Chapter 631: Shen Qianqian's Plans

The dealer's face looked really bad, but he recovered quickly. He gave the dice to his partner and left. Ye Mo knew that he must have been signalled to leave.

Shen Qianqian grabbed the large pile of chips and put them on her plate. She looked at Ye Mo and asked, "Should we keep playing?"

Ye Mo smiled, "No need, let's leave." He wasn't there for gambling. He was there for the Black Sun people. Since those guys were leaving, he didn't need to stay.

Ye Mo scanned around with his spirit sense and noticed that the woman and short, black guy as well as another man were gathered in one room. He wanted to go listen to what they were up to and find out what use the Five Element Rock had for them.

Seeing Ye Mo and Shen Qianqian leave, everyone looked on with envy. Winning 500 million in one go was absurd.

"Go exchange the chips, I'm going to sleep for a while." Ye Mo noticed that the place the dealer went to was where the three gathered. He wanted to check it out right away.

"Wait, after I exchange the chips, I'll give you the card, and then you can leave," Shen Qianqian stopped Ye Mo. She was worried about exchanging a few hundred million by herself. After all, no one was easy to deal with on that ship, and the money was Ye Mo's.

Shen Qianqian knew that most of the people on board were no strangers to shady business. How else could they earn so much?

"Okay, but Miss Shen, I have a question I need to ask you. Most of the people on the ship have at least some bodyguards, so why don't you?" Shen Qianqian was an easy target, yet she was by herself.

Shen Qianqian fell silent and didn't answer. She exchanged the chips and then gave the card to Ye Mo ,
"This is yours, the password-"

Ye Mo waved his hand, "I don't need it. I said the price of the pill was 130 million, so I won't take a cent extra. As for the gamble, the starting money was yours, so the money we won is yours too. You can just go back and rest."

Shen Qianqian hesitated and took the card, "Okay, I'll take the money then. But, Brother Ye, do you have time now? If you don't have any plans, come drink with me for a bit. And if you're tired, you can rest in my room."

It seemed that she had figured out that Ye Mo had no place to sleep.

Before Ye Mo could decline, Shen Qianqian smiled again, "Don't tell me you don't have time. When you came to the casino part just then, I smelled perfume on you. You probably came from the bar, right? If you can accompany women who are strangers, then since we already know each other, you have to treat me the same."

Ye Mo scanned that room again, and the four were still gathered together. Since they were there, there was no rush. They couldn't leave anyway. Thinking like that, he nodded, "Okay, let's grab a drink first then."

....

"What happened, why did you call me over so desperately?" the dealer asked.

"Cassy, our higher ups have ordered us to leave immediately." Seeing the man come in, Song Benlang got up immediately.

Cassy frowned, "Why? That guy just won 500 million USD from us, it would be too easy on him to just let him leave. Moreover, we haven't even found out who he is yet, I was planning on doing that now."

Song Benlang shook his head, "There's no need to investigate him, he's not someone we can deal with. According to our intel and his performance at the casino, the higher ups have determined him to be the person who stole our gold and most of our scientists on Black Star Island."

"How can that be?!" Cassy was shocked.

Sophia said slowly, "It's not impossible. Actually, we're certain it's him. Shen Qianqian might have had her face destroyed, but her body is still better than mine. And if she indeed managed to buy the face preserving pill back then at the auction, then her face should have recovered by now. Yet still, that big beard didn't do anything to her. Instead, he supposedly wanted to chat me up? He gave me a very dangerous feeling. I think he's already suspecting me. He even wanted to hug me, but luckily he didn't in the end."

"Did you lose the thing?!" Cassy lost his mind. 500 million wasn't that significant, but if they lost the Five Element Rock, that would be a huge problem.

Sophia shook her head, "No, it's still there, but I just feel like he's dangerous. Also, we have checked the recordings repeatedly, and that big beard wasn't present when everyone boarded the ship, yet he suddenly appeared in the auction room. That sounds just like the events at our gold vault.

The two cases were really similar. Plus, how did the three dice turn into all 6es. He didn't touch anything but still turned the dices to win a tiger. This man is too dangerous."

"Sophia is right, this man is too dangerous. Although we don't know how he did it, but he's got capabilities that exceed what we can deal with. Luckily, we didn't lose the Five Element Rock. The higher ups did tell us to leave immediately, though, so someone else will be dealing with him," Song Benlang said.

The black man suddenly said, "Yes, I suspect he even saw me when I was spying on him. He burned Yan Wuliang away with just a ball of fire, this man is very scary."

Ye Mo kept scanning them with his spirit sense and found that they were still discussing something, so he didn't mind. As long as they didn't leave more than 1km from him, they wouldn't be able to get away. Furthermore, he had marked that woman especially, allowing him to sense her from up to 10 km away.

Shen Qianqian poured a cup for Ye Mo, but she drank three cups herself before putting her cup down and saying, "Before meeting you today, I didn't even know what I would be doing in the future. I was lost, and the reason why I could even come today was because the Shen family had one spot, so they sent me just to show that the Shen family still existed.

Then she laughed at herself and drank another cup, "If I told you I didn't bring any money to this auction you wouldn't believe it. But that is the reality of it. That 180 million was all my private money that I managed to set aside over the course of all these years. The Shen family sent me over without even a bodyguard and froze all my cards in China."

It seemed like the Shen family no longer needed Shen Qianqian for their businesses.

Shen Qianqian sneered, "Brother Ye, when Aunt Qingkui asked you to cure her last time, she also used her own money. But even then, the card she gave you was still frozen by the Shen family. Then, Shen Yin asked many times for them to unfreeze it, but even though it was just some small money, the Shen family didn't want to give it to you. Aunt Qingkui saw through the Shen family and because of it didn't even return."

"..." Ye Mo was speechless. He didn't think that the card he got last time would actually have been frozen. No wonder Shen Yin always looked guilty. On account of it being thanks to her that he found the location of the auction, he wouldn't mind.

"I like the feeling of managing businesses. I can only feel the value of my existence if I keep earning money. And grandpa also said that he saw that I had only the businesses in mind, so he let me manage the Shen family. 60% of the Shen family's businesses were controlled by me, but how do they treat me now? I'm a Shen family member, yet my card was frozen! Luckily, I had some private money or I would have had nowhere to even cry."

Shen Qianqian drank again, her eyes dulled, "I've just been a money-making machine for the Shen family all these years, and when I have no worth, they just kick me away. Ye Mo, Magical Yoctor Ye, no-Brother Ye, luckily I met you! I'm very lucky, this is enough for me."

Ye Mo thought, 'Doesn't Luo Yue lack a true business person?' Shen Qianqian was a prodigy - the Shen family might be blind, but he could invite Shen Qianqian to Luo Yue thanks to that.

Thinking like that, Ye Mo wanted to speak his mind, but then he heard a voice through the speakers, "Dear passengers and friends, we have arrived at Qizhou Island."

Ye Mo was shook as he realized it was already day. He scanned that room with his spirit sense and found that the four were gone.

The ship hadn't even docked yet, how had they left? Ye Mo got up immediately and sent his spirit sense out, while Shen Qianqian was laying flat on the table.

Chapter 632: Inside the Wall

Ye Mo looked at Shen Qianqian and felt helpless. He couldn't just leave her there, but he was sure that the four had left the cruiser. Ye Mo wasn't in a rush, though, as he was sure that they would still be on Qizhou Island, and he had marked the woman with his spirit sense mark.

Considering that, Ye Mo used his chi to dissipate the alcohol in Shen Qianqian's body and gave her a bracelet. He looked at her and said, "Wear this bracelet, find a place to stay and wait for me. I have some things to take care of, but I'll come back and find you."

Shen Qianqian picked up Ye Mo's bracelet, and what she didn't know was that it was marked by his spirit sense so that he would be able to find her. She thought, 'Why didn't he just leave his number?'

But soon, she understood. Ye Mo had boarded the ship mysteriously, so he didn't have an identity that actually allowed him to be there. Hence, he had to get off mysteriously too.

Ye Mo had guessed correctly. A bit more than 10 km from the dock, the four had gathered together again.

"Sophia, take out the Five Element Rock," Song Benlang commanded seriously.

Seeing this, Cassy asked, "Is there a problem, Captain Song?"

Song Benlang's face was very sullen. He took the wrapped item from Sophia and said, "I just got news that only Shen Qianqian got off and that the big bearded fellow disappeared. He disappeared suddenly, just like how he appeared suddenly before. I think that if we keep underestimating him we could lose our lives on this island."

"I don't think we're underestimating him, we're taking him very seriously. But no matter how smart he is, he couldn't anticipate that we'd already have left the cruiser," Sophia shook her head.

"I agree with Captain. That big beard is strange. At the bar, even when he didn't look at me, I felt like I was being watched. That's right, I remember now - I had the exact same feeling when I had the camera! I'm very sensitive to telekinetic abilities, could it be-" Cassy suddenly stopped.

Everyone stared deadly at the hands of Song Benlang. He opened the wrapping, and there was no Five Element Rock inside. It was just a piece of gold.

"Huh, the Five Element Rock?" Sophia's tone was shaky. She didn't expect the Five Element Rock she hid in her bra to disappear and get switched for some gold. Who could have done the switch other than her?

"Captain, it wasn't me, I didn't do it," thinking about the torture methods the organization used, Sophia's tone was shaky.

Song Benlang's hands were shaking too. They had been operating carefully to the extreme, but the Five Element Rock was still stolen from right under their eyes. He knew that Sophia couldn't have done it, unless she didn't want to live anymore, but he didn't say anything.

Someone had to bear the responsibility for losing it. Sophia had brought the empty package there, so she had to be responsible.

"I believe this has nothing to do with Sophia, we've known her for so many years. She wouldn't do it, and even if she did, she wouldn't come back here. If I'm not wrong, it should be that big beard. He's too unmeasurable." Unexpectedly, it was Bobby who rarely spoke who helped her out.

Sophia looked at him with gratitude.

Cassy had a look of guilt for a moment, but then he immediately said, "Although we know Sophia wouldn't do this, the package was on her when it was stolen. I don't need to mention how hard it would be to switch it around, right? So even if we believe her, what about our higher ups?"

"Cassy, what do you mean?" Sophia knew that Cassy wanted to put the blame on her. She immediately rebuked, "This thing was always on you before I got it. When you took it out, no one saw it. Who knows if it was switched out already or not?"

Song Benlang and Bobby fell into silence. Sophia was right: who knew if it was lost before or after Sophia got it.

Cassy saw that everyone was about to suspect him, so he immediately argued, "Back at the bar, when big beard and Sophia were being intimate, perhaps that's when it was lost."

Sophia retorted, "Cassy, do you think it's possible to win a tiger without touching the table? To be honest, who has the most chances of making it a tiger? If I was the dealer, I could do it easily."

Cassy was annoyed and sneered, "You're saying I'm conspiring with him? I've been in the organization for so many years, I would-"

Song Benlang stopped him, "Okay, there's no point arguing here. If I'm not wrong, there must be something special about this gold. Perhaps he can even track us through it or something. We need to leave this place first. I believe the authorities will investigate this."

Sophia and Cassy's hearts fell. Song Benlang didn't mention whose fault it was anymore, but they knew the organization all too well. Even though they clearly knew that they didn't do it, they would be heavily interrogated as long as there was so much as a sliver of doubt.

"Captain, what do we do now?" Bobby spoke.

Song Benlang took out a black rubber-like thing and put it on the gold. Then he gave the gold to them, "I added a missile emitter onto this. I'll go give it to someone else and tell them to drive away in the opposite direction from us."

Song Benlang walked out of the bar and came back after a short while saying, "Let's go now. Split up. I've given the frequency to our higher ups, so as long as big beard follows the gold, there will be someone to deal with him."

"Then where do we rendezvous?" Bobby asked.

"Nan Ji 123 Hotel," Song Benlang said and left. He didn't walk out far but dashed into a nearby supermarket and watched the bar from the glass door it had.

The second to come out was Bobby. He called a taxi and headed towards the hotel. Then, Sophia came out and stopped a car. The car made a turn and left in the opposite direction. Not long after, Cassy came out. He looked around and also stopped a car, but he went the same direction as Sophia.

Then, Song Benlang came out. He knew he had achieved his purpose. It was a fact that the thing had been lost, and even though he was sure it wasn't Sophia's or Cassy's doing, someone had to be the scapegoat. If Cassy and Sophia ran away by themselves, things would be much easier.

And he was sure they would run away. Not everyone would be able to take the torture. Sometimes, people would rather die than endure it.

Sophia and Cassy were substitutes, so if they had questionable loyalty, it would have nothing to do with him. He had finished his part of the mission and given the thing to Sophia. If it wasn't due to her fault, they would've succeeded.

Song Benlang went back to the bar. He knew that no matter what, that place was safe. He wasn't in a rush to meet up with Bobby either as he still had some things to do.

He needed to give Sophia and Cassy some time to run. He had to make sure they left Qizhou Island so that he could report their tracks to the higher ups. He would say that they had been sent out individually under his authority because he trusted them, but they ran away halfway. Like that, he would have no responsibility.

But as soon as Song Benlang came to his room, he saw a big bearded man sitting there. He subconsciously shivered before hearing him say, "You're very smart. Your plan would indeed push away all responsibility from you."

Chapter 633: Scam

"How can you be here?" Song Benlang reacted very fast, but he knew he was done for no matter what.

Without hesitating, Song Benlang was about to bite his teeth but before he could, he was slapped in the face. The poison along with a few bloodied teeth fell out.

"Is your organization full of rats? Why do you like eating rat poison so much, huh? If I didn't know you guys had this strange fetish, I would've been screwed again," Ye Mo sneered. Although he could save Song Benlang with a lotus life pill, he wouldn't want to waste one on trash like him.

"Don't think you can get anything out of me." Song Benlang's Chinese wasn't as fluent as Sophia's.

Ye Mo sneered, "Tell me this: what is the relationship between the Black Sun Empire and Northern Sand?"

Hearing this, Song Benlang's face changed, and he subconsciously wanted to bite his teeth again, but then he remembered the poison was already on the floor.

Ye Mo wasn't interested in waiting for him to reply. He just patted Song Benlang on the forehead.

Song Benlang wasn't even yellow level, so it was very easy to make him talk.

...

Half an hour later, Ye Mo left the bar and took Song Benlang's communication device and GPS. As for Song Benlang, he was dead. Ye Mo wasn't interested in chasing after small fry like Sophia or Cassy.

He wanted to find out who the Black Sun Empire would have sent to deal with him. Also, even Song Benlang didn't really know whether the two organizations were related, but Ye Mo felt that they probably were. He just had no evidence yet.

What made Ye Mo feel regretful was that Song Benlang and co. were all just agents doing missions in the outside world, they didn't know where the HQ of the Black Sun Empire was either. They only knew that they would gather in a certain Japanese hotel when HQ summoned them. The location also varied. It seemed like Ye Mo would need to catch some big fish to find out where their HQ was.

Ye Mo guessed that after he cleared Black Star Island, the Black Sun empire must have become much more wary of him.

Messages kept coming into Song Benlang's communicator, but Ye Mo was made to realize that he couldn't understand them, so he just ignored all of them and headed to the location Song Benlang had been luring him to.

When he found that his spirit sense could no longer lock onto the target, he took out Song Benlang's GPS and located a barren beach.

On the beach there was a body long since dead, and Ye Mo knew it was the body of the man Song Benlang had hired to deliver the gold. The wrapped gold was no longer in his hand. There was only a signal emitter, and nothing else.

There was no one around, so Ye Mo scanned the area and came to the conclusion that his opponent must have found out that Song Benlang was killed by Ye Mo. Without enough confidence to face him, he left. He probably took the gold Ye Mo had marked with his spirit sense for research.

Ye Mo wasn't all too disappointed, he got what he came for anyway. He knew that even if that person hadn't retreated, he would've just been able to kill one extra person.

Ye Mo left the beach and headed to find Shen Qianqian. He would ask her if she wanted to go to Luo Yue.

When Ye Mo found her, he found her outside a store in the middle of an argument with someone. The veil usually covering her face was gone, and she looked very angry.

"What's going on?" Ye Mo squeezed over and asked.

Shen Qianqian saw Ye Mo come over and quickly went to his side, "These people are really shameless! I know this store, and it's very reputable for never having sold fakes no matter where. Yet after two women bought something here, they said it was fake and requested a refund. When the police came, they completely listened to their story and helped the two women take the store owner away and even asked the store to close down immediately. The store also had to pay the two women back ten times over."

Ye Mo just realized that they were in front of Luo Yue's store. If it was someone else's business, he wouldn't be able to be sure that they weren't selling fake products, but his business definitely wouldn't.

"Where's the store owner?" Ye Mo asked.

"Here I am." A youth with a slap mark on his face walked over. There was anger clearly visible in his eyes.

Ye Mo looked at him and said, "Who hit you?"

"That woman's husband. That woman framed us, saying we were selling fake beauty pills. Even though when they bought it, I told them to check it on the spot, but they said that they trust our store, so they don't want to. Then, after taking the pills away, they came back and framed us for selling fakes!" the youth explained.

Ye Mo nodded, "In that case, shouldn't you slap them back?"

"Huh?" The youth looked at the man next to the two women with hesitance. That guy looked way too buff.

"If you don't want to hit them back then never mind, but you'll have been hit for nothing." Ye Mo wouldn't fire this person, but he really didn't like overly timid people.

Hearing this, the store owner manned up and charged over, slapping the offender. Although the store owner was pretty fast, the man was still able to react, but as soon as he did, he found that he wasn't able to move.

Slap, slap-

Seeing the event, the two policemen were about to come over to arrest the store owner.

But then Ye Mo stepped up and said, "This is a store of Luo Yue. If you dare arrest its store owner before being certain that he was the one in the wrong, you will be challenging Luo Yue. If you do, then don't blame Luo Yue for retaliating."

They immediately stopped their steps. If this matter was blown up to challenging Luo Yue, they wouldn't dare take the blame. When Luo Yue was attacked by the US and its alliance, they ended up paying large ransoms to Luo Yue. They had heard that the City Lord of Luo Yue was very protective too, so if they got Luo Yue annoyed, that wouldn't be a joke.

The people around saw the whole thing and started rumbling, especially those two women.

As though feeling that he shouldn't be threatened like that, one police officer said, "No matter what, it's wrong to hit people. We need to take him away."

The store owner heard this and said in Korean, "When he hit me first, why didn't you take him away?"

Ye Mo saw that the two policemen were speechless and sneered, "Someone came to make fraudulent claims, yet you police instead take away the innocent and ask Luo Yue for compensation? What logic is this? I'll tell you right now that if you don't compensate Luo Yue before night falls and report whatever TV channel may be responsible for this, Luo Yue will leave South Korea. South Korea will no longer be a friendly nation of Luo Yue."

Hearing this, the people around laughed. Who did this big beard think he was? The City Lord of Luo Yue?

The police felt that they looked bad being threatened by Ye Mo, so they were going to take the store owner away.

But before they did, Ye Mo told the store owner, "Ask the two women why they took fake medicine to frame Luo Yue."

The store owner wasn't able to react, but Shen Qianqian was also there. She didn't know why Ye Mo wanted to ask that, but she still spoke in fluent Korean, "You obviously bought the real beauty pill, so why are you using fakes to frame the store?"

Many people laughed at the idiotic question. Who would admit to that?

Chapter 634: Is Luo Yue Easy To Mess With?

But what truly shocked everyone was the two women's reply.

One woman said, "It's because someone gave us 50 million Won and told us to buy a box of pills here and then switch the pills with the fake ones they gave us. We did not only get the 50 million Won in exchange, but also the beauty pills."

"Yes, that's the case." The other woman said.

Right after they said this though, the women recovered and thought it incredible that they had admitted that. They quickly covered their mouths, but it was too late.

"Are you crazy, how can you admit to that?" the man yelled.

They really admitted it! People looked at them like they were idiots. These three idiots just said this shop sold fake medicine, yet immediately afterwards, they admitted that they were lying.

Only Shen Qianqian knew that it had something to do with Ye Mo, and she wondered 'What can't Ye Mo do?'

The two policemen could no longer take the store owner away and could only take away the three who caused trouble.

"Hmph, we won't leave it at that," the store owner said.

Ye Mo frowned. He found the whole thing very odd. Which idiot would do something like this? How would it benefit them?

Shen Qianqian also felt like it was abnormal. She looked at Ye Mo and said, "Ye Mo, I didn't know you were so patriotic. I know Luo Yue came from China, but why do I feel like there's more to it?"

Ye Mo ignored the store owner and pulled Shen Qianqian into a meeting room and then said, "I'm just looking after my own stuff - I am from Luo Yue, look." Then, he took out a proof of identity as 'Luo Yue's Head Engineer'.

He didn't take out the presidential badge.

"Huh, you're really from Luo Yue?" Shen Qianqian asked in shock. But soon she thought, 'No wonder Ye Mo could take out a face preserving pill.'

Ye Mo took out his phone to charge it and then said to Shen Qianqian, "If you don't want to stay in Jin City, why don't you come to Luo Yue. I'm sure that with your capabilities you could get your hands on the Head of Commerce position."

Shen Qianqian stared at Ye Mo with her big eyes and pointed at him after a while, "So you're a higher up of Luo Yue! You said you came to find me before. It must have all been a plot! You want me to work for you, right?"

Ye Mo approved of her brains. She had already connected the dots. He smiled bitterly, "Yes, when I saw that you weren't living well in the Shen family, I wanted to convince you to go to Luo Yue. Of course, it's fine if you don't want to."

Shen Qianqian suddenly got up excitedly and grabbed Ye Mo's hand, "Who said I don't want to go - I want to go very much! Please help me, I must go. You really are my lucky charm. You gave me the face preserving pill and now, you will help me find work in Luo Yue, I'm too happy."

Shen Qianqian was very happy indeed. She had long since planned to go to Luo Yue but didn't have a way, so now that Ye Mo gave her the opportunity, how could she reject?

"Okay, don't be so hasty." Ye Mo unlocked his phone and was preparing to call Xu Yuehua, but as soon as he opened his phone, he received a call.

"Second Brother, what's up?" It was Xu Ping. He rarely called, so Ye Mo cared about him calling.

Seeing that the call had gone through, Xu Ping immediately said, "Third Brother, if we still hadn't reached you, I would've had to declare war on Indonesia."

Ye Mo smiled, "Second Brother, stop joking. Now is different to before, we can't just casually start wars. We're not strong to the point where we can fight whomever we want. We need a reason to fight-"

Before Xu Ping said anything, Xu Yuehua took the phone.

"President, it's me, Yuehua."

"What's up, Sister Yuehua?" Ye Mo felt that things didn't seem right.

Xu Yuehua was rather calm as she said slowly, "Over the last two days, our outlets in different countries have been experiencing some problems. The stores of more than ten different countries have reported that people were framing us, claiming that we were selling fakes. A few of them have even been knocked down."

Ye Mo's eyes went cold. Things weren't as simple as it looked at first glance indeed. There was obviously someone behind this. Those who didn't know the truth would think that there really was a problem with Luo Yue.

"What's the exact situation?" Ye Mo asked again.

Xu Yuehua replied, "Three stores were cracked down in three countries where the workers weren't hurt, but in Indonesia, six people died. We've closed the store there, and the personnel has come back. Brother Xu is in favor of attacking Indonesia. Although I'm also very angry, I don't believe it very suitable to declare war for just that."

Ye Mo sneered. He knew there were parties that didn't want Luo Yue to develop too rapidly. These means would be effective against other countries, but not against Luo Yue.

Thus Ye Mo said, "Sister Yuehua, concerning the countries that didn't deal with the situation in our benefit, immediately take all of the products we sell there out of circulation and shut down all military and commercial relations with those countries. At the same time, if they have any businesses in Luo Yue, shut those down too until they realise their mistake and pay us enough compensation."

"Okay," Xu Yuehua agreed without hesitating. Luo Yue never had to feel troubled about marketing. When Luo Yue pulled out from a country, the one that should be worrying was that country and not Luo Yue.

And Xu Yuehua knew that halting military and commercial relations meant that those countries wouldn't be getting their interference machines even if they had paid for it already.

"What about Indonesia?" Xu Yuehua knew that Ye Mo wouldn't let that country go easily. Although Luo Yue had almost 300,000 immigrants, it was still far from well-populated, and the citizens didn't have enough solidarity. Thus, Xu Yuehua didn't want to solve things through military means.

"As for Indonesia," Ye Mo's tone went cold, "Halt all of our businesses there and kick their businesses out of Luo Yue. At the same time, stop all relations with them and ask them to compensate 70 billion Luo Yue dollars."

Xu Yuehua took a deep breath. The Luo Yue dollar had about the same worth as the euro. This was 90 billion USD! Xu Yuehua was sure that Indonesia wouldn't pay that.

"I don't think they will compensate that," Xu Yuehua said worriedly.

Ye Mo sneered, "Of course I know they won't. Make a global announcement that when Luo Yue was in the beginning of its development, Indonesia conspired with pirates to attack Luo Yue. We have evidence and many people who are still in captivity. We'll show their faces on TV. Say that Luo Yue had been trying to keep harmony with Indonesia, didn't take things personally, and even sold them some technology, yet this is how they repay us.

They trashed our stores and killed our employees, yet their government not only refuses to punish the criminals, but instead it points the blame at Luo Yue. And under such circumstances, Luo Yue still chooses to resolve things peacefully and only asks for compensation."

Xu Yuehua understood where Ye Mo was going, and she immediately asked, "What about the Union?"

"We'll report our losses to them and tell them that our 20 billion dollar research project was destroyed in Indonesia," Ye Mo said.

"Of course, everything we do needs to be reported to the world. Also, I do want you to say that if Indonesia does not respond within a week, Luo Yue might use military means to resolve the issue." Ye Mo's tone was very cold.

"What?!" Xu Yuehua's hands shook, and her phone almost fell.

"What?!" Shen Qianqian was dumbfounded.

Chapter 635: Behind the Scenes

Ye Mo dared declare war without looking for allies first just because Luo Yue's store was smashed and a few people died?

Although Xu Yuehua was the one in charge of Luo Yue now, since Ye Mo had spoken, she wouldn't disagree.

Shen Qianqian was also dazed. When Ye Mo put down the phone, she asked, "Ye Mo, were you talking to the City Lord of Luo Yue, Xu Yuehua? And you wish to declare war on Indonesia? Who are you?"

Ye Mo put down the phone and smiled, "Many people have asked me this, but you can find that out when you get to Luo Yue. All I will say is that even though Sister Yuehua thinks that I'm not suited for politics, the truth is that it's not that I don't know how to deal with politics, but that I can't be bothered to. Now, if you still want to go, I will give you a number to call."

"Yes, of course I want to go," Shen Qianqian replied without hesitation. No matter who Ye Mo was, it was her dream to go to Luo Yue.

Ye Mo looked at the store owner, "Do you have a recording of the two women admitting to their scam?"

The store owner seemed to have realized that Ye Mo wasn't ordinary and immediately said, "Yes, there's a video recording."

"Okay, send that video recording to our official website. You might be able to get promoted thanks to it," Ye Mo smiled.

The store owner immediately realized that it was a good opportunity. If he was the one to provide evidence of the scam, his higher ups would promote him for sure.

He respectfully sent Ye Mo and Shen Qianqian away before dealing with the recording.

Luo Yue Pharmaceuticals had been accused of selling fakes in many different stores. In some countries, the stores were even robbed and smashed, and most western countries sued Luo Yue. Indonesia's store was the most absurd case. Not only did some people demolish the whole store, but multiple employees were even killed. The Indonesian government had then actually voiced their support to the culprits and asked Luo Yue to compensate those people.

Those who didn't know better thought that something had really happened to Luo Yue, but those with a clear mind knew that it was probably a new plan targeting Luo Yue.

Many people thought that Luo Yue's sales would start plummeting, yet after one day of negotiation, Luo Yue made a strong statement.

The statement declared that the accounts of fake medicine were fraudulent and a case of them being framed. Luo Yue's base promise was that Luo Yue would never sell fake products.

Luo Yue stated that they would halt all collaboration with those countries that had treated Luo Yue unfairly.

As for Indonesia, because Luo Yue was a peace loving country, they 'only' requested Indonesia to compensate 70 billion Luo dollars and hand over the culprits in order to avoid war. If Luo Yue did not receive this as well as an apology within one week, they would declare war.

The day Luo Yue made this claim, Luo Yue's official website uploaded a clip of two women admitting their claims had been fraudulent.

Although people didn't know why the two women would admit to everything, there were a lot of witnesses in the video, so it was soon confirmed that the video was not fake.

After Luo Yue pulled out of their cooperation with some countries, those countries began to worry. They didn't think such small matters would be taken so seriously. Thinking about how their military deals had gone to waste due to some minor issues, those countries became desperate. Representatives quickly started to fly to Luo Yue to ask for peace and a resolution.

The Korean government was all the more annoyed. Due to two women's greed, the interference machine they had been about to get and their collaboration with Luo Yue was gone with the wind! How could they deal with this? The world was getting more and more unsettled, and if some other country with interference machines went to war but you didn't have any, like the Korean army now, you would be crippled.

At the same day Luo Yue made the announcement, the two policemen were taken away, and the South Korean government did the best they could to help catch the mastermind in order to get Luo Yue's forgiveness and continued cooperation.

After these events, Ye Mo felt like all those cases didn't seem to have a direct connection to many countries. Unless they were idiots, those countries wouldn't do that. It didn't benefit them in any way and instead only caused trouble with Luo Yue.

Even if the countries did want to do something like it, they should wait until they got the interference machines. Ye Mo could tell that there might be a third party involved, but he wasn't going to change his plan.

If Ye Mo could have such considerations, so could other people. The incidents had all occurred in countries that had signed a contract for the interference machines.

After thinking it through, people immediately guessed there had to have been a third party involved which wanted to jeopardize the relations of Luo Yue and those countries. Decreasing Luo Yue's sales might have been one target, but stopping the military cooperation of Luo Yue with those countries must have been the main goal.

Those countries also soon understood the situation and knew that they had to find Luo Yue to resolve the matter. In order to do that, they had to investigate the fraudulent claims.

As for Luo Yue's statement about Indonesia, that didn't concern them. So what if they fought? Perhaps thanks to this war, they would find out about Luo Yue's offensive capabilities. Luo Yue's war with the US had only proved that their defense was unparalleled.

The US felt most wronged about the whole thing, and the new US President quickly held a meeting. The US knew that many people would suspect them to have been the mastermind, because the US would definitely like it if Luo Yue got on the bad side of so many other countries, but God knew that they had nothing to do with it.

Chapter 636: Invited again

Other countries could still compensate Luo Yue and somehow recover their relations, but there was one country that couldn't.

Its inhabitants had overdone it and had killed Luo Yue employees, all backed up by the government.

When Luo Yue made its domineering statement, and as all other countries were trying desperately to repair their relations with Luo Yue at least until they got their interference machines, the Indonesian government fully came to realize that they had done a stupid thing.

Military specialist Malone had already pointed out that Luo Yue's electrical warfare had surpassed the current age. Would Indonesia be able to take on such a beast? Not to mention, that beast was quite close to them.

And then when the US didn't say anything and the Union just said something neutral, Indonesia fell into despair.

If Luo Yue's demanded compensation wasn't so high, they would've paid it already, but that was 90 billion USD they were asking - that was one eighth of their GDP! If they paid that, the country's economy would immediately decline.

But if they didn't pay up, Luo Yue would show that they weren't easy to mess with. Indonesia was so desperate that they even felt like hating South Korea. If that video from South Korea hadn't been exposed, the whole thing would've been really hard to prove. But because that video got exposed, Luo Yue was able to be the victim.

Ye Mo came to Jin City with Shen Qianqian.

Shen Qianqian immediately went back to the Shen family. Although she had lost all of her power, she still had to make some arrangements before she left.

Ye Mo went to the Kang Hai Hospital and met Xu Wei and her family as they were about to leave the hospital.

The entire family was very happy to see Ye Mo. It was thanks to him that Xu Wei's mom had recovered. Although Xu Wei said she had plenty of money, Xu Wei's mother didn't want to keep staying in the hospital.

"Brother Ye, CEO Hu and CEO Luo both came in the morning. By the way, last night Shen Yin also came but didn't find you." Xu Wei hadn't been able to reach Ye Mo's number. Now that Ye Mo had come, she wanted to treat him to food as thanks for helping her.

Ye Mo nodded, "Are you planning on staying in Jin City or going elsewhere? If you don't have a place to go, I can introduce you to Luo Yue."

Xu Wei didn't doubt Ye Mo's words, but she shook her head, "Brother Ye, I've discussed it with my brother, and we're planning on going back to our home place to develop. Shen Yin helped Xiao Wu get an internship. He doesn't need to study anymore."

Although it was regretful that Xu Wei didn't want to go to Luo Yue, Ye Mo wouldn't force her. Also, since he knew that she wouldn't feel comfortable if she didn't invite him to food, he let himself get treated.

The restaurant was high class, but Xu Wei was somehow being quiet. Xu Bingwu seemed to know what his sister was thinking and just kept eating without saying anything either. Only Mother Xu kept looking between Ye Mo and Xu Wei, but she didn't say anything either.

Ye Mo felt like the meal was quite awkward. Although he wanted to say something, he didn't know how to open the conversation either.

After the meal, they left the restaurant. Xu Wei seemed to want to say something to Ye Mo, but she hesitated many times and eventually didn't say it. She just said goodbye to Ye Mo.

Seeing the three leave, Ye Mo knew that that goodbye meant that they might never see each other again. Xu Wei was a good girl, so he wished her family good fortune.

His phone rumbled, and Ye Mo picked up the call. It was Han Zaixin.

"You finally turned on your phone! It's so much pressure trying to call your phone every single time." Han Zaixin heard Ye Mo's voice and felt relieved, but he quickly added, "Don't hang up on me this time."

He knew that Han Zaixin wanted him to help with the Space Flower blueprint, but that already belonged to Ye Mo. Also, even if he got Han Zaixin the blueprint, they wouldn't be able to make it. And even if they did, they wouldn't have the energy source needed for it, because it needed the extreme energy stone.

"Ye Mo, just come to Beijing once, I have something you want here. Besides, you're the instructor of Flying Snow - it's been so long already, yet you still haven't come to visit. I just got a large batch of high quality ores, don't you want to see?" Han Zaixin was like a big bad wolf trying to lure a small innocent rabbit.

Ye Mo knew that Han Zaixin must've encountered some problem. Usually, he wouldn't use such means to get him to come over there.

But Ye Mo was really enticed by those ores.

However, Ye Mo hadn't even had the time to find the snow fox because he had been so busy, much less some ores. If it wasn't for the Five Element Rock being truly precious, Ye Mo wouldn't have gone out of his way to go looking for it either.

If it wasn't for that, perhaps he would have been in the Duan Heng Ranges already, searching for that old nun and the Seven Star Formation. He also wanted to go into the small world to find resources.

Although he really wanted the ores, he still decided to go meet with Luo Ying at Ning Hai first. He was afraid Luo Ying wouldn't like Ning Hai. Luo Ying liked quiet places, while Ning Hai was like a busy market.

"Okay, in that case, I'll be there in one day."

Hearing this, Han Zaixin immediately hung up the phone. He was afraid Ye Mo would change his mind. He knew Ye Mo's character - if he'd agreed, he would do it.

Luo Ying didn't have a phone, so in order to contact her, Ye Mo needed to contact Beiwei, but her phone was turned off.

Hence Ye Mo immediately called Su Jingwen, and luckily, she picked up.

"Ye Mo, you finally remembered to call me. I-" Su Jingwen sounded quite sour.

Ye Mo patted the back of his head awkwardly. He had this strange feeling towards Su Jingwen that he couldn't really describe.

He really wanted to ask about Luo Ying and Beiwei, but it wasn't good to do so right after the call connected.

"Are you calling because of Luo Ying?" Su Jingwen was the first to speak after some silence.

After Su Jingwen spoke, though, Ye Mo heard Tang Beiwei's voice too. Why was her phone turned off when she was at home?

Chapter 637: What About a Third One?

"Yeah, how is Luo Ying? Is she there?" Ye Mo could only ask.

Su Jingwen suddenly laughed, "Don't worry, she's more than fine. But be honest with me, have you told Luo Ying about Qingxue? Ye Mo, I really admire how you were able to find both Luo Ying and Qingxue at the same time. Both of them are very hard-to-find women."

Ye Mo coughed. If it wasn't that he hadn't properly heard how Luo Ying was yet, he would pretend he didn't hear anything and hang up the phone. Now that Su Jingwen asked, he chose to say, "You're very pretty too, don't just talk about them all the time."

"..." Su Jingwen fell into silence after hearing that and after a while, she suddenly asked, "Ye Mo, do you mean that I'm the same as them?"

"Uhm-" Ye Mo's EQ wasn't that low, and he could immediately tell what Su Jingwen meant.

Ye Mo didn't know how to explain himself, but Su Jingwen suddenly spoke again, "Luo Ying was worried about you, so she went to find you in Jin City. Beiwei's phone is on her right now. She should be coming out of Jin City Airport in about half an hour."

"Really? Okay, then I'll go pick her up now." Ye Mo felt lucky he had called or he would've missed Luo Ying.

Ye Mo felt that he was neglecting Su Jingwen, so he quickly asked, "Um, Jingwen, how are you guys in doing Ning Hai anyway? I'll be going back to Ning Hai soon, and when I do, do you want to come with me to Luo Yue?"

"I'm not anyone to you, why would I go to Luo Yue?" Su Jingwen's tone was a bit salty.

"Uhm-" Ye Mo really wanted to hang up and see Luo Ying, but he didn't want Su Jingwen to feel bad.

Suddenly, Su Jingwen laughed, "Go see your wife already. With her being that pretty, there must be a lot of wolves staring at her. But Ye Mo, you're married to two people at the same time-"

Hearing this, Ye Mo breathed a sigh of relief and smiled, "It's lucky that I'm in Luo Yue. We haven't announced marital laws yet. It should be fine to marry two wives. I'll make the marital law before our wedding, hehe."

"Then what about three?" Su Jingwen suddenly asked.

"..." Ye Mo was dazed. What did that mean? But the call was quickly hung up.

Ye Mo shook his head and cast his thoughts aside. He had good feelings towards Su Jingwen, but that didn't mean he had to marry her. He already had Luo Ying and Qingxue, and he was very content. If Ning Qingxue hadn't appeared, he would have only married Luo Ying.

Even Ning Qingxue, he accepted her only after she risked her life for him and when he didn't know if Luo Ying was even on the planet. If he had, the results might have been different.

When Luo Ying was prepared to board the plane, a figure suddenly dashed passed her. Although his face flashed by her really quickly, she was sure it had been Ye Mo. That figure passed through the security checks rapidly and went into the tunnel that lead to a flight to Beijing.

"Ye Mo!" Luo Ying called out.

That figure seemed to hesitate for a moment and looked around but still left quickly.

Luo Ying called out again, but the person ahead didn't seem to be able to hear her anymore. She chased over immediately but was stopped by two airport staff members.

"I'm sorry, I saw someone familiar, and I want to go say hi." Luo Ying felt like that face had looked like Ye Mo's, but there was something strange about it. She didn't feel that sense of intimacy, but since she saw it, she had to go confirm whether that person was Ye Mo.

"Sorry, the passage you're taking is the other one. This one is to Beijing, so we can't let you pass."

Luo Ying said desperately, "I just have to ask something, it will take at most two minutes."

The staff members still shook their heads and didn't let Luo Ying pass. Perhaps because she was too beautiful, one of them said helplessly, "You can only go there if you buy a ticket to Beijing. The next flight to Beijing will fly off in 20 minutes."

Luo Ying didn't think much, she just wanted to see if that person was Ye Mo.

She immediately dashed to the ticket sales window and wanted to buy a ticket to Beijing.

"Sorry, the tickets to Beijing have sold out for today, and the plane is about to take off. The next flight is tomorrow at noon," the staff said.

Luo Ying turned around in disappointment. If Ye Mo was really going to Beijing, what was she going to Jin City for?

At that moment, a middle-aged woman ran to the window with a ticket, "I'm sorry, but I can't go to Beijing today. I want to refund this ticket."

"Oh, that's perfect! There's someone right there who wants a ticket to Beijing. You can give it to her." The staff stopped Luo Ying and helped the two perform the necessary procedures.

A few minutes later, Luo Ying had a ticket to Beijing. She didn't expect to be so lucky.

Luo Ying got on the plane as quickly as she could to find the man who looked like Ye Mo. If it wasn't Ye Mo, she would get off immediately.

Right when she got on the plane, she saw that the person she was looking for was going into the bathroom.

After Luo Ying's tension faded and she calmed down, she felt like things weren't right. It wasn't her first time taking a plane. Usually, people weren't allowed to go into the toilet when the plane was about to take flight, and that ticket refund had happened too coincidentally.

The main thing was, when Ye Mo came to Ning Hai, he would contact her as soon as he could. Even if he couldn't come see her, he would definitely call her.

Thinking like that, Luo Ying wanted to get off immediately. She lacked experience, but that didn't mean she was dumb. It was just that she missed Ye Mo too much.

"Hello, please fasten your seat belt and sit down. The plane is about to take off," a flight attendant came up to Luo Ying and asked politely.

Luo Ying wanted to say something, but when she felt the plane rumble, she knew it was useless to say anything now - the plane was taking off.

Luo Ying was sure that these coincidences were a trap. That person definitely wasn't Ye Mo. The intimacy she felt from Ye Mo wasn't something the imitation of a face could give.

Why were these people doing this?

Other than her beauty being a bit special, only Ye Mo could be the reason for her being trapped. It was most likely that, because otherwise, they wouldn't send someone who looked like Ye Mo to catch her attention.

Luo Ying actually calmed down when she realized that. She knew that those people probably wanted to capture her to threaten Ye Mo or get something from him. She wouldn't let them get what they wanted.

Luo Ying was a bit dazed, though. If those people had targeted her, wouldn't that mean Beiwei might be targeted too? She was fine because she still had that powerful gun Ye Mo gave her, but what about Beiwei?

Thinking about this, she wanted to call Beiwei, but there was no more signal.

Ning Hai, in that small house.

Su Jingwen was looking down and fiddling with some flowers, but Tang Beiwei could tell that she was feeling bad. Tang Beiwei didn't know how to comfort her.

"Hey, Beiwei, you said your brother hasn't been with Luo Ying for as long as I have been with him, right? Am I too dumb or too ugly?" Su Jingwen looked up at Tang Beiwei and asked.

Tang Beiwei looked dazedly at Su Jingwen and didn't know what to say.

Chapter 638: Like and Love

"Sister Jingwen, I don't know why my brother is so nice to Sister Luo Ying, but I do know that if my brother had met Sister Luo Ying before Sister Qingxue, then he might not see Sister Qingxue any different from you. I feel as though they're like, like-"

Tang Beiwei hesitated for a long time before saying, "It's as though they were married in their past life. Perhaps if you were to start cultivating you would get that indescribable feeling."

"Cultivating? Beiwei, what is cultivation? Is it the meditation stuff you do everyday?" Su Jingwen suddenly asked.

Tang Beiwei knew she shouldn't be telling her, but in her heart Sister Jingwen had the same position as Sister Qingxue. She nodded, "Yes, my brother taught me cultivation. He explained it very mystically and told me not to tell anyone but Sister Jingwen, I don't see you as an outsider, so I told you."

Su Jingwen looked down and didn't ask anything else. Ye Mo had taught Tang Beiwei and Ning Qingxue, and Luo Ying definitely as well, but he hadn't taught her. From that, you could tell she wasn't as close to Ye Mo.

Now that she thought about it, Ye Mo was probably that powerful because of cultivation. Su Jingwen clearly felt that Tang Beiwei also had that certain ethereal temperament, just like Ye Mo. It felt mysterious, intimate and had an out-of-this world feeling.

Sensing that Su Jingwen felt bad, Tang Beiwei said, "Sister Jingwen, if you want to learn it, I can teach you. My brother won't mind."

Su Jingwen shook her head, "No need, I don't want to learn it." Since Ye Mo didn't teach it to her, it would only make her feel bad if Beiwei taught her.

There was a long silence. After a while, Tang Beiwei suddenly said, "Sister Jingwen, can I ask you a question?"

Su Jingwen nodded with red eyes.

"If you liked my brother and my brother liked you, but then one day when you were about to get married, you realized that you were my brother's long lost sister, what would you do?" Tang Beiwei's eyes were also a bit red, and she didn't even really know why she was asking that.

"Huh, how could that be? Both my parents are still alive, how could they be your brother's-" Su Jingwen thought that Tang Beiwei's question was a little crazy.

Tang Beiwei shook her head and said, "Nothing in this world is impossible. When I met my brother, I didn't know he was my brother."

"Beiwei, you?" Su Jingwen looked at Tang Beiwei in shock.

Tang Beiwei shook her head, "It's not like that - my brother will always be my brother. I'm just asking 'what if', nothing else."

Su Jingwen understood what Tang Beiwei meant and shook her head, "If that really is the case, then you can't get married."

Tang Beiwei sighed and didn't say anything. She remembered what Luo Ying told her last night, "I know his poison is supposed to be incurable, but I love him. I have the feeling that we've known each other for a very long time. I believe we were like husband and wife already, albeit a very long time ago. So, I just want to be able to be married to him when we leave this world. As for whether I am blood-related to him in this world or not, does it matter? If he lives, I'll stay with him, and if he dies, I'll accompany him too."

It was just as Luo Ying said. In this world, there was such a thing as the subtle existence of fate.

Sister Jingwen liked her brother as well - or maybe what she felt was more admiration. Her brother was too outstanding compared to the other people around her, after all.

However, her like was different from the like of Sister Luo Ying. Sister Luo Ying's like for her brother was the indescribably fated love. It was something that exceeded 'liking', and perhaps only that could be called love.

If her brother was still wasted like before and if he was still ordinary, perhaps Sister Jingwen would still help him out, but she wouldn't like him. Sister Qingxue would maybe sympathize with brother, but she wouldn't like him either, much less love him. But Sister Luo Ying was different. As long as Sister Luo Ying had that belief that her brother was the one, then no matter what her brother was like, she would still love him without regret.

Seeing Tang Beiwei sigh without saying anything, Su Jingwen seemed to have understood something. She suddenly looked up and smiled, "Beiwei, I feel a lot more relieved after talking to you. By the way, I'll be leaving Ning Hai, so wish me well."

Tang Beiwei was dazed for a moment but immediately asked, "Sister Jingwen, didn't you say yesterday that you would join us to Qing Dao Beach in a few days? Also, what about your company?"

Su Jingwen nodded, "Yes, Beiwei, I suddenly feel like I've been very dumb, so I want to take care of my own dreams and wants for a while. My mom can take care of the company."

Seeing that Tang Beiwei still wanted to ask her some more questions, Su Jingwen suddenly waved her hand and said, "Don't ask me what I will be doing. I just want to go out and be content. Perhaps I will join politics."

"Why are you suddenly doing this?" Tang Beiwei knew that Su Jingwen felt bad, but she had gotten used to living with Su Jingwen.

"A few days ago at my grandpa's birthday, I went to Beijing, and my grandpa said he thinks I have a talent for politics. I don't like that sort of stuff as I dislike the hypocrisy of it, so I just said 'maybe' then. I might still not go, but..." Su Jingwen said casually.

Tang Beiwei fell silent. She knew that since Su Jingwen had said that, it meant that she wouldn't be coming back. If she stayed in Ning Hai, she wouldn't be able to stop herself from coming to the house, and if she did, she would be forced to think about Ye Mo.

Perhaps it would be good for her. Tang Beiwei took out a stack of fireball charms and gave them to Su Jingwen.

Su Jingwen knew that Ye Mo must have given them to his sister so that she could protect herself, but before Su Jingwen could reject, Tang Beiwei took out another large pile and said, "Sister Jingwen, you need something to protect yourself. I still have a lot here."

Su Jingwen nodded and took them. Then, she left. She didn't even really say goodbye.

Tang Beiwei looked at Su Jingwen as she left, and suddenly felt very lonely.

Even a long while after Su Jingwen left, Tang Beiwei was still sitting dejectedly in the house. She didn't know what to do. After a while, she remembered to go lock up the door.

When she just locked the door and came back in, there was a knock on the door. Suddenly, she had a bad feeling. Who would come looking for her? Sister Jingwen and Yun Bing had the keys - they wouldn't knock.

And other than them, she didn't know anyone in Ning Hai.

Chapter 639: He's Too Eerie

Ye Mo had arrived at the airport and was squeezing to the front as quickly as he could.

As the passengers got off, Ye Mo felt more and more uneasy. He didn't see Luo Ying, and he trusted that Jingwen wouldn't lie to him.

Ye Mo no longer had the mood to wait, so he went inside in invisibility mode. When he scanned the area with his spirit sense, he didn't find Luo Ying. Luo Ying had never taken the plane!

He didn't call back to Su Jingwen, because if Luo Ying went back she would notify him right away.

Thinking like that, he immediately went to the largest office around.

In there, a fat guy was rabidly kissing a woman in professional clothes.

Ye Mo's sudden appearance scared him almost into impotence. Without thinking, he pushed the woman away.

When he saw it was just some big bearded dude, his face went cold, and he said, "Who are you? Who let you come here?"

Ye Mo pointed his bulletless gun at the man's head and said, "Search as fast as you can why someone called Luo Ying didn't get on the plane from Ning Hai to Jing City."

"Don't shoot, I'll look immediately!" The fat man saw the gun and immediately pissed himself.

"Hurry up!" Ye Mo saw the man's shaky hands and yelled impatiently.

"Yes, yes." Although he was very nervous, he worked very fast.

The woman also didn't dare move from the couch at the sight of a gun.

"The person called Luo Ying didn't get on the plane. She didn't refund the ticket in Ning Hai either." The fat man truly was rather efficient.

Ye Mo said coldly, "Call Ning Hai to check if she went on another plane."

"Yes, I will." The fat man wasn't that shaky anymore.

A few minutes later, he wiped his forehead and said, "Luo Ying bought a last-minute ticket to Beijing. She should be almost in Beiji-"

Before the fat man finished, he saw that the big bearded man had disappeared. He rubbed his eyes - was he hallucinating just then? But soon, he just breathed a sigh of relief and made up his mind to lock the door next time. If this happened a few more times, he truly might remain impotent for life.

...

Beijing, Qing Hong Airport, a plane from Ning Hai had just landed.

When Luo Ying walked out, her beauty caught everyone's eyes. All eyes stared at this magnificent lady.

But Luo Ying was just pretending to look around. She didn't know if they had noticed that she had realized that their 'Ye Mo' was fake, so she had to pretend and keep looking for him. At the same time, she started to call Ye Mo. She didn't know what they would do to her, but for some reason they hadn't attacked yet.

Luo Ying hadn't even unlocked her phone yet when a handsome man walked up to Luo Ying and took out a name card, "You're the most elegant girl I've ever seen, and I hope my sudden approach won't disturb you, but I'm Zhuo Mingxi from Lanye Corporation. I have studied in France and now I'm the manager of the research department in Lanye Corporation. What's your name?"

"Oh, please wait a second." Luo Ying didn't take the card and casually took out her phone instead. Usually, she would ignore someone like him, but she didn't know if the man was with that group of people or not. She needed to call Ye Mo.

"Okay." Seeing that Luo Ying didn't reject him and just told him to wait, he felt very happy and waited on the side like a gentleman. He could swear he had never seen a girl as excellent as her in his life.

There were a lot of girls chasing after him, and although many of them were pretty, they were like a speck of mortal dust compared to this girl. If he could get this girl's love in exchange, he would even be willing to give up his managerial position or being the successor of the Zhuo family. This girl was too pretty, she was a goddess!

Luo Ying felt very strange. She was sure that those people were after her. How come they still hadn't done anything this long after she got off the plane? She had even hidden the pistol in her sleeves already.

Luo Ying knew that her power was too low and that even if only someone like Dai Heng came, she wouldn't be able to deal with it.

But then she suddenly noticed a big bearded man. What made her focus on him wasn't the beard but the eyes - ever since the events in that village, she would never forget those eyes again.

His eyes and that feeling of intimacy he gave off made her want to run to him instantaneously.

Ye Mo and Luo Ying had the sudden feeling of wanting to cry. She had only separated with Ye Mo for a short while, but it felt like an eternity.

The moment he saw Luo Ying, Ye Mo felt someone was watching him. Although he could check it out, he didn't, because that wasn't what mattered in that moment. As long as he saw Luo Ying, it was fine. No matter what was up, he had to embrace her first.

At the same time, one man who was prepared to rob Luo Ying's phone and his three teammates who were prepared to attack Luo Ying as she chased her phone stopped their actions. They had received a message saying that they were to stop the plan and immediately retreat.

They didn't know why they were ordered to stop when the plan was already 80% done, but they immediately did as told nonetheless and got out of the airport.

Meanwhile Luo Ying couldn't hold herself back anymore and quickly ran into Ye Mo's arms.

"Susu, I'm here."

"En, I know."

....

Zhuo Mingxi looked on dumbly at the big beard hugging that goddess. He felt like his brain was lacking oxygen.

Such a goddess was hugging this ugly bearded guy? This was planting a flower in cow dung!

Everyone nearby also looked at this scene in a daze. They felt like their heart was going to shatter.

After a long while, Zhuo Mingxi came to the conclusion that the goddess must have been tricked. As long as he confronted the big beard, she would know who to choose.

Thinking like that, he took out his name card and walked up to Luo Ying and Ye Mo, saying, "I'm Zhuo Mingxi, Lanye Corporation's Head of Research."

Ye Mo didn't want to talk to him, but hearing the corporation's name he took the card and said, "Oh, I've heard of this company."

Then, he pulled Luo Ying's hand, "Let's go, tell me everything later."

Zhuo Mingxi was left standing there in a daze.

Not too long after that, in a certain mansion in Beijing, a few people were sitting down together. The one who looked like Ye Mo on the plane had pulled off his mask and was making a call.

"The plan has been aborted. Yes, I did see the man. I'm sure now that that was Ye Mo - he's with Luo Ying. Yes, I am certain. They hugged each other as soon as they saw each other." The man's tone was very serious, but he was also shaky.

Those who knew him knew that his hands wouldn't shake even when he killed multiple people yet now, his hands were actually shaking.

"No, I am sure that one hour before that he was still in Jin City, yet he appeared in Beijing's Jing Hong Airport. This should be impossible, yet it happened. Everything was going very well according to the original plan, and I can say that if he hadn't appeared, we would've succeeded and I wouldn't have had to order the stop. He is just too eerie." The man's hands were still shaking.

Suddenly, the man's tone went high too, "No, he didn't take the plane here, I am certain of that. Yes, I suspect that he has some small flying device, but I haven't seen it. Okay, what should we do next?"

Chapter 640: Seeing Han Zaixin

Although Tang Beiwei didn't really know why she felt uneasy, but ever since she started cultivating, she had gotten this sense of what might happen in the near future.

She carefully sent her spirit sense out and saw a food delivery man. She sighed of relief - was she being too careful?

Just when she was about to open the door, she noticed that the man had a gun. She realized that she was being too careless. Tang Beiwei took out a fireball charm. If the person charged inside, she would throw it.

Although she was at stage 2 now, she didn't know any moves except fireballs and wind control.

But just then Tang Beiwei saw that the man picked up a call, turned around and left. He disappeared quickly.

After the man left, Tang Beiwei bought a phone and called Ye Mo.

In a coffee shop, Ye Mo heard Luo Ying's story and realized that these people were either from the Black Sun Empire or Northern Sand.

"Let me call Beiwei." As soon as Ye Mo grabbed the phone, Beiwei called.

Knowing that she was fine, Ye Mo felt relieved.

"Beiwei, although I don't know why they suddenly backed out, you still need to be careful. How about I come back and take you to Beijing as well?"

Tang Beiwei knew that Luo Ying had found her brother and felt relieved. She didn't want to be the third wheel in Beijing, so she reassured him, "Brother, I'm fine. I have spirit sense now and I can use wind control and fireballs. I still have plenty of fireball charms, so no one can do anything to me, don't worry."

Ye Mo thought for a bit and agreed. Although she was only stage 2, she was a dao cultivator. It would be hard for a black level early stage martial artist to keep up with her. Although she couldn't beat them, she could run away.

Then, Ye Mo got up and said to Luo Ying, "Let's go visit an old man and earn some money. Then, we'll go to Ning Hai and take Beiwei to Luo Yue. "

Luo Ying agreed.

Although Ye Mo didn't mention again the people who had tricked Luo Ying into the plane to Beijing, he had made up his mind that he would annihilate them before he went to the small world.

Now that he had finished his business and he was with Luo Ying, he didn't need to keep the mask on. He washed everything off in the toilet. Ye Mo knew that those people had probably guessed who he was, but so what?

...

When Ye Mo and Luo Ying went to Han Zaixin's place, it was already afternoon.

Ye Mo mainly came for the ores, but he also wanted to see Li Hu and Zhang Jue - they were quite close. Although he had helped them, they also helped him before too.

When he faced the Song family or when he needed them to protect Ye Ling and Ye Zifeng, they had helped a lot.

Knowing that Ye Mo was coming, Han Zaixin came out to greet him the moment he stepped in. When he saw Luo Ying, he couldn't help to approve of Ye Mo's taste. Both Ning Qingxue and Luo Ying were much prettier than Han Yan.

"Elder Han, call Li Hu and Zhang Jue over to eat as well. I haven't seen them for a long time," Ye Mo asked.

Han Zaixin sighed, "I called you over this time because of them."

Ye Mo frowned, "What's this?"

Han Zaixin hesitated before saying, "Last time we talked I already told you about the Space Flower blueprint's issue. Even if we can't get it, we can't let other countries have it. So, when news of it got out, some countries sent their masters to retrieve it and so did we."

Ye Mo was speechless. "Even Li Hu and Zhang Jue went?"

Han Zaixin nodded, "Not only them. The country has also sent eight other people. Ten elites went, but it's been a few months and there's still no news from them. I'm very worried."

"So, you called me so many times to get me to help you see what's going on?" Ye Mo wasn't feeling comfortable. Li Hu and Zhang Jue were his friends, and he had told Han Zaixin many times that it was useless, even if they got the blueprint. However, he had still sent people to die.

If Li Hu and the others were fighting against Northern Sand, how could they win? Ever since they had developed the light-speed gun, not even he could ensure a clear victory.

Han Zaixin looked guilty but still nodded, "Yes, I realized that no one but you can help. I know Luo Yue is yours and you're busier than me, but I really have no other way. I can't afford to lose the Ten Flying Snow's elite members nor the blueprint. I won't blame you, even if you don't want to help, but I need to do everything I can despite knowing that they might not be alive."

Then, Han Zaixin paused and said, "Don't worry about Luo Yue, I never told anyone about it."

Hearing this, Ye Mo felt a bit more comfortable.

Ye Mo's expression relaxed and asked, "Doesn't Beijing have a Heaven Squad? Why don't you ask them?"

Han Zaixin smiled bitterly, "Ever since you fought with Tan Jiao, he went into solitary training. After the hidden sects tournament, Tan Jiao and Luan Qingfeng disappeared together. Tan Jiao's disciple Xu Shi also disappeared, and even Song Yangzhu is gone. After that, we rarely see anyone from the hidden sects. They almost never come out and they haven't asked us again to give them ores. I don't know if this is good or bad. The president knows that I came to you for help and he agreed that only you can help us."

Ye Mo hadn't expected that Tan Jiao and Luan Qingfeng would disappear. When he heard of Song Yangzhu, he immediately remembered what happened in the tent at Mei Nei Snow Mountains - how she was so wild and clutched him so tightly, as though she was trying to squeeze herself into him. He got lost in his thoughts wondering if that woman was okay.

"Ye Mo," Luo Ying called him. She could feel something wasn't right with Ye Mo and grabbed his hand.

Ye Mo held her hand tightly too and cast those thoughts aside. No matter what, he already had Luo Ying and Qingxue.

After a while, Ye Mo patted Luo Ying's hand and said to Han Zaixin, "Elder Han, Zhang Jue and Li Hu are my friends, I will go have a look. And I'll say this one last time: even if you found it, the space flower blueprint is useless to you. If you don't believe me, there's nothing I can do about it."

"I know, but if things were to happen again, I would have still gone for it. Some things you can't just let go because you don't want to, and this time, it's not just about the Space Flower," Han Zaixin sighed.

"Let's not talk about this now. What intel did you get and what exactly is going on?" Ye Mo asked.

Han Zaixin nodded and said, "Do you know the Ice Helm Island?"

Ye Mo shook his head.

Han Zaixin continued, "It's in the Atlantic Ocean, it's not very big, about few 1000 square kilometers. This island is surrounded by glaciers.

If it wasn't for something that happened a few months ago, no one would have known that there were people there. A bunch of crazy people."
