Chapter 355: She Had a Miscarriage

Tiana's interview was quickly arranged, and Serena watched it in the Bayside radio station office.

Tiana tearfully confessed in front of the camera, "I have a pure relationship with Old Man Knight. I just admire him as an elder. I believe Old Man Knight is an idol for many, and I have no romantic feelings for him. I already have a boyfriend, and I am pregnant."

Tiana produced a hospital confirmation of her pregnancy, showing she truly was pregnant.

This evidence was absolutely explosive, highly convincing.

The reporter asked, "So this is the truth of the matter, how do you explain the clip that everyone heard during your audition at A University radio station?"

Tiana wiped her tears, "I was framed, the person who framed me was Serena Sterling. She took advantage of me and gave me an injection when I wasn't paying attention, causing me to lose my mind and do things I wasn't even aware of!"

"Why would Serena want to harm you?"

"Everyone knows that Serena and I used to be very good friends at A University. Later, on the day of the Academy selection competition, she had an accident, and I was selected into the Academy. So she has always held a grudge against me, and now she is retaliating against me, and she even involved the esteemed Old Man Knight."

Serena calmly finished watching, then turned off the video and walked out of the radio station.

Walking outside, everyone in the Academy was watching her, pointing fingers behind her.

Look, that's Serena Sterling!

Who knew she could be so petty, always holding a grudge against Tiana, and even dragged our Old Man Knight into it. Her scheme is way too deep.

Let's stay far away from her; being around her, we wouldn't survive two episodes.

Serena showed no expression, her demeanor indifferent, as though she couldn't see the crowd watching.

Then, a clear and pleasant voice sounded in her ear, "Serena."

Serena looked up to see Zane Crawford had arrived.

The girls watching sighed, pounding their chests in frustration. Why, why does Academician Crawford like someone as bad as Serena Sterling?!

Serena curved her red lips, "Zane, why are you here?"

Zane raised his hand to ruffle Serena's long hair in a doting manner, "I came to see our Academy's big celebrity. Serena, you've just arrived and already caused an earthquake at the Academy. Now everyone wants to admire you."

The girls watching looked at the elegant Zane Crawford being so affectionate towards Serena and went mad, screaming for Academician Crawford to wake up. Serena Sterling is at most the villainess in your life. Come find your heroine here.

Right now, Zane wanted to open Serena's small head to see what was inside, why she always had such little schemes, "Serena, Old Man Knight is so old, how did you think of giving him a romantic scandal, and with Anabelle Rathborne's first audition, you really gave her a grand gift. In the Academy's radio station, you dare play like this, they definitely won't let you off!"

Serena has always been someone who pays back in kind. Some time ago, Old Man Knight and Tiana teamed up, stabbing her in the back, sending her to those men in black. If Serena's dad hadn't arrived in time, she would have been ruined.

The battle between her and Old Man Knight, Yvonne Knight, Anabelle Rathborne, and Tiana had already begun. If she didn't strike back, she wouldn't survive three episodes.

Did Tiana give her an injection? Then she would return the favor!

Didn't Anabelle Rathborne want to direct a drama about the official wife tearing the mistress in her audition to achieve fame? Then she would let everyone listen to a scandal about Old Man Knight to make her famous, letting A University radio station become a household name.

Didn't Old Man Knight want to ruin her reputation? Then she might as well ruin his, letting the prestigious Academy's head become the subject of everyday gossip.

As for Yvonne Knight, she probably thought the radio station wasn't lively enough, so Serena would perform a grand show here to make it truly lively.

No one who provoked Serena could escape.

Serena tilted her exquisite face to look at Zane Crawford beside her, "I know, Tiana's interview was their powerful counterattack."

"So how will you respond next?" Zane asked.

Serena raised an elegant eyebrow, then simply uttered one word, "Wait."

Wait?

Zane looked at her composed yet mysterious expression, "Wait for what?"

"Wait to see what Old Man Knight and Tiana have in store, and also wait for a person."

Serena was waiting for a person!

When Zane was in Bayside, he felt Serena was like a book; if you didn't turn the page, you would never know what she hid next. Such a girl was extremely attractive, making one want to explore and dive deep.

"Serena, who are you waiting for?"

She was waiting for the person who sent her the sealed file last time; she was waiting for... Seth Sullivan!

The sealed file about Tiana, namely the last page, revealed the secret in Tiana's heart; Tiana liked Old Man Knight.

When Serena used this point, she was also testing the truthfulness of the news, and she found out it was true.

If she guessed it right, Tiana never told anyone else this secret, so how did Seth Sullivan know?

Serena had always been curious about who Seth Sullivan was, what role he played over the years, and now where was he?

Serena could sense Seth Sullivan was always watching her life. He seemed to know everything about her.

That feeling was so... terrible; Serena wanted to drag Seth Sullivan out!

But Serena couldn't tell Zane Crawford about these things; she playfully winked, "It's a secret for now, just an old acquaintance."

Zane didn't press further, "Serena, shall we have dinner together?"

"Not tonight, I need to go back to the radio station."

"Why are you going back again?"

"If I don't go back, how will their drama continue? This matter isn't over for them, nor for me. Let's go."
Serena waved her hand and left.

Zane stood in place, watching her graceful figure. At that moment, he felt she was like a kite flying high in the sky; he couldn't grasp her because she would fly higher and higher.

...

Serena returned to the radio station and, indeed, there was a huge commotion.

Her office at D University radio station was opened, and a group of people was rummaging through it. Yvonne Knight and Anabelle Rathborne were also there.

Serena curved her red lips, "What are you looking for? This is my office. Rifling through my things is an invasion of privacy, isn't it?"

Anabelle quickly stepped forward, with an imposing air, "Serena, Tiana had a miscarriage, she was given miscarriage drugs!"
