Chapter 361: I Had Plastic Surgery!

Sean's sudden appearance startled both Yvonne Knight and Annabelle Rathborne. They had meticulously planned this media conference, and an unexpected development like this signified an unpredictable variable. Just now, Serena Sterling had already forcibly turned the tide, and with Sean joining in, it was definitely not a good thing.

Yvonne quickly said, "Sean, you're just in time. Tiana Ford's baby is gone, and the culprit is Serena Sterling!"

Tiana picked up the cue and immediately ran to Sean's side, grabbing his arm, "Sean, I've had a miscarriage, and my stomach hurts so much now. Please take me away from here."

Sean coldly looked at Tiana and directly pushed her away, "Tiana, do you really have no idea how the baby died?"

Tiana froze.

No, he shouldn't know, should he?

At this moment, the reporters started questioning Sean, asking if there was more to Tiana's claim that Serena Sterling had caused her miscarriage with abortion pills.

Sean sneered, "She's not wrong that the baby was killed by abortion pills, but those pills weren't given by Serena Sterling; they were used by Tiana herself!"

What?

The entire venue was shocked. Was Tiana the one who aborted her own baby with the pills?

Everyone knows even a beast doesn't eat its young, yet Tiana killed her own baby? How is that possible?

Tiana's face turned ashen, and she immediately denied it, "Sean, what nonsense are you spouting? This was my child; why would I kill him?"

"Tiana, what's this then?" Sean pulled out some photos, "These are pictures of you buying abortion pills on the black market, caught in the act. If you still don't admit it, I have the bank records of your transactions!"

Tiana looked at those photos, trembling all over. How could this be? How did Sean know all this?

It's true, she used those abortion pills herself and personally bought them from the black market. This time, she wanted to bury Serena Sterling, so she meticulously handled every detail without any external help. She was sure it wouldn't be discovered.

But how did Sean know, and how does he even have evidence?

Irrefutable evidence, how could she argue against it?

The media reporters were thrilled as the truth unfolded before them, focusing their lenses on Tiana's face,

Tiana, so it was all orchestrated by you; you even killed your own child, that's too cruel.

Tiana, why would you do something like this, was it to frame Serena Sterling?

Tiana, what's really going on between you and Old Man Knight, do you truly have feelings for Old Man Knight?

The questions came one after another, and Tiana knew she was done for. Her legs gave way, and she collapsed into a disgraceful heap on the ground.

Sean looked at Tiana and let out a cold snort, "If you want to know what's between her and Old Man Knight, just take a good look at my face, and it'll become clear?"

Everyone quickly turned to Sean. In doing so, they noticed how strikingly similar Sean's face was to that of the young Old Man Knight!

Sean continued, "Have you noticed the resemblance between me and Old Man Knight? Actually, I had plastic surgery! I loved Tiana so much, and when we were so close, she made a request of me. She asked me to undergo surgery to look just like a photo she had of Old Man Knight when he was young!"

Pain flashed in Sean's eyes, "Tiana, I loved you so much that I even got surgery at your request. It's bad enough that you looked down on me, but you shouldn't have killed our child. The moment the child was gone, so were we!"

Oh my god!

The entire room was astounded. It turned out Tiana truly did have feelings for Old Man Knight, and it was to such a mad and obsessive extent that she even had her boyfriend undergo surgery to look like Old Man Knight when he was young!

Nobody expected this media conference to take such a shocking turn. It was explosive, and everyone turned their microphones toward Yvonne Knight and Annabelle Rathborne,

Director Knight, did you know the truth of the matter, were you deceived by Tiana, or did you conspire with her to harm Serena Sterling?

Director Knight, since Tiana had such feelings for Old Man Knight, did Old Man Knight reciprocate in any way?

Miss Annette, it's well known that you and Serena Sterling have always been rivals. Today Serena Sterling attended despite being ill and injured, was it the two of you behind the scenes working against her? The Academy of Sciences and the radio station are both controlled by the Knight family. In retrospect, it would be fortunate if Serena Sterling wasn't bullied when she intervened alone, so how could she have made such a big scene unless you two were collectively suppressing and persecuting her?

Yvonne Knight and Annabelle Rathborne were stunned in place. Originally, Serena's surprising moves today had already thrown their plans into chaos, and they never expected Sean, Tiana's boyfriend, to suddenly appear.

With Sean holding the concrete evidence, Tiana was utterly defeated.

As Tiana fell, the Knight family, who attended jointly today, were inevitably drawn into the flames.

Today's media conference was a total loss, utterly and completely.

Yvonne Knight realized that Tiana had become a worthless pawn, and could only minimize the damage to the Knight family and extricate herself successfully.

Yvonne quickly reacted, harshly condemning Tiana, "Tiana, I never imagined you were this kind of person; we've all been deceived by you!"

Saying this, Yvonne walked over to Serena Sterling, affectionately taking her hand, "Serena Sterling, it seems we've all misunderstood you. You are innocent; Tiana deceived us all!"

Serena Sterling still looked pale, her bright, wide eyes soft and timid, looking at Yvonne fearfully and evasively, quite innocent and puzzled, asking, "Director... Director Knight, now... what should I say?"

"..." Yvonne nearly choked, realizing that it would have been simple for the Knight family to distance themselves, but Serena Sterling didn't play along, and even delivered a hefty blow!

Annette was furiously angry. This Serena Sterling had ruined everything planned for today, and now acted innocent like a demure flower, leaving Annette fuming with rage and itching to tear Serena Sterling to shreds.

"Serena Sterling!" Annette couldn't hold back her anger any longer, shouting out.

Serena Sterling flinched in fear, quickly retracting her hand from Yvonne's grip, and started incessantly bowing and apologizing to Annette, "Miss Annette, please don't be angry, I'm at fault, it's all my fault, I shouldn't have spoken out of line."

The scene left everyone buzzing, pointing directly at Yvonne and Annette,

They're so brazen, aren't they? They're bullying Serena Sterling like this right in front of us; poor Serena Sterling.

Shh, be quiet, we can't afford to offend the Knight family.

Yvonne and Annette were instantly infuriated, and Serena Sterling looked at them pitifully, "I'm being very obedient, so nothing unexpected will happen to me again in the Academy of Sciences... right?"

What Serena Sterling implied was first, she had experienced mishaps before, and second, if something unexpected happens to her again, it must have been orchestrated by the Knight family, so everyone should bear witness to that.
