured her, and there would be no way for her to get the dagger.

Dongben Yinji seemed to notice something was up and grabbed the gun beside him.

But before he could raise it, Ning Qingxue threw out a fireball charm saying 'Lin'.

Rumble -a ball of fire flashed, deforming Dongben Yinji into a mess of flames. The fire burned rapidly, and it took just a few moments for Dongben Yinji to be turned into charcoal before he even had time to cry.

Ning Qingxue looked at this scene in shock and couldn't make sense of it. She was still wondering if the fireball charm would be useful or not, when instantaneously, it turned a living person into charcoal.

There was not a single drop of blood left. An extreme sense of disgust surged up and Ning Qingxue started vomiting. Her brain was in chaos, still not comprehending fully what had just happened.

After a long while, Ning Qingxue calmed down and eventually wrapped her head around things. Everything that just happened was real. She quickly walked up and grabbed the gun.

Chapter 389: Abjected Shi Xiu

"So these fireball charms are genuine too," Ning Qingxue murmured. If what had happened didn't seem so real, she would've thought she was dreaming.

Bang bang -There were two more gunshots, and Ning Qingxue just realized her current predicament. She was still on the plane and these people seemed to be hijacking it to some base. If she went into that base there would be no way for her to ever run away.

Thinking about this, Ning Qingxue no longer dared to hesitate and quickly set up the parachute. Luckily, she had learnt this in uni.

Ning Qingxue put the parachute on and grabbed a big bag, putting in some food and water.

Then, there were more gunshots as someone seemed to be walking over. Ning Qingxue quickly opened the emergency exit and jumped off.

....

In one night, the San Francisco mafia powers had been washed over. However, the government was busy investigating the alien invasion and didn't have time to care.

With another plane from Hong Kong to San Francisco suddenly disappearing, this increased the government's efforts in the alien investigation.

Ye Mo left Shi Kaigen and Tong Zhu here to help Peng Yueji develop Tang Gang while he went back to Beijing.

Since he couldn't find out where sister Yan was, there was no point in staying in the US. He had too many things to do, the main thing being to gather herbs and go to the small world to get revenge from Tai Yi.

Returning to Beijing, Ye Mo already knew that the Luo Yue conference was long since over and that Fei Yu had been chosen. Ye Mo was very happy with this. It didn't matter if other companies gave Luo Yue more benefits than Fei Yu.

He felt it was right to help his father-in-law out. Moreover, Ye Mo believed that even though Ning Qingxue lost her memories for the moment, one day, she would remember everything again. Ning Qingxue was someone he loved, and she was his wife. He wouldn't let their family's company be dominated by the will of another company.

Yu Miaodan and co. had already gone back to Flowing Snake. Ye Mo decided to go see Ye Ling too before returning to Flowing Snake.

"Shi Xiu, please let me go. Can't you give me a chance to pursue happiness? If you really like me, let me go. Stop pestering me," a crisp woman's voice sounded, but what caught Ye Mo's attention was the name Shi Xiu.

Ye Mo looked up and saw Shi Xiu standing not too far away. There was a young girl standing in front of him. She looked not bad, but because of the way she dressed, Ye Mo didn't like her.

Ye Mo was surprised to meet Shi Xiu here. Ever since he left Ning Hai Uni, he had never seen him again. And due to all sorts of things later, he didn't have the time to go looking for him.

Now that he saw Shi Xiu, Ye Mo was very happy and walked to him.

"Tan Tan, you know my heart for you. Why are you still leaving? Those people are lying to you. Tan Tan, don't leave, we can start again. Believe me, we can start again," Shi Xiu was about to cry.

Ye Mo frowned, and stopped his steps.

"Start again?" the girl sneered, "Start again with what? You don't even have a job now, and you're about to go to jail. Are you going to drag me with you? If you're really want the best for me, then please let me go. You gave me this necklace; now, you can have it back."

The girl dumped a platinum necklace in Shi Xiu's hands, "Please don't come looking for me again."

Then, Tan Tan turned to leave. Shi Xiu suddenly called, "Tan Tan, if you don't come back, you will never see me again."

Tan Tan turned around and looked coldly at Shi Xiu, declaring, "Shi, threatening me with death? Then go die! I will be happy if I don't see you."

Afterwards, a red sports car came over and parked not too far from Tan Tan, "Tantan, get on." The windows of the car opened, revealing a fat, coarse face.

Tan Tan smiled and ran over. She opened the door and kissed that coarse face.

Shi Xiu looked on the side in shock. There was no more blood running through his face.

Ye Mo sighed. He felt this world was becoming more and more like his world. In Luo Yue continent, power was everything. Here, money was everything; there was no difference.

Ye Mo walked in front of Shi Xiu and patted him on the shoulder, "Brother, you're a man, why worry about not having some woman? Although this woman looks not bad, it's better to stay away from her."

Shi Xiu turned his head over numbly, but soon his face was coloured in surprise, "Ye Mo, it's actually you? I went to look for you a few times but never found you."

As though the trauma from the girl had disappeared, there was only joy in his eyes. Ye Mo was his true friend. After graduation, he realized that although many students were polite and nice to him, once something happened, they all stayed away from him in fear of being dragged down with him.

Ye Mo studied Shi Xiu. His hair was messy, and he was dressed very casually. He seemed miserable.

"Shi Xiu, what happened to you? Why are you like this? Didn't you say you had a place to go after graduation; a government department or something?" Ye Mo asked strangely.

Shi Xiu's eyes went dull, and the joy of seeing Ye Mo faded a lot.

Ye Mo noticed and knew something big must have happened to Shi Xiu, so he said, "Let's find a place to talk."

Shi Xiu nodded and after a while asked, "Ye Mo, how have you been after graduating? I had some things going on before graduation, so I wasn't able to connect to you. And then, when I went to find you, you had already left Ning Hai."

Ye Mo smiled, "I've been quite well recently, I even earned some money."

Shi Xiu looked at Ye Mo's clothes. Although they were clean and tidy, they didn't seem to be very good brands. He knew Ye Mo's character; he loved face, so Shi Xiu didn't point it out. However, he didn't know that the Ye Mo in his impression was completely different to the current Ye Mo.

Ye Mo was really grateful to Shi Xiu. If it wasn't for him, he might never have woken up and may have disappeared forever. And, Shi Xiu had been truly nice to him, he was genuine.

"Let's go drink," Ye Mo pointed at a bar not far away.

"Uh..." Shi Xiu looked at the name and shook his head, "Wu Tong Bar; you need a gold card for that and it's very expensive. Let's go to a different place."

"You need a gold card..." Ye Mo hesitated. He didn't care about money, but he didn't have the gold card. He couldn't just steal one again like last time. Ye Mo didn't want to do that just for finding a place to talk.

"Then let's go to a different place," just after Ye Mo finished, he saw a woman carrying a child standing in front of him.

"Aren't you my savior? Dr. Mo?" this woman walked in front of Ye Mo and bowed while calling out in joy.

"It's you!" Ye Mo also recognized the person. It was that girl he met on the train. He remembered her name to be Wang Yan and that she had been infertile. Then, he gave her three herbs and now, she was carrying a child. It seemed she was cured.

Wang Yan pulled the man beside her excitedly and said, "Da Wei, this is the Dr. Mo I told you about. Who would've thought I'd see him here today."

The man heard Wang Yan's words and quickly bowed to Ye Mo. He was really grateful to Ye Mo. These passed couple of years, although they had saved quite some money, they hadn't been able to get a child which troubled them greatly. Hence, they thanked Ye Mo from the bottom of their heart.

"Mr Saviour, I was stingy before and didn't even give you a card. You must take this card now no matter what." Before, Wang Yan had suspected Ye Mo was a fraud and didn't give her card to Ye Mo. She regretted it so many times afterwards.

So the moment she saw him, she took out a card.

Ye Mo waved his hand, "No need that; I still have some money and don't really need it. But, I don't have a gold card for this bar. If possible, can you two bring us in?"

"Yes, yes, of course," The man pulled out his gold card and gave it to Ye Mo. Although Ye Mo wore ordinary clothes, he had experienced far too many things doing business.

"This..." Ye Mo didn't take it. Although he wanted the card, he couldn't just take someone else's.

"I still have another here," Wang Yan saw Ye Mo's hesitation and quickly took out her card and said.

"In that case, I won't be polite," Ye Mo took the card.

Seeing Ye Mo and Shi Xiu go in, Wang Yan pulled her husband and said, "Da Wei, let's prepare a card in a bit and then go to their spot to drink with them. We mustn't miss this chance to thank him."

Chapter 390: Looking For Trouble

"Sorry, there are no more free rooms."

Ye Mo looked around casually. The place looked like a bar but was of a much higher standard than that. Ye Mo scanned with his spirit sense and knew that there were still a lot of rooms available, especially the high class ones.

However, since they didn't give him a room, it meant the gold card level was too low. Thus, Ye Mo didn't mind, and he just spoke a few words, "Since there are no more free rooms, just give us two cups of coffee to take outside."

Looking at Ye Mo and Shi Xiu walk towards a corner of the main hall, the waitress finally felt relieved. She was most scared of meeting those who had low level cards but thought they were number one.

The coffee was delivered quickly. Ye Mo waved the waiter away and then asked Shi Xiu, "Tell me, what happened? I've looked for you a few times before graduation but couldn't find you. What happened in your family for it to take so long?"

Shi Xiu stayed silent for a long while before sighing, "Ye Mo, if you were still in the Ye family perhaps you could help me out. But now, what's the point of talking about it. Sigh, it's all in the past."

Ye Mo drank the coffee and urged, 'Shi Xiu, if we're friends then tell me what happened. If you don't, how do I know if I can help you or not?"

Shi Xiu's eyes went red. Ever since he left uni and things happened, no one had ever said they were his friend. But today, he heard the word friend again.

"Ye Mo, looking at you, I know you're a whole lot better than me. At least, you're no longer affected by Yan Yan." Shi Xiu drank all of the coffee as his eyes seemed lost.

He quickly continued talking though, "My dad used to be the governor of the town of Cha Ci. The reason I said I had a place to go to after graduation was due to my dad. After graduation, I was able to become a government official at the office in the local government. And due to my achievements and my dad's connections, half a year later, I rose to the position of vice-manager."

Ye Mo frowned. Although he didn't understand politics in China, half a year after graduation and he became a vice-manager; this was too fast. If there was someone to support you then it was fine, if not however, it would be a double-edged sword.

And Shi Xiu's dad was only a town governor. If that town belonged to a small city, then this governor would be even lower ranked in power. How could his dad bring him to be at the managerial level?

"Was it your dad or someone else that promoted you?" Ye Mo suddenly asked.

Shi Xiu looked at Ye Mo in shock. He had also connected the dots later, yet Ye Mo asked this question instantaneously. Although Ye Mo wasn't involved in politics, it seemed his awareness was better than his.

Shi Xiu held his fists tightly, "It wasn't my dad. It was the town vice-governor that my dad didn't really like. The reason was that during the flood, I had gained merit organizing everything to save assets, so that vice-governor suggested me to be the manager in charge of floods. My dad rejected it, but that vice-governor said that if I wasn't promoted when making accomplishments, it would affect the eagerness of other officials to work hard. So like that, I became a vice-manager.

At the time, my dad also thought that I had made great achievements. He also thought that this was the vice-governor trying to amend relations with him, because my dad was about to be promoted."

Ye Mo sighed. Politics really meant trouble every step of the way.

"But as soon as I was promoted, it alarmed the people in the small city's government, and someone immediately came to investigate my dad. Those people were like ravenous wolves charging into my house, finding large amounts of bribery evidence and e-mails. That night, my dad was taken away."

"My mother was already sick at the time and after that, she has never woken up again."

"Had your dad really been bribed?" Ye Mo asked.

Shi Xiu shook his head, "My dad never takes bribes. If he did, my mother wouldn't have been sick for all those years and not have money for an operation. All of that 'evidence' was made up. The newspaper wrapped around the cash was from that day, yet this guy said the money was from a few months before. This was so ridiculous that I wanted to charge up and contest, but my dad stopped me."

Even Ye Mo sighed at the darkness of politics.

"After my mother passed away, there was soon news of my dad committing suicide due to fear for his crimes. I know that my dad was innocent and he wouldn't commit suicide, but I even get to see him one last time. I understood my powerlessness, and perhaps I will never be able to get revenge for my parents. I was relieved of all my duties. When I got home, Tan Tan became my only spiritual support but today, she left," Shi Xiu's eyes went red.

Ye Mo sunk into silence. He didn't know how to comfort Shi Xiu. If possible, he would rather he never get involved with politics again, but he knew that Shi Xiu had to get his revenge with his own hands. If he wasn't involved in politics anymore, he would never be able to get revenge.

Although it was easy for him to do it in Shi Xiu's stead, but that would leave him with regrets.

"When I met Tan Tan, I was still just an office man. She didn't mind at the time though, and she was very nice to my mother. She was always taking care of my mother. I don't believe that she could change into this. She isn't a woman who loves money, but, but-" Shi Xiu couldn't help himself and started to cry.

"Shi Xiu, do you want revenge?" Ye Mo suddenly said.

"Revenge?" Shi Xiu looked up at Ye Mo in surprise, "Do you know that I'm about to go to jail? How can I get revenge?"

Ye Mo asked strangely, 'Jail? Weren't you already relieved of your duties? Why are you still going to jail?"

Shi Xiu sighed, "After my dad was taken away, I went around borrowing money trying to get my dad out. I spent a lot of money but dad still remained inside. A lot of the money had interest. I already sold our house, but it's still far from enough. The court has notified me that if I don't pay it back, I will be locked up in a week."

"How much do you owe?" Ye Mo sighed. He believed Shi Xiu had fallen into a trap borrowing money.

Those people asking for interest know how much Shi Xiu had in assets but were still willing to lend him money. No way there was nothing dodgy about this.

"The loan is 200k, but including the interest, it's now 500.000," Shi Xiu said sadly.

Even Ye Mo slammed the table in anger, "How can the interest be that high?"

"Boss Huang, why are there so many flies in your bar?" a strange voice sounded. Two young men walked into the bar just now with a middle aged man carefully accompanying them. The young man walking at the front also had two bodyguards behind him.

Hearing the young man's words, that middle aged man quickly said, "Young master Qiu, please go inside a room first. Why bother with these insignificant things?"

"Are you saying that I'm being unreasonable?" the youth asked as his face sunk.

"No, no, I'll make them leave immediately to prevent them from ruining your mood."

Ye Mo's eyes went cold. It seemed that less and less people knew him after he'd left Beijing, even some random guy dares kick him away.

Shi Xiu pulled Ye Mo and said, "That guy is doing it on purpose. I know the person following behind young master Qiu. The vice-governor who schemed against my dad is his big uncle. He's called Dong Jie, a student of Beijing University. He definitely saw me and is looking for trouble. That young master Qiu isn't simple. Ye Mo, let's go first."

Ye Mo understood now. No wonder there was such a cocky person. So what if someone slammed the table?

"You two go out, this place doesn't welcome you." Two security guards came in front of Ye Mo.

"Piss off," Ye Mo looked coldly at the two security guards, "If you don't piss off in three seconds, then don't blame me for the consequences."

"Fuck, you're asking for it." One security guard pulled out a baton and was about to smack down on Ye Mo.

"Don't fight-" Wang Yan saw something happen to Ye Mo and quickly called out as she ran over hurriedly.
