Chapter 418: Cardiac Arrest

The people outside also wanted to follow inside, but they were already stopped by layers of security guards at the door, "Sorry, this is a medical area, no entry for non-essential personnel."

...

Felix Knight had been drinking tea all along, and in fact, he had been waiting for several hours, but he showed no impatience and appeared calm and collected.

At this moment, Old Man Knight and Pearl Nightingale approached, and upon seeing Felix, Pearl Nightingale seemed to have found the last straw to clutch at, immediately rushing over to grasp Felix's arm, "Brother, something's happened, Aunt Yvonne got taken away, my wedding was disrupted, and Serena Sterling brought Zane Crawford here!"

Felix showed no surprise in his expression; these hours were enough for Serena Sterling to wreak havoc at a wedding. His aunt, Anabelle Rathborne, Aurora Nightingale, their intelligence was not online; none of them were a match for Serena Sterling.

It seems Serena Sterling had captured these women all at once in the wedding.

However, this does not affect anything. In Felix's view, these individuals were insignificant actors; their failure and fate wouldn't influence his plans.

At this moment, Serena Sterling entered with Raina and several researchers, Felix raised his eyes and immediately saw Serena Sterling in a white lab coat and the work badge on her chest. His expression slightly changed, "I've been wondering what the relationship between you and X is. It turns out you are X; you are Professor Summer!"

Felix's biggest mystery had been solved; Serena Sterling was indeed the medical legend, X, no wonder the power behind her was so mysterious and strong.

She not only knew medicine, but her medical skills were astonishing.

Seraphina Linden's daughter was born a medical prodigy.

Serena Sterling looked at Felix Knight, smiling lightly, "Young Master Knight, sorry to keep you waiting. Now that I've brought Zane Crawford here, I plan to use acupuncture to extract the poison from his body."

Felix's pale and sickly handsome face revealed a sinister yet excited twisted grin, "Serena Sterling, the poison has already infiltrated Zane Crawford's organs and veins; do you think you can extract it?"

Serena Sterling's bright eyes looked at Felix, "Whether I can or not, how will we know without trying?"

Serena Sterling walked to Zane Crawford, who lay unconscious.

Zelda Willow had been standing aside, and when she heard Felix admit to poisoning Zane Crawford, anger shook her, her eyes blazed, "The Knight family goes too far; you dare target my son. From now on, the Crawford and Knight families will be like this jade pendant, at odds!"

Zelda Willow threw a jade pendant harshly to the ground. As a crisp and piercing sound rang out, the jade pendant shattered on impact.

Pearl Nightingale's face turned pale; this pendant was her engagement token with Zane Crawford. Now that Zelda Willow had shattered it, she and Zane Crawford lost their possibility because the Crawford and Knight families officially broke ties!

Old Man Knight's face had been grim throughout; he glanced at Zelda Willow and then laid his gaze on Jude Crawford behind Zelda. Jude hadn't spoken at all; however, his deep eyes quietly looked at him, with a calm that harbored storms capable of destroying everything.

In truth, Old Man Knight never understood one thing about Jude Crawford. He seemed indifferent to Zelda Willow, yet he adored her son, Zane Crawford.

Now that Felix's poisoning of Zane Crawford was exposed and confirmed, Jude Crawford had tacitly agreed to the Crawford and Knight families' split and rivalry.

For a long time, the four major families of Aethelgard coexisted without interference, but now the balance had been broken.

For the sake of his beloved son Zane Crawford, Jude Crawford had already aimed his firepower at the Knight family.

Old Man Knight roughly understood why Serena Sterling had invited Jude Crawford and Zelda Willow; this was exactly her plan. Her mind was intricate and flawless, truly impressive!

Serena Sterling approached Zane Crawford, donning white gloves. At this point, Raina handed over a Golden Needle, "Professor Summer, this surgery is extremely dangerous; the poison has already infiltrated Academician Crawford's organs and veins. Once the Golden Needle opens the vein gate, the poison will instantly invade his heart, and once the heart is infected, life will rapidly decline."

Everyone present felt the danger of this surgery, and all eyes instantly fell on Serena Sterling.

At this moment, Felix spoke up, "Serena Sterling, you need to think carefully; once this needle goes in, there's no turning back. Zane Crawford's life is in your hands."

Serena Sterling did not look at Felix; she simply took the Golden Needle from Raina's hand and began the procedure.

The Golden Needle had just pierced the acupoint; then, with a "ding", the heart monitor next to them quickly emitted a shrill alarm.

Only to see Zane Crawford's heart stop!

As soon as Serena Sterling used acupuncture, Zane Crawford lost his heartbeat. Zelda Willow was terrified, screaming, and ran forward, "Serena Sterling, you killed my son's life!"

Zelda Willow wanted to rush over to Serena, but at this moment, a slender hand reached out, grabbing Zelda, and a chilling displeased voice sounded in her ear, "Don't disturb her!"

Zelda Willow turned back, directly bumping into Hayden Crawford's piercing, deep, narrow eyes. It was he who had grabbed her!

"Hayden Crawford, why are you stopping me; my son's heartbeat is gone, Zane is dead, are you happy? I suspect this is a conspiracy between you and Serena Sterling, both wanting my son dead!" Zelda Willow lost her senses, screaming crazily.

Hayden pushed with his hand, directly shoving Zelda Willow into Jude Crawford's arms, his thin lips pressed as he warned in a deep voice, "Keep this madwoman quiet, or I'll have her thrown out!"

Zelda Willow looked fearfully at the overbearing Hayden Crawford; he dared... dared to be so arrogant?

"Jude, our Zane..."

Jude Crawford held Zelda Willow, "Zane is not dead."

What?

Zelda Willow was shocked, not understanding what Jude Crawford was saying, Zane's heartbeat clearly stopped!

Meanwhile, Felix and Old Man Knight had already stepped forward, intrigued by Serena Sterling's acupuncture technique.

Raina exclaimed with joy, "Professor Summer, Golden Needle piercing the heart, you truly use such ancient acupuncture techniques!"

Golden Needle piercing the heart, Serena Sterling used the Golden Needle to seal Zane Crawford's heart veins, causing his heartbeat to temporarily stop, creating the appearance of false death.

Only this way could the poison be prevented from invading Zane Crawford's heart veins.

Golden Needle piercing the heart is an ancient divine skill that forcibly freezes the flow of life, defying fate.

Serena Sterling, focused with her long lashes downcast, her exquisite profile in the light radiating the sheen of precious jade as she swiftly applied a silver needle, quickly drawing black blood to drip from Zane Crawford's finger.
