Chapter 621: Fighting to be Friends

"60 million. If you agree, it's yours. Oh, and give a 100k cheque to Huo Duocai," Ye Mo said. Although the jade would be getting thinner as the rock was opened, it would still be worth around 70-80 million. He just didn't want to waste time.

Huo Duocai was dazed. He only cut a few slices and got 100k, this was too simple.

"Deal!"

Once again, money was added to Xu Wei's bank account, and this time it was 60 million.

When Ye Mo pulled Xu Wei out from the crowd, Xu Wei finally reacted and wanted to give her card to Ye Mo. Ye Mo had earned that money, she couldn't take it. Even if she was short on money, she could just borrow some from Ye Mo.

Ye Mo pushed the card back in her hands and said, "Xu Wei, I'm clearly pretty capable, right?"

Xu Wei nodded without hesitation. Ye Mo was like a god, he had won every single time.

Seeing this, Ye Mo smiled, "With my capabilities, how could I be short on money? Why would I care about 60 million? To be honest, I'm richer than Bill Gates right now. I have tens of billions readily available."

If it were before, Xu Wei would think that Ye Mo was bluffing, but now she knew that Ye Mo wasn't. Otherwise, how could he win 60 million for her in just three hours?

"But, I-" Xu Wei understood, but that amount of money was still too much for her.

"Don't have a mental burden. You paid for the bets, and I was just helping you. You've helped me a lot in Ning Hai, so it's normal that I help you too," Ye Mo comforted her.

Xu Wei wasn't dumb. Since Ye Mo was that rich, why did he go through the hassle to use her $200 to bet? He could easily give her tens of millions, but he didn't. He had done it like that precisely so that she wouldn't have a mental burden.

Ye Mo was about to ask about her mother when that middle-aged man ran over and gave Ye Mo a golden name card, "Brother, you're really amazing, my respect for you is-"

Ye Mo shivered in cringe and quickly stopped the man from talking. He took the card and realized that the man was called Hu Dan, and he was the CEO of a company. No wonder he was so rich.

Hu Dan? This name was really interesting. It sounded like 'protecting egg' in Chinese.

Xu Wei thought of something and said, "Ye Mo, can you come with me to the police station? My brother, Xu Bingwu, is still locked up, so I need to bail him out."

Hu Dan quickly said, "Is your brother in the city department or some branch department? Also, why did he get locked up?"

"He beat someone and didn't have the money to compensate them. He's locked up in the Yang Hai branch," Xu Wei said.

"Don't worry, I'll make a call." Hu Dan immediately called the police chief of Yang Hai Department and exchanged a few sentences with him before hanging up.

He then looked at the worried Xu Wei, "Your brother has been released. As for the compensation, I've told an old friend to help you pay for it, so don't worry."

"Huh?" Xu Wei reacted quickly and was going to give the money to Hu Dan.

Hu Dan waved his hand, "It's just a small favor, don't worry about it. I didn't listen to your boyfriend before, and I lost indeed. It was my luck to meet someone like your boyfriend."

Then, Hu Dan turned to Ye Mo and asked, "By the way, Brother, do you have a business card?"

Xu Wei blushed and wanted to start explaining, but she didn't. She actually really wanted to know what Ye Mo's situation was and whether he was with Ning Qingxue.

Hu Dan was a bit desperate. He didn't want to pass by a master like Ye Mo.

Ye Mo smiled, "Sorry, Brother Hu, I don't have a name card, but you can just call me Ye Mo. I'll give you my number, but my phone is usually turned off."

"No problem, no problem." Hu Dan knew that someone as magical as this must have a lot of rules. It was already very lucky that he could get his number.

Hu Dan quickly noted down the number and said, "Brother Ye, how about eating together? It's my treat."

Ye Mo didn't mind as he didn't have anything else to do that day. Just when he wanted to ask Xu Wei, another voice interrupted, "Brother Ye, I was hoping to talk to you. Luckily, you haven't left yet. I remembered your number too, I hope you don't mind. I'm Luo Zilian, by the way, and thanks to you, I earned big today. Would I have the honour of eating with you?"

Then, Luo Zilian also passed a name card over. The name card was very exquisite.

"Um, Sister Zilian, I've already invited Brother Ye, so how about next time," Hu Dan quickly said.

"Xu Wei, what about you?" Ye Mo looked at Xu Wei.

"I want to go to the hospital to see my mother. I'm worried about her," Xu Wei said.

Hearing this, Hu Dan immediately said, "Sister Xu Wei, which hospital is your mother in? Tell me, I'll get a good room for her right away."

"Yang Hai District's Kang Hai Hospital," Xu Wei answered subconsciously.

"Brother Hu, no need for you to call, I will take care of it. My uncle is the Vice Director of that hospital." Luo Zilian finally had the chance to show herself, how could she let Hu Dan take it? Thus, she quickly called before Hu Dan could even reply.

After she spoke a few words, Xu Wei's mother was sent to the VIP room.

"How about this: Brother Hu, you arrange a place and go there first, while I'll go with Xu Wei to see her mother in the hospital first and then come later." Ye Mo knew that Xu Wei wouldn't feel assured without seeing her mother first.

"Okay, I'll wait for you in Teng Wang Restaurant." Hu Dan arranged the place before Luo Zilian this time.

Luo Zilian rolled her eyes and could only ask for Xu Wei's number. Hu Dan couldn't do this though, because if Xu Wei was Ye Mo's girlfriend, that would be inappropriate.

Ye Mo knew that Luo Zilian was no simple person - she had come over later not because she found him only then, but because she was making her bodyguard warn those hoodlums who wanted to follow Ye Mo.

This Luo Zilian clearly had no simple origin, so those hoodlums didn't dare say anything and left.

After the two left and fetched a taxi, Xu Wei fell into silence and said, "Ye Mo, thank you for today."

Ye Mo smiled, "I already said you don't need to be like that. I feel relieved that I saw you today. I said I would treat you to dinner in the past but never had the chance to."

"Um," Xu Wei suddenly felt lightened up and smiled, "Then how about I treat you tomorrow? Like that you will owe me twice, and I will feel a sense of accomplishment that way."

Ye Mo smiled, "If nothing sudden happens, I will be leaving Jin City tomorrow."

"Do you miss Sister Qingxue?" Xu Wei suddenly asked.

Ye Mo nodded, "Yes, very, so I want to go back."

Seeing Xu Wei fall into silence, Ye Mo said, "I'll go see your mother soon. I can cure most normal diseases."

"You do?!" Xu wei looked at Ye Mo in shock.

Ye Mo nodded, "Yes, that time when I was taking a shift for you, I cured an old man named Zhuo. You've heard about that right?"

"What, that magical doctor was you?!" Back then, a magical doctor cured a patient in a lethal condition but was never found again. So that was Ye Mo!

Xu Wei got excited. If that had really been Ye Mo, then her mother would be cured.

"Of course it was me." Ye Mo thought of what he had done for mere tens of thousands of dollars and sighed.

"Stop the car!" Xu Wei suddenly told the driver to stop and charged out.

Xu Wei walked up to a bloodied youth, which Ye Mo guessed had to be her brother. Wasn't he just released? Why was he fighting again?

Ye Mo left behind $100 and quickly followed.

Chapter 622: Don't Want to be Cheated

Ye Mo saw they were at the gate of the Jing City University and he could guess it was where her brother was studying.

"Xiao Wu, why are you fighting someone again?" Xu Wei went to help Xu Bingwu, who was covered in blood, get up.

The young man said hatefully, "I wasn't fighting."

When he saw Ye Mo approaching, he stopped speaking.

Ye Mo examined the young man. He only had external injuries, they looked serious, but they were no big deal. There was a lot of blood because his forehead was bleeding.

"Ye Mo, this is my brother, Xu Bingwu. Xu Wei, this is my friend, you can call him Brother Ye." Xu Wei was very soft when speaking with Ye Mo, but she talked very seriously to her brother. At the same time she spoke, she took out a piece of cloth to cover the young man's head.

Xu Bingwu studied Ye Mo, who really didn't look good. He frowned and glanced at Xu Wei before forcing himself to utter a 'Brother Ye'. He seemed to be scared of Xu Wei.

"What's going on?" Xu Wei asked.

Xu Bingwu hesitated before saying, "I was just released from the police station and wanted to come to university because I was worried about mom. On the way, I met a classmate. She saw me walking, so she told me to get on and drove me here."

"Mom is in the hospital, why did you come to university? And since your classmate brought you here, how did you even start fighting?" Xu Wei reproached.

Xu Bingwu looked down and said, "I have some money in my room, I wanted to buy some bones and make a soup for mom. And, Sister, I don't want to keep studying. I want to find a job."

When Xu Wei heard this, her eyes turned red. She patted Xu Bingwu's head and said, "I will take care of mum's things, you're not allowed to say such words again. Study hard, don't get into fights again."

"I didn't start a fight. My friend brought me to the university gate, but her friend saw us. He thought there was something between us and came up to hit me," Xu Bingwu said.

Xu Wei's face turned red of anger, "These people are so shameless. Why didn't your classmate explain things?"

"She dropped me off at the entrance and went inside, so she didn't see anything," Xu Bingwu said.

"Then couldn't you explain that-" Xu Wei stopped half way. She knew that she couldn't blame her brother - men needed to keep face. He would lose face if he tried to explain things immediately. And looking at how Xu Bingwu was acting, he might have been interested in that classmate.

She sighed and said, "Ok, let's get you patched up at the hospital and then get something to eat. You don't need to worry about our situation anymore. I earned some money, you should just focus on studying."

Then, she laughed awkwardly looking at Ye Mo.

"Punk, you haven't left yet? If I see you talk to Xiao Yin again, I will break your mouth," three young men walked out of the supermarket and came over.

Xu Wei saw that these men wouldn't let go of her brother, so she was about to reproach them when someone else said, "Wei Qian, what do you mean?"

Ye Mo looked at the girl who had just spoken, and he happened to know her. It was that very annoying Xiao Yin from the plane. He had cured her mother, but she kept on saying he was a fraud.

"Did you hit Xu Bingwu? Wei Qian, how can you be so shameless? So what if I talk to my classmate? Who are you? Do you think I can't live without your little support? You piece of trash!" Wei Qian was sworn speechless.

But Xiao Yin wasn't done yet, she started calling the police.

"Xiao Yin," the young man's expression turned bad, but he didn't dare refute. He knew she was right, the Shen family could easily destroy a jewelry merchant's son.

"Don't call me that." The girl finished the call and then said to Xu Bingwu, "Sorry, Xu Bingwu, I just wanted to help you. I didn't think you end up meeting scum like him."

"Oh, it's fine. Shen Yin, this is my sister Xu Wei, and this is my sister's friend, Ye Mo," Xu Bingwu pointed at them as he spoke. He was very uneasy in front of Shen Yin.

Hearing this, Shen Yin started to study Ye Mo without blinking.

Xu Wei and Xu Bingwu looked strangely at Shen Yin. Ye Mo was very ferocious and ugly-looking in that moment, how could Shen Yin be so interested in Ye Mo?

Xu Bingwu felt a bit bitter. He was much better than Ye Mo in terms of age and looks, why had Shen Yin noticed Ye Mo as soon as she saw him?

"Are you really called Ye Mo?" Shen Yin suddenly asked after having studied him for while. She looked at Ye Mo's eyes, and then she suddenly seemed surprised and joyful.

He realized that she must've recognized him, but she just wasn't too sure due to the difference in appearance.

Although he didn't have a good impression of her, Ye Mo still nodded but didn't say anything.

Shen Yin's eyes made Xu Wei feel uncomfortable. It was as though she was trying to take off Ye Mo's clothes and see through him.

"Ye Mo, Xiao Wu, let's go. I still need to go to the hospital to see my mum," Xu Wei said.

Xu Bingwu suddenly said, "Sister, how is mom doing? I was so worried."

Seeing her brother's desperate eyes, she could only say, "Xiao Wu, don't worry. Mom will be out of the hospital soon. Brother Ye will treat mum, his medical skills are very good."

"Oh, so Brother Ye is a doctor." Xu Bingwu breathed at ease. He had thought his sister had had no choice but to find a sugar daddy.

Hearing this, Shen Yin's eyes brightened up, she walked to Ye Mo and asked, "Are you really a doctor?"

Ye Mo sneered, but he still didn't say anything.

"My uncle has been in bed for half a year, I want you to have a look at him, Magical Doctor Ye," Shen Yin said hesitantly.

Ye Mo could tell what she meant, but a flash of disgust crossed his eyes. He waved his hand and said, "Move aside, I don't want to cheat your family's money."

"Huh- It really is you, Magical Doctor Ye. I'm sorry, I was blind last time we met, and I suspected you were a fraud." Shen Yin held onto Ye Mo's leg and knelt down.

Ye Mo pushed her away and said coldly, "I'll repeat it again: your family's business has nothing to do with me. I won't help, no matter what you say. I don't need such a small amount of money from your family and you wouldn't even be able to pay the medical bills."

Everyone was shocked. They all knew that Shen Yin was from the Shen family, and no one would dare abuse the Shen family's people in Jin City. However, Shen Yin had knelt down to this man, and yet the man still had an indifferent expression.

What shocked them the most was that the bearded man had said the Shen family couldn't pay for the medical bills. If the Shen family's was little money, then no one in the entire city was rich. The Shen family was one of the wealthiest families even in the whole country of China.

What everyone didn't expect was that Shen Yin instead said, "Sorry, Doctor Ye. I'm just grateful from the bottom of my heart that you saved my mom, Qingkui. I'm not asking you to treat my uncle."

Chapter 623: Horny Woman

"Magical Doctor Ye, please forgive my insolence. If possible, I wish to treat you to dinner as thanks for my mother," Shen Yin said.

Sometimes, what you learned from books was incomparable to reality. When you thought you knew everything and were sure that everything outside of your sphere of knowledge couldn't possibly exist, you would think that magical things like Ye Mo's charms would be nothing but a joke. But once you truly experienced something like it, you would realize that the joke was on you.

As least Shen Yin felt that her state of mind and way of thinking had changed a lot ever since coming back, and she was no longer superficial and so full of herself.

A police car soon arrived, and a policeman greeted Shen Yin before taking away Wei Qian and his gang without hesitation. Ye Mo knew that Shen Yin's family was quite powerful, but no matter what, he didn't want to be involved with them.

"Sorry, I already have arrangements for tonight. I'm going to Teng Wang Restaurant. As for your gratitude, you've already paid me, so it doesn't matter," Ye Mo turned her offer down.

Shen Yin heard this and desperately asked, "Then how about tomorrow?"

"Tomorrow won't work either, I'm leaving tomorrow. Let's go, Xu Wei." Then, Ye Mo turned around and left with Xu Wei and Xu Bingwu.

Shen Yin knew that people like Ye Mo were hard to meet, and it was already luck amongst luck that she could see him twice. She only had one chance, and she wasn't going to let it go. He said he would be at Teng Wang Restaurant, so she would wait at the door and just shamelessly join his company.

Thinking about this, Shen Yin walked away with a hopeful face.

"Brother Ye, are you really a doctor?" Xu Bingwu still asked in disbelief. Who in the university didn't know about Shen Yin's pride, yet she was that respectful to Ye Mo. Ye Mo must be a truly capable person.

Ye Mo knew what Xu Bingwu was thinking and smiled, "Don't worry, even if I didn't cure your mother, your sister now has enough money to cure her."

Hearing this, Xu Bingwu looked at Xu Wei.

Xu Wei could only say, "Ye Mo is also a stone gambling master, and when he took me along, he won six-six million for me."

"What?! Six million?" Xu Bingwu was dumbfounded. With six million, every problem their family had would be solved.

Teng Wang Restaurant, it was a rather luxurious place in Jin City.

When Ye Mo arrived, it was already dark. Xu Wei's mother had had a kidney failure due to long term fatigue. Ye Mo only needed two pills to cure that. All her mother needed to do now was to rest for a while.

Xu Wei knew that Ye Mo would be busy in the evening, so she left him alone and stayed with her brother in the hospital.

Ye Mo really was busy. Usually, he wouldn't want to waste time eating with merchants like Luo Zilian. It wasn't that he was arrogant but that he wouldn't ever have any reason to interact with their lives. After this thing was over, he would probably go back to Luo Yue to live there for a while and then go to the small world to find the Bitter Ten Years.

With a place of his own, Ye Mo's only pursuit was to reach higher states of cultivation.

The main reason why Ye Mo did come this evening was to ask them if they knew about the auction. If they did, he might find the Five Element Rock that night. If they didn't, he would go find Pan Sheng. Not everyone would know about a high level auction like this.

The first person he saw at the door was actually Shen Yin. He immediately understood why she was there, but no matter what she had to say, he wouldn't help that easily.

"Magical Doctor Ye!" Shen Yin quickly greeted.

Ye Mo frowned, "I'm not a doctor. I only treat people occasionally when I'm out of money."

"Um, Brother Ye, I came to eat with you, so, so-" Shen Yin's face was blushing. She really was embarrassed. The young girl of the Shen family was shamelessly joining someone else for dinner.

Ye Mo sighed. If he still didn't agree, that would be too cold, so he said, "Okay, come up together with me then."

Hearing this, Shen Yin immediately rejoiced, "Thank you, Brother Ye, for giving me this chance."

Right at that moment, two people came out and quickly greeted Ye Mo.

"Mr Ye, it's really nice to see you." When Hu Dan saw Ye Mo, the joy on his face was genuine.

Luo Zilian followed behind and was also happy with Ye Mo's arrival, but they soon saw that another girl had come with Ye Mo.

"Miss Shen Yin from the Shen family?" Luo Zilian recognized her immediately.

"Yes, may I ask who you are?" Shen Yin didn't know Luo Zilian.

Luo Zilian quickly replied, "I went to Elder Shen's 90th birthday two years ago, and I saw you there, but you might not have noticed me.

Because Ye Mo was the main focus of this dinner, the people got along pretty well, but Luo Zilian moved closer to Ye Mo from time to time which made Shen Yin very uncomfortable. She felt like the woman was like a horny cat. She looked like an astute woman who fully utilized her privileges.

Shen Yin knew that Ye Mo wasn't some bearded tough guy and felt that if someone of Ye Mo's level was seduced to bed by Luo Zilian it would be desecration, but she couldn't really start doing the same as what Luo Zilian was doing or say anything to Ye Mo. This made her very anxious.

Shen Yin didn't doubt that Luo Zilian would be able to seduce Ye Mo to bed. She had been in the Shen family for too long, and she knew that the relationships of wealthy men and women were very promiscuous. There was no such man who didn't cheat, especially when confronted with a very mature and seductive woman.

Hu Dan also saw what was going on and felt like he had made a wrong move. He should've gotten a beautiful girl to come too. Luo Zilian did indeed want to get Ye Mo to bed with her. She was an astute woman. Everyone had just brushed it off as Ye Mo being very capable during the day, but she had a different view.

She thought that the reason why Ye Mo had had a 100% success rate and knew what was inside the rock up front couldn't be explained just by capability. He must have had some special way to see what was inside the rocks.

Whether it was some special glasses or some high tech thing, she wanted to get her hands on it. So what if she had to sleep with a big bearded dude for a few nights? As long as she could get it, she wouldn't mind sleeping with him for a year.

Although she wasn't a woman any random man could take to bed, this bearded man had the right to have some fun with her.

Chapter 624: Auction at Sea

Ye Mo sneered. He of course knew what Luo Zilian was thinking. Although the dinner had just started, he already didn't want to continue. He said to Luo Zilian, "Thank you, CEO Luo, for getting rid of those hoodlums. It saved me from being robbed."

Luo Zilian was shook. She didn't expect Ye Mo to have noticed that. She had underestimated him.

She had been planning on taking the less subtle approach if he didn't comply and letting him know that she helped him send away a lot of those gangsters. If she hadn't, he wouldn't even be able to leave the city. But now it seemed that he was no simple person, and his tone was even a bit sardonic when he mentioned the hoodlums. One could see that he wouldn't have had to be scared even if she hadn't intervened.

Ye Mo went on to ignore Luo Zilian and raised the cup to Hu Dan and said, "Brother Hu, I heard there's going to be a big auction in this city and that a colourful stone is to be sold. Is that the case?"

Hu Dan toasted with Ye Mo and replied, "Was there such a thing? How come I don't know? CEO Luo, have you heard of it?"

Hu Dan was also unhappy with Luo Zilian being so horny.

"Euhm, no, I didn't know either." Luo Zilian returned to her senses, but her reply was rushed. Ye Mo's words had made her feel like she'd lost control of the situation.

According to her plan, everything should have been under her control. When Ye Mo came, she would get Ye Mo drunk and take him to her place and suck him dry. Ye Mo's words, however, had made her lose control.

Shen Yin said, "Brother Ye, it's usually my cousin who represents the Shen family to go to auctions, I can ask for you."

Seeing Hu Dan and Luo Zilian not know about the auction, Ye Mo was disappointed. Theoretically, wealthy people like Hu Dan should be able to know about these high level auctions, but even he didn't know. It would seem like this auction wasn't simple, or maybe that old man in Jiutang had been lying to him?

Ye Mo nodded, "Please call your cousin right away then."

If he had been lied to, he wouldn't mind going back and taking everything in Jiutang's Gem Banner.

Shen Yin didn't call inside, she went outside to call. In the meantime, perhaps feeling a bit concerned, Luo Zilian didn't behave like before.

Hu Dan said, "I've heard of Shen Yin's cousin. She's the eldest daughter of the Shen family, a business genius. That Elder Shen loves her a lot, and she controls all the businesses of the Shen family. She could be said to be the most powerful person in the Shen family other than Elder Shen himself. Now that Elder Shen died, though, the Shen family members have started fighting, and they didn't let her keep controlling all those businesses."

Luo Zilian intervened, "It's said that the eldest daughter of the Shen family is very ugly, but I don't know if that is true."

Hu Dan laughed, "This might be just gossip, but it is true that two years ago when the face preserving pill appeared in Hong Kong, Elder Shen sent people to try to buy it, but they didn't succeed."

At this moment, Shen Yin ran in and said, "Brother Ye, that auction you mentioned does exist. It's about to start right now. It's on a cruiser at sea. My cousin just sent me everything, and she is there, but I'm afraid you're out of time."

Ye Mo was angry. That Luo Yu tricked him indeed! He misled him in terms of the date, and if he hadn't met Shen Yin, he would've been fooled.

"Thank you, Shen Yin, I owe you one. I'll be leaving now, but I can help you with any one thing you want when I come back tomorrow. Thanks for the treat, Boss Hu. CEO Luo, see you next time." And Ye Mo had left.

Ye Mo was very desperate. If the auction ended, he would probably not be able to find the Five Element Rock again.

The remaining three looked at each other. Shen Yin only then realized that Ye Mo had said he would help her with something and immediately felt like the world was great.

Hu Dan was disappointed, but he was still happy to have met someone like Ye Mo. Luo Zilian felt the worst. She didn't accomplish even 1/10.000 of her goal, and she felt like hating Shen Yin with her whole heart, but Shen Yin was from the Shen family, and she couldn't mess with that.

At this moment, on the international sea region near North Korea, a huge cruiser was slowly cruising.

In the largest hall, a world-level auction was taking place. It was held by Huan Kong Auctions, the largest auction company in the world. They dared auction anything.

The cheapest thing to have been sold there had a price tag of almost 1 million USD. This was a place for the rich. A place for the rich to burn money.

You could sell anything there, as long as you could pay the auctioning price. Even if the item wasn't sold, you'd still need to pay the auctioning price. And if the item was sold, you'd have to pay a percentage on top of that.

Their credibility was world class, though, and all you had to worry about was getting the invitation. Those who could be invited were all global elites, and some countries even came incognito, because the auction didn't allow the direct intervention of governments. If you disguised as some wealthy person, however, no one would care.

Usually the auction would proceed at a constant rapid pace, but at this moment, it was different. An old, white man was standing on the stage, about to say something.

He scanned everyone and said, "Those who come to our auction are all global elites, and I believe that everyone knows the rules, yet someone still just sent a text message from the cruiser. Although our auction is open and just, we really don't want to see this happen again. You may contact people after the auction. Well then, let the auction continue."

Shen Qianqian subconsciously shivered. She knew of the rule, of course, but she also knew that this was her last time coming to the auction. Ever since Elder Shen passed away, she had been handing over everything under her control, and although she had been able to come that evening, she couldn't buy anything.

One message was a warning, but the second time, the Shen family would never be allowed to come again.

A blonde girl wearing revealing clothes carried a silver plate and went on stage. The auctioneer was also a white woman in her thirties with a good face who looked very formal.

"The next item is a mystical Gu bug from the Miao people of China. It's called a mind control Gu, and it comes with some simple instructions. The starting bid is 30 million, and each increment must be no lesser than 1 million."

"35 million." A screen was showing the bids.

"40 million."

"43 million."

The price soon rose to 50 million. The final bid was 56 million. The winner was a man mostly covered with a black scarf, but the part of his face that was revealed showed a crater-like face. The blonde girl was shaking as she walked up to the man.

The transaction process happened quickly.

Then, another young girl wearing clothes on only three points of her body carried out a gold plate. Inside the plate was a jade box.

Chapter 625: Borrowing Money

The formally dressed woman held up the box and opened it before saying, "This is a milky white stone, and one can feel its spiritual properties when holding it. The Chinese call it a chi stone. It's very helpful for those cultivating ancient martial arts and mutant powers. If you don't cultivate, you can wear it and it will make you very healthy."

The stone emitted a faint white aura, showing its extraordinary properties. It was even prettier than white jade.

"The starting bid is 50 million, and each increment must be no lower than 1 million." The scene fell into a brief silence.

The rock looked good, but this price was too absurd. 50 million wasn't very much to a lot of the people there, but it was no small number either. Was it worth it buying a rock for that much money?

But still, some people didn't mind.

"100 million."

Almost everyone looked at the man who made the bid. It was the same man who bought the Gu bug. Looking at his bleak outlook, those around him didn't dare make a bid.

He brought it to 100 million in one bid, implying that those who competed with him would be his enemy. No one here wanted to have enmity with such a scary man over a not-that-important rock.

No one would dare hurt anyone during the auction, but that wasn't the case after the auction was over.

"100 million going once!"

"100 million going twice - is no one else going to bid?" The auctioneer was helpless. The person who owned the rock told them it would sell for a heavenly price, yet it stopped at 100 million.

But she couldn't say anything to the man. Everyone knew that he was threatening people, but he hadn't really said anything.

"How much per increment again?" a voice suddenly appeared in the scene.

Shen Qianqian just realized that there was suddenly a bearded man next to her with a knife scar on his face.

That person was Ye Mo of course. If it weren't for the faint spirit chi emitted by the rock, he would have taken a while longer to find the place, so he felt lucky.

He had been planning on finding the Five Element Rock above everything, but now he had to get this spirit stone first no matter what.

Everyone heard Ye Mo's voice appear suddenly, but no one thought that he would've just arrived as that was impossible.

"1 million," Shen Qianqian replied.

"Oh - then I'll bid 110 million," Ye Mo said.

Hearing this, the woman smiled, "Sir, please have a seat and use the device on your chair to make a bid."

Noticing that Ye Mo didn't speak English very well, Shen Qianqian quickly said, "There's an empty seat here. Sit down first and then you can use the device to make a bid."

She didn't know how the bearded man had come in, but she had the ability to remember everyone who did, and she hadn't seen this big beard, so she thought, 'He couldn't have arrived only now, right?'

Ye Mo felt a little awkward. He was too excited just then. He had come to look for the Five Element Rock, but he found spirit stones as well - he was too lucky!

Ye Mo sat down and soon made his bid. He was competing with the bleak man for the spirit stone, so Ye Mo's actions caught everyone's attention.

That man looked at Ye Mo and sneered, bidding 120 million without hesitation.

Ye Mo wanted to keep making a bid, but Shen Qianqian said, "If that stone isn't extremely important to you, I suggest you don't make anymore bids. That man isn't simple."

Ye Mo scanned Shen Qianqian. She also wore a facemask, but Ye Mo didn't even scan her face. His mind was on getting the spirit stone no matter how extraordinary that bleak man might be.

"130 million." Ye Mo's bid made people realize that this chi stone had to be very extraordinary after all. Otherwise, there wouldn't be two people spending that much money to fight over it.

The bleak man stopped making bids for some reason. He just glanced coldly at Ye Mo and kept his silence.

The girl walked up to Ye Mo and asked Ye Mo to pay on the spot. Ye Mo just realized that he had given his card away. He had 700 million in cash, but he couldn't just suddenly take out a large pile of cash.

Everyone quickly noticed Ye Mo's expression, and the bleak man sneered, "You're not here to cause trouble, are you? You made a bid, but you don't have the money? Hmpf!"

He knew that the auction holder would deal with Ye Mo for sure.

Even Shen Qianqian looked worriedly at Ye Mo. It could cost him his life if he was causing trouble there. There were guns everywhere.

Ye Mo looked awkwardly at the people around him, "Who can lend me 130 million? I promise I will return it quickly."

Ye Mo didn't want to ask Xu Yuehua, because some governments knew their account and if Xu Yuehua transferred the money, people would know that Luo Yue had bought the spirit stone.

This wasn't the most important thing. What was more important was that Luo Yue was different from before. Luo Yue's money belonged to national reserves, so it wouldn't be good for him to take out that money for private use.

Ye Mo's words made everyone silent. Then, quiet discussions started all around. If this happened elsewhere, perhaps it would be funny, but here, it would cost him his life.

As soon as Ye Mo said this, armored soldiers came into the scene.

Although Ye Mo could just take it and leave, that would be too embarrassing. That would simply be using his power to rob them.

Everyone including Shen Qianqian didn't want to lend Ye Mo money. This was 100 million USD after all.

Ye Mo really didn't want to fight as he still hadn't found the Five Element Rock yet.

He felt like Shen Qianqian seemed easy to talk to, so he said to her, "Miss, if you lend me 150 million, I promise I will pay you back 200 million."

Seeing the genuine look in Ye Mo's eyes, Shen Qianqian explained nicely, "I'm sorry, it's not that I don't want to lend you, but we've never met before, and I don't have much money. I need the money for pills, so I can't lend that to you now."

She had only saved up around 200 million USD after so many years of hard work, how could she lend it away to some random bearded dude?

Her words were clear, but Ye Mo asked without thinking too much about it, "What pills do you want? Perhaps I have some."

Chapter 626: Target Found

"I want a face preserving pill," Shen Qianqian sighed. She was prepared to leave. The reason why she had come was to try her luck and see if she could buy a face preserving pill.

Ye Mo clapped, "Perfect, I happen to have one. I'll give you the pill, and you help me pay that 130 million."

"You-" Shen Qianqian looked at Ye Mo speechlessly. She didn't think there would be such a person. She might look soft on the outside, but she was pretty tough on the inside. Even though Ye Mo was like this, she still didn't want to curse him. She always tried not to offend anyone.

The reason why Elder Shen had placed her as the controller of the Shen family businesses was partly due to her commercial capabilities, but mostly due to her ability to deal with people.

But Ye Mo was being too oppressive.

The people who heard this instantaneously started sneering. Who there wasn't an astute businessman? Who would believe such words! A very serious auction had become comical all of a sudden due to Ye Mo.

Ye Mo took out a bottle with the face preserving pill and gave it to Shen Qianqian. "Take a look. If it's what you're looking for, lend the money to me."

Shen Qianqian took the bottle helplessly, but before she could even open it, six men with guns walked up to Ye Mo.

"Sir, if you're not buying anything, please leave. This is not a place for you to cause trouble," the bulky man in the lead said as he grasped his gun tightly. From his tone, it would seem that if Ye Mo resisted even a little, he would open fire.

Ye Mo sneered, "How much time do I have after winning a bid to close the deal?"

"10 minutes," the girl holding the plate said in Chinese.

"Has it been ten minutes already?" Ye Mo asked coldly.

"No."

Ye Mo slammed the table, "Since it hasn't been ten minutes yet, why are you coming at me with guns? Are you going to rob me? Can't you see I'm gathering funds?"

"Gathering funds? Were you ever even planning on paying the money? You don't have any money on you and you're asking strangers for money, do you think everyone except for you is an idiot?" a yellow-skinned man spoke.

At this moment, Shen Qianqian suddenly said shakily, "I- I will pay for him."

Then, she immediately started performing the transaction.

Everyone looked at this comical scene in shock. That girl actually lent the man the money!

Those men with guns saw that the money had been paid, so they could only leave. Ye Mo never intended on teaching them a lesson.

With the spirit stone in hand, Ye Mo felt very happy. He would ask where it came from later.

"Is this really a face preserving pill?" After everyone left them alone, Shen Qianqian asked Ye Mo shakily.

"Of course, do you think I'm lying to you?" Ye Mo took the spirit stone and commented.

"No, but my grandpa took me to try to buy this pill once, but at first we weren't even sure if the pill was real and we didn't have that much money at the time, so we didn't get it. But I've seen the pill since then, and it does look exactly like this." Shen Qianqian was trying to control her excitement.

Ye Mo nodded and didn't speak any further. He scanned his spirit sense around and didn't find the Five Element Rock.

"Um, I don't have enough money right now, but can you sell me this pill? Don't worry, I'll pay you however much is needed," Shen Qianqian said.

Ye Mo smiled. Shen Qianqian blushed.

"I'm from the Shen family in Jin City, so don't worry, I will definitely-" Ye Mo stopped her mid-sentence.

"You're Shen Qianqian?" Ye Mo immediately asked.

"Yes, I'm Shen Qianqian. Do you know me?" Shen Qianqian had never seen Ye Mo before.

Ye Mo shook his head and said, "I don't know you, but I was eating with Shen Yin a moment ago when I heard that you were at the auction here, so I came."

"What?!" Shen Qianqian looked at Ye Mo as though he were a ghost. He had been eating with Shen Qianqian a moment ago and now he was here? They were at sea!

"Uhm." Ye Mo touched his nose awkwardly. He realized he'd spilled the beans. He had been in Jin City just then, how could he have come to the cruiser so quickly?

Ye Mo shut his mouth and didn't bother trying to explain.

Shen Qianqian also gradually calmed down and didn't ask how Ye Mo got there. Although she didn't know how Ye Mo had come to the cruiser and gotten inside, she knew Ye Mo was no ordinary person.

"How do you know Shen Yin?" Shen Qianqian asked after a while.

Ye Mo breathed a sigh of relief. He'd feared that Shen Qianqian would ask him how he got there.

"This one time, I was on the plane from San Francisco to Hong Kong, and I met Shen Yin there when I helped her mom Qing Kui," Ye Mo said casually.

"What, you're that 'Magical Doctor Ye', Ye Mo?!" Shen Qianqian got up subconsciously but quickly sat down upon remembering her surroundings.

"Yes, I am. Thank you for today - if you hadn't messaged Shen Yin, I wouldn't have known that the auction was here." Ye Mo had a good impression of her. She didn't ask what shouldn't be asked.

Shen Qianqian came to understand why Ye Mo had something like the face preserving pill. If he really could cure patients with charms like Shen Yin said, no wonder he had the pill. She had laughed it off when Shen Yin told her about him, but now that she saw Ye Mo combined with the information he'd accidentally spilled, she confirmed that Ye Mo was indeed no ordinary person. His face was most likely also a disguise, because it didn't fit Shen Yin's description.

The auction went on, but Shen Yin noticed that Ye Mo had closed his eyes. He wasn't interested in anything else.

She didn't disturb Ye Mo and carefully took the face preserving pill. It melted instantaneously as cool streams started flowing across her body.

Ye Mo noticed but didn't care. He had started searching every corner with his spirit sense.

An hour later, Shen Qianqian felt like her face was crawling with ants. She carefully looked at Ye Mo before taking out a mirror and looked at herself.

The large patches of red and black had become mere powder on her face. She wiped it, and it all came off immediately. A pristine face appeared on the surface of her mirror.

Shen Qianqian couldn't help but tear up. For many years, she hadn't dared show her face. Now, her face had finally gone back to what it was before she got injured.

She had been working so hard to earn money for the family just so that she could cure her face, and now, like a dream, she had obtained the face preserving pill.

Shen Qianqian subconsciously looked at Ye Mo and was full of gratitude. She wiped her eyes and said, "Thank you, Doctor Ye."

Ye Mo's eyes remained closed, but he suddenly smiled and waved his hand, "Congratulations on removing the poison and getting your looks back. No need to thank me, you properly paid for it."

"You know my appearance was caused by poison?" Shen Qianqian looked strangely at Ye Mo. Even Elder Shen hadn't figured it out, how did Ye Mo know?"

"Did you forget that I'm 'Magical Doctor Ye'?" Ye Mo said casually, but his mood wasn't casual at all. He searched again and again, but there were no signs of the Five Element Rock.

"Ladies and gentlemen, the auction ends here, and our next stop is Qiu Zhou Island. I hope everyone had a good time." Ye Mo became completely disappointed when the auction ended.

Just when everyone was leaving, Ye Mo's eyes were filled with joy and surprise as he stared at a man with a camera on his chest.

Chapter 627: Kill All

Shen Qianqian saw that Ye Mo wasn't in a hurry to go out, so she didn't go yet either. However, when almost everyone had left and she saw that Ye Mo still had no intentions to go, she said goodbye and left first.

Ye Mo's spirit sense was locked onto that man. He had a camera hanging around his neck, but Ye Mo knew that the camera was hollow and had a small bag inside. His spirit sense couldn't see through it, but the bag covered something a bit larger than a fist.

It wasn't the first time Ye Mo encountered things that could block spirit sense. The first time was that wooden cupboard in which the woman in the ghost building had been. And now, this camera also had a small wooden box inside.

The man seemed to sense that someone was staring at him, as he looked around before going into the hall.

Ye Mo took back his spirit sense, gasping at the man's accurate senses. Even earth level masters wouldn't be able to notice his spirit sense as long as it didn't cause large ripples. Of course, if there were large chi ripples, they were much easier to be noticed. The man who held the camera looked like an ordinary person, yet he had noticed his spirit sense.

Although Ye Mo hadn't seen what was inside the box, he was 90 percent sure that it was the Five Element Rock. He didn't understand why the rock was in that person's hands without being auctioned, though.

No matter what, that person wouldn't be able to keep it now that Ye Mo had found it.

Thinking like this, Ye Mo got up and noticed only then that everyone had gone out already. He saw Shen Qianqian in front of him, so Ye Mo ran to catch up with her.

Meanwhile, Shen Qianqian was stopped as soon as she walked out of the hall by that bleak man.

"You're from the Shen family, aren't you? You're quite bold, daring to lend money to someone who wants to steal something that belongs to me. If I tell you that that man will die soon and that so will all of the Shen family, will you regret it? Heh, I heard you're ugly, but to me, as long as it's a woman, I can f*ck to death! As for looks, I don't care." Every single word the man spoke made Shen Qianqian shiver.

Even though there were people nearby, the bleak man had said everything without hesitation. Everyone who heard this moved away and didn't even dare look at him.

"You don't care, but I care. Look at your ugly face, even the maggots squirming in toilets are better-looking than you. Are you trying to disgust me by standing here or something?" Ye Mo's voice sounded.

Everyone heard Ye Mo's words, but no one dared to laugh. If they offended this man, perhaps the next moment, they would be drowning in the sea. No one would care if you died on this ship.

Shen Qianqian was losing her mind. She had vaguely guessed who this person was by then and was getting more and more worried. After Ye Mo's voice sounded, she hid behind Ye Mo without hesitation.

The bleak man glared cruelly at Ye Mo. He didn't think there would really be people in this world who didn't fear death. He hadn't even gone looking for Ye Mo, yet Ye Mo came up to him first.

"Hahaha!" the man laughed, "I didn't think I, Yan Wuliang, would be so unknown when I have only been out for a couple of years."

The man was laughing, but his face didn't wear a smile at all. He suddenly stopped and then said word by word, "If I don't make you regret living in this world, I'm a dog."

"Yan Wuliang? Which bug are you? I've never heard of you, but please stop insulting dogs." Ye Mo sneered and then spoke to Shen Qianqian, "Go inside, I'm going to burn this bug. I'll ask you some questions later."

Ye Mo didn't know Yan Wuliang, but that didn't mean other people didn't know. As those few people standing far away heard the name Yan Wuliang, they immediately ran as far as they could. Soon, the entire ship was discussing Yan Wuliang. He hailed from Miao Jiang and had the nickname of 'Kill All'. All those who offended him were killed, and he dealt with women all the more cruelly.

If that man really was Yan Wuliang, then what he'd said to Shen Qianqian was no lie. He never needed to commit the act of killing himself as he had tens of types of Gu bugs that could kill for him. The reason for his face being like a crater was apparently a Gu bug rebelling against him. But then as well, he simply killed that Gu bug.

In many people's eyes, Yan Wuliang was a demon. Perhaps demons would be more good-hearted than him. People didn't even dare look at the people he'd killed.

Shen Qianqian heard Ye Mo's words and didn't dare stay there. When she heard the man confirm that he was Yan Wuliang, all the blood from her face went away. She subconsciously looked back at Ye Mo but no longer had the courage to talk to him.

"Very well, you have balls!" Yan Wuliang voiced an extremely angry snarl. He didn't expect this bearded man to remain so cocky even after he said his name.

Even though this wasn't the right place to be fighting, he waved his hand and shot a few black rays at Ye Mo like lightning nonetheless.

Meanwhile, four people were sitting in a luxurious room with a serious face.

It was three men and one woman. The woman was less than thirty and had a clear face. She looked very academic. Two of the three men looked Asian while one was a short, black man. The person who had the camera was among them.

"We just confirmed that the person who bought the mind controlling Gu is Yan Wuliang from Miao Jiang. He's talking to the bearded man about the chi stone as we speak," the woman said.

Hearing this, one man asked, "Sophia, have you found out who the man who bought the chi stone is? When did he even arrive? How come we have no data of him?"

Sophia replied, "Not yet, but there's no recording on the cameras of the man entering the auction site. It's as though he just suddenly appeared, or he came in disguise. The auction party did say that one more person went out than the amount of people who came in."

The man with the camera said, "I don't think this man appeared out of nowhere. Was the surveillance camera tampered with? Let's not rush to conclusions first. Since that person spent a large sum buying our chi stone, he must be an ancient martial artist. If he's from some hidden sect, we can talk it out with him."

The other man nodded, "We need to talk for sure, but now that he's been targeted by Yan Wuliang, we don't know how this will end. Yan Wuliang's a mad man, and we have important business this time, so we shouldn't mess with him for now. As for the bearded guy, he probably really did give the true face preserving pill to Shen Yanyan. No ordinary person can take that out. Bobby, keep a close eye on that bearded man and Yan Wuliang."

"Yes, Captain Song Benlang," the short, black man replied and left the room.

Then, the captain looked at the cameraman and asked, "Cassy, did you really feel someone watching you before?"

"Yes, definitely. I felt that person look very closely, like I was being seen through by him. I didn't dare stay outside, so I came in immediately," Cassy said worriedly.

Song Benlang heard this and commented without thinking, "Cassy, why don't you give the thing to Sophia and we let her put it inside her bra. We must keep the Five Colored Rock safe no matter what."

Chapter 628: Mysterious Metal Card

Before the black rays reached Ye Mo, Ye Mo waved his hand, and sparks flickered. The black ray turned to dust immediately.

Before Yan Wuliang could react, Ye Mo formed a grabbing motion in midair, and his chi formed a claw, clenching Yan Wuliang's throat and dragging him to a distant corner.

Yan Wuliang was scared sh*tless. The bearded man clearly hadn't grabbed him, but he felt an invisible hand grab him by the neck.

Was this the legendary qi materialization? Yan Wuliang's heart fell into a glacier thinking about it. Ye Mo dumped him onto a metal board.

"Who are you?" Yan Wuliang was no longer cocky like before. He asked that subconsciously and as soon as he did, he realized how shaky his tone was. He had killed countless people in his life, but now that it was his turn, he feared death.

Ye Mo sneered, "Weren't you going to kill me, huh? Now I'm here, so why are you asking me who I am? A mere yellow level dares be this cocky!"

"Qianbei, I was blind, please have mercy, I'll do whatever you want!" Yan Wuliang said without thinking. He didn't even dare look up. This bearded man could even see his power level, and he could materialize his qi - he had to be absurdly strong.

Ye Mo took out a chair from somewhere and sat down, then he took out the spirit stone and asked, "Why did you want this?"

"Wanbei should die, if I knew Qianbei wanted it, wanbei-"

"Don't talk garbage, I asked you why you wanted it!" Ye Mo yelled. He felt strange. When he first tossed Yan Wuliang away, he was very scared, but now he didn't seem as scared as before.

Yan Wuliang replied, "This is called a qi stone, and it has a very important use. When ancient martial artists are about to break through, they can shatter the stone and eat it to break through quickly without any side effects."

Hearing this, Ye Mo was very disappointed. He thought Yan Wuliang had fought over it because he knew what it was. But the guy didn't even know how to use it properly! Were spirit stones for eating?

"Have you ever seen one before?" Ye Mo asked.

Yan Wuliang nodded, "Yes, my master got one before, and he used it to reach the earth level."

"Where did your master get it from?" Ye Mo asked again.

Yan Wuliang shook his head, "That I don't know, but I can tell you where my master died, just please have mercy on me."

Ye Mo sneered, "Have mercy? Easy for you to say. I didn't get anything at all after being threatened by you, and now you want me to forgive you?"

"Qianbei, although you didn't get anything, I'm willing to give all my Gu bugs to you, and I just got a mind control bug too-"

Before he finished, Ye Mo stopped him, "I'm not interested in your bugs. That's far from enough to save your life."

Unexpectedly, Yan Wuliang laughed, "Qianbei, wanbei's Wan Gu Sect has a cultivation method thanks to which I can use a secret way to become a ghoul if I die. You may not believe this, but I can swear it's the truth. Qianbei can kill me, but after I die and turn into a ghoul, I can bite back-"

Ye Mo sneered, "Is that your bargaining chip? That's far from enough to threaten me. I met a guy called Ren Sha in Hong Kong, he also kept Gu, and he threatened me too. What a pity, I burned his soul. Now, I meet someone else who threatens me again. It seems like your life ends here, I'll make sure to annihilate your soul too."

Hearing this, Yan Wuliang's face changed drastically, and he asked worriedly, "Qianbei, you killed Martial Brother Ren?"

Yan Wuliang knew Ren Sha too well - he was the genius of the Wan Gu Sect. Although Ren Sha was his martial brother, he was much stronger than him. Yet, a genius like him died to this big beard and even his soul was annihilated.

Yan Wuliang thought quickly and immediately knew that if what the bearded man said was true, then he might really be done for.

"Don't kill me Qianbei, have mercy. My master had a lot of other treasures too, if you let me go I can tell you everything," Yan Wuliang uttered worriedly.

Ye Mo couldn't even be bothered to listen, he took out a lighter and pointed the fire at Yan Wuliang. Yan Wuliang was quickly enveloped in fire.

Afterwards, Ye Mo turned around to see a short, black man run away quickly and thought, 'There's quite a lot of small fries on this boat.'

Yan Wuliang was burning, and the Gu bugs flew out of his body but none could run away. It was just as he had said though - His soul didn't die immediately, and it looked at the fire in terror instead.

Ye Mo sneered and turned Yan Wuliang's soul to dust with another fireball. Before it died, it still didn't believe how the big beard was able to see him.

However, Ye Mo immediately noticed that there was something he hadn't burned away.

Ye Mo picked it up, and it was a palm-sized metal card with some simple drawings on it.

Ye Mo couldn't figure out what it was, but even metal should melt under his fireball. This metal card had stayed fine and cool.

Ye Mo couldn't tell what it was made of, so he put it away for later research.

The dust at the scene was blown away by the seawind as though nothing had happened.

That short, black man who had been watching him had never cultivated before, but he sure was quick on his feet.

Ye Mo didn't go find him immediately, he had more important things to do. He was going to find that camera guy and get the Five Element Rock.

Shen Qianqian had taken a shower and changed into a new pair of clothes. Although she still wore a veil on her face, she felt very different. If it wasn't for Yan Wuliang, she would be singing from joy.

But due to that terrifying man, she was waiting for Ye Mo anxiously instead. She was even thinking, 'If Ye Mo got killed by Yan Wuliang, what would the Shen family do?' But then she thought, 'Since Ye Mo was able to come here all the way from Jin City that quickly, he is definitely powerful.'

When she then saw Ye Mo walk over slowly, she finally relaxed.

"Brother Ye, thank you for today. When we arrive at Qi Zhou Island, I can take you around, there are many fun places to go. Now, let me treat you to a drink." Shen Qianqian didn't even mention Yan Wuliang, and her tone was very relaxed. This was her first time asking a guy out to play.

But Ye Mo wasn't in the mood to be drinking with her, so he smiled, "It was no big deal, and I still have some things to do, so..."

Ye Mo had been wanting to find that camera guy and had searched the entire cruiser, but when he finally found him, his heart sunk. The camera wasn't on him. Ye Mo did find the camera in some room a moment later, but there were nothing inside. Meanwhile, that camera guy was gambling.

Chapter 629: Unexpected Outcome

"By the way, come gamble with me for a bit." Ye Mo pulled Shen Qianqian into the casino.

Shen Qianqian didn't expect Ye Mo would have such a hobby. To be honest, she really hated those who gambled. No matter how wealthy you were, if you loved gambling, you would lose it all, but since Ye Mo wanted to gamble, she could only follow.

Ye Mo had become more careful after the camera disappeared from under his eyes.

He wouldn't be as obvious around the gambling man as he had been with Shen Qianqian just then. He didn't want to startle them and lose the Five Element Rock. If he could be noticed once, it could happen twice. He couldn't keep his spirit sense spread out constantly, but he could make it so that he would notice it if someone left.

Ye Mo had pulled Shen Qianqian along to borrow her card. After he gave his card to Sister Yan, he hadn't gotten a new account yet.

"How much money do you have on your card?" Ye Mo asked Shen Qianqian.

As Shen Qianqian heard this, she confirmed that Ye Mo had no money, but she still owed Ye Mo money for the pill, so she would give him all the money she had on her if Ye Mo needed it. Thinking about this, she said, "I have 50 million left."

"Then go buy five 10 million chips." The smallest chip was one thousand USD, while the highest was 10 million.

If Ye Mo lost five times, he would have lost everything.

Shen Qianqian wanted to remind Ye Mo, but thinking about the money as being all his, she couldn't control him.

Although there were a lot of people at the casino, there weren't many sitting at the VIP tables. Most were sitting on the outside and didn't bet that big.

Ye Mo saw the camera guy sitting at the innermost VIP table, and he seemed to be the croupier. Unlike in other casinos, you only needed to pay to play here, and the customers could be the croupiers themselves. Ye Mo wanted to make contact with that man, so he had to bet with him first. After he won all his money, he would talk to him.

Once again, Ye Mo searched the ship carefully with his spirit sense but still didn't find anything.

Right when Shen Qianqian came back with five chips, she saw Ye Mo frown up before he could even take the chips. "What's wrong?" Shen Qianqian asked.

Ye Mo saw that the man he wanted to approach was leaving his seat and went to the bar not far away.

Ye Mo coughed and said, "You go bet at the innermost table, I'm going to the bathroom."

Shen Qianqian looked at Ye Mo speechlessly and could only come to the table herself. She couldn't follow Ye Mo to the bathroom, could she?

Although she went to the table, Shen Qianqian did keep her eyes on Ye Mo and noticed that he wasn't going to the bathroom. Instead, he went to the bar.

That man ordered a glass of red wine and started chatting with the waitress.

Soon, Ye Mo noticed that the man had already glanced twice at a woman sitting in one corner. The girl looked very academic and had a cup of juice in front of her. The girl looked a little shy and seemed like the well-educated type. Accompanied with her sturdy and busty chest, she would make people want to do anything for her.

'So he came to chat up girls?' That's what Ye Mo thought, so he walked up to that girl without hesitation. At the same time, he kept his spirit sense on the man. The man was dazed but immediately returned to normal and casually chatted with the waitress, but Ye Mo knew that he had looked at him more than once.

The girl saw Ye Mo walk up to her and sat down. She was dazed and said in a soft and slow voice, "Sir-"

Ye Mo smiled, "Beautiful lady, thank you for calling me 'sir' - although I look a bit rough, I actually am indeed a very gentle man. I saw you sit here all by yourself, so I came to drink with you. You wouldn't mind, right?"

"Why would I, please have a seat." The girl blushed and was seemingly at a loss about where to place her hands, but there was a small smile on her face.

Ye Mo laughed to himself. This girl was interesting - she blushed from talking to strangers. What Ye Mo wanted was for the man at the bar to come up to him and save the girl. Then he would be able to look for trouble with the man without his friends suspecting him.

And thus, Ye Mo closed in on the girl and suddenly grabbed her hand, "Let me start the introductions. My name is Mo Ying, what is yours?"

"Ah!" The girl seemed startled by Ye Mo and quickly wanted to pull back her hand, but Ye Mo didn't let go. He kept his spirit sense on the man at the bar.

But for some reason, the man didn't come.

Had he misjudged something? Ye Mo let go of the girl's hand and sat down in disappointment.

Seeing this, the girl quickly said, "Euhm, my name is Sally. Sorry, but I don't really like doing that with strangers..."

Ye Mo smiled and waved his hand, "No problem, I just like being straightforward. If there's a girl I like, I will chase after her, and unless-"

Ye Mo wanted to say 'I won't leave unless I get the girl', but he suddenly paused. He thought something wasn't right. This girl was already blushing after exchanging only one sentence with him, she clearly appeared very conservative.

But when he'd held her hand, she had only blushed and hadn't had any other signs. Her pulse and heartbeat should've risen, but that didn't happen.

This girl was problematic - her blushing was fake.

Thinking about this, Ye Mo sat down and grabbed her hand again, smiling, "So, unless I get the girl, I won't stop."

At the same time, Ye Mo scanned the girl's body. Usually he didn't do that, but now that it was necessary, he did.

Ye Mo scanned her body but never scanned below her waist, because he didn't need to. He had found the box again - it was in this girl's bra!

Ye Mo wanted to laugh. He finally found it. No wonder that man kept looking over, they were conspirators. He wondered if that short, black man was with them too.

Ye Mo's spirit sense noticed another thing: the girl also had a Black Sun Badge in her bra which belonged to the Black Sun Empire.

So it was an old enemy! Ye Mo sneered. Seeing the girl silently pull her hand away, he scanned the man too, and the man also had a Black Sun Empire badge. Furthermore, Ye Mo noticed small black dots in each of their ears. Those had to be communication devices.

"Don't do this! I'm leaving." The girl pulled her hand away and wanted to get up to leave.

How could Ye Mo let her go just like that? Ye Mo would've taken the box out already if he wanted to, but he now wanted to put a spirit sense mark onto it to see where the HQ of the Black Sun Empire was.

"Sorry, I just like you too much. If you don't mind, give me the honor of one hug, and I will leave immediately," Ye Mo suddenly got up and said seriously.

Ye Mo was sure she wouldn't reject that request.

Chapter 630: Not Impossible

As Ye Mo expected, that academic-looking girl had a look of struggle in her eyes but eventually just looked down and didn't say anything.

Ye Mo smiled and walked to her side, but before he even hugged her, she put one arm in front of her chest. Other people would think that she was protecting her chest, but both Ye Mo and her knew fully well that she was protecting what was hidden in her bra.

Ye Mo grabbed the arm in front of her chest and lifted it up a little, just enough to block her vision, before saying, "Why are you so nervous? I just wanted a quick huh."

Ye Mo wasn't interested in hugging that type of woman. He just acted as though he did and took the thing out as quickly as he could. Then, he also put a spirit sense marked piece of gold inside.

It was the Five Element Rock indeed! Ye Mo was very excited. He dumped the rock in his ring and was no longer in the mood to talk to the woman. With his spirit sense mark on her, she wouldn't be able to escape.

Seeing Ye Mo move aside without really hugging her like he said, the girl felt strange and looked up at Ye Mo in confusion. Ye Mo smiled, "I like people with initiative. With those who aren't willing, I won't force it. Since you don't like me, then never mind. I'll be in the casino, so if you want to come find me, you can come over at any time."

Then, Ye Mo left.

The woman looked on as Ye Mo left. Her face kept changing before she finally felt her chest and saw that the thing was still there. Then, she left.

As the man Ye Mo cared about saw Ye Mo and the girl leave, he also got up and followed Ye Mo.

Even though Ye Mo had left, he kept his spirit sense on that woman. He knew that the woman would meet up with her friends soon. What was left for him to do now that he had the Five Element Rock was pretty easy.

When Ye Mo came to the casino, he saw Shen Qianqian sitting pitifully in a corner with only one chip in her hand. There had only been six people at the table before, but now there were thirteen.

"Why aren't you betting anymore?" Ye Mo asked.

Shen Qianqian said speechlessly, "If you still hadn't come, I would've changed the chip back to money. This is my last 10 million. If I lose it, I won't have anything on me except for some small change."

"You lost 40 million in one go? Also, don't tell me you only have this card?" Ye Mo was surprised to see Shen Qianqian's 'talent' for gambling.

Shen Qianqian shook her head, "I didn't lose it in one go, it was in 4 goes."

Ye Mo was speechless. Was there a difference?

Seeing Ye Mo's silence, Shen Qianqian spoke again, "I can really only use this card, and that's only because I opened it in Switzerland myself. My cards in China- Nevermind that."

At that moment, the man following Ye Mo also came to that table. He didn't seem to pay any heed to Ye Mo and just squeezed in.

The dealer saw the man come over and quickly moved aside, giving him his position. 'So they're together,' Ye Mo thought and scanned to see the man had a Black Sun Empire emblem.

Ye Mo sneered.

"Give me the chip, I will bet." Ye Mo took the chip from Shen Qianqian.

Shen Qianqian hesitated before saying, 'I only have this chip left, how about we switch it to ten chips of one million?'

She was scared that Ye Mo would lose it all in one go, and if Ye Mo really had no money on him like he said, then it wouldn't be good when they got to the island and she didn't have anything either.

"No need, what are the rules here?" Ye Mo asked.

Shen Qianqian saw people come over and quickly said, "You bet on small or big, not on a specific number, so the odds are 1 to 2. However, if you bet on the tiger, you lose almost for sure. Only throwing 18 counts as a tiger. The other tigers aren't admitted here."

Ye Mo saw the man with three dice and didn't expect that the odds of losing a bet on tiger would be so high. Conversely, it now seemed that he would only need to bet once.

The man picked up the black dice and put them in the cup. Many people started to focus their ears, but Ye Mo didn't mind that and said to Shen Qianqian, "Don't worry, I'll just bet this once."

Shen Qianqian sighed, thinking, 'You only have one chip, even if you wanted to bet more, you would need more money first.'

Suddenly, the man put the cup on the table.

Many people started to place bets and soon there were tens of millions on the table.

Ye Mo took out the 10 million chip and put it on the tiger.

Ye Mo's actions shocked Shen Qianqian. She quickly pulled Ye Mo back, "I've never seen a single tiger come out, you-"

"Haha, I know! But since I said that I'm only betting once and since the tiger has the highest reward, I want to go for it and try to win as much as possible." As soon as Ye Mo said this, the people around him were speechless.

The dealer stayed calm. He didn't believe anyone could cheat under such circumstances.

Although no one said anything because they didn't want to offend Ye Mo, many people did laugh at his insolence.

However, the few people who knew that Ye Mo had gone out with Yan Wuliang yet had still been able to come back fine knew that he was no simple character.

"Nevermind, do as you wish. The money is yours anyway," Shen Qianqian uttered speechlessly.

Ye Mo smiled and didn't say anything. He could see that it was an 8 inside the cup and that the three dice were stacked on top of each other, but to Ye Mo it was all too easy to make it three sixes.

In order to ensure fairness, usually, a third party would remove the cup, and they wouldn't be allowed to use their hand. The bets were made, and the cup was about to be removed as the dealer smiled. He wasn't afraid of Ye Mo leaving. Once you were in the casino, if you had money, you would want to continue if you lost. It was addictive. The dealer knew what the result of his shake was: one six and two ones. The six was on the very top and the dice below were the ones.

The cup opened, and the very top was indeed a six. The one opening the cup was a young girl. When she carefully took away the first die, a second six was revealed! The scene was in an uproar.

Two sixes - if there was another six, that would be a tiger.

Seeing the second six, the dealer's face changed. He had clearly shaken so that the second die would be a one. How was it a six? He was sure that no one should have been able to do anything, but the fact was that someone did.

There was a master there! Before the man could stop the girl, the girl moved away the last die.

Three sixes - it was a tiger! An explosion of disbelief spread around the table.

No one would believe that a tiger could have appeared without foul play, but the only person who could have wanted to cheat was the big bearded guy, but he had been nowhere near the table.

Shen Qianqian looked at the three sixes, and it took her a long while to react. Her face got red with excitement, and she even hugged Ye Mo.

That win was 500 million USD! That was an unimaginable fortune to her.

She had been working tirelessly in the Shen family for so many years and had only managed to earn 200 million. Yet now, Ye Mo won 500 million in an instant.
