Chapter 641: Ghost Island

Ye Mo conjectured that it might be a Northern Sand base.

Han Zaixin continued, "A few months ago, a fast jet ski appeared near the Beaufort Sea with a man nearing death on it. The jet ski went past a cruiser, and the man was saved.

The first thing he asked for when he could move again was a computer. With it, he sent out a massive amount of images and intel, all about research data of some labs under the Ice Helm Island. A group of scientists was researching all sorts of crazy weapons there. The intel that mam sent out was only a small part of it, yet it had huge worth.

Shockingly enough, one of the images was of a flying saucer in the making. That wasn't a flying saucer though, it was the Space Flower.

Ye Mo understood that someone else must've escaped from Northern Sand, and that person must have wanted to relay this information to the world in order to stop Northern Sand.

Han Zaixin said solemnly, "I think you already know, but that was a Northern Sand base, and that man was someone who ran away from Northern Sand. Although I don't know how he got out, but Northern Sand is indeed building weapons that can threaten the whole world in that base. Now, before the man could finish sending the images, the cruiser was rammed and sank into the ocean."

"Rammed? Not attacked by a weapon?" Ye Mo asked in wonder.

Han Zaixin shook his head "Indeed, it's as though it rammed into a reef and the cruiser just sunk. A small part of the people on board survived, but the man who escaped also sank with the cruiser, and the data in his hands was lost."

"But because of all that data being sent out, many countries sent men wanting to get their hands on the Space Flower or on the other weapons, right?" Ye Mo sneered.

Han Zaixin smiled bitterly, "After that happened, Russia, the US, and Canada sent out ships immediately. The Ice Helm Island base did blow up most of its facilities and managed to transfer some important things, but they were too short on time. Russia's and the US's ships started to attack the island pretty soon.

Meanwhile, the island seemed to be meant only for doing research and had no military power. Hence, it didn't take long to kill off all resistance. But then Russia and the US didn't find anything, except for the remnants of the Space Flower."

"Since they didn't find anything, why were people still sent over?" Ye Mo asked in wonder.

Han Zaixin sighed, "Because Northern Sand didn't have enough time to evacuate completely, and no one believed that Northern Sand would have destroyed all that valuable research unless it was really their last moment. They believed the person keeping the data must've hidden somewhere. More and more countries wanted to join the party, and they eventually came to the common ground that each country would form a special squad to send onto the island. The deal was that as long as there were no radiation or human-race-endangering weapons, then each country got whatever their squad found."

"Did none of the special forces make it out alive?" Ye Mo asked strangely.

Han Zaixin nodded, "Indeed, not a single country's squad came back. More people were sent in later, but those also disappeared. With more and more people disappearing, many countries have started to quit. If it wasn't that so many people might somehow still be alive on the island, perhaps the island would have been blown to nothing already.

Ye Mo immediately felt that something was wrong. First of all, how could an organization like Northern Sand let someone escape again after Ye Xing's escape? And this escapee even brought out large amounts of intel. Secondly, although Ice Helm Island was pretty big, it was still only an ice island. There were no forests, how could people disappear so easily?

Thirdly, the Union that had formed would at most propose to form an international squad to go in and search such an important place, how could they agree to let all those different countries go in and play finders keepers? This wasn't a child's game. The main thing was that no one had gone missing before those elite squads went in. Only afterwards did strange things start to happen.

"Who brought up the idea of sending in elite forces?" Ye Mo asked.

Hearing this, Han Zaixin looked at Ye Mo in shock and said, "When the elite forces started to go missing, others also started getting suspicious, but then the senator who had brought up the suggestion suddenly died."

Ye Mo fell into contemplation. The squads the countries sent out would undoubtedly be the elite of the elite. If this really had been a trap, why would Northern Sand want these elites? They weren't scientists.

Han Zaixin suddenly said, "Although Northern Sand has abducted scientists before, they never tried to abduct any of our special forces' elites. Perhaps this has nothing to do with Northern Sand? Maybe something happened with the island."

Ye Mo had thought as far as well and shook his head, "You're right. They wouldn't do that, because it would be pointless. Even if they could use them to train stronger people, even if they could assassinate the president--"

Ye Mo stopped there. What if they wanted to assassinate Ye Xing? Ye Xing's use to Luo Yue was no less than Ye Mo's. Without Ye Xing, Luo Yue might have lost last time.

But then, Ye Mo thought that perhaps he was thinking too much. No one should know that Ye Xing was in Luo Yue.

But what if Northern Sand did know? Ye Mo knew that his theory was a bit absurd, but what if Northern Sand was really doing all that to kill Ye Xing?

At the last Luo Yue battle, Luo Yue dominated the scene when no one could match Luo Yue's electronic interference machine which had been designed by Ye Xing. Would Northern Sand suspect that Ye Xing had run over to Luo Yue from that?

Even if they wanted to assassinate Ye Xing, it wouldn't be easy. Random people wouldn't even be able to get near the core region of Luo Yue.

Unless Luo Yue suddenly fell apart, but unless there was another war how could Luo Yue fall apart?

War?

Ye Mo thought of the recent attacks on his businesses. If Northern Sand was behind that, then there really might be war coming soon. If Luo Yue fought with a bunch of other countries then no matter how strong it was, there was a limit to how many countries it could take on at the same time.

As Ye Mo thought about all that, he suddenly felt cold sweat run down his back. If that had been planned out step by step by Ye Mo's enemy, then that enemy was too calculative. People like that did exist, for example Dongfang Xi, but it was destined that there would never be a lot of people like that at the same time.

All that just to attack Ye Xing? Ye Mo shook his head - he knew he was thinking too much after all. There couldn't be a plan betting on so many coincidences. Even if they wanted Ye Xing, they wouldn't do all this.

But no matter what, Ye Mo still had to call Xu Yuehua, Xu Ping and Ye Xing.

Just as Ye Mo was prepared to call Xu Yuehua, his phone sounded first.

Chapter 642: Private Gathering

Xu Yuehua was calling. Ye Mo said, "Sister Yuehua, I was just about to call you. You go first."

"President, the Indonesian government doesn't seem to want to comply. Instead, they are ordering warships from a few western countries," Xu Yuehua said.

If he hadn't heard Han Zaixin's words, Ye Mo would have started a war without hesitation. Indonesia wasn't that strong, but now Ye Mo had to be careful. Even if he was to start war, he had to make sure to protect Ye Xing and the others.

"How are you dealing with this?" Ye Mo asked after thinking for a moment.

Xu Yuehua immediately replied, "The rest of the countries that had discord with our business have negotiated conditions and we reached a common ground. Only Indonesia and Philippines won't budge. They don't want to resolve the conflict at all. We've put on hold all cooperation projects, so they are currently asking for compensation."

"Okay," Ye Mo nodded. Luo Yue wasn't afraid of Indonesia or the Philippines.

"You did well, Luo Yue will now active the war protocol. Tell Ye Xing about this as well. I will be more specific when I come back. And one more thing, increase Luo Yue's security. Make sure not a single person comes in and out without notifying us. Especially Ye Xing, tell him to stay safe. I suspect some people break into Luo Yue. Tell Second Brother this too," Ye Mo said.

Xu Yuehua said, "After what happened with our outlets, Luo Yue has already increased security. Don't worry, I know."

Ye Mo was very satisfied with how Xu Yuehua was handling things. Just when he was going to hang up, Xu Yuehua started speaking again, "And there's one more thing I need to tell you. Liang Jun and Lu Na recently have been acting a bit dodgy. They want to go visit their homes, so I said we'll decide once you come back."

Ye Mo's heart sunk, he had a bad feeling. Liang Jun and Lu Na were two of Luo Yue's scientists, they were a couple. They had even brought Luo Yue's new nuclear fission element. Most importantly, they had ran away from the Asian Northern Sand base. They wouldn't want to be caught again, so why were they choosing to leave Luo Yue at a time like this?

No matter what, he had to go back and ask them. Ye Mo immediately said, "They can't leave Luo Yue now, you must wait until I get back. I suspect this is someone's trap, they might've been tricked."

"Okay, I know." Xu Yuehua hung up and immediately sent orders.

Han Zaixin heard Ye Mo's words and said, "I know you're very busy right now, but if you need any help with Luo Yue I can ask the President. Still, Luo Yue doesn't need our help for technology, theoretically, China is always with Luo Yue. If it wasn't due to all sorts of reasons, we could even help you in the war with Indonesia."

Ye Mo heard this and was grateful. He knew that what Han Zaixin offered couldn't be done, but he did seem genuine. He was saying that he wanted to help from the bottom of his heart but he couldn't really send out troops due to his responsibilities.

"Ye Mo, let's go back first since there's trouble," Luo Ying was a bit worried. She knew that Luo Yue was Ye Mo's base. All his friends and family were there, if something happened to it, it would be a big blow to him.

Ye Mo nodded. He had to deal with these things first before he could help Han Zaixin.

Han Zaixin knew what Ye Mo was thinking and said, "You can go back and take care of the matters with Luo Yue first. The Ice Helm Island issue started some months ago, it doesn't matter if we put it aside for a few more days."

At this moment, Ye Mo's phone sounded again. It was Xu Yuehua again, but her tone was very desperate. She told Ye Mo that Liang Jun and Lu Na had left Luo Yue that morning. They were headed to Sri Lanka.

"Immediately lock down Luo Yue and control all the sea routes." Ye Mo knew that their departure would only get Ye Xing exposed. They might even spill out some of Luo Yue's military structures. In order to prevent similar things happening again, Ye Mo asked Xu Yuehua to lock down Luo Yue without hesitation.

After finishing this call, Ye Mo got up and said to Han Zaixin, "Elder Han, I will definitely remember to go the Ice Helm Island. I will go after the problems with Luo Yue are solved. Zhang Jue and Li Hu are my friends, I won't leave them like that."

Han Zaixin knew that Ye Mo was so busy that it was already significant that he had agreed to help him. It was unrealistic for him to put aside Luo Yue matters just to go immediately.

Ye Mo left with Luo Yue, he wasn't even in the mood to ask about the ores. He needed to get back to Luo Yue and solve these issues as soon as possible.

Luo Ying suddenly realized that she should start cultivating more, otherwise she wouldn't be able to help Ye Mo at all. Since Ye Mo had chosen to build with his strength his own city, she should help him and not be deadweight.

As though he knew what Luo Ying was thinking, Ye Mo squeezed her hand and said, "Susu, don't worry, I will deal with this. Also, there's something I've been too scared to tell you about."

Ye Mo finally found an opportunity to tell her about Ning Qingxue.

Luo Ying saw Ye Mo's awkward expression and covered his mouth with her hand, "Don't tell me now, let me go see her first."

This made Ye Mo feel even more awkward. He had thought Luo Ying didn't know about it, but she did. It must have been Beiwei, that girl!

"Ye Mo," someone calling his name made him go back to reality.

He had been so concentrated that he hadn't even noticed someone approaching him.

But he could see who it was now. It Wang Ying. He met her everywhere. There were two people next to her, and one of them was Su Jingwen's cousin Su Mei. Ye Mo didn't really like her, but that was in the past.

"Wang Ying, how come I end up seeing you everywhere, don't you need to work?" Wang Ying was someone Ye Mo could relax around since she was quite open, so it didn't matter if he joked with her.

"Is that your girlfriend?" Wang Ying looked at Luo Ying in shock, wondering where had Ye Mo found such a beautiful girl to be his girlfriend.

Ye Mo nodded, "Yes, she's Luo Ying. Luo Ying, this is my college classmate Wang Ying, she has helped me many times."

"Hello, Luo Ying," Wang Ying was a little nervous speaking to such a goddess.

"Hello," Luo Ying said.

"By the way, this is Su Mei and her friend. Do you still remember her?" Wang Ying said while pointing at Su Mei and the other person.

Ye Mo smiled, "Of course, long time no see."

"Hello, Ye Mo, your girlfriend is so pretty." Su Mei felt very strange, she had looked down on Ye Mo before, yet he had such a pretty girlfriend. That girl, Luo Ying, was probably prettier than Ning Qingxue, he was really lucky.

Wang Ying saw that the atmosphere was a little awkward so she quickly said, "By the way, the handsome and bulky Wang Xu Brother is back today. He's going to be developing his career in Beijing, so he's inviting everyone to eat. You can join later on too, it's at the Kai Yuan Restaurant, right in front of us. Many elite members of Beijing are coming. Ye Mo, if you're going to develop your career here, you must come tonight."

Ye Mo smiled, "I won't go, I still have some things to take care of with Luo Ying. Have fun!"

He had heard of Wang Xu before, Ye Mo had a good impression of him.

"That's a pity. If sister Luo Yue came tonight, she would be the number one goddess," Wang Ying said.

Luo Ying suddenly said to Ye Mo, "Ye Mo, I just saw a person go into that restaurant. He was the person who pretended to be you on the plane. Although he took the mask off, I'm sure it's him."

If that was the case, then no matter how busy he was, he had that time to spare. He immediately said to Wang Ying, "Okay, but we don't have an invitation, could you get us in?"

Chapter 643: Piss Off

Wang Ying was happy that Ye Mo and the others would be joining. When they went inside, there were already quite some people there. As soon as they sat down, waiters started to serve wine and juices.

Wang Ying sat next to Luo Ying intentionally, she tried asking her about a lot of things but Luo Ying wasn't good at talking, so she ended up listening on the side. When Wang Ying spoke about Ye Mo's hardships in Ning Hai, Luo Ying would listen carefully and ask something occasionally. When she heard that Ye Mo had been kicked out of the Ye family and for a while hadn't had money for food, her eyes turned red.

Ye Mo looked helplessly at his big-mouthed friend, but he could only let her do as she pleased. At the same time, he kept his spirit sense on the man who had tricked Luo Ying to come Beijing. He didn't want to touch him for now, he would wait for the rest of his crew to come.

Su Mei looked at how Luo Ying acted around Ye Mo and suddenly felt uncomfortable. What did Ye Mo have? He was just an abandoned son that just knew how to act cocky. How had he gotten the love of someone as pretty as Luo Ying? Luo Ying was so pretty that she couldn't even get jealous.

"Ye Mo, long time no see. How did you get rich?" Ever since Ye Mo had rejected her initiation, she had been very unhappy.

Ye Mo noticed her condescending attitude, but he just smiled, "I'm doing a bit of everything now, I'm not really rich."

Su Mei sneered. He must've tricked Luo Ying into dating him, she was obviously just an innocent girl. She would expose him in front of her.

For a girl like Luo Ying, anywhere she went, she would be the center of attention.

A few men had already come over to talk to her, but one was specially audacious. He was a tall young man.

He carried a glass of red wine and came onto her like a gentleman. He bowed and said, "Hello, beautiful lady, I'm Wang Qianjun. Could I have the honour of knowing your name?"

Luo Ying frowned and thought that he was being rude. Couldn't he see she was talking to someone else? Wang Ying glanced at Wang Qianjun and suddenly felt that she shouldn't have called Ye Mo and Luo Ying there. There were a lot of people with whom Ye Mo couldn't mess.

Su Mei suddenly started to get interested. She had heard about Wang Qianjun, he was Wang Xu's cousin, and also a member of the Beijing Wang family, he had quite some status. He was very lustful and wouldn't pass by a beautiful lady like Luo Ying just like that. Su Mei really wanted to know what Ye Mo was going to do. The best outcome for her would be if Wang Qianjun took Luo Ying from Ye Mo in front of his face. That would please her the most.

Luo Ying just didn't reply. Wang Qianjun was about to speak again when Ye Mo said, "Wang Qianjun, I know you. Two years ago you encountered robbers on your way to Flowing Snake, you left your girlfriend with the robbers and ran away yourself. It's you, right?"

Wang Qianjun heard this and his face immediately changed. Who could know about this other than Xiao Lei? Did she tell anyone?

After hearing this, not only Wang Ying but Su Mei and other people looked at him in shock. When Ye Mo said this, Wang Qianjun's face had changed but he hadn't denied it, so people knew that it might be true.

Some girls immediately started looking down on Wang Qianjun. They hadn't expected him to be such a pig.

If that got spread, then no matter how tall, handsome and rich he was, no girl would really want to be with him. They would at most go for his money.

"Bullsh*t, who are you?" Wang Qianjun reacted. If Xiao Lei had told anyone, he wouldn't let her go, but when he realized that the Xiao family wasn't scared of the Wang family, he was unsatisfied.

Ye Mo sneered, "You ask me who I am? I'm someone who saw it with his own eyes."

"Yo- you're the one who got out of the Audi!?" Wang Qianjun recognized Ye Mo when he looked at him again. As soon as he said this, he realized that he was somehow admitting it.

Ye Mo smiled, "That's right, that was me. She was really unlucky to have met you."

"Ye Mo, you're right, it's indeed unlucky to know scum like him," a feminine voice sounded.

"Xiao Lei, what do you mean?" Wang Qianjun's face looked bad, he hadn't expected Xiao Lei to have come too.

"Scum, you have no right to ask what I mean! I really don't want to talk to someone like you. I was really blind in the past." Xiao Lei glared at Wang Qianjun and came up to Ye Mo.

"You have guts," Wang Qianjun looked coldly at Ye Mo and said.

Ye Mo sat down and didn't get up. He put down his glass of wine and said, "Piss off."

If he didn't have to check up on the man who didn't come out, Ye Mo would've kicked him already, but that would cause too much commotion.

"You!" Wang Qianjun wanted to rage but before he could, someone already pulled him aside and took his spot.

The person who pulled Wang Qianjun away didn't even look at him, and instead said joyfully to Ye Mo, "Haha- Young Master Mo, I didn't think I would see you at my welcome evening. I'm so lucky."

It was Wang Xu. Ye Mo had met him at Su Jingwen's birthday party.

Ye Mo got up and shook hands with him, "I just happened to see Wang Ying and decided to come over. Long time no see."

"Yes, long time no see. Oh, Journalist Xiao is here too, hello," Wang Xu looked at Xiao Lei.

In this moment Xiao Lei saw Luo Ying and asked Ye Mo, "Ye Mo, this is?"

"Oh, this is Luo Ying, my wife," Ye Mo held Luo Ying's hand and replied.

"Ye Mo, you're married?" Wang Ying and Xiao Lei asked at the same time.

Wang Ying had thought Luo Ying was Ye Mo's girlfriend. Xiao Lei was even more shocked. She had always thought that it would be Ning Qingxue who would marry Ye Mo, but it was this girl. Xiao Lei really wanted to ask what Ning Qingxue was going to do.

Although she wanted to ask really badly, she knew now wasn't the right time.

"Congratulations! I didn't think Young Master Mo was married," Wang Xu said in admiration.

"Wang Xu, today's the day you start working in Beijing. You're the next family leader that grandpa chose, you don't need to waste your time with irrelevant people," Wang Qianjun said.

Wang Xu seemed to have just noticed Wang Qianjun's presence. He just said coldly, "Piss off."

"You-" Wang Qianjun's expression changed. He didn't expect his cousin to be that rude, he was a direct cousin of the family lineage. How dare he insult him like this in front of a stranger? He looked hatefully at Ye Mo and left.

Su Mei was astonished. She really didn't understand how an abandoned son had managed to become close with Wang Xu.

Ye Mo looked at Wang Qianjun and sneered. He didn't say anything. If Wang Qianjun came looking for trouble, it would be like looking to be crushed.

Wang Xu ignored Wang Qianjun and said to Ye Mo and the others, "Have a seat, I need to greet some more guests."

Ye Mo nodded. Then, he saw another two people go into that room. From their faces he could tell that they already knew he and Luo Ying were there. Since they had come, it meant that they also knew Wang Xu.

"Luo Ying, you're really pretty, did you just marry Ye Mo?" Xiao Lei felt that she was simple compared to Luo Ying's beauty and felt a little sour.

Luo Ying smiled. That gesture was like a hundred flowers blooming, even Xiao Lei lost her mind for a second.

"Yes, Ye Mo said that when we go back we'll have a big wedding."

Chapter 644: Luo Ying's Anger

Together with the two men who entered the room, another man and woman also went inside. Including the first guy, there were five people in the room now. He actually knew the woman who just went in, she was Sister Ling, the one he had taken the Extreme Energy Stone from. Ye Mo had found out later on from Lu Na that she was her Sister Lu Lin.

Theoretically, she should've been punished by Northern Sand, so why was she still there? Moreover, the rest of the people seemed to be getting along well. The moment he saw Lu Lin, Ye Mo knew why Lu Na and her boyfriend had left Luo Yue - it was due to her sister.

Ye Mo felt something wasn't right. These people were undoubtedly from Northern Sand, but was Northern Sand really that easy to talk to?

The Extreme Energy Stone was too important, and Lu Lin had lost it, how could she still be fine? But no matter what, since he had seen Lu Lin there, then Lu Na might also come there. He just had to keep an eye on these people. He must not allow Lu Na to spill Luo Yue's security details, even though she didn't know much. Thinking about this, Ye Mo suddenly got up and said to Luo Ying, "Wait here for me, I have some business to take care of. I'll be back soon."

Luo Ying nodded, "Go, I will wait here for you." She of course knew what Ye Mo was doing, she was very confident in his power.

Ye Mo said goodbye to Wang Ying and Xiao Lei before leaving. He wanted to get inside to spy on them, but for that he had to go out first. He was sure that the Northern Sand people were watching him too, so he had to go out first and turn invisible before coming back inside.

"What is Ye Mo doing?" Xiao Lei asked.

Luo Ying smiled but didn't reply.

She wasn't good at lying, so she didn't say anything.

"By the way, Luo Ying, where are you guys planning to celebrate your wedding? Do you already have a date?" Xiao Lei asked again.

Luo Ying shook her head, "I don't know yet, whenever Ye Mo decides."

Hearing this, the other girls glanced at each other, they admired Luo Ying's beauty, but she was submissive in their eyes. Ye Mo was really capable, where had he found a girl like this? Nowadays, both parties negotiated on the wedding date.

Su Mei felt even more unsatisfied. She didn't know why, but the better Ye Mo was the more she was uncomfortable. Just when they were all chatting comfortably, she suddenly intervened, "Luo Ying, do you know about Ye Mo's past?"

Luo Ying smiled, "Wang Ying already told me, I already know everything."

"No, I'm not talking about that. A test at the hospital showed that Ye Mo was impotent." Su Mei wanted Luo Ying to leave him, so she had to do this while Ye Mo wasn't there.

Wang Ying's expression changed drastically, "Su Mei, why are you talking about this? Ye Mo is also our classmate."

Xiao Lei had investigated Ye Mo before, so she also got to hear about this. However, she cared more about a person's character, not about his physical conditions.

She also looked at Su Mei in confusion. Did she hate Ye Mo or something?

Luo Ying wasn't dumb. When she first saw Ye Mo and Su Mei together, she felt tension between the two of them, but Ye Mo didn't mention anything, and she stayed polite. But now Su Mei was talking behind Ye Mo's back which made her very angry.

She knew better than anyone else whether Ye Mo was impotent or not. She couldn't even take his fervor sometimes, yet Su Mei dared to say something like that about her husband. This made her angry immediately. At the same time, she felt Su Mei was really shameless. If Ye Mo hadn't told her to wait there, she would've left already.

She looked coldly at Su Mei, "You don't need to worry about my husband, that's my business. Also, I don't want to sit next to someone like you, please move aside."

Su Mei's expression changed. She hadn't thought someone as gentle as Luo Ying had this side.

Su Mei couldn't stay there anymore. She got up and pulled Wang Ying, "I'm leaving, are you coming?" Then, she left without waiting for a reply.

Wang Ying said helplessly to Luo Ying, "I'll go check on her."

Although she didn't like the way Su Mei was talking, she was her still good friend and she couldn't just let her leave like that.

When Wang Ying caught up with Su Mei, she said unhappily, "Luo Ying is like a goddess. Why did you say that? You went overboard."

Su Mei sneered, "I'm doing this for her benefit. It'd be such a waste if someone like her got tricked by Ye Mo, but now it seems like she deserves it."

"What's wrong with Ye Mo? I feel he's really nice, I really don't understand why you hate him. Also, he's not 'that' anymore," Wang Ying was angry.

"He's not? How do you know? Have you been to bed with him?" Su Mei was getting fired up too.

Hearing Su Mei's words made Wang Ying unhappy. "Don't say that, but Ye Mo is fine. His sister told me. So it's not like that, and I think you need to calm down."

Su Mei sneered, "Ye Ling is Ye Mo's sister, how would she know? Who are you lying to?"

Wang Ying was angry now too. She sneered, "Ye Ling's dormmate, Tian He, told Ye Ling, can that be fake?"

Su Mei suddenly took out her phone, looked at Wang Ying and said, "Wang Ying, I know you're trying to speak up for Ye Mo, but I happen to know Tian He. She's in the same company as me, I'll call her right now so you can hear for yourself."

Wang Ying was dumbfounded. She didn't understand why she was so serious about such a small matter.

Su Mei's call went through quickly, "Tian He, it's me, Su Mei. No, I just need to ask you a quick question about that guy Ye Mo. Yes, her brother. I heard that after a hospital check up, he was found to be- huh- you've heard about it too."

Su Mei looked satisfied at Wang Ying and continued, "Yes, I heard other people say the check up was fake. What? Is it really fake? How do you know? What did that pervert do to you- Uh, I know. Don't say that. How could I go to bed with him! Um- I'm just asking. Big, I don't like big."

Wang Ying looked at Su Mei, who looked like a defeated rooster, and said, "Su Mei, you're not from a small family, don't you know about family wars? Ye Mo was a sacrifice in one of those fights. Of course the check up is fake. Look at how happy his girlfriend Luo Ying is. Stop trying to change the facts, it's real. Let's go and apologize."

"I won't go apologize. Even if Ye Mo is fine, he doesn't even have a stable job. He doesn't deserve to be with a girl like her. It's like a flower planted on cow dung, yet that woman deserves it," Su Mei said in contempt.

Wang Ying shook her head and walked towards Luo Ying.

Ye Mo entered the room invisible and started to eavesdrop.

Their conversation was very succinct. They were indeed Northern Sand members and the person who had pretended to be him was called Captain Liu. Regarding the man and woman who had come in last, Lu Lin was the woman and the man was called Scorpion. The moment Ye Mo saw him, he knew that it was the guy that had been watching him at the airport. He only had Luo Ying in his eyes at the time and had ignored him.

"Ye Mo and Luo Ying are here, is that intentional?" Captain Liu asked.

Scorpion shook his head, "Probably not. They coincidentally met Wang Ying and Su Mei at the door and they brought them inside. It seems like he knows Wang Xu and they're quite clo-"

"Young Master Yong, don't be impulsive," Captain Liu stopped the white-skinned young man.

"That bastard broke my brother's legs. Our Dai family's enmity with him is deep like the sea!" the white man roared.

Chapter 645: Ye Mo, who are you?!

Ye Mo just realized that this Young Master Yong was Dai Heng's brother.

Other than that Captain Liu who was at the yellow level middle stage and the man who didn't talk who was at the yellow level latter stage, the other three were ordinary people.

Captain Liu waved his hand and seemed to have gotten some news. A moment later, he said, "Ye Mo just left. Only Luo Ying is still inside. Lu Na and Liang Jun will come to Beijing tonight, and we have arranged to meet at 2 a.m. outside the Yan Shui River, but Lu Lin must go."

Hearing this, Dai Yong got up suddenly, "Captain Liu, since Luo Ying is alone, we-"

He was stopped by Captain Liu, "I know you want that Luo Ying, but you can't now. Everyday Ye Mo is alive is a day you can't touch her, even if we capture her. Moreover, this is the Wang family's turf, and Wang Xu is close to Ye Mo. We can't do anything here even if the opportunity is right. Who knows if Ye Mo comes back suddenly. To be honest, we're not even big enough for him to care about killing us."

Ye Mo sneered. This handful of people was indeed not enough for him to kill. He could deal with them with just a couple of fireballs.

Ye Mo didn't want to keep listening anymore now that he knew where they would be meeting up. He would go to the river at night.

Just when Ye Mo wanted to leave, his spirit sense noticed that a waitress who was wiping a table had been wiping that table for a long time.

Ye Mo looked a bit closer, and she was very emaciated, and her face was covered in scars.

Ye Mo looked at her body, and her chest and back were also covered in scars.

Although her eyes looked really calm, Ye Mo could feel the hatred in her eyes. Ye Mo felt strange. The woman gave him a sense of familiarity, but he couldn't remember who she was.

Soon, Ye Mo saw a small black dot in her ears. It was a listening device. Ye Mo immediately thought to check the room those five people had been in and searched it with his spirit sense. Under one of the chairs, he found a listening device indeed.

So she was listening to those Northern Sand guys too! It was fine as long as she didn't get in his way. Ye Mo didn't keep looking at her and left.

When Ye Mo walked to the door, he saw a few people sitting around the same table as Luo Ying. Su Mei was also there, but Luo Ying's brow was frowned. The truth was that if Ye Mo hadn't told her to wait there, she would've left already.

Ye Mo knew all those people. Other than Qiu Zhitan and Han Dan, there was also Qiu Zhixue whom he almost gave a beating once.

Ye Mo had heard that Qiu Zhixue was the best in the young generation of the Qiu family, and the guy did have some brains as he didn't attack Ye Mo straight away back then at Wutong Restaurant, so he managed to avoid Ye Mo's wrath.

Ye Mo walked up to Luo Ying and said, "I'm back."

Seeing this, Luo Ying got up and held Ye Mo's arm. She really detested the people around her.

Su Mei sneered. The people who were there that day were all very powerful. They were people even Wang Xu couldn't be rude to. As for Qiu Zhixue, even Wang Xu's dad had to be careful in front of him.

Just when Qiu Zhirang and Han Dan were prepared to chat to Luo Ying, they saw Ye Mo and their hearts immediately skipped a beat. When they saw Luo Ying hold Ye Mo's arm, their faces went pale.

Han Dan was regretting so much that he wanted to disappear. If he knew Ye Mo was there, he wouldn't so much as show his face, if he would even come at all, yet now not only did he appear in front of him, he was also standing in front of his woman.

"Brother Ye." Han Dan looked down and greeted carefully.

"Young Master Mo." Qiu Zhirang didn't have his previous alpha male vibe anymore either.

"Young Master Mo, I didn't think you would be coming here. It's really an honour." Qiu Zhixue saw Ye Mo, and his face immediately changed, but his composure was good, and he quickly reacted and extended his hand towards Ye Mo.

Ye Mo sneered and ignored him. Then, he scanned them and said, "What do you want to say here?"

"Um, nothing. We were just passing by and wanted to say hi to Journalist Xiao," Qiu Zhirang quickly explained.

"In that case, p*ss off already," Ye Mo said coldly.

"Yes, I will p*ss off immediately." Qiu Zhirang was scared that his legs would also be broken.

Although Qiu Zhirang didn't dare say anything, Qiu Zhixue's face was green. He didn't think Ye Mo would be that cocky. He clenched his fingernails into his palm, and blood even started dripping out a bit, but he didn't dare say no. If he did or resisted in any way, Ye Mo might even kill him. Ye Mo was a madman - a madman that no one could control.

"Han Dan, is there any good in hanging out with this scum everyday? Don't lose face for Han Zaixin. P*ss off too." Ye Mo felt annoyed thinking that Han Zaixin was trying to fight the Northern Sand people while his descendant was hanging out close to them.

"Yes, Brother Ye, I will leave immediately." Han Dan quickly left.

Qiu Zhixue also wanted to leave, but he was stopped by Ye Mo, "You wait, I still have something to ask you."

Although Qiu Zhixue wanted to shoot Ye Mo and eat his flesh on the spot, he had to stop and listen to Ye Mo.

Su Mei was astonished. These people who were too powerful for her to even talk to were acting like rats in front of a cat! Even Qiu Zhixue was like this. She didn't want to believe it, but that was the reality. How could Ye Mo do all that? Su Mei wanted to scream, 'Ye Mo, who are you?!' Wasn't he the abandoned son of the Ye family?

"Young Master Mo, I heard you're in Beijing, so I came to greet you! Haha, you're here indeed!" A man with a loud voice ran over.

Su Mei didn't know this person but from how everyone greeted him when he walked over, she knew that he was even more powerful than Qiu Zhixue.

Qiu Zhixue also greeted, "Chief Du, I didn't think you'd be here too."

"Oh, Zhixue, you're here too. Haha, I came to see instructor." The middle-aged man changed the title he used for Ye Mo.

"Yes, Young Master Mo was going to ask me to something, so here I am," Qiu Zhixue said.

Ye Mo smiled, "Captain Du, you got news from Elder Han, right? Also, don't call me instructor, that sounds too distant."

Ye Mo did indeed know Du Tao very well. He was Flying Snow's instructor and also the Vice Chief Commander of Beijing.

Chapter 646: Yan Riverbank

Seeing that Ye Mo was just talking to Du Tao and hadn't even looked at him, Qiu Zhixue decided to keep enduring it and asked, "Young Master Mo, do you need me for anything? If not, I-"

Even Du Tao stopped at this point. Although his status made Qiu Zhixue respect him, it really was nothing compared to the Qiu family, so he couldn't just ignore Qiu Zhixue.

Ye Mo glanced at Qiu Zhixue and said, "I heard Li Qiuyang was targeted by the Qiu and Dai family? He even has to go to jail, right?"

Qiu Zhixue heard this, and he was mind-blown. If Ye Mo was going to intervene in that, then their two families wouldn't have a certain victory anymore. Ye Mo was an unreasonable madman who even the President, the Han family, as well as the fading out Zhang family were helping.

But now that Ye Mo had asked, he couldn't just not answer. He quickly said, "There's no such thing. I'm very close to Brother Qiuyang, he's just assisting with the investigation a bit. He'll be fine in no time."

Ye Mo didn't want to intervene in these fights, so he said plainly, "Li Qiuyang has helped me quite a lot. I'm not interested in your business, but I don't want anything to happen to him. Take my word: my patience is limited. If I don't hear news from him quickly, I will go visit your family."

Threats. His words were purely threats. Ye Mo didn't even want to know what was going on, yet he asked for them to let go of Li Qiuyang. Li Qiuyang was an elite of the Li family and had a similar status to his. If they had to let go Li Qiuyang, it would be like a slap in the face. Luckily, Ye Mo said that he wasn't interested in their fights.

Although Qiu Zhixue really wanted to tell Ye Mo that he wasn't even in charge of it and to just please mind his own business, he didn't dare to.

"Yes, I will let them know," Qiu Zhixue suppressed his anger. He really wondered if the Dai and Qiu family together could take on Ye Mo or not.

Because this involved family battles between the Dai and Qiu family, Du Tao didn't intervene. He knew that only Ye Mo would dare talk about it, other people didn't even dare mention it.

After being told off by Ye Mo, Qiu Zhixue no longer had the face to stay there. He didn't even say goodbye to Wang Xu and just left.

Xiao Lei looked at Ye Mo speechless. The gathering had just started, and Ye Mo had already kicked four people away.

Ye Mo smiled and greeted the people he knew before leaving with Luo Ying.

When she saw Ye Mo and Luo Ying leave, Su Mei came back to her senses. She hesitated before looking at Xiao Lei and asking, "Journalist Xiao, how is it that Ye Mo is this- so-?"

Xiao Lei suddenly got bored after Ye Mo left. She got up too and just smiled at Su Mei, but she didn't answer.

She didn't want to talk to Su Mei much because of her attitude to Ye Mo.

...

"Susu, after I'm done taking care of some things here, we will go back and live together in Luo Yue. One day, we will just stay in Luo Yue and there will be no need to run around," Ye Mo said with guilt to Luo Ying.

He knew that Luo Ying wished to have a peaceful life, yet he was taking her everywhere and made her worry.

Luo Ying smiled and didn't say anything, she just moved closer to Ye Mo. After a long while, she said, "Tell me about her. Is it Qingxue or that girl?"

Ye Mo was dazed and subconsciously asked, "Who is that girl?"

"Then, is it Qingxue?" Luo Ying fell silent. Although she didn't have any blood relations with Qingxue, she was still her aunt.

She had only scanned Qingxue when she saw her, and she didn't look at her carefully. She just knew Qingxue was a pretty girl.

"Sorry, Susu, I-" Ye Mo really didn't know how to explain this to her. He understood what she meant by 'that girl', she was probably talking about Chi Wanqing.

Seeing Ye Mo's guilty expression, Luo Ying smiled and grabbed his hand, "Don't apologize. I don't mind as long as I can be with you. I think that if Qingxue loves you, she won't mind either."

Ye Mo embraced Luo Ying and felt excited. He knew that Luo Ying wouldn't object to it. It was easier for Luo Ying to accept it as she still had memories of Luo Ying Continent.

"Susu, I'll tell you about Qingxue."

"En."

Ye Mo told Luo Ying the story as they walked slowly by the Yan riverbank.

...

After telling Luo Ying everything that had happened, her eyes were red. She had completely accepted Ning Qingxue in her heart. She hadn't expected Ning Qingxue to be such a strong-willed girl and that in order to wait for her, they still hadn't gotten married yet.

If it wasn't for her, perhaps Ye Mo would've died at Shen Nong Jia.

Ye Mo saw Luo Ying's worry and held her a little tighter. The couple just stopped by the riverbank.

After a while, an animal howled and startled them.

Luo Ying caressed Ye Mo's hair and asked softly, "Should we go back now?"

Ye Mo smiled and said, "Wait, something will happen tonight. Things might get bloody. How about I take you to the hotel and come pick you up after I'm done?"

Luo Ying shook her head, "No, I will go with you."

"Okay, we'll do that then." Ye Mo didn't try to persuade her. Regardless of whether she would get her memories back, there were some things people had to face living in this world.

"Susu, did you have a look at the diary I gave you last time?" That book was the most important thing that could help her awaken her memories.

Luo Ying said quietly, "Not yet, I'm still learning the Luo Yue words you taught me. I want to read it after I learn them."

"Okay, remember to tell me once you're done," Ye Mo said with a dirty smile. Luo Ying blushed. Although she really wanted to read it, she didn't want the mood to be ruined by her bad comprehension.

Realizing this, she was just about to kiss Ye Mo when he said, "They're here. Let's watch them from the side."

As soon as Luo Ying and Ye Mo moved to the side, four people gathered there. Only Dai Yong wasn't there. They all had a gun and that Captain Liu even had two. What made Ye Mo realize something was off was that Lu Lin was tied up and there was even some cloth stuffed in her mouth. Ye Mo had seen them on good terms before, why were they tying Lu Lin up now? He was sure that Lu Lin wasn't putting on a show.

Ye Mo spread out his spirit sense and was soon dazed. He saw that the woman with the scarred face was also coming. She was holding a few throwing knives in her hands while hiding.

Chapter 647: Real and Fake

Other than the woman hiding in a ditch, there were two more people hiding near the banks, and Ye Mo could tell they were from Northern Sand.

The other four didn't wait for long before a subtle humming engine sounded from somewhere down the river. The sound was barely even noticeable.

Hearing it, the four immediately spread out as they watched the river carefully.

It was a small private yacht. As the yacht neared the bank, Ye Mo soon noticed that it was Lu Na and Liang Jun inside.

Lu Na carried a case out, but Liang Jun didn't leave the yacht and stayed on the ship.

"Lu Na, you're trustworthy indeed, but we didn't lie to you either. Your sister is here," Captain Liu said casually as he saw Lu Na get on shore.

Lu Na didn't reply, because even though she saw Lu Lin, Lu Lin was tied up with a piece of cloth in her mouth.

"Sister!" Lu Na felt relieved nonetheless.

Lu Lin struggled and made some sound, but it was useless.

"I've brought your sister here, and we didn't do anything to her. Where is the thing? We will trade at the same time. Of course, if you're willing to come back to Northern Sand, we welcome you girls!" Captain Liu laughed as he grabbed Lu Lin's chest.

Lu Lin immediately looked at Captain Liu in anger and whimpered.

Lu Na sneered, "You're that Captain Liu, right? Don't touch my sister. I brought the thing, but if you dare play any tricks, I can always make the thing in my hand explode."

"Very well, we just want the Qiang-265 data and the Luo Yue interference machine. You give me those, and I'll let you take your sister away immediately," Captain Liu said casually.

Lu Na immediately sneered, "Captain Liu, who do you think I am? I just joined Luo Yue and to be honest, if it wasn't for City Lord Xu being really nice to us, we wouldn't even have had a chance to leave the city. How can I get information on the interference machine? You overestimate me. I'm telling you now: I only have info on Qiang-265. I have the complete data, because my teacher discovered it."

Ye Mo suddenly told Luo Ying to wait and then went towards the yacht.

This Captain Liu was evil indeed - while he was negotiating with Lu Na, the two people hidden by the river had left, and they seemed to be going for Liang Jun.

Captain Liu suddenly ripped the clothes from Lu Lin's mouth, "Your sister isn't cooperating, so I have no other way."

"Don't," Lu Lin dodged captain Liu's hand and called out to her sister, "Nana, who told you to come? I told you I was fine! I didn't tell you to come," Lu Lin shouted worriedly.

"Sister, all is good as long as you're fine. Even if I have to risk my life, I will take you back. Before dad left, he said we should rely on each other for survival. I can't leave you behind!" Lu Na replied with red eyes.

Then Lu Na said to Captain Liu, "Let my sister go, and I'll give the thing to you immediately."

Captain Liu said to Lu Lin, "Persuade your sister. If she doesn't give us the Luo Yue interference machine then don't blame me for killing her too."

"Nana, if you brought it - then give it to him," Lu Lin said while signaling Lu Na with her eyes.

Lu Na didn't know what Lu Lin meant, and just when she was thinking about it, Lu Lin suddenly broke free from Captain Liu and charged towards Lu Na.

Captain Liu and co. were caught off guard and forgot to do anything, while Lu Na reacted immediately and ran to Lu Lin.

Ye Mo sneered. He was sure that Lu Lin had betrayed Lu Na. Otherwise, there was no way that that Captain Liu wouldn't react. But before knowing the exact situation, Ye Mo didn't move.

He really wanted to know how much intel Lu Na had brought out. If Luo Yue's important intel was that easily taken out, then that would mean they had a huge security risk.

However, what everyone didn't expect was that when Lu Lin was still two meters from Lu Na, a flying dagger shot out from a nearby ditch into Lu Lin's throat.

Lu Lin stopped in her tracks, and she subconsciously held her throat. She gurgled before falling to the ground.

"Sister!" Lu Na was dumbfounded by the scene and cried out.

"Nana, I'm right here, I'm not dead. I am your sister Lu Lin, that woman is a fake." A woman in black clothes came out with her eyes staring closely at Captain Liu and co.

Her voice was very coarse.

Ye Mo realized only then that this woman who had her face ruined was Lu Lin. No wonder she had shown such strong hate. Thinking about how that extremely busty woman became a bony woman with a destroyed face, Ye Mo felt a little sad. He knew that it was related to him. If it wasn't for him, Lu Lin wouldn't be in her current state.

"Sister?" Lu Na looked at that extremely thin person and couldn't connect it to her sister.

She was sure that Lu Lin never wore any disguises, so why did this woman say she was her sister? But she could feel the concern this black-clothed woman had for her.

"She underwent plastic surgery?" Lu Lin wondered.

Hearing this, Ye Mo realized it was no wonder he couldn't tell anything before.

"That day when you saw mother, don't tell anyone, only we can know." the black-clothed woman spoke while keeping her eyes on Captain Liu.

"Sister!" Lu Na finally realized that this disfigured person was her sister. She hugged her sister's back and cried.

The moment Lu Na hugged her, Lu Lin knew it wasn't good. Captain Liu and co. pulled out their guns and fired shots. Captain Liu sneered, "Lu Lin, even if you ran away, you still have to pay the price today."

Lu Lin immediately realized that she had been too excited. How could she hug her sister at this time? She would stop her sister from pulling out the knives.

But there was no medicine for regret in this world, and gunshots sounded loud and clear. She could even feel a bullet was flying towards them. She laughed in despair, 'So what if we die, it's worth it to die with Sister!'

However, even after many shots, Lu Lin and Lu Na were shocked to discover that they hadn't been shot and were still standing.

Not far in front of them, a figure stood there. Although it was night, Lu Na still recognized that it was Ye Mo. He had blocked all the bullets and saved them.

Ye Mo looked at the bullets and smiled to Captain Liu, "You're from Northern Sand, right?"

"It's you? Ye Mo, we didn't mess with you, so why are you fighting us again? We've already agreed to your conditions in Jiu Tang, haven't we?" Captain Liu saw Ye Mo, and his heart sunk to the bottom.

Ye Mo suddenly flicked out two bullets, and they pierced the heads of Scorpion and the yellow level tertiary stage man.

Seeing this, Captain Liu's heart went cold. Ye Mo was indeed a slaughter god.

"Didn't mess with me?" Ye Mo sneered and continued, "Who tricked Luo Ying to come to Beijing? Furthermore, Lu Na is a member of Luo Yue, and who tricked her here?"

Captain Liu opened his mouth but couldn't explain anything. He subconsciously looked at the river. Ye Mo sneered, "No need to look for them, they were freed from this world a step earlier than you."

Chapter 648: Qingxue's Anxiety

Captain Liu knew he was over. When he was about to commit suicide, his face was kicked and the poison fell out together with his tooth. Before he fainted, he heard Ye Mo say, "Don't always pull that move. I really want to know what's the difference between you guys and the Black Sun Empire."

Luo Ying came over to Ye Mo's side.

When Lu Na saw Ye Mo, her heart also sunk. She knew her actions meant that she betrayed Luo Yue, but she soon remembered her sister and glanced at her again. When she saw the scars and how her face didn't have a single part of healthy skin, she couldn't help to cry.

At this moment, Liang Jun got off the yacht and came to Ye Mo. He knew Ye Mo, but he could only bow and then stand on the side.

After a long while, Lu Lin moved Lu Na to the side and bowed to Ye Mo, "Ye Mo, I've heard great things of you. Thanks for saving me and my sister."

Lu Na stood behind her sister without saying anything. Ye Mo thought it was strange her behaviour. No matter what, what Lu Na had done was betraying Luo Yue, why didn't she seem truly guilty?

Ye Mo scanned the case and found that other than a bomb, there was only a stack of strange useless papers.

So it was all fake. She had wanted to just take her sister and run without giving away Luo Yue's secrets, but she had underestimated North Sand too much. Even if she had brought the real things, she wouldn't have been able to get away if she hadn't encounter him.

"Sorry." Lu Lin knew that Ye Mo was a part of Luo Yue, but she didn't know which position he was at.

Ye Mo smiled, "Lu Na is one of Luo Yue's scientists. I trusted that she wouldn't actually bring our data."

Although Ye Mo knew that Xu Yuehua wouldn't let people access Luo Yue's secrets easily, Lu Na hadn't even brought the Qiang-265. He was very grateful for that.

Hearing this, Lu Na's eyes turned red. She had never really planned on taking the intel with her. Ye Mo had saved her life and Xu Yuehua treated her like a sister. How could she betray Luo Yue? Furthermore, she knew what spilling Luo Yue secrets meant. It would mean hundreds of thousands of lives.

How could she do that? She had thought Ye Mo would get angry, yet he forgave her without asking anything.

Lu Na didn't explain either. All was good as long as Ye Mo trusted her. She turned around and hugged Lu Lin, "Sister, why are you so skinny? How did these animals torture you? They truly are beasts."

Lu Lin smiled bitterly, "I'm just very happy that I get to see you. The physical pain doesn't mean much to me."

Ye Mo coughed and said, "This also concerns me. If it hadn't been for me, perhaps Lu Lin wouldn't have been tortured."

Lu Lin heard this and shook her head, "We were on different sides at the time, it has nothing to do with you."

Ye Mo didn't explain why it was related to him. He just took out a face preserving pill and said, "This is a face preserving pill, it can heal your face and lets you stay young forever. Take it as compensation."

"Huh!" Lu Lin hadn't expected that she could one day have such a powerful pill. She was dumbfounded.

She had heard of it, of course, but there were very few of them in the world. It was said that the princess of Northern Sand had gotten one, but Northern Sand had to spend many hundred millions to get it.

"Brother Ye, thank you," Lu Na thanked him. Then, she hurried her sister to go inside the yacht and take it.

Seeing that Ye Mo wasn't going to punish them, Liang Jun finally could rest assured. He liked Luo Yue, but Lu Na had to save her sister, so he could only come with her.

After Lu Lin left, Lu Na noticed Luo Ying's presence, which confused her. She knew that Ning Qingxue was Ye Mo's wife, how was he with another woman now? Had he dumped Sister Qingxue?

However, she kept these thoughts for herself, she couldn't ask about it.

...

Half an hour later, Lu Lin took out a mirror and saw her recovered face. She immediately started crying out of happiness. Who would want to have their face destroyed? She was only a little skinnier, but she had much better temperament than before.

"Sister, are you okay now?" Lu Na charged inside and hugged Lu Lin again. Her sister was the only relative she had in this world.

"Where do we go now?" Lu Lin asked.

"Sister, come with Liang Jun and me to Luo Yue. It's really pretty and welcoming." Lu Na immediately thought of Luo Yue. They really didn't have anywhere else to go except there.

Lu Lin looked hopeful, "But, will Ye Mo agree?"

In that moment, Ye Mo walked inside with Luo Ying and smiled, "Of course, you can get a plane to Luo Yue tomorrow."

He had interrogated Captain Liu and the reason why they had gone after Lu Na. They had managed to contact Lu Na from her private social media account. This made Ye Mo feel that they should tighten Luo Yue's network security, but Ye Xing really couldn't do everything by himself.

Yet, Captain Liu was just a pawn and he only knew that the Dai family had joined Northern Sand.

That night, Ye Mo went back to Ning Hai and took his sister Tang Beiwei to Beijing, where he was going to leave her. Luo Yue was about to go to war, and he didn't want Tang Beiwei to be by herself in Ning Hai.

The next morning, Ye Mo went to visit Elder Han and scanned the rare ores' storage. He found another small piece of Geng Metal Essence and Blue Silver Sand.

He then took Luo Ying, Beiwei, Liang Jun and the Lu Sisters to Qing Hong Airport.

As soon as they arrived to the airport, they encountered Li Qiuyang. He had lost a lot of weight, he thanked Ye Mo for saving his life.

Li Qiuyang knew that other than Ye Mo, no one could help him. They weren't that close, yet Ye Mo had really helped him.

The Dai and Qiu family indeed didn't dare go against Ye Mo. They knew that even Northern Sand feared him, and that he had certain status in Luo Yue. Moreover, Ye Mo had just said to let Li Qiuyang go, so they didn't dare not to listen.

Ye Mo rejected Li Qiuyang's invitation because he realized it was his grandfather who was really inviting him.

Li Qiuyang sighed. He knew that the reason Ye Mo had saved him was because he had helped him a few times. It was impossible, at least for now, to ask Ye Mo to help the Li family.

...

There were still a few hours before the plane arrived to Luo Yue Airport but Ning Qingxue had gone very early. She was anxious. She was going to see Luo Ying today, and she hadn't thought of what to say to her aunt yet.

Chapter 649: Together

Immediately after Ye Mo left Beijing, everyone in Beijing got word of what had happened. That mattered especially to the Dai and Qiu family, because if Ye Mo left then that meant that he was keeping his word and wouldn't be intervening in the Beijing matters.

The Li family leader also sighed. Although he knew all along that Ye Mo wouldn't come, he was still very disappointed. If Ye Mo could so much as just have a chat at their house, it would be an immeasurable help even if he did nothing.

But after sighing, the Li family leader also rejoiced. It would make the Dai and Qiu family at least have some concerns that Ye Mo had saved Li Qiuyang.

Regardless, from how Ye Mo was able to order a plane to leave from Beijing to Luo Yue whenever he wished, one could guess that his status wouldn't be low in Luo Yue. After all, Luo Yue had been restricting flights ever since the vandalism at their international stores.

At the same moment, the Ye family was holding a very important meeting. After a few changes, the family leader position had come back to Ye Beirong. Although he really wanted to give it away already, Ye Zifeng whom he had chosen had already gone to Luo Yue.

To be honest, Ye Beirong didn't feel too well about Ye Mo having come to Beijing without visiting the Ye family. He knew that the Ye family owed the three siblings quite a bit.

Ye Wenque was Ye Beiguang's son. Because Ye Wenqi and Ye Wenjin left Beijing and died, he was the most important figure in the second generation.

Thinking similarly, he asked in confusion, "Uncle, Ye Mo is also a part of the Ye family, and the reason why our family is still in Beijing is greatly due to him. I'm sure that he's the reason why they didn't touch the Ye family. And now it is clear that Ye Mo has enmity with the Qiu and Dai family, and he even beats them without concern. Why then, are we still joining them to take on the Li family?"

Other people also looked at Ye Beirong after this question was asked.

Ye Beirong sighed. If Ye Wentian was alive, he would be able to see what his intention was. It seemed the Ye family was really falling.

He still had to answer though, so Ye Beirong said, "So you know that the reason why no one dared challenge the Ye family is due to Ye Mo. Hence without Ye Mo, although we won't be completely taken, we will no longer be able to be a part of the Five Big Families.

I don't think I have to tell you that other people can find out about the problems between us and Ye Mo. And we're just supporting the two families but not really doing anything. They know that too, but even if they know what our intentions are, they can't come and attack an ally. So we can only earn the greatest benefit if we support the two families."

"But if we support the two families, then won't we be fighting the Li family? Ye Mo can't be really happy about that, right?" Ye Wenque asked.

Ye Beirong shook his head, "You still haven't seen the essence of the matter - the Li family won't fight the Ye family. We aren't taking any real action against them and even if we did, they wouldn't fight us. They wouldn't want to leave a bad impression on Ye Mo. As for Ye Mo, he doesn't care about these sort of things at all. And even if he did, no matter what he thought of it, he wouldn't do anything to the Ye family."

Ye Long finally understood what the family leader meant.

The Li family would indeed not use their main force against the Ye family no matter which side the Ye family stood on. They might perhaps even help the Ye family in some ways, so it could be said that this was the best decision.

Knowing what Ye Long thought, Ye Beirong said, "I was very worried before when Luo Yue was developing in Flowing Snake, but now that they moved to Luo Yue and invented the most advanced defense system in the world, I can rest assured. Ye Mo is a prodigy, and everyone in the Ye family, including myself, missed that. It is also normal that Ye Zifeng didn't stay in Beijing as the family leader. It's only right that he and Ye Ling went to help their brother."

Ye Beirong paused - although he also really wanted to go to Luo Yue, he couldn't throw away his face, and his identity didn't allow him to do that. That's why he tried to protect the Ye family. When worst came to worst, they could become a commercial family like the Zhuo family.

The first person Ye Mo and Luo Ying saw when they got off the plane was Ning Qingxue. She seemed lonely standing there. Beside her was Silver, and it flew to Ye Mo as soon as it saw him.

The first feeling Ning Qingxue had when she saw Ye Mo and Luo Ying standing next to each other was that she was an extra. She was sour and wanted to run into Ye Mo's arms, but she couldn't move her legs.

Ye Mo could feel Ning Qingxue's anxiety, so he walked up to her and gently embraced her.

As Ning Qingxue hugged Ye Mo tightly, her mind went blank. She had thought of many possible scenarios for when they saw each other again, but now she didn't know what to say.

She remembered that Luo Ying was also there and immediately got out of Ye Mo's arms to find Luo Ying smiling at her on the side.

Ning Qingxue wiped her eyes and said worriedly to Luo Ying, "Aunty, I, I-"

Luo Ying had gotten a completely different view of Ning Qingxue after hearing about how she had risked her life to save Ye Mo. She walked up to Ning Qingxue naturally and held her hand, "Qingxue, are you still going to call me aunty? You should call me sister from now on."

Ning Qingxue looked up in joy, and all the worry and anxiety she had been having for the past time was gone. Although Ye Mo had told her that Luo Ying would accept her, when this day actually came, she was still full of surprise and joy.

"Sister Luo Ying-" Ning Qingxue's tone was shaky.

"Is it called Silver? It's so pretty!" Luo Ying held Ning Qingxue's hand and looked at Silver while it was hugging Ye Mo.

"En, it's called Silver. Ye Mo said it might be a blue phoenix, but it's plumage hasn't changed color at all," Ning Qingxue said.

Ye Mo held Silver and looked at the two girls next to each other, and his heart surged with an extreme sense of satisfaction.

Tang Beiwei stood at the back and sighed out of relief. She had been worrying about how things would go when Luo Ying and Ning Qingxue met. She didn't want to see either of them hurt.

Xu Yuehua and co. also breathed a sigh of relief. They had all come very early that day, but they knew that it was time for Ye Mo's two wives to meet each other, so they didn't dare interrupt and waited from afar.

Chapter 650: Fighting to be Friends

Tang Beiwei liked Luo Ying more, whereas Ye Ling preferred Ning Qingxue.

Xu Yuehua was very happy that Ye Mo had managed to bring both Lu Na and Liang Jun back. Although they hadn't taken a lot of intel, they had been living in the core sector of Luo Yue - they had seen a lot of things.

No matter how strong-willed a person is, it would be hard for them not to spill anything when being tortured.

Ye Mo really wanted to have a private conversation with Luo Ying and Ning Qingxue, but he knew that Luo Yue was still in trouble. If it was dealt with properly, Luo Yue would keep soaring in the sky; but if not, they would lose everything.

Hence, he gathered at the big meeting room with Xu Ping, Xu Yuehua and the others immediately.

Ning Qingxue and Luo Ying didn't participate in this meeting because they still had a lot of things to talk about. Furthermore, Ning Qingxue was only responsible for the financial sector - she didn't have to participate in these military meetings.

Although Ye Mo frequently left Luo Yue, he knew everything that had been going on. Ye Xing had planned everything, Ye Mo got very happy each time he came back. The basic outline of the city was already built and the air was very fresh - no rotten ocean smell.

If it hadn't been for the impending war, Ye Mo would have taken Luo Ying and Ning Qingxue around.

All the high-level members of Luo Yue were there. Ye Mo was very satisfied with Xu Yuehua's efficiency. He felt that Xu Yuehua had been no ordinary person before and now that he gave her a chance, she performed extremely well.

Although there were a lot of people helping her, her abilities were unquestionable. Ye Mo knew that she had an enemy that made her go to Hong Kong from time to time. She rarely had time to leave her position lately. If he had time, he would ask her who the enemy was. Regardless of who it was, since she was the city lord of Luo Yue, it couldn't be ignored.

"Okay, since everyone is here, we'll let Siter Yuehua start the meeting. Speak as you wish," Ye Mo said.

Ye Mo knew that whether it was going to war or not, they had to decide today. It wasn't good to drag it on.

Ye Mo said first, "According to the message brought back by our negotiation squad, Indonesia has no intentions of apologizing. Philippines are on the same page as them too. They are even mass buying weapons, I think they are threatening us."

"They are small countries, how dare they threaten us? Just send a fleet to annihilate them," Xu Ping said grumpily.

Ye Mo knew that Xu Ping was an ancient martial artist and he wasn't good at commanding battles, but he had had to give him that position. Xu Ping was his second brother, he would never betray him.

As soon as Xu Ping said this, Huang Yinian said, "I support going to war, but our strategy shouldn't just be to send a fleet there."

Xu Yuehua said, "When we first claimed our conditions, the Indonesian officials were very worried. They even said that they would agree if we lowered our demands; however, it's only been a day and their attitude has changed drastically. At the same time, Philippines also joined their side. If we don't react to the outlet incident quickly, perhaps more countries will join their side. So I agree, we need to fight, but how we fight is the key issue."

Ye Mo thought about their words. No one had said it, but he knew that there was someone supporting Indonesia from the shadows. Who was it? America? Or was it some other country?

"The Union stated that we and Indonesia should control our emotions and leave the problem up to negotiation. That we shouldn't start a war so easily," Yu Miaodan said.

"Funny! 'We shouldn't start a war so easily'?! They saying this to us? If we don't do anything, what if they attack us instead? I think that if we're going to fight, we should use do Germany's way: finish them with a lightning war," Guo Qi said.

"That works for other countries, but not Indonesia - they're an island country. We only have 20,000 troops. I think we should gather our power and throw a heavy blow to one target," Sherman said.

Xu Yuehua nodded, but she didn't say anything and just stared at Ye Xing.

"I actually agree with Brother Xu and Sherman. Our newest interference machine is now ready for mobile warfare. It's attached to the Luo Tian Carrier Ship. If we needed to attack an island, we wouldn't even need to go covertly. We could just throw bombs at them," Ye Xing looked at Xu Yuehua and smiled.

When Ye Xing finished talking, the entire meeting room fell silent. After a while, Huang Yinian screamed, "Chief Engineer Ye, did you succeed?"

When they recalled the last war, everyone's blood boiled. It was because they had the most advanced interference machine that they had managed to suppress the allied army.

"Yet, most of our bombs are from Russia and Germany. We can build some defense missiles, but we can't mass produce offensive missiles. We still need some time, and the time we have is very short," Ye Xing said again.

Before anyone said anything, Ye Xing sneered, "If I had some time, we wouldn't even need to send a fleet there to defeat them. I can make a bomb that they won't be able to defend themselves of."

Ye Mo believed that Ye Xing could do it, but they had to fight that war. If Luo Yue was harassed by Indonesia and Philippines and they didn't fight back, they would lose the reputation they had built and more and more countries would do the same.

In another two years, when Luo Yue stabilised, other countries wouldn't even be able to face Luo Yue.

He nodded, "No one can treat Luo Yue like this. We must fight Indonesia and Philippines. As for how we fight, I trust that Ye Xing has other steadier ways, but we're trying to show our dominance this time so we must do it in the most direct and domineering way. We'll let them know that they can't challenge Luo Yue so easily. Let those clowns who support them understand it too. As for how to fight, I agree with Sherman's method. There's only the Indian Ocean between us, we'll take one of their islands first."

Then, Ye Mo looked at everyone, "Which island should we attack first?"

Huang Yinian smiled, "If it's taking over a place, it'll be quite easy. Bali Island is perfect. It's not small, and it's Indonesia's main tourist attraction. It brings Indonesia large amounts of income each year. If we take that place, the Indonesian officials will have to comply."

Everyone agreed to this.
