Chapter 601: See Each Other Yet Not Know Each Other

'That was really close,' Ye Mo thought. The nun had caught up to him really quickly. He only managed to be a bit faster than her, even while flowing downstream. If it weren't for the raft, perhaps he would've even been caught.

"Are you talking to me?" The herb picker slowed down.

"Yes. Have you seen anyone nearby?" Jie Xua asked.

"No, I've been around the area collecting herbs, but I didn't see anyone. Do you need my help?" This herb picker was very kind hearted.

As Ye Mo began to worry about Jie Xuan asking the man to row to the bank, Jie Xuan asked, "Big Brother, can you carry all of these cradles of herbs yourself? Just one cradle must be very heavy, right?"

The herb picker smiled. He grabbed two cradles in each hand, lifted all four and said, "They are very light. Master, would you like me to take you-?"

But before he finished the sentence, he realized that the nun was gone. If she hadn't replied a moment ago, he would've thought it was a ghost.

The herb picker shook his head and kept singing as he rafted down the stream.

Luckily, the nun was inexperienced and only considered Ye Mo could be hiding in the herb baskets.

An hour later, the raft stopped at a village. Ye Mo looked up subconsciously and saw that the place he was in was a very remote place, however a faint smoke rose through the sky, giving off a serene feeling.

There were around 20 to 30 families in the village, together with the occasional noises from chickens and dogs and there was only one road. If your goal was to hide, no one would find you there.

The village gave Ye Mo an indescribable feeling - he subconsciously felt like he shouldn't leave the place and stay there to cure his wounds.

"Uncle Wang is back!" A few kids waved to the herb picker.

A middle-aged woman just finished washing a basket of clothes, and as she saw the man on the raft, she said, "Old Wang, it seems you found quite a lot today."

"Hehe, I found a wild ginseng today! I don't need to go up for a few months," the man said happily.

"Aiyo, let me see!" The woman quickly ran up to the man to see the ginseng.

Ye Mo couldn't hear the rest of their conversation, and seeing the two leave, he carefully crawled out of the water and onto the banks. He was very weak and felt pain everywhere in his body. He knew that if he didn't find a place to recover, the consequences would be unpredictable.

After using all of his power, he struggled to one corner of the village and noticed a house 200 meters away. This house was built on higher ground and seemed a little distant from the rest of the houses in the village.

Ye Mo thought for a bit and decided to go to that solitary house. He didn't dare let anyone see him. Who knew if the nun wouldn't stumble upon the village as well.

Ye Mo saw from the door that there were no people inside and carefully crept in. He wanted to find some food and get a change of clothes. His clothes were all in rags, but Ye Mo could only rejoice that he had managed to escape from Jie Xuan.

If it wasn't for that bear, who knew what the nun would be doing to him by then?

There weren't a lot of things in the room, but it was clean. Ye Mo almost didn't believe it was just a small house in the middle of nowhere. It was so clean!

The thought crossed his mind for only a brief moment as he needed to find food.

There was a table and simple chair outside, but no food. Ye Mo walked inside the house and found a bedroom, a bed and a mat.

Ye Mo suddenly felt this lay out to be very familiar. Luo Ying's room in Serenity had also been laid out like that.

Thinking about Luo Ying, Ye Mo's heart seemed to be wrenched. He didn't want to keep staying there. It just made him think of Luo Ying.

But when he turned around, he was shocked as if by lightning. Near the window, there was a stone pool! He knew that pool all too well - it was the one he gave to Luo Ying in the desert.

Was this where his master, Luo Ying lived? Ye Mo wanted to scream 'Susu', but he couldn't. He felt his body shaking.

Susu, Susu was here? This was where she lived? Ye Mo stared dumbly at that stone pool and wanted to touch it, but suddenly, he couldn't move anymore.

It was as though he froze. He had no more thoughts, no more movements, no more pain. The only thing left in his world of view was the stone pool. He wanted to grab it and tell Susu he was back.

After a long while, Ye Mo recovered his motion capability and shifted over carefully. Once he grabbed the stone pool, his thoughts froze again. He felt that he wasn't able to control his tears. He had never in a moment in his life been so unable to control his emotions.

At that moment, a young woman wearing linen clothes was carrying a small basket and walking towards her house, and when she saw that her door was open, she quickly ran in.

When she saw Ye Mo touching the stone pool, she was quite dazed. Extreme anger could be seen erupting from her eyes, as though the most cherished thing in her life had been taken.

Ye Mo looked up at the woman - her hair was coiled up, there was a veil covering her face, and her eyes were clear but angry.

Seeing those familiar eyes, Ye Mo froze. Susu, it really was Susu! He wanted to talk, but he couldn't say anything and could only keep tearing.

The angry woman saw Ye Mo cry and stopped her anger. Who was this man? Why did he rush into her home and into her room? He was covered in wounds, there were gashes all over his face, and his clothes were ragged. What was this person doing?

Why was he crying when she was about to get angry? Why did his eyes seem familiar? What was that emotion she saw in them? Longing? Excitement? Worry?

She could feel the man's heartfelt emotions, but she couldn't forgive him for barging into her room. No one in the village would do that, because this was her place.

"Who are you, why did you come to my house? Please leave no- Hey, leave!" Seeing Ye Mo touch the stone pool again, she finally couldn't resist her anger.

Ye Mo couldn't talk and couldn't hear anything, but he could see the anger on her face and suddenly felt dizzy.

Chapter 602: Second Sneaky Attack

Ye Mo was too excited and heavily injured, so he finally collapsed the moment he saw Luo Ying.

The woman, who had been getting quite angry, saw him faint and quickly ran to check his injuries. She immediately realized it was because of her. Although she didn't know who the man was, she did feel like they'd met before.

The man had been touching that stone pool - only she and Ye Mo knew the meaning of it. Was this man Ye Mo? The woman was dazed. As she remembered the look in his eyes, it really was somehow similar to Ye Mo. Was he actually Ye Mo?

She unveiled her mask to reveal an out-of-this-world face. It was the very Luo Ying Ye Mo had been looking for for such a long time.

She carefully studied the man on the ground. At least in his current unconscious state, he didn't really look familiar. She felt his face and didn't notice any marks of appearance-changing tricks, so perhaps she was thinking of Ye Mo too much and was mistaken?

Although she was disappointed, she still carried Ye Mo out and took out some herbs to put on Ye Mo's wounds. Then she made a soup and fed Ye Mo. His body was strong, so he should be fine.

Although his dantian was damaged and he was heavily wounded, his strong physique due to years of cultivation still showed its properties. It might have been just some normal herbs, but Ye Mo's body did still digest most of it.

He opened his eyes and found himself still in that room, but his wounds were much better. Luo Ying had saved him, huh. Right, Luo Ying! Had she recognized him in the end?

Ye Mo was shocked and immediately got up to see whether Luo Ying was there. He had finally found Luo Ying, he didn't want to lose her again. As Ye Mo looked up, he saw Luo Ying being busy outside as she was making a small hut.

There was a cauldron nearby with herbs inside.

Ye Mo smiled bitterly. It would seem that Luo Ying wanted to move him to the other room once he woke up.

He was Ye Mo! He had to tell her somehow. Although he couldn't speak or hear, he could write.

Ye Mo crawled up. Other than feeling a little hungry, he was much better than yesterday. Even if he couldn't recover his dantian and spirit sense without special means, he could still recover to a normal person's level.

Ye Mo stood at the door and looked dazedly at Luo Ying's back. Ye Mo didn't dare believe it was real.

Watching her slim figure hustling around was a pleasant scene, he didn't dare to interrupt its serenity. He was afraid if he did, it would all vanish into thin air and he would have nothing again.

Suddenly, Ye Mo shivered. He saw an extremely cruel pair of eyes staring at him - it was Jie Xuan. She was stared at him like a ghost. He immediately felt cold sweat going down his neck, he regretted coming here. He had brought a disaster to Luo Ying, the nun had actually gotten there. It seemed that she had realized he had nowhere to go except there.

Jie Xuan smiled coldly to Ye Mo and looked at Luo Ying. Her smile was cruel and frosty.

Oh, no. She hated Luo Ying too. She probably hated Luo Ying for saving him and ruining her plans. He wanted to warn Luo Ying at once but he couldn't make a sound.

Jie Xuan's whisk was already in the air, so Ye Mo ran in front of Luo Ying without thinking.

When she saw Ye Mo approaching her, she reacted. She was at yellow level after all, and subconsciously took a step back. He didn't manage to cover her, yet at this moment, the whisk landed on Ye Mo's back.

However, Ye Mo wasn't a bear, he couldn't block it.

Splurge- Ye Mo spat more blood. The strike had almost shifted his organs, which made his injuries even worse.

When she saw him lying on the ground and the nun behind him, Luo Ying understood that the nun had been trying to attack her and the man she saved used his body to block it.

"Who are you? Why are you attacking us?" Luo Ying's voice was loud, she was really angry. She came from Serenity, not even the worst person in the sect would attack a stranger for no reason. Furthermore, she didn't even know that nun.

"You shouldn't have tried to save him, you will have to die too," Jie Xuan's tone was bland, as though it was very reasonable.

But instead, Jie Xuan didn't attack Luo Ying. She walked to Ye Mo, wanting to search his body.

Seeing this, Luo Yue took out a yellow rope and attacked the nun.

"Hmm- You've also learnt ancient martial arts," the nun dodged.

"Please, leave now. I won't let you touch him," Luo Ying detested the nun.

"Then I'll have to deal with you first. To find a woman as pretty as you in a place like is unusual." Then, she attacked again.

She didn't even have 1% of her full power, but she thought that although Luo Ying was cultivating ancient martial arts, she was barely at yellow level. But after fighting with her, she found out that this absurdly beautiful woman was almost the same as her or even a little stronger. If she hadn't been very experienced and hadn't had a lot of moves, perhaps she would've been defeated already.

Luo Ying rarely fought with people so she was constantly retreating, but as time went by, she became more fluent in her moves and went from a position of disadvantage, to an equal one, and finally to having the upper hand.

Jie Xuan knew that her inner qi wasn't enough for her to beat her. She really didn't understand why there would that kind of woman be in this distant place.

"You don't even know him, why are you helping him? If you let me take him away, I can give you an earth-level cultivation method and a black rising pill."

Jie Xuan knew she couldn't beat Luo Ying and decided to use an alternative method. She would take away Ye Mo first, and after the nun completely recovered, come back and kill the woman.

Luo Ying didn't say anything and just kept attacking. She didn't know it was Ye Mo lying on the ground. If she had, she would have tried to kill Jie Xuan with all her might even if she offered her the immortal rising pill.

Seeing Luo Ying ignore her, Jie Xuan got also angry and said, "What do you want? Is it worth it for someone you don't know? Let me tell you, that person took my poison, he only has 49 days to live. If you let me take him, he could still survive. However, if he stays here, he will die for sure."

Hearing this, Luo Ying slowed down her attack, and Ye Mo happened to open up his eyes at this moment. His body was burning with pain but he couldn't ease it either.

Ye Mo knew that it wasn't going to end well when he saw Luo Ying slowing down her attack.

Jie Xuan lowered her whisk and Luo Ying also put away her rope, but Ye Mo was worried. He knew how evil this nun was, she had a dagger. She had withdrawn the whisk not to make peace, but to sneakily attack Luo Ying.

Luo Ying had no fighting experience, so she knew nothing about this.

No matter whether Jie Xuan was going to attack Luo Ying, in his desperation and worry, he actually stood up again and ran to Luo Ying. No one was allowed to harm her.

The same thing happened again, but this time, Jie Xuan was sneakily attacking Luo Ying.

However, Ye Mo was again one second faster than Jie Xuan.

Chapter 603: I Don't Want to Care, I Just Want...

The dagger pierced into Ye Mo's left shoulder, and Ye Mo, who had barely been able to stand, was catapulted away by the force and fell in front of Luo Ying unconscious again.

Seeing this, Luo Ying's heart shook for no reason. She didn't have time to think properly, but she got completely angry at that moment. Ye Mo got hurt twice to save her. She didn't expect this innocent-looking nun to be so sneaky.

Without thinking, she used full force as her yellow rope struck Jie Xuan's dantian.

Jie Xuan didn't expect her killing blow to be blocked by Ye Mo again. Was he her nemesis or something? Before she could make another move, Luo Ying's rope struck her dantian. She couldn't even react, and Luo Ying dealt a truly hard blow.

Even if she had been able to react, she wouldn't have been able to dodge that strike with her current strength.

Jie Xuan was dazed and spat out blood as well. Her dantian had been damaged even more with that strike, and she knew that if she didn't leave right then, she would never be able to. Her current state was worse than a normal person's.

Jie Xuan didn't even bother retrieving her dagger and just left. She started considering if Ye Mo had predicted everything beforehand. She suddenly felt cold and shivered.

If that young man really had known something beforehand, then he was too scary. If it weren't for the two golden pages, she would rather never confront someone as scary as him again.

Luo Ying quickly helped Ye Mo up and didn't chase that nun.

Seeing this, Jie Xuan breathed a sigh of relief. Her wounds wouldn't recover for at least a few months.

Luo Ying quickly stopped Ye Mo's bleeding and was very worried.

Ye Mo felt like his eyelids were extremely heavy as he struggled to open his eyes. He saw a worried look close to his face and thought, 'Luo Ying, it really is Luo Ying.' That beautiful face had appeared in his head countless times, and now it finally appeared before his eyes. Ye Mo was shaking with excitement.

"Don't move, I will try to save you. And- thank you for saving me." Luo Ying didn't know how to save Ye Mo, but she felt his shaking.

Ye Mo sensed the nearby Luo Ying and wanted to reach out his hand to feel her face. Seeing Ye Mo's actions, Luo Ying's face changed. She sneered and put down Ye Mo heavily - she was really unhappy.

She took out a veil, wanting to cover her face. She just wanted this man to be able to move so that he could leave.

Ye Mo suddenly remembered that he had a mask on and that Luo Ying didn't know him. He resisted the strong urge to faint and thought of using the blood on his shoulders to write something.

Seeing this, Luo Ying took out a white cloth and threw it in front of Ye Mo but didn't talk.

Ye Mo wanted to look at Luo Ying again, but he knew his power was limited. He could faint at any moment.

After writing the words, he finally couldn't hold on anymore and fell unconscious.

Luo Ying subconsciously took the cloth, and when she saw the words, her mind blacked out. It was as though all her meridians were frozen and she couldn't move.

The cloth had four words: "I am Ye Mo."

'Ye Mo?! Really Ye Mo? Why doesn't his face look like Ye Mo's? He must have some masquerading technique applied to him,' she thought.

Other than Ye Mo, who would have helped her block the attacks from that nun? Other than Ye Mo, who would cry while touching the stone pool? Other than Ye Mo, who would cherish her life more than his own?

Why was he here? He must have come to find her. If she knew Ye Mo would get so hurt trying to find her, she wouldn't have left his side.

"Ye Mo!" Luo Ying finally reacted and was sure that the person on the ground was Ye Mo. She cried out his name and fell on Ye Mo's body before carrying him away. Her tears flew out like an open dam.

She suddenly hated herself. Why did she let the nun who tried to kill him go? If she had fought with her life on the line right from the start, would Ye Mo even have gotten hurt?

Luo Ying kept tearing, and she couldn't forgive herself. Suddenly Luo Ying woke up from her tragic feelings - why was she still crying, she needed to save him!

Ye Mo felt that his soul was about to drift away and felt that his spirit was on the verge of collapse. He knew that he was about to die.

He tried to force his soul not to drift away, because he couldn't die. Suddenly, a cool feeling entered his mind, after which he felt lazy and fell asleep.

He was dreaming about how he found Luo Ying, brought her back to Luo Yue and had the biggest wedding he could with her and Ning Qingxue. Everyone in Luo Yue came to wish them well.

But when he pulled Luo Ying and Ning Qingxue into their room, Luo Ying told him that she had to go back to Luo Yue Continent and couldn't stay with him.

He tried to grab her hand, but she went further and further away.

"Susu, don't go!" Ye Mo cried out and opened his eyes to see Luo Ying watch him with a worried face. She could tell that Ye Mo wanted to talk yet was unable to say anything.

"You're awake, you're finally awake!" Luo Ying finally saw Ye Mo open his eyes and hugged him tightly.

"Master!" Ye Mo called out to her from the bottom of his heart and fell unconscious again.

But now, the time it took him to wake up again was really short, and when he did, he tried to raise his hand and feel Luo Ying's face. Luo Ying had gotten a lot skinnier. From the worry and tears on her face, Ye Mo knew that she had been enduring more than him when he was injured.

As he finally touched her face, he said, "Master, don't worry about me, I'm fine now. Don't cry, but don't leave me again."

Although she didn't know what Ye Mo was saying, Luo Ying still nodded, as though knowing what Ye Mo was saying. She helped him up and wiped her eyes, after which she brought over a bowl of congee. She blew on it carefully and fed it to Ye Mo.

Then, she got some water and helped Ye Mo clean himself, including even brushing his teeth.

"Susu, the chicken soup is done, you can feed it to the man now." Susu heard a call at the door.

She quickly put down her towel after wiping Ye Mo's face and went out.

"Aunty Xi, thank you for these last couple of days. And please thank Uncle Wang for that ginseng too. Without your help, I-" Luo Ying took the pot from the lady and spoke gratefully.

"Don't say that Susu, you have cured a lot of sick people in our village. This little amount of help is nothing. Don't worry, I'll do what you told me to," the aunty said.

Meanwhile, Ye Mo looked at the bed and inside a room, and to his surprise, the room seemed different. It would seem that there were more celebratory colours.

Just as he was wondering why, Luo Ying came in with a blush on her face.

Ye Mo wanted to tell her that they weren't brother and sister at all, when suddenly Luo Ying came over and embraced Ye Mo's head. Ye Mo was lost in her faint aroma.

"Ye Mo, I don't want to be your master, and I don't want to be your sister. I just want to be your wife," Luo Ying said.

Then, she suddenly remembered something and let go of Ye Mo before writing, "I don't want to be your master. Let's get married. I already told Aunt Xi, so when you start being able to get off the bed, we can have a wedding."

Then, her eyes turned red. She knew that Ye Mo had been poisoned by that nun, but she didn't know what it was. She wanted to take Ye Mo out as soon as he was better, and if he really couldn't be cured, she would be his wife for one month and accompany him in death.

Ye Mo was dazed. He looked at Luo Ying. Did she know they weren't siblings? But then why hadn't she gone back to find him?

Luo Ying looked at Ye Mo and blushed, but she continued writing, "Ye Mo, right now, I don't want to care about anything, I just want to marry you and be your wife. We can just live here..."

Chapter 604: Let Me Take Care of You in this Life

Ye Mo stared at Luo Ying surprised, he could only think that she perhaps had realized that Jing Xi had lied to her. However, that wasn't the case, yet she still wanted to marry him.

The celebrational colors in the room were what she had set up for the wedding, right? Why was she in such a rush? Couldn't she wait until he got better? He still wanted to bring her back to Luo Ying and have the wedding there.

"Do you want to marry me?" Luo Ying wrote down with a hopeful look in her eyes.

Ye Mo stood up a bit and wrote, "Master, of course I want to marry you. I'm actually not related to you, Jing Xi lied."

Luo Ying smiled and leaned on Ye Mo. She assumed Ye Mo was comforting her, but it didn't matter to her. Since she had thought it through already, she didn't care. Moreover, she often dreamed that she had met Ye Mo in their past life.

Ye Mo only had two months left to live. She loved him and he loved her. When he died, she would die next to him. It was her greatest fortune to be able to die with Ye Mo.

"Don't call me master. I am going to marry you, I want to be your wife," Luo Ying wrote.

"Ok. Susu, you're really not related to me, my sister is called Beiwei, she's in Ning Hai right now. She's also from Luo Hong temple. I will marry you, I want you to be my wife." Ye Mo could tell that Luo Ying still had a moral barrier.

"Really?" Luo Ying looked at Ye Mo with joy. She stared deeply into his eyes, he wasn't lie to her.

Before Ye Mo could reply, she placed her head on his chest and thanked the heavens. Not only did she get to see Ye Mo again, but she could also properly marry him.

Ye Mo wiped the tears from her face. He could tell that she had gone through a lot after they got separated.

Luo Ying looked up and greeted Ye Mo's lips. They kissed. The flower scent made Ye Mo give in passionately. Their warmth made them forget about time, until Luo Ying realized that she was losing herself in his arms.

She quickly got away from his embrace and looked outside. It was already dark, so she wrote, "You've been unconscious for a few days. Auntie Xi brought some soup, I'll heat it and feed you. After you've recovered, we can be together."

Ye Mo suddenly remembered Jie Xuan and wrote, "Susu, we need to get out of here quickly. That old nun won't let us go, she will come back."

Luo Ying smiled and wrote, "She's heavily injured and will need at least a few months to recover. By that time, we'll be gone."

After reading this, he calmed down and wrote, "Susu, in a few months I'll take you somewhere else to get married."

However, Susu immediately shook her head and wrote, "No, it can't wait. I must marry you immediately."

Ye Mo looked at her. He didn't know why she had to marry him immediately, but he had promised Ning Qingxue that they'd get married together. How could he tell her this?

Before Ye Mo could respond, Luo Ying kissed him and went to make food.

He looked at her and felt warm inside. Since she wanted to get married, then so be it. He already had a marriage certificate with Ning Qingxue anyway, he would just celebrate it when they got back to Luo Yue.

The fact that Jie Xuan was injured was quite convenient. In a few months time, he could help Luo Ying reach stage one and then help him take out the things in his ring. Or, he could make Beiwei come.

Ye Mo had just woken up, but he was still too weak. He only took a few sips of the soup and fell asleep again.

When he woke up again, it was already noon of the second day in her house. Luo Ying wasn't at home. In just one day, she had managed to cover the room in red and a huge board with the word 'JOY' had been placed on the door.

Ye Mo looked at all of this dazily. It was as though he had gone back to Luo Yue, the time when his master used to teach him how to concoct pills side by side. Now, he was finally going to marry her after all the hardships they had gone through.

'In your previous life, you were my master and took care of me. In this life, let me be your master and let me take care of you,' Ye Mo thought. He took out a piece of paper and wrote on it the first level of cultivation method on it.

In the depths of the Duan Heng Ranges, a very shabby-looking nun sat on a rock. Her face was very scary.

The things she had planned kept encountering problems. The only good point was that she knew he probably had the golden page. Yet he was too calculative and too lucky, if it hadn't been for that girl, she would be interrogating him right now.

However, not only did she not capture him, but she had also lost her chi stone. That stone was very precious and important for achieving great heaven stage.

Even though, she believed she could still reach great heaven stage without it.

This time, she was injured heavily. She wouldn't be able to recover completely for a few months, but she only needed a month to recover a third of her power. She had some pills too. Once she recovered to a 30% of her power, that beautiful woman would be no match for her at all.

Once she captured her, she would let her know the consequences of offending her.

At the same time, the political scene at He Dong was going through a big storm. More and more people had gotten involved, and it was all due to a small case.

After realizing the will was fake and the judge had been helping them cover up, Li Chunsheng got involved to deal personally with the case.

But although the results hadn't come out yet, everyone in the political scene knew that Li Chunsheng's future wasn't going to be bright.

Li Chunsheng sat in his office smoking with a frown.

He wouldn't have thought that such a simple case could bring so many problems. However now, not only could he not contact Ye Mo, but the Beijing Li family couldn't help him either because they couldn't even help themselves at the moment.

Li Chunsheng's phone calls and actions were all being monitored.

Chapter 605: Wedding

Lean Village was located at the foot of a mountain in the Duan Heng Ranges and was completely segregated from the world. There were only about 30 families there.

The government had been planning on developing tourism there, but due to some issues, it was never put into action.

The area was very beautiful. There were mountains and rivers all around. The Lean River continued on into the Nu River, and further upstream from the village there were valleys that had a lot of natural herbs. They were the main source of income for the people in this village.

Today, the village was in a celebrational vibe, because the very person who had taught the people how to recognize herbs and taught them all sorts of medical knowledge, Susu, was going to get married.

"Susu is really pretty, like a goddess!"

"Yeah, I've seen a lot of celebrities on TV, but none as pretty as Susu."

"But doesn't her husband look pretty average? He doesn't fit with Susu."

"Why do you care? It's fine as long as Susu likes him. That young fella is very nice."

.....

After Susu was reunited with Ye Mo, she took off her veil, and everyone in the village was shocked by her otherworldly beauty.

Ye Mo was also extremely excited. He could finally walk together with Luo Ying hand in hand.

The people in the village were genuine and didn't have all sorts of rules and customs like in the city. They just gathered to celebrate and wished the newly-weds good luck. Ye Mo and Luo Ying liked that.

After a day of celebration, the village finally calmed down. Ye Mo walked into a small room with Luo Ying who had her head covered with a red veil. This was the place Luo Ying had lived in for two years, and now it would be the place she would be living with Ye Mo.

The big red candles brightly shone in the room, and Ye Mo excitedly unveiled Luo Ying. Under the bright red candles, Luo Ying's face seemed even prettier as she had that sense of embarrassment that made Ye Mo lose his mind.

"Susu, you're truly beautiful," Ye Mo couldn't help but want to say. Although his mask had been washed away by Luo Ying with herbs, the poison was still in his body.

Although Ye Mo didn't make any sound, Luo Ying knew what he wanted to say. She felt Ye Mo's hand swish around and felt a little shaky. The inexpressible feeling of love was seizing her.

"Hold on-" Although Ye Mo couldn't hear her demand, he saw Luo Ying wave out the candles. She knew she would be sleeping with Ye Mo that night, but she felt too embarrassed with the red candles burning.

Although the candles were out, the light from outside still shone in from the window, giving a glow to their eyes which were expressing the pair's deep love for each other.

Luo Ying's soft body and faint aroma made Ye Mo unable to hold himself back. Soon, he saw a Luo Ying with most of the clothes she had worn before gone. Luo Ying was like a young lamb squirming in his arms. She only knew how to hug him tightly and let him do whatever he wanted.

Although he really wanted to do it, Ye Mo thought about her cultivation. He had written the first level of a cultivation method for her three days before, and it had become clear that Luo Ying did indeed have a spiritual root. He believed that with the help of the spirit stone, she would be able to reach stage one within a month.

But if he took her virginity now, would it affect her cultivation? If it was due to him that she couldn't reach foundation establishment then what would he do?

Feeling Ye Mo slow down and stop, Luo Ying embarrassingly looked up at Ye Mo in confusion.

Ye Mo couldn't use a mind-cleansing chant on himself at that moment, but he loved Luo Ying, and for his love, he could resist any hardship and enticement.

"I'm afraid that if I were to take your virginity today, it will be hard for you to reach foundation establishment. How about we wait until you reach foundation establishment state, and then we-" Ye Mo just managed to write half of his message before Luo Ying took the paper away.

Luo Ying shook her head and didn't say anything, but her body was telling Ye Mo that she just wanted to be with him, that nothing else was important. She knew that if the poison remained in Ye Mo's body, nothing else would matter anyway.

Without the mind-cleansing chant, Ye Mo could no longer control his feelings for Luo Ying. With some light creaks from the bed, a harmonious scene appeared under the silver moonlight.

Luo Ying's body was like a hot stream, getting more and more sensitive with Ye Mo's charge. She couldn't help but moan as her hand grabbed Ye Mo's back tightly.

It was a little painful at first, but as Ye Mo slowly kept moving, she didn't want to leave his arms.

She wanted to grab Ye Mo's back tightly, but she was afraid of hurting him. The only thing she could do was embrace Ye Mo as much as he could handle and give her everything to him.

It might have been only Luo Ying's first time, but Ye Mo wasn't exactly experienced either.

He embraced Luo Ying tightly, and he could feel her heart and body shake in pleasure just like him. It was as though at that moment he and Luo Ying had become one.

"Mmm!" Luo Ying made a final long moan in Ye Mo's arms and grabbed his back even tighter.

In Luo Ying's heart, Ye Mo was her everything. Ye Mo made her not only feel love but also longing. Now, her body was his, and his warmth was still inside her.

In the end, as the night progressed, the creaking of the bed stopped. Ye Mo lovingly kissed Luo Ying in his arms, before they descended into the realm of dreams together.

....

The call of the rooster broke the silence of the village. Luo Ying opened her eyes and looked at Ye Mo with gentle eyes.

She should've married him earlier. Although it was a little late, but at least she still did it. She carefully touched Ye Mo's face and suddenly thought, 'How could 30 days of being together ever be enough?' She wanted 300 years, 3000 years, 30.000 years or even an eternity with him.

For the first time ever, Luo Ying started hating a person to the bones. She didn't even hate Jing Xi as much as that Jie Xuan.

If it weren't for her, she would get to live with Ye Mo forever and give birth to his children.

No, she had to find a cure, help her husband cure the poison and live with him forever!

The first thing Ye Mo saw when he woke up was Luo Ying busying about. Even though she was a yellow level middle stage ancient martial artist, she still walked a little uneasily after her first night.

Ye Mo got up and felt warm at heart. He just watched Luo Ying silently. No matter what had happened before, she was his wife now. He needed to love and protect her.

Chapter 606: Two Lifetimes

Time flies when you're happy. They'd been married for almost ten days.

Ye Mo could feel that Luo Ying constantly had a faint sense of worry, but he didn't want to break the peaceful life they had, so he didn't ask what was going on.

But today, he felt something wasn't right with Luo Ying.

"I want to go and find out if there are herbs in the mountain that could heal you," she had noticed that Ye Mo already knew something was going on, so she just told him before he could ask.

"Do you want to find Jie Xuan, the nun? You think she has the cure?" Ye Mo asked.

At this point, they didn't even need to write. They only needed to look at each other's lips to know what they were saying. Sometimes, even a glance or action could let them understand each other.

Luo Ying was dazed, she had understood Ye Mo's glance. It was as though he knew what she was thinking, but didn't agree.

"But- I- you're poisoned. I- Ok. I won't go, I'll stay with you," Luo Ying said and then walked to him so she could brush his hair. She knew that Ye Mo didn't want her to go.

She wanted to say that they only had little more than ten days left, yet she felt this was far from enough. She wanted to be with Ye Mo forever.

Ye Mo embraced her and said, "Dumby, my poison isn't fatal. I just can't speak or hear. Once you reach stage one, you can cure me."

"What? It's not lethal?!" Luo Ying was dazed. Suddenly fortune was on her side. She even suspected she had read Ye Mo's lips incorrectly, so she asked again.

"I said that if you reach stage one, you can cure me." Ye Mo felt her excitement and caringly wiped her tears as he repeated his words.

Luo Ying hugged him tightly with joy. After a while, she looked up and said excitedly, "I'm already at stage one, I-"

She wanted Ye Mo to tell her how she could cure him, but she didn't know how to express it.

Ye Mo was shook. He hadn't expected Luo Ying to be able to reach stage one in less than half a month. Although it was also due to the spirit stone, one could see that she was indeed quite skilled.

Ye Mo quickly took out a pen and a piece of paper. He wrote down how to release spirit sense and take things out from the storage ring.

When Ye Mo held the bottle of lotus life pill, he was actually very calm. For the first time, he felt that everything else was unimportant next to Luo Ying. The paradise he had lived in for the past ten days made him almost forget there was poison left in his body.

With her help, Ye Mo put a pill in his mouth. This pill melted immediately and turned into a spring nourishing his organs and dan tian.

The damaged dan tian repaired rapidly.

Luo Ying watched Ye Mo sit down with his legs crossed and recover, but the wait made her anxious. She didn't dare leave him alone and didn't even mind the water boiling outside. She felt her heart beating rapidly. If he recovered, she could stay with him forever.

The Bin Shi Grass' poison wasn't directly affected by the lotus life pill, it was just pushed out of his body by his own chi.

His external injuries had already been healed under Luo Ying's care, and now his internal injuries were gone too. Chi gradually started to gather and Ye Mo could clearly feel his power rising until it recovered to its original state.

Luo Ying saw some kind of white mist rise from the top of Ye Mo's head with black chi in it. She realized that Ye Mo must have pushed outside the poison.

Then, her heart felt like it was going to burst out of joy. She thank the heavens for letting Ye Mo be alright.

A day passed quickly, and when Ye Mo opened his eyes again, it was already dark.

Luo Ying sat in front of him, staring without blinking. He could tell that she had been staring at him the entire day, worried about him.

"Susu, sorry to make you worry." Ye Mo got up and gently cuddled her.

She couldn't hold it anymore and cried out in his arms. The torture was finally over. She could hear Ye Mo's voice now, that meant he was well.

"I thank the heavens that you're alright!" Luo Ying said piously.

Ye Mo kissed her, "I should be thanking you, it's you-"

Luo Ying placed her finger on his lips and stopped him. She pointed at the crescent moon, "We got married on a full moon. I really liked it, but today I like it even more."

"Then, I'll take you up to see the moon, okay?"

"En!"

"Wow! We're really in the sky!" Luo Ying reacted. It felt really familiar, but it was also unimaginable at the same time.

"En! We're in the sky right now. Susu, in my dreams from a past life, you were my master and you took me flying in the sky like this. In this life, I will take you to fly. In a previous life, you taught me everything to take care of myself. In this life, let me take care of you and give you everything," Ye Mo said. His words got deeply etched into Luo Ying's heart.

She murmured, "Past life, this life. Was there really a past life? I keep dreaming about flying in the sky too, is that real?"

She caressed Ye Mo's face, fearing that it was all a dream, but he was concrete and real. The village below was peaceful while she and Ye Mo welded into the dark sky. Whispering in her ear, Ye Mo told her everything about cultivation and what happened after she left.

When they returned to the room again, Ye Mo had a sense of familiarity. It was as though she really had taught Ye Mo cultivation in his past life; she had taught him how to concoct pills, medicine and language.

"Susu, where did you go after leaving Serenity? When I went to the desert, I found that you had already taken the stone pool away," Ye Mo kept asking all sorts of questions.

Luo Ying touched his hair and said, "When did you start liking me? Was it due to the memories of your past life from your dreams? Do you like the me from my previous life or this life?"

Ye Mo looked at her bright eyes and said slowly, "Perhaps it wasn't a dream, perhaps it was real. The time you were my master, I respected and loved you, but I didn't dare desecrate you. When I realized that was love, it was already too late. It wasn't until that day in the desert that I got to see you again, when you saved me. When I was about to die, you woke me up with your blood "

"En, same. When you carried me to escape from the bugs in the desert and took me to hide in the caves, I knew I couldn't forget about you because I also had my blood in your body. When you gave me that well of water, I knew I had fallen in love with you. When you chased me to Serenity and walked the sword mountain for me, I knew I couldn't be without you."

"I went everywhere afterwards, yet not knowing where I should go. I wanted to secretly visit you, but I was afraid I wouldn't be able to leave after seeing you. One day, Aunty Xi brought me here and I settled. I stayed at the highest place in the village with the hope of seeing you one day. I would stand here everyday for an hour, looking for you. Some time after that, I couldn't resist my longing for you, so I went to the desert and took back the stone pool you gave me."

Chapter 607: Return to Jiutang

Their voices gradually died down as the two just sat there next to each other until the rooster called again.

"It's dawn, huh," Ye Mo muttered subconsciously. They had sat there for a whole night. Luo Ying laid in Ye Mo's arms and didn't want to move.

Ye Mo suddenly thought of something and took out a small bag for Luo Ying and said, "Susu, the sect leader of Serenity told me to give this to you. I didn't open it, so have a look what it is."

Luo Ying took the bag and opened it. There were two books and a yellow cloth with a date written on it within.

"What are these letters? I've never seen them before," Luo Ying said strangely.

Ye Mo took it and was dazed. It was actually the language of Luo Yue Continent. How could that have found its way to Serenity?

"This is your cultivation method, the same as the one I wrote for you," Ye Mo said.

"Huh? Then that means what happened in the dream is all real." Luo Ying took the book shakily.

Ye Mo nodded, "It is."

He just didn't understand how this could appear on Earth and be acquired by the sect leader of Serenity. The date written on the cloth was April 26th - such a familiar date. Indeed, it was the date Ye Mo transmigrated.

"Look at this book." Luo Ying gave the other book to Ye Mo.

Ye Mo flipped through a few pages and felt a heavy feeling of love.

As Luo Ying noticed that, she asked, "What does it say?"

Ye Mo answered softly, "Susu, it's your diary from your past life. A lot of things are exactly as I dreamed they would-"

"Huh?" Luo Ying quickly took the book and said, "I'll give it to you when I'm done."

Ye Mo nodded, "Perhaps you can remember some things through it. It doesn't matter if you show me or not."

Luo Ying blushed, "I'll let you see for sure, I just don't know if I said anything bad about you in it. You need to teach me this language, though."

Ye Mo said softly again, "Of course, like I said: in our last life you taught me, in this life I will teach you. A lot of the words I know were taught by you."

"But isn't that probably just in your dreams?"

"No, I believe it really happened."

Seeing Luo Ying put the book away, Ye Mo suddenly said, "I'll make a storage ring for you later on."

He had all the materials already, and Ye Mo attached a diamond to it too, a blue diamond.

He felt a little troubled about how to tell Luo Ying about Ning Qingxue.

But luckily he still had a lot of time. The ring was made quickly, and Ye Mo put some necessary recovery and cultivation pills in it before handing it to Luo Ying.

Luo Ying looked at the ring, and her expression was the same as Ning Qingxue's. The joy in her eyes was unquenchable.

The blue diamond and storage capability weren't the main attraction. The main thing was that Ye Mo had made it for her.

"H- help me put it on," Luo Ying's voice was shaky. Although she hadn't lived in the city for too long, she still knew what a ring meant.

Ye Mo gently put the ring on for Luo Ying. Looking at a Luo Ying unable to stop fiddling with her ring, Ye Mo's heart was filled with warmth.

He didn't disturb Luo Ying and took out his phone. He was going to call his sister and Qingxue to tell them he was alright.

But as soon as he opened his phone, there was a large amount of texts.

Some were from Ning Qingxue and his sister, but most of them were from Li Chunsheng and Shi Xiu.

It was all about the case in Jiutang City. Cheng Changhui had been taken away, but at the same time, Li Chunsheng said that he needed him urgently. Shi Xiu's texts said the same too.

Ye Mo quickly called them, but both of their phones were shut down.

Ye Mo texted Beiwei, Qingxue and Ye Ling first. He decided to go back to Jiu Tang and see what was going on. How could Li Chunsheng not deal with such a simple case and get dragged into some mess instead?

"What happened, Martial Brother?" Luo Ying found that it sounded much better to call Ye Mo Martial Brother.

Ye Mo was okay with it and said, "Two of my friends in Jiutang are in trouble. I need to go see. I'm sorry, Susu, I wanted to stay with you for a few more days."

Luo Ying felt the ring and smiled, "There's no need to say sorry between us, I'll go wherever you go. I have nothing keeping me here. I'll just take that stone pool away. Also, there's no point in leaving so much money in my ring. I'll give it to Uncle Wang and Auntie Xi for them to split amongst the villagers. The ginseng you ate was from them and the money for the wedding was also all paid by them.

Ye Mo smiled and grabbed her hand, "No need, I still have more."

It was mostly USD in his ring though, and only about 5 million RMB. He gave more than 1 million to Luo Ying and took out the rest.

The people in the village were very innocent, and the village leader divided the money equally. When Luo Ying and Ye Mo left, everyone in the village went to send them off.

"They are all good people." Luo Ying and Ye Mo had walked for very long already, yet they could still see people waving their hands at them.

"Because you're an immortal goddess," Ye Mo smiled and said.

....

Ye Mo called Lu Lin as soon as he came to Jiutang City, but he couldn't reach her either.

Ye Mo decided to buy some clothes for Luo Ying with her and then go to Jiuhe Corporation. He didn't believe that a province-level senator would lose a fair battle.

One pale yellow dress with the necklace and ring Ye Mo had given her made Luo Ying feel like an ethereal goddess.

Everyone in the clothing store was dominated by Luo Ying's out-of-this-world beauty. Perhaps they had never even seen anyone as pretty as Luo Ying before.

"Wait for me for a bit, I need to go buy some things in the supermarket," Luo Ying saw that Ye Mo was on a call and said to him.

Ye Mo understood that she probably wanted to buy some women products, so he didn't follow and just waited for her at the door, thinking about what might have happened.

"Hmm, might you be, Ye Mo?" an abrupt voice stopped Ye Mo's train of thought.

A man in his 30s halted before him, and a girl dressed very revealingly stood next to him. She looked to be somewhere in her twenties, and she wasn't ugly, but Ye Mo didn't like her makeup.

The man seemed familiar. Ye Mo soon remembered who he was. He had been his classmate in Ning Hai, Wang Chu. Wang Chu was very close to Shi Xiu. In fact, he was one of Shi Xiu's few close friends.

Well, although Shi Xiu didn't have many friends in university, he still knew more people than Ye Mo.

"Wang Chu, why are you here?" Ye Mo asked strangely.

"Huh, you're really Ye Mo? No wonder you looked so familiar. You changed so much that I almost didn't recognise you. Shi Xiu asked me to come over. He ran into some trouble, and I happened to be working in Jiutang, so here I am," Wang Chu said.

Just as Ye Mo wanted to ask about Shi Xiu's situation, Luo Ying's angry voice sounded. Ye Mo immediately went to her.

Chapter 608: We're Friends

"Miss, Hong Kong DanYu Entertainment is top notch in the industry. With your looks and our expertise, I'm sure you can become famous all over the world, even Hollywood would easily be within your grasp," a bald fat man was talking on and on.

Ye Mo wanted to laugh, "No need, we're not interested in what you're talking about, so move aside."

"Let's go Susu, people like this can be found everywhere, no need to mind them." Ye Mo helped Luo Ying carry her things and pulled her away.

"Don't leave, I'm a shareholder of Hong Kong Danyu Entertainment! Friend, your girlfriend is this pretty, it'll be such a waste if-" The fat man was very agile and ran in front of Ye Mo.

Luo Ying frowned. She had already rejected, yet the man still persisted.

Ye Mo grabbed the fat man and threw him away onto a dumpster. The trash came out a bit and splashed across the man's face.

What Ye Mo wouldn't have expected was that as soon as he left, the shareholder guy immediately took out his phone and called someone, "Uncle Tong, I found a goddess-like beauty in Jiutang, definitely goddess level! I'm sure she's the prettiest girl in China. Yes, yes, as long as she joins our company, our company will dominate the world!"

....

"Wang Chu, take me to where you guys are meeting. I haven't seen Shi Xiu in a long time." Ye Mo pulled Luo Ying over to Wang Chu and said.

Wang Chu was dumbfounded looking at Luo Ying and reacted only after a long time, "O- okay, let's go."

He was truly shocked - the woman with Ye Mo was way too beautiful!

"Ye Mo, this is?" Wang Chu asked.

Ye Mo smiled, "My wife, Luo Ying. Susu, this is my former classmate, Wang Chu."

Luo Ying didn't like to talk to strangers and just nodded.

The girl beside Wang Chu was also shocked. To be honest, she had never seen a girl as pretty as Luo Ying. Ye Mo looked very ordinary, how did he get such a good girl? Her confidence was shattered to pieces in front of Luo Ying.

"Let's go, then. By the way, when did Shi Xiu come to Jiutang?" Ye Mo asked.

"It's right over there - 'Wine City 613'. Shi Xiu just told us to wait for him there. He'll be there soon, and I don't know when he came over either." Wang Chu pointed at a luxurious restaurant not far away.

"Then let's go," Ye Mo answered.

Wang Chu walked over to Ye Mo and said in a quiet tone, "Shi Xiu seems to have gotten into quite some trouble this time. We want to help him, but the enemy is pretty powerful. If y- Sigh."

Ye Mo shook his head. He knew what Wang Chu was thinking. He meant that if Ye Mo was still part of the Ye family then things would be good. Ye Mo didn't know Wang Chu much, but from what Shi Xiu had said, he should be quite decent. However, apparently he wouldn't sacrifice himself to help Shi Xiu.

Ye Mo also suspected that Wang Chu had stopped staying in touch with Shi Xiu after graduation and only started contact again after Shi Xiu became a mayor.

The most luxurious room in the restaurant was 613, but Shi Xiu would never be able to get that room, so he was in room 616 together with some acquaintances.

When Ye Mo and co. arrived, one clean-looking man just scanned Luo Ying once, but almost everyone else kept their eyes on Luo Ying. There was even a passionate fire in the eyes of two of them.

Ye Mo immediately didn't like this. What sort of friends had Shi Xiu brought? Luo Ying was clearly behind Ye Mo, yet they still looked at her like that.

With the six people already there and the four who just arrived, the gathering consisted out of ten people. There were two more whom Ye Mo knew, but they hadn't been in the same class, though.

"Hello, I'm Xue Guoyang, Shi Xiu's blood brother. You are?" The clean-looking man walked up to Ye Mo and shook his hand.

Ye Mo had heard of this name before. Xue Guoyang was very loyal, Shi Xiu had talked about him quite often.

"I'm Ye Mo, Shi Xiu's friend," Ye Mo shook hands with the man and smiled.

"Oh, so you're Brother Mo! I've heard about you more than once." Xue Guoyang looked overjoyed from the bottom of his heart. Shi Xiu had told him that if Ye Mo came, he would be able to help a lot.

Ye Mo said, "Shi Xiu is my friend, so since you're his friend, just call me Ye Mo."

"Okay then, Ye Mo it is, I won't be too polite," Xu Guoyang said.

Due to Xue Guoyang's obvious respect, the other people in the room got up and also greeted Ye Mo.

Xue Guoyang was a middle-level manager in He Feng City. There were two others who also worked in Jiu Tang, and one person who had opened a trade company in Jiutang. His name was Mi Fang. One rather tall man was called Liu Yahua, and he worked at Jiutang Hospital. The oldest man present was in his 30 and was called Bai Youxi. He was Shi Xiu's hometown friend.

"Why is Shi Xiu still not here even though he invited us here?" Liu Yahua commented uncomfortably.

"Who knows? Oy, Xue Guoyang, what happened to Shi Xiu anyway?" Bai Youxi joined.

Ye Mo sneered. He knew these people would be too unreliable to expect any help from them.

"Okay, I'll tell everyone the truth," Xue Guoyang said.

"Shi Xiu ran into some trouble. I believe everyone knows about the Jiutang will case-"

Before Xue Guoyang finished, Bai Youxi interrupted, "Guoyang, we're all just small fry, how can we help with that? Isn't Shi Xiu slapping our face asking us to help?"

"Bai Youxi, how can you talk like that? How much did Shi Xiu help you when he was mayor? And you guys come from the same town. If you don't want to help, then leave, we don't need you!" Xue Guoyang was mad.

"Okay, okay, stop arguing. Although some words aren't nice to say, reality is what it is. We can't even so much as touch fights at that level, but we can still do some small things. How about Guoyang, you tell us your plan and we see what we can do. My business isn't big and I might not be able to help much, but I can at least help with some money," Mi Fang saw everyone start arguing and tried to calm them down.

Ye Mo sighed. Other than Xue Guoyang who was truly trying to help Shi Xiu, everyone else had just come for show.

Suddenly the door opened, and Shi Xiu came in, having a few slap marks on his face.

"Everyone leave, I'm being hunted by the mafia, quick!" Shi Xiu only said one sentence before stopping. He had seen Ye Mo.

"Ye Mo, how come you're here?" Shi Xiu finally felt assured. He had only called these people to help, because he had no other choice. He wanted to ask them to investigate some things and never expected them to actually help him save Li Chunsheng.

Ye Mo walked over and patted Shi Xiu's shoulder and said, "Don't worry about anything, just lowly tell me what happened."

"I'm sorry Ye Mo, all I do is make you worry every single time," Shi Xiu said dejectedly.

Ye Mo smiled, "Don't say that, we're friends. When I'll be in trouble, you'll help me too."

Shi Xiu was about to tear up. He had called nearly 20 friends, but only a few had come, yet Ye Mo came every single time he needed help the most.

Chapter 609: As If You'd Dare To Shoot

"What's going on?" As Bai Youxi heard that the mafia was after Shi Xiu, he immediately got up worriedly. After it really got through to him, he pulled up a girl that was next to him and said, "We still have something to do, so we'll be going."

As soon as he walked to the door, Bai Youxi was kicked back in. At the same time, a voice sardonically spoke from the door, "Since you already came, don't think about leaving. My Big Brother said for you to wait here. He will be here very soon."

"This has nothing to do with me!" Bai Youxi wanted to argue, but no one listened to him.

"Ye Mo, who is this?" Shi Xiu was asking about Luo Ying.

Ye Mo smiled and held Luo Ying's hand, "This is my wife, Luo Ying. Susu, this is Shi Xiu, my former classmate and my friend."

"Oh, nice to meet you. Sorry for dragging Ye Mo into my trouble all the time." Shi Xiu realized only then. Anyway, who else other than Ye Mo deserved a woman that pretty?

"Hello," Luo Ying smiled plainly. Her whole attention was on Ye Mo, and she only replied because Ye Mo introduced Shi Xiu as his friend. Otherwise, she wouldn't want to talk to any of these people. She didn't like talking to strangers.

Ye Mo ignored the two at the door and told Wang Chu to close the door. Then he said, "Everyone better sit down for now. Shi Xiu, tell us what happened to you."

Shi Xiu sighed, "Brother Li told me about the case in Jiu Tang City, so I wanted to help. Originally, there weren't any problems after the second hearing, but because Young Master Heng came, it became a big problem."

"Young Master Heng, who is that?" Ye Mo asked in surprise.

Shi Xiu shook his head, "We aren't sure about what his full name is, but Brother Chunsheng said that he might be from the Dai family. His power is very big. For someone at his level, Brother Chunsheng's local power means nothing to him. "

Ye Mo had heard of this Dai family. Shi Xiu had told him about them last time. Ever since the Song family and Qiao family left Beijing, the Dai family and Qiu family rose up. But even if this Young Master was from the Dai family, the Li family should have no reason to fear him. How come they were attacking Li Chunsheng, yet the Li family still didn't do anything? Li Chunsheng should be considered a part of the Li family by now.

As Xue Guoyang heard this, he asked, "Since even Brother Li doesn't have the status to afford being enemies with this Young Master, why is the guy intervening with something like the Jiu Tang case?"

"The last time Brother Chunsheng talked to me, he said that Young Master Heng had a new lover - Yi Zhu's daughter. Yi Zhu is Yi Jiuhe's second brother. As soon as Young Master Heng intervened in the case, news of Brother Chunsheng being corrupt started to appear.

This isn't the most important issue. The most important thing is that some rumours that Yi Jiuhe's death was related to Brother Chunsheng also started to appear, saying that the reason why he was intervening in such a case was because he had an affair with Yi Jiuhe's wife. Even though all these rumours about Brother Chunsheng are fake, he can't do anything about them," Shi Xiu explained dejectedly.

Ye Mo frowned. Even if the guy was trying to suck up to his father-in-law, he should at most be trying to help them win the case. Why would they go so far as to challenge the bottom line of politics? No matter how big Dai Heng's origin was, he wouldn't just wrongly accuse a provincial official for no reason. Ye Mo felt that there was more to this matter than meets the eye.

Shi Xiu continued, "Afterwards, it was also said that back in He Feng he attacked the Yuan family because the Yuan family didn't divide their dirty money properly with him. 'How would he know so much about the Yuan family otherwise?' or so the rumours say."

After Ye Mo heard all this, he understood that things were far from simple.

Shi Xiu then said, "The day Brother Chunsheng was taken away, he sent me a letter telling me to leave immediately. I knew things had gotten bad, so I left Xi Tong with Xiao Tan that night. I knew Brother Chunsheng wanted me to find you."

"What about the Li family? Did Li Qiuyang not say anything?" Ye Mo asked.

The Li family was pretty much the most powerful family in China. Although Li Qiuyang wasn't the most powerful of the young generation, he was definitely in the top three.

With Li Qiuyang to help Li Chunsheng, how could Li Chunsheng be brought down by some Dai family. Not to mention that Li Chunsheng was on the just side.

Shi Xiu sighed, "I heard that something happened to Li Qiuyang. I don't know what exactly, though. Although I don't know what's going on with the Li family, but they are no longer the number one family in China. The Dai family and Qiu family joined together to take down the Li family, and they have the support of most people in Beijing."

Ye Mo wasn't interested in stuff like that, but Li Chunsheng was a good guy, and he had been helping Ye Mo, so he had to intervene.

"How is he now? How is the case? And why are you being hunted by gangsters?" Ye Mo asked.

"I couldn't contact Brother Chunsheng, so I came to Jiu Tang to collect evidence for his sake. But I couldn't do it myself, so I called some friends for help. Because I needed the help from a lot of people, I was short on money, so I went out to borrow some. Those people lent it to me only yesterday, yet now they want me to pay back with a tenfold interest. There was no way I could out take that much, so I ended up being hunted. Lu Lin is probably locked up. Brother Chunsheng told me to look after Yi Yan and Yi Xiaodie, but I didn't find them."

"Shi Xiu, did you borrow from Black Head?" Liu Yahua suddenly asked.

Shi Xiu nodded, "That's right."

Liu Yahua's face suddenly changed, "Shi Xiu, you brought trouble to all of us. Black Head reigns supreme in Jiu Tang. Those who borrow from that guy all lose a few layers of skin. How could you borrow from him?"

"Shut up, Liu Yahua. You and Bai Youxi are both the same. Shi Xiu asked you for help, so if you can't help, then shut up!" Xue Guoyang said angrily.

Bang- Suddenly the door was kicked open as an African-looking guy with a cigarette in his mouth and a tattooed head walked in, followed by his cronies.

"Shi Xiu, you're very bold, making me come personally to collect your debt. Hmm?" The black man suddenly stopped talking when he saw Luo Ying sitting next to Ye Mo.

"F*ck me, there's actually such a pretty lady here, hahaha!" Then the man walked to Luo Ying.

Everyone looked at Luo Ying with worry, but Shi Xiu was very calm.

Ye Mo sneered and kicked the man onto his chest.

The man was kicked back and spat out blood before crashing into the wall.

"You! Kill h-" He spat more blood.

He felt his body burning, and his organs were shattered. He was so angry that he wanted to kill Ye Mo, but he didn't dare say anything else as there was a gun pointed at his head.

Everyone stopped at the sight of the gun. The black man reacted quickly and snarled, "As if you'd dare to shoo-"

Before he finished, Ye Mo had already fired. Blood splashed out from the guy's forehead as he had an expression of disbelief.

Chapter 610: Coming Here with Initiative

"You really dared to shoot! I will kill your entire fami-" a ferocious-looking man behind Black Head moved forward, he was Black Head's right hand. He pulled out a sword.

But before he could finish, Ye Mo fired again.

Ye Mo sneered. He could tell that many lives had been lost in their hands.

Then, Ye Mo looked at the remaining people and asked, "Anyone else wants to talk? Hurry up, I still have a few bullets left."

He didn't need a gun to kill these people, but he had used it because he didn't want trouble. He couldn't use fireballs to kill them all, and using a gun was much easier. Moreover, he had license to kill.

He just didn't want to cause a slaughter there, so he only killed a few of them to warn them.

Of course, the main point was to get the situation even more tense. If they didn't respect him, he wouldn't feel guilty for killing them. Li Chunsheng was helping him, and he had appeared in Jiu Tang a few days ago. He couldn't believe that they didn't know he was involved.

If they had known this and still attacked, their actions were very questionable. Ye Mo was sure that the higher-ups in China knew that he was closely related to Luo Yue, if not responsible.

Even with this information, they still hadn't considered him and just intervened in his case. It was no longer a fight for power - it was more serious than that, it could result in an international discord. No matter how powerful the Qiu and Dai family were, they couldn't unsee this.

Shi Xiu's friends also looked at Ye Mo in disbelief. That bunch of phonies tried to get out of there quickly.

Ye Mo sneered, "Did I say you could leave?"

They shook and stopped. The scene fell into an eerie silence.

Clap, clap-

Almost everyone turned to look at where the clapping came from. A man in his 30s was standing at the door.

"Exciting. Too exciting! It was like a circus, just two shots and no one dares to say anything. It's been a long time since I've seen someone as bold as you." The man's lips were very thin.

Two bulky men more than 1.9 m tall stood before him. They were protecting the man; they each had a pistol, and they also were countless times more skilled at shooting than Ye Mo.

He didn't mind.

Yellow level middle stage? Ye Mo immediately could tell the man's power. The two men protecting him were also at yellow level middle stage. So, he was only at yellow level middle stage, but he dared to act up in front of him? Furthermore, that man wasn't really talented. He had reached yellow level middle stage when he was already in his 30s.

What caught Ye Mo's attention wasn't the man's power, but the two people next to him and his guards, a man and a woman. The man wasn't tall and was in his 50s, but he was at earth level peak stage. Judging by the qi wave, he was on the same level as Zeng Zhengxia.

What caught Ye Mo's attention was the woman. She was only in her twenties, but she had a very vibrant and attractive face. Ye Mo was shocked at the fact that when he first saw her, she seemed very innocent and soft, making you want to protect her; but when you looked at her for twice, she seemed naturally seductive. When she stood still, her whole body made your mouth dry.

Ye Mo sneered, she had indeed a natural seductive body. Ye Mo wasn't sure if it was due to cultivation or natural talent, but she had an eerie beauty. Just from her looks, she was better than Su Jingwen, but in Ye Mo's eyes, she was not as good as even Xu Wei.

Although Ye Mo disregarded her, Shi Xiu and the others looked at her as though they wanted to eat her.

Then, the man gave a deadly stare to Luo Ying, his reaction was no better than Black Head's. If the woman behind him used her body and seduction skills to showcase her beauty, then the woman in front of him was an indescribable goddess.

"I'll take that woman," the man reacted and pointed at Luo Ying.

Ye Mo sneered and held his gun.

"Haha- Don't bother waving your gun. Even if you shoot all the bullets in it, a gun like that won't harm me at all," the man laughed.

The two bodyguards didn't even bother pulling out their guns, they just charged at Ye Mo. In their eyes, he was no stronger than an ant. They had been training everyday how to dodge bullets, a pistol like Ye Mo's was slower than a 54.

Although Han Zaixin had given Ye Mo a pistol, it wasn't for him to protect himself, it was more as a symbol of power.

Bang, bang- He shot the two bodyguards right on the forehead and their bodies fell on the ground.

The man looked dumbly at this, he couldn't believe what he has just seen.

The man finally reacted, and immediately the cockiness he had was gone. He looked coldly at Ye Mo and didn't say anything. At the same time, the 50-year-old earth level peak martial artist stood in front of him.

"You would have to use a 64 to kill Young Master Heng's bodyguards, you must not be a simple man. I'm Kong Laiwu, what's your name?" the 50-year-old man saluted Ye Mo with his fist.

Ye Mo thought about the situation. So he was Dai Heng, which meant that the woman behind him was Yi Lan. She was pretty indeed. He hadn't even gone looking for him yet, yet that Young Master Heng had already come up to him himself.
