Chapter 112: The Room Card Is in My Pocket

Leah Thorne looked up, and the handsome, jade-like face of Justin Xavier enlarged in her vision. He had arrived beside her at some point, now standing with one hand in his pocket, looking down at her.

The two bosses smiled and said,

Young Master Xavier, you're here?

Indeed, where Beauty Thorne is, Young Master is sure to follow.

Young Master, we were just saying that if Beauty Thorne loses in cards, you would definitely pick up the tab.

Justin Xavier took his large hand out of his pocket and rested it on the back of Leah Thorne's chair. He looked at Leah kindly, "Just play around, I'll pick up the tab."

Leah fluttered her eyelashes like fan wings, "Brother, I can earn money now and pay my own tab. From now on, you should pay for your wife instead. I'm ultimately an outsider, and I'll find someone to pick up my tab eventually."

Listening to this, Justin Xavier's cold black eyes quickly darkened.

Haha Young Master Xavier, Beauty Thorne is distancing herself from you.

Beauty Thorne is grown up after all, wanting to fall in love.

Young Master, see she's not someone you can keep, she'll eventually become someone else's.

Leah did not look at the man beside her anymore; she focused her gaze on the cards in her hand.

At this moment Seth Hawthorne came over, "Justin, it's your birthday today, let's have some fun. The cat girls I prepared for you put in a lot of effort to choreograph a dance, and now they'll perform for you."

Justin Xavier withdrew his gaze from Leah Thorne and returned to the sofa. His handsome face showed little expression, but he seemed even colder, coated in a layer of frost.

Then everyone hooted, "Young Master Hawthorne, what are we waiting for, let them come out and dance!"

Seth Hawthorne snapped his fingers, and the cat girls appeared, the foremost being... Erica Hawthorne.

Erica had already changed into her dancing outfit. Her figure was quite mesmerizing, now bending and swaying as she looked at Justin Xavier with glances full of springtime.

Seth did not expect his sister to sneak in; he directly rolled his eyes.

Leah also saw Erica, then she turned to look at Justin Xavier on the sofa, "Brother, it looks like all these cat girls are fond of you. How about this, whoever dances the best will get a good reward from you tonight."

Justin Xavier looked at Leah, the corner of his crimson lips curving into a cool arc, "What reward do you suggest?"

"Brother, where's your room key? Whoever dances the best will get the room key as a reward."

Everyone quickly stirred and cheered,

Beauty Thorne's suggestion is brilliant, Young Master is single after all, been single for so long isn't it worrying that it could affect his health?

You all dance well, whoever dances best will go to Young Master's room tonight, Young Master has his own rewards.

Justin Xavier took out a cigarette, lit it leisurely, and took a drag. He looked towards Leah and exhaled the smoke slowly, "Alright, the key is in my pocket, come and get it."

Leah, "..."

"What's wrong? Didn't you want me to play with them? How come you're unwilling to come take a room key?" With that, Justin's cool black eyes glanced at the cat girls, smiling gently and subtly, "See, it's not that I don't want to play with you, it's just that the key can't be pulled out. My sister says she wants me to play with you, but she actually doesn't want to."

Erica immediately looked at Leah angrily, she also thought Leah was speaking hypocritically, intentionally stopping Justin from interacting with other women.

Beauty Thorne, that's your mistake. We all know you and Young Master have a good relationship, but a sister is a sister, doesn't your brother need to find a wife?

Through these years Young Master has always centered around you, and it's rare for Young Master to have a birthday today, can't you let your brother relax?

Beauty Thorne, with a sister like you, I think Young Master will never find a wife.

Leah clenched her fists tightly, knowing she had angered him just now. This cultured rogue, making her put her hand in his pocket to get the key was completely intentional, and he cunningly pushed her into the storm of gossip at the front!

"Fine, for my brother's happiness, I'll get it."

Leah bent down, reached her small hand into Justin Xavier's pocket.

She tried to avoid any contact with his body, but her soft fingertip still brushed against his firm thigh muscle, she felt his muscle suddenly tense, like a stone.

Leah searched around, then frowned, "Where's the key, I couldn't find it."

Justin Xavier lowered his handsome eyes, his voice carrying a slight hoarse tone, "Reach down a bit more."

Leah reached down more.

"Try reaching further inside."

Leah reached further in.

But didn't find anything.

Leah looked at Justin Xavier, their faces somehow had gotten close, she was met with his crimson-black eyes now flickering with intense flames.

Leah quickly realized, she had been tricked!

Withdrawing her hand, Leah stood upright.

Justin Xavier looked at her, leisurely extinguishing the cigarette butt in the ashtray, "Sorry, I forgot the key isn't with me."

Leah, "..."

He was toying with her!

"However, I keep my word. I'll play with you today, and whoever dances the best, I'll give her the key."

Everyone was waiting for his reply, Seth Hawthorne laughed, "Since Justin has agreed to play together with everyone, you better dance well, who dances the best gets Justin's room key tonight."

Music started playing, Erica and the cat girls began to dance.

Erica practically used all her tricks to dance, using her mesmerizing figure to enchant, throwing flirtatious glances at Justin, she was determined to get this room key.

The young and beautiful girls dancing made everyone enjoy, Justin Xavier glanced at them indifferently, then someone remarked, "I remember Beauty Thorne also danced this fire once, it went viral across the internet then."

Erica and the cat girls were dancing fire, which Leah had performed before.

As part of Serena and Leah, Serena Sterling was skilled in dance, Leah naturally so too; a year ago Leah was invited to a TV station's program once, where she performed a short segment of fire, it went viral on Weibo and was clipped into various GIFs spreading wildly, Leah had ignited this fire dance popularity.

Now in many entertainment venues, even at Justin's birthday party today, Erica and these cat girls were dancing fire.

Applause sounded, a fire dance had finished.

Miss Hawthorne, you danced really well, you are definitely the best here.

Young Master, the dance has finished, you should make a choice.

Next is the revealing moment, let's see who Young Master will give the room key to.
